No Way Back Chapter 311-0 In Jane's arms, Rain looked up. A pair of unique scarlet eyes bloomed, reflecting Jane's figure, which was filled with warmth.

He was definitely a super cute boy that only existed in comics. He was very attractive.

If he were exposed to the public, he would excite the crowd. People would take pictures of him and post them online, and he would become an instant hit on various forums, including Twitter and other short video apps

It would not be a problem for him to debut and become a top superstar.

Who would have thought...

The boss of the Darknet's third assassin organization was so young

And he looked like a handsome young man from a comic.

He had slightly curled hair and scarlet eyes.

And he had perfect height.

He was too charming

"Ahem... Rain, I know you're close to Queen, but you don't have to ignore me so completely, right?"

Andy coughed a few times, indicating that he was still there and telling them not to ignore him.

"No, I didn't ignore you. DI. It's been a long time."

Rain responded, but he still hugged Jane and refused to let go.

Andy was very speechless

What the *! He was so perfunctory!

When did Andy, the first-class lawyer and the middleman of the Darknet, get so ignored?

He felt so frustrated.

"Okay, Rain, we're here to talk to you about something important. Are you the only one here?"

“You know me, Queen, I don’t like crowds when I’m not on a mission. There are only two of my personal guards on the base now. You know them.”

“Well I remember you have three personal guards?*

“He... died during a mission.”

Rains eyes darkened as he said this

Jane pursed his lips. “Sorry, Rain. I didn’t mean to...

“It’s fine. People in our line of work can die at any time. This is the path they chose. They’ve long known what the outcome would be”

“By the way. Queen, you rarely come to see me. Is there something important?”

“Yes... Let’s find a place to sit down. I’ll explain it to you slowly”

After Jane told Rain about the SKIN Organization, Rain’s scarlet eyes narrowed slightly, and a lingering killing intent flowed out.

At this moment, Rain’s cute aura disappeared without a trace.

It was as if he was possessed by a demon.

Even his fair and pretty face was stained with blood

Andy, who was beside him, could not help but secretly swallow a mouthful of saliva.

Was this the aura of the leader of the third assassin organization?

Andy had seen the leader of the Darknet’s second assassin organization.

It was just that he was a wily and crafty man who was almost 60 years old,

He was way too old

He didn’t have the pressure that the young Rain gave off now.

“Coincidentally, I want to destroy this organization

“But there are too many troublesome things going on inside. I don’t want to be involved, and I don’t want some assassins who haven’t been dealt with to run out and cause chaos after SKIN disbands

“After thinking about it, I plan to integrate everyone you think is capable into Ruthless after I get rid of the SKIN Organization and take over SKIN’s business

Jane looked at Rain seriously

Unexpectedly..

“Okay, then I can work with Queen again. I’m so happy!”

Rain agreed without thinking

Jane was slightly stunned. “Rain, don’t you really want to think about it. This is not child’s play!”

“I know, but with Queen here, everything will be fine

“What’s more, this is also a good thing for Ruthless. If we can annex the fifth assassin organization, Ruthless can have the strength to compete with the second organization for the ranking.

“Most importantly. If they mess with Queen, they mess with me. What disgusts me has no place in this world”

He clearly had a harmless face that could charm thousands of girls.

But these words he said....

No one dared to question the meaning of Rain’s words!

“Rain, you can’t help for no reason. Here.”

Jane had already guessed Rain’s answer. She took a flash drive from her pocket and shook it at Rain,

“About SKIN’s headquarters, surveillance, network firewalls, servers, databases and everything. I’ve already sorted them out.

“I’ll wait for you to arrange your men and set off on time. I’ll dismantle the network facilities at the SKIN base immediately and buy you five minutes.”

“That’s enough. As expected, working with Queen is really great!”

Rain looked at Jane with stars in his eyes.

There was admiration, paranoia, and all sorts of other emotions.

Rain called two personal guards over.

He gave instructions on the plan to annex the SKIN Organization,

The two personal guards accepted it expressionlessly.

No objections were raised,

To them, Rain's orders were more important than their lives.

As long as it was Rain's order, even if they were told to themselves, they would do it willingly and without hesitation.

It was because the wicked also had their saviors

Rain was the only ray of light in their world, which had been , dark, and hopeless

Their abbreviation was "Death Guards".

Rain took the flash drive given by Jane

"Queen, do you want to stay in Eastshel for a while? Play with me. It's so boring."

Rain pulled Jane's arm and wheedled

If it weren't for the fact that Rain's halo was too dazzling, Jane found it hard to imagine that the cute boy in front of her was the King of Assassins

"Okay, but you have to change your appearance when you go out. Otherwise, it will cause too much of a commotion"

Jane patted Rain's head.

Rain's  hair felt like a cat's fur

It was furry and wonderful to the touch, making one unable to bear to part with it.

Jane regarded Rain as her younger brother from the bottom of her heart after she met Rain and worked with him.

It was because such a kid was too pitiable.

"That's great! As long as Queen is willing to stay and play with me, anything is fine!"

Andy was speechless again.

He suddenly felt like he was a third wheel.

What the heck?

If he had known earlier, he wouldn't have followed Janie to the base of Ruthless.

However, if Janie came alone, Andy would be worried.

Oh my god!

What a pain in the ass!

The next day

When there was sunlight and no snow, Jane and Rain left the base and drove toward the city.

Andy happened to have a business nearby, so he left first this morning to contact the person in charge.

Rain sat in the front passenger seat with a lollipop in his mouth. He smiled at Jane beside him, "Although it's a pity that DI couldn't come, it feels better to be alone with you, Queen."

"It's been a long time since I went shopping with you, Rain. It's been five years since that mission ended."

"Time... passes really quickly. You were only thirteen years old back then, but you're already eighteen years old now."

Jane sighed

"Queen, have you forgotten? It's already the new year. According to Cruksian, I'm already 19 years old."

He was right.

It was the new year.

Ran was nineteen

And Jane was already 20 years old.

After her rebirth, Jane had already lived for a year in this brand new life.

It was a completely different life from her previous life, which was stinky and terrible like a cockroach “Queen, do you have a crush now?”

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 312

No Way Back Chapter 312- Rain suddenly said this.

Jane was silent for a moment.

“Well, I have someone I like.”

Rain’s expression changed when he heard that.

Then, Rain threw the lollipop out of the car window

The lollipop shattered into pieces.

“Is he good to you?”

“He’s been very good to me.”

“That’s good... If he treats you badly, you must tell me. I’ll *him for you.”

Rain’s eyes flickered with a scarlet and bloodthirsty light.

Rain’s paranoia was plain to see.

It was as if as long as Hugh showed the slightest sign of a change of love for Jane, Rain was about to take over.

“All right, Rain, we’re out for a good time today. Don’t think about that.

‘The most important thing is to have fun. By the way, where’s the shop that sold delicious coffee where you went the last time you sneaked out? We’re almost downtown. Tell me the name of the coffee shop

“Well... I’ll use the GPS in the car leading us there.”

Jane tactfully changed the topic.

Actually, Jane knew that Rain had special feelings for her.

Back then, at the end of that mission, Jane helped Rain regain his emotions.

Then, Rain showed Jane his love for her immediately.

At that time, Jane was so shocked.

Still, Jane refused.

It was not because of their age differences.

In her heart, Jane only treated Rain as a younger brother. There was no throbbing heartbeat like when Jane met Hugh. After that, Jane and Rain did not see each other for five years. Including Jane's previous life, it had been ten years since they last met.

They only occasionally chatted through private messages on the Darknet.

Knowing that Rain was doing well and maintaining his original aspiration, Jane was relieved.

From the looks of it, Rain had not let go of what had happened back then.

However, at least, as time passed, Rain had probably been relieved much more.

However, Rain was an 18-year-old youth after all.

No matter how much Rain had achieved, he was just a youth.

If possible, Jane didn't want to collaborate with Rain.

It felt strange to collaborate with someone who was treated as a younger brother by Jane and liked Jane at the same time

However, of all the people Jane knew, Rain was the only one who had the strength and could make Jane accept the mess after getting rid of the SKIN Organization.

Jane hoped everything went well.

They arrived at the coffee shop according to GPS.

Jane parked the car and got out with Rain.

Because Rain was too conspicuous, he had only to wear the hat of the down jacket and sunglasses to cover up himself tightly.

It barely blocked Rain's slightly curled hair and a pair of scarlet eyes.

Otherwise, if someone saw Rain, it would definitely cause a commotion.

Rain pouted. “Queen, I’m not used to this. I’ve never been out like this before...”

After saying that, Rain rubbed the two rabbit ears on the hat discontentedly

In the past, when Rain came out, he always used the Darknet to hide his aura and not attract anyone’s attention.

As the leader of Ruthless, Rain’s ability to hide his aura could be said to be superb.

It really could make others ignore Rain subconsciously as if Rain really did not have any presence. Even with such an outstanding appearance, Rain would still not be noticed.

“It’s just in case. Sorry to make you go through all this. Please hang in there. Thank you, Rain.”

“Alright Queen, since it’s your request, I will listen to you. No need to apologize ”

If someone familiar with Rain was around, they would definitely be so shocked that their eyeballs would fall out

Although Rain looked cute, he was actually more stubborn than anyone else.

Rain would definitely do what he had set his mind on. He would never do anything he hated.

No matter who tried to persuade Rain, it was useless.

The fact that with just one sentence, Jane could appease and make Rain listen to her could show, to a certain extent, Rain really relied on and liked Jane.

Jane pushed open the door of the coffee shop.

As soon as they walked into the warm shop, Jane could smell a strong smell of handmade coffee.

Rain followed beside Jane like an obedient Samoyed and said gently, “I’ve drunk all kinds of coffee here all. This time, I want to drink the same coffee as you, I’ll drink whatever you choose.”

“Two Americanos, then”

Jane preferred to drink Americano. It was a little bitter, but it was very refreshing after one drank it. The effect was direct

Jane hated the cold. It was more comfortable to sleep in a warm environment. Although it was freezing outside, Jane did not want to break her promise to play with Rain.

Jane and Rain found free seats and sat down.

Rain took a sip of hot Americano and rested his chin on one hand. "Queen, why aren't you yet telling me what you want me to do after we destroy the SKIN Organization?"

"This

Just a sideshow. It's easy for you. Its best to focus on annihilating the SKIN Organization first"

"How long will it take for your men to absorb all the information and be fully prepared?"

"Well, Even if the information is complete, the SKIN Organization is still the Darknet's Fifth Assassin Organization after all. Since we've decided to annihilate them, we have to do everything in detail and to the extreme to prevent them from rising from the ashes and making a comeback." "Five days or a week is the most appropriate time to prepare..."

Rain gave a rough date.

When he said this, Rain deliberately avoided eye contact with Jane.

Rain could not lie without any psychological burden in front of the woman he liked.

If they looked at each other, Jane would definitely see through Rain.

Actually, Rain wanted Jane to stay in Eastshel and accompany him for a longer time..

"A week..."

Jane rubbed her chin.

Today was January 8th.

It would probably be January 20th by the time Jane returned to Stormton City after annihilating the SKIN Organization.

Fortunately, Jane could meet up with her senior brothers in time for Christmas.

"What's wrong? Queen, can't you play with me for a week?"

"Of course not. Come on. Have some coffee."

Jane took a sip.

The bitterness spread and the strong smell of coffee bloomed in her at the same time, satisfying her taste buds.

It was so comfortable.

At this moment, a gaze silently fell on Jane..

Jane noticed this.

Actually, Jane was just like Rain.

Even though Jane had disguised herself, she had still concealed her aura.

After all, Rain's identity was too special.

Jane didn't want to attract attention.

However, Jane didn't expect that she would still be noticed even in such an elaborate disguise.

It was interesting.

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 313

No Way Back Chapter 313- Rain was extremely sensitive to such a gaze Through his sunglasses, Rain looked at the man who was looking at Jane Rain's killing intent began to stir After taking a sip of coffee, the man said to the person sitting opposite him, "I met someone I know. I'll go have a chat with her" "Huh? Mr. Laton?"

The secretary who was reporting the progress of the work to Chester was slightly stunned.

Chester stood up and walked toward Jane's table

"I didn't expect to meet you here, Jane."

Upon hearing Chester's voice, Jane narrowed her eyes and turned around.

"What a coincidence. I didn't expect you to still be in Eastshel, Mr. Laton."

Of course, Jane was asking the obvious

Chester was still in Eastshel because he had received information about the Fowler family from Madelyn secretly

Chester was planning to snatch a share of Fowler Corporation's business plans in Eastshel

However, Jane had to pretend not to know.

"Yeah, my company is in the start-up phase. I'm exhausted. Look at the dark circles under my eyes. I haven't had a good night's sleep in days" Chester pointed at his eyes.

Chester perfectly inherited the excellent genes of his parents and had a pair of beautiful eyes

"Speaking of which, Jane, I met your brothers

"I was discussing business with your brothers yesterday almost to midnight"

"You're wrong about one thing. They're not my brothers. They're just strangers. And I'm under no obligation to know their information. "Also, Mr. Laton, I don't think our relationship is that good, right? Is it necessary for you to approach me so intimately and call my name?" At the mention of the Fowlers, Jane's tone suddenly sank and became incomparably cold.

Chester whistled flirtatiously.

Then, Chester raised his hands in surrender. "Alright, I said something wrong How about you give me a chance to apologize?" Chester's intuition told him that Jane would not distance herself too far away from him.

Back at the auction, it was also Jane who took the initiative to approach Chester.

No matter what Jane's goal was, Chester knew that Jane would be a good helper in the future.

Even if Jane couldn't be a helper, Chester definitely could not let her be his enemy

This woman was unfathomable and terrifying

Chester's Impression of Jane never changed

"There's no need."

These words were not said by Jane.

It was Rain who spoke.

"Can't you see that she *you very much? Get last

Rain's words were very cold.

Even if there was no killing intent mixed in, these words were already cold enough to make one feel as if they had fallen into an icehouse. Even Chester noticed Rain's specialness

Though the man in front of Chester was disguised deeply to the extent that it was really difficult to see his appearance and recognize his identity.

"Alright, then I won't disturb you anymore."

The intuition told Chester that this seemingly young man was an existence that could not be provoked.

In the end, Chester turned around again and spoke to Jane in a voice that only the two of them could hear.

"As an apology, Jane, let me tell you something... The Fowler family seems to have sent someone to follow me

"As for who it is, you can guess. He's hiding here now."

Jane frowned hard

Was the Fowler family already suspicious of Chester?

That made sense. In the first auction in Stormton City, Chester had perfectly figured out the Fowler family's base price and successfully obtained the auction item so quickly.

Then, they met Chester in Eastshel again and got involved in the incident at Hotel Molov In the past few months, Chester had also made the Fowler family suffer a lot through the information secretly provided by Madelyn

It would be strange if the Fowler family didn't suspect Chester

In Jane's previous life, Chester had worked together with Madelyn secretly and with the Fowler family's absolute trust in Madelyn, they successfully cheated the Fowlers and protected themselves perfectly.

From how at ease Chester was, Jane felt that all of this was baby within Chester There was no need for Jane to worry too much expectations

What made Jane even whinier was the person sent by the Fowler family to follow Chester

It couldn't be that one of the Fowler family's sons had personally taken action, right?

Considering that Jane kept bumping into the Fowlers in all kinds of strange situations, Jane looked around and realized that she didn't see those she hated

Fortunately, they were not here.

Little did Jane know Sam was hiding in the corner of the restroom.

Sam had already seen it when Jane entered the coffee shop.

Sam did not know why he was hiding.

Sam happened to hear Henry doubting Chester before.

Just as Sam came out, he bumped into Chester

So, Sam subconsciously followed Chester here in secret.

“it. I don't owe Jane anything. Why should I be nervous? Why should I hide when I see her? That's strange

“Sam, are you out of your mind or ****?”

Sam cursed himself secretly a few times.

Sam wanted to muster up his courage and go out openly

It didn't matter even if Jane found out

However, Sam thought of the lesson he had learned from the two defeats at the hands of Jane in Meridonia and the reason why he came to Eastshel which was to help his brothers develop their careers.

And Sam could always feel the oppressive atmosphere, especially after encountering something related to Jane

“I'm not afraid of anything. I just don't want to cause unnecessary trouble....

“I'm here to monitor Chester this time. It has nothing to do with Jane. Anyway, it's convenient to hide here. I can also see Chester here” Sam could only comfort himself.

In any case, Sam instinctively did not want to have anything to do with Jane

Once Sam had something to do with Jane, nothing good would come out of it

Chester was scared away just like that.

Jane could not help but smile. 'Rain, your dominating aura is indeed not to be underestimated.'

Rain looked sulky at that "Do you think I'm being nosy?"

"No, today is my day to play with you. I don't want to be disturbed by anyone else."

To begin with, Jane had only planned to watch as Chester and Madelyn worked together to destroy the Fowler family

At the same time, Jane wanted to get involved and stir up trouble to add fuel to the fire.

It was not within Jane's consideration to interact too deeply with people like Chester.

"Okay!" Only hearing it did Rain smile happily.

At this moment, there was beautiful piano music.

Hearing this performance, Jane raised her eyebrows without leaving a trace.

It felt a little familiar.

The entire coffee shop instantly fell into a beautiful and warm atmosphere.

The Eastshelises who were chatting *their mouths quietly and closed their eyes to listen to such a perfect performance.

Jane praised, "The pianist hired by this coffee shop is quite skilled"

"There's no pianist here. There's only a piano. Guests who are confident in their skills can go up and try"

"Really?"

Jane rested her chin on one hand

The first half of the performance was quite excellent

It was enough to show how superb the player's piano skills were.

But in the latter half, the performer's state of mind was clearly in a mess.

Even if the performer used superb skills and years of experience to control the rhythm of the black and apiano keys, someone like Jane, who was also a pianist, could easily tell.

To a certain extent, the piano sound was best to show a person's state of mind and personality at that time

The sound of the piano was what the performer wanted to tell others

Music notes could become silent words, and a skilled player could make everyone present feel empathy and be unable to recover for a long time.

Jane said in disappointment, "I thought the performer was very powerful. In the end, he or she is just so-so,"

"Huh? Queen, what did you say?"

"Nothing..."

Rain didn't listen to the piano performance at all, and he was born not interested in these things.

Rain just silently admired Jane's expression as she listened to the piano music.

Rain's expression darkened when he saw the change in Jane's expression.

Jane must have felt unhappy because the performer did not play well.

*it!

The piano music ended.

"Not bad! My baby, you are so great!"

An obscene, loud laugh came from the top of the building.

What?

The man actually spoke Crucsia's language.

"No, there are so many people watching..."

"It's fine. You're my woman. I can do whatever I want. Do I need to care about how others look at me?"

The two of them walked down the stairs as they flirted with each other.

Then, Jane saw the woman who was forced to smile in the arms of a 220-pound obscene fatty with a bald head and wearing dungarees. "Oh? I really met someone I know."

Jane vaguely guessed something.

Now that Jane had seen the woman with her own eyes, it was completely confirmed.

It was exactly Leia who plagiarized Jane in Stormton City back then and tried to cheat the Fowlers and use the title of Aaron's savior to marry into the Fowler family.

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 314

No Way Back Chapter 314-When Leia saw Jane, she could not help but be stunned.

A cold feeling arose from Leia's bones and blood and circulated throughout her body.

Countless questions circled in Lela's mind.

Ever since Leia's identity was exposed, afraid of the Fowler family's revenge, Leia had already concealed her identity and fled to Eastshel Why did Leia still encounter Jane here?

The world was so big. Why was there such a coincidence?

Even in her dreams, Leia could not understand what kind of ill-relationship this was.

"What's wrong? Do you know her?"

The eyes of the upstart who was hugging Leia couldn't help but light up when he saw Jane.

What a beautiful woman.

Moreover, she was a Crusian!

In particular, the cold and otherworldly aura between the woman's brows was like a snow lotus, which was the biggest attraction for men. It was so mesmerizing!

"I... I don't know her."

Lela smiled bitterly.

In her heart, Leia only hoped that Jane would not deliberately expose her

Leia wanted to quickly leave with the man and didn't want anyone from the Fowler family to know about her current situation.

"How can you say that you don't know me? Back then, you plagiarized someone's work, and I exposed it. You were very famous at that time. "What's wrong? Lela Chalmers, who used to be famous internationally, actually  up in Eastshel with..."

50 young, beautiful, and promising. However, Miss Chalmers, now you

At this point, Jane deliberately paused and sized up the bald man. "Miss Chalmers, your taste in choosing a boyfriend is quite unique."

The bald man did not hear the sarcasm in Jane's words at all. Instead, he casually admitted proudly. "That's right! Leia has been with me since she was 13 years old!"

"Jacob"

Leia glanced at Jacob Lewis and whispered, "She's a *. She had a grudge against me and left quickly. Didn't you already book a room..."

me in the past. Don't lower yourself to her level, Lets.

"Little , you're really impatient. But there's no hurry. I'm a little interested in this lady." Jacob sai drifted to Jane again, filled with desire.

Leia's heart skipped a beat when she saw this. She could not help but secretly clench her fists.

It was true that Leia only submitted to Jacob for the sake of living a better life and a cheeky smile. His lascivious gaze

It would be a lie to say that Leia had a love for Jacob. Looking at this and obscene bald man, Leia even wanted to vomit.

However, Jacob had money and resources that could easily help Leia obtain the things she dreamed of.

But Leia couldn't tolerate that the man who fell in love with her had such a look for other women, especially when that woman was Jane.

"If you keep looking at my date with those eyes, be careful or I'll dig them out," Rain suddenly spoke coldly.

Only then did Jacob and Leia notice Rain.

Realizing that this young man might be Jane's boyfriend, Jacob instantly wanted to show his masculinity and suddenly slammed the table. "You brat, what are you talking about? Do you know who I am?"

This slap and roar instantly attracted the attention of everyone in the coffee shop.

"Mr. Laton, something seems to have happened over there."

After the secretary sorted out the information, he also heard the commotion behind him. He was shocked and spoke secretly.

"I'm not blind and deaf. I can naturally see."

"That man... He seems to be the second son of the Lewis family which came from Cruesia to Eastshel to develop the clothing industry a hundred years ago. His name is Jacob Lewis.

"It can be said that the Lewis family monopolized the clothing industry in Eastshel and became rich overnight. Jacob even bought a yacht worth 150 million dollars three months ago. His financial resources are astonishing."

Chester immediately sorted out Jacob's identity information.

The secretary said with trepidation, "Then... Then wouldn't that be troublesome? Mr. Laton, I think the lady you care about seems to have gotten into trouble! Mr. Laton, do you want to go help?"

The secretary had been working for Chester and naturally had experienced life.

However, Jacob was able to buy a yacht worth 150 million dollars easily, and he was a member of the Lewis family which monopolized the clothing industry in Eastshel.

Anyone who knew about it must be shocked.

"Well, if it's an ordinary woman, it's indeed troublesome.

"But it shouldn't be a problem for her."

Chester couldn't help but smile.

Actually, Chester didn't know Jane's background either, but he did have this feeling.

Jane could be said to be the first to be able to make Chester feel that she was and not to be provoked.

When Sam saw this scene, he felt worried in his heart. "It's terrible!"

Sam knew of someone as famous as Jacob, and he had even seen Jacob at a banquet a few days ago.

Sam hated an upstart like Jacob. However, Jacob was really rich and could do whatever he wanted.

Since it was better to avoid trouble, Sam did not interact much with Jacob.

Right now, Jacob gave a hard time with Jane and her friend... Damn it!

No.

Why was Sam so nervous?

Didn't Sam always hate Jane?

For a woman like Jane who betrayed the Fowler family, no matter what Jacob would do to Jane, it was none of Sam's business. Sam should be clapping and cheering instead!

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 315

No Way Back Chapter 315- That was clearly what Sam thought Sam could only secretly take photos and then sent them to Henry

[Henry, when I was following Chester at the coffee shop. I happened to meet Jane [She seems to be in trouble. If you have people close to the coffee shop, ask them to come and help Jane out [Her friend seems to have offended Jacob]

Only the eldest brother, Henry, is able to control a person like Jacob.

After a while. Henry sent a meme to show his helplessness.

[Henry, what do you mean? Don't tell me that you don't want to interfere in this matter?]

Sam didn't even realize that he was getting excited and worried about Jane.

[i don't need to interfere. Or it will make Jane me even more. Moreover, with Jane's strength, this kind of person is nothing to her]

When Henry typed this sentence, he felt extremely bitter

Henry's words were right.

Jane was Henry's teacher, Queen of the Darknet.

No matter how powerful the Lewis family was in Eastshel, once they offended the number one hacker on the Darknet, they would definitely be in deep trouble

It was Henry's that caused him to lose the light that originally belonged to him

Sam was completely stunned, and he could not understand what Henry meant

Rain only looked at Jacob coldly and did not speak

Through the pair of sunglasses, the killing intent in Rains scarlet eyes flowed out like a tide.

For some reason, Jacob, who was originally *, felt an instinctive fear under Rains gaze

Unknowingly, Jacob was sweating profusely.

Jacob didn't even dare to look Rain in the eye

"What's wrong with you? Honey Jacob?"

"If you're not feeling well, let's go see a doctor quickly. Don't lower yourself to these people's level." Leia noticed Jacob's abnormality and quickly asked.

Of course, Lela was not worried about Jacob.

Impulsiveness told Lela that to Lela, Jacob now causing trouble for Jane and Jane's friend was the best way to take revenge.

Even if Jacob took a fancy to Jane, as long as Jane was slept with by an obscene bald man like Jacob, Jane's reputation would be completely ruined, and she would become a gold digger just like Lela

Then, Jane naturally would not tell Leia's secret to the Fowlers, because Jane and Leia were the same kinds of woman!

It was all because Jane exposed Leia's plagiarism and simulation of Aaron's first crush, causing Lela to run back to a man like Jacob to be a mistress in order to avoid the Fowler family's revenge!

However, her remaining rationality told Lela that now was not the best time to take revenge on Jane

It was best to leave with Jacob as soon as possible.

However, Lela was surprised by what Jacob did the next second.

“Hmph. You’re lucky this time. I still have something to do. The next time I see you, I won’t let you off so easily!”

Jacob obediently accepted Leia’s suggestion. His face was pale, and his entire body was drenched in sweat. Then, Jacob left in a hurry. Leia was even left behind before she could come back to her senses.

What?

Chester had been silently paying attention.

Chester wondered if he should step in and help Jane out, while at the same time, he felt that Jane could solve the trouble herself. Unexpectedly, the storm that was originally tense was so easily defused.

Was it just because of that young man’s words?

That was so interesting

Jane was really a magical woman.

Chester was getting more and more interested in Jane.

Chester thought of the incident at Hotel Malay and felt none of the people connected to Jane seemed to be ordinary people. “Jacob! Wait for me!”

Only by this time did Leia come back to her senses and was about to chase after Jacob.

“I wondered where you would go after being exposed for plagiarism and being wanted by the Fowler family. It turns out that you go to Eastshel and snuggle up to a rich man for money

“If word gets out, you’ll really lose your reputation as an international pianist.”

Jane said a few mocking words.

Jane couldn’t stand a plagiarist at all, especially the one Lela plagiarized was Jane.

Since Jane encountered Leia today. Lela could only blame herself for being unlucky.

Jane deliberately spoke quite loudly, causing Leia’s face to stiffen,

“I don’t know what you’re talking about. Jacob and I are both single. It’s my freedom to find whoever to be my boyfriend!”

Even if Leia reacted extremely quickly, when she said this, she lowered her voice again and again.

It was obvious that Leia was not confident enough.

Sam, who was secretly observing from the side, could not help but be dumbfounded when he heard Jane's words

Why did Jane suddenly mention the Fowler family?

This woman was even wanted by the Fowler family?

What exactly did this woman do?

Just in case, Sam took out his phone, adjusted the focal length of the camera, and took a photo of Lela and Jane in the same frame.

"Oh? So other than Aaron, you've also served other men with your mouth. If Aaron knew about this, his stomach would definitely be churning like the sea, and he would even want to vomit.

"Every word Aaron has told you, everything Aaron has done for you, and every time Aaron has been cheated and played by you... How much do you think he you? I think he probably wants to kill you with his own hands."

Jane's every word was like a sharp knife stabbing Lela's heart.

There was no wound and no blood, but it was so painful that Leia could not even breathe.

Leia could not refute. Like a defeated soldier, Lela abandoned all of her pride and fled

Leia thought of Aaron's gentle smile and handsome face in her mind.

Putting aside the power of the Fowler family, Leia indeed loved Aaron.

Leia had met so many men, but no man could give Leia the feeling of the heartbeat as much as Aaron,

Even if the meeting between Leia and Aaron was a scheme that Lela deliberately set up from the start, after Leia interacted with Aaron later, Lela's admiration for Aaron was real.

It was definitely not fake!

If not for the appearance of Jane, if not for the jinx, everything would go according to Leias original plan.

Leia secretly clenched her fists.

Her nails dug into her flesh, and Leia bit her lip so hard that it almost bled

Jane was unforgivable

Leia cursed in her heart. "Jane, take advantage of this moment to be smug. One day. I, Leia Chalmers, will make you pay for this a million times Over!"

After this episode, Jane and Rains moods were not affected much.

After finishing his coffee, they left the coffee shop and got into the car

Jane smiled gratefully at Rain. "Thank you, Rain. You didn't flare up in public because you didn't want to implicate me, right?"

Jane was different from Rain.

Rain did not have a fixed identity in public.

So outside, even if someone provoked Rain, when Rain was in a bad mood, he would either kill that person in public or wait and take action until that person was alone.

Typically, assassins would choose the latter method. Especially with Rain's skills and killing techniques, it was impossible for him to leave any traces.

Moreover, Rain could easily escape even if he killed Jacob, the second son of the Lewis family in Eastshel in public.

The head of Ruthless, the third largest organization on the Darknet, was just that powerful.

On the surface, Jane was still a student at Stormton City.

Peaceful schoolffe was what Jane yearned for

Jane couldn't bear to throw it away.

'It's okay. He won't live long.

“But the way he looked at you made me unhappy. I’ve changed my mind. I don’t want him dead. I want him to live a life worse than death,” Rain spoke coldly.

Rain took off his sunglasses and hat, revealing his slightly curly hair and a pair of blood red eyes filled with killing intent

Even Jane, who was standing at the side, could not help but be stunned by Rain’s aura.

Some kind of meaning, for Jane, Rain was a friend, not an enemy.

It was indeed something to rejoice about

if Rain targeted Jane and did everything he could to kill Jane, even Jane, who was Queen on the Darknet, was not confident that she could escape Rain’s pursuit.

Night fell.

No Way Back Chapter 316- Jacob hid in his bedroom in the mansion, drinking Lafite from 1982 now and then.

However, Jacob still broke out in cold sweats from time to time No matter how well the temperature in the bedroom was adjusted, it was useless, During this period, Leia sent a lot of messages.

Jacob was not in the mood to take a look “it, what the is wrong with me?

“It’s just a little brat brought by a woman. How can a look from that brat make me so afraid?”

Although Jacob was obscene, *, and cynical, he was not an ****

Especially since Jacob was born into such a top-notch wealthy family, no matter how much he did not want to study, he had his own ways to judge people under the influence of others.

Just based on Rain’s gaze, Jacob felt that this man was definitely not an ordinary person

Jacob seemed to have accidentally offended someone he could not afford to offend at all

*Forget it. I have already hidden in my home. My mansion is equipped with the most advanced anti-theft hacking system. No matter what he can’t hurt a single strand of my hair.

"It's just my illusion. After I sleep, everything will be fine tomorrow."

Jacob comforted himself and was about to get up to take a shower

Suddenly, with a crack, the lights went out

Jacob's heart skipped a beat

"What's going on? Why is there a blackout here?"

"Hey, someone, come on! Start the backup generator!"

Jacob was about to rush out of the bedroom and find bodyguards to protect him.

The next second, Jacob suddenly felt weak and was paralyzed on the ground, twitching non stop

Before Jacob closed his eyes, a pair of feet appeared in front of him.

The man kept getting closer and muttered like a demon as if Death descended

The next day, when the maids who came to work in the mansion opened the door, they saw corpses all over the mansion and couldn't help but scream.

Sam arrived at the company in the morning and met Henry

Henry said calmly, "What's wrong? Sam, from the looks of it, did you not sleep well last night?"

"Henry, what did you mean when you said that to me back then?"

"You said that Jane has the ability to resolve this matter alone. You are right, Jacob was indeed very *in front of Jane at first. *Jacob does have the right to be *. However, later, he was directly scared away by the man who was with Jane."

Sam recalled what he had seen at the coffee shop yesterday

Even now, Sam was still in disbelief.

Actually, Sam was already prepared to go out and help Jane at that time.

No matter how much Sam hated Jane, Jane was still one of the Fowler family.

Jane had the Fowler family blood

Jane was the daughter of the Fowler family as well as their younger sister, and only they could her.

Sam couldn't stand others * Jane.

If so, it would make people look down on the Fowler family.

And yet, such an outcome was unexpected.

"It's already enough for you to know about this. Don't interfere in this matter anymore."

Henry would never say that Jane was Queen on the Darknet out, even in front of the Fowlers

This wasn't just for the Fowlers' good.

It was also Henry's final promise to Jane.

Henry had promised that even if he knew Queen's true identity, he would not reveal anything.

This was once Henry's only promise to his master as an apprentice.

Even if he had to die, Henry did not want to trample on this promise.

This was the last stubborn way for Henry to retain his memories with Jane, even if in Jane's eyes, it was so ****

Even if Henry really died, the damage he had caused to Jane could never be changed.

"Henry..."

"I don't want to repeat myself, Sam"

Sam looked at Henry's determined gaze and did not dare to ask further

Sam could only take out his phone and look for the photo of Leia and Jane that he had secretly taken yesterday.

"Henry, do you know this woman?"

"When Jane spoke to her, I heard Jane say this woman is wanted by the Fowler family

"That's strange. If this woman's the Fowler family's enemy and is wanted by the Fowler family, why don't we know anything?"

It had been a long time since Henry last saw Jane after coming to Eastshel

Henry invested all his time and energy into the development and layout of Fowler Corporation's business in Eastshel

Henry tried to use his busy schedule to numb himself and forget everything that had happened in Stormton City, the damage he had caused to Jane, and his deep, heart-wrenching guilt.

However, when Henry saw Jane's photo again, everything that he had done to forget all this was instantly torn into pieces.

Henry had always used the most fragile disguise to protect his heart which was riddled with holes, yet he still became sad from time to time. How could that fragile disguise block Henry's thoughts on and guilt for Jane?

Jane looked thinner than before, and she was fairer.

When Jane was confronting Leia, her brows were shining, and her every move was filled with confidence, like the crescent moon in the sky. emitting a cold and distant moonlight, so attractive.

Once one looked at Jane, one couldn't take their eyes off her anymore.

So, after leaving the Fowler family and sending these brothers to one by one, Jane lived a so happy life.

In Jane's life, without the Fowler family, without such a blood relationship, she would have a better life.

Jane already had companions that she cherished and wanted to protect.

There was no need for Jane to have these muddleheaded elder brothers. At first, they always hurt Jane wantonly. Later, they felt so guilty that they even wanted to die as an apology. Now, they would never have a chance to make it up to Jane even if they wanted.

"Henry? What are you thinking about?"

Sam could not help but speak after seeing Henry staring at the photo for a long time.

"I'm sorry. I don't know this woman either.

“However, since Jane said so, there might be a reason. Send the photo to Aaron.

“Aaron has always been in Stormton City. He might know something. Don’t let Dad and Mom know about this first.” “Okay.”

Sam could tell that Henry was reluctant to part with Jane and sighed in his heart.

It had been so long.

Henry still hadn’t let go?

At this moment, a call came in.

Henry picked up the call and frowned imperceptibly when he heard the report.

“What did you say?”

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 317

No Way Back Chapter 317- Sam had just sent the photo to Aaron,

Hearing Henry roar so uncontrollably, Sam couldn’t help but be shocked “Henry, what... What happened?”

As he spoke, Sam could not help but feel nervous The only thing that could make Henry so nervous was nothing but what might have happened to the Fowlers,

“It’s Jacob! The mansion he lived in was invaded last night. The bodyguards are all dead, and Jacob

“He’s already scared out of his wits. His genital has been removed”

For Jacob, who had always liked having with women, as a man, he had lost his genital and was scared out of his wits.

It was indeed a true portrayal of the words that lived a life worse than death.

Sam couldn’t help but be dumbfounded.

“Henry, that’s Jacob! His mansion’s security system can be said to be of the highest level! Didn’t the person who did it leave any traces?”

“The police won’t be able to find out. Since that person dared to attack Jacob overnight, he or she must have the confidence to escape unscathed. Besides, that person even spared Jacob’s life.

“The only person who can do this could only be...”

Henry narrowed his eyes, exuding a dangerous aura.

There was a thoughtful expression on his handsome face

“It’s Jane?! No... No way... Jane actually has such strength?”

“She wouldn’t do such a thing. It should be related to the man by Jane’s side back then who Jacob offended.

ww

‘To be able to make Jane personally come to Eastshel to receive him, that man’s true identity must be extraordinary.’

“Henry, I really want to know who exactly Jane is. What do you know about Jane?”

Previously, Sam had just thought that there was a hidden meaning in Henry’s words, but he didn’t think too much.

Now, Sam really could not suppress the curiosity in his heart.

A person who was able to remove Jacob’s genital overnight without disturbing anyone was actually Jane’s friend.

How powerful was Jane herself to be able to know such a person?

“You just need to know that Jane’s true identity is an existence that even we can’t provoke. That’s enough.

“Sam, I’m sorry. Regarding Jane’s true identity, I can’t say it, and I won’t say it either, I ve only told you about this. Don’t mention it to anyone else. Please

“I got it, Henry.”

Even if there were thousands of doubts in his heart, when Sam looked at Henry’s so sad gaze now, he couldn’t ask anymore.

[This matter is a little complicated, I want to wait and tell you until you guys come back. By the way, is Jane also in Eastshel now?) [Yes, she’s here 1

Sam told Aaron about his encounter with Jane.

It's all my fault. I just didn't expect Leia to be in Eastshel too now...]

Ten days passed in the blink of an eye.

At the entrance of a base in Bufentea, the people at the headquarters of SKIN were working in an orderly manner.

The person in charge of guarding the surveillance room yawned lazily

In all these years, there had never been an accident.

No matter what, no one would be *enough to go against the Darknet's Fifth Assassin Organization openly.

They hid here very carefully and didn't expose any traces.

Today was another peaceful day.

"Diane from the Croft family in Stormton City called again. What a troublesome crazy woman, How does the guy in charge of investigating the target of the murder report about this mission?"

"A report came yesterday. It said that the woman called Jane Fowler is nothing. The organization has already sent a team over. They will set off today. They should be able to deal with her easily."

"That's good. Otherwise, I would really be annoyed terribly by this crazy woman, I even want to her. However, this crazy woman is indeed someone from the Croft family. She's willing to spend so much money to buy the life of a university student. It's very simple for the organization..."

Before the person could finish speaking, the voice stopped abruptly

The man who yawned as he looked at the surveillance video was still confused "Why did you stop? Continue chatting, or fall asleep" The next second, a cold touch touched the SKIN on the back of the man's neck.

When the man realized what it was like, everything was too late

The person behind the man raised his hand and slashed down.

In an instant, the head of the man in charge of guarding the surveillance room fell to the ground.

“Reporting, Rain, Area D has been cleared. We have occupied the surveillance room.”

“Reporting, Area A has been cleared.”

“Reporting, Area B has been cleared.”

For a moment, in the headquarters base of SKIN, good news came from various areas.

“I got it.”

Rain was wearing a black tight suit, revealing his hair that was slightly curled Rain was spinning a boomerang in his hand, which was spinning at high speed at his fingertips.

There were no ripples in Rain’s blood-red eyes. He walked on the ground where blood was flowing like the Devil leaping over from the hell, slaughtering all living beings and stepping on the petals of the mandragora.

The current Rain looked bewitching, bloodthirsty, and alluring.

Once Rain discovered any member of the SKIN Organization, with a swish, he casually shot the boomerang in his hand.

The sharp blade mercilessly pierced through that person’s heart and drops of warm blood splattered in the air.

There were two consecutive shots.

No boomerang missed.

It was a one-shot **.

Wherever Rain went, not a blade of grass grew, and there were only corpses.

Even the surveillance cameras were destroyed.

At this moment, Jane’s voice came from Rain’s earpiece.

“Rain, my parasitic virus is about to be cleared by SKIN’s firewall. The rest of the way is up to you.

“Next, I’ll also enter the headquarters of the SKIN Organizational Base. According to the original plan, I’ll deal with the bombs at the base.” “Thank you, Queen. I’ll take care of whatever comes next.”

“Okay.”

At this moment, the leader of the SKIN Organization, Jack, a 53-year-old fair-skinned man, was wearing a bathrobe and holding a wine glass filled with bright wine.

He had a bald head and a scar on the eyebrow of his right eye.

Besides, there was an ugly sarcoma on the right side of his neck that looked like it had been burned by fire.

His blue eyes were filled with intent. Even though he was in his fifties, his figure was still trained to the extreme.

Jack had strong abdominals, explosive muscles, and a height of 6 feet 5 inches.

When Jack walked, he was like a lion, majestic and imposing, patrolling his territory.

On the about 30 feet wide bed, there were three foreign *beauties who kept winking at Jack, trying to seduce him.

Jack drained the remaining wine in his glass and smiled lecherously. He was about to pounce on them and have with them.

The power and money that Jack had accumulated over the years had already left him with no place to release his excess energy Jack could only release himself by having with these women.

However, at this moment...

BANG!

The door suddenly exploded.

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 318

No Way Back Chapter 318- The three women on the bed who were the nearest to the door had yet to react and were already swallowed by the flames of the explosion. At the moment of life and death, Jack’s instinctive reaction saved his life.

With an unbelievable movement technique, Jack jumped close to a steel bulletproof table and kicked it out.

Jack relied on the quality of this table to block the explosion

But such a huge explosion still broke Jack's right hand.

A heart-wrenching pain surged into Jack's senses and was about to rush to his brain.

It wasn't enough,

The table hit Jack, broke through the glass, and flew to the swimming pool outside.

The color drained from Jack's face at a visible rate, and he became pale at once

Jack could only pull up the towel on his body and quickly swim from the swimming pool to the shore to bandage his wound, stopping the bleeding

Enduring the intense pain, Jack casually pulled out the pistol that was placed in a hidden place. With his extremely sharp vision, Jack captured a certain figure in the smoke.

Bang Bang Bang!

The pistol fired wildly, and bullets kept rushing into the smoke.

Jack fired as he rushed toward the backup exit.

Jack hadn't had the time to wonder why the headquarters had been invaded and no one reported him,

If Jack did not escape now and fell into the enemy's hands, death would be the lightest punishment,

The most terrifying thing was that they would pry Jack's *open, drug Jack, torture him sternly, and make him wish he was dead! Swish!

A boomerang flew out and stopped in front of Jack.

When Jack saw such a familiar weapon, his pupils constricted.

Jack could vaguely guess who had invaded the base.

Beep, beep, beep.

Above the boomerang, there was a small bomb emitting a dazzling red light.

Another explosion burst and the fire engulfed Jack.

Jack escaped from the smoke in a sorry state, covered in blood.

It had reached a point where Jack was unrecognizable.

Rain arrived in front of Jack at a ghost like, quick speed and was about stab Jack's throat with the spinning dagger in his hand.

At the critical moment, Jack took out a black gold baton from somewhere and forcefully blocked Rains fatal ***

The two weapons collided, producing ear piercing and intense sparks.

Then, Jack quickly pulled away.

Jack panted heavily. The wounds on his body were still bleeding crazily. He looked like a dying lion holding on to his last breath "It's really you. Rain, I don't know when I offended you. Why do you have to me?"

Even after confirming that Rain was the one who led the team into the SKIN's base, Jack still couldn't figure it out.

How did Rain manage to be so silent that no one noticed it? Even Jack, as the leader, suffered a loss

Today's death was already predestined.

Clearly, Jack wanted to know why Rain wanted to him.

"You don't understand? Because you offended someone you shouldn't have.

"If we just rely on Ruthless alone, it's indeed impossible to wipe out SKIN Organization without suffering any damage"

If Jack asked about other things, Rain wouldn't be bothered to say anything. Rain just wanted to get rid of Jack as soon as possible and complete the mission. Maybe Rain could get Queen's praise.

However, Rain was very happy to show off the excellent Queen

Seeing Rains fair face stained with blood, his scarlet eyes flickering with the light of stars, and his slightly curled white hair fluttering in the air, Jack gritted his teeth and staggered to his feet.

Jack's mind was racing as he tried to figure out who had helped Rain invade SKIN's base.

There were only a handful of people in this world who could do such a thing

It was true that the ranking of Ruthless was higher than that of SKIN, but even the number one assassin organization on the Darknet could not achieve this.

Unless..

“Queen?” Jack said the name tentatively

In Jack’s memory, there was once a rumor.

The number one hacker on the Darknet had worked with Rain on a mission once

Speaking of hacking into SKIN’s network database under the circumstance that no one would notice it and even dismantling SKIN’s surveillance system right from the start, only the legendary Queen could do it.

“Yes, it’s me.”

A cold voice sounded.

Jane was wearing a black calfskin jacket, and her long hair was tied into a ponytail. The pistol with its own infrared laser was already aimed at the heart on Jack’s back,

Seeing Jane, Rain was naturally filled with joy.

“I have lived a life of bloodshed since I was young. After living for so many years, what haven’t I enjoyed and seen?

“Today, I didn’t expect that I actually fell into the hands of you two brats. Consider me unlucky!”

Jane shrugged. “Uh-huh. So, do you want to try surrendering? How about telling us the information we want? Maybe if we’re in a good mood, we’ll spare your life.”

“As an ambitious and ruthless person, I have my own backbone. How can I surrender? I won’t let the organization I spent my life building become the helper of Ruthless!

“Since I’m going to , let’s together. You both will with me!”

Jack’s eyes were fierce.

Jack picked up the black baton in his hand and stabbed it through his heart without hesitation.

“What’s tied to my heart is the self-destruct device of this base. The moment my heart is injured, the entire base will explode!

“You both will go to with me and be to pieces with this place!”

Better to be dead than live a humiliating life.

Jack’s eyes flickered with madness.

Jack laughed out loud as he spat out blood frantically.

And yet, nothing happened.

The expected explosion that could up the whole base in one go did not happen.

Jack was laughing when he suddenly stopped.

Jack held on to the last bit of strength, his face filled with disbelief.

“Do you think when I hacked into your base’s network database, I didn’t know that you installed self-destruct program on this base?

“The reason why Rain came to find trouble with you first and I was late was that I went to deal with the self-destruction program you set up at the base.

‘The moment Rain broke into your bedroom and attacked you, the thoughts that you wanted to drag everyone down with you were already crushed.’”

Jane casually took out an explosion remote control from her pocket.

Jane threw it on the ground and crushed it into pieces, like stepping on Jack’s last glimmer of hope.

Jack fell heavily to the ground.

There was a loud bang.

Two streams of atears flowed from Jack’s eyes which were filled with resentment

Jack with grievances.

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 319

No Way Back Chapter 319- Since the leader was already dead, all remaining remnants were annihilated.

Overnight, the number five powerful assassin organization on the Darknet, SKIN, was destroyed just like that.

Soon, everyone who should know would know about this.

Of course, it was things that would happen later.

The next day, Jane packed her luggage and came to say goodbye to Rain.

"I'll leave the rest to you, Rain. I'm going back."

"Ah? You're leaving so soon? Queen, why don't you stay a little longer?" Rain spoke reluctantly

Originally, Rain wanted to keep Jane for half a month by pretending Ruthless wasn't yet ready

However, there was no way Rain could * Jane.

If this dragged on, Rain was afraid that Jane would be unhappy and *him.

"It's almost Christmas. I promised my senior brothers that I would go back and spend Christmas with them.

"Rain, see you next time. As for the matter that I asked you to do, and the follow up work of SKIN Organization, I'll leave it to you." "Okay."

Rain's eyes dimmed at once and even his hair fell, showing how sad Rain was.

Seeing this, Jane sighed secretly. She stretched out her fingertip and gently poked Rain's head.

"Don't be so disappointed, Rain. If you want, I can treat you like my younger brother

"If you are free, you're also welcome to come to my place as a guest during Christmas. I'm happy to introduce you to my senior brothers." "I seem to be the youngest among the fellow apprentices. It feels good to have a younger brother like you" "Really?"

Rain looked as if he couldn't believe what he was hearing in his ears

Rain raised his scarlet eyes, which shone with the light of stars.

There were some reluctances, some uncertainty, some hope, and some fear in Rain's eyes.

It was as if Rain was afraid that the warmth that was hard to come by was just a Rain was afraid that in the next second, he would still be abandoned and alone am, an illusion.

It was just like how his family back then had forced Rain's mother, the only one who had given Rain warmth and light, to and forced Rain to his closest friend and best brother.

If a ray of light that appeared could not illuminate the darkness inside the lighthouse, then it would also become evil.

It was precisely because one once had it that they felt so much pain when they lost it.

In that case, it was better not to have made a promise in the first place

Never having it was much better than losing it after having it transitorily.

Realizing the emotions hidden in Rain's eyes, Jane took a deep breath, reached out, and hugged Rain in the way that a sister to a brother did. There was a clean, refreshing, and sunny smell unique to a boy about Rain.

Becoming the leader of an assassin organization didn't make Rain tainted with the nauseating smell of blood that could not be washed away. This was also the true reflection of Rain's heart.

"Of course, it's true. A gentleman will always keep his word. When have I ever lied to you?"

"Unless you think that I am very weak and not worthy of being your sister.

"Boohoo, if you reject me, I'll be very sad, Rain,"

Jane spoke with a firm and gentle voice, enunciating each word clearly.

It showed the determination in Jane's heart.

Jane even playfully made a small joke in the end to ease the atmosphere.

"No' Queen, I'm willing! As long as you don't despise me!"

Fearing that Jane would misunderstand, Rain hurriedly explained and even stuttered.

It was rare for Rain to blush. Coupled with this peerless super handsome face, Rain was simply the most charming man in the world.

Rain was so cute that even everyone in the world would like him.

“That’s great! Rain, from today onwards, I’m going to have a cute brother that belongs to me!”

Jane smiled happily from the bottom of her heart, which affected Rain’s fragile, cold, and insecure heart.

This was not fake.

It was not a warmth that could be lost in the blink of an eye.

It was the real family love given by the girl Rain liked.

It made Rain feel that at this moment, it was no longer like in pitch darkness years when Rain lost his mother

Rain was not alone. He also had his own bond and kinship that he should protect. Rain’s gaze gradually softened, and he was immersed in Jane’s warm embrace

Then, Rain shouted in a sonorous voice, “Then it’s settled, Queen, my sister!”

Jane was Rain’s sister now.

It was good enough for Rain to have Jane as his sister

Even if they were only brothers and sisters, as long as Rain could protect Jane and guard by the side of this woman who gave Rain feelings and colorful life, Rain would be satisfied.

Jane smelled so good which gave Rain a strong sense of security like warm foam that could envelop Rain’s entire body.

Rain became so greedy and couldn’t bear to let go of such warmth.

Rain would rather be intoxicated in such warmth for the rest of his life and would never wake up again, just treating it as an extremely extravagant dream.

“I know, Rain. You’ve never investigated my identity before. Even though we’re so familiar with each other, you still stuck to your bottom line and kept our promise.

“Now, let me formally introduce myself. My name is Jane Fowler, and I’m from Stormton City. I’m a sophomore who is studying Computer Science Major at the University of Oricle.

“From now on, just call me Jane. Rain, I’m proud to have such an awesome brother like you.”

Jane reached out and touched Rain’s hair.

No matter how many times Jane touched Rain’s hair, Rain wouldn’t get tired of this feeling.

“Okay, Jane!” Rain said.

Then, a big smile bloomed on Rain’s face.

During this period that Rain met Jane again, this was the first time Rain had smiled so brightly.

The smile came from the bottom of Rain’s heart, and there was no pretense at all.

There was no trace of fear.

Instead, Rain felt as satisfied as if he had the entire world.

At the moment, even the stars paled in comparison.

The color became even more vibrant for the -haired, red-eyed youth in front of Jane.

Even Jane could not help but praise in her heart. “! Rain is really like a wonderful brother that only existed in comics!”

This time, Jane was not in a hurry to return to Stormton City.

Instead, Jane returned to Rheinsville with Andy.

“What a surprise. I thought you were going back to Stormton City”

Andy put his arm around Jane’s shoulder resentfully. “You’ve been accompanying Rain for so long recently. I’m so lonely. At least, you finally remembered me and came to Rheinsville to accompany me.”

“Alright, Andy, stop acting like this. Look.”

Jane shook her phone and showed Andy a message from Madelyn’s biological mother, Charlotte.

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 320

No Way Back Chapter 320-Charlotte sincerely invited Jane over for a meal.

Charlotte even spent a lot of money.

Charlotte did not choose George Martin, where she had caused a scene back then, but another century-old restaurant in Rheinsville, Rheinsville Delicious Turkey

It would be a waste to come to Rheinsville and not eat the authentic roast turkey.

Therefore, it was difficult to reserve a seat, but the consumption was not high, at least for wealthy families like them

Even though Charlotte's family was on the verge of bankruptcy, and she was facing divorce, in order to please Jane, she could afford this meal. Of course, Jane was not in a hurry to give an answer to this message

Instead, Jane replied. I think about it.]

Charlotte's attitude was extremely fawning and humble. She was taking every chance to flatter Jane.

It was great to be rich and famous.

With Charlotte's current family background, as long as Jane provoked dissension slightly, Charlotte would definitely go to her dear daughter to ask for money.

"Tsk, Janie, I thought you had purely come to accompany me! In the end, you're still here to deal with matters!

'Boohoo! You're bad! You're annoying! You're despicable!"

If not for the fact that the scene was not good enough, Andy really wanted to take out his handkerchief and cry. Andy's eyes were filled with tears, and he looked like a person who had been slept with and abandoned by a ***

Andy waved his fists and punched Jane a few times slightly.

Jane glanced at Andy. "Then how about accompanying me?"

'Forget it. You are going to teach a a lesson. Why would I go there? I'd better get back to work. Otherwise, Trois from my studio will get angry and me."

Recently, in order to welcome Jane and Lila and prepare various procedures for Jane to be in Eastshel, Andy had been absent from work for many days.

Several serial calls from Trois of the law firm came over

The cases piled up like a mountain. Trois had to postpone the guests' appointments with Andy again and again.

Andy could not continue playing.

"All right. We'll go to dinner together when I am done"

"Yes. Oh right, Janie. What's Rains attitude toward the matter that you asked him for help?"

"It's such a simple matter. What else can Rain say? After Rain deals with SKIN Organization, Diane will without a burial place."

When Jane thought of this * woman not knowing that her death was imminent and still expectantly waiting for the reply of SKIN Organization to Jane, Jane couldn't help but smile,

Originally, Jane did not have any intent toward Diane.

Diane was just a small fry after all.

Since Diane was so unmerciful, Jane could

Rain was an expert in the assassination.

send her to death.

was best at how to Diane silently without being noticed by the Croft family.

To be honest, even if the Croft family noticed it, Jane wouldn't care.

As long as Hugh stood by Jane's side and supported Jane, it would be okay

It wasn't Jane who volunteered to provoke Diane

It was Diane who wanted Jane's life first.

Since Diane had made a move, she had to be prepared to be hunted and treated as prey "Okay!"

After parting ways with Andy, Jane returned to the hotel,

Originally, Jane wanted to wash up early and sleep.

While Jane was taking a shower, Hugh sent a message over. [Are you done with your work?]

Jane took her phone. [Yeah. I still have something to do in Rheinsville. I'll return to Stormton City after I settle it]

Hugh smiled and replied [Okay. I'll wait for you]

Hugh stared at the phone screen and wore a knowing smile.

Hugh then sent another message. [Regarding the destruction of the SKIN Organization, you were the one who did it, right?]

Jane was a little surprised. [Wow, Hugh, you are so great. You're so well-informed]

It was a matter that just happened yesterday

Jane and Rain did not tell anyone other than Andy and the core members of Ruthless Even if they couldn't hide it, it wouldn't be known by others so fast.

They were very careful.

Jane really wanted to praise her man

Hugh received the news so quickly

Hugh stared at the phone screen and thought to himself

Should Hugh tell Jane the thing that he was the head of Iron Blood Palace, the Darknet's number one assassin organization ?

Hugh was afraid that Jane would be frightened.

However, since they had decided to be together, they had to be honest with each other

No matter what, Hugh already knew Jane's identity as Queen on the Darknet.

It would be disrespectful if Hugh didn't tell one of his sock puppets to Jane

[Hmph, Hugh, although I helped Ruthless this time, as the leader of the Darknet's seventh assassin organization, you don't have to be too discouraged

[in order to deal with the Darknet's Fifth Assassin Organization, SKIN, perfectly, I have to choose an organization with better firepower, manpower, and configuration than SKIN. The third ranked organization on the Darknet Ruthless, is the most suitable choice

I even got a *haired, red-eyed brother for free. It's Rain from Ruthless]

Hugh looked at the messages sent by Jane and could not help but raise his eyebrows

Was Jane saying that Hugh's surface identity was too weak?

Hugh had been looked down upon by the woman he loved

This was intolerable.

[Janie, I have something very important to tell you. Don't be surprised

I am the leader of the Darknet's number one assassin organization, Iron Blood Palace]

What?

Jane's first reaction was to think that Hugh was joking.

According to the information Jane knew, Hugh should be the leader of the seventh assassin organization on the Darknet

On the surface, Hugh was the president of D. Y. Group and the head of the Croft family.

And there was an assassin organization secretly helping Hugh to deal with all the unfavorable factors.

It was already a very impressive existence.

However, now, Hugh actually told Jane that the Darknet's number one assassin organization, iron Blood Palace, was his. What the ***?

Jane had not expected this at all

The head of Iron Blood Palace was very mysterious. Even Jane had not investigated the true identity of that mystenous person, and Andy didn't know his identity either

The Darknet's number one assassin organization was a taboo existence that could not be provoked.

It was actually Hughst

[I'm not trying to show off or joke.

[Actually, I much more want you to take the initiative to dig out my identity. However, after knowing your identity as Queen on the Darknet, I thought through of it and finally decided to show you a loophole.]

[But Hugh, arent you the head of the Darknet's seventh assassin organization. I

Jane sent this message and suddenly thought of something is that just your disguise?]

A truly outstanding hunter will not reveal his final trump card.

He will use the most suitable tool on the surface to make the prey let down their guard and unknowingly fall into his trap

[The moment the prey sense it will be the moment they ***.

[No one has been able to find out the identity of the leader of the Darknet's number one assassin organization, nor have they seen his true colors.

[To me, as the president of D. Y. Group and the head of the Croft family, with the identity of the leader of the Darknet's seventh assassin organization, I can confuse many people and make them let down their guard]
