No Way Back Chapter 171-Aaron lowered his head at Jane He looked extremely gentle and plous Aaron knew that it was impossible to eliminate the hatred in Jane's heart with ordinary methods Jane was as stubborn as they, the Fowlers, were He would not let go of the hatred in his heart just because he coveted the Fowler family's power, or if he was subjected to their coercion and bribery Unless Jane could put down the hatred on her own Aaron could only Jane with his most sincere words And yet.

Jane could not help but laugh Her laughter was filled with mockery Jane, you-

"Aaron Fowler, how shameless do you think you are? Why do you think I have to forgive them because they know their mistake and feel guilty?"

"If I stab you with a knife and then apologize to you, will you not call the police and arrest me? Will you ignore everything and generously say that you forgive me?"

"Jane, this is completely different. Henry and Peter. They didn't try to take your life in any way!"

Aaron explained anxiously "Didn't try to take my life? Is it because in your eyes, as long as you don't physically attack me and only use your words and actions to show your indifference, the ***abuse and the thoughts of wanting me dead aren't hurting me?"

"Aaron Fowler, put away that hypocritical gentleness of yours! Then, disappear from my sight and my world once and for all Jane's cold words were as sharp as invisible blades.

It made Aaron grimace in pain.

***with Jane's anger, he did not know what to say for a moment.

"Jane, I know you ***the Fowler family, but as your biological brother, I can't give up!

"I must let you know the importance of kinship. I will make you forgive Henry Fowler and Peter!"

Aaron composed himself.

He was unwilling to abandon his younger sister who had been missing for 19 years.

If Aaron was to give up like that now that Jane was stuck in a vortex of hatred, Jane would really stray further and further away from the Fowler family in the future. She would be swallowed by the darkness and unable to pull herself out of it.

"Aaron, do you think you're the savior? You? My biological brother? Why don't you take a long hard look in the mirror? Do you think you're worthy? Worthy, my ***!"

For the first time, Jane was annoyed by Aaron's gentle expression.

She could no longer suppress the urge to tear Aaron's hypocritical mask apart.

"Jane, no matter how you scold me or humiliate me, I won't give up. I understand. I can bear all of this because I am your biological brother"

Aaron spoke firmly.

Seeing Aaron like this, Jane suddenly thought of an interesting game. The corners of her *****curled into a playful smile,

"Aaron, you want me to forgive Henry and Peter, right? All right, then I'll agree to it if you chase Madelyn out of the Fowler family now. How about that?"

"What did you say?"

As expected.

When Jane mentioned "Madelyn" ...

Aaron's originally firm expression instantly wavered and changed

"I said that I'll go back to the Fowler family if you chase Madelyn out. How about that?"

"You'll be able to satisfy your sense of justice with such a simple and fair deal. It can't get any better than that, right?" Jane was very satisfied to see Aaron's expression change.

This meant that in this time and space, this gentle brother of hers was exactly the same as he was in her memories. She could torture him without holding back.

"Jane, what you proposed is completely unrelated. Why do you have to chase little Maddie away for you to return to the Fowler family? That's unreasonable!"

"You might be the Fowler family's biological daughter, but Maddie is also a daughter of the Fowler family. Our love for the both of you won't be divided whether you're biological or not!"

Aaron's tone clearly changed.

It was no longer as gentle and sincere as before.

It was tainted with coldness and anger.

"Are you deaf? Don't you often hear Madelyn say that she'll leave the Fowler family and go somewhere far away if I'm willing to go back?"

I'm just letting her do what she wants. Why are you so anxious?

"Are you that afraid that I'll chase your precious little Maddie out of the Fowler family? Then why are you asking me to go back? Isn't it better to let Madelyn continue to be the only daughter of the Fowler family? I'll also give up on going back."

Aaron was speechless for a moment. He could only lower his head and clench his fists.
"Y-you're simply unreasonable!"

"Who's the unreasonable one? It's you!"

Jane suddenly growled.

It scared Aaron.

He stared blankly into Jane's cold eyes.

In that instant, he felt as if his soul had been pierced.

Countless shards of ice spread and gradually froze his body.

"Aaron Fowler, in your heart, am I, your so-called biological sister who has been missing for 19 years, as important as one of Madelyn's fingers?"

"In your eyes, Madelyn is the gentle sun while I'm the icy moonlight. Madelyn is always ranked first, no matter what. When Madelyn is around, I can only come in second place!"

"Madelyn is an adopted daughter. She was abandoned, to begin with, and has already enjoyed the wealth and glory that should have been mine for 18 years. Her family dotes on her. She is a princess who lives a luxurious life and is loved by thousands!"

"As for me....I've been missing for 19 years. I might have been homeless or even dead if I hadn't met someone who changed my fate!"

"Now that I've cut ties with the Fowler family, you shamelessly came to me and tried to persuade me to return to the Fowler family. You even said that I'm the unreasonable one. What a ***joke!"

Aaron's heart began to tremble. He could not help but retreat repeatedly in the face of Jane's aggression. Cold sweat broke out and drenched his entire body.

His posture showed that he was completely at a disadvantage in terms of aura.

He even began to consider the validity of Jane's words.

"Yeah..." he thought.

"Did I do something wrong?"

"No.

"No!

"I didn't do anything wrong!"

"One is a sister who has been with me for 18 years and is not related by blood,

"The other is my biological sister who has been missing for 19 years and has finally been found.

"Is it a sin to want both of them?"

"It's not like the Fowler family can't raise two daughters!"

"But... Little Maddie is innocent. Jane, you can't blame little Maddie for our mistakes back then!"

"I know you're angry now. The Fowler family has let you down. In terms of seniority, you're little Maddie's elder sister. Can't you tolerate little Maddie a little longer?"

Crack-

Aaron's words.

They seemed to have stimulated Jane's sensitive nerves.

She looked at the ****face in front of her that was pretending to be calm.

For a moment, Jane really wanted to rush up and tear it into pieces.

She thought, "Tolerate?"

"Was I not tolerant enough?"

"I hid my abilities as I was afraid Madelyn would feel inferior and sad. I lowered myself to a servile bootlicker! "I've tolerated her until I can die no more!"

"I'll not give in! Aaron Fowler, let me tell you, I'll snatch ***I want. If I want something, it has to belong completely to me. No one else can touch it!"

"That's the vicious woman I am. Look at my true colors and don't provoke me again!*

No Way Back Chapter 172-The designated driver happened to arrive at this moment.

He was riding a small electric bike.

He asked carefully

"Um... which one is Miss Jane Fowler?"

"That would be me."

Jane took out the car key from her pocket and threw it to the driver.

"My car's over there. Come with me, please.*

Jane turned around and left without hesitation.

The designated driver secretly swallowed.

He looked at Aaron, who was standing on the spot with a pale face.

Actually, he had already been here for a while.

However, the two handsome men and beautiful women seemed to be arguing.

It was quite tense.

For a moment, they did not dare to approach.

Now, he hurriedly left with Jane,

Aaron watched as Jane left and disappeared into the distance.

He clenched and unclenched his fists.

Eventually, he took a deep breath.

He shouted out the words in his heart.

"Jane, I know you didn't really mean it, but you can't vent your anger on little Maddie. This matter... is your fault!"

Aaron knew that if he said that, Jane would ****the Fowler family even more and wouldn't come back.

However, Madelyn was Aaron's bottom line!

Even if it was for his biological sister, Jane, Aaron would never do something like chasing Madelyn out of the Fowler family!

No one else would agree.

This shout represented Aaron's attitude.

As for whether Jane could return to the Fowler family, it was up to fate.

Aaron could only do his best to make it happen.

Jane stopped in his tracks Her lips curled into a self-deprecating smile.

"Look, Jane. This is the Aaron, who you still believe is the nice guy left in your family, she thought.

The so-called gentle Aaron, his bottom line, the "first" in his heart, and the most important sister would always be Madelyn!

It couldn't be his biological sister!

"If it weren't for the fact that my love and desire were overflowing, I wouldn't have let my desire get the better of me." "It's precisely because I used to yearn for family, kinship, and protection so much that I could tolerate such possessiveness and Madelyn jumping around like a flea in front of me!"

"If I return to the Fowler family, I won't even be jealous of Madelyn. I won't even have the Idea of chasing Madelyn away. That only means that the Fowler family isn't important to me at all!"

Love was the most twisted curse in the world.

Love was the most terrifying possession in the world.

No one was allowed to share their "favorite" with others.

He only wanted to monopolize her

The former Jane was trapped in this curse. It was as if she had fallen into an abyss and could not extricate herself. Even though she was so jealous of Madelyn, she still had to tolerate it and compromise.

There was nothing more terrifying than “love” in this world.

To be able to make Queen, the number one hacker in the Darknet, willingly abandon everything and become a mediocre person.

Now, it didn't matter anymore.

It was as if a bolt of lightning had struck Aaron.

Aaron was stunned all of a sudden.

His breathing gradually became ragged.

The first “video” he saw appeared in his mind.

It was that video that confirmed Aaron's dream of becoming a pianist.

Once upon a time, Aaron was even more withdrawn than Quinton.

The doctor confirmed that Aaron was born with autism.

Even if Aaron gradually recovered with the care of his family and the doctor's treatment, in the end, Aaron was different from ordinary people.

She was only occasionally taken overseas for treatment and saw that video.

In the darkness, a butterfly-like girl played the black and ****keys with her fingertips.

Waves of heart-wrenching love turned into musical notes that shocked everyone's souls like a curse.

The name of the song was [Love is the most twisted curse.]

From then on, Aaron began to want to practice the piano and come into contact with it.

After turning this “turbulence” into a career, Aaron finally cured his autism and became a world-famous pianist.

Aaron would never forget that video that saved Aaron.

However, when Aaron wanted to go back and look for it, the video had already been deleted from the entire Internet. There was not a trace left.

Aaron did not even have time to download and save the video.

He could only practice the song in his memory

There was also the young girl who was like a butterfly in the darkness.

When Aaron came back to his senses, Jane had already disappeared without a trace.

It was now at the Fowlers' villa.

After settling Layne down, Layne repeatedly said that he was fine, so Quinton sent Layne back to the Croft family. Aaron sent Madelyn back to the Fowler family first.

Along the way, Madelyn looked worried and did not speak.

Aaron didn't know what to say.

Her thoughts had long been thrown into chaos by Jane.

He couldn't bring himself to comfort Madelyn.

Now, Aaron did not know how to deal with the complicated feelings in his heart.

Seeing Aaron like this, Madelyn pouted.

In the past, when he saw Madelyn so sad, the gentle Aaron would have comforted her long ago.

As expected, when Aaron went to look for Jane just now, something must have happened to make Aaron like this.

At that time, Jane said that Layne's confession to her shocked Madelyn greatly.

Despite Layne's repeated explanations, Madelyn felt very uncomfortable.

What was done was done. He couldn't undo it.

Madelyn forgot to pretend to be injured and ask Aaron to stay.

Letting Aaron be alone with Jane was Madelyn's biggest mistake.

"How much further is this shameless Jane taking this?"

"Does she really have to make everyone around Madelyn change before she's happy?" she thought.

She returned to the Fowler family.

"Little Maddie, just like we agreed, don't tell Dad and the others what happened today."

"Yes, I know, Aaron."

"Are... are you alright?"

Aaron asked tentatively.

"I'm fine, Aaron. I won't take Janie's words to heart. She ****me. I'm already used to it. Perhaps I'm really an annoying person."

"I don't deserve to be the Fowler family's daughter. Janie is much more outstanding than me. She's the real daughter of the Fowler family, and I'm just a substitute."

Madelyn smiled at Aaron.

The smile looked very unnatural.

As she spoke, her eyes began to turn red.

The next second, she was about to cry.

Aaron quickly said, "Don't talk nonsense. Little Maddie, you're not a substitute! Jane is our sister. You're also our sister! This won't change!"

"Aaron... Actually, I can feel that Henry, Peter, and even Dwayne are starting to distance themselves from me and pay more attention to Jane."

"This is because of the same blood running in you, right? Because Janie is your biological sister. I'm not really related to you..."

Seeing that Madelyn was about to enter a dead end, Aaron reached out and hugged Madelyn, comforting her gently. "Alright, little Maddie, you're overthinking today because you're too tired. Go wash your face, take a shower, and have a good sleep. You'll be fine tomorrow."

"Aaron, I'm really scared. I'm so scared. I don't want to leave the Fowler family. I don't want to lose you guys, but if I don't leave, Janie won't be able to come back..."

No Way Back Chapter 173-Madelyn suppressed her cries in Aaron's arms.

The voice that came out was even more heartbreaking.

Seeing this, Aaron temporarily put aside the complicated thoughts about Jane in his heart.

He comforted Madelyn.

“Little Maddie, don’t be paranoid Just leave Jane to me.”

Til get Jane to change her mind and realize the importance of family.”

“Even if you’re not related to us by blood, you’re still our younger sister. You were in the past, now, and in the future. It won’t change because of anything!”

Aaron already had an answer to Jane’s request to chase Madelyn away before returning to the Fowler family.

This was impossible!

If Jane insisted on doing so, Aaron would wait and do his best! He would wait for Jane to change her mind!

He would wait until she realized that Madelyn was also their sister and part of the Fowler family! “Alright, stop crying. If Dad and ***see this, they’ll definitely be worried again. Wipe your tears, okay?” Aaron gently wiped away Madelyn’s tears.

Only then did Madelyn feel confident. She nodded silently and wiped her tears.

The two of them walked hand in hand into the Fowler family.

Unexpectedly, at this time, when Jack and the others had already returned home, they were still up.

They were all in the living room, discussing something.

Aaron and Madelyn walked over. “Dad, **, what are you doing so late at night?”

Even Dwayne had appeared.

Jack said, “You guys came back at the right time. By the way, where’s Quinton?”

“He... Quinton said he had to meet a friend at the last minute. He might be late.” Aaron lied.

“Then let’s not wait for him. I have something to tell you.”

“Your mother and Henry are going to Estonia for business. They won’t be home for a while. They might only be back. before the new year.”

Aaron was slightly stunned. "What? Why is it so sudden? And about the business... didn't Henry go alone in the past?" "Henry's current state is a little unstable. I can't give him all the pressure. Your father and I can still manage to do our own business."

"When I go to Estonia with Henry, your father will be in charge of Fowler Corporation. If you don't have any work to do, you should help your father more. This is a difficult time."

When Henry heard this, the corners of his ****curled into a bitter smile. "I'm sorry, Dad, **. It's all because of me. I made the two of you so worried."

Henry did not force himself.

His current state was really bad.

He was a completely different person from the last time he went overseas.

It was because of Jane.

It was because he had betrayed his beloved teacher.

Fortunately, he got his family behind him.

In Henry's darkest and most desperate ***, they gave him unlimited support and power.

At the same time, Henry could not help but think

At Jane's darkest and most desperate ***, these so called blood related "families" didn't give Jane any help or care.

Instead, they used the most vicious and cold words to isolate and hurt her.

At that time, how cold and scarred would Jane's heart be?

Peter also remained silent.

He was thinking the same thing as Henry

The more Peter felt the unity, support, and strength of this family, the more he felt guilty for what he had done to Jane in the past.

Why couldn't the unity and support of this family include Jane?

Back then, what kind of vicious thoughts did they have? They only wanted to chase Jane out of the Fowler family?

In the end, to whom they were proving that they regretted doing so?

Jack did not notice the guilt in Henry and Peter's hearts. He looked over at Dwayne.

"Dwayne, I know you haven't been in a good mood recently, but when your mother and Henry are away, if you have nothing to do, come to the company to help."

"With your ability, you can't stay at home forever. You have to take a breath of fresh air to distract yourself, right?" Dwayne pursed his lips. "I understand, Dad. I'll be there."

After being defeated by Jane, Dwayne fell into a state of self-seclusion.

After going around in circles for so long, he finally walked out of this dilemma.

If this continued, his family would be very worried.

Losing to Jane, Dwayne had lost all his dignity and glory. It was already embarrassing enough.

At the very least, he could not let the people around him get hurt again.

As for Dwayne's persistent "dream", now Dwayne did not even know how to keep going. His future was bleak.

He could only take it one step at a time.

With Dwayne's promise, Henry and Anna were relieved.

Madelyn secretly rolled her eyes.

When she returned to her room and locked the door, Madelyn immediately took out her phone and sent a message to Chester.

[I have some news. Do you want it?]

Chester replied quickly.

[Let's see if Miss Maddie's information is valuable.]

[My mother and Henry are planning to go to Estonia to get a new business opportunity. It must be a very valuable proposal to be able to mobilize the two of them.]

[If I can steal some information for you, this time, I want 4.5 million dollars.]

Madelyn could no longer tolerate Jane's swindling and abducting everyone from Madelyn.

In order to completely eliminate Jane in the world competition in a few days, Madelyn had to have funds! The more, the better it was for her.

This was the only way to bump off Jane!

Chester's lips curled into a smile. "Sure, then I'll wait for the good news from Miss Maddie."

Chester's voice was affectionate and lingering.

It carried a bewitching magic,

At that ***, Madelyn's heart skipped a beat.

She thought of Chester's handsome face that was comparable to Hugh's.

He didn't have the aura of Hugh, who was distant, noble, and unapproachable.

Chester's sweet words and doting voice were like a spider web that completely covered Madelyn.

Every time she thought about it, Madelyn would blush and could not control the boiling of her blood.

"Oh my god, what's going on? The person I love is Hugh. It should be Hugh. Why am I so obsessed with Chester's voice?"

"I'm not a promiscuous woman! I'm single-minded! I only love Hugh! Madelyn! Don't think too much!" she thought,

Five days later, Jane and the others arrived at the airport.

"Alright, Lila, that's it. I'll board the plane with Mr. Lance."

Lila pouted. "Janie, I really want to go with you. Unfortunately, I can't get a leave of absence."

After all, Lila was not a monster like Jane.

She finished Prof. Henderson's courses in advance.

On top of that, she was qualified to participate in the International Students Drawing Competition.

She would follow Mr. Lance to Meridonia.

Before setting off, even school leaders personally came and praised Jane in various ways, hoping that she could return with a championship trophy and bring glory to the school and country.

No Way Back Chapter 174-“Anyway, mobile phones are so convenient now. If you miss me, you can video call me and cheer me up.” “Yes, Janie, I will! When the time comes, I’ll get my entire family to watch the live broadcast and cheer you up!” Lila gestured with her fists, her eyes burning with flames.

“Ahem...”

After sending off Lila, Lance smiled gently. “Jane, you and Lila really hit it off.”

“Of course, she’s the most important friend in my life!”

The corner of Jane’s smile curled into a smile.

She did not avoid talking about her intimate relationship with Lila at all.

Just as Jane and Lance were about to go through the registration procedures, at this ***, they encountered another group of people.

It was Jack and the others!

Jane’s lips twitched slightly!

“****!”

“Just when you think your day couldn’t possibly get any worse!”

Jack also saw Jane.

His face darkened at the sight of her.

Henry held his suitcase. When he saw Jane, he had mixed feelings and did not know what to say, not to mention Peter and the others.

Mr. Lance keenly sensed the strange atmosphere between Jane and the other party.

“Jane, are you alright?”

Lance said in a low voice.

This was the airport. No matter what, the other party would not cause trouble in such a place.

Lance had heard about what happened to Jane and the Fowler family. After all, it was Jane's private matter, so Lance couldn't ask too much about it.

Jane said calmly, "I'm fine. Just ignore them. Get on the plane after registration, Mr. Lance."

She was calm.

In any case, their destinations were different.

They were not even on the same plane.

If they really happened to be on the same plane, Jane would consider taking the next flight.

Even if she didn't want to, she didn't want the Fowlers to appear in front of her and disgust her.

Both parties completed the procedures tacitly.

They did not say another word to each other.

Henry, Peter and Aaron really wanted to find Jane again and hear her voice.

However, when they thought about how many unhappy things had happened between them, for a **, they did not have the courage to go forward.

At this ***, Jack took the initiative to walk toward Jane.

"Jack?"

"Dad?"

Anna and the others looked at Jack in surprise.

"Don't worry. I know what I'm doing. I'm not going to fight."

"Also, don't come over. Let me talk to Jane alone."

Jack said this and walked straight over.

It was too late for Anna and the others to stop him.

They could only look at Jack nervously.

Peter said womedly. “****”, if Dad goes to look for Jane like this, will he cause trouble for Jane?

He was afraid that Jack would be provoked by Jane and lose his mind.

Peter would rather get hurt than let Jane get hurt!

“Trust your father. After all, he founded Fowler Corporation single-handedly. He’s the man I trust and love deeply. He won’t make the same mistake again.”

Anna finally decided to have 100% trust in this man she loved deeply.

However, even Anna, who thought she knew Jack the best, could not guess his thoughts at this ****.

Why did Jack take the initiative to look for Jane?

Everyone here had a reason to look for Jane.

However, the most impossible thing was that Jack, who *** Jane, took the initiative to speak.

Jane and Lance had just finished shipping their luggage.

She turned around and saw Jack standing in front of Jane with a gloomy expression

“Get lost.”

Jane said mercilessly. She didn’t even want to give a cold glance to this so-called “biological father”

She picked up the plane ticket and was about to leave

Jack was used to Jane’s sarcasm.

As mad as he was, he tried to suppress his anger at the thought of his purpose here “Jane, I’m not here to quarrel with you. I’m here to reconcile with you.”

“Reconcile?”

Jane seemed to have heard the biggest joke in the world.

She crossed her arms and looked at Jack with rare interest.

“Jack, I’m really surprised to hear that word come out of your ****,”

“When you accused me of hurting Peter indiscriminately, you didn’t have such a servile attitude.”

Jack gritted his teeth. “I was wrong back then. The law has already punished me. I’ve also ****apologized to you.” “But you teamed up with Fowler Corporation to slander me. Don’t tell me you don’t know about it. How can you call this a sincere apology?”

“Put away your hypocritical face, Jack. As a man, you have to dare to take responsibility. Don’t deny it after doing it. It’s ****to look at that face of yours!”

What Jane said almost rendered him speechless.

Jack’s face instantly turned red.

The funny thing was, Jack had dominated the business world of Stormton City for so many years. Countless powerful figures had lost to Jack and were willing to lose.

Today, he was rendered speechless by his biological daughter

In the hands of Jane, Jack had tasted humiliation again and again.

It was an unprecedented pain.

On the other hand, Jack had to admit Jane did inherit the excellent genes of him and Anna.

She was proud and **** like a peacock.

On top of that, she was relentless and merciless.

She looked very much like Jack and Anna when they were young.

This was the so-called biological daughter and blood relationship.

Maybe this was the so-called karma.

If Jane had not betrayed the Fowler family and stood against Jack, Jack might really nurture this daughter of his with all his heart because she was so talented.

Unfortunately, what was done was done.

“Mr. Fowler, if there’s nothing else, Jane and I are boarding the plane to Meridonia now.”

Seeing that the atmosphere was so tense, Mr. Lance hurriedly spoke to ease it.

"Mr. Lance, I'm sorry. I'll just speak with Jane for a **. It won't take up too much of your time."

*Jane, as much as I **to admit it, there are already many people in the Fowler family who have been affected by you."

"Henry, Dwayne, Peter, Aaron, Quinton, my five precious sons feel guilty for what they did in the past and want you to forgive them."

"Not to mention Maddie... I know that after everything that happened, it's impossible for us to go back to the day we just found you."

"At least I don't want to be your enemy anymore. If we became enemies, it was my children who were gonna be hurt. I can't let that happen."

He said this not because Jane was his biological daughter.

Henry and the others' changes over the past few days were seen by Jack, and it cut at his heart.

Jane had already cut ties with the Fowler family. If she left, so be it. She would pretend that she was never Jack's daughter.

In order for his precious sons to return to their former spirits, Jack was willing to let go of all the hatred in the past and start from scratch with Jane.

"Whether you want to return to the Fowler family or not is up to you. If you want to return, the door to the Fowler family will always be open for you!"

"If you don't want to come back, you're on your own from now on. The Fowler family won't be an obstacle to you. anymore!"

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 175

No Way Back Chapter 175-In all honesty. Jane did not expect Jack to say this.

In her previous life, Jane had blocked the fatal bullet in order to save Jack. She had been lying in the ICU for so many days.

Jack had only come see her once and had never given in to her.

In this life, Jane gave full play to her talent and trampled Jack and Fowler Corporation under her feet.

It didn't occur to her that Jack actually gave in.

She found it hilarious.

It was really funny.

Indeed, hard power was preferable to soft power in this world.

Only children who knew how to cry and make a fuss would have candy to eat.

Flatterers deserved to **.

An ****child deserved to *****

That was the case in the hellish Fowler family.

All the "right" were wrong.

They needed people to do something "wrong" that challenged moral boundaries.

Only then would it be considered "correct"

Not far away, the Fowlers, who had been watching Jane and Jack, were stunned.

It didn't occur to them that Jack would say things like this.

Anna lowered her eyes to hide her emotions.

Jack had always seen how his sons were hurt because of Jane.

When he was sleeping, he also had a long chat with Anna.

At that time, Anna could not find a solution either.

The hatred between them and Jane was too deep.

It was as if Jane was not their daughter at all,

Rather, it was as if the Fowler family killed her real parents.

However, when Jane returned to the Fowler family, his sons all doted on Madelyn and didn't feel any sorrow for Jane.

Jane and the Fowler family had broken all ties. Instead, they began to pay attention to Jane and reflect on their past behaviors.

Now, Jack was very touched to see that Jack, who had such strong self-esteem and was stubborn, was willing to lower his head for his children.

Being able to marry this man was the best decision Anna had ever made in her life.

However, things weren't progressing in the direction they'd liked them to be.

"Jack, you previously said that you would investigate who leaked the news to the media and exposed the fact that I'm the real daughter of the Fowler family"

"Now let me ask you, have you tracked it down?" she added.

Jane continued to stare at Jack coldly.

The coldness in her eyes was not going to melt for anything, even if Jack was dying

" ... "

Jack's expression froze.

He did not expect Jane to mention this matter at this time.

"You didn't look into it, right? Jack, what are you afraid of? Are you afraid that the mastermind behind the investigation is the person you don't want the most?"

"Then what's the point of putting on such a hypocritical face? I've never been important to you. My life has nothing to do with you," she added.

Jane asked again and again

It really made Jack's 'doubt in his heart that he desperately wanted to forget surface again.

The person Jack suspected the most was Madely!

Because only by doing this could Madelyn maximize the benefits!

No one else had the motive to do such a thing!

But Jack did not dare to think further.

He did not dare to accept this possible truth.

If Madelyn really did it, he didn't know how he could bring himself to face the daughter he had been doting on for 18 years.

Everything in the past was instantly destroyed.

He didn't know how to face Jane, who had been missing for 19 years and had just returned to the Fowler family when she was accused of something she didn't do and broke ties with the Fowler family.

"I got you, right? What is wrong with you people? Why do you have to pretend to be a savior and look so condescending in front of me? Do you think I can't live without you?"

"If so, I'm afraid I'm gonna have to disappoint you. Without you, I'm living a happy and carefree life! You must be all blind! You should have a doctor checking your eyes as soon as possible!"

With that, Jane turned around and left.

"Mr. Lance, let's board the plane. Ignore these **."

"Ah... oh."

Lance's ****twitched at Jane's words.

She was probably the only woman in the entire Stormton City who dared to call the Fowler family *** in front of them.

"By the way, someone from your family is going abroad today. The Fowlers in Stormton City are all here, except Madelyn."

"Let me guess. Madelyn pretended to have a cold and fever and couldn't get out of bed. She said that she wanted to come but you told Madelyn to rest well. Madelyn was forced to stay at home, right?"

"You actually dare to leave someone who might be the traitor at home. Jack, oh Jack, you really trust your precious daughter," she added.

Jane said these to Jack.

He could see Jack's expression become darker and darker.

"Enough, Jane. I was looking to reconcile with you, but that doesn't mean you can slander ***!"

"There's no evidence for everything you've said!" he added.

Jack was unwilling to doubt Madelyn. That was the last thing he'd do.

However, he could not control the emotions that were about to burst out of her chest.

In a ***of desperation, Jack could only vent this "anger" on Jane,

"Yes, I don't have any evidence. Just take it that I was talking ***. I'm leaving. Bye."

Jane had no obligation to say too much to Jack.

In any case, in the Fowlers' heart, Madelyn was the embodiment of pure kindness. It was impossible for her to betray the Fowler family and do anything evil.

She was the Saintess!

If Jack hadn't come to disgust Jane first, Jane would not talk about this either.

In any case, she had achieved her goal.

Jack was destined to suffer from insomnia tonight

Jane dragged her luggage and boarded the plane with Mr. Lance.

Jack was left in place. Then he returned to Anna with a gloomy expressio

*Jack, don't be upset. Jane is always like this. Don't take her words to heart."

Anna comforted Jack gently.

Anna had heard everything Jane said just now.

He did not doubt Madelyn at all.

He was afraid that Jack would be affected.

"I know... Okay, it's about time. Henry, board the plane with your mother. Be careful. Call us when you arrive."

"Alright, Dad. Aaron, Quinton, Dwayne, Peter, when ***and are not around, I'll leave the family and company to you," "Okay!"

He watched as Anna and Henry passed the security check and entered the airport.

Peter asked, "Dad, are you going to Fowler Corporation first?"

"I suddenly remembered that I have something to do. I'll go to the company later. You guys can take care of your own business now."

"Okay."

After Jack left in a hurry, Aaron and Quinton were about to leave when they saw that Dwayne and Peter were still behind them.

"Dwayne, Peter, what are you guys thinking?"

"Nothing. Aaron, Quinton, let's go."

After Peter and Dwayne finished speaking, they exchanged a tacit glance.

Apparently, Jane's words just now did not only affect Jack.

At the same time, it affected them.

Back then, Peter was present when the real daughter leaked the news that became the trending post. Dwayne was also the first to rush back to know the details.

This was because his hatred for Jane had gradually changed.

Gradually, he could remain calm and think about the cause and effect of everything.

After Jane's words, an uncontrollable chill gradually appeared in their hearts.

It was an uncontrollable suspicion about Madelyn.

Could it be that Jack went back to the Fowlers' villa this time?

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 176

No Way Back Chapter 176-On the other side, Madelyn had already avoided the surveillance cameras and the servants.

She sneaked into Jack's study.

Previously, she had not found a chance to make a move because too many sons of the Fowler family had returned.

Even though Jack spent much of his time working at Fowler Corporation, Madelyn did not choose to infiltrate in order not to expose herself,

Although the Fowlers were deceived by Madelyn's appearance, they would not have believed Madelyn if they had seen Madelyn do something with their own eyes!

And so, today was the day she took action.

Everyone went to the airport to send Anna and Henry off.

As long as Madelyn pretended to be ***, she could choose not to go and stay at home alone!

There was plenty of time. Madelyn had already made a plan and sent everyone away. Even the surveillance cameras had been dealt with.

Madelyn put on gloves that didn't leave fingerprints and fumbled with the target information.

Last night, Madelyn used the excuse of delivering drinks and snacks to Jack and the others in the study. She remembered it very clearly

The information was here...

She flipped through the pages in the drawer.

She saw it!

Madelyn quickly took out her phone and took a few photos of the documents. Then she put them back and sneaked out of the study

Just as Madelyn destroyed the evidence and walked out of the washroom, she heaved a sigh of relief.

A figure suddenly appeared in front of her.

Madelyn let out a scream in shock. "Ah!"

She almost fell.

Fortunately, the person was quick enough to hold her. "Maddie, are you alright?"

"Daddy..."

Madelyn secretly swallowed a mouthful of saliva. "Why.. why did you suddenly come back? Didn't you go to the company? Mommy and Henry have already set off?"

"Hm... why are you here?"

This was the third floor.

It was the floor where the room of Jack and Anna was located.

It was also where the study of Jack was located.

Although there was a bathroom, everyone's room had a separate bathroom.

If Madelyn wanted to go to the toilet, she could just go to the bathroom in her own room.

She was clearly having a fever and not feeling well. There was no reason for her to be here.

"I feel a little better. I wanted to go to the rooftop to take a breath of fresh air and get more sunshine. When I went downstairs, I suddenly needed to pee, so..."

Madelyn had made preparation for occasions like this. She managed to quiet her nerves and said calmly

Still, the quivering in her voice still gave her away.

If it was in the past, Jack would not have given much thought to it

But after what Jane said at the airport, the more Jack thought about it, the more he felt that Madelyn's recent actions were very suspicious.

Once the seed of doubt was planted, it only needed a simple opportunity to take root and germinate.

There was no going back.

"Daddy, what's wrong?"

Madelyn's intuition told her that something was wrong with Jack's expression

She asked carefully.

"Nothing. I came back to get some files, I'm going to the office later."

"Maddie, since you're ***, you should not walk around. Rest well and drink more water to recover quickly, understand?"

"Okay... daddy, I understand. I'll go back to my room to rest now."

Hearing Jack's worried words, Madelyn's nervous heart finally relaxed a little.

When Madelyn went downstairs, Jack's expression immediately changed and he quickly returned to the study

He checked carefully.

There was nothing unusual.

Jack even went to check the surveillance footage.

The surveillance camera did not capture Madelyn entering the study.

Madelyn did as she said and walked straight to the stairs on the rooftop.

After that, the surveillance camera also captured Madelyn coming down the stairs.

However, the time stamp didn't match.

Madelyn entered the toilet 15 minutes later than the surveillance footage showed. The surveillance camera in the study was also very strange.

Jack couldn't tell what exactly was strange.

"I must be wrong... No, Jack, you can't be affected by Jane anymore."

"Maddie is such a kind and innocent girl, How could she do such a thing?" he added.

Jack kept hinting to himself.

However, he took out his phone in a daze.

He called someone.

The call was quickly picked up.

A surprised voice sounded, "Mr. Fowler, what's the matter?"

"Do you remember the trending post I told you about and the editor-in-chief with the gossip magazines?"

"I do. It's been a long time. Why are you talking about this again?"

"I want you to help me look into it."

There was silence on the other end of the line.

Jack said, "Is there a problem?"

"No... it's just that it's been a while. I heard that the editor-in-chief has resigned and gone overseas. It's a little difficult to investigate now."

If Jack had investigated directly back then, before the editor-in-chief left Cruksia, with Fowler Corporation's strength, the results would have been out in an instant.

However, after such a long time, the editor-in-chief had already run overseas and all the traces were probably gone Upon hearing this, Jack heaved a sigh of relief. He didn't know why he would feel this way. That meant he had already taken Jane's words seriously. He was really suspicious of Madelyn. Jack composed himself. "Anyways, do what you can and see if you can find out anything"

"Mr. Fowler, may I know what brought your attention back to this matter after so long?"

"At the time, I thought you already knew the result"

"Just go do it. I don't want to answer anything else."

Then he hung up.

Jack sat on the chair and rubbed his eyebrows.

"I'm not suspecting Maddie. It's just that I have to find out the truth. Otherwise, I'll feel very uncomfortable every time Jane mentions this."

"It's as if Jane looked down on me and treated me like an *** ..."

When he took his things and left the study, he found Madelyn there when he got downstairs.

"Maddie, why are you up again?"

"Oh, I came downstairs to get some water. Daddy, are you leaving?"

"Yes, I've got the files. I'm going to the office."

When Madelyn heard this, she lowered her eyes to hide her sadness.

"I'm sorry, daddy. I know the company is at a critical moment for assistance but there's nothing I can do to help"

"Today, mommy and Henry went abroad to do business. Everyone went to send them off. But I couldn't go because! had a fever. And you still have to worry about me. I'm really useless."

Madelyn hit herself in anger.

Her tears fell like pearls with a broken string.

They were shattered into countless crystal clear beads on the ground.

"Maddie, don't be like this. This is only your first year in college, and you're still a kid I'm already very happy that you have the heart to care about the family business."

No Way Back Chapter 177-Seeing Madelyn like this, Jack's doubts about Madelyn vanished without a trace.

He quickly went forward to stop Madelyn from hurting herself.

Madelyn's self blame and guilt were so real.

It couldn't be an act

Jack didn't know what was wrong with him because he actually doubted his biological daughter he'd cherished so much because of Jane's words!

This was crazy!

"Daddy, I'm sorry. I was just a little discouraged just now. I've been really a mess recently. I even doubt if I'm qualified to be the daughter of daddy and mommy."

"But I will work hard. I can't make you and my brothers look bad!"

Madelyn took the initiative to throw herself into Jack's arms. She wiped her tears and spoke firmly.

Her red eyes were filled with a burning light.

"Maddie, daddy believes in you. You'll definitely make it. You're the little princess of our family. We've all seen your hard work and talent."

"Alright, don't think too much. Rest well. When you're feeling better, I'll let your brothers take you out to play and relax," he added.

"Thank you, daddy."

Jack walked out of the villa.

He sat in the back, got into the car, and looked at the palm of his hand.

He suddenly felt that he was being very ***just now.

He actually suspected Madelyn, who cared so much about the Fowler family.

"Maddie, I'm sorry. It's daddy's fault. I must have been crazy to suspect you because of someone like Jane," he told himself.

Jack left.

Madelyn returned to her room and her face instantly changed.

"Fortunately, daddy trusts me and is on my side. After what happened just now, daddy shouldn't have any more doubts. about me anymore..."

H

Madelyn immediately sent the photo to Chester and made a call.

"Chester, I need a response from you as soon as possible! I want to see 4.5 million dollars in my account by today!" "Okay, Miss Maddie, give me ten minutes."

Soon, she received Chester's reply.

"I'm very happy to be able to work with Miss Maddie again so quickly. 4.5 million dollars will be in your account within today."

"Very well,"

She finally made it in time!

Madelyn's eyes flashed with pride.

Today was the day Jane set off for Meridonia.

*Jane, oh Jane, cherish your last moments of glory."

"On the day of the World Series, you will become a laughingstock for the rest of your life!"

Jane and Mr. Lance had already arrived in Meridonia.

As soon as he walked out of the terminal, Jane saw a call.

"Andy?"

Jane raised her eyebrows and pressed the answer button. "Andy, I'm in Meridonia. I just got off the plane and was about to tell you on WeChat What's wrong?"

Andy said, "Turn around and take a look."

Jane turned around curiously.

She saw Andy, who was wearing a blue down jacket and had long golden hair and a pair of green eyes, waving at Jane happily.

His skin was pale like a vampire and he was 6 feet 3 inches tall, making him the center of attention in the entire airport, not to mention that handsome face that was comparable to a world superstar.

"Andy!"

Jane was especially surprised to see Andy. She dragged her suitcase and jogged to Andy. "Why are you here?"

"I happen to be on a business trip to Meridonia. Since I can personally witness Janie becoming the world champion, how can I not come?"

Andy's neutral voice was filled with love.

“Hope I won’t bother you. You haven’t been very busy lately, have you?”

“It’s fine. Trois is also here on this business trip to Meridonia. I left all the business to him, I promised to treat him to a feast when we get back.”

“We can hang out together while we’re in Meridonia.”

“Haha! Sure! We agreed to meet in Rheinsville, but we never had the chance. Now, we’ve bumped into each other!” At this moment, Mr. Lance dragged his luggage over. When he saw Andy’s face clearly, he could not help but be stunned. His breathing became rapid as he stammered, “Jane, this is...”

Jane introduced, “Mr. Lance, this is my friend, Andy.”

Andy took the initiative to extend his hand to Mr. Lance. “Hello, I’ve heard Janie talking about you. Mr. Lance, it’s a pleasure to meet you.”

“Hello... Hello... Mr. Andy, I wonder if I can have the honor of working with you, I mean, I’d like to draw a picture of you!”

“Oh God, forgive me for being so rude, but this is the first time I’ve seen such a unique man! Please! Whatever you want! As long as Mr. Andy agrees!”

Lance stared at Andy like a hungry wolf.

He was also like a starving jackal that had finally found a lamb that could fill its stomach.

Andy couldn’t help but shrug his shoulders.

“Oh, well...”

Andy wanted to refuse.

If not for Jane, he would not even consider taking a second look at people like Lance, let alone talk to him.

“Come on, Andy, just let me draw a picture of you.”

“Since Janie said so, fine.”

That was because Andy was very fond of Janie.

Time passed in the blink of an eye.

Five days passed.

Finally, the International Students Drawing Competition began!

It was also broadcast live in real-time.

The audience who came in were all either rich or noble.

Andy successfully received the invitation and entered the venue.

The contestants representing the various countries stepped onto the stage one after another.

The big screen behind displayed the identities of every contestant.

When the camera caught Jane, the people in Cruksia who were watching the World Series all burst out cheering. Standing in front of the camera, she was wearing a blue swan-colored down jacket. She had long hair and red lips. Her fair face was as smooth as a newborn baby's, and her cold eyes rippled slightly.

With her hands behind her back, she stood straight and proud. Instantly countless pairs of eyes remembered this player called "Jane". She was from Cruksia.

A shadow appeared in their mind.

She was just like a female general on the war field.

She was handsome like a man.

It was so cool!

Andy, Lila, Hugh, Yale, Clarence... everyone that had to do with Jane and the people who loved Jane were all looking at Jane.

She was resplendent.

She was like the hottest sun.

She was not some quiet moonlight.

The radiance and magnificence that Jane possessed could burn everything! It could illuminate the world!

She was brilliant enough to stun the world!

As for the members of the Fowler family, in spite of the fact that they might be in different places, they were all watching the live streaming on this day.

They were paying attention to Jane's every move.

The Fowlers, who had already changed their opinions of Jane, felt guilty and thought that Jane could win the world championship and bring glory to the country.

As for Jack and Anna, they had mixed feelings.

They hoped that Jane would win the championship.

However, at the same time, they hoped she would not.

If Jane won, the Fowler family would be talked about and mocked again.

They would accuse them of being blind by cutting off ties with Jane. They would bear the brunt of it.

They had lost the treasure of their family without knowing it.

Everything would be up to fate...

No Way Back Chapter 178-There was only one person who was different.

It was Madelyn.

She was watching the live broadcast on her computer in her room.

Meridonia and Crucsia were in different time zones.

It was daytime in Meridonia.

However, it was night in Crucsia.

Madelyn could no longer control the joy on her face.

She smiled this almost evil grin.

Her face was contorted.

Over the five days, she had received so much money from Chester.

Madelyn had already set everything up.

They were just waiting for this competition to begin!

This was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for her to wait for Jane to suffer a fate worse than death and fall into the abyss.

Madelyn took out her phone and dialed a number.

"It's me. You can start now."

"Yes!"

After hanging up, Madelyn threw her phone on the table and even leisurely picked up her snacks to eat.

He looked at Jane, who was in the limelight in front of the camera.

"Jane, oh Jane, remember your smile now."

"Later I'm going to make it look uglier than a crying face!"

There were a total of 13 countries ***in the International Students Drawing Competition.

After introducing the contestants' identities, the judges showed up.

This year's International Students Drawing Competition did not use an online voting method like the one in Cruksia. The judges would be giving their votes.

There were a total of five judges.

Every one of them had a pivotal position in the international painting circle.

One after another, the contestants were introduced until the appearance of that person!

It was Marcus!

He was known as a super painting genius that was rarely seen in the world in a hundred years!

He was the treasure of the art festival!

He was the youngest person in history to win the Picasso Competition!

He got the championship twice in a row.

His talent made all the rules appear dispensable.

Everyone submitted to the grotesqueness of his paintings!

T

Everyone did not hesitate to believe that Marcus could become the second Picasso and Van Gogh!

With his appearance, it was obvious that the mood of the entire venue had soared!

Even Jane, who was backstage, could not help but take a few more glances.

This legendary Marcus was so famous that even Jane had heard of it many times.

It was rumored that this person was elusive. No one even knew which country was from or what he looked like.

However, with Jane's ability, it was not difficult to find out Marcus's Identity.

That said, Jane was not very interested in this person.

It was said that Marcus would appear in the venue in true colors.

Just as Jane was thinking, Marcus appeared!

He got global attention!

Shockingly, Marcus clearly looked like a Crucsian.

He was about 6 feet 2 inches tall, with soft, slightly long curly hair and brown eyes.

He was very handsome.

He was also a bit androgynous.

The most eye-catching thing was there was an Equinox Flower tattooed on his right eyebrow.

It left a deep impression on people at first glance.

One would never forget it after taking a look.

Jane suddenly felt a sense of familiarity when she first saw him.

She seemed to have seen Marcus somewhere before...

It was impossible for Jane to forget such a face.

Just the tattooed flower on his eyebrow was enough to be unforgettable.

“Could it be that the aura of him makes him look like someone?” she thought.

“Who the **** is it?”

Jane was still racking her brains.

The five judges were already seated at the judges’ seats.

Then the competition began.

Every contestant brought their own work onto the stage. They were all the best in their countries.

The works were for the judges to judge. Then they would ask questions and respond.

After each contestant’s work was displayed, the judges would have an hour to think, discuss, and grade.

In the end, the contestant with the highest total score would be the champion of this International Students Drawing Competition!

The last to present the work was Jane, who represented Cruksia.

Jane brought her work “Angels” onto the stage.

The flashlights were focused on Jane.

At that moment, Jane’s body seemed to be covered in a layer of holy light.

As long as Jane was around, all the scenery would be reduced to a foil.

This woman had such a strange magic power.

Regardless of whether they liked Jane or hated Jane, they could not help but focus their attention on Jane.

Some people were destined to be dazzling and illuminate the world, becoming rulers.

Jane was obviously such a person.

Marcus looked at Jane, and her eyes suddenly rippled.

Originally, he was calm and seemed distracted. It was rare for him to look serious.

The judges all noticed Marcus's movement.

They all turned to look at Jane.

This woman from Cruksia was indeed very beautiful.

They wondered if he had taken a fancy to her.

On second thought, they denied it.

One of the female judges rolled her eyes, her eyes flickering with jealousy.

It was well concealed.

Jane's work and the original on the drawing board were both projected on the big screen. The moment this work appeared, it instantly caused a commotion

Everyone was shocked by the incomparably surging vitality emanating from Jane's work.

It was like a witch's incantation, guiding the souls of the audience into the peaceful bamboo forest world in the painting!

Even a layman could clearly feel it...

Jane's work was definitely the most eye-catching among the 13 contestants ***today!

There was no exception.

The other contestants were indeed very capable to be able to obtain first place in their respective countries and represent their countries in this World Series.

Every painting had a different style and was powerful.

However, compared to Jane, their works could only be described as inferior.

It was like the boundary between "extraordinary" and "mediocre".

There was no bridging the gaps.

It was simply impossible.

Just the powerful vitality in this painting was intangibly pulling in souls and telling them something.

It was something that the paintings of the other twelve contestants would never be able to come close to. The judges were all silent.

Facing such a painting, their questions would appear useless.

Or rather, from the moment Jane painting's was presented, she was already the champion.

Even big shots like them, who were famous in the international painting circle, could have such thoughts.

From this, it could be seen how heavily gifted this girl from Cruksia was!

As long as she embarked on the path of painting, she would sooner or later become a milestone in the history of painting!

She would walk side by side with them on the international stage!

Mr. Lance saw this scene below the stage and smiled in satisfaction.

He knew that she'd definitely win.

He knew that this world championship trophy would definitely belong to Jane!

She would bring glory to the country!

"Jane, did you complete this painting alone?"

A sarcastic voice with a strong Meridonian accent sounded

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 179

No Way Back Chapter 179-Unlike most of the audience, who welcomed Jane as the winner Madelyn was gnashing her teeth in jealousy as she watched it in front of her computer

Even though he knew that Jane's reputation would be ruined later

But watching Jane now steal the show on live television around the world, she still felt very angry

She was so angry that he was about to go crazy!

She was even angrier about why Jane had such a gift.

She was clearly nothing but a wandering lowlife who had been missing for 19 years!

She had actually surpassed Madelyn, the “genius” who had received an elite education and developed her intellectual and artistic talents.

Madelyn was intrigued when one of the judges spoke to Jane in this manner.

Jane’s expression was calm. “I did it on my own, with the help of my advisor”

He had already figured out the identity of this judge in her mind

Janica Colin, who was from Meridonia. She was 43 years old and was currently experiencing a divorce lawsuit for her fifth marriage.

At the same time, Janica hated people from Cruksia.

She thought that she was intrinsically superior to the people of Cruksia.

Except for Marcus.

Because Marcus, with his unmatched talent, had made all the bigwigs in the painting world who were prejudiced. against the people of Cruksia change their minds and be humbled!

Janica became an avid fan of Marcus not only because of his talent but also partly because of... his good looks. Janica was obsessed with good-looking guys. Every one of her husbands was in their 20s. After getting married, they all could not stand Janica’s strong desire for control, so they “divorced her one by one.

Jane did not realize that Janica was jealous because Marcus was paying attention to her. Instead, she thought that Janica was only picking on her because she despised the people of Cruksia.

“First of all, I have to say that the completion rate of this painting is indeed very high. It’s very outstanding and full of vitality. But why do I feel that the style of this painting is familiar...

Janica deliberately mentioned this.

But she did not say anything further.

Actually, Jane’s painting was indeed very good.

It was just that Janica was unwilling to admit it.

Who asked Jane to attract Marcus’s attention?

It was like a super fan discovering that her idol was good to another woman.

That crazy feeling of jealousy was like a tidal wave that was about to drown Janica. Don't think that this young coquette can climb up to Marcus with just her face!

Jane was not worthy at all!

What Marcus needed was a mature and well maintained woman like Janica, who was experienced, who loved Marcus deeply, who was worthy of Marcus's status and ability, and who could help Marcus leave his name in history!

He didn't need a rookie who had not even graduated from university!

Because she didn't hide her jealousy well, the corners of Janica's eyes, which were covered in layers of foundation, revealed thin wrinkles.

She looked extremely mean and unsightly

"What nonsense is this Janica talking about? What the ***!!

Mr. Lance was furious!

It was rare for him to say that word!

Janica deliberately said this in front of the world's live broadcast cameras. Wasn't she implying that Jane was plagiarizing others?

The paintings had been circulating around the world for many years. There had even been paintings born more than two thousand years ago in Crucsia.

There were so many works. Once they misled everyone into thinking that Jane's painting looked very similar to a certain one, it would never be able to change it.

People would automatically assume that Jane must have copied a painting, even though they couldn't name it. They would just say they forgot it, but they must have seen it somewhere else.

Once fixed thoughts were formed, Jane would become the original sin.

Even if Jane won the world championship in the end. But if she was stigmatized, how could she clear her name completely?

"Mr. Lance, calm down. Janie isn't the type to suffer losses. Just wait and see how Janie counterattacks."

Andy was not worried at all that Jane would be at a disadvantage on stage.

Putting aside the emotionless Jane, there was no one in this world who could make her suffer.

Sure enough!

“The styles are different and the world is the same in some way. The world is like a starry sky with countless stunning works. I don’t think it’s a bad thing to absorb the essence of our predecessors and create your own path.

“The key is how to absorb this essence and integrate it into our own style to create better works. This is also something that will go down in history. For example, Picasso and Van Gogh’s self-created sects gave us expectations. “For example, Miss Janica, you have a work of ‘Little Red Shoes’. Didn’t you learn from a new star artist at the Lasting Agency and get the idea from the work ‘Red Heels’?”

Jane’s response to Janica’s heckling was perfect.

She just paid back in kind.

Janica’s face darkened at that.

At that time, Janica’s “Little Red Shoes” had won many awards and was exposed for plagiarism.

Janica had indeed been borrowed from “Red Heels”, the work of Lasting Agency’s new star artist.

He had thought that she was just a new star artist. According to Janica’s years of experience, She just needed to change the style a little.

In the end, she was caught.

Seeing that drama of plagiarism was spreading more and more widely, Janica secretly settled with the artist for a lot of money. She advertised the work as a “tribute.” Then, she hired paid posters to crazily clear her name on various forums.

The meaning of “tribute” and “plagiarism” was very different. She had to do a lot of things to put the matter to rest. At this moment, when old matters were brought up, the people in the audience began to discuss.

Janica had simply shot herself in the foot!

Originally, this matter had already been mostly forgotten.

Now that Jane mentioned it, it rose from the ashes again in front of the world’s live broadcast.

Most of the people watching the live broadcast were artists from the painting circle.

Naturally, they knew about what happened to Janica back then.

In fact, Janica had been criticized since her debut.

Some even felt that Janica's achievements were not worthy of her current status.

Perhaps she had played some tricks and used money or sexual benefits to lure the people of the association into forming cliques.

Janica was about to defend herself.

"This contestant Jane made her point, Janica. You're the one who crossed the line."

Marcus said coldly.

His words were so calm.

But when it was heard by others... it was like it carried huge pressure. An indescribable pressure swept through Janica's entire body.

She instantly didn't dare to say anything.

She gritted her teeth.

Sure enough!

Janica's feeling was right!

Marcus had taken a fancy to this person from Crucsia!

***it... How could a little girl get Marcus's attention?

When Marcus said this, those who knew him well were shocked.

As a genius of the world-class painting art circle, Marcus had quite a lot of eccentricities.

He rarely talked to anyone, and no one was very familiar with Marcus.

In such a worldwide live broadcast competition, Marcus actually took the initiative to speak up for Jane...

Could it be Jane's talent that made even Marcus stunned and developed a love for her and her talent?

No Way Back Chapter 180-Madelyn was also extremely jealous. Why!

Jane got Marcus's attention again!

This **** ... How many outstanding men did she want to seduce?

Marcus, Hugh, Robert, and Connor...

Madelyn immediately took out her phone and urged.

The other party immediately replied, "It's done. You can look at the trending posts now."
At this moment.

A trending post message popped up on Madelyn's phone.

She could not help but sneer.

Here it was finally!

On the other side.

Jane had already stepped down the stage.

In the next hour, the five judges would interact with each other in a room and give scores.

Jane returned to her personal lounge,

She closed her eyes to rest.

She was waiting quietly...

The moment of glory that belonged to her had arrived.

At the same time.

Jane knew that Madelyn would not sit back and do nothing.

She had made deals with Chester twice and received so much money.

If she didn't cause trouble today, she wouldn't be Madelyn,

As expected!

Andy sent a message to Jane at this time.

[I saw the trending posts in Crucsia. They said that your painting plagiarized X, a famous painter in quadratic elements many years ago. Also, the creativity of this painting was similar to the practice manuscript released by Marcus]

The corners of Jane's ***curled up. "And sure enough, the Fowler family started doing it."

Andy replied, [Seeing how confident you are, I'm afraid you've already expected it. If you need my help, just let me know.

Jane replied, [There's no need... I've already thought of a way to humiliate the Fowler family]

Now, Madelyn and the Fowler family were so smug

But when the truth was revealed and the lie was exposed, it was going to be fun!

Andy replied, [Okay, I'll wait and see ]

In the Sutton family, Crucsia.

Lila was still holding her breath, waiting for the results of the championship.

She stared at the screen, not daring to look away.

Harry Sutton, Lila's 12-year-old brother, was playing with his phone when he suddenly shouted. "Lila Sutton, suddenly there is a trending post saying that Jane had plagiarized!"

“***! Harry, are you ***asking for a beating? How dare you call me by my full name... What did you say?”

Lila was just about to roll up her sleeves and teach her ****brother a lesson when she suddenly realized that Harry had said Jane had plagiarized. She immediately snatched the phone over to take a look.

TikTok, Twitter, Tumblr... That news suddenly rose to the top of the trending posts at a terrifying speed.

The title was [Angels' from Jane Flower, Crucsia College Student Painting Champion, Plagiarized in World Series!]

The content released the details of the similarities between Jane's work Angels' and a few works by X.

There were all kinds of circles, explanatory notes, and similarities to certain styles of Marcus.

It almost destroyed the trending post.

When Jane participated in the Cruksia College Student Painting Competition, “Angels” had already become famous.

Not to mention that Jane was so beautiful,

There were even Jane’s official fan clubs on Twitter.

However, Jane never ran it. As time passed, it gradually became abandoned.

However, when Jane was representing the country in the World Series this time, the publicity had already begun a few days ago.

Now that such a huge “scandal” had happened, it could be said to be a ruthless ***!

It was a ***to Jane!

It was also a ****to the country!

The paid posters were crazily commenting.

“She has failed! She has failed! Aha! What good news!”

“No wonder I keep feeling that this ‘Angels’ looks familiar and I can’t remember it. Good lord! It turns out to plagiarize two people’s works!”

*Jane Flower actually dared to plagiarize Marcus. Gosh, Marcus was just putting in a good word for Jane just now. She was so ungrateful!”

“As a fan of the quadratic element, X is a sacred existence that can’t be sullied. The diehard fans expressed that they want to destroy the plagiarist!”

*Jane Fowler, the plagiarist, go to ****! Go to ***! Go to ***!”

“There’s no need for us to curse. If the fanatical fans of Marcus and X knew about this, Jane might not be able to come back alive...”

The number of likes was huge.

The fans who originally supported Jane also began to waver crazily.

It’s no big news that Jane’s painting was similar to Marcus’s.

They were only slightly similar in style.

Which painter, even if they weren't symbiotic heads, had never seen someone else's work?

No one could be sure that his work would not bear the slightest resemblance to a certain one in the world he didn't even know.

The key was the similarity with "X"!

Their styles were too similar!

Coupled with Madelyn's notes, all the comparisons, all the details, even laymen could tell.

The other party had clearly come prepared.

They just wanted to release evidence to discredit Jane on the day she was *****in the World Series, which would be broadcast live around the world.

People of the Sutton family exploded when they saw this scene.

*****it! Where did this *****come from? How dare he slander Janie for plagiarism! It's unforgivable!*

"Watch me use my identity as a mean keyboard warrior to scold them to death!"

Lila's eyes were blazing with flames.

Now that we were outnumbered, it was my duty to protect my bestie.

She attacked those people with words like a machine gun.

She attacked everyone she met who was cursing Jane.

The Sutton parents also firmly believed in Jane and immediately called the Sutton Group's Public Relations Department to ask them to deal with the trending post of Jane Fowler's Plagiarism.

The Sutton family was busy working for Jane.

Hugh also got the news.

After reading the trending post, Hugh's eyes revealed killing intent. "Who did it?"

“Too many media and paid posters have appeared at once. For a moment, there are all kinds of information. It’s not easy to find out who planned all of this.”

“But Master... the other party clearly came prepared. Otherwise, they wouldn’t have prepared the evidence so well. What should we do now?”

Life also responded nervously.

He knew how important Jane was to Hugh.

It could be said that Jane was the only woman Hugh had fallen in love with since he was born!

How dare they slander the future mistress of the Croft family...

This mastermind! He really had guts!

He did not know what kind of person he had offended and how miserable he would be in the future!

Hugh thought for a moment and instructed, “Get the news *****down immediately. Don’t let the matter escalate too much and make it impossible to clean up.”

“Got it!”

Life left.

At this moment.

Hugh’s phone vibrated.

It is a WeChat subgroup of Connor, Robert, and Hugh.

Connor said, [@Hugh, I saw the trending topic. I’ve already asked Luther Group’s Public Relations Department to start taking care of it.]

Robert said, [@Hugh, I just gave the order. I don’t believe that Jane is such a person. It’s just that the evidence is a little too strong... Even if we block the news, we can’t keep people from talking about it. And the World Series team probably already heard about it...]

The main thing was that the style of “X” was indeed too similar to Jane’s!

If this problem was not resolved, no matter how much they did to block the news, it would be useless!

After all, it had already been hyped up and so many people had seen it!

Hugh replied, [... There's no way that Janie did not know that someone will slander her.]

Connor asked, [Hugh, you mean... Jane knew this would happen?]

Robert said, [***a, Jane already knew it, and still let the situation go this way? Could it be that he has another brilliant plan?]

Hugh replied, [Just wait. Janie is the woman I love deeply. I have great faith in her ability!]
