

No Chance 26

Chapter 26 You're Going to the Washroom Already?

Gareth Wickam, Vincent Shane, and Jeremy Chase were as close as biological brothers although they were born of different parents.

Vincent was relatively quick-witted and hot-tempered while Jeremy was more of a gentleman. Everyone thought he was a gentle, handsome, amiable man from a wealthy and influential family. However, he had a cold heart.

The three confidantes cared for each other like how they cared for their own families.

"I found my mother's old necklace."

Gareth lifted his head to gaze at Vincent in silence while Jeremy uttered, "Finally."

With a darkened face, Vincent grumbled, "But the necklace is now with the despicable woman. And... and I freaking lost to her!"

"Get straight to the point." Gareth croaked.

Both he and Jeremy knew how important that necklace was to Vincent.

gritted his teeth and told

important to her too and she claimed it was passed down her into a competition. Otherwise, she wouldn't have gotten help from such a powerful opponent! Even national car racers might surprised that Vincent had such a high at Gareth and blurted, "She can even hold a candle to you. How can Jeremy chuckled. "Ha! Interesting!"

didn't answer but stood up and walked out washroom after drinking just a few glasses. Is there any issue with your health? Do you need Jeremy

Vincent coldly and left

aggrieved voice emerged before he reached earth are you thinking, Elisa? Since you've already filed for a

was stunned at the

the corner. "I'm

when he heard

not completed yet, but she's already

