Chapter 862

The employee was frightened, and his expression paled. What does Mr. Wickam's gaze mean? Does Mr. Wickam suspect him?

It's not fair!

But...

Before he could say anything, Thomas walked over and said to the employee, "Give your seat to Ms. Benett."

The employee's body reacted more quickly than his mind. He got up at once, but... he was still startled. Why does he have to step aside?

What is the point of Elisa sitting in front of the computer?

The rest of the IT department had the same thought. They looked at Elisa, only to see Elisa's hands banging away on the keyboard.

They looked up subconsciously at the series of white codes on the screen before Elisa, and everyone was stunned.

Everyone in the office was an expert and had the finest skills.

Chapter 863 This Isn't the Way Home

Everyone had a complicated gaze, and no one said anything. Regardless if it was Elisa or Black-Eyed Susan, no one had the nerve to say anything.

Otherwise. Mr. Wickam might unleash his fury on them.

Gareth and Elisa didn't have an ordinary relationship. Even if they had a divorce, they were still entangled with each other. To them, it felt like... Elisa would return to Gareth's side anytime. When the time came, she would be their boss as well.

Of course, they were already treating her like their boss.

Just as everyone was thinking about it. Gareth looked indifferently at everyone. "Continue defending our information. If there are any problems, report at once."

Everyone responded at once. Gareth glanced at Elisa and didn't say anything before walking out.

Elisa naturally didn't stay back. She followed him.

They had been writing code for three hours.

The IT department wasn't bored when they waited. They had watched with keen interest instead. Even if they didn't understand, they had to work hard and learn.

When they left. Gareth still wanted to get into Elisa's car.

Chapter 864 Amusing and Ironic

Everyone in the restaurant looked over when the two appeared. Some took out their cell phones. Everyone was surprised.

They were astonished that they could see Gareth and Elisa here!

How lucky!

The two often appeared on screen and seemed to be very loving. This made many think Gareth and Elisa were a splendid couple. Even if they had divorced, everyone still hoped for them to be together.

The servers were also amazed when they saw the two and rushed over to serve them.

Gareth and Elisa sat down at random. They didn't ask for a private room.

The two sat across from each other. The server brought the two a menu, but Gareth knew that Elisa didn't know what to order, so he picked on her behalf. The server felt like she was listening to music. Mi*. Wickam's voice is magnetic and sounds heavenly!

Elisa pursed her lips. Three of the four items that Gareth ordered were light up her alley. Is Gareth taking the trouble because he wants to work with her and remarry her?

No one wanted to miss the opportunity to interact with Gareth and Elisa.

The two returned to the car shortly. On the way, no one spoke. When they arrived at Elisa's house, Gareth didn't leave. He followed Elisa into the house instead.

Elisa furrowed her brows slightly. "Do you want water?"

In other words, she wanted him to leave after drinking water.

Gareth said calmly, "You must take me in for the night."

Elisa was dumbstruck.

How can he be so shameless in the face of profit?

It was out of character for him.

Linda immediately said. "I don't know what you're talking about. My cousin doesn't know anything like that. She's good with computers, but I'm only referring to simple things. She doesn't know anything else. I don't know what happened, but please don't involve Liz in anything bad."

Linda seemed like a good cousin who protected Elisa and didn't want to tell the media anything.

But her answers indirectly told them that Elisa had excellent skills and was an outstanding hacker!

After getting such an answer, the media stopped hounding Linda. They understood her expressions. At times, such ambiguous reactions spoke volumes.

The media asked Linda a few more questions that seemed to trap Linda, but she had her guard up. She told them even more by gritting her teeth and refusing to answer.

Tweets came one after another. Most said that Elisa had something to do with the hacker, and they taunted her. They said she was evil and ungrateful and that she had gone overboard. They even said that no one should sympathize with her.

Some were defending Elisa, but they were eventually suppressed by Internet trolls and haters.

Rachel and Elisa's others friends naturally found out about it, and they sent messages to their group chat.

— Rachel: '@Elisa Liz, what on earth happened? What happened in Wickam Group?'

— Elisa: 'It's alright. You don't have to worry.'

— Rachel: 'How can we not worry? Everyone is cursing you. What happened exactly?'

— Sheena: 'Liz, how long more until your project ends? Quickly leave Wickam Group. Otherwise, you will be dragged into the mud again and again.'

In the study room of Wickam Manor, Old Mrs. Wickam had a particularly nasty expression. "I don't believe it! There's no way Liz is Black-Eyed Susan! She would never do such a thing to Wickam Group!"

Darren sneered at once. He looked at Julia and said in a low voice, "This is the obedient granddaughter you've been protecting. Look at how she's gone overboard. She's so ungrateful and unappreciative! What's the point of treating her so well? Take a look at Twitter and see what people have been saying!"

Julia's expression turned nastier in an instant. "Get lost! Liz and I are good to each other! If it wasn't for her, I would still be in pain and might have died earlier. No one knows how to take care of me. All you do is infuriate me! Without Liz, I would have passed away earlier!"

Gareth was dumbfounded.
