

No Chance 186

Chapter 186 He Will Never Forget This

Elisa smiled. "If that's the case, I'll fetch you over to my place when he's away on a business trip in the future."

"You are so thoughtful, Elisa." Julia was delighted to hear that; a genuine smile formed on her face. During the meal, Elisa had been chatting with her all along. Their relationship was warm and loving.

On the other hand, Monica and Linda, who were sitting opposite to them, looked like they were outsiders. Even though Linda wanted to explain the situation that happened last night, Julia's attention was completely focused on Elisa, not sparing her a second glance at all. She remembered her parents' advice from the day before; it was better not to bring it up first and put on a generous act. Hence, she suppressed her urge to do so after a moment of hesitation.

To her, the meal was bland and non-eventful.

Yet, Elisa and Julia were enjoying it, and the former was full from the food.

However, because she still had to work, she smiled at Julia before saying, "Grandma, I need to get going now. I will visit you when I'm free."

you don't have to accompany me. I know that young people your age understood that at Julia's age, the most important thing to her was the company of people. However, Darren, Gareth, and Jerry were always busy, and Monica often defied her wishes.

she walked outside without even she quickly looked at Monica and while Monica smiled and said, "Have a safe shot Linda a deep look, clearly reminding her of their froze slightly and left after giving her

Elisa was already in the car, she quickly walked to her and opened you give me a ride?" Linda beamed reply, Linda hopped onto

by the door, Elisa smiled at Julia before driving immediately. Seeing that the car