No Way Back Chapter 121-As the daughter of Fowler Corporation, Madelyn naturally knew that Connor was the future heir of the Luther Group

The Luther family was a rich family that was comparable to the Croft family

Connor was so handsome with a master's degree in industrial and business management from one of the best universities in the world

Connor was talented, young, and had a bright future, many times better than Layne

Connor was also one of Madelyn's backup candidates for marriage

When Madelyn saw Jane standing so close to Connor, chatting and laughing, Madelyn was very furious

Similarly, when Layne saw this scene, he frowned slightly, and a strange feeling surged in his heart. It was as if the feeling of someone snatching Layne's toy away.

Even if Layne didn't want to marry Jane, a vain *, Jane was still Layne's engagement partner. However since Jane was Layne's engagement partner, Layne didn't want her, and he didn't want anyone else to want her either, especially Connor!

Connor had a good relationship with Hugh, and Hugh was Layne's competitor!

As they were immersed in their thoughts, Madelyn and Layne did not notice even though the two of them were so close, they had different thoughts.

On the other side, Hugh was in Wetanean, watching the live comments fly past and the scene of Connor and Jane in the same frame.

Hugh's eyes suddenly darkened like stars falling into the deep sea of the night and emanated an extremely dangerous aura.

Life happened to come in and report the situation to Hugh.

Seeing Hugh's gloomy face, in an instant, Life didn't even dare to breathe loudly.

Life could only kneel on one knee and lower his head, not daring to look at Hugh.

Cold sweat broke out and drenched Life's entire body, and he kept trembling.

Life had not seen Hugh, who was so cold and shrouded in intent, for a long time.

What exactly happened to be able to make the usually calm and cold-blooded Hugh lose control of his. intent?

It must be a very troublesome matter, and it might even endanger the Croft family's safety!

Just as Life's thoughts were running wild, Life had no idea that the reason why Hugh was so uncontrollable was that he felt Jealous.

More importantly, Hugh was actually jealous because of his good friend, Connor.

When Hugh returned to Crucsia, Hugh would teach Connor a hard lesson to warn him even if he did not Connor.

As expected, after bidding farewell to Jane, Connor looked at the iPad handed over by a staff member. The staff member excitedly described the grand occasion on the internet today and showed Connor those comments which hoped Connor and Jane to be together.

Someone had already posted on Twitter to propagandize this matter.

They posted various live-streaming screenshots of Jane and Connor being together on Twitter.

They were so perfect for each other.

The number of comments, likes, and reposts soared.

Below the posts were cheers and blessings from the fans.

The staff thought that Connor would be very happy.

After all, this handsome sponsor was obviously very interested in the champion, Jane.

If Connor could take advantage of the popularity of this matter online, it would be easy for Connor to get together with Jane.

However, the smile on Connor's face gradually froze.

Holy ***!

****!

Connor even wanted to ****.

Connor immediately took out his phone and used all the media channels of the Luther Group to block all topics and Twitter accounts related to the hype of Connor and Jane as a couple at all costs.

What a joke. Connor didn't want to ***!

If Hugh saw these topics and comments...

No! Since Connor had told Hugh that Jane was in the National University Painting Competition a few days ago, no matter how busy Hugh was, Hugh would still squeeze out some time to watch this live broadcast!

This time, Connor would definitely be finished!

Connor quickly took out his phone and apologized to Hugh.

[Hugh, let me explain. It's not like this....

[Hugh! Hugh! Don't ignore me. I'm afraid. I'm aggrieved. I'm afraid. Hugh!

[On the day you return to Crucsia, I'll take durians and keyboards to the airport. Pick one and I'll kneel down on one for you to see, okay?]

Hugh finally replied to Connor. [Go to ***.]

Hugh only replied with one sentence.

The situation seemed not good.

Without other methods, Connor could only ask Jane for help.

However, Connor suddenly thought of a matter.

Holy ****!

Connor forgot to ask for Jane's phone number and WeChat!

Connor felt too ****!

After Lance parted ways with Jane, he excitedly went to prepare the flow of the international painting competition for Jane.

Lance wanted to nurture Jane into a world champion, let her get a gold medal, and bring glory to the country.

Lila had already called the entire family to watch the live broadcast online.

When it was time to vote, Lila actively tried to get her friends and family to vote for Jane.

When Lila saw Jane winning the championship and standing in the center, facing the public, Lila was so excited that her face flushed red. Lila screamed repeatedly and was about to faint..

Seeing it was about time, Lila called Jane to congratulate her.

Lila even said that she would treat Jane to going to Nightshade Bar tonight for fun.

Then, Jane was more than happy to oblige.

When Jane returned to the apartment, she placed the trophy in the display window.

Honestly, in the past, Jane did not care about trophies and championship titles at all.

This was because Jane had absolute confidence in her strength.

As long as Jane wanted it, relying on the teacher's teachings and the talent bestowed by Type Omegal blood, there was nothing that Jane could not get if she was serious.

But this time, Jane looked at the trophy and smiled.

Perhaps it was because Jane had found her original intention and engraved the teacher's teachings in her heart.

Jane even thought that she could participate in international competitions and bring glory to the country.

Jane suddenly felt that her life had meaning.

For the living, if they were capable, they should think of making their names in the annals of history, and doing things that are universally desirable and that are full of light.

It was lucky that Jane did not need to be obsessed with the family that did not belong to her and be caught up in the maelstrom of hatred anymore.

Then Jane took a photo of the trophy and sent it to Yale.

[Yale, I won the championship of the National University Painting Competition. Hurry up and praise me]

Yale replied quickly. [Jane, you are so great!]

At this time, Yale was working on a project.

In this world, only Jane could disrupt Yale's concentration in the experiment and bring him back to reality so easily.

Yale didn't have many WeChat friends, and he even set up a special notification for Jane.

In fact, for the sake of Jane, Yale did not even set his phone to silent or turn off it during the experiment.

Yale was afraid that Jane would not be able to contact him if he did so.

When the assistants who were assisting Yale in the experiment saw this scene, their jaws dropped.

Mr. really gave Queen the most blatant favoritism.

Jane chatted with Yale for a while.

At this moment, Hugh's message came. [You won the championship?]

Jane was a little unhappy. [Hugh, you sound so calm... Aren't you happy for me?]

Yan replied at once. [With your strength, this is natural. I'm happy for you, but I'm afraid you think it's unnecessary if I act very excitedly.]

Jane smiled. [I'll take that as a compliment then.]

Yan thought for a while and sent another message. [I watched the live broadcast online. There seem to be quite a lot of people... They're quite interested in you and Connor as a couple.]

Hugh originally did not want to say so, but he could not control himself.

The surging jealousy in Hugh's heart had nowhere to go and overflowed crazily.

Even the entire room was filled with jealousy.

When Life reported back to Hugh, he was terrified.

Life finally finished reporting and got Hugh's approval. Then he rushed out of the office as if he was escaping for his life.

was as if Life was afraid that he would be eaten alive if he was any slower.

Jane couldn't help but roll her eyes. [Hugh, don't tell me that you're jealous?] Even the straightforward Jane could tell that Hugh was jealous.

Hugh's jealousy almost rushed out of the phone screen and spread to Jane.

Yan replied pitifully. [If I said I was jealous, would you think I was being nosy? But I am really sad.] Jane almost choked.

Hugh actually showed such a humble attitude.

No matter how Jane thought about it, it did not match Hugh's persona!

If someone familiar with Hugh saw him like this, they would definitely think that Jane was a witch who cursed Hugh.

[No, if I said I would be happy, would you be in a better mood and not be so jealous?]

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 122

No Way Back Chapter 122-After Jane sent this message, she felt it seemed a little sweet.

It didn't matter.

Jane just did as she pleased.

Anyway, Hugh must have seen it, and it was too late to retreat this message,

If Jane did so, it would make Hugh misunderstand her even more.

On the other side, Hugh saw Jane's reply and couldn't help but be stunned.

Hugh didn't expect Jane would reply like this.

Finally, Hugh suppressed his excitement and replied. [Yes, I'll be very happy.]

[That's good. Don't be jealous. Be good.]

Connor was still struggling with how to apologize to Hugh, and he kept calling Robert.

Robert was in a meeting and saw Connor keep calling him crazily.

It had already been 30 missed calls, but Connor still didn't give up.

So, Robert directly blacklisted Connor and would let him out after the meeting.

Connor was so angry that he almost rolled his eyes.

“No, I have to book a plane ticket to Wetanean to apologize to Hugh. I can’t sit still and wait for death. Otherwise, when Hugh returns to Stormton City, he’ll definitely kill me.”

Just as Connor was about to arrange for someone to buy a plane ticket, he received Hugh’s message on WeChat.

“I’ll give you a chance to redeem yourself. Help me analyze it.”

Then, Hugh repeated his chat with Jane to Connor.

Of course, Hugh claimed that this was a matter that happened to his friend.

Connor couldn’t help but burst out laughing.

Fortunately, this was just a chat but not a call.

Otherwise, hearing Connor’s laughter, Hugh would definitely want to kill him.

Hugh was exposed too completely!

How could the dignified head of D. Y. Group care about such a little thing about others?

It must have something to do with Hugh, so he was concerned about it so much.

Of course, when Connor replied, he pretended not to know the truth.

This was a good opportunity to atone for his crimes.

Hence, Connor advised Hugh to take action decisively.

[Needless to say, the woman must have been moved by the man’s sincerity!

(As long as the man persists, he will be able to get the woman his girlfriend!

[If this doesn’t work, I can chop off my head and kick it like a ball!]

Hugh looked at Connor’s reply, and his eyes flickered with uncertainty and surprise. Really?

Could it be that Janie already liked Hugh?

At the thought of this possibility, Hugh could not help but feel excited.

The ten-thousand-year-old iceberg melted and turned into the spring of March, silver light flowing. Night fell.

Jane and Lila came to Nightshade Bar to celebrate.

“Cheers!”

Jane clinked glasses with Lila and took a sip of wine with a smile.

“Oh, my god, I’m so happy. However, it is very pity that I didn’t see how that green tea , Madelyn, looked when she saw you won the championship!

“I’ve already imagined countless times how envious Madelyn would be at that time. But, in the end, it’s still not as satisfying as seeing that green tea *being angry with my own eyes!”

This was Lila’s only regret besides being happy.

“We are happy today. Let’s not mention that woman, lest it ruins our mood.”

“Janie, you’re right. Although it feels good to embarrass her, it makes us happier when drinking. Let’s not mention that ***

At this moment, a band appeared at the bar.

“Janie, let me give you another gift!”

Lila blinked at Jane and took the initiative to rush over, indicating that she wanted to sing a song.

Those who could come to Nightshade Bar were all noble guests, so the band naturally had no room to refuse Lila.

They decisively gave the stage to Lila.

Lila cleared her throat and spoke into the microphone.

“Today’s song is dedicated to my most, most important best friend, Janie!

“It’s also to celebrate Janie successfully winning the national championship!

“I hope Janie will reach the pinnacle of the world and gain more glory!

“The song I will sing next is I Love You.”

Recently, the singer of the song had been on fire once again because of a variety show.

This song was trending on TikTok's top search.

It was also Lila's favorite song when she watched idol dramas before..

It was best to use this song to express Lila's feelings for Jane.

Lila's singing was not bad.

Her voice was sweet, and this lively love song was sung very well by Lila. When the song got to the climax, Lila even started to dance to the rhythm. Jane sat where she was and smiled at Lila.

Peter, who was on the second floor, happened to see this scene.

Peter had watched today's live broadcast from beginning to end at home.

Peter even logged into his account and voted for Jane.

When Peter saw Jane's work, he was almost stunned and looked very pious.

Peter had never seen such an indescribable painting.

It was not just a simple painting.

It was more like a product of a mix of souls which could easily take away the soul of the person who saw this painting.

It was simply a miracle!

Finally, Jane won the national championship by a landslide.

Peter was happy for Jane and even proud because Jane was Peter's biological sister. Seeing his biological sister was so outstanding, how could Peter not be proud?

At the same time, Peter asked himself why he didn't know more about Jane back then.

Peter knew nothing about Jane including what Jane liked as well as how much shocking talent Jane hid.

It was only when their relationship was irrevocable that Jane began to reveal her brilliance.

By the time Peter regretted it and wanted to get his sister back, wanted to get everything back and know about Jane more, everything was too late.

Peter was even jealous of Lila who was singing and dancing with a happy smile on stage because Lila was Jane's best friend.

Lila could be with Jane without any scruples. She could do what Jane liked and know more about Jane.

It was a position that Peter was no longer qualified to stay in.

"Alright, Peter, I knew it wasn't a good thing for you to suddenly ask me to drink in Nightshade Bar. Aren't you tired? You're torturing yourself!"

Larry helplessly watched from the side as Peter became like this. Ever since Jane arrived at the rooftop on the second floor, Peter had not shifted his gaze. Larry could not help but hold his forehead and sigh. If Peter had known this would happen, why would he have done these things in the first place? Larry did admire Jane's achievements.

In Larry's eyes, it was already impressive enough for a person to have one of Jane's , and he could be said to be a genius.

However, Jane was simply a demon. After cutting ties with the Fowler family, Jane revealed all kinds of talents without hiding anything.

Even if Larry felt that Jane was a God of Misfortune, as long as it was related to Jane, nothing good would happen, he could not deny that Jane was a super beautiful woman.

And Jane's dazzling halo was too dazzling, making people unable to take their eyes off her.

"I know I'm torturing myself, but I have no choice, Larry.

"After watching the live broadcast of Jane's participation in the competition today, I thought it would be great if I could see Jane.

"Even if I'm no longer qualified to appear in front of Jane, even if I'm by Jane to the extreme, I still want to look at her silently in a place that Jane doesn't know, wish her well, and congratulate her."

"I'm really happy for her to win the championship."

So, Peter could only use the stupidest method.

Peter did not know about Jane at all, so he didn't know where Jane liked to go.

However, Peter met Jane many times in Nightshade Bar before.

Peter could only think of booking a private room in Nightshade Bar at night and waiting for Jane. The open-air spot on the second floor was Jane's favorite spot and also Peter's.

It was extremely comfortable to be able to enjoy the wind by the river when they sat there. The neon lights of Stormton City on the other side and the bustling night scenery were visible.

From time to time, exquisite sightseeing boats would across the river and under the bridge. Peter was afraid that Jane would turn around and leave when she saw him.

This way, Peter wouldn't be able to see Jane from there.

So, Peter then dragged Larry to the private room.

Watching Jane secretly just like now, Peter was already very satisfied, and he did not dare to ask for anything else.

Larry looked at Peter and could not help but sigh.

Larry never dreamed that Peter would become like this.

Peter felt so guilty toward Jane that it even affected his own life.

This matter had already become a dead knot.

Larry did not even know how to help Peter open this dead knot and made Peter return to the proud and sunny young man before he met Jane.

At this moment, another person appeared in Nightshade Bar.

He saw Jane who looked very happy drinking and listening to music at the first sight.

The man frowned hard. "I actually met this *here..."

No Way Back Chapter 123-Jane noticed a malice gaze.

She turned around.

"My gosh.

"Isn't that Layne Croft?"

As much as Jane wanted to, there was no way she could avoid her enemies.

Jane puckered her brows.

It should be a happy day for her.

However, she felt that she had gotten up on the wrong side of the bed that day.

She had encountered all kinds of irritating people since she left home.

She did not remember much about Layne.

Because they had little to do with each other in the past.

Madelyn had played innocent in front of the Fowlers and caused them to mistreat Jane.

That was Madelyn's ace move that had harmed Jane the most.

Jane used to be engaged to Layne who was also Madelyn's back-burner guy.

-Madelyn was smart enough not to let him interact too much with Jane, in case something beyond her control happened.

In the past five years, Jane and Layne had only met a few times.

Every time they met, Layne would tell Jane either not to his little Maddie or that he would never marry her.

At that time, Jane didn't care.

She had told Layne countless times that she was not interested in him and he shouldn't think too much.

However, Layne was a hopeless narcissistic man.

He had not listened at all.

Jane shot a quick glance at him and looked away.

She was in a good mood, so she did not want to bother that ***.

Layne noticed Jane's indifferent gaze.

He was suddenly off.

Then, he recalled seeing Jane chatting and laughing happily with Connor earlier on.

“Hmph.

“, are you playing hard to get with me?

Layne had seen too many women like Jane who pretended to be uninterested and gave him the cold shoulder. In fact, they had long coveted the Croft family’s power.

Originally, Layne wanted to ignore Jane.

However, he thought of what happened to Luna Croft.

Jane was watching Lila singing on stage.

Suddenly, Layne walked over and sat nearby her.

He even took the initiative to talk to Jane.

“Jane, this is the first time we’ve actually met.

“When I wasn’t in Stormton City, I heard that you’ve caused a lot of trouble in the Fowler and the Croft families.”

Layne tried to speak in a calm tone.

But Jane did not listen to him at all.

She was watching Lila’s performance with full attention.

Layne frowned unconsciously and cursed in his mind.

“You ***.

“You obviously heard me.

“But you deliberately ignore me.

“Too much of this ‘play hard to get’ game. People will get * of it, Jane!”

In the private room on the third floor, Larry and Peter saw that scene.

“Peter, isn’t that Layne? I remember he is engaged to Jane. Isn’t he Jane’s fiancé?”

Larry knew about that because it had blown into a big hoo-ha.

Layne loved Madelyn and wanted to marry no one except her.

Not only he, his family, and the Fowler family were all very supportive of their marriage.

Layne and Madelyn were childhood sweethearts. They basically grew up together and had a very deep relationship.

There was no other couple who were more compatible than these two in terms of family background, looks, and many other things,

It was natural for them to be together, and everyone was happy to see that.

However, things between this great couple everyone adored had become awkward because of Madelyn's rejection.

Madelyn felt that as an adopted daughter, the Fowler family had given her too much.

Layne was engaged to Jane Fowler. She just could not steal Jane's fiancé.

At that time, nobody knew whether Jane was alive or dead as she had been missing for 19 years.

Madelyn would never accept Layne until Jane's status was confirmed.

Therefore, she had been shunning him.

No one would blame Madelyn.

They would just think that she was too kind-hearted and *****.

She rather gave up her own happiness for a sister who had probably died.

In the end, Jane was found.

It was even more unlikely for Madelyn and Layne to be together.

Back then, Peter had complained to Larry that Madelyn had to break up with Layne whom she was so deeply in love with because Jane had come back.

Jane was a third party, a villain who broke the couple apart simply because of the pact made by the previous generation.

Thinking of that, Larry could not help but take a few glances at Peter.

Peter's face was grim.

Obviously, he recalled how he had disparaged Jane in front of Larry.

His words were vicious.

And he regretted it so much now that he wished he could travel back in time and give that wicked Peter Fowler a loud slap.

"It's him... I'm worried that he approaches Jane to harm her."

"Ah? I don't think so... Isn't this the first time they meet each other?"

"Besides, Jane has cut off ties with the Fowler family. Their engagement is off, isn't it? Why would Layne want to approach Jane?"

Peter didn't answer.

He could not tell Larry that Luna had knelt down and barked like a dog.

Peter also found out on the Internet that Jane had taken a video of that and had yet to expose it.

Because of that, Luna went to Harbor City to hide from her.

He wondered if Layne knew what had happened to his sister.

"If he has found out, he must be approaching Jane with an ulterior motive." Peter thought.

Meanwhile, in the seats, Layne raised his voice. "Jane!"

Jane felt a slight headache.

She turned around and looked at Layne with annoyance.

"Have you no ***?"

"What... what did you say?"

Layne narrowed his eyes which gleamed with dangerous intent.

"Can't you see that I'm ignoring you? Why are you sitting near me and talking to me?"

"Mr. Narcissist, you're so obnoxious!"

Jane finally said those harsh words to Layne.

She had wanted to say that to him countless times in her previous life.

But on the other hand, she admired Layne's courage.

Layne looked so ordinary.

However, he was overly confident.

Jane did not know where his confidence come from.

"Does he think he is gold and loved by everyone? No one will let go of him no matter what?" Jane thought.

Layne was stunned.

That was the first time in his life someone had the audacity to talk to him that way and said that he was an obnoxious narcissistic man.

Layne was not Mr. Narcissist.

He came from the purest bloodline of the Croft family. He was a handsome man with impeccable education and great ambitions. There was literally nothing he couldn't do.

No second-generation rich trash could compare with him.

He was someone who could surpass Hugh.

When women saw him, they would succumb to his good look, family background, and ability.

That was what Layne thought of himself.

However, looking at Jane's irritated expression, he could not find a word to defend himself.

He could only comfort himself that Jane purposely infuriated him to attract his attention. "Janie!"

Lila finished her performance and came to meet her best friend. She said happily, "Oh, this feels great. Did you watch me sing? How was my singing?"

"You were fantastic. Alright, if there's nothing else, let's get out of here and go to another place."

“What? Why? It is so sudden.”

Lila was a little surprised.

Then, her gaze landed on Layne.

Layne subconsciously straightened his body.

He gazed at Lila at a diagonal angle and took up an , domineering, and flawless posture.

He wanted to show Jane that the man she had just humiliated was a rare treasure.

He wasn't the narcissist that she said.

“Janie, did this guy hit on you just now? He looks so smug.

“This kind of narcissistic man is just obnoxious.”

Lila's voice wasn't loud.

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 124

No Way Back Chapter 124-However, Layne had heard everything clearly.

“Hahaha, Lila, you're right. As expected of my best friend. Our minds are in sync!”

Jane patted Lila's head in admiration.

Even Lila could tell the nature of Layne at a glance.

“Tsk, tsk, tsk.

“Cherish your life and stay away from a narcissistic guy. Janie, let's bounce.”

Lila and Jane were thinking the same thing.

Lila didn't know Layne.

Neither did she know the special relationship between him and Jane.

But she was disgusted by Layne's ***.

“When I looked at him just now, he gazed up at the ceiling melancholically.

“Come on, does he think he's some kind of super idol shooting a movie?”

If Lila wasn't a classy lady, she would have punched Layne's face which was an eyesore to her.

However, everyone was so happy that night. Even if they asked the security guards to take Layne away, it would still spoil their moods. Therefore, she figured they might as well leave.

"Sure. Drive my car. Let's go to the mountain to see the stars."

Jane said as she dragged Lila away.

Layne was surprised.

"After you two took turns calling me names, you want to run away?"

"No way!"

Layne immediately stood up and stopped Jane.

"Great barkers are no biters. Get out of our ways."

Lila said angrily.

She knew the narcissistic man would not let them off the hook so easily.

He must be captivated by Janie's beauty.

"Jane, you and this woman humiliated me just now. Don't you think you owe me an explanation?" Layne tried his best to control his temper.

His privileged upbringing prevented him from yelling and losing control.

Even so, he was gnashing his teeth while speaking to Jane.

Anger welled up in his chest and he was about to explode.

"Humiliate you?"

Jane laughed.

"You want to admit that?"

"You... admit what? What do you mean? You just..."

"I didn't mention your name, did I? Layne, you're from the Croft family after all. Why are you so eager to label yourself as a narcissist?"

Jane's silver tongue rendered Layne speechless.

He didn't even know how to refute her.

Jane was simply telling the truth.

She really had not mentioned Layne's name.

But that remark was obviously directed at him.

If Layne continued to pursue the matter, he would really label himself as Mr. Narcissist.

Jane was very popular in Nightshade Bar now.

There were not many people drinking near them, but when the customers heard their argument, they all looked at Jane.

"Hey, Peter, your sister has really gotten into a fight with Layne... Peter?"

Larry was waiting for a good show.

But Peter had already gotten up and rushed out of the VIP room.

He moved so fast that even Larry couldn't stop him.

"This guy... seriously, he can't wait to get humiliated."

Larry could not help but frown.

Even if Peter rushed out to help Jane deal with Layne, Jane would not appreciate his kindness.

She might even sneer at him.

Who asked Peter to owe her so much?

As Peter's buddy, Larry was afraid that something would happen to him, so he immediately went after him.

Lila snorted. "The Croft family? Janie, have you mistaken him for someone else? He's from the Croft family? He can't compare to Hugh Croft at all."

Lila didn't know Hugh very well.

But they had met a few times.

Compared to Hugh, Layne was simply a pile of ***.

Detestable and off-putting.

He was worlds apart from Hugh.

“You!”

Layne gritted his teeth grimly.

He it the most when others compared him with Hugh and deemed him the laser.

Especially when a complete stranger like Lila did that.

“It’s none of your business!”

“Layne!”

Just then, Peter rushed over.

He glared at Layne, shielding Lila and Jane behind him.

“What are you doing?”

“Peter, why are you here?”

Layne frowned.

“What does Peter mean?”

“Isn’t he taking the wrong side?”

“Why is he on guard against Layne?”

“Doesn’t he always protect Madelyn and that I’m back?”

Jane was puzzled.

“Janie, what’s going on? Why is Peter here? And why does it look like he’s protecting us?”

Never in a million years would Lila have imagined that this would happen.

After all, Peter Jane so much that he wished she was dead.

Lila has seen how badly he treated his own sister.

"He's probably out of his mind. Don't bother them. Let's go."

Jane grabbed Lila's hand and ran wildly.

Layne wanted to stop them, but Peter stood in his way.

"Peter, move aside. This is none of your business."

"How is this none of my business? Layne, Jane is my biological sister. If you dare to touch her, I will definitely not let you off!"

Peter stood in front of Layne, as steady as a rock.

He would never let Layne pass.

He didn't say it loudly.

Fortunately, Jane was running away with Lila and did not hear him.

If she heard that, she would definitely turn around, give Peter a hard kick, and tell him, "Don't disgust me!"

Layne looked at Peter in disbelief.

"Peter, do you have a loose? Jane is your biological sister? You were not like this in the past. "Also, what will little Maddie think if she finds out that you are defending Jane? She will definitely be very upset."

At the mention of Madelyn, the image of her crying flashed across Peter's mind and his heart ached at little.

"Maddie... is my sister too, but Jane is my biological sister who shares the same blood as me. This is an undeniable fact. I was wrong in the past, but now that I've come to my senses, I want to make it up to her. Can't I?"

"Layne, I'm warning you. Don't harbor evil intentions against Jane. Or I won't let

Peter could not repeat the same mistake.

Back then, he cared too much about Madelyn's feelings and hurt Jane a lot.

you off!"

He knew what was done could not be undone. But he would not do anything that would hurt Jane and make him regret it again.

Layne glared angrily at Peter.

Everyone was waiting to watch a good show and thought that the two of them would fight.

“Peter, I’ll do you a favor this time.

“But remember, I’m not afraid of you. Our families are so close, and we grew up together. We’re like brothers. But you treat me like this for a woman who betrayed and broke ties with the Fowler family. you’ll regret this one day!”

Layne turned around and stormed off.

Layne valued old friendships too much.

That was his weakness.

He still cherished his friendship with the Fowler family.

Moreover, they were crucial for him in defeating Hugh and taking charge in the Croft family in the future.

So, he could not clash with Peter there.

A heated argument ended peacefully.

Everyone thought to themselves, “What a pity.”

“Why didn’t they fight?”

“Such a bummer.”

Jane and Lila arrived at the underground parking lot.

Just as they were about to leave in the Porsche Cayenne, a man stood in front of the car. “Jane.”

It was Larry.

Jane rolled down the window and said impatiently, “What are you doing?”

Larry pursed his lips.

Judging from Jane’s hostility, he knew that Peter must have been treated with contempt trying to play the hero.

Fortunately, Peter did not interact much with Jane when he was trying to stop Layne.

Otherwise, Larry could imagine how devastated that guy would be.

As his buddy, Larry did not know how to help Peter to untie the knot in his heart and reconcile with Jane.

“Jane, just now... Peter stopped Layne to protect you.

“He saw that Layne seemed to be pestering you. He was afraid that you’d get hurt....

“Ugh, I don’t know what to say anymore. You should understand... Peter regrets it. He’s trying his best to make amends to you...”

Larry’s mind was in tumult.

Even when he spoke to Jane, he stuttered.

Mainly because when Larry said these words, he thought of Peter’s regretful and depressed look.

Then, he saw Jane’s eyes gradually turn cold, and the corners of her lips curled up into a sneer.

It was a blatant mockery.

She did not hide it at all.

Larry couldn’t go on.

Jane then spoke.

“So?”

No Way Back Chapter 125-Larry stared blankly at Jane.

“Huh?”

“I missed the part where that’s my problem.

“Since you’re Peter Fowler’s good buddy, you should persuade him.

“Don’t waste time on me, and don’t act like a prodigal son in front of me.

“Because I don’t care, and I don’t think he’s worthy!”

Jane was speechless.

Lila, who was sitting in the passenger seat, looked at Jane, who was calm and did not look sad at all. She could not help but lower her eyes.

“Jane, he... Peter really knows his mistake! No matter what, Peter is your biological brother, and you have the same father!

“Do you have to be so indifferent?”

Larry was anxious and could not help but blurt out.

It really looked like Jane was not giving him any hope at all.

Then, he thought of the torture that Peter had been through these past few days.

Larry really felt sorry for this buddy of his.

Was there not even a little hope of reconciliation?

Did Jane have to be so ruthless?

“Hah!”

Jane felt like laughing.

It felt like she was talking to a clown.

She couldn’t be bothered.

She closed the car window and started the car

“Hey, Jane, I haven’t finished speaking. Don’t go! Don’t go!”

Larry pounded on the car window frantically.

Jane ignored him.

She stepped on the accelerator, turned the steering wheel, and  away.

Larry was left standing on the spot and stomping his feet.

It was over.

He could only sigh heavily.

“Alas!”

Actually, Larry knew that he wouldn't be able to convince Jane if he came looking for Jane like this. Right now, Jane had a heart of stone. She the Fowler family and especially Peter Fowler.

No matter what Peter did, even if it meant sacrificing his life, Larry could imagine that not only would Jane not shed a single tear, but she would also even clap and cheer.

At this moment, Layne Croft happened to arrive at the underground parking lot.

He bumped into Larry.

Both parties were from top-notch wealthy families in Stormton City.

One was the Croft family and the other was the Shane family.

Layne also knew that Larry and Peter were very close.

Larry took the initiative to ask, “Where's Peter?”

“He's little Maddie's biological brother and my good buddy. What else can I do to him?”

“Although I can't understand Peter's actions at all and I find it unreasonable, what actually happened to Peter?”

“Why did he help Jane? Jane did so many vicious things to the Fowler family. Is he crazy?”

All these things, even if Layne asked Peter, Peter wouldn't answer.

Layne thought that Larry was a good person to ask.

“A lot of things have happened. Layne, don't look for trouble with Jane.

“Peter won't agree to it. Even though I've tried to persuade Peter, his mind is made up.”

Those were questions related to Peter.

Larry would not tell anyone about things like this.

With that, he walked past Layne and left.

Layne was left behind with a gloomy expression,

it...

What was wrong with all of them?

Layne had only been on a business trip for a few months.

Why did it feel like the people he was familiar with had become different people?

Did Jane Fowler drug all of them?

Larry found Peter in the private room.

Peter was still drinking.

Peter's eyes lit up when he saw Larry. "Where did you go?"

Larry sat on the sofa. Seeing Peter's expectant look, he secretly sighed. "I think you should be able to stop Layne. He saw Jane and the others leave, and he went to look for Jane."

"Did you... say something to Jane? What did she reply?"

Peter could not help but speak.

He knew the answer might not be what he wanted.

And it could even hurt him.

But Peter still couldn't help but want to know.

"Peter, are you really not giving up? Jane will never forgive you.

"Just pretend that none of this happened. You're still the same Peter from before. Go do what you want and fulfill your dreams.

"If you continue to pester Jane like this, you will only fall deeper and deeper in and make yourself suffer. Why bother?"

Larry could not help but try to advise Peter again.

Peter's eyes suddenly dimmed.

"Got it..."

Peter silently poured wine into the wine glass.

Larry looked at Peter resentfully. "Peter Fowler! Wake up! You should know that the damage done is irreparable. If you've been abused like Jane, you won't forgive them either! You have to walk out of it. You have to live your own life!"

"Don't worry, Larry. I'm very clear-headed now. I'm extremely clear-headed. I'm facing the damage I caused to Jane.

"Whether Jane will forgive me is secondary, but I won't do anything that will make me regret and let Jane get hurt. I won't stand by and do nothing.

"As long as I see it, I will protect Jane and not let anyone hurt her. This is the only thing I can do to my hurting sister as a bad older brother."

Larry was completely convinced.

He carelessly his shirt.

"Forget it. I won't persuade you anymore. You're making me feel frustrated. Come, let's stop talking and drink!"

A Porsche Cayenne was driving on the road.

"Janie..."

Lila could not help but speak.

"Have you... really completely let go?"

Lila's voice was very uncertain.

This was because Lila saw that Jane really... no longer cared at all.

When Jane left the Fowler family, she was determined to completely cut ties with the Fowler family.

However, back then, Jane was so obsessed with the idea of kinship.

So, now that she saw her family repent and wanted to make it up to her, would her heart hurt to say such heartless words?

Lila didn't care if the Fowlers lived or died.

Lila only cared about if Jane was pretending to be apathetic but was actually hurting inside.

"Lila, don't worry. I've really let it go.

"I told you, I will never forgive the Fowler family for what they did. Not in this lifetime.

"My relationship with the Fowler family has been completely severed. No matter what they do, even if they die in front of me, I won't care."

Jane used the most indifferent words to say something that others would find extremely vicious. Only then did Lila feel relieved. "Janie, since you've decided, I support you."

It seemed that Jane was not trying to be brave.

That's great.

Jane's lips curled. "I thought you'd try to talk me out of it."

"Please, Janie, I will definitely support you. Besides, I'm not a saint.

"Let's not talk about whether Peter really regrets it now and wants to make it up to you. Besides, the Fowler family might not think so.

"Back then, the Fowler family was so  to you and trampled on your desire for kinship. As a witness, if I let you reconcile with the Fowler family, would I still be human?"

Lila pouted.

She expressed her unhappiness at Jane's distrust.

She was angry and needed to be coaxed!

"Yes, I was trampled on like this back then. Now, did he think he could make me forget all the pain by putting on the face of a good older brother? Did he think I would go back to be their bootlicker and be hurt again?"

So Jane would never forget her "why".

She would never forget the five years of torture in her previous life.

What they did were unforgivable!

She would never forgive them!

If she forgave them again, Jane would really be letting down the opportunity given to her by the heavens!

Moreover, Jane had already found something more important than kinship.

Dreams, friends, and the whole troop with her Teacher!

As for the Fowler family, if they wanted to act, it was up to them.

Jane would not be moved, let alone take another look.

She could only watch as the clowns tried their best to please her.

A late love was worth even lesser than hay.

Layne returned to the villa.

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 126

No Way Back Chapter 126-Diane was still waiting for Layne in the living room in her pajamas.

Layne took off his suit and hung it on the coat rack. Seeing that Diane was still awake, he asked with concern, "Mom? Why aren't you asleep?"

"Layne Croft, why did you come home so late today? I was just worried about you. Sigh... after what happened to your sister, your father even especially went to City Harbor to look for her.

"I called your father just now, but he still hasn't found your sister. I don't know where she's hidden. Your father even asked me about how I the video, but I couldn't tell him..."

Diane Croft had been worrying about these things for the past few days. Her well-maintained eyes were covered with dark circles and thin crow's feet. Her complexion was not good.

"This incompetent girl."

Layne gritted his teeth.

If not for the fact that Luna Croft was Layne's biological sister, Layne would have finished off such an *and incompetent person to prevent future trouble!

Layne and Raymond Croft had warned Luna countless times, but before leaving the country, Luna still dared to leave such a mess for Layne.

Layne was clearly about to go up against Hugh Croft with great fanfare and regain control of the Croft family, but Luna was right there stabbing him in the back! ***!

“Layne Croft, no matter what, Luna is your biological sister. Don’t worry about this for now. I’ll think of a way to destroy the video.”

However, looking at Jane Fowler’s unmoved attitude, it was probably going to be very troublesome. If necessary... She could only resort to extreme measures.

Killing intent flashed across Diane’s eyes.

“By the way, Layne, didn’t you go with Maddie to participate in some National University Painting Competition? Why was it that when I saw the news, Jane Fowler not only was the champion but became even more popular?”

When Diane saw it, she was shocked to death.

This was because Diane knew that Layne had made some internal arrangements.

Logically speaking, it was impossible for Jane Fowler to win the championship.

However, Layne and Madelyn were dating, and Diane did not want to disturb them.

She couldn’t wait for Layne to marry Madelyn.

Therefore, she waited until Layne returned home before she asked.

“She just got lucky.”

Layne recalled the scene of Nightshade Bar that night when he was taunted by Jane and Lila Sutton as “Mr. Narcissist”.

He silently clenched his fists.

Of course, Layne did not want to tell Diane about this incident.

It was too embarrassing.

Seeing Layne’s expression, Diane didn’t continue asking.

It seemed that this Jane Fowler was really not easy to deal with.

She had to make up her mind quickly...

The next day.

Diane went straight to the Fowler Corporation.

Of course, the Fowler Corporation's receptionist knew Diane Croft's identity. He respectfully asked Diane to wait for a moment before informing Anna Fowler.

Anna received the news and came down very quickly.

Looking at Anna, Diane caressed Anna's face endearingly. "Anna... It seems that you've been really having a bad time recently. You look haggard and thin."

Diane knew what happened to the Fowler Corporation. Although she was anxious about it, it had blown up too much, and it was not something Diane could help with.

Fortunately, the Fowler Corporation survived. The Fowler family had also survived, and everything was back on track.

"Speaking of which, Diane, these past few days of working hard with Jack in the company made me regain the feeling I had when I was young.

"Now that Henry is back, it's just that this child... He has been working too hard recently and he's making me a little worried."

Anna did not tell Diane about Henry fainting and she also did not tell Diane anything about Jane Fowler.

These things could only be kept internally and should not be told to outsiders.

"He's a young man, it's good that he has energy and desire to work hard.

"In the future, Henry will be the Fowler Corporation's legitimate successor. His ability is seen by all. What he needs now is to produce results and convince everyone.

"Let the next generation live their lives. Let's not worry too much. Let's go, Anna. I'll bring you to the cafe outside for drinks..."

Anna's eyelashes trembled slightly as she sighed softly. "Diane, if you're here because of what you called to ask me about the last time, about Jane Fowler, I'm sorry. We really have no say when it comes to Jane Fowler. Now that the Fowler family has become like this, we only want to cut ties with her completely."

Jane Fowler was a bad luck charm. Nothing good had ever happened when they were involved with her.

Anna was also tired. The Fowler family, the Fowler Corporation, and even Henry and Peter Fowler all suffered damages from Jane Fowler.

Perhaps, this was karma.

It was maybe a retribution towards Anna's life that had been too smooth sailing. The heavens wanted to punish her and give her some balance in her life.

And this divine retribution came in the form of the biological daughter that Anna had dreamt to find all her life.

How *****.

"Anna... If it wasn't for the fact that I had no other choices, I wouldn't have come to look for you.

"Actually... it's like this..."

Diane told Anna everything.

Anna's eyes widened. "Oh my god... How... How could this happen?"

"Anna, I didn't want to tell you such an embarrassing thing, but this concerns the Croft family's reputation.

"Layne's career is rising now. He can't be dragged down by Luna, that wretched girl."

"If you want to destroy the video, you have to go to Jane Fowler. I have no choice, I can only come to you. Please help me..."

Anna looked troubled.

"But... If I were to go look for Jane Fowler, all I would get is humiliation. I would be of no help at all." Diane bit her lip and begged, "Anna, you watched Luna grow up. You don't want Luna to be chased out of the Croft family and live on the streets, right?"

Anna was at a loss for words.

Emotions tugged wildly in her heart.

Anna hesitated for a moment before saying, "I can only say that I'll give it a try... but I'm really not confident. Diane, don't blame me if I don't get a good solution."

"Anna, I'm already very grateful that you're willing to help. How could I blame you? Also... This is too embarrassing. I've only told you, and no one else. As for the others..."

"Don't worry, I'll keep my . I won't say anything."

Jane still had no idea about Diane and Anna's plans.

Today, Jane went to Dragon Gym.

This was Jane's habit.

In the past, she had to wait until there were no classes in school every month so she could take a day off to go for training at the Dragon Gym,

Even though Jane was skilled, especially since she still had Chi that she had learned from her Teacher, but it had been a long time since she trained with high intensity, so her reaction time was slow.

This was to make up for Jane's sixth sense, instinct, and for awakening the fighting instincts that were dormant in Jane's body.

In her previous life, ever since she was taken back by the Fowler family, Jane Fowler had even thrown away this habit.

She only wanted to hide her strength and blend in with the rest of the Fowler family so that no one would discover the Darknet Queen's identity and bring unnecessary trouble to the Fowler family.

After her rebirth, too many things happened.

It was also because of her fight with Dwayne had Jane's alarm bells ringing, and she was then reminded of this habit.

Although she had fought with Dwayne twice and had completely defeated Dwayne,

Jane felt that her movements had become much slower.

This was partly because Dwayne Fowler as an opponent was not strong enough, so Jane was unable to get serious.

The main reason was also that Jane had neglected her training.

After all, it had been more than five years.

So, for the sake of future battles, Jane had to pick up this habit once again.

In the future, when she had no classes, she had to come more to the Dragon Gym to train.

She returned to the Darknet and announced that the Queen was back. Even if her identity information was very protected and safe,

It was unknown how many people secretly wanted to find out the Queen's true identity and they had spent a lot of money to kill the Queen.

Combat ability was a life-saving weapon. It was indispensable. She could not allow her senses to be dulled.

Otherwise, one day, she would die on the streets.

Doug Gents, the owner of Dragon Gym, and Jane were old friends.

Just as Jane had entered with a swipe of her card, coincidentally, Doug was at the front desk. He shouted in surprise, "Jane Fowler!"

Jane smiled. "Long time no see, Doug."

"It's really been a long time... You haven't been here for a few months. Ahem, but too many things have happened to you recently. I can understand."

Doug saw the recent trending posts on the Internet.

After learning that Jane's real identity was the Fowler family's real daughter who had been missing for 19 years and that she had not just cut ties with Jack Fowler but brought him to court, he was extremely surprised.

"Congratulations. You've been very popular on Tik Tok recently. I often see you. You won the National University Painting Competition."

"It's not too bad."

Doug chatted with Jane for a while before Jane went to the ladies changing room to change into her clothes and equipment.

By the time Jane came out, Doug was already done arranging Jane's training sandbags.

"The usual. Jane. Two hundred pounds of sandbags."

"Okay."

Jane took a deep breath and went to the sandbag to warm up.

With bare feet, her black hair was tied into a ponytail, and there she was in a standard boxing posture. She was wearing boxing gloves, and her gaze was scorching hot like a torch.

Her figure was as light as a swallow and flawless. Her punches were incomparably fierce. Just looking at her gave one a sense of shock.

In addition to the flying kicks and knee strikes in the air, every move she made was filled with strength. Many members who were training there as well were stunned.

It was hard to imagine such boldness coming from such a beautiful and docile-looking girl.

Even a normal strong man would suffer greatly from one punch.

Looking at the sandbag that weighed 200 pounds being punched by Jane one after another and was sent flying around non-stop, one could tell how strong Jane was!

Doug watched Jane's training from the side and felt that it was as beautiful as a painting.

He recalled that when Jane first came to the Dragon Gym to apply for a membership card to train for boxing, Doug even asked Jane if she wanted a coach to train her.

In the end.

Even Doug, the gym owner, was KO-ed by Jane's moves.

Then, he completely submitted to the valiant and heroic stance of Jane's boxing.

Before this, Doug had never thought that such a handsome girl existed in this world!

It really made one's heart flutter!

At this moment.

Another figure walked into the gym.

"The environment is not bad. This is it."

Dwayne muttered to himself.

At first glance.

He saw Jane training.

At that moment.

Dwayne could not believe his eyes.

What a coincidence!

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 127

No Way Back Chapter 127-He had bumped into Jane Fowler once more!

Then.

He was overjoyed.

Dwayne was in a very good mood today.

The injuries left behind by Jane the last time they fought were almost completely healed.

It was a heaven-sent opportunity. Dwayne wanted to spar with Jane to save his dignity.

Wasn't it the best time now?

The receptionist looked at Dwayne's physique and could not help but secretly swallow a of saliva.

He was too terrifying.

She quickly and quietly walked towards Doug.

Doug was still immersed in the heroic view of Jane Fowler's boxing.

The receptionist tugged at Doug's clothes. "Sir, there's an unfamiliar guest. Come over and take a look." Doug looked over and noticed Dwayne Fowler.

His physique...

Even Doug, the owner of the gym, could not help but be a little shocked.

This was the first time Doug had seen such a terrifying physique.

Dwayne's height was close to 6 feet 3 inches. Even if he was wearing clothes, one could clearly see his well-trained and perfect muscles.

When he got close to Dwayne, Doug could feel the aura of a formidable fighter.

People like this were usually recruited and trained by the national team. They would not go to unknown gyms to train.

Why did Dwayne look a little familiar?

Doug temporarily suppressed the doubts in his heart and leaned over. "Hey, good-looking sir, welcome to the Dragon Gym. Do you want to get a card or take a look at the venue and our environment first?" Dwayne glanced at Doug. "Hey, is Jane Fowler a regular here?"

"You're a friend of Jane? Ah... No, you're the Dwayne Fowler! World Wrestling Entertainment Tournament Champion! A Cruscian who had brought glory to the country!"

When Doug heard Dwayne Fowler's voice, he suddenly remembered Dwayne's true identity and shouted excitedly.

Everyone who boxed have heard of Dwayne Fowler. As the youngest Cruscian to hold the World Wrestling Entertainment Tournament Champion titles, he had always been the pride of the boxing circle!

Everyone looked over.

", it's really the World Wrestling Entertainment Tournament Champion."

"Dwayne Fowler, I'm a fan of yours. Can we take a photo together? Do you want an autograph?"

"I've heard that World Wrestling Entertainment Tournament Champion is the Fowler Corporation's fifth son. I didn't expect him to be in Stormton City now! For me to even meet him here at the Dragon Gym!" "This must be our lucky day!"

The scene instantly became a little chaotic.

Fortunately, there were not many people at the gym.

Jane Fowler also stopped her training.

She looked at Dwayne Fowler and frowned.

What was this annoying fellow doing here?

It was rare for her to want to train in boxing today, and she just had to meet someone she did not want to see. How unlucky.

Dwayne Fowler put down his backpack and ignored the gazes of the others. He stared at Jane Fowler with a burning gaze.

"Sorry, everyone, let's talk later.

“Jane Fowler, there’s no time like the present. Since we bumped into each other today, let’s fight

“One fight that’s fair and square! No matter who wins or loses this time, there’s no excuse!” Huh?

No one expected the plot to unfold like this.

The gazes shifted from Dwayne to Jane Fowler.

Looking at World Wrestling Entertainment Tournament Champion. Did he seem to have a very strong fighting intent against this beauty?

Although looking at the beautiful girl’s training, she was definitely a martial artist with unfathomable strength.

Jane Fowler did not even look at Dwayne Fowler.

She took off her gloves and spoke coldly,

“I refuse.”

“W-what did you say?”

Dwayne Fowler was slightly stunned..

He thought that Jane Fowler would accept the challenge without hesitation.

Who would have thought that Jane Fowler would refuse him?

Jane ignored Dwayne and turned to leave.

“Jane Fowler, stop right there! You can’t leave! What kind of fighter are you? Are you going to run away from a challenge issued to you?”

Dwayne was about to rush over and grab Jane.

Fortunately, Doug was quick enough to block in front of Dwayne.

“Dwayne Fowler, calm down. If there’s anything, we can discuss it properly. Since Jane is unwilling to compete with you, you can’t force her!”

Moreover, since Dwayne Fowler had the dazzling title of World Wrestling Entertainment Tournament Champion, no matter how powerful Jane was, she was no match for Dwayne Fowler.

Wasn't it a joke for a man to fight with a woman? No matter how people would imagine it, the woman would lose!

"I can't let her go I've got to seize such a good opportunity. How can I let her go?"

Dwayne Fowler was tormented by the experience of losing to Jane Fowler twice and he could not sleep. at night. He felt that his dignity had begun to shatter and he had been stabbed several times.

Only by defeating Jane Fowler, Dwayne could wash away the humiliation and get rid of this nightmare. "Dwayne Fowler..."

"Go away!"

Right now, Dwayne Fowler's eyes, heart, and mind were only filled with Jane Fowler's figure.

As soon as his temper flared up, with Doug that had continuously stopped him, Dwayne could not control himself and used a little more strength.

And he pushed Doug to the side, and Doug fell to the ground.

"Sir!"

The receptionist panicked. When she saw Doug's pained expression, she was so nervous that she did.

not know what to do.

Dwayne Fowler also calmed down a little.

He looked at Doug in shock.

Jane Fowler's expression instantly darkened.

She quickly walked over and helped Doug up.

"Hey, are you okay?"

"I'm fine... Ouch."

Doug rubbed his and inhaled sharply a few times.

As he fell heavily to the ground unprepared, Doug thought that his tailbone might have been injured.

Jane Fowler looked at Dwayne coldly and spat the word clearly, "Apologize to him!"

Dwayne Fowler wanted to apologize.

However, after hearing Jane Fowler's words, Dwayne instantly didn't want to apologize anymore.

"I... As long as you compete with me and you win, I'll do anything."

Dwayne could only make a compromising request.

It was fine to say Dwayne Fowler was despicable and ***...

Since all Dwayne wanted was to fight Jane Fowler today.

"Hah, Dwayne Fowler, you're really a . A piece of trash!"

Jane Fowler mercilessly insulted Dwayne Fowler.

"You!"

"What? Did I say something wrong? You went to a gym and hurt the gym owner. You don't even know how to apologize. Did you study nine years of compulsory education for nothing?"

"Anyone with a little conscience will apologize immediately. You didn't even help him up. Fowler Corporation's Fifth Mr. Fowler, it seems like your conscience has been eaten by a dog. Even an animal had more manners than you do!"

After saying that, Jane Fowler looked at the people around him. "Go ahead and record everything I say. Post it to your Moments, and post it online. Let's see what kind of this Mr. Fowler is!"

"Jane Fowler! I... It's not like I'm not apologizing. I know I did something wrong. I just want to compete with you! Just one match!"

Seeing that the situation was about to go out of control, Dwayne Fowler was forced back by Jane Fowler's sharp tongue. He panicked and quickly explained.

"Isn't this *? What makes you think that I have to fight you just because you want to compete? Who are you? A narcissist and a nobody!"

“And here you are talking challenges being issued? Dwayne Fowler, just say it clearly. You were beaten up like a dog by me twice in a row and couldn’t fight back. You just want to wash away your previous humiliation!”

Holy ****

Doug was shocked.

What did he just hear?

Jane Fowler actually beat World Wrestling Entertainment Tournament Champion and completely annihilated him...

It wasn’t just once!

Twice!

This was huge news.

Although it was hard to believe how someone with Jane Fowler’s physique could defeat Dwayne Fowler.

However, when he saw Dwayne Fowler’s inexplicable desire to win against Jane Fowler...

It was possible!

Dwayne had nothing to say.

“That’s right. This Dwayne Fowler is too much of a . He pushed the Dragon Gym owner down and didn’t apologize. The beauty has already rejected him so many times, yet he still wants to compete.”

“When I heard Dwayne Fowler’s words just now, I felt like my idol filter was instantly shattered. Oh my. god, what kind of person did I become a fan of?”

“Looks like even if he gets World Wrestling Entertainment Tournament Champion, it doesn’t mean that his character is good. I heard that many WWE players have hot tempers and are ***.”

Everyone began to whisper.

Dwayne Fowler gritted his teeth. In the end, he lowered his noble head and apologized to Doug “I’m sorry, sir. I didn’t do it on purpose just now. I’ll apologize to you here, right now.

"I'll pay for all the medical fees and losses. I just want to fight a match with Jane Fowler, it's purely my intention. That's why I did something so out of control."

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 128

No Way Back Chapter 128-"I'm actually okay..."

Doug coughed lightly.

It was just that he was caught off guard and so he fell.

After all, Doug was a regional King of Fighters.

He was not that weak.

"Jane Fowler, I know you me. Actually, I don't want to have anything to do with you as well, but you're right.

"The first two times, even if I wanted to find an excuse around it, I lost to you. That is the result, no matter what the process was and I can't accept it!

"This time, I've recovered from my injuries. Let's have a proper match. If I lose, I'll automatically disappear from your sight and won't pester you anymore! I won't have any complaints!"

Dwayne Fowler looked intently at Jane.

The competitive flames that wanted to see who was better were burning bright in his eyes as he said the most powerful and unquestionable words.

Jane Fowler's eyes were depthless and dark.

Originally, she wanted to ignore this ***.

However, Dwayne Fowler's actions just now really angered Jane Fowler.

If she did not release this anger, Jane was afraid that she would not be able to sleep well at night. Since such a good sandbag came knocking on her door, Jane had no reason not to accept it. "Dwayne Fowler, since you want to fight me, you have to bet on the most important thing.

"I want your World Wrestling Entertainment Tournament Champion belt. If you lose, give it to me!" Dwayne did not expect Jane to say that.

After hesitating for a moment, he nodded heavily, "Sure."

"In order to prevent you from going back on your word and doing despicable things, I want you to get someone to send the belt over now!"

Jane knew that Dwayne had taken World Wrestling Entertainment Tournament Champion's belt and brought it back to Stormton City to put it in his room.

The Fowlers had always been proud of this championship belt.

Dwayne was praised by everyone he met.

After all, he was the youngest, Cruscian to win the world championship in the history of WWE... It was equivalent to bringing glory to the country!

In her previous life, Jane Fowler had even gone to take a look at it.

She merely glanced at it, but when Dwayne Fowler found out about it, he kicked Jane in the stomach, saying Jane Fowler's  eyes didn't deserve to look at his championship belt.

Jane Fowler still had to apologize intently and say things like "I won't make Dwayne angry again next time" while holding her stomach, even when she was in so much pain that she felt her intestines were twisted.

The more she thought about it, the angrier she became!

She would beat Dwayne Fowler to death later! She would trample Dwayne Fowler's pride under her feet! She wanted to let Dwayne Fowler know that he was an . In the future, he should not even be in Jane Fowler's face and pester her endlessly!

"Is that necessary? Jane Fowler, I told you-"

"You told me? Who would believe the words of a despicable and sinister person like you?"

"In short, I'll leave my request here. If you want to compete with me, bring it over! Other than that, there's no other way!"

She had already said so much.

It was impossible for Dwayne Fowler to give up the chance to fight against Jane Fowler.

He immediately took out his phone and called Peter, who was on vacation at home.

He asked Peter to bring the championship belt over.

Peter frowned. "Dwayne, what do you mean?"

"I can't explain it over the phone. Just send it over. I'm hanging up."

Beep, beep, beep...

Peter did not know what had happened, but hearing how serious it was from Dwayne Fowler's tone, he could only reply to a voice message to someone in WeChat.

"I'm sorry, Aaron. Dwayne suddenly wants me to send something over to him. Are you really not going to inform anyone that you're back this time?"

"Yes, Peter, don't tell anyone. I plan to give everyone a surprise. Isn't it? University of Oricle's freshman welcome party is coming soon. Maddie will definitely be very happy."

"Okay."

Peter Fowler lowered his eyes. He could not tell Aaron about Jane.

The recent entanglement between the Fowler family and Jane Fowler was not something that could be explained over the phone.

Jack and Anna Fowler also said that they would temporarily hide it from the others who were still busy working overseas and had not returned.

Wait till Aaron returned to Stormton City, then Peter would know what Jack Fowler and Anna Fowler were planning to do.

For now, it was better to see what was going on with Dwayne.

Peter took Dwayne's World Wrestling Entertainment Tournament Champion belt and to Dragon Gym according to the location sent.

"Dwayne, I got what you wanted... Jane?"

Peter never expected to see Jane here.

Jane only glanced at Peter Fowler coldly and did not answer.

"Give it to me."

Dwayne grabbed the bag and took out his championship belt.

A gold WWE was in the middle of the belt, which was engraved with diamonds. It looked like an expensive championship belt.

Everyone gasped.

This was the belt of the World WWE Championship.

They had only seen it on television.

They did not expect to be lucky enough to see it in its true glory here at Dragon Gym today!

Dwayne placed the championship belt on the table and looked at Jane. "Jane Fowler, I've already brought the belt you wanted. You can fight with me now, right?"

"Sure, come on up."

Jane crooked her finger at Dwayne provocatively and then jumped into the boxing ring.

"Wait, Dwayne, I don't know what you mean... Are you going to fight Jane?"

"It's not a fight, Peter. This is a competition. Sir, please be the referee according to WWE's professional rules, you should know that, right?"

"Yes, I do..."

Doug looked at Jane worriedly.

Jane saw Doug's gaze and after nodding silently, she began to put on protective braces and boxing gloves.

Dwayne squatted down and took out his equipment from his bag. Then, he took off his shirt to reveal his extremely well-trained muscles.

His eight-pack abs and every muscle on his body seemed to have a consciousness of their own, twitching with every breath Dwayne took.

He looked like he was full of power

Everyone coveted Dwayne Fowler's physique. This was simply what every man dreamed of.

At the same time, they were also worried for Jane.

Although Jane was a martial arts practitioner, Dwayne was still World Wrestling Entertainment Tournament Champion. Coupled with his physique...

If Jane was accidentally punched by Dwayne, she would probably faint and be sent to the hospital for emergency treatment.

“No matter how I look at it, this is too disadvantageous for Jane Fowler. Is she sure?”

“Even Katie Taylor, the world’s female champion, is no match for the WWE World Men’s Championship.” “Tonnage and weight are not on the same level. If you want to compete in boxing, you have to improve. your endurance. Men’s stamina and endurance are obviously much higher than women’s.”

“Men can take a few heavy punches from women. They might have the advantage in speed, but as long as a man hits a woman with a heavy punch, he will basically take away the competition.”

Peter listened to the chatter of the people around him, and he couldn’t take it anymore.

“Dwayne, this is too dangerous! I can’t let you fight with Jane!”

“Why not? Peter, you should know that Jane isn’t as docile as you think. I once lost miserably to Jane Fowler. This time, I must get my dignity back!”

Dwayne had already put on boxing gloves and protective braces. He loosened his muscles and bones, making crisp crackling sounds.

Ignoring Peter’s obstruction, he forcefully climbed up the boxing ring.

Peter looked at the physiques of Dwayne and Jane Fowler, who were standing in the boxing ring, and immediately felt a sense of despair spiraling in his chest.

“No! I can’t let this match continue!” Peter thought.

The difference in physique between Dwayne and Jane Fowler was too great, even though Peter Fowler did not personally see how Jane Fowler defeated Dwayne Fowler.

However, under usual circumstances, there was no way Jane Fowler could defeat Dwayne.

*Jane Fowler, I know you me and the Fowler family. This is what we deserve, but don’t force yourself. You’re risking your life!

“Dwayne is serious this time. If you were to be attacked by Dwayne...”

Peter did not even dare to imagine how Jane would end up.

Jane ignored Peter and shouted at Doug, "Doug, come up."

Seeing that Jane Fowler had made up her mind, Doug could only sigh and climb up the boxing ring.

"Let me explain the rules first. This is just a competition, not an official competition, nor is it a life-and-death battle.

"Once I see the signs, I will immediately stop the competition. This time, friendship comes first and competition comes second."

Doug was also afraid that things would get out of hand.

Especially with Jane Fowler.

If Dwayne used all his strength and really hit Jane,

If he didn't control his strength well, that punching bag-sized fist would really kill Jane!

But...

Doug felt that there was an unfathomable aura circulating around Jane.

Her opponent was clearly the World Wrestling Entertainment Tournament Champion, but Jane Fowler was very calm.

So calm...

It was terrifying.

It seemed that Jane was confident in winning this match.

Even in the eyes of others, Jane would definitely lose this match, and that she was purely looking to be abused.

"Let me confirm one last time. The two of you have already made up your minds. Are you really going to carry out this competition?"

"Wait."

Jane spoke.

Dwayne frowned without leaving a trace. "Jane Fowler, you're not thinking of running away, are you?"

Things had already developed to this point.

Now, even if Jane went back on her word,

Dwayne wouldn't even give Jane Fowler the chance.

This competition had to continue!

No one could stop it!

"Since it's a boxing competition, injuries are bound to happen. In order to determine the winner, it's inevitable that there will be some mishaps. For example, someone in the competition will be seriously injured.

"Of course, it's not possible to beat someone to death or cripple them. However, as long as you don't compete with the mentality of beating someone to death or crippling them, the attacking is all just to seek victory. Can you accept this, Dwayne Fowler?"

Jane Fowler deliberately spoke very loudly.

Below, someone had already started taking a video from beginning to end with their phone.

Including Jane Fowler's words.

"Of course! Jane Fowler, I don't need you to show mercy. This way, even if I defeat you, I won't really defeat you!

"I'll do my best in this competition!"

In the WWE World Competition, Dwayne Fowler had suffered countless injuries for that championship belt and for his dreams.

Jane Fowler's words were recorded in advance.

It was equivalent to a weakened version of a life-and-death contract.

This way, even if Dwayne Fowler would use all his strength to defeat Jane Fowler, there would be nothing to worry about!

"Okay, I have no more questions."

Jane Fowler gave Doug a wink.

Doug took a deep breath.

"Alright, both sides pull away. The competition officially begins!"

No Way Back Chapter 129-After Doug had finished the opening statement, he retreated to the side and nervously watched the battle unfold.

This time, as the referee and the owner of the gym, Doug was under a lot of pressure.

Hopefully, nothing would happen...

Peter was below the stage. Seeing that he could not stop Dwayne, he could only watch the situation in the ring nervously.

His worry and nervous gaze never left Jane.

"Jane Fowler..."

"Nothing must happen to you.

"If you're hurt by Dwayne, I-I really don't know what to do..." Peter thought.

Jane did not immediately attack.

She only stood in a boxing stance that was as immovable as the mountain.

Just by looking at Jane, she gave others a huge sense of oppression.

Dwayne, as her opponent, as the World Wrestling Entertainment Tournament Champion, had defeated countless opponents along the way and seen countless fist styles.

Pure boxing was the most aggressive, the most damaging, and also the most difficult fist style to learn. Generally speaking, it was easy to predict the personalities of those who learned boxing... They were combat experts who had practicalities engraved in their bones.

Different from other people's fancy moves, learning pure boxing was firstly for self-protection, and secondly for a quick, fatal shot!

Dwayne looked at Jane's stance and felt that there was no opening for him to invade.

"Sure enough, Jane Fowler, you're not an ordinary person.

"If we met in another way, the two of us would definitely become very good opponents," Dwayne thought.

Now, this was a competition. Even if it wasn't a formal competition, Dwayne would give it his all. This was respect for himself and also respect for his opponent.

Dwayne knew that Jane's strength was unfathomable. She was definitely not as innocent as others thought she was.

If he did not go all out, he would only lose in the end, because he had already lost twice to Jane due to his carelessness.

"This time! I can't be careless!" Dwayne thought.

This competition was the most important competition in Dwayne Fowler's life, be it in the past, present, or future.

There wouldn't be a more important competition than today.

This was Dwayne Fowler's declaration of war.

A fight in order to regain his dignity!

It was also to prove that as a brother, he was better than his sister, Jane Fowler!

Regardless of whether Jane Fowler had severed ties with the Fowler family, they were related by blood after all.

As the older brother, it was impossible for Dwayne to lose to his younger sister! Thinking of this, Dwayne stared at Jane with a burning gaze.

A powerful pressure poured out from him like a tide.

Even the surrounding audience felt it and they could not help but shiver.

Was this the World Wrestling Entertainment Tournament Champion's boldness?

What a powerful sense of concentration. It was completely impossible to penetrate....

And yet, even if the bystanders were trembling...

Jane Fowler, who was in the boxing ring, looked very calm.

A pair of well-like eyes exuded a bottomless depth aura as they stared at Dwayne Fowler.

In there, there was a hint of laziness and absent-mindedness.

As Dwayne's opponent, Jane was the one that was under the greatest pressure.

However, her aura was not affected by Dwayne at all.

Dwayne attacked.

He attacked in a way it was like he was testing waters when it came to Jane.

He threw a few jabs.

Just by waiting, Jane Fowler would not move.

He could not see any openings either.

He had to take the initiative to attack and force Jane to counterattack.

Dwayne was very confident in his own ability to take on injuries.

Even if Jane dealt all kinds of damages to Dwayne like before, Dwayne would not fall easily.

And yet.

As long as Jane's openings were caught by Dwayne Fowler even once, one heavy punch was enough to knock Jane out. It would be a direct K.O.!

Dwayne's probing jabs were all blocked by Jane.

And yet.

Dwayne Fowler acutely grasped a certain time and opening.

An opportunity.

He turned sideways and swung a right hook at Jane's cheek.

Dwayne's attack was fierce and tricky.

There was no room for Jane to dodge.

"Heavens!"

Someone cried out in alarm. He was afraid of what would happen next and did not dare to look.

If this punch landed on the face of a docile girl like Jane Fowler...

It would definitely be a *scene!

He couldn't bear to look at it!

But just as everyone thought that the outcome had been decided, Jane suddenly squatted down!

That's right!

She did a sudden squat!"

Just like that, Jane neutralized the right hook.

Oh no!

Dwayne wanted to retract his attacks to become a defense,

however, he used all his strength in this heavy punch.

He fell into a stunned state.

For Jane, it was impossible for her to miss such a huge opportunity after Dwayne exposed such an opening!

A heavy punch landed on Dwayne's face.

Bam!

Dwayne instantly felt as if his nose bridge was broken.

Blood flowed out.

Pain shot through him.

Dwayne instinctively distanced himself from Jane and maintained a defensive stance.

When he wanted to see where Jane was, he realized that he could not tell where Jane was.

His heart skipped a beat.

"That's odd.

"Where was Jane Fowler?" Dwayne thought.

The next second.

Jane Fowler darted out like a phantom and punched Dwayne on the right side of his face.

With this heavy punch, Dwayne instantly felt half of his face go numb.

He no longer had feelings on the right side of his face,

While Dwayne barely caught up to Jane Fowler's movements with his eyes when he had a realization.

A knee strike seemed to be on its way.

“it!

“Jane Fowler, are you planning to break the rules?

“This was a boxing match. Only hands could be used!

“Kneeing was a foul!” Dwayne screamed in his heart.

Moreover, Jane Fowler's knee strike seemed to be aimed at crippling Dwayne.

Dwayne did not have time to shout Jane's foul and could only defend.

However.

Jane was just feinting.

Her real move was a straight punch!

She hit Dwayne hard in the stomach.

In an instant.

Dwayne felt as if his intestines were twisted into a ball.

He was about to crack.

He widened his eyes and knelt on the ground with a cry, spitting out a  of bile.

The stomach was the most vulnerable part of human beings.

Dwayne had clearly undergone injury-bearing training on various vulnerable parts of the body.

Why

Jane Fowler's punch seemed to pierce through Dwayne Fowler's defense. It hurt!

This was the most painful punch Dwayne had ever felt in his career.

It immediately took away Dwayne Fowler's combat ability.

Dwayne would never have imagined...

Jane Fowler's punch was mixed with Chi.

It could easily penetrate Dwayne Fowler's defense and went directly for his foundation.

The attack power of Jane Fowler's fists was inferior to Dwayne Fowler's.

However, if she coupled with Chi that could ignore all defense....

She was invincible!

Dwayne's attacks were nothing to Jane!

Even if Dwayne landed a heavy punch on Jane, he would not feel good.

Except.

Jane saw through Dwayne's attacks.

He was too slow!

He was as slow as a snail.

Jane had Chi training from the Teacher from a young age.

When she got serious, her five senses were acute. Even after countless training, even Dwayne Fowler, who had obtained World Wrestling Entertainment Tournament Champion was not her match!

Jane had no intention of letting Dwayne go.

She grabbed Dwayne Fowler's hair with one hand.

Another punch landed on Dwayne Fowler's face.

In an instant.

Dwayne's face was covered in blood.

It splattered onto Jane's gloves and her body.

Dwayne had completely lost the strength to resist. Everyone was stunned.

Unexpectedly...

They did not think that Jane would win so easily.

In the end...

Jane had crushed Dwayne with an overwhelming advantage!

Since Dwayne thought he had caught onto Jane's opening, and his jab was dodged by Jane Fowler, the fight became one-sided.

Doug regained his senses.

He hurriedly rushed forward to stop Jane, who was about to attack again.

"Enough, Jane. The winner has been decided. Stop the fight now or something will happen!"

After being stopped by Doug, Jane finally let go of Dwayne.

She looked at Dwayne disdainfully.

With this standard of his, yet he still wanted to compete with her?

Hah.

It was not even a warm-up for her.

He's too weak.

Dwayne instantly fell to the ground like a pile of mud

"Dwayne!"

Peter quickly climbed onto the boxing ring and helped Dwayne up.

So much blood...

It was all blood...

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 130

No Way Back Chapter 130-“Cough Cough!”

Dwayne suddenly coughed violently.

He coughed out a lump of blood.

“Quick. Bring me the first aid kit, towels, and some ice. I’m here to administer emergency medical treatment to Dwayne

Those items were already prepared.

The receptionist quickly sent the items to the boxing ring.

Doug wanted to treat Dwayne, but Dwayne staggered and tried to stand up.

Doug held Dwayne tightly. He said sternly, “Stop moving. Your injuries are very serious. I have to treat you first.”

“No... I haven’t lost... How could I lose... I lost so badly... Jane, I haven’t lost yet. Come... Let’s go one more round...”

Dwayne struggled to speak.

He was no longer as energetic as before.

He sounded like an old man in his twilight years.

No one could bear to watch him anymore.

Although everyone thought that Dwayne’s unbroken spirit was quite touching....

But...

Jane had wiped him out.

He had no way of fighting back.

Everyone wondered, wasn’t he tired of holding on like that?

“Dwayne, do you know? If this were an underground boxing ring, my combo would’ve turned you into a corpse long ago.”

Unhurriedly, Jane took off her protective braces and gloves. Her lips curled up slightly as she looked down at Dwayne.

"You should be glad that this is just a sparring match. Otherwise... In my world, you would have died countless times."

Hearing Jane's words, Dwayne trembled.

"Are... you trying to say... that you went easy on me..."

He thought back to every punch that Jane had thrown at him. Did she not use her full strength?

That was impossible.

Dwayne could not even discern Jane's movements. Jane had tormented him.

The defense he was so proud of were reduced to nothing in front of her.

Jane completely broke them down with a single punch.

If Jane had a higher level of strength....

How terrifying would that be?

Dwayne shuddered at the thought.

He felt that the gap between him and Jane was like a chasm that could not be crossed.

Dwayne had been too naive.

He thought Jane's sneak attack had caught him unaware and caused him to lose.

But in fact...

Dwayne already knew the answer.

No matter how many times they fought, he would always be the ****.

Jane had humiliated him.

But...

Dwayne had never thought that he, who had given his all, would lose so miserably. He had lost all his dignity.

"What did you expect? Dwayne, you're too weak. You're so weak that I want to doze off. I can't use any strength at all. To me, you're not even an appetizer. I can't even warm up properly."

Jane mercilessly said those hurtful words. It was like an invisible arrow piercing through Dwayne's heart.

At that moment, Dwayne's pupils dilated. The adrenaline in his body surged wildly as he gritted his teeth.

He gritted his teeth so hard that they almost shattered.

Peter saw that the situation was taking a turn for the worse. Quickly, he said, "Jane, that's enough. You've already won. Don't provoke Dwayne..."

"Jane. I did lose. I lost completely. But... am I not a threat to you at all?"

Dwayne refused to believe it.

Boxing was the profession that he was most proud of. He was even crowned with the honor of being the world champion.

He had been the focus of countless spotlights and cameras.

Dwayne was the idol of countless people. He had reached the peak of his career, and he was proud. Countless flowers and applause belonged to him.

Dwayne's career was smooth sailing, and it even soared.

No matter which competition he fought in or how strong his opponents were, Dwayne had never been so humiliated as he was that day.

He had overcome them one by one and defeated his opponents. He had stood at the peak of the world. How humiliating.

These two words seemed to have been carved into his DNA.

Unless Dwayne died, and his soul turned into smoke and disappeared, this "humiliation" would never disappear from his mind.

Dwayne forced every word out of his ****.

It was filled with monstrous anger.

He could not admit it.

He could not admit that he had failed this time.

It was a complete and utter failure.

He had been reduced to a homeless mutt.

Jane's thin lips parted.

"Oh, *," Peter thought.

Peter wanted to stop her.

With Jane's personality, she was probably determined to send Dwayne to ****.

She wanted revenge.

Her obsession with Dwayne was destined to end with "death."

But...

It was too late.

"Only when we're evenly matched will I consider you my opponent. As for you? What I've just shown. you were called 'torture'"

Jane would not show mercy to Dwayne.

Every word she said was like salt on Dwayne's fatal wound.

It was so painful that Dwayne was about to suffocate.

Dwayne had even taken the initiative to knock on her door and be humiliated.

If Jane did not satisfy such a perverted wish...

She would feel sorry for Dwayne and herself.

Now, Jane felt extremely pleased.

The awful taste in her heart had been swept away.

She watched as Dwayne's blood-stained face gradually turned pale after hearing those humiliating. words. He was so angry that he did not have the strength to retaliate...

She felt good.

Really good.

Next, Jane wanted to do something even more satisfying.

“Alright, Dwayne, take it easy. Don’t speak anymore. Let me treat you...”

Doug quickly stopped Dwayne’s bleeding and treated the bruises. He used ice cubes to cool his wounds and sprayed medicinal mist on them.

Throughout the entire process, Dwayne was like a wounded tiger.

His powerful aura from earlier had vanished completely.

He was like a different person now.

It was as if he had become a “corpse” whose soul had been out.

After Doug helped Dwayne complete the emergency treatment...

“That’s about it... Thankfully, Jane didn’t use too much force...”

Doug was an expert. He could tell..

Jane’s punches only made Dwayne lose his ability to fight. The pain might be worse than death.

However, it did not hurt Dwayne’s ability to fight in the long term.

She had indeed stopped when she had pushed him to his limit.

With Dwayne’s physique, he could withstand these injuries and recover.

He did not even need to be sent to the hospital for treatment.

He just needed to apply the medicine as told and rest.

However, this outcome was even more humiliating.

She did not take Dwayne seriously at all.

After saying that, Doug regretted it. Dwayne’s eyes twitched.

Then...

They completely lost their light.

“Dwayne, pull yourself together.”

Peter looked at Dwayne. He looked unfamiliar, and Peter was terrified. He quickly pressed Dwayne’s shoulder, trying to make Dwayne regain his rationality.

“Peter... I... I’ve already...”

Dwayne bit his lip.

An unprecedented sense of defeat swept over Dwayne like a tide.

That was the most frustrating and embarrassing experience Dwayne had ever felt since he was born.

He did not know how to face such a sense of defeat.

“Dwayne...”

Peter looked at Dwayne.

For a moment, he did not know how to comfort him.

At this moment...

“According to our agreement, this thing is mine.”

Jane’s voice sounded light.

Dwayne’s once proudest belt, one he had earned as the World Wrestling Entertainment Tournament Champion, was in Jane’s hands.

Jane looked extremely disgusted.

She held the championship belt between two fingers.

“That’s enough, Jane. Take it and leave quickly. Say no more. You’ve already won.”
