Chapter 391 You're Smarter Than Your Dad

Elisa nodded and said, "I'm not going to hide it, Uncle James. The initial request was for Darcey Group to provide capital before Benett Corporation agreed to work together. I didn't change the core requests of the proposal or the direction of the technology development. I amended the implementation of the proposal according to the outline of the initial proposal and recreated it."

James was even more baffled. "You wrote this?"

Elisa nodded. "I also amended the partnership project with Wickam Group previously."

James suddenly looked at Elisa in surprise. "Haha, this is great! If your dad could see such ability in you, he would be elated!"

Elisa's eyes darkened a little.

What she regretted the most right now was that she didn't spend much time with her father because of her love life. If she had noticed it earlier, her father wouldn't have died. That was the most regretful and helpless moment in her life.

Chapter 392 Are You Afraid?

Elisa nodded. "I did follow the common procedure, but when it reached Linda, she was afraid that I would mess things up and the company's reputation would take a dive because of me."

James suddenly snorted coldly. "Your Uncle Norman and his family are getting better."

Elisa pursed her lips and didn't say anything, but Rachel said angrily, "I think so too! Uncle James, do you know about what happened during Old Madam Wickam's birthday celebration? Linda wanted to look better than Liz and thought that Liz had bought a jade bracelet for Old Madam Wickam. That was why Linda bought so many jade bracelets. She wanted to look better than Liz."

"I heard about it." James nodded. He looked at Elisa and said softly, "Don't worry. I'll take care of this. I'll hold a meeting at the office tomorrow. When the time comes, I'll arrange for you and Linda to be there."

Chapter 393 Are You Really Prepared for It?

Elisa smiled and shook her head. "No."

Actually, James could choose for Linda not to appear. Then, without anyone to confront Elisa, she would succeed.

But it would be a one-sided battle, and everyone would talk about Elisa.

In contrast, if the two of them confronted each other, everyone would treat it differently. If Elisa won, no one could point out anything wrong.

"Alright. The younger generations will surpass us in time. Haha. Since you're here, let's chat for a while. Are the two of you tired? Why don't you stay and put up a night here?"

Rachel laughed out loud. "No, no. But it's still early. If you're up for it, Uncle James, we can chat for a while."

James nodded. He really didn't want the two of them to leave because he had many questions.

Seeing that Elisa didn't oppose, he looked at her and asked, "Girl, what do you think about the company's current development?"

Elisa was a little puzzled. "What do I think?"

Elisa smiled. "Mm. I am."

Rachel couldn't help but let out a sigh. Seeming slightly exasperated, she said, "Ah, Liz. I think that compared to you, I'm like a child that hasn't grown up. We're the same age, but you're like my elder sister."

Elisa couldn't hold back her laughter. "Mm. Remember to call me sis from now on."

Rachel suddenly laughed in mock anger. "What the heck! Taking advantage of me!"

Elisa couldn't help but laugh. "Alright. Let's rest. I'll make breakfast for you tomorrow morning."

"Wow! Alright, I'll go sleep now and get enough rest to enjoy the breakfast tomorrow!"

Elisa smiled and didn't say anything.

The two of them went back to their rooms and washed up before going to sleep.

The next day, the both of them ate breakfast before Rachel went to work, perfectly satisfied.

She couldn't help but say admiringly, "You have such a good attitude, Liz. I

Chapter 395 It's a Farce

A few people came into the conference room one after another.

"Liz?"

Some of them were clearly puzzled. The meeting was sudden, and no one knew what was really going on. It was Mr. Markee who called the meeting together.

James had considerable influence in the company.

But why is Elisa here?

Everyone fixed their eyes on her.

Elisa smiled. "Hello, everyone."

Everyone nodded politely at her, but they were still bewildered.

Elisa walked over and sat in a seat at the corner.

It was the most unremarkable position. It could also be said that it was where the lowest-ranked person sat.

Linda jumped and immediately relaxed her tightly wrinkled brows. But she was so furious she gritted her teeth.

How did she never notice that Elisa had such an infuriating side!

Linda gritted her teeth and tried to calm herself down.

She took a deep breath in and controlled her emotions.

In a soft voice, she said to Elisa, "Do you think that you can go ahead like this, Liz? What I said last time was completely from my heart."

Elisa nodded. "I know that you're doing it for the sake of the company, Linda. But there are pros and cons, as well as risks to everything, aren't there?"

Linda laughed in rage. "You... you really did all this because of that!"

Linda smiled and didn't say anything.

Linda didn't want to talk to Elisa anymore. She had to think of a solution immediately.

He smiled and said, "This meeting is mainly about the partnership project between Benett Corporation and Darcey Group."

Linda's fists beneath the table suddenly tightened. She swept her gaze at the unmoving Elisa and gritted her teeth. She knew that it was this wench who was playing the devil!

She looked at Norman at once but realized that there was confusion in Norman's eyes.

Linda was speechless.

D*mn it. He didn't see the message that she sent out at all.

Norman said with some bewilderment, "With Darcey Group?"

Everyone else looked at James, puzzled.

Someone asked, "Mr. Markee, do you intend to work with Darcey Group? Or is there already a project with Darcey Group?"

A partnership project with Darcey Group definitely wasn't a small project. There were many things that people didn't know, but if something like that had happened, everyone should have known about it.

Seeing that everyone had more or less gotten the idea and that some even had perplexed expressions, James smiled and went back to Elisa's proposal.

He smiled gently at Elisa. "You can have a seat, Liz."

Elisa nodded obediently and went back to her seat.

Linda's body stiffened. She fixed her eyes on Elisa. If there weren't so many people around, she would have angrily asked if Elisa had done it on purpose!

"This proposal is the most perfect one that I've ever seen. The partnership is good to go. Has Darcey Group seen this proposal?"

James smiled and nodded. "Yes. They want to work with us."

Seeing everyone wondering and understanding with bright eyes, James said slowly, "But Mr. Darcey has a condition."

Chapter 399 How Could She Go On?

Seeing Elisa's serene expression, she didn't dare to express too much. She could only speak to everyone else awkwardly, "I'm very sorry. What Liz gave me at the time was only what was on the document. She didn't elaborate, and I had no way of knowing the specifics."

Just as Linda was about to shift the blame to Elisa, James smiled. "Did Liz not tell you? Or did you not want to let her go on?"

Everyone else sized up Linda with complicated expressions.

Linda's expression changed slightly.

Disdain flickered across Elisa's face. Was she a calculative wench? A manipulative b*tch?

"Because..." Linda suddenly spoke up, but she didn't know how to continue.

She gritted her teeth.

Jessie was on the same side as James. The way she spoke was always sharp, and her questions were tricky.

James would at least consider everyone's feelings and treat everyone pleasantly, but Jessie always had a cold face and was straightforward.

The conference room was suddenly silent.

There was a subtle change on Norman's face, but at this time, he couldn't defend his daughter. Otherwise, it would seem like the father and daughter were picking on Elisa.

The only thing he could do was not to make a sound. He was between a rock and a hard place.
