

No Chance 195

Chapter 195 That's About It

He froze slightly. Since this was the truth, there was harm in denying it. Hence, he nodded with a smile, "That's right."

Since the entire company knew about it, he had to agree with her. In addition, they even signed a formal black-and-white contract that clearly defined the situation. The company belongs to me now! No one can even think of taking it away from me!

Both Rose and Linda looked at Elisa subconsciously. So, she's planning to get it back. Who is she kidding? Does she think that she could get it back just like that? Does she think that she can do anything now? Wait...a moment! The contract! She is Iris, after all! Is she able to find some loopholes in the contract?

In that instant, Linda lost her composure.

nodded. "Since that's the case, can you return the shares back to me, Uncle Norman? I don't need the profits from this year. After all, I can't make you do the work for nothing. After that, I will personally handle the business; you have a few major projects ongoing that require a leader to handle them. Over these few years, I spent a lot of time and do you know I cannot handle them single-handedly?" Elisa often than not, things are not as simple as you imagine. If you really wish to join the company, you could start from the bottom.

in Linda's expression, but she soon understood what difficult to start from the bottom and slowly make her way up. In addition, is she a half-joking tone, "From the bottom? Are you belittling me, or is it because I'm not your daughter,
