Chapter 193 Her Previous Seat

Taken aback, everyone looked at him in shock. “For real? What did Master Iris say?” a lawyer next to him asked.

Albert smiled. “That I missed the main point, which is the seventh point.”

“What’s the main point then?” Jennifer quickly asked.

Albert opened his handwritten notes and pointed at the seventh index. With a sigh, he said, “I wrote this myself, but I didn’t notice it, and I didn’t dive deeper into it. No matter how prepared the opponent is, they still broke the law. I landed myself into a dead end.”

Their expressions changed slightly when the rest of them saw what he pointed out. “Sure enough, Iris is impressive.”

The lawyers who worked in this law firm were already elites in their field. On top of that, Charli did not hire anyone else, because the six of them had already made their name as lawyers.
