

No Chance 63

Chapter 63 I Don't Even Dare to Fantasize

Charli frowned. "There's no such thing. Plus, being a lawyer is not your full-time job anyway. You can still do whatever you wish, as long as you visit us occasionally."

"I'll be around for a while and will come to work responsibly."

"Hahah!" Charli could not hold her laughter. "Responsibly? This word sounds so awkward to hear!"

Elisa smiled without saying anything.

Charli curved her lips into a smile before saying, "Alright then, make yourself at home. I have to go out for some private matters."

"Sure."

After she left, Elisa started focusing on work. Even though she was confident that she would win this court case and even though she was familiar with the country's laws, she still did some research.

Meanwhile, when the rest of the lawyers saw that Elisa was still in the office even after Charli went out, they were perplexed.

What the hell is going on? Why is Elisa still in there?

noon, and it was

office, wanting to see when Elisa no movement at door – it was a man with extremely good looks, yet he

the office was dumbfounded when this the person whom we usually see on television? We get exchanged gazes awkwardly, but Will did not find anything strange. There were you seen

Albert, who was right opposite between those two. Otherwise, pointed at Charli's office. "She's in the boss' office. I can notify but it was hearing that and smile, while two other female lawyers also really handsome! Are the cameras nowadays so lousy? His good looks in she heard someone knock on the door. As soon as she turned around,