

No Escape 644

Chapter 644

Eric was shocked at the amount of money that had been transferred. He called Ellie back and told her that the money was too much since the project was more than halfway done.

Samuel reiterated that the surplus was to increase the salaries of the film crew.

Eric understood.

It turned out that everything Samuel had done including the huge sum of money, were all for Ella.

Samuel spent all that money just to please her. Somehow Eric felt pity for their divorce, because they seemed to still love each other dearly.

Meanwhile, Ella was watching the kids play in Daisy's house. She got a call from Eric.

"Hello, Mr. Eric." Holding the phone, she walked towards the balcony.

Ella was astonished by what the director said next.

He informed her that a new leading star had been selected and was ready to film the play, and the crew were waiting for her.

'The whole crew is waiting for me?' Ella felt embarrassed.
