

No Chance 61

Chapter 61 What an Honor

Charli smiled. "Of course."

"Wow!"

Rachel was so ecstatic that she almost leaped from her seat and yelped. Elisa froze with guilt in her gaze, because Rachel did not know about the truth even though she was her best friend.

If she remembers what transpired today, will she... resent me?

A conflicted look flitted across her eyes, but she still decided against telling Rachel, with a purse of her lips.

Vincent was a prodigy and an elite lawyer. Even though Elisa was confident that she would win the lawsuit, if Vincent knew that Will had hired Iris, he would do anything to win. If it came to that, she might face various troubles.

Coincidentally, Vincent was even interacting with Rachel. Regardless that their interaction felt off to Elisa, she did not enquire too much. Nevertheless, she had to be on her guard, because she was worried that Rachel might let slip the truth to him.

She knew very well that Rachel would never betray her, but she was worried that he might catch some signals from the way she carried herself.

moments of agitation, Rachel finally averted her gaze to Elisa. "Elisa, you used to be a housewife, but do you have it down. "I'll ask Charli if she has

case, you will meet Iris

words, Charli smiled and said, "Iris

"Fine..."

make use of this opportunity to have a look at the office,

...

next day, Elisa really went to the law office

quite many lawyers at work there,

appearance

for she

of that, her beautiful face attracted their

the most important part that piqued their interest was her current position as this is Elisa. She will be

