

No Chance 167

Chapter 167 How Can He Walked on One Foot?

Vincent laughed and replied, "You have absolutely no idea what I just saw!"

Jeremy frowned and remained silent. He was waiting patiently for his response.

Vincent leaned over to Jeremy and whispered, "I saw scratches on Gareth's shiny shoe. I believe Elisa put a lot of effort while stepping on his shoes! He looked totally deflated!"

Jeremy was shocked. Elisa must be his nightmare.

A total nightmare.

And a knot in his heart.

Vincent was in a good mood, "I've never seen him looking so wretched. But I didn't see her when I went out just now."

He was referring to Elisa.

When Jeremy raised his head, he saw Gareth walking in.

He was alone. Elisa had not gone back.

long while. Gareth frowned. What eaten half of her noodles. She was finally in a good mood. Darren breathed a sigh of relief frowned and looked at again. It has been ten minutes since I sit down. She should have reached here even if she was

"Did you

coldly,

one being bullied, and I am the one nervously, "She must be in

was trying to match

creating opportunities for them to meet didn't want to, as he was outraged by Elisa's harsh words toward him just now. "She has legs. She up his chopsticks and prepared to good mood just now. If Elisa goes missing, I'll kill you! It's so late now, and she's alone outside. Aren't you worried? Find her immediately! Otherwise, I'm canceling this Gareth was speechless.

calm himself down. After a situation. They had already divorced. What is that evil woman so much scheming and fighting against the