

No Chance 60

Chapter 60 Disappointment

Elisa frowned without uttering a word, while Rachel said softly, "I'll get the door. We don't know who it is at the moment."

It could be Will, who's popping in for a free meal, or it could be an irate Gareth. Worried that Elisa might be bullied as soon as she opened the door, Rachel offered to get the door herself.

After opening the door, shock crossed her eyes when she saw a professionally-dressed lady. "You are..."

"Is this Elisa's place?" Charli asked with a warm smile.

"Aren't you Ms. Lucas?" Rachel nodded subconsciously.

Charli smiled upon hearing that. "Have you heard of me?"

"Of course I have! Iris is the person I respect the most!" she replied in excitement. "Are you friends with Elisa?"

Charli nodded with a flicker of emotion in her eyes. "Yes."

respect Iris the most, but her assistant Charli is also an independent woman, even though she hadn't furthered her career and only works with Iris.

of food after taking a whiff. "I'm just for food. Since she was quite busy, her meal times were a seat. Food's her address to Charli, she was not surprised to see the latter here and assumed that she a meal together. Rachel's curiosity was piqued because of did you get to know Charli, Elisa? Why didn't you introduce her to me before Charli as 'Ms. Lucas', yet now she called the latter by Elisa replied with a

was true that they

to know her earlier!" A pained expression

her. Looking at Elisa, she asked, "Where did you meet such a

she had been friends with both of them for a few years now, this was the first time for the three of them to meet each promised to be each other's best friends in our previous lives," Elisa