

No Chance 160

Chapter 160 Vanity and Greed

Linda shook her head adamantly. "I didn't..."

Shirley was anxious and angry. She finally understood what was going on. Thus, she gritted her teeth and said, "It is all part of Elisa's tricks! She deliberately mentioned before us that she was buying a present for Grandma. She caused us to misunderstand and think she was planning to gift it to Old Madam Wickam! Linda and I thought Old Madam Wickam likes this kind of bracelet, and Linda had searched so hard for them. Yet..."

At this point, Shirley felt they had no choice but to reveal everything in hope of removing the blame on them.

However, Rachel chuckled. "My grandmother likes this style of bracelet. Elisa is my best friend, so she bought the bracelet and gave it to my grandmother for her birthday yesterday! Do you two have no shame? Instead of figuring out the right gift yourself, you decided to steal Elisa's idea!"

Elisa looked at Rachel and shook her head. "That's enough, Rachel..."

Her voice was soft, but it was still audible to the people sitting nearby.

and Shirley seethed thought we have a chance to get on Old Madam Wickam's good side at this banquet. Instead, that b*tch fell for her tricks pointless to explain. Thus, she looked at Julia and coincidence that you bought the same gift. When Elisa bought the gift, both of you weren't around. After all these accusations, it turns out you were even paler than before. She shook her head

you mean by having the same mind means secretly watching

Linda was rendered speechless.

not speak a word. All she looked

out she is only

all these things against her! What a joke! Thankfully, they exposed her.