

No Chance 71

Chapter 71 Something's Wrong

She froze upon hearing that.

He's going to be involved in a lawsuit?

Everyone knew about his capabilities. Many wanted to hire him, but he only accepted cases based on his mood.

He was rarely seen in court, but as soon as he appeared, his opponents would immediately give up, not wanting to face him directly.

He was rumored to have won over a thousand lawsuits.

Rachel was also a lawyer, but because she had just graduated a few years ago and her career had not been going well, she was just a small lawyer unable to get involved in big court cases.

Hence, she was moved by his suggestion.

However, in the next second, her gaze flickered. Letting out a cold snort, she said, "Vincent, you don't have to fool me! I know you are the best at this job, and you have no rivals at all, but I don't have such a great goal. I don't have to suck up to you at all. Goodbye!"

was about to leave, he immediately pulled the said, "Why are you so stubborn? I already told you that I'm already thought it through. Since she left it for you, I can't take it away. In

"What's wrong

follow her wishes. Now that she's gone from this world, I'll take care of you to honor when she heard that. Even though his disregarded her struggles to get out of the car. "I already said that I don't need your help! Vincent, you must be up to no pressed her down. "That thing is not with you course not!" She looked at him

it's not with you now, do

that's true.

Vincent went back to the driver's seat

immediately

Where are you heading to? I'll give you a not know

