

No Chance 176

Chapter 176 Go Find Out What's Wrong with Her

Rachel held a beer in her hand as she danced around the room. Sheena chortled loudly without a care in the world.

Elisa had drunk quite a lot. She leaned back into the couch and rubbed her temples.

Carle was the only one who was sober.

He slowly moved closer to her. He took the bottle away from her and handed her a glass of water. "If you drink anymore, your head is going to feel worse."

Elisa could barely open her eyes. Her face was flushed from drinking. "Okay," She giggled.

She was tipsy but she still had her senses intact.

She slowly stood up. "I need to go to the toilet."

door had shut behind her. Elisa was about to walk out frowned in not that drunk.

had a slight headache, but she could still walk without any issue. Carle frowned, restrooms. The karaoke rooms were designed so that each private room had their own toilets.

Therefore, not many people had to use the public ones. Elisa washed her hands and exited the toilets.

She wasn't paying attention and Ring...

was already hurting before, and the scent of alcohol that came from her. He caught her to prevent her from falling to her senses. She took a step back and blurted out for us to keep bumping into each other. Have you

Elisa disliked drinking as drinking

Elisa was still rubbing her temples, he frowned. "What are you doing drinking so

took another

her friends' fun. But it had been a good day for her, and she was in a good mood. Grandma had also gotten over that issue. Which was why