No Way Back Chapter 261-Jane could not help but take one more glance at this woman.

She looked so familiar.

This face... Jane was sure she must have seen the woman somewhere before.

But where...

She couldn't remember for the time being.

"Connor, let me introduce this lady to you. Leia Chalmers, the pianist we invited for the soft opening of our restaurant. "Miss Chalmers has just won an international award and many companies are looking forward to cooperating with her. If I hadn't worked with Luther Group before, I really wouldn't have been able to find such an outstanding young pianist." Marlon slapped his head. "Leia? I've heard of your name somewhere..."

Liliana looked at him speechlessly. "Have you forgotten? We went to a piano concert recently. The pianist was Miss Chalmers."

"Oh, yes, you're right! The performance was great!"

"Thank you. I'm flattered."

Leia smiled.

The next second, she noticed that a piercing gaze was fixed on her.

Leia looked at Jane and said gently, "Miss, have we met somewhere before? Why are you looking at me like that?" "Well... I just thought you were very beautiful, so I took a few more glances."

Jane smiled as well.

Hearing Leia's name, Jane finally remembered who she was.

Wasn't this woman Aaron's girlfriend in her previous life?

Aaron and Leia had never told anyone about their relationship.

As a result, Jane only found out that the two of them were together before she died in her previous life.

By the time Aaron took Leia to the Fowler family's house, they were about to get married.

Back then, Aaron had an unfavorable impression of Jane because Madelyn *a wedge between them. Jane could only hide upstairs and secretly watch the Fowlers and Leia chatting cheerfully.

Seeing them get along well, she felt like her heart was being cut by a knife.

Leia also knew that Madelyn was favored by the Fowler family, so she tried every means to please her future sister-in-law, turning a blind eye to Jane.

But...

She wasn't too mean to Jane.

She did nothing to Jane except for ignoring her existence like the Fowlers.

It might be God's will that they met again.

Jane wondered if Aaron had been together with Leia.

But it had nothing to do with her.

Leia did not know that Jane had already found out everything about her.

She took the Initiative to greet the manager of the restaurant because she knew that the people here were either rich or powerful.

Connor, Marlon, Marquise, and... There was also a girl among them, but Leia had no idea who she was.

Leia was shocked when she found out that the girl was actually Jane. How could Jane hang out with those scions?

Now that Leia's goal was to become the Fowler family's daughter-in-law, she had long investigated their background and knew all about their connections.

Not to mention, Jane was so famous now that her photos could be seen everywhere. It would be strange if Leia couldn't recognize her.

For fear that Aaron and the Fowler family would misunderstand and cause her plan to be a failure, Leia only smiled faintly and turned to the manager. "Thank you for your compliments. I'll go backstage to prepare first."

"Okay, Miss Chalmers. We're counting on you for tonight's performance."

“No worries. I won’t let you down.”

Leia then left.

Connor realized that something was wrong with Jane. He lowered his voice and asked, “Queen, do you know that woman? It’s rare to see you staring at someone like that.”

“I thought of something interesting. I’m fine.”

At this moment, the lights in the dining room gradually dimmed.

The melodious sound of a violin rang out.

The violinist would finish playing a while later.

Then it would be Leia’s solo piano performance.

Leia had arrived backstage. She put on lipstick in front of the mirror and pressed her lips together lightly.

She finally got the chance after so many efforts.

Those who could get an invitation to Starry Restaurant for a meal were all from the upper class in Stormton City.

She was sure everyone would be impressed as long as she played the piano well.

That would be very helpful to her career.

Leia was determined to win the Fowler family’s favor and become Aaron’s wife. Only in this way could she get rid of that “nightmare”,

To marry Aaron, Leia needed to do something the Fowler family could be proud of. She counted the time and figured that Aaron and the others were about to arrive.

Putting down the lipstick, Leia turned around and left in her high heels.

At this moment, Anna, Jack, and Aaron walked into Starry Restaurant.

Aaron was the one who received the invitation.

He was invited because Leia had pulled some strings and offered to perform at Starry Restaurant.

She would be pleased if Aaron came to listen to her music.

If it weren't for the incident at Hotel Molov, Aaron would have long come.

That incident left a huge impact on his family.

After Henry and Anna were discharged from the hospital, Henry let Anna return to Crucsia to recuperate. Dwayne was asked to stay. Sam, who had been studying Meridonia, was now on vacation. So Henry let the two help him expand his business in Eastshel.

Aaron, Quinton, and Peter who had to prepare for the final exam were the first ones back.

Eastshel's military had specifically warned the Fowlers not to spread the news about what had happened in Hotel Molov.

The members of the terrorist organization were either dead or injured. The mastermind committed suicide. Many of the terrorists were mercenaries who joined the organization only for money. So, there was no way they could provide any valuable information.

With the invitation, one could only bring two people with him at most. Aaron's parents had been in a bad mood after the Hotel Molov incident, so he decided to take them to Starry Restaurant to relax

To match the performance, the restaurant's lights were dimmed.

So, Aaron and the others did not notice Jane sitting in the corner.

Jack had just stepped in when he heard the most wonderful part of the violin performance. He closed his eyes to enjoy the music, feeling much more relaxed.

"It's a very nice violin piece. Aaron, I didn't expect you to get an invitation to Starry Restaurant."

Given Fowler Corporation's status in Stormton City, it was not difficult for Jack to get an invitation to Starry Restaurant. However, he had been busy with the preparation for New Year's Day, plus Anna and Henry's sudden abduction.

He was not in the mood to get an invitation to such a place at all.

"A friend of mine gave it to me."

Aaron didn't tell him about Leia.

Quinton had left for Meridonia in a hurry.

As a result, he failed to meet Leia.

The main reason Aaron was here today was to bring his parents out to relax.

As for Leia's true identity... Was she really the girl who had saved him back then?

He decided to put it aside for the time being.

The three of them sat down. Jack handed the menu to Anna. "Honey, what do you want to eat? Order."

"I'll eat whatever you order," said Anna.

Anna was dressed elegantly. She had specially had her hair done and put on delicate makeup, but it could not disguise her haggard appearance.

"Honey, our son specially brought us here to relax. It's a token of his concern for us.

"Don't worry anymore. It's all in the past. Our family is still safe and sound and we're still together, right?"

Jack could tell what Anna was worried about. He sighed lightly, reached out to put his arm around her shoulders, and said comforting words gently.

No Way Back Chapter 262- "I know... Jack, I'm still thinking about what Henry said.

"It was Jane who saved us, but we did so many things to hurt her...

"I was really *off by Jane before and said a lot of things that broke her heart. But as her biological mother, I shouldn't have done this to her."

Anna was full of guilt.

Aaron and Jack did not know how to comfort her.

Jack had mixed feelings.

As for Jane...

Jack was the one who hurt her the most.

He always found faults with Jane even though she didn't do anything wrong.

He cursed her, made her kneel, and even wanted to hit her..

It turned out that he was asking for trouble by doing this. Every time he picked on Jane, he ended up miserably. Even so, as Jane's biological father, Jack could not forgive himself for his mistakes.

In the past, Jane was an annoying girl in his eyes. Jack had hoped that she would stay away from the Fowler family and have nothing to do with them.

But now, Jane saved Anna and Henry's lives, which also saved Jack and the entire Fowler family from a fatal ***.

If something happened to anyone in the Fowler family, especially to Anna....

Jack did not even dare to imagine how despairing his future would be.

"Alright, Dad, , now that you've realized your mistakes, you don't have to blame yourselves.

"Actually... if Jane didn't care about and Henry, she wouldn't have saved them."

Aaron finally said something to comfort his parents.

"No... Aaron, you don't know. Jane must us to the extreme. I don't think she's still attached to us.

"Henry was right. Jane didn't mean to save us. But as the world champion and the glory and pride of the country, as long as she could help, she wouldn't turn a blind eye to it when she saw someone in danger...

"I'm kind of afraid... We've returned to Stormton City. What am I supposed to say when I see Jane again? Should I smile at her or..."

Anna's eyes shimmered with tears as she spoke.

She didn't go out in the past few days after she came back from abroad.

Jack didn't go to work or any parties and left the company business to his son and his assistant.

He stayed with Anna considerately and would tense up whenever Anna was in a bad mood.

After this incident, Jack finally understood one thing.

No matter how much money he earned and how powerful he was, it would be meaningless if he lost Anna. Anna was the woman he loved the most in his life, the mother of his children.

Without her, he didn't want to live anymore.

If he could turn back time, Jack would try every means to keep Anna from getting hurt.

"Honey, I feel the same way. I've been thinking a lot these days, but we still have to face our lives and future.

"We can't behave like two all along. It will worry our children. Aaron didn't bring us here to see how guilty we feel about Jane.

"We're parents. Even for the sake of the Fowler family and our children, we should cheer up."

Anna took his words to heart.

She looked up and met Jack and Aaron's worried eyes.

She took a deep breath.

'Jack, you're right. Even if it's for the sake of the children and the family, I can't continue like this

"It's my fault to hurt Jane, but what's done is done. I shouldn't make more mistakes to make you guys worry" Aaron's gaze gradually softened. "Yes, . I heard that the chefs here are very good at cooking Tansico's dishes Take a look and try it."

"Okay."

Anna struggled to get herself together.

Now, the violin performance was over.

Next up was the piano performance.

A woman in a red evening gown and high heels walked onto the stage. She had a slender figure and soft, smooth shoulder-length hair. Every move she made gave off a perfect artistic aura.

Her appearance immediately cheered up many people in the restaurant.

They recognized that this woman was Leia, who had just won an international piano award.

A light flashed across Aarorts eyes.

He looked at the beautiful, enchanting woman on the stage who was now the center of attention.

His eyes were full of obsession.

Jack and Anna also noticed the way Aaron looked at Leia.

Jack whispered to Anna, "Honey, Aaron said that a friend of his gave him the invitation to Starry Restaurant. Could it be this lady?"

"Did you notice it? Our son looked at her the same way you looked at me when you were courting me."

"So, our son didn't bring us here just to cheer us up. It's also for his beloved girl."

If Aaron did like the outstanding girl on the stage, Jack and Anna had no objection to him marrying her.

The Fowler family was wealthy, and they didn't care about their in-law's family social status.

For them, the most important thing was their children's happiness. They wanted their son to marry someone who really loved him, not someone who approached him for the power and money of the Fowler family.

It was fine as long as the girl was upright and had a clean background.

Leia spotted Aaron and his parents at first glance.

As the invitations were numbered, all the guests would take their seats according to the numbers on them,

The table Aaron was at was the most suitable place to enjoy her performance.

Leia learned from the manager that Aaron once called Starry Restaurant to reserve a table today.

Next, Leia's rosy lips curled up slightly as she walked up to the pure piano.

She stretched out her well-maintained hands. A short while later, her slender fingers began dancing on the black and piano keys.

The clear sound was like a stream tinkling through a mountain.

The rhythm was simple, but everyone could tell how wonderful Leia's piano skills were.

After a snippet of music, the real show stated.

The prelude resounded in the hall.

Aaron's heart trembled.

This piece...

It was the same piece the girl played in the video!

With her superb skills, the girl seemed to have given this wonderful piano piece a magical power.

It pulled Aaron out of the dark of autism and illuminated his life like a beam of light. In a sense, the girl saved him.

It had been a long time since Aaron last heard the piece.

But he had never forgotten it.

And he still remembered how shocked he was when he first heard it

"Huh?"

Jane raised an eyebrow.

This piece...

Jane didn't expect anyone to remember it.

That was because she improvised the tune back then.

And she didn't even write down the musical score.

However, someone secretly shot a video of her playing the piece and posted it online.

It caused quite a stir at that time.

The person who secretly recorded the video edited it to immerse Jane's figure in the darkness, so no one knew who was playing when people watched the video.

Later on, Jane found it out and she immediately used hacking skills to bury the video.

At the same time, she found the person who posted the video online and taught him a good lesson.

The incident then ended.

If a pianist saw that video and recorded the piano score according to her performance, Jane would not be surprised. Unexpectedly...

Leia actually had this score.

No Way Back Chapter 263-“This is the first time I’ve ever heard such a piece. It’s amazing!”

“It has a magic power that can make it strike a chord with people. How should I put the style? It’s so heartwarming.”

“It’s like someone who’s in a desperate situation and can’t see any hope suddenly saw a beam of light that illuminates the path ahead and guides him to proceed along”

Marlon and the others closed their eyes and listened carefully The same scene appeared in their minds.

“The Fragrance Always Stays in the Hand That Gives the Rose.”

Jane suddenly blurted it out.

“Huh? Queen, what did you say?”

Hearing that, Liliana, who was sitting by Jane’s side asked in confusion.

Did she hear it wrong?

“The Fragrance Always Stays in the Hand That Gives the Rose. This is the name of this piano piece.”

“Queen, have you heard this piano piece before?”

Marlon asked curiously.

“Well, sort of.”

Jane didn’t think it was appropriate to tell Marlon that she was young and frivolous when she was learning with the Teacher abroad and played the piece on a whim.

At that time, Jane did not figure out a name for the piano piece, but she memorized the score.

She could perfectly replay any piano piece she improvised.

The piece ended.

Leia let out a long sigh.

She was a bit nervous.

After all, she was performing in front of so many people from the upper class.

Especially, Aaron and his parents were watching as well.

Leia had secretly practiced this piece countless times.

She wanted to perform as perfectly as the girl in the video.

Now...

She made it!

At this point, someone applauded.

Leia looked over.

Then she saw Aaron.

Aaron was the first to stand up and applaud her.

His eyes were shining with excitement.

Seeing Aaron applaud, Anna and Jack came to their senses and clapped as well.

The entire restaurant instantly erupted into thunderous applause.

Leia lifted her red dress and bowed to the guests elegantly before going backstage.

Aaron's action made him become the focus of everyone's attention.

When Jane saw him, her lips curled into a sneer.

"I didn't expect Uncle Jack and the others to be here too..."

Liliana looked at Jane worriedly.

"It's fine. Just take them as air and ignore them. Don't let them spoil our appetite."

Jane wouldn't leave without eating simply because the Fowlers were here.

She didn't owe them anything.

On the contrary, the Fowler family owed her two lives.

If the Fowlers still had any sense of , they should steer clear of her.

Even though...

Jane did not think that the Fowler family understood the meaning of "the sense of ***."

"You're right."

Noticing that Jane didn't seem to be upset, Liliana responded softly.

After that, she added.

"Queen, I feel like... you've changed."

Every time Jane met the Fowlers before, she was a little annoyed.

But now, Liliana did not sense that she was the least bit unhappy.

It was as if Jane had uprooted the Fowler family from her mind and they no longer meant a lot to her.

"Perhaps... I've found someone more important."

Jane's lips curled up into a smile.

Her three senior brothers... Perhaps she had more than three senior brothers.

And the Teacher, who was enjoying his life somewhere in the world, watching the flowers bloom and the tide rise and fall every day

And...

The "love" that she had never enjoyed, the "friendship that she had given up, and the "values" that she had never thought of in her previous life.

In this life, Jane found them all one by one.

Now that Jane already had so much, the so-called "family" was no longer so important to her.

It had become dispensable.

“Who is that person? Queen, I really want to know who could make you say something like that.”

Connor asked curiously

“It’s you guys, my partners.”

“Queen, you’re so annoying. You’re obviously referring to someone else and joking around with us.”

Connor complained.

However, despite what he said, he was secretly pleased.

The performance ended.

The lights were switched on again.

The appetizer, main course, and dessert Jane and the others ordered were served one by one.

“It tastes good. Queen, try it.”

“This pudding is yummy! Queen, try it!”

“Queen…”

Jane looked at the delicious food piled up like a small hill on her plate and propped her hand on her forehead helplessly. “Alright, I have hands and I know what I want to eat. You guys, leave me alone and enjoy your food. You’re making me look like a patient.”

*Come on, Queen, just let us serve you. I’m good in every way. I’m 6 feet 3 inches tall with eight-pack abs. I often work out and I’ve been on a diet. I’m handsome and rich, I can either behave like a domineering king or a puppy, and I’m super good at warming the bed!”

Connor looked at Jane affectionately as he placed a peeled shrimp on her plate.

Jane was speechless.

Liliana poked the back of Connor’s hand with her fork and said coldly. “What’s wrong with you? Why are you telling Queen this?”

"Humph! What's wrong with that? Queen is so young, beautiful, and talented. It's normal for a man to fall for her.

"Liliana, I said this because I was confident in myself. Are you jealous? Don't tell me that you're actually interested in me!

"Connor, get lost!"

Liliana could not hold back her anger anymore and cursed.

"Ahem... Actually, I'm also a little....attracted to Queen"

Marlon raised his hand silently

He took a careful look at Jane's face.

Then, he lowered her head like a shy girl.

"Me... Me too."

Marquise, who had not spoken much, stammered, blushing

"What?" Jane was stupefied.

What was wrong with those guys?

Why did they make their relationships so complicated?

She treated them as her brothers, but they wanted to sleep with her!

"Did you hear that? Liliana, no man can resist the charm of an outstanding woman like Queen!"

Connor made a face at Liliana.

Liliana didn't expect Marlon and Marquise to be on Connor's side.

Wow!

What did that mean?

That meant their captain was so outstanding that she became the object of women's jealousy and men's obsession! Liliana gritted her teeth. "Queen, ignore these three male animals who are full of minds. The three of you! Focus on your food and listen to Queen. If Queen loses her appetite because of you guys, I'll definitely kick your **!"

"Yes... Let's eat first."

Jane did not know how to deal with such an occasion, so she simply lowered her head and ate

"It tastes so good! Luther Group's Cloudnine Restaurant serves wonderful food, and so does its branch," thought Jane. After finishing the food on her plate, Jane left on the pretext of going to the ladies' room.

Liliana shot a glare at the three guys. "Look! It's all your fault. Queen is embarrassed because of your nonsense!"

"Liliana, we're not talking nonsense! We're serious! We've never been so serious!

"We must be kidding if we say that we don't have any feelings for Queen!"

Connor looked at Liliana seriously.

"Connor is right."

"I thought the same way."

Marlon and Marquise both agreed.
Liliana had no idea what to say
“Liliana, has your heart never flipped for Queen?”
“Queen is our powerful leader. She trusts us and dispels the darkness for our future. Don’t you have feelings for her that go beyond friendship?”
Connor raised his glass, took a sip, and stared meaningfully at Liliana’s face with a wicked smile.
“Are you kidding me, Connor? Queen and I are both women. Besides, we’re distant relatives. If you continue to talk nonsense, I’ll your head off!”
Liliana explained nervously as if her secret was suddenly exposed. She picked up her glass and began to drink the high-end Lafite.
Her face blushed instantly.
Marlon, Connor, and Marquise were dumbfounded.
They were just saying it casually.
Why did Liliana’s face suddenly turn red?
It was probably because of the alcohol.
Could it be that Jane was so charming that even Liliana fell for her? Gosh!

No Way Back Chapter 264-Jane walked into the ladies’ room and washed her face.

Looking into the mirror, she gently stroked her face with her fingertips.

“This face... doesn’t look special. Is it that eye-catching?”

“Those guys are so familiar with me that they even dare to joke around with me.”

She hadn’t realized how attractive she was yet.

At this moment, a cheerful, surprised voice came from the entrance.

“Hi, Mrs. Fowler!”

Leia coincidentally’ met Anna at the entrance of the ladies’ room.

It was obvious.

Leia deliberately arranged for it.

She had been hiding nearby, waiting for a chance to “run into Anna in the ladies’ room.

Then she would try every means to impress Anna.

Anna did not know that Leia was playing tricks.

Because of Aaron's special attitude towards Leia, Leia's temperament, and the piano performance, Anna had a favorable impression of Leia.

"Hi, are you Miss Leia Chalmers, who was playing on stage just now? I watched your performance. You played very well.

"I've heard so many piano pieces, but I've never heard of that one. Can you tell me its name? I want to download it when I return home and listen to it a few more times."

"Well..."

After freezing for a short while, Leia quickly replied, "Actually, this is a piano piece I composed. I'm lousy at giving names and I can't figure anything out, so I want Aaron to help me with it."

Did Leia just say that she composed the piano piece?

Jane raised her eyebrows slightly.

Then...

As if she had thought of something, she curved her lips into a sneer.

It was interesting.

Someone plagiarized her work in front of her!

"Oh?"

The smile on Anna's smile grew even brighter.

She looked at Leia, her eyes full of admiration.

Anna really liked Leia. At least at first glance, she could not find any flaws in her.

She thought Leia was a good match for Aaron.

They were both renowned pianists who once won prizes in international competitions.

They matched well in appearance, social status, and talent. They were born to be a couple.

It was the first time that Anna had ever met Leia. What's more, she hadn't confirmed if Aaron really had feelings for this girl.

Of course, she would not ask Aaron to marry her.

It was up to the two young people whether they would start a relationship or not.

It was fine as long as Leia wasn't the kind of woman who coveted the Fowler family's power and deliberately made use of Aaron's feelings.

The two of them walked into the ladies' room while chatting cheerfully

The next second, the smile on Anna's face froze.

That was because she saw Jane.

The first thing that popped into Anna's mind was that she must be watching things.

How was it possible that she ran into Jane here? That was too much of a coincidence. Anna blinked.

She wanted to confirm that it was not an illusion.

At this moment, she had mixed feelings.

Most of them were negative emotions.

Anna did not know how to face Jane, so she just lowered her head.

"Mrs. Fowler, are you okay?"

Leia asked with concern, naturally making her relationship with Anna a step further.

She even took Anna's arm and comforted her gently.

As smart as Leia was, she could naturally tell that Anna had a good impression of her.

She didn't know if it was because of Aaron, but it didn't matter

Leia was surprised to see Jane in the ladies' room.

But when she saw the embarrassment on Anna's face, she realized that this was a good chance.

A good chance to please Anna!

"I... I'm fine."

Anna didn't have the guts to look at Jane.

She had gone through so much recently.

It was the first time she had seen Jane after that incident.

Anna had already convinced herself to be *prepared

But she had been hiding at home for the past few days because she was afraid that she might run into Jane.

She promised Jack and Aaron that she would cheer up.

But when she really saw Jane...

Anna still had no idea how to face her.

She had done so many things to hurt and humiliate Jane before.

And she knew how much Jane had suffered.

However, as Jane's biological mother, she only watched coldly instead of giving her a hand. What really worried her was how her adopted daughter, Madelyn felt after her birth daughter returned to the Fowler family.

To her surprise, it was the girl, who had cut off her relationship with the Fowler family, saved her, Henry, and many other people, avoiding an international dispute.

This girl was Jane Fowler, the world champion and the idol of countless people.

At the thought of this, Anna seemed to see Jane covered in a dazzling halo that almost blind her eyes. She began to reflect on what she had done again.

Jane looked at Anna as if she was looking at a funny clown.

It turned out that her evil "biological mother" also knew what "embarrassment" was! Jane fixed her gaze on Anna for a short moment. After sizing her up, she looked away. Meeting her gaze, Anna felt like someone pricked her hard with a needle.

No matter how thick the armor she wore, it couldn't resist the needle piercing her body.

It was so painful that Anna couldn't stop her body from trembling.

She could tell that there was not the slightest warmth in Jane's eyes.

It was not icy cold.

It was just that there was no emotion in her eyes at all.

It was as if they were not related by blood.

It was as if Jane was not her biological daughter or a Fowler.

It was as if their relationship was even more distant than that of strangers. And they were two parallel lines that were not supposed to be crossed.

Realizing this, Anna felt like her whole body was suddenly drained of all strength. She was so feeble that she could not even stand firmly.

Why?

Why did her heart hurt so much? Why did she feel so cold?

She'd rather Jane looked at her with cold, hateful eyes.

At least, it meant that after Jane left the Fowler family, she was still attached to them.

But Anna only saw indifference in her eyes as if she was not even match up to a stranger...

It seemed like Jane had completely removed the Fowler family from her heart.

To Anna, being ignored by her was even more torturous than any negative emotions. Anna wished she were dead. This was the first time that she had ever had such feelings.

No Way Back Chapter 265-"Excuse me, Miss Jane Fowler. I heard of what happened between you and the Fowler family.

"As an outsider, I don't know the whole story and I should stay out of your family affairs. But Mrs. Fowler seems to be in pain after seeing you.

"I'll take her to rest for a while."

Leia began to curry favor. She pulled Anna out, trying to make her rest on the bench outside the ladies' room.

"You don't have to do this. I'm leaving."

Jane said calmly.

With that, she strode past Anna and Leia.

Anna immediately smelled a fragrance.

The next second, memories flooded her mind.

Anna remembered that when they first found Jane, they did a DNA test.

She was very excited after knowing that Jane was her biological daughter who had been missing for 19 years.

The first thing she did was give Jane a hug.

While Jane was trembling in her arms, Anna smelled a fragrance in her.

It was exactly the same fragrance she had just smelled.

Jane smelled the same.

Everything seemed to have just happened yesterday.

But why...

Why would her daughter treat her even more coldly than a stranger?

What went wrong?

No, nothing went wrong.

It was all their fault.

The Fowler family...

The Fowler family should be blamed for this!

It was the Fowler family who hurt Jane again and again!

Jane was about to leave the ladies' room.

Seeing that, Leia said, "Miss Jane Fowler, do you really have nothing to say to Mrs. Fowler... your biological mother?" Anna's heart skipped a beat at her words.

"Uh-huh?"

Jane's eyebrows shot up. She tilted her head and looked at Leia with a faint smile. "What did you say? I have some problems with my hearing and I didn't hear what you said clearly. Can you say it again?"

She said in a soft voice.

But Leia suddenly felt as if a pair of invisible hands were gripping her heart.

At the thought of why she was trying to flatter Anna, Leia calmed herself down and pretended to be sympathetic. "I can tell... Mrs. Fowler really misses you. I don't know what happened between the two of you..."

"Since you don't know, what are you nagging about? Who do you think you are? You're only an outsider, so mind your own business!"

Leia was rendered speechless.

She didn't expect Jane to be... so rude!

This girl behaved like a punk.

And she didn't look like she was from the noble Fowler family at all!

It seemed like she had learned all the tricks from those lowbrows during the 19 years she spent on the streets

"Maybe the reason why Jane left the Fowler family and made a scene is that she was rude and could not get along with them"

Thinking of this, Leia's face turned cold "Miss Jane Fowler, if you have something to say, let's talk in peace. Why are you yelling at me?"

"That's how I talk, much better than a thief."

"Who are you calling a thief?! If you continue to slander me, I may sue you for libel!"

Leia's almond-shaped eyes widened in anger.

"Oh... Did you really compose that piano piece you played just now?"

"You composed it, but you can't even name it. It's so **!"

Jane decided to tear off Leia's mask later.

It was the Fowler family's affairs and had nothing to do with Jane.

However, she happened to find the "" who was swindling with her the piano piece she composed,

Jane had no reason to swallow her anger and she exposed Lela without giving it much thought. "You!"

Leia's heart skipped a beat.

That must be the case. She knows it's not my work.

it!

Anna was here.

If she told Aaron that Leia was a , there was no way Leia could marry into the Fowler family and get rid of her miserable life!

What's more, if Aaron knew that Leia had used this piano piece to deceive him, the Fowler family would definitely get angry and take revenge on her...

Just thinking about the consequences made Leia tremble.

She couldn't admit it no matter what.

"I... I don't know what you're talking about. That piano piece was really composed by me on a whim!"

As long as Leia insisted that she was the one who posted the video online, Jane could do nothing to her.

This piano piece had never been released commercially after so many years. No one could find proof that it wasn't her work.

"Ha! You composed it? Good for you."

Jane had already figured out a way to lay bare Leia's tricks.

She turned around and was about to leave..

At this moment...

Anna stopped her.

"Jane, wait a minute."

With that, Anna shook Leia's hand off and staggered in front of Jane. "Are you ***?"

Jane's cold gaze was about to pierce Anna's heart like a sharp knife.

*Jane, I know you have a problem with me after so much happened. I've been thinking about it these days. The Fowler family and I... haven't done right by you.

"We made you suffer a lot, but you saved me, Henry, and the whole Fowler family.

"Even though I don't know how to face you, I still want to thank you. Thank you for saving our lives!"

Despite her sadness, Anna lowered her head and bowed to Jane.

She knew she was doing the right thing.

No Way Back Chapter 266-"What... what did you say?!"

Anna looked up at Jane in disbelief,

It was as if what she had just heard... was the whisper of a demon.

She couldn't believe that Jane would say something like that.

"Believe it or not."

Jane didn't want to throw mud at herself.

However, what Anna was doing really made her feel ***.

If Anna thought there was still a chance that Jane would forgive them, she might keep on pestering her.

Jane didn't want to waste her time dealing with them.

Anna's eyes were full of despair.

Seeing that, Jane sneered in her heart.

It seemed like...

Anna had never had faith in her.

Even though things had come to this point and Anna kept saying that she owed Jane and that she already realized her mistakes, she believed what Jane had just said,

This was the Fowlers' true color!

Jane thought to herself, "Anna, you'll pay for what you did, but I'm not the one who's gonna punish you."

She was looking forward to the Madelyn's tricks were laid bare and Fowler Corporation was brought down. That was what the Fowler family deserved!

After she finished speaking, Jane pushed Anna away and left.

Anna, who hadn't recovered from the shock yet, did not have the strength to stop Jane at all.

She staggered and almost fell.

"Mrs. Fowler!"

Leia quickly reached out to support Anna. "Are you alright?"

"So... she really me that much."

Anna smiled bitterly, her face ghastly pale.

Even if Jane really wanted Anna and Henry to in that accident...

It was understandable.

She had no reason to save the Fowlers.

She hated the Fowlers to the extreme.

However...

Anna did not expect that...

It would be so hard to accept it when Jane told her the "truth",

"Jane, oh Jane, you're really ruthless. How could you even want to your family?" Anna complained inwardly

Jack and Aaron were still outside the dining hall.

Jack looked at his watch and said anxiously, "What happened? Your mother has been gone for a while. Why isn't she back yet?"

Aaron comforted him, "Dad, calm down. We're now at Starry Restaurant. Nothing will happen to ***.

"No, I can't wait here. I have a feeling that something is wrong. I'll go find her."

Once bitten, twice shy. Anna's safety was now Jack's top priority.

If Anna didn't go to the ' room, but somewhere else just now, Jack would have gone with her. "Dad, wait... **?"

At this point. Aaron saw Anna and Leia walking over.

He immediately stood up and walked up to them, asking in surprise. ", why are you here with Miss Chalmers "Well, I just bumped into Miss Chalmers in the ' room

Anna looked away listlessly

Leia smiled gently at Aaron. "Mrs. Fowler didn't seem to be feeling well. I was a little womed, so I sent her over" "Thank you, Miss Chalmers

Aaron's favorability for Leia kept increasing

Jack quickly took Anna from Leia and asked nervously, "Honey, are you alright? Why did you suddenly fall it? is it because the food here is not to your taste?"

I'm fine... It's just... I met Jane in the room.

After thinking about it for a long time, Anna decided to tell Jack about what had just happened.

Jack's heart skipped a beat. "What?! Jane... Then you..."

Jack wanted to know everything in detail.

But before he could finish speaking....

The lights dimmed again.

The guests discussed in a low voice.

"What's going on? is another show about to begin?" "Isn't there an hour between two performances?" "It's only been 40 minutes since the last performance" "Maybe there's something wrong with the equipment." "Ahem! Everyone, calm down.

"Here's the thing. We prepared a special show for you.

“Although it’s a temporary arrangement, this young lady’s performance will definitely impress you!

“Next, let us welcome... the world champion, artist Jane Fowler!”

Jane Fowler?!

She was going to perform on stage at Starry Restaurant?!

Everyone was so shocked that they forgot to react for a ***.

Leia had a bad feeling about this.

Could it be...

Oh no!

She seemed to have figured out what Jane was going to do.

The manager of the restaurant left the stage after he finished speaking. He took out a handkerchief to wipe the sweat off his forehead and made an “OK” gesture at Connor

Things that were not part of the original plan were definitely not allowed to happen. After all, it was the test operation of Starry Restaurant, and the quests were all from the upper class in Stormton City

Any mistake would be fatal. No one could afford it if something went wrong and affected the reputation of Starry Restaurant and Cloudnine Restaurant.

However, his boss’s son promised that nothing would go wrong and Jane wanted to perform on stage.

The manager could only arrange for it despite his reluctance.

He wasn’t afraid of offending Jane, but he didn’t dare to disobey Connor’s orders.

Even if something happened, he could put the blame on Connor.

If he offended Connor, this young man might badmouth him in front of Chairman Luther, causing him to be fired.

“It’s done, Queen, go ahead. Everything is prepared as you said.”

Connor didn’t know what happened to Jane in the ’ room.

As soon as she came back, she said that she wanted to go on stage to play the piano.

As her follower, Connor took it for granted that he should do everything to help her get what she wanted.

He had never heard Jane playing the piano before. He wondered if it would be as beautiful as the music from heaven. The other members of the Red Star Team also looked at Jane expectantly.

Jane crossed her arms in front of her chest, then she put them down and strode towards the stage.

Her eyes were as calm as a deep pond, reflecting the silvery moonlight pouring down on the stage.

At this , her body seemed to be covered in a holy halo. She was so beautiful that people almost forgot to breathe.

Everyone was stunned.

They looked at the girl on the stage, who was wearing casual clothes with long hair and fair, creamy skin.

She lifted her hair casually, giving off a carefree and unrestrained aura that was difficult for anyone to imitate.

Her palm-sized face was slightly raised, the corners of her lips curled up, and her beautiful eyes seemed to be able to take souls away, emitting a cold, fatal aura.

She was so young

She was so beautiful.

She was so enchanting.

Jane was now standing under the spotlight on the stage.

Everyone locked their eyes on her. It felt like she was the only one in here.

She was born to be the center of attention!

Once people saw her...

They found it hard to shift their gazes from her.

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 267

No Way Back Chapter 267-Jane was performing so well The members of the Red Star Team were infatuated.

They had known that their captain was so powerful However, they did not expect....

She would be the sole focus of the spotlight She gave out such a charming and dazzling aura that made it difficult for people to take their eyes off her!

She was completely different from Jane who led them to conquer the firewall.

She was the Queen of the Darknet.

The current Jane...

She was the absolute queen of the stage!

As for the Fowlers...

None of them would have thought...

That was how Jane would look like when she played the piano.

It was an indescribable feeling.

They could not find a word to describe of the feeling

Even Aaron, who was a world-famous pianist, could not play the piano that way He could not perform as stunning as Jane did.

It was as if Jane had been possessed by the piano's spirit

When her fingertips brushed across the black and keys, she played so fluent.

It was as if she had been transformed into a noble Ice Queen.

Leia's heart was beating fast!

No way!

She did not expect Jane, a , who lived in the lower class of society, to perform so well on the stage...

If it was not for her innate talent, how long would it take for her to give out such a charming performance?

At least, Leia would not be able to do it!

More importantly....

When Jane played that piano piece,

Aaron would suspect that Leia was lying!

“Um... Everyone, I suddenly remembered that I have something very important to tell you. Can we talk in private?” Leia spoke quickly.

Yet.

No one from the Fowler family responded.

Even Aaron was immersed in Jane's performance.

For a moment, Aaron's brain felt like it had been pricked by something

It hurt

But, at the same time, it was as if something had revived.

That was a scene that Aaron had seen before.

When exactly had he seen it?

The piano music started playing.

It was as if it was responding to Aaron's confusion

As soon as he heard the familiar tune,

Aaron was brought back to the time when he had seen the video and heard such beautiful piano music

It was the same song and the same style of playing. The way the fingertips danced across the black and keys and weaved a song to life was the same.

The blurry image in Aaron's mind was completely released!

That...

That should not have happened!

How could Jane play that piano piece?

Could she remember it after listening to it once?

Or could it be...

Jane knew how to play it all along.

Moreover, the way she performed the piece was several times better than Lela and Aaron did!

When Aaron heard Leia playing that song for the first time, Aaron only felt that piano piece was so familiar! With Leia's explanation, Aaron had always thought that the person in the video he saw back then was Leia! Jane was different!

She just sat there and played with the gorgeous movement.

The notes became words that penetrated one's heart and resonated with one's soul.

It automatically brought Aaron to the darkest moment in his lifetime where his mind had been imprisoned and shackled by nightmares.

The first time he heard that piano piece, it was like a rainbow broke the shackles in Aaron's mind. His mind and heart were illuminated by the colorful rainbow!

Aaron's eyes lit up again, and he knew how to move forward in the future.

Why....

Why did such a feeling arise in his heart from hearing Jane's performance...

Could it be...

As soon as he realized that possibility.

Aaron's expression instantly became gloomy.

Jane closed her eyes as if she had fused with the piano in front of her.

Her fingertips danced back and forth on the black and keys, like flowing moonlight.

The song ended.

Everyone was still in a daze.

If....

Every piano player could be separated into different levels.

If Leia's and Jane's performances of the same piano piece were compared,

Jane would win by a few notches.

It was not that Leia's skill was not good.

Leia had won some international awards that certified Leia's capability as a great pianist.

However, there were differences among people.

Especially in the art field.

A layman might not be able to tell.

However, as members of upper-class society in Stormton City, they had heard countless concerts and had good exposure to fine art.

Jane's ability was better than Leia's!

Lela's gritted her teeth so hard that they almost shattered.

How...

How could she play so well?

No! Something must have gone wrong!

How could Jane, the daughter of the Fowler family who had lost for 19 years, be capable of surpassing a genius like her?

The performance ended.

Jane got up

"Thanks for listening"

"Also... I want to say something to a lowlife"

"This piece is called 'The Fragrance Always Stays in the Hand That Gives the Rose'"

"It's not something that any Tom, , or Harry can imitate, especially a lowlife... who steals other's place"

After saying her remarks indifferently,

Jane left the stage.

The words were like a bucket of cold water

It woke everyone up from their daze.

They all came back to their senses.

They responded with warm applause.

“Wow! What a wonderful performance! It’s simply the most perfect piano performance I’ve ever heard

“I didn’t expect the world champion, Jane, to not only know how to draw but also play the piano? How many surprises does this woman have that we don’t know?”

“As expected of X! I’ve idolized her for so many years! Omnipotent! Invincible!”

“The Fowler family must be filled with regret.... They’ve cut ties with such a genius daughter.”

“Lower your voice. Mr. Fowler and his wife are over there. Be careful of becoming a revenge target of the Fowler Corporation...”

Everyone discussed animatedly

Jane went to her teammates.

“Queen, it’s beautiful!”

Connor and the others could not help but cheer.

Was she their captain?

She was not a normal human being!

Instead, it was a living thousand-year-old monster!

Why was she so capable in every aspect?

Everyone was envious of her!

“I’ve finished eating. I’ll leave first. I want to go back and catch up on my sleep.”

Jane yawned

Recently, Jane Fowler had not had much rest.

She sacrificed much sleep to complete the mission given by Hunter

“Huh? Queen, aren’t you going to stay a little longer? I still have a few places I want to go!”

“I’ll call it a day after dinner... You’re so young and energetic that you won’t feel sleepy. Impressive. You guys go ahead. I need to leave.”

Anyway, Jane had achieved her goal.

She had accomplished what she intended to do after the piano performance just now.

Anyone who had good hearing would understand.

They would know the true identity of Leia, a plagiarist, who had taken over her identity and life!

After saying that, Jane left first.

The members of the Red Star Team were slightly stunned.

They thought about what she just said....

They just celebrated the new year.

Jane had only turned 20 years old recently!

20 years old

She was younger than them!

Why was she so awesome at the tender age of 20? She could form a cooperation with a country and was given an important position by the country!

They were crushed into pieces when reflecting on their lives when they were 20 years old

At that moment

The members of the Red Star Team made up their minds again.

They must not let go of Queen!

It was an unwavering decision!

They would be close followers of Queen!

“Wait for us, Queen!”

Leia was so embarrassed that it showed in her expression.

She tried to think of an excuse to convince Aaron.

All in all

Leia’s lie must not be known by Aaron!

Lela had to marry into the Fowler family to get rid of the nightmarish life of her past!

Just as Lela was about to speak.

Aaron rushed out

“Aaron?”

He did not stop even when Anna and Jack called him

Aaron showed an unprecedented nervousness on his face.

He only had one goal.

He wanted to find Jane!

To get a confirmation for one thing!

The answer would be the most crucial information in Aaron’s life!

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 268

No Way Back Chapter 268- Leia saw Aaron’s expression.

She knew...

Her intentions had been exposed!

No matter what Jane said to Aaron,

Leia must now find a quiet place to think about how to resolve the hidden danger of this matter....

Jane walked out of the Starry Restaurant.

The Red Star Team members wanted to follow her, but Jane said that she wanted to sleep and took a taxi back.

If they followed her and continued talking nonsense, she would waste a lot of sleeping time..

She yawned.

She was sleepy.

Stormton City was still quite chilly this time of the year.

Jane wrapped her down jacket around herself.

Christmas was next month.

When the time came, she planned to celebrate the new year with Yale and Josh.

She was unsure if Eden could come out of that place...

During that period, Jane had been watching the surveillance video of the underground base whenever she had time.

Eden was still working hard and carrying out treatments day and night.

He tried to improve his treatment plan again and again.

Life underground was long and without freedom. His life was always at risk.

Eden, on the other hand, seemed unusually excited.

His eyes sparkled with unprecedented passion when he was improving the treatment plan.

Jane was relieved when she saw his reaction.

Eden was a legend

He could go on and on with improvement with all his heart.

Eden would cure that strange illness sooner or later and walk out of the underground base!

Jane did not drive. Four of them took the Uber there.

The Starry Restaurant was located in a relatively remote area. Jane planned to call the Uber when she was closer to the main road.

There was a sound of quick footsteps.

“Wait! Jane! Jane!”

Aaron shouted a few times nervously.

When Jane turned around, Aaron staggered and accidentally fell to the ground.

It was because he ran too fast and shouted too anxiously.

Crackle.

A sound of bones breaking could be heard.

Aaron’s shoulder must have been dislocated.

Aaron instantly showed a painful expression.

Jane was speechless.

What was he doing?

Was he doing performance art?

Or, was he putting on a comedy show?

Jane, who was stopped by the noise, deeply felt that Aaron was a *. Jane turned around and left.

“Jane, wait... I have something very important to talk to you about!

Aaron endured the pain and rushed to stop Jane from leaving.

“Are you asking for a beating?”

Jane had to hand it to the Fowler family.

Did they like to be given the cold shoulder treatment?

Was it her fault that she was too humble back then and yearned for kinship?

If Jane was as dismissive as she was now, perhaps the Fowler family’s masochistic physique would act up and, they would want to get closer to Jane!

****!

Aaron was already used to Jane's unfriendly behavior. He gritted his teeth and said, "That piano piece just now..... Where did you learn it?"

"It's none of your business where I learned it."

"This is very important to me! Please tell me, Jane. Where did you learn it?"

"Is it important to you? But being entangled with the Fowlers is the least important thing to me. It's a waste of my precious time."

"Also... I didn't learn this. This is mine! Leia Chalmers was the plagiarist, who deliberately pretended to be me!"

It was as if a lightning bolt had struck Aaron's head.

Aaron's brain froze, and he almost lost the ability to think

Jane could not be bothered by what Aaron was thinking and left.

If Jane knew that Aaron had been saved by a video of him in the past....

And that Leia had plagiarized Jane's work because Leia coveted the Fowler family's power, perhaps Jane would change her thought.

There was no "if"

A long while after Jane left.

Aaron came back to his senses after being woken by Anna and Jack, who chased after him.

"Aaron, what's wrong? Are you alright? Why did you rush out to look for Jane? Why do you look so pale?"

"Dad... ... I might have... misunderstood something very important

Aaron's heart was filled with bitterness.

His eyes were filled with deep despair.

How...

How did he make a mistake on his first crush, who had saved his life?

How could he still claim that he had Jane in his heart all these years?

Furthermore....

God, you know how to joke!

Why did she have to be Jane?

The girl who played the piano piece was none other than his biological sister!

This must be the darkest of Aaron's life!

Not only did he discover that he had been deceived, but there was an unconquerable gap with his first crush whom he had been searching for in his life!

The Fowler residence

Jack and Anna brought the dejected Aaron home.

On the way home, the two of them asked Aaron what had happened several times

Aaron said nothing.

It looked like he was on the verge of death, and his soul had been out Both of his parents were extremely worried.

As soon as Aaron reached home, he went to his room directly and closed the door.

He did not even greet Madelyn, who happened to pass by him.

Madelyn's heart skipped a beat.

Aaron doted on Madelyn the most among all the family members.

Madelyn had also been thinking about the Starry Restaurant for a long time.

It was the second branch of the Cloudnine Restaurant after all. It was still in a trial operation. It was located in the lake center in the largest park in Stormton City center!

Aaron had mentioned that after bringing their parents there, he would bring Madelyn the next time!

Before he left, he had even touched Madelyn's head gently while saying those words.

Why did he seem like a different person when he came back? Why did he ignore Madelyn? Could it be...

What happened in the Starry Restaurant?

If Aaron ignored Madelyn, it meant Madelyn have no foothold in the Fowler family!

On the first floor.

Anna and Jack we're sitting in the living room with worried expressions.

"Jack, tell me... What happened to Aaron?"

"Why did he run after Jane after listening to Jane's piano performance? And..."

"And he became like this."

Anna had even forgotten about what she had said to Jane at the Starry Restaurant today.

Moreover, Anna did not intend to tell anyone about this. She would keep it to herself.

She would bear the pain of being hurt by her own daughter all by herself no matter how painful the truth was. She absolutely could not let the Fowler family members and others... especially Henry, know what Jane said

If they had known that Jane not only did not intend to save them but even bribed someone to let them die in an accident.

Henry would break down and go crazy!

"Well... I don't know, too.

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 269

No Way Back Chapter 269- "I haven't felt this way in a long time. Every time we get involved with Jane, some kids become abnormal." "Sigh="

Jack heaved a long sigh.

Jack didn't feel any angry or hateful toward Jane this time.

He had only a deep self-examination.

Jack's self-examination began more than six months ago when he acknowledged Jane.

Everything he had done to Jane.

Now, he was filled with guilt about Jane.

Not to mention...

The person Jack sent to investigate said that the ‘trending topic’ event was likely Madelyn’s self-directed scene. Actually...

Setting aside his prejudice and estrangement against June.

And setting aside his favoritism and pampering for Madelyn.

Jack should have thought of it long ago.

Jane had proven her innocence back then.

So the biggest beneficiary of being able to get those photos was Madelyn!

It was just....

Jack could not put all of it behind him at that time.

He dealt with the matter with prejudice.

Even though he realized it, he was still unfair to Jane and totally biased in favor of Madelyn.

No one could have imagined that...

Madelyn, being so naive, pure, kind, and pampered like a princess of the true daughter of the Fowler family, did such a design to frame Jane half a month after she returned to the Fowler family!

It was only natural for Jane to be heartbroken by such a decision and sever ties with the Fowler family.

Then Jack continued to misunderstand Jane, wanted to slap her, and insulted her indiscriminately.

Jane and Jack went to court. Jack even blamed himself for giving birth to such an ungrateful daughter. His family was unlucky!

In fact.

It was all Jack’s fault from the beginning to the end!

There was nothing wrong with Jane!

Jack didn't even know anything and shamelessly wanted to reconcile with Jane. They would go their separate ways and have nothing to do with each other from then on.

Jack was so naive and ***!

If only things could be so simple.

That was Jack owing Jane nothing at all.

Back then, Jack and the others had slandered and hurt Jane.

What should he find to make up for her?

The kindness of giving birth to her had long been offset by so many of his mistakes!

Anna looked at Jack in such pain and bewilderment

Her heart was also frantically tormented.

She recalled that Jane said she planned to Anna and Henry in the washroom.

Anna's heart felt as if it had been sliced apart by a knife.

It was so painful that she was about to **.

In fact, she could not pour out such words and could only bear them alone.

Jack was already in enough pain because of Jane.

What was the point...

To add to each other's ***?

God, what did the Fowler family do wrong?

If only Anna had known that finding Jane would have hurt her so much and ruined her life.

She had better listen to everyone and give up on looking for Jane.

So that the life of everyone in the Fowler family and Jane would be happier, brighter, and more satisfactory.

Unfortunately...

There was no “i”.

“Dad, , why are you in the living room? Where’s Aaron?”

Quinton happened to return with Peter.

Peter had completed his at the University of Oricle.

He planned to fly to Eastshel in two days to help Henry and the others expand their business.

And he hoped to return to his family for Christmas and New Year’s Day this year.

Quinton’s ability lay in his absolute musical talent.

He wasn’t interested in business matters, much like Aaron. So they stayed back to take care of their parents.

At the same time, he would wait for Johan, who was about to go into seclusion to film and spurt to defend the title of his Best Actor, to return.

Then they would be able to reunite as a family!

Of course...

Except for Jane

“He...”

Jack opened his to say something.

However, they could not say anything when the words came to their lips,

They only knew that Jane must have said something to Aaron to make him become like this.

But what did she say....

Who knew?

‘Daddy, ***

Then Madelyn came into the living room with red eyes.

Somehow, seeing Madelyn call him “Daddy” this time, Jack was suffering from severe physical discomfort.

He got goosebumps.

Apparently, he never used to be like this.

Jack heard Madelyn's call and looked at her teary eyes and pitiful look.

He had long gone over to take care of his precious daughter and ask her what had happened,

It was because...

Did Jack know that Madelyn was the culprit who self-directed the 'trending topic' event, and it caused him to misunderstand Jane?

"What's wrong? **."

Anna still did not know the truth of the matter. Seeing Madelyn crying, her heart tightened, and she quickly went forward to comfort her.

The atmosphere in the Fowler family was not good these days. Everyone was involved with Jane and was all crazy about Jane.

In fact, Anna was very worried about Madelyn's emotions. However, they owed Jane too much and really had no time to care.

Madelyn said, "... I saw Aaron just now, and he had this look. I think his shoulder is injured...

"I wanted to ask Aaron what happened, but Aaron hid in his room without saying anything, which he never did before. ", did I do something wrong and make Aaron upset? I will change and never do anything to make him upset. again."

As Madelyn spoke, the tears fell from her eyes and shattered on the back of Anna's hand.

Seeing that, Anna did not know what to say. She could only comfort her. "*, don't overthink about it. Aaron has nothing to do with you. He just... ran into some trouble."

Then Anna winked at Jack and took Madelyn out to comfort her.

After Anna and Madelyn left.

Jack told Quinton and Peter what had happened.

Quinton's heart skipped a beat.

Could it be...

Realizing the truth, Quinton pursed his lips and said, "Dad, leave it to me. I'll go and comfort Aaron."

Please, Quinton. You have the best relationship with Aaron in the family. You have the same interests and are engaged in the same profession.

"Go and talk to Aaron. We asked him about his injuries on the way back, but he was abnormally silent."

I see. Dad, I'm going to see him right now."

Quinton turned around and made his way to the third floor.

At the door of Aaron's room, Quinton took a deep breath.

He reached out and gently knocked on Aaron's room door.

"Aaron, it's me...Quinton."

There was no reaction inside the room.

Quinton thought for a and spoke.

"Aaron, is it because... you know that Jane is the female lead who played the piano in the video and the first crush. you've been looking for all these years?"

Not long after he said that.

The door slowly opened.

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 270

No Way Back Chapter 270-Aaron seemed to have *by more than ten years.

Her eyes were blank.

Not to mention the pain from his dislocated shoulder.

"Aaron, your shoulder..."

I'm fine, What's the pain to me now?"

Only in front of Quinton would Aaron be in the mood to talk.

It was because Quinton knew why Aaron had changed.

No one else in the Fowler family knew about it.

Seeing it, Quinton could only sigh inwardly.

“...I brought the first aid kit. Let me take care of your wound before we talk about Jane.”

Then he carried the first aid kit and walked straight into the room without waiting for Aaron’s reply.

Aaron’s room was simple, with a table, a piano, a desk, a few chairs, and a special display window for his various piano competition trophies.

There were various photos on the desk. Aaron participated in the competition, traveled around the world, and even more photos of Aaron and his family

Aaron was smiling so brightly among his family in the photos. Compared to him now, he was like a completely different person. Quinton had taken some medical classes and obtained a certificate. Not just Quinton, the others in the Fowler family did the same. They had to master the most basic medical knowledge.

They had been taught since they were young

Otherwise, they would be doomed if they encountered an emergency and did not even know how to save their lives. Quinton helped Aaron recover his dislocated shoulder.

“Hiss!”

It was so painful that Aaron could not help but gasp.

Immediately, the continuous pain disappeared.

He was relieved.

Quinton carefully *Aaron’s shoulder with the medicine. “It’s a good thing it wasn’t some of your fingers that got hurt,” he said. “Otherwise, Aaron, your future career might have been ruined.”

For a pianist, his hands were equivalent to his life.

If anything happened, no matter how talented he was, his career in the piano industry would be ruined.

Even so, the pain brought about by having his shoulder dislocated for so long could not be underestimated.

“Aaron, rest for the night. You have to go to the hospital tomorrow for a detailed check.

“I know you’re in a bad mood now, but we must face reality. We can’t live like in the future.”

...I got it.”

After a period of time, Aaron calmed down a little.

He sat on the bed with his legs in his arms, Countless thoughts rippled in his eyes.

“Aaron, is it true... that Jane, not Miss Chalmers, was the female lead of that video?
“Are you sure?””

... Yes, I’m. It’s Jane. The way she plays makes my heart flutter that Lela couldn’t bring it to me.

“The magic power that can only be replicated in the original version is something that no one else can replace... ***

it, it clearly saved my life. Why did I admit I was wrong?”

Aaron angrily punched his own head a few times.

“Aaron! Stop!”

Quinton quickly stopped Aaron’s self-harm.

“It’s not your fault...”

“No... It is my fault, Quinton, I actually admitted I was wrong. How can I admit I was wrong... it!”

Aaron’s voice began to sob.

“You can’t possibly understand... how matter Jane is to me.

“If it weren’t for Jane, Aaron wouldn’t be here today.

“Maybe I’ll even become a *, a *trapped in my world.

“It was Jane’s piano that saved my life. I thought she was more important to me than my life, but I admitted I was wrong...”

It was Quinton's first time seeing Aaron so vulnerable and blaming himself

In fact, he blamed himself even more than when he couldn't get Jane back.

For a moment, Quinton did not know how to comfort him.

He could only quietly wait for Aaron to calm down.

"So... the woman called Lela deliberately lied to get close to you because she was greedy for your status and the power of the Fowler family"

"That ! I'll never forgive her!"

Quinton clenched his fists tightly

It was the first time he hated someone so much!

And it was a woman!

Apparently, Leia was also an internationally renowned piano player.

In order to get close to the Fowler family, she even lied to Aaron to turn the tables.

He could not let the matter rest just like that!

"* ... Yes, Leia lied. But I'm the who didn't even see through her lies.

I'm not even as good as you, Quinton. You warned me before, but I didn't listen. I even thought that I had really found"

The more he spoke, the more Aaron was unable to forgive himself.

He felt as if his heart was being ruthlessly winded by a ***.

And the thorns on the kept stabbing into his heart.

There was no blood.

However, it was more painful than ever.

"Quinton... I'm sorry I kept something from you."

At this point, Quinton could only tell Aaron about his trip to Meridonia.

"My absolute sense of sound and intuition tell me that Jane's style and skills when she played the piano back then were very similar to what you said about the first crush.

“However, you know how Jane is related to us... If I had asked Jane, she wouldn’t have given me an answer.

“I can’t confirm it without hearing the original piano piece. That’s why I remained skeptical when you found Leia.

“Quinton... I’ll collect myself and go to the hospital tomorrow to have my shoulder checked. I’m a little tired, and you have to leave now.”

“Aaron... Don’t be like this. I’m really worried about you.”

Quinton bit his lips and reached out to grab Aaron’s hand

Aaron forced a smile. “Don’t worry about me. You’re right. We have to face reality and the future. If I do this... Jane will look down on me even more.”

If Jane had looked down on Aaron, Aaron could take it as a grudge against the Fowler family and didn’t take it too personally

Now, even if the entire world looked down on him, Aaron didn’t want Jane to look down on him.

Because Jane was the most matter person to Aaron right now!

Not just she was his biological sister!

She was also the girl who had saved Aaron’s life and made him yearn for her for so many years!

It was the same now!

“I see...”

Quinton left the room and closed the door.

Jack and the others quickly asked Quinton, “How is it? Quinton, what did Aaron say?”

Quinton pretended to be relieved. “I’ve taken care of Aaron’s injuries. Tomorrow, Aaron will obediently go to see a doctor. Don’t worry.”

“That’s good... You’re so efficient, Quinton.”

Jack and the others finally felt relieved.

Only Peter remained solemn.

Because he knew that... something related to Jane had caused Aaron to become like this.

It was definitely not a simple matter.

But Peter didn't know anything.

He saw that Quinton and Aaron did not intend to say it explicitly.

Peter couldn't ask further.

The next day, Madelyn received a particular message.

It was an unknown number.

"I have a favor to ask you, and when it's done, you can ask for any reward you want."
