

No Chance 66

Chapter 66 Enough Is Enough

Elisa was dumbfounded upon hearing that.

Then, she let out a derisive snort of laughter out of anger. Looking at Linda, she asked, "Apologize?"

Linda quickly shook her head at Shirley and attempted to pull the latter away, but she looked as though she had no strength in her. Of course, Shirley did not budge as well.

Elisa smiled coldly when she saw their act. "In my previous marriage, you kept pestering my ex-husband and used various ways to contact him. Apart from that, you also sent me lots of intimate pictures with him. Do you think you are worth my apology?"

Everyone was surprised to hear that.

What? Something like that happened?

to look at her in nonsense are you saying?

you are mad at me, but how looked like an elder sister who was disappointed and exasperated

"I don't have anything else to say about this matter. Elisa, you will always be my sister, and if you face sure God will see through your actions, and I just hope that you will never be exposed. Otherwise, the Elisa doesn't have any evidence. When I sent the messages to her, I used an anonymous account about to leave, Shirley suddenly said coldly, "Elisa, your sister treats you so well, and she is so dedicated to you. Doesn't it defy your conscience to say around and saw a good-looking and mysterious man that seemed to descend from the heavens. The elegance he exuded was too

Right when she was about