

No Chance 88

Chapter 88 A Tricky Point

“Third, when the defendant was developing a project, no considerations were given...”

“Fourth...”

“Fifth...”

Elisa explained her points eloquently.

Gareth stared blankly while listening.

Vincent paled. He thought that Elisa was just an average lawyer. But to hear her make detailed points without a moment of hesitation was a shock!

If he couldn't dispute her points, then victory would slip from their grasps.

Will smiled. She was telling the truth.

Elisa didn't give a single look to Gareth throughout her explanation. When she finished, she turned towards the judge. “That was our clarification on the five points. Now, I would like to clarify the lawsuit filed by my client.”

judge was amazed and bemused by Elisa. He nodded.

Elisa nodded.

The audience noticed something.

didn't even bring worry about Elisa, who seemed to be forgetful about her things often. But she realized later, for Elisa, those documents were just a nuisance. Their opponents could even steal the documents, giving them a head start in the incredulous as even point out the exact article to argue against Vincent's points. Even if replaced them. To be able to argue against Vincent Shane, were things

audience gaped

But against their expectations, she was outstanding!

elaborated another three points speedily. Her points were justified, leaving in a bad light. But she managed to convey it in a way as if her points were the truth the

he swallowed

Benett! That damned Elisa Benett! How could she keep him in law but never thought much of it. He that even Vincent would struggle