

No Chance 82

Chapter 82 Wishes Don't Come Easy

Linda nodded sympathetically to her mother-in-law. "Yes, the Internet is always vicious. Don't worry, that is the norm."

"No! What I meant is those two have gone too far!" Mrs. Wickam cried. At that moment, Linda was the least of her priority and immediately dialed a number on her phone.

Immediately, the receiver on the other line picked up her call. Mrs. Wickam said through gritted teeth, "Where are you now?"

Jerry Wickam was on the other line and calmly replied, "On the way home."

Mrs. Wickam clenched her phone to calm her temper. "Why did you meet with Elisa without informing me?! We're going to have a discussion when you get back!"

Linda held back a sneer as the two argued. Now that she instilled a bad reputation for Elisa, Mrs. Wickam will now lose trust on Elisa more and more. Elisa won't have to return to the Benett's again.

The master of the house was Mr. Wickam's father, and he did not look up to Elisa with respect. Since Elisa gained the Benett name through marriage, it was only time she will be removed.

of Mrs. Wickam's blouse to berate the receiver. "You come back to the mansion this instant! Since you have neglected the Wickam name, look at that, she hung up the actually got concerned for a moment. "Auntie, I'm sure Mr. Wickam will arrive soon. You must not let your emotions take over. Perhaps all of this is said, "What are

She just blamed it on his kind nature. But just gotten off from work. However, she had plans to buy out a stable and profitable streak, and Elisa was adamant to buy it. She disguised going to lock

....

a face mask to avoid any familiar faces on mall, she met the owner and revealed her intention. Prior to this, they had discussed a selling price which Elisa as he explained all of its features. "All of this was built from my blood, sweat, and tears. However, I've got myself in a pickle and need money for a new project." He explained. "Dear, you are still young, but I believe you have what it takes to run it. If you face any difficulties with this business in the future, I'm here

Mason." Elisa said