

No Chance 185

Chapter 185 He Will be Lonely

In order to make Linda be recognized by the Wickam family, Monica suppressed her hatred for Elisa and admitted that she was a part of their family as well.

Nevertheless, such an acknowledgment was a peculiar one.

Even though she claimed that both Elisa and Linda were part of their family, Elisa had become Julia's granddaughter. On the other hand, Linda was not acknowledged by Julia, and Monica did not take her in as her own daughter. Hence, Monica's words implied that Linda would be Gareth's wife in the future.

This time around, Julia did not retaliate. Instead, she merely said, "Let's wait until Ms. Benett marries Gareth."

Upon hearing that, Monica looked at her in awe. She actually didn't object? In the past, she would have directly announced that Elisa is the only granddaughter-in-law that she acknowledges. But now... she has changed? Do we have a chance?

Even Linda looked at Julia in shock. She seems to have changed her mind after visiting the temple.

Both of them looked at Elisa simultaneously, thinking that she did not annoy them as much as before.

around, she asked,

at Julia, who replied, "He him again. Is it because of Elisa that he refuses to stay for lunch?

thoughts. "Ah, if that's

I like the way it is right now. You are my grandmother, not even regard the Benett family as her

she patted Elisa on the back. "Good settled down at the dining table

did not exist, and she even smiled at Julia as she took some food for Julia nodded with a smile.

added, "Yeah, Grandma. Now that your children and grandchildren are established, you just replied with a polite hum, showing no intentions of having had happened the day before. To begin with, she already thought of Linda as a rather promiscuous woman; after what transpired the night before, her