

No Chance 162

Chapter 162 Return to My Side?

"One was willing to fight, one was willing to suffer." Jeremy, who had been silent for a while, said softly.

Vincent chuckled and refuted, "You can't say that. Linda obviously just had it coming to her."

...

At that moment, Elisa had already helped Julia to the lounge. Julia was devastated, so Elisa sat beside Julia and said softly, "Grandma, I know that you always feel sad on the same day every year, but... it has been so many years. Can't you try to forget about it?"

Julia's heart was trembling. She raised her head and looked at Elisa, "Elisa, I will never get over it. You will never understand until you experience it..."

said solemnly, "Grandma, do you know the reason I went up the mountain and kneeled for this the jade toad. The jade toad is really great for

have no regret even if I die

Monica's hand tightly. "Grandma, you are the only one who treats me with kindness. You became already failing due to her depression. If this continues...

not discussing her adventure with the Wickam family, but she was really afraid that her grandmother would pass away. Grandma and grandpa were so loved up. They had plenty of children and grandchildren who loved them selfish. Grandma was her only support.

related by blood, Grandma has always treated Elisa as her beg you. Please let

in her eyes when she saw Elisa squatting

will never leave you." Julia comforted