Chapter 911 the Only One!

Nicole stared at Old Mr. Tabor and said, "Grandpa, I was born in the Tabor family. It goes without saying that I can't make decisions about my marriage. Since young, I knew that my future marriage must benefit our family. But now, I'm glad that I like Gareth. This way, I can marry for love and help our family prosper."

Her voice was firm, and her gaze at Old Mr. Wickam was intertwined with sincerity.

Old Mr. Wickam was startled. "Nic..."

He couldn't help but sigh. "I know, and I can see the advantages of this, but you must know that Gareth used to be married."

"I don't mind."

"I know, but no matter how excellent others are, I feel like Gareth is the most exceptional."

Old Mr. Tabor was dumbstruck.

He was about to faint. He was so enraged he didn't want to say a word.

Nicole looked at him earnestly. "Grandpa, I hope that you can support me. Currently, a marriage between the Tabor and Wickam families is the best. Moreover, I like Gareth so much. You really don't have to worry about me. I believe Gareth will like me sooner or later!"

Old Mr. Tabor snorted coldly. "Elisa must have thought the same back then!"

Nicole immediately retorted, "That's different. Elisa threatened and plotted against him. I'm not!"

"Never mind. I'm not going to say anything else. Listen to what I say and calm down. Don't act rashly!"

At that moment, everyone had arrived. Norman glanced at everyone, and his gaze landed on Elisa. He gritted his teeth. He loathed her and had similar thoughts about her as Linda.

When Norman thought about the two billion he had spent on Elisa, he was so incensed that he wanted to swallow Elisa whole!

But he couldn't do anything at this time. He didn't dare do anything to offend Elisa too much. Black-Eyed Susan's reputation was no joke!

"The main purpose of this meeting is about your partnership with Wickam Group, Liz. Since the project has been completed in two months, I hope you can tell everyone about the particulars."

James looked at Elisa beamingly. It wasn't the time to praise her. Still, he wanted to compliment her for her excellence so that everyone could see how outstanding the old chairman's daughter was. In contrast, the current chairman's daughter was...

was only fitting that she should be promoted with an increment. Otherwise, people would be talking about Norman.

Chapter 914 Elisa Knows About It!

Jessie had always had a forceful personality, but since she said such a thing, it was enough to prove how magnificent Elisa was!

As Jessie spoke, Norman and his people had nasty expressions!

Jessie is criticizing me in public!

If Nelson was exceptional, does that make me incompetent?

What if Nelson was skillful? He ended up dead in the end!

Norman snorted coldly in silence. It's fine. I'm not going to argue with the losing side. Nelson has died, but they're still admiring him and holding fast to his camp. What a joke!

Do they think they're all that because of Elisa? Elisa is a woman at the end of the day! What use is she?!

The more Norman thought about it, the more confident he grew. He even started to plot how to get rid of these people!

After the meeting ended, Linda wasn't in the mood to talk to Elisa. She didn't want to agitate Elisa right now because if she did, she felt the wench would upset her.

But...

In an instant, Linda panicked.

Although Elisa had brought it up before, she was ambiguous and just probing, so Linda hadn't taken it to heart.

But this time was different!

Elisa had explicitly given her the material!

Linda couldn't care about anything else. She immediately called the mysterious person.

Of course, Linda didn't have a direct way to contact her. Linda would call, and it would be disconnected before an unknown number would contact Linda.

When her cell phone rang, she didn't care about anything else and immediately answered.

Before the other party could say anything, Linda said, "Elisa suddenly looked for me just now. She knows someone is helping me behind the scenes and even found some of your tracks. What should I do?"

The girly voice snorted. The next moment, the mysterious person said indifferently, "With Elisa's abilities, it's normal for Elisa to find out some information. You don't have to panic."

Linda frowned. Why do I still feel nervous?

Their call ended.

After that, Elisa called Will.

Will answered the call quickly. "You've finally thought of calling me."

Elisa smiled. "There's a ready-made partnership. Do you want to work together?"

Will was slightly surprised. His last partnership project with Benett Corporation was still temporarily shelved. He thought Elisa would delay it and never imagined she would have a new project.

Everyone in the office couldn't help but start discussing it fervently. "Why is Mr. Darcey doing this...? If he wants to pursue Liz, he can use other ways. Furthermore, Mr. Darcey has such high EQ and has experienced so much. He naturally knows what girls like best, so why is he doing this?"

"Perhaps he did it deliberately to compare who is more sincere?"

"Hmm...? Why doesn't it seem that way..."

At the moment, even Elisa didn't know that Will would do such a thing. The company employees were still discussing. Online viewers were also typing out comments one at a time.

Elisa glanced at her cell phone and said softly, "There are five minutes left."

"Mm." If she left early, Norman's people wouldn't let it go. Five more minutes didn't matter. At that moment, Linda was in Norman's office and naturally saw the scene downstairs. She had also browsed the Internet, and she had a nasty expression. She glared at Norman.

"Do you see how she's going overboard? Other people came and made such a fuss at the entrance of our company because of her. If this gets out, doesn't it make our company very unorganized? Do we just let other people do what they want...?"

Today, Will wasn’t in his usual sapphire blue. He was in black instead. After being used to him in blue, he looked more charming today. Even if he was in black, everyone felt that Elisa’s knight in shining armor had arrived!

The distinct contrast between the bright and fresh roses and his black outfit had everyone’s heart racing. Elisa’s eyes flashed slightly. She walked forward into the sea of flowers. Among the bright red, two figures slowly approached each other.

Elisa took a few steps and stopped while Will approached her with roses. The media was frantically taking videos and pictures. Many wanted to rush over and interview them, but the ground was covered in roses. They didn’t dare to ruin it, so they could only comment on it excitedly from the side. There was a gentle smile in the corner of Will’s lips.

“Liz, you came into my heart from the first time I saw you. But at the time, your focus wasn’t on me.”

Elisa was stunned. She didn’t want to play this game. But he had now gone this far. Elisa had to continue playing along. She opened her mouth and wanted to ask to leave, but Will said, “I know you might not want to date again right now, or you have some difficulties, but I’m willing to wait for you.
