

No Chance 190

Chapter 190 A Sudden Death

Before knowing this, all she wanted was just to live her life and take back the control of the Benett family so that her father's efforts so far would not lay in the wrong hands.

However, she finally realized that he did not die from critical illnesses.

If Norman and the rest played a part in his death, I will not rest until I send them to jail!

She took a deep breath. It seems like I need to head back to the Benett family soon, but it won't be today for sure.

She drove directly to the law firm. When the rest of the lawyers saw the icy look on her face, they did not dare to greet her. Even Albert was exceptionally quiet on this day.

When Charli saw her, she asked, "What's wrong? Did something happen at Lumineer Temple?"

After all, she knew that Elisa had brought Julia to the temple in the morning before this.

"No." Elisa shook her head.
