Chapter 251 Better Than Gareth

Thomas was astounded. "Mr. Wickam..."

A moment ago, Gareth did not wish to delete the posts because he wished to see what Elisa sad.

However, once he finished reading his grandfather's Twitter post, he could not help but panic.

Thus, he instinctively instructed Thomas to delete them.

Then, he pursed his lips and did not know what else to say. Thomas noticed Gareth's conflicted expression and said, "There's another matter. Mr. Darcey sent Ms. Benett to the law firm this morning. However, no one mentioned it on Twitter."

Gareth shot an intimidating glare at Thomas.

Thomas gasped softly and adjusted the glasses on the bridge of his nose as if trying to calm down.

Chapter 252 A Bad Feeling

—Crazy Bee: Every family has its difficulties. Mr. Wickam did not say anything this time, and only Old Mr. Wickam posted something. It remains to be proven what Mr. Wickam feels about this.'

—Iris Stan: What is there to prove? This matter is clear at a glance. Everyone in the Wickam family is of the same stance, so they would definitely find a way to protect their interest. Moreover, Elisa is only an outsider, so why would they care about her? In my opinion, it is best for Elisa to be with Mr. Darcey. I wish them happiness!

—Mobs: You're all talking nonsense! Mr. Wickam is an outstanding man. Don't you know how much he doted on Elisa all these years? However, she cheated on him. Even when the Benett family went bankrupt, Gareth did not stop treating her well. It was Elisa who was ungrateful. How can you all blame Mr. Wickam? Did you all not read what Old Mr. Wickam had posted previously? Elisa schemed everything! The Wickam family was prominent in business then. If Mr. Wickam really wanted to marry Elisa, he only had to inform the Benett family about it. There was no need for him to cause such an uproar and be caught in bed with her to get married. From what I see, what Old Mr. Wickam wrote is not untrue!

—Raise Your Hands: I think so too! Elisa is an unscrupulous person. Mr. Wickam should forget her and focus on taking care of Ms. Linda. Ms. Linda is a good match for him. She is kind and has a good background. Furthermore, she saved Mr. Wickam's life. Thus, it is only right that Mr. Wickam devotes himself to her. Hahaha...

Linda's eyes brightened, and she immediately gave Rose a thumbs up. "Mom, thank goodness you're my mother! You're a genius!"

Linda chuckled and said, "Alright, you stay in the hospital and act your part. Do you know what you need to do to keep Gareth by your side?"

Linda took a deep breath and nodded earnestly. "Mom, don't worry. I won't be careless like before. I will make the most of this chance and marry him in two months!"

"Good. I have some other matters, so I can't keep you company. You should call your assistant here."

"Sure."

Rose left right after that. Linda's assistant, who was waiting outside, came in and said respectfully, "Ms. Benett, do you require any assistance?"

Linda smiled. "It's alright. You can take a break. I will call you if I need anything."

"Sure."

"Did I come at the wrong time?"

Gareth did not close the door when he came here, so when Elisa arrived, she immediately saw Gareth and Linda intimately close.

Linda's expression froze, but she soon put on a smile and said, "Elisa, you're here. Please come in!"

She looked at Elisa defensively and wondered how much of their conversation did she hear. Linda was unable to argue for herself during the banquet. If Elisa contradicted Linda again, Linda's image would be completely ruined.

Gareth turned to Elisa with a stern gaze. His gaze seemed to contain conflicting emotions.

Elisa pursed her lips. Naturally, she heard Linda and Gareth's conversation about the banquet. However, she did not care what Gareth thought about it and had no plan to bring up the matter.

She glanced at Gareth and smiled. "Mr. Wickam, I heard you are working overtime tonight. That's why I came to see Linda. I didn't expect you to forgo overtime for Linda's sake and come here. Sorry for disturbing your time together."

Her tone was cold and emotionless. There was not a hint of gentleness from before.

Linda looked at Gareth nervously and saw the strong contempt in his gaze. He sneered and said, "Grandpa didn't lie. You know very well the unscrupulous things you and your father did."

Elisa's expression darkened immediately. "I don't care if you mock me, but you have no right to say anything against my father!"

She was bursting with a murderous aura as she spoke.

Linda and Gareth were stunned. On the other hand, Elisa's gaze was cold as ice. "Gareth, if you don't wish to see Wickam Group in trouble or me being lovey-dovey with Will, you should tell grandpa to rein things in. I'm not going to retaliate this time out of consideration for your grandmother and father. However, if any of you do this again, I won't hesitate to drag down Wickam Group!"

"Elisa, don't you dare!"

Chapter 257 You Must See Her Now!

Seeing Elisa suddenly walking away, Linda called out urgently, "Elisa! Elisa!"

She rushed to get down from the bed, but Gareth stopped her. "Don't bother about her!"

Linda's face turned pale. She shook her head and said, "Garry, Elisa probably suffered a severe blow from yesterday, and I don't think she has recovered yet. I... I tried to comfort her, but she still couldn't accept what had happened. I fear she will harm herself!"

Gareth narrowed his eyes.

Elisa no longer has anyone to depend on. She doesn't have any relatives whom she cares about. If she chooses to end her life...

Suddenly, he laughed. "Elisa is naturally devious. She is willing to do anything to achieve her goal. Why would she end her life?"

Elisa's expression changed drastically. "Why would grandma suddenly have heart discomfort?"

She immediately stopped struggling. Her eyes were filled with concern.

Gareth glanced at her coldly. He did not say anything but went to the driver's seat straight away.

Elisa clenched her teeth and suddenly felt helpless. What would happen to grandma if I take revenge against Gareth?

Grandma has always been good to me. It is unfortunate that Gareth is her grandson. Why does it have to be like this?

Gareth locked the car but did not begin driving. Elisa sensed something was wrong and looked at Gareth coldly. "Did grandma really ask for me?"

Gareth sneered and looked at her with disdain. "Elisa, what makes you think you can attempt anything against me?"

"Argh!" Gareth shouted. He immediately released her and shoved her to the side, causing her body to slam against the car door.

"Are you a rabid dog?" Gareth said through gritted teeth. His expression was threateningly cold.

Elisa could still feel his breath in her throat and taste his blood in her mouth. Her face was deathly pale as she looked at him. It felt like she had been attacked. She could not accept this.

Gareth's heart trembled violently.

He could not understand why he suddenly kissed her at that moment. He believed he would never forget her taste. Before this, he had no idea kissing could be so wonderful.

Meanwhile, in the hospital, Linda lay on the bed with a joyful smile.

Yara Bell, Linda's assistant, walked in and seemed on the verge of panic. "Ms. Benett."

Linda glanced at Yara and noticed her strange expression. She immediately had a bad feeling. "What's wrong?"

Yara breathed in. Even though she did not want to tell Linda, she did not have a choice. "I... I followed him as you instructed. Initially, Elisa was going to get into her car, but Gareth dragged her and forced her into his car. Ms. Elisa was unable to break free..."

At this point, Yara suddenly became afraid to continue. She snuck a glance at Linda and found her with a sullen expression.

Yara trembled fearfully. Everyone thought Linda was a gentle lady. Only Yara knew Linda was a woman prone to angry outbursts. She was also devious and easily jealous.

“Speak!” Linda suddenly turned to Yara. “Continue what you were saying!”
