No Way Back Chapter 341-Fionna looked at Annie angrily and said, "What do you know? That Mr. Lockwood is extraordinarily handsome. How is he not worthy of you? So what if he has a wife and a son? As long as you can make him like you and treat you well, it's fine."

When Fionna said this, the people from the main branch had a matter-of-fact expression on their faces. However, among the people from the second branch, there were some who revealed mocking expressions.

Back then, Fionna was a mistress. Not only did she Andy's wife, but she also forced Andy's wife's child, James, to leave his hometown for more than 10 years. Now, he was even less valued by the family. However, Fionna was Old Madam Beck's niece. Although they were distant, she was still a relative of Old Madam Beck. Old Madam Beck was extremely supportive of Fionna's ascension. In the end, Fionna worked hard and coaxed Andy into falling head over heels for her.

Annie felt extremely wronged. She had always thought that she was the most beloved little princess of her family, but she had never thought that she would be reduced to the point of being used for a marriage alliance for her family.

How sad.

Annie's eyes were completely red. She pursed her lips and stubbornly remained silent.

Old Mr. Beck and Old Madam Beck still doted on Annie. Seeing that she was unwilling, they were not angry. They could not change Annie's fate of being used for a marriage alliance. However, Mr. Lockwood was indeed extraordinarily handsome. They believed that as long as Annie saw him, she would definitely not reject him.

Being able to rope in the Lockwood family naturally had endless benefits. Over the years, although their influence on the Mystical Island was huge, the Mystical Island was too isolated and independent. It was not a good thing for long-term development.

This was because the development of the Mystical Island to this point was already the limit. If they wanted to improve further, they would have to expand the forces on the outside world.

Human greed was always endless.

"Annie, don't be unhappy yet. Wait until you see him."

At the same time, there were others discussing how to acquire Draxton.

For District 9, roping in Draxton was their first choice.

The main forces of District 9 were the Arcana Group, the Mercenary Association, the Assassin Organizations, and the Grey and Beck families.

The Arcana Group was a rather complicated organization because it was not only an independent organization, but a mixed organization.

This was because many of the members of the Arcana Group came from other families and forces. They had supernatural abilities and joined Arcana Group, but they were still loyal to their families and forces. Therefore, Arcana Group were more complicated.

The Mercenary Association was relatively simple. It was simple, but it was also united. No matter if the members were the local people on the Mystical Island or from the outside world, they all had supreme reverence and yearning for the Mercenary Association on the Mystical Island.

Because they were too strong.

It was said that in all the histories, they had made unparalleled contributions.

Without them, history would be a different story.

They were heroes and were the existence that all the mercenaries yearned for.

Chapter 341

The Mercenary Association was also the only force on the Mystical Island that had infiltrated the outside.

world.

This was because their network was connected to the outside world, and there had been people who had paid to hire them.

Then there were the Assassin Organizations.

Assassins and mercenaries were fundamentally different. Mercenaries would occasionally take on the job.

of assassins.

However, compared to the Mercenary Association, District 9's Assassin Organizations were not as popular. One of the most famous Assassin Organizations was called The Spider.

The Spider also accepted businesses from the outside world.

The people from these forces were all discussing the possibility of joining forces with Draxton.

In a villa, president Ian Sullivan of the Mercenary Association was discussing this matter with his daughter, Kimberley Sullivan.

Kimberley was different from Annie. Although Kimberley was the daughter of the Mercenary Association's president, she was also a mercenary herself. Moreover, Kimberley's style was rather unrestrained. It was unknown how many male companions she had outside.

Therefore, she was the one who suggested that she marry Draxton instead of Isabella.

"Let's do that, Kimberley. With your ability, won't it be easy for her to take down Draxton? Although Isabella is Miraculous Doctor, I believe that she's definitely not your match when it comes to dealing with men." Kimberley cocked her brows confidently. The father and daughter looked at each other, their eyes flashing with determination.

More than a thousand Red Crystal members arrived on the third day after Draxton and Isabella entered district master's manor.

After all, in the eyes of outsiders, Draxton and Isabella were outsiders. Although they had been approved by the tribunal committee to become District 9's new district master, but there were only two of them when they arrived. There was no one close to them.

Therefore, the arrival of the Red Crystal members was also within surprised.

Everyone's expectations. They were not

After the arrival of the Red Crystal members, Red Crystal members were everywhere in the district master's manor. In an instant, the entire district master's manor was under the control of Draxton. Even the private army of district master's manor had been inserted with Red Crystal members.

As for the original servants and guards of district master's manor, they looked a little awkward.

However, the private army was much harder to deal with.

But that was what the Red Crystal members had to do..

Isabella and Draxton did not immediately take down district master's manor's private army, because these private armies were the official forces of District 9. It was not easy to take them down overnight.

Their attention was focused on something else.

They planned to hold a banquet to invite the various factions of District 9 to come so that they could get to know the people in power.

Although James and Theo had already given their information to Draxton and Isabella, this banquet had to be held no matter what.

The various factions were not surprised that they would hold a banquet so quickly. On the day the banquet began, they arrived one after another.

The first to arrive were the members of the Beck family.

Reluctantly, Annie was forced by her family to come over. Because she was unwilling, her dressing today was not as diligent as before, but even if she was not as diligent as before, she was still dazzling.

Because James had been chased out of district master's manor, Andy and the others did not think highly of James. Previously, they had protected James because of their pride.

Thus, when Andy saw Draxton and Isabella appear in the hall, he followed Paul and Old Madam Beck to welcome them warmly.

Draxton followed the local traditions. He changed out of his well-ironed suit and wore a greenish-grey brocade traditional suit. The traditional suit was embroidered with silver dark patterns. It was extremely luxurious, low profiled, and exquisite.

He was tall and handsome. Dressed like this, he looked like an aristocrat from ancient times.

Isabella also wore a light blue traditional dress for the occasion.

The traditional dress was embroidered with large pieces of ginkgo leaves with silver thread. It was beautiful and elegant.

Isabella held Draxton's hand. Her long hair was casually tied behind her head with a ginkgo leaf hairpin, revealing her exquisite face and slender neck.

When Old Mr. Beck and Old Madam Beck saw Isabella like this, their hearts skipped a beat.

The Miraculous Doctor, Isabella, was so beautiful. Could Annie still win against her?

However, this thought only flashed across their minds. When they came back to their senses, Old Madam Beck looked at Isabella critically and sneered in her heart. Just looking good was useless.

She turned around and said to Fionna, "Fionna, show Annie all the methods you used to seduce Andy. I really don't believe that you can't kick Isabella out of the game."

No Way Back Chapter 342-It was such words, but Fionna did not feel uncomfortable at all. She even blushed and said, ", Andy and I are true love. How can we have any tricks?

"However, I'll teach Annie well."

As she spoke, she looked at Annie and said, "Annie, you have to listen to me. Don't be rude..."

Before she could finish speaking, she realized that Annie was staring blankly ahead. Her entire face was flushed red, and her eyes were filled with ripples. It was obvious that her heart was fluttering.

Fionna was stunned.

She followed Annie's gaze and saw Draxton's tall and upright figure.

Fionna's heart skipped a beat.

Just like how men loved beautiful women, women also liked such outstanding men.

Fionna turned to look at Annie. She reached out and pulled her arm, reminding her in a low voice, "Annie..."

Annie came back to her senses and whispered to Fionna, ", is that man Draxton?"*

Fionna glanced at her teasingly. "Why? Have you taken a fancy to him? Didn't you say that he's not worthy of you?"

Annie's face turned red as she stomped her foot in anger. "!"*

Fionna smiled. She and Old Madam Beck looked at each other. Old Madam Beck also saw Annie's emotions. She smiled and said, "See, I told you that Annie wouldn't disappoint us."

She looked at Annie and whispered, "Annie, your mother didn't disappoint your grandmother. I hope you won't disappoint her either. If you defeat Isabella, then you'll be Mrs. Lockwood."

Annie's face turned solemn. She glanced at Draxton, who looked extremely compatible with Isabella. Instantly, she felt as if her heart raced and ached at the same time. It was painful and itchy, and she wished she could immediately replace Isabella.

Her expression changed. It was fine if she did not like Draxton, but now, she clearly fell in love with Draxton at first sight. How could she tolerate another woman by his side?

Not only did she wanted to replace Isabella, but she also wanted to get rid of Isabella's child.

Draxton, such a handsome man must be hers!

She wanted to be like her mother and get rid of his first wife to take over the position herself.

Once she became the wife of Draxton, not only would she be able to have that man, but she would also be a great contributor to the Beck family.

Meanwhile, Paul and Andy had already exchanged a few pleasantries with Draxton.

Isabella stood at the side and listened quietly. She had no intention of greeting the female guests.

Old Madam Beck had a problem with that.

She curved her lips in disdain and said, "One has to marry a virtuous wife, and the wife has to be capable as well. This Miraculous Doctor has been labeled Miraculous Doctor for nothing. As Mrs. Lockwood, she actually doesn't act like a hostess at all. She's really a burden to her man."

At this , Old Madam Beck looked down on Isabella even more. She felt that such a woman would not become a man's virtuous wife at all, nor would she be liked by men.

"You're Miraculous Doctor, aren't you?" she said lightly. Apart from being polite, she also had a cold aura. That was her sense of superiority.

Isabella turned around and looked at Old Madam Beck. She had heard Draxton talk about this legend.

Old Madam Beck was not a nobody. She helped her niece suppress her daughter-in-law. The aunt-and niece worked together to her daughter-in-law, James's mother. At the same time, she supported her niece, Fionna, to ascend the throne and ostracized James. She could really be said to be the strangest in the world.

Isabella did not have a good impression of the Beck family. Naturally, she would not lower herself to greet them.

At that , Old Madam Beck took the initiative to speak to her first, and her tone was obviously unfriendly. Isabella cocked her brows and replied, "That's right, I'm Miraculous Doctor."

Old Madam Beck said, "As Mr. Lockwood's wife, shouldn't you greet the female guests?"

"It was said that Miraculous Doctor grew up in a commoner's family, so it was understandable that her etiquette was poor.

"However, you should still be polite. Is this how you treat your elders?"

Isabella looked at Old Madam Beck in surprise. Although Old Madam Beck was a top-notch person, she did not expect her to pick on her and reprimand her as soon as she opened her ***.

Isabella was a little puzzled. She said, "I've always been like this. I can't be bothered with people I . Moreover, my elders didn't say that there was anything wrong with my attitude. They all praised me for being polite!"

Old Madam Beck choked.

"Are you pretending to be confused or are you really confused? Am I not an elder?" Old Madam Beck stared at Isabella with a knife-like gaze. An invisible threat crushed towards her.

In the past, as long as she showed such a look, Ximena would not dare to look into her eyes. She would be very afraid to shrink away from her gaze and admit defeat.

Ximena was Andy's first wife, James's biological mother's name.

Unfortunately, Old Madam Beck was up against Isabella.

Isabella's expression also turned cold. She looked at Old Madam Beck with an even colder gaze and said, "Old Madam Beck, what kind of elder are you to me? Don't forget your identity. You're just a guest we invited."

The atmosphere was filled with tension, and the unhappiness quickly attracted the man's attention.

Draxton also looked over.

Seeing this scene, Annie, who was vexed that she did not dress up carefully, suddenly brightened up and rushed out without thinking.

"Grandma, is there a misunderstanding between you and Miraculous Doctor? Why does Miraculous Doctor look unhappy?"

"Hey, it's fine, it's fine. Miraculous Doctor, have something to drink. It's such a good day. Don't ruin your mood," she said.

Isabella almost thought that she was the guest.

Isabella looked at the bluish-purple drink that Annie handed to her and sneered. She asked, "Your name is Annie?"

"Is she the 'special method' James mentioned who would seduce Draxton?" wondered Isabella.

Annie did not know what was going on. Her face flushed red as she quickly glanced at Draxton. Her eyes were watery, and anyone could tell that she had fallen in love.

*Isabella knew that Annie was eyeing her man, so why would she allow Annie to continue? Therefore, she chuckled and said, "Miss Annie Beck, I heard that your mother, Fionna, was a mistress that your father's original wife, causing you and your brother, the two illegitimate children, to become official. Could it be that you also plan to inherit your mother's mantle and become a mistress?"

"However, I have to remind you that you might not have the chance to be a mistress in front of my man. He is only devoted to me.

"If you don't want to embarrass yourself, it's better to dispel your little scheme."

No Way Back Chapter 343-Annie was so angry that her face turned red. Not only Annie, but Old Madam Beck and Fionna also had expressions on their faces.

Isabella's words were too unpleasant.

How could such a woman be worthy of Draxton?

Old Madam Beck pointed at Isabella and said, "You, you're really outrageous..."

Isabella's eyes turned cold. "Old Madam Beck, if you continue to criticize me, don't blame me for asking you to leave."

She looked at them mockingly and said, "Logically speaking, the Beck family is also an aristocratic family with a long history. How did such a family style appear? From old to young, none of them are normal. Humph!"

The Beck family was indeed very strange. Isabella felt a little speechless.

Fionna's expression changed drastically. She had never suffered such a loss before. She could not take it lying down when she was criticized. When she saw the men looking at them, she sighed faintly.

Needless to say, Fionna was really capable. Since she could successfully become a mistress, she naturally had some tricks up her sleeve.

For example, at that , she revealed such a gloomy expression. Coupled with her originally beautiful appearance, she was really charming..

She said helplessly, "Miraculous Doctor, why do you say that? Since Miraculous Doctor invited us to the banquet, you should treat us with courtesy. I really don't understand. Is there a misunderstanding between Miraculous Doctor and us?"

No one dared to provoke Old Madam Beck in the Beck family, so her temper was naturally more direct. She did not hide her arrogance at all, but Fionna was different. She was used to currying favor.

Andy revealed a look of pity as soon as these words were spoken. He cast a doubtful gaze at Draxton. Draxton was expressionless. Seeing that Draxton was looking at them, Annie imitated Fionna and put on an innocent and magnanimous look. She smiled and waved her hand. "It's fine, it's fine. Miraculous Doctor definitely didn't do it on purpose. , we're guests. We have to be magnanimous."

After saying that, she blinked her watery eyes and looked at Draxton shyly.

Then, she realized that Draxton was not looking at her at all.

However, Annie was not disappointed. As a man, no matter how serious he looked on the outside, he could not hide the beast in his heart.

She did not believe that Draxton would not be attracted to her when she was so magnanimous and cute. Annie toyed with a strand of curly hair that had fallen over her chest, feeling rather pleased with herself.

“Bella!” Draxton said in a deep voice. He didn’t sound happy.

Annie paused. She felt that Draxton was unhappy towards Isabella.

She pricked up her ears to watch the image of Isabella being warned by Draxton’s cold face.

She remembered that when she was young, her mother was so magnanimous that it made her father’s wife seem mean and petty. The woman was reprimanded by her father in front of her and her mother and was totally embarrassed.

After that, the woman became more and more sensitive and sharp. She became more and more disliked by her father.

Until she was abandoned by Annie’s father. Even if she , her father would say that the woman deserved

Annie wanted to see Isabella take the same path as that woman.

Draxton walked towards Isabella.

Annie’s eyes widened in excitement. Could it be that Draxton was planning to go over and slap Isabella?

Draxton finally walked up to Isabella. Annie waited for Draxton to slap her.

However, Draxton raised his arm and pulled Isabella into his arms. His tone was filled with heartache. “Bella, it’s been hard on you. I didn’t know that there were such strange people everywhere in this world.”

Towards the end, he was innocent and aggrieved.

He glanced at Annie and the others, his eyes filled with resentment and dissatisfaction. Then, he turned to Isabella and said ingratiatingly, “Bella, you have to be magnanimous and have a better temper. Don’t ask me to sleep on the floor at night, okay?”

There was a hint of coquetry in his tone.

A man with a cold appearance and a noble temperament like a god. He should be looking down at all living beings with dignity and pride, but at that , his actions simply shocked them.

Annie was stunned.

Fionna was also in disbelief.

Draxton was acting as they had expected.

Isabella gave Draxton a sideways glance. She felt that he was being a little too dramatic. Wasn't it just threatening him to sleep on the floor last night? He even said it in public.

However, her eyes were filled with smiles. She glared at him and said, "Look at what you're saying. I'm not a tigress!"

She knew that Draxton was a drama queen. She found it funny and could not help but smile.

In the blink of an eye, they started to show off their affection and ignored the Beck family.

Annie was rendered speechless.

Her face turned pale.

"Pfft!"

A contemptuous sneer came from the door. Annie's expression immediately changed. She turned around and saw a woman with her hair tied up high on her head. Her hair was completely dyed dark purple. She was petite, but she was exceptionally voluptuous. She stood there with her arms crossed.

She was wearing slightly heavy makeup, and her fiery red lips were especially eye-catching and sexy. She smiled and glanced at Annie disdainfully when she saw her looking over. She lowered her arm and walked over enchantingly.

A middle-aged man walked beside the woman with a few subordinates.

Annie's face turned ashen. She understood the woman's intentions almost immediately.

This woman was none other than Kimberley.

The man beside Kimberley was her father, Ian.

Everyone knew that Ian doted on Kimberley very much, to the point where he would grant any request. Ian was not tall either. At least, compared to ordinary men, he was shorter. Perhaps it was the family genes.

*Annie's expression was extremely . She was 100% sure that Kimberley was here for Draxton, just like the Beck family.

Kimberley walked up to Draxton and stared at Draxton and Isabella with her beautiful eyes. "Mr. Lockwood and Miraculous Doctor. Looks like you're really in love with each other."

Her eyes were smiling as she sized up Draxton and Isabella.

Isabella glanced at her and did not see any abnormal emotions in her eyes. Isabella smiled and said, "Are you Miss Sullivan?"

"Kimberley Sullivan!" Kimberley reached out her hand. "I've heard a lot about you, Miraculous Doctor!"

Isabella also reached out to shake her hand. Instantly, Isabella felt Kimberley's soft and boneless hands. They were soft and comfortable to touch.

Kimberley squinted her eyes and smiled at Isabella. "Miraculous Doctor, your hands are so beautiful!"

Isabella smiled faintly.

She turned to Draxton and said, "Mr. Lockwood has good taste. Miraculous Doctor is really beautiful!"

She was petite and had to raise her head to see Draxton's face.

At that , she raised her head with a smile. Her figure was voluptuous and there was a fragrance on her body. The impact of this beauty and sexiness that was within striking distance was indeed not weak.

If it were an ordinary man, he would probably not be able to control himself.

However, Draxton's eyes were filled with vigilance. He said in a low voice, "Why do you keep praising my wife for being good-looking?"

He claimed sovereignty and generally hid Isabella behind his back.

Isabella didn't know what to say.

She almost laughed out loud. What was Draxton thinking? He was the one who Kimberley wanted to trick.

The smile on Kimberley's face instantly froze, but she quickly regained her composure and said, "Oh, so Mr. Lockwood is such a humorous person!"

No Way Back Chapter 344-After Kimberley finished speaking, she took a few steps back. The smile on her face was appropriate and elegant.

He was only testing Draxton just now.

Now, she was certain that Draxton cared a lot about Isabella. He was definitely not someone that could be taken down with a mere beauty.

It was a little difficult, but it was also more interesting!

Kimberley's lips curved into a wicked smile.

She wanted to see how close the two of them were.

When she turned around, she saw Annie staring at her with fiery eyes. Kimberley immediately clicked her tongue and said, "Why are you looking at me like that, Miss Beck? Are you jealous of my beauty?"

"You..." Annie was furious.

She couldn't believe that such a was trying to snatch her man.

Annie rolled her eyes and pretended to be concerned. "Miss Sullivan, why are you free to attend the banquet today? I heard that you've recently accepted a few new male companions. All of them are stunners in the world. Why aren't you at home with them?"

"Humph, you , I don't believe that Draxton will like a like you."

Kimberley did not panic at all. She even smiled with interest. "Miss Beck, you don't understand. No matter how good a beauty is, she can only be admired. We can't delay our business.

"To me, attending the banquet of the district master's manor is a serious matter. How can those male. companions make me lose my mind? I'm a person with principles."

Annie was so angry that her face turned red. She felt that Kimberley was too ***.

Ian smiled and praised, "Hey, Mr. Lockwood is really a talent. He's extraordinary!"

His eyes were filled with admiration. Only such a man was worthy of his daughter!

He directly ignored Isabella, who was next to Draxton, and said, "Mr. Lockwood, congratulations on becoming District 9's district master."

Draxton also smiled and replied, "Mr. Sullivan, you flatter me."

“Oh, it’s quite lively, isn’t it?” At that , a strange and sinister voice sounded.

Draxton and Ian turned around and saw a tall and thin middle-aged man with hair walking in with a gloomy expression.

His eyes flickered with a cold light that was even colder than a poisonous snake.

Beside him was a young man with the same temperament as him.

When Draxton saw this middle-aged man, his expression could not help but change, and a trace of intent flashed in his eyes.

At that *, Ian laughed and said, “So it’s Sir and Mr. Moore. I didn’t expect Mr. Lockwood to have invited the two of you!”

Desmond smiled and said, “Mr. Sullivan, you’re wrong. Mr. Lockwood didn’t invite us. We came uninvited!” When he smiled, his face became even more sinister. As he spoke, he looked at Draxton with ill intentions. and smiled. “Mr. Lockwood, I haven’t seen you in ages!”

Draxton’s expression turned even colder.

Ian looked a little surprised. “So Sir Moore and Mr. Lockwood know each other?”

As he asked, Ian’s heart was filled with vigilance. The father and son of the Moore family were notorious in District 9 because the Moore family was a family of assassins. They had established an assassin organization called ‘The Spider’, and the assassins within were all ruthless.

There was no one they couldn’t ***.

Draxton remained silent with a cold expression, but Desmond said, “A few months ago, I went to the outside world and exchanged blows with Mr. Lockwood. Mr. Lockwood is indeed worthy of being the patriarch of the Lockwood family. His methods are impressive, causing me to fail my mission for the first time.”

Upon hearing this, everyone’s expressions changed, but they were not surprised.

After all, dealing with the Moore family was either asking them to or being by them.

Clearly, Draxton belonged to the latter.

Isabella's expression suddenly changed.

She asked in a low voice, "Was it that time when you came back from Lotus Village?"

At that time, Draxton was seriously injured and was saved by Master Grey and Betty.

Draxton nodded gently and said, "Yes. Bella, this person is like a poisonous snake. You have to be careful."

Isabella nodded.

She looked at the father and son of the Moore family and happened to see Desmond's son staring at her with malicious and obscene eyes.

A cold glint flashed across Isabella's eyes.

District 9 was indeed as difficult to rule as they had heard. At the very least, these people from District 9 were not easy to deal with.

However, that didn't mean anything.

No one could pull anything off under her watch. If someone was unwilling to obey her commands, then she would just that person.

Isabella lowered her eyes and a faint smile appeared on her lips.

At that , a faint fragrance wafted into her nose. That fragrance rushed into her nose.

Isabella looked up in surprise and saw Kimberley beside her.

That fragrance was actually coming from Kimberley.

Kimberley saw her looking over and smiled apologetically at her.

Isabella's heart skipped a beat. She felt that the fragrance on Kimberley's body was unusual.

At that , Desmond said to his son, "Grant, remember, this is Mr. Lockwood and his wife. I heard that they also have a very cute daughter here."

Grant retracted his gaze from Isabella and smiled. "Yes, Father. I'll keep that in mind."

As he spoke, he revealed an excited and bloodthirsty smile.

Isabella also smiled, but that smile made one's hair stand on end. She said, "Sir and Mr. Moore, you should also remember that if you offend someone you shouldn't offend, the consequences will be even more terrifying than you think. I hope you can bear it!"

When the father and son of the Moore family heard this, they laughed sinisterly. "Miraculous Doctor talks. big. I hope you can continue to be so smug! Today, we are here to attend the banquet mainly to get to know the people. I will never forget Miraculous Doctor's charm!" Grant said in an exaggerated tone.

He was not hiding his wicked thoughts at all.

Draxton's expression turned cold. Just as he was about to flare up, Isabella pressed him down and looked at the father and son of the Moore family. He said calmly. "There will be something even more. unforgettable."

When the father and son of the Moore family saw Isabella's unyielding attitude, their eyes could not help- but reveal hostility. They smiled and did not say anything else. They were like two poisonous snakes, causing the air in the banquet hall to turn colder.

*After a of silence, the Beck family could not help but gloat when they saw that Grant was obviously targeting Isabella.

In District 9, even if Isabella was Miraculous Doctor, if she was targeted by the Moore family, she would be dead for sure.

In their opinion, Isabella was already a dead man.

Since someone had eliminated Isabella for them, all they had to do was take down Draxton.

Of course, Kimberley was an opponent.

At the mention of Kimberley, Annie's expression turned dark.

*At that , other guests arrived one after another. Among them, when a seductive long-haired man and a woman with curly hair arrived, the banquet hall became lively again.

This man and woman were District 9's Arcana Group's Big Chief and Deputy Chief.

The man was called Terry, and the woman was called Jacqueline.

The assassin who assassinated Betty belonged to this organization.

At this , Brandon suddenly said, "It's James! How dare he come here?"

The Beck family members followed Brandon's gaze and saw James blending into the crowd and walking

No Way Back Chapter 345-James was wearing a silver-grey suit and silver-rimmed glasses. He looked refined.

He walked in with an indifferent expression. When he passed by the Beck family, Andy couldn't help but let out a soft chuckle. "Unfilial son, why are you still here? Scram!"

His face was filled with disgust and dissatisfaction. He was afraid that others would notice James and embarrass the Beck family, so his tone was fast and anxious.

James glanced at him coldly and ignored him. He continued to stride forward.

Soon, he would be able to avenge his mother. He was not in a hurry.

Andy's face turned red with anger when he saw how rebellious James was.

Brandon was used to pleasing Andy. Moreover, he was also happy to see James make a of himself. Thus, his figure flashed and blocked James.

He looked at James provocatively, but his face revealed the look of a "good brother". He said earnestly, "James, Dad is talking to you. What kind of attitude is that?"

James coldly looked at him. Brandon continued, "James, I heard that you were chased out of the residence by Mr. Lockwood. If I were you, I would definitely not have the courage to step into the door of the district master's manor again. I really didn't expect you to be so thick-skinned.

"However, even if you're , the Beck family still cared about our dignity. James, let me give you a piece of advice. You should leave quickly while no one is paying attention to you."

Brandon's eyes were filled with a smug smile.

James was his greatest joy.

At the side, Fionna and Annie's eyes flashed with smiles.

They had also planned to James, but James had escaped.

They had been running away for a few years. When James returned this time, they were uneasy at first, but now it seemed that James was not very capable. They were relieved.

*James clenched his fists tightly. A strong intent flashed in his eyes under his silver wire-framed glasses. He shouted coldly, "Get lost!"

As he spoke, he pushed Brandon away and continued to stride forward.

Brandon staggered from the push, and his smug expression instantly froze.

Seeing that James was about to leave, Brandon wanted to stop him again with a gloomy expression, but he was stopped by Paul.

Members of the Beck family looked at Paul in surprise. Paul said calmly, "Since he doesn't know and insists on staying, we don't have to care about him.

"Coincidentally, today is an opportunity. In a while, I will officially announce that James will be expelled from the Beck family. From now on, he will have nothing to do with the Beck family!"

As soon as these words were spoken, everyone in the Beck family was stunned for a *before they were overjoyed.

Especially Fionna and her children, they were overjoyed.

Old Madam Beck clapped his hands and applauded. "Hubby, you should have done this a long time ago. How good can Ximena's son be?"

Andy nodded in agreement.

James had not gone far when he heard the Beck family's words. His lips curved into a mocking smile.

Through the crowd, Isabella glanced at James. James also happened to look at her. Their gazes met and separated.

Chapter 345

However, Kimberley witnessed this scene.

Kimberley narrowed her eyes. Previously, everyone knew that James was chased out of district master's manor. But now, the relationship between Isabella and James was obviously subtle.

Could it be that... Isabella actually had some shady relationship with James?

She felt that something was wrong. The interaction between Isabella and Draxton was extremely intimate. As long as Isabella had not gone crazy, she would not *around with Draxton's subordinates.

However, no matter what the truth was, she had already thought of a brilliant idea.

When the banquet began, the Mystical Island still followed some old habits from ancient times, which was that the male and female guests had to be separated.

The men would be on one side and the women would be on the other.

Draxton greeted the male guests and Isabella greeted the female guests. Amidst everyone's constant probing and laughter, Isabella smelled a fragrance again.

Isabella vigilantly looked up for Kimberley.

She happened to see Kimberley smiling apologetically at her with a glass of wine.

Then, Kimberley put down her glass and walked towards the bathroom.

Isabella squinted her eyes. She put down her wine glass and followed Kimberley.

Kimberley seemed to have expected Isabella to follow her. Her lips could not help but curve.

When she reached the bathroom, Isabella realized that Kimberley had suddenly disappeared.

Isabella squinted her eyes and found it interesting. This Kimberley was indeed worthy of being a member of the Mercenary Association. She was quite capable.

Just as she was about to find Kimberley, the bathroom door suddenly slammed behind her.

Isabella turned around and saw a figure standing there with lifeless eyes.

This person was not Kimberley, but James.

*James?" Isabella sized up James. Naturally, she could tell that something was wrong with him.

Isabella flashed over and grabbed James's wrist, wanting to take his pulse.

However, James was even faster. Instead, he grabbed Isabella's wrist.

Instantly, his hands trembled violently.

His lifeless eyes gradually blurred, and then a painful struggle flashed across them.

However, that trace of struggle was quickly replaced by a dazed expression. He held Isabella's wrist tightly and his tall body pressed down on Isabella.

His breath came in short gasps.

Isabella's face sank. James had been set up!

One of her wrists was held by James, while her other hand quickly grabbed his other wrist. Isabella looked at it and frowned.

This was because James's pulse showed clearly a symptom of being drugged or poisoned.

Isabella pondered for a and naturally thought of the strange fragrance emitted from Kimberley's body.

*Isabella thought for a and understood the twists and turns.

Kimberley had used the strange fragrance on her twice. Clearly, the strange fragrance had a bewitching effect, just like how it was currently affecting James.

However, Kimberley did not know that Isabella had the Evolution Poison in her body and was immune to all poisons. Not only did Kimberley's strange fragrance not make her lose her mind, but it also provided nourishment for Evolution Poison.

hapter 345

That was right. Previously, her golden butterfly liked that strange fragrance very much.

On the other hand, James was an ordinary person.

He was clearly being controlled.

Kimberley's goal was very simple. She wanted something bad to happen between Isabella and James.

It was indeed a huge scandal for Mrs. Lockwood to have an unspeakable affair with Draxton's subordinate.

*If Isabella guessed correctly, Kimberley must be approaching Draxton at that ****.*

It had to be said that Kimberley's plan was perfect.

This was because if she didn't have the Evolution Poison in her body, she might have fallen for it."

However, she was no ordinary person.

Kimberley was an open-minded person. It was no secret in District 9 that she had many male companions. Therefore, no one was surprised when she walked to the male guest area with a glass of wine in her hand and rushed straight to Draxton.

Other than the members of the Beck family who revealed hostile expressions, many others looked like they were waiting to watch a good show.

Draxton frowned slightly when he saw Kimberley coming over. But soon, he smelled a fragrance entering his nose.

Draxton's expression changed.

A flirtatious smile appeared on Kimberley's face. She leaned forward slightly and approached Draxton. Her voice was also gentle and charming "Mr. Lockwood, I have something to tell you. Can we talk in private?"

Kimberley pointed to a secluded resting area not far away.

Draxton paused and said, "Okay."

No Way Back Chapter 346-Under everyone's ambiguous gazes, Draxton and Kimberley walked towards the resting area not far away. The two of them entered the resting area and closed the frosted glass door.

The people outside could not see what was going on inside. They could only see a blurry outline.

In the male guest area, members of the Beck family had dark faces. However, the others all looked at Ian with admiration. Someone even said directly, "Mr. Sullivan, your daughter is really a heroine among women. Congratulations!"

As for what to congratulate, it was naturally to congratulate Ian. His daughter had actually won Draxton so quickly.

Ian was a maniac who doted on his daughter. As long as it was something Kimberley wanted to do, he would support her. Now that he heard someone congratulate him, he was naturally happy.

In his opinion, if his daughter married Draxton, it would indeed not be unfair to his daughter.

*He was very satisfied. As soon as he entered, he raised his glass with everyone with a smile. For a , the male guest area was lively.

*In the female guest area, Old Madam Beck and Fionna saw Kimberley and Draxton enter the resting area alone. Their expressions could not help but turn ***.*

Old Madam Beck said, "Where's Annie? Why isn't she back yet?"

Fionna looked a little anxious. Previously, Annie had said that she was going to the washroom, but she had not returned after such a long time.

Meanwhile, in the washroom, Annie never expected that she would encounter such a scene just by going to the washroom.

Isabella was actually hugging James in the bathroom.

Her eyes were filled with excitement. She couldn't help but secretly take out her phone and began recording.

Her eyes were a little red. She was too happy. If she recorded Isabella and James's unsightly scenes, Isabella would be finished.

At that time, she would have a chance to take advantage of the situation and approach Draxton.

At that time, Draxton would be immersed in the anger of Isabella betraying him. He would definitely be grateful to her for intervening. Perhaps he would directly transfer his feelings to her.

Then wouldn't it be a matter of minutes for her to become Mrs. Lockwood?

Annie's breathing quickened slightly. She held up her phone and secretly recorded the scene in the gap. between the cubicles.

Outside, James was indeed constantly trying to get closer to Isabella, but the occasional flash of clarity. made him struggle in pain.

*Isabella supported James's tall body with a serious expression. She thought for a * and summoned her golden butterfly to bite James.*

The golden butterfly flew out from Isabella's body. Because of the angle, Annie did not see the golden. butterfly appear. She only saw Isabella's body move closer to James. This way, it looked like Isabella had taken the initiative to throw herself at James.

Annie raised her phone, her eyes filled with excitement.

At that *, at an angle that Annie could not see, the golden butterfly landed on James's wrist and bit through his skin, absorbing the strange fragrance in his body.

Time passed minute by minute. After about three minutes, the golden butterfly had absorbed all the strange fragrance in James's body. It burped in satisfaction and returned to Isabella's body.

Chapter 346

Meanwhile, James's mind gradually regained clarity.

However, the *he regained his senses and saw his actions, his face turned pale.

His rudeness from before quickly flashed through his mind. Although he did not do it willingly, he still felt ***.

Before Isabella could say anything, he fell to his knees with a thud.

"Mrs. Lockwood, I deserve to ***!"

He lowered his head deeply, not daring to look at Isabella.

Isabella's cold gaze became slightly gentle. She reached out to help him up and said, "It's not your fault. Besides, nothing happened."

However, James knelt too firmly and Isabella could not pull him up.

Isabella fell silent.

At that , Annie, who was secretly taking photos, was dumbfounded:

Why did they suddenly... stop?

As if sensing her dissatisfaction, Isabella ignored James and slowly turned around to look at the cubicle where Annie was.

Annie's heart skipped a beat. Had Isabella discovered her?

The next *, Isabella walked towards the cubicle.

Thud!

In a panic, Annie dropped the phone on the ground.

T

Behind Isabella, James slowly raised his head. He stared at Isabella's back and raised his hand. His hand was still warm from touching Isabella.

James quickly lowered his head and buried his complicated feelings.

His eyes were red, and a trace of sparkling tears rolled in them, but he forced them back.

His childhood experiences had nurtured his cold personality. Other than when his mother was still alive, he had almost never felt any warmth.

However, Isabella's tolerance and gentleness just now made him feel unprecedented warmth.

She was not angry at him for offending her. Instead, she saved him.

She didn't blame him. She didn't despise him.

Draxton was his most respected master, and Draxton's wife was naturally the patriarch's wife that he respected as well.

Yes, she was the patriarch's wife he respected the most. She always would be.

At that , Isabella had already walked to the cubicle and said coldly, "Come out!"

At the same time, in the rest area, Kimberley thought that Draxton had followed her in and had already been affected by her strange fragrance.

She was confident that no one could escape her strange fragrance.

Kimberley looked at the noble man who was as handsome as a god in front of her. The emotions in her eyes could no longer be concealed. She looked at Draxton with a burning gaze and slowly forced her way towards him.

Draxton's eyes were cold. Just as Kimberley approached and reached out to touch his face, he suddenly kicked her!

Kimberley was kicked to the ground in a sorry state. She was completely stunned and did not know what had happened.

When she came back to her senses, she realized the situation she was in.

: Chapter 340

No man had ever treated her like this!

Anger flashed across Kimberley's eyes.

Draxton retracted his foot, took a tissue, and raised his foot to wipe his clean and shiny leather shoes.

*He glanced at Kimberley coldly as he wiped it and said , "Even my leather shoes belong to Bella. No one can taint me!"

*As if to express his anger, after wiping his leather shoes, he fiercely threw the still tissues into the trash can.

Kimberley was at a loss for words.

Kimberley's expression immediately became twisted. She widened her eyes and looked at Draxton in disbelief. She asked a question from the bottom of her heart, "Draxton, are you a man or not!"

No Way Back Chapter 347-When Draxton heard her question, not only was he not angry, he even raised his head proudly and said, "My Bella knows best whether I'm a man or not. What does it have to do with you?"

Kimberley was rendered speechless.

She felt that this man was really a dog!

She had never seen such a dog-like man.

She got up from the ground and sneered. "Mr. Lockwood, you're loyal to your wife, but it's hard to say if your wife is also loyal to you."

*Draxton's eyes darkened as anger flashed across his face. "up if you don't want to ***!"*

Kimberley laughed coldly and said: "If Mr. Lockwood don't believe me, why don't you follow me!"

Draxton's expression changed. He went forward and grabbed Kimberley's neck. "What did you do to Bella?"

"I didn't do anything, Mr. Lockwood. Don't accuse me without any evidence. I just saw some things. I'll take you there now!"

Draxton let go of Kimberley's neck and said coldly, "Lead the way! If anything happens to Bella, the consequences will definitely not be something you can bear!"

A hint of ruthlessness flashed across Kimberley's eyes. No man had ever treated her like this. This man had better not fall into her hands. Otherwise, she would definitely make him crawl at her feet and beg for her mercy.

Kimberley originally thought that she could easily take down this man, but she did not expect that the other party was not affected by her strange fragrance.

When Kimberley thought of this, a strange look flashed across her eyes. What was going on? Her strange fragrance had never failed before.

The two of them left the lounge one after another. The guests in the male guest area were originally gossiping, but at this , they could not help but be stunned.

Then, they looked at Draxton with subtle expressions.

They were all wondering if Draxton was done so fast.

Ian's expression did not look too good.

No matter how outstanding this Draxton was, he was a little too fast when having sex. Wasn't this wronging his daughter?

Draxton had no idea what those people were thinking. All he could think about now was whether Isabella would be in danger.

His expression was solemn and his eyes were cold. However, he had only taken a few steps when someone blocked his path.

It was Grant

Grant smiled evilly and said, "I didn't expect Mr. Lockwood to be a silver wax spearhead. You may look good but you're still useless."

Draxton looked at him coldly, walked around him, and continued to walk forward.

However, Grant seemed to be looking for trouble. He flashed and stopped him.

Draxton was already worried about Isabella. At that , he was not in the mood to argue with Grant. His face turned cold, and he winked at the members of the Red Crystal in the dark.

Immediately, two Red Crystal members appeared and blocked Grant's path.

Draxton glanced at him indifferently. "Everyone here today is a guest. However, if you leave this door and offend me, I, the patriarch of the Lockwood family, will definitely settle the score one by one."

Chapter 347

With that, he continued walking forward.

Kimberley smiled and said, "Mr. Lockwood is quite well-mannered. Why were you so rough with me just now?"

Her tone was a little ambiguous. It made one's imagination run wild.

Draxton could not be bothered with her.

Grant was naturally unwilling to let Draxton leave just like that. He could not push the Red Crystal away, so he sneered and flicked a red ball with his finger.

The ball exploded in the air, and the gas formed a net-like mist threads that flew towards Draxton's body.

However, at that , a small figure suddenly ran out and shouted crisply, "Daddy!"

Draxton's expression changed immediately. Coincidentally, the exploding red ball, net-like mist threads landed on Betty's body.

Betty stopped running and looked down at the red mist on her chest.

The thing quickly melted into her body.

Betty tilted her head, her eyes filled with curiosity.

Draxton was furious.

“Betty!”

He rushed to his daughter’s side and picked up Betty. His trembling hands checked her body in a panic. The man, who was calm even if the sky collapsed in front of him, was pale and his eyes were filled with fear.

When Betty saw Draxton’s panicked look, she quickly raised her small hand and hugged his head. She comforted him repeatedly, “It’s okay, it’s okay. Daddy, Betty is fine.”

Her voice was so soft that it could melt one’s heart. Draxton’s eyes turned red.

He forced back his tears. He knew that The Spider was very good at using poison.

He picked up Betty and said, “Daddy will take you to *. will definitely have a way to save you.”

Betty’s face darkened. Her father did not trust her. Did he think that she could not even withstand such a small poison?

Grandpa Jaye said that she was a little evil doctor, who was immune to poison!

Betty pouted her lips and looked at Grant with her big clear eyes. She said to Draxton, “Daddy, we haven’t taken revenge yet.”

“Saving Betty is the most important thing.”

Draxton hugged Betty and ran forward.

Betty pouted her lips again. She really could not withstand Draxton. She could only raise her small hand. A thin blood-red needle suddenly appeared in her fair and tender little hand.

Betty’s fingers flicked the thin needle out nimbly.

The needle was too thin for ordinary people to notice.

Moreover, as soon as the thin needle landed, it became transparent.

No one saw that a thin transparent needle was wriggling on the ground and pouncing towards Grant.

How was that a thin needle? It was clearly a bug.

It was a poison bug.

A hint of coldness appeared in Betty's blue eyes. Her mother had said that she could not use this bug unless she had no choice. Because if the enemy was entangled by this bug, it would make the enemy suffer a fate worse than death.

However, Betty felt that the person in front of her wanted to her father. If she hadn't come, her father would have been the one who fell for it.

Betty felt that this was intolerable.

Draxton did not notice what Betty had done at all. He only wanted to find Isabella as soon as possible and save their daughter.

He held Betty in one hand and held Kimberley's wrist tightly with the other. He dragged her to look for Isabella.

As Kimberley was dragged away by him, she said, "Don't your leather shoes belong to Isabella? Why are you grabbing my wrist now?"

Draxton said coldly, "I'll just chop it up later!"

Kimberley's face darkened.

Of course, she knew that it was not his own hand that had to be chopped off, but hers.

However, she did not delay. If anything really happened to Draxton's daughter, he might be angry at her.

*She also wanted Draxton's daughter to , but she could not be involved.

Kimberley laughed and quickly led the way.

Grant stood where he was with an evil smile on his face.

He raised his hand and touched his chin. "After being poisoned by me, when that little girl's intestines are pierced through, let's see how the couple will beg me! Haha.

"When the time comes, I'll get Isabella to serve me well. Do you think she'll do as I say?"

He pushed away the two Red Crystal members in front of him, but their eyes were filled with intent.

*“How dare you hurt our little master!” one of the Red Crystal said. intent appeared in his eyes. He immediately attacked, but before his fist could land on Grant, Grant’s body suddenly stiffened.

The complacent expression on his face quickly stiffened, and his healthy face instantly turned pale. His face also revealed an incomparably painful and twisted expression.

“Ah...”

He raised his hand and pinched his throat, but black blood still gushed out of his uncontrollably.

His eyeballs were bulging and bloodshot, and his teeth were chattering in pain. In the next , his entire body convulsed, and he fell to the ground as if he had no bones.

Desmond, who was standing in the crowd, had a smug look on his face. Suddenly, his expression changed drastically. He shouted, “Son, what’s wrong?”

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 348

No Way Back Chapter 348-Desmond walked up to Grant as quick as he could.

However, Grant was in too much pain to answer him.

The Moore family was a family of assassins that focused on poison. Desmond could naturally tell that Grant had been poisoned.

The poison used was very poisonous.

Looking at his painful son, Desmond’s eyes were filled with pain and confusion.

How could this be?

Wasn’t Grant supposed to have poisoned Draxton?

Why was it his son who was in trouble now?

Desmond was puzzled, but he still had to save his son. He quickly helped Grant up and wanted to take him away.

However, the members of Red Crystal sneered and said, “Sir Moore, I think it’s better if you don’t leave. Everyone can see what your son has done to our little master. It’s not right for you to leave now!” Desmond’s expression was terrifying as he roared, “Get lost! Can’t you see what my son has become?” “What does your son’s condition have to do with us? We just know that your son tried to hurt our patriarch and even poisoned our little master. If anything happens to her, do you think your son will live?" Desmond stared at the members of Red Crystal with a sinister look in his eyes. He shouted angrily, "Someone, come and take Grant back to detoxify the poison!"

The members of the Moore family rushed in very quickly, but after entering, they could not leave! Desmond looked at the members of Red Crystal blocking the door and then at his son, who was twitching non-stop. His face turned red, and his veins bulged. His eyes were unfocused, and he looked like he had gone crazy.

There was no need to mention the combat power of the members of Red Crystal. Moreover, at this , Landon had also arrived with his men.

He was here to find Betty.

Previously, he was the one watching Betty. However, Betty slipped away by accident.

When he arrived at the banquet hall, he did not see Betty. Instead, he saw the crazy Desmond. His eyes flashed. He did not care about anything else and helped the members of Red Crystal trap the father and son of the Moore family in the hall.

"Landon, if anything happens to my son, can you bear the responsibility? Can Draxton bear my revenge? You have to think carefully."

Landon smiled innocently. "Isn't your son still breathing?"

"You..." Desmond was furious. His eyes were bloodshot as he glared at Landon.

A cold light flashed in Landon's eyes. Grant must have done something that he shouldn't have done. If he was afraid of the Moore family's revenge, he wouldn't be Landon.

What was there to be afraid of?

Around 10 minutes ago.

In the bathroom, Isabella stared at the cubicle. She knew that there was someone inside, but she didn't know who was inside.

When Annie came out, Isabella couldn't help but cock her brows.

"I was wondering who it was. It's actually Miss Beck. It turns out that Miss Beck has the habit of eavesdropping in the bathroom!"

Chapter 348

Isabella sneered.

Annie's expression was not good either. She said, "Did you think I wanted to eavesdrop? I didn't expect to see you having an affair with a man here when I'm using the toilet!"

Isabella stared at Annie and smiled faintly. She stretched out her hand. "Hand it over!"

"What?" Annie was wary.

"You secretly took photos, right? Hand over your phone!" said Isabella.

Annie's expression changed and she shrieked, "I don't know what you're talking about. What photos? Why should I give my phone to you?"

"You're hugging someone in the bathroom behind Draxton's back, and you're blaming me?"

Annie sneered *. "Or are you actually feeling guilty? Do you think I've recorded something? Are you afraid that I'll show it to Draxton?"

A hint of impatience appeared on Isabella's face. "Don't make me repeat myself."

"I didn't secretly take any photos," said Annie. She was refusing to admit what she had done.

She hugged herself tightly, afraid that Isabella would come over and snatch her phone.

Isabella stared at her with a dark face.

At that *, James suddenly jumped up from the ground. He quickly rushed to Annie's side and grabbed her throat.

The silver-framed glasses emitted a cold light. Under the glasses, the pair of eyes that were usually unreadable were now terrifyingly cold.

Annie widened her eyes and stared at James's eyes in disbelief. What kind of eyes were those?

Coldness, ridicule, disgust, contempt...

It was as if she was the dirtiest thing in the world that he could not stand.

Annie's self-esteem suffered a huge blow. How could this trash, James, treat her like this?

James stared at Annie coldly. *intent surfaced on his face as he said in an especially sinister voice, "If you don't want to , hand over your phone!"

Annie's neck was held tightly, and she couldn't say a word. She could only let out a whimper.

Annie did not want to hand over her phone, but when he saw that she did not move, James suddenly tightened his grip on her neck. In an instant, Annie's face turned pale.

At that *, she saw a strong intent in James's eyes.

He knew that if he Annie now, the patriarch and the patriarch's wife would protect him.

In fact, the patriarch would speed up his plans because of this.

He had the right to be willful and the right to *Annie.

Therefore, James really wanted to *her.

Annie was terrified.

Fionna had successfully become a mistress. Since she had been by Fionna's side since she was young, she had naturally learned to read people's expressions. Therefore, Annie was very sure that James really *wanted to her.

James actually dared to her!

Where did he get his courage and confidence from?

Wasn't he afraid that Annie would complain to her grandfather and her father?

Annie could not figure it out, but now, she was really about to suffocate to death.

Hence, she quickly took out her phone from her pocket and threw it on the ground.

The phone didn't break on the ground. Isabella picked it up and opened it. Sure enough, she saw the video Annie had recorded.

She nodded at James.

James then let go of Annie.

James walked to Isabella's side. When he saw the video in Isabella's hand, his face instantly turned pale.

Because from Annie's point of view, this video was really ambiguous.

Isabella glanced at James and patted him on the shoulder. "People will see what they wanted to see."

Isabella was naturally frank.

James did not look too good. He lowered his head and said in a low voice, "I've offended Mrs. Lockwood. I'll apologize to patriarch later."

Isabella looked at him speechlessly.

*At that , the bathroom door was suddenly opened from the outside. Draxton rushed in with Betty.

Seeing that Isabella was fine, Draxton heaved a sigh of relief and said, "Bella, quickly take a look at Betty. She's been poisoned!"

Upon hearing that Betty had been poisoned, a strange expression appeared on Isabella's face. When she saw Betty nestled in Draxton's arms, her large eyes were filled with innocence. She didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

She reached out and took Betty from Draxton's arms. However, she still checked Betty's pulse. Good lord, the little girl was very healthy.

Isabella hugged Betty and kissed her little face. She did not look anxious. Draxton quickly said, "Bella, it's Grant..."

Betty looked at Draxton angrily and said, ", Betty already said that Betty is fine. Daddy doesn't trust* me!"

Isabella pinched her nose dotingly and said to Draxton, “Draxton, your daughter is immune to all poisons.”

Draxton was stunned.

Isabella smiled and said, “Have you forgotten who those Betty’s Grandpa and Grandmas are?”

*At that , Draxton also understood that he had been too concerned.

He heaved a sigh of relief. “Even so, Grant can’t be forgiven so easily.”

Isabella smiled and said, “Then let’s go meet the father and son of the Moore family.”

At that , Annie finally recovered. Her throat was injured, so her voice was hoarse like a broken bellow. “Mr. Lockwood, you’ve been cheated on. Do you know that?”

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 349

No Way Back Chapter 349-Annie stared at Isabella with hatred in her eyes. Her face was filled with the pleasure of revenge.

She didn’t believe that Draxton wouldn’t have any doubts.

Seeing that Draxton was giving her a murderous look, Annie hurriedly said, “Mr. Lockwood, I’ve filmed a video. Isabella hasn’t had the time to delete it yet. If you don’t believe me, take a look. You’ll know when you see it. She has an ambiguous relationship with this good subordinate of yours.”

At that , Kimberley was standing outside the door. She did not enter because at that mornent, she was very shocked.

It was one thing for Draxton to not be affected by her strange fragrance, but why were Isabella and James fine as well?

No, from Annie’s words, it seemed like something had happened before..

In other words, they were actually affected by her strange fragrance.

But how could they recover in such a short time?

According to her estimation, Isabella and James should still be doing something they shouldn’t.

However, in the end, there was not a single crease on their clothes.

Obviously, nothing happened.

What was going on?

James's face turned pale.

In fact, the angle of the video seemed a little intimate.

Even if Draxton knew that he and Isabella were innocent, but they were both men. After watching such a video, Draxton would probably feel uncomfortable.

By then, he would be the unlucky one.

James wanted to cry but had no tears.

He looked at Isabella.

Isabella played with Annie's phone in her hand. She looked at Annie disdainfully and threw the phone at Draxton.

Draxton caught it with a gloomy expression.

Annie's eyes lit up as she hurriedly said in her broken bellows voice, "Mr. Lockwood, quick, open it. There's evidence of their improper relationship on the phone."

Draxton naturally knew that whether it was Kimberley's confidence that Isabella would betray him or Annie's instigation, it meant that something had indeed happened before.

However, with Bella's ability, even if something really happened, it would only be on the surface.

Nothing substantial would happen.

He still trusted Isabella.

Annie was extremely excited. Her eyes were filled with urgency, malice, and gloat.

A trace of disgust flashed across Draxton's eyes. He did not have the slightest desire to turn on the phone to check. He even exerted force with his hand. The metal phone was actually pinched until it deformed. A trace of blue smoke emerged with a puff. Sparks flashed slightly, and the entire phone was broken. Draxton threw the distorted phone on the ground with a bang and sneered at Annie. His eyes were filled with disdain. "You want to sow discord between us? Humph, no way!"

With that, he looked at Isabella for praise.

Isabella met that pair of dark blue eyes and immediately understood his desire. “Bella, praise me quickly,

Chapter 349

praise me quickly.”

Isabella was not surprised by Draxton’s actions. There was still trust between them.

She chuckled and could not help but bury her face in Betty’s body. She could not help but laugh. “That’s right. You want to ruin our relationship as husband and wife? No way. My Draxton trusts me!”

As she spoke, Isabella imitated Draxton and gave Annie a disdainful look.

Annie stood rooted to the ground, her expression was blank.

“How is this possible?” wondered Annie.

“Draxton, are you a man or not?” Annie could not help but mutter to Draxton in disbelief.

Kimberley was also extremely shocked because she suddenly realized that the relationship between Draxton and Isabella was definitely not something that could be sowed by mere schemes.

According to the current situation, even if her plan succeeded, these two people would probably have the ability to overcome everything and not waver.

Such feelings were extremely precious to both women and men.

Kimberley had always been curious and wanted to conquer Draxton, but now, she suddenly realized that this man was really *attractive.

Which woman wouldn’t want to have a man like that?

The way she looked at Draxton could not help but change.

Upon hearing Annie’s words, Draxton did not even look at her.

Instead, Isabella raised her chin at Annie and said, “It’s fine as long as I know if my Draxton is a man. What does it have to do with you? Humph!”

As she spoke, Isabella stuffed Betty into Draxton’s arms and said, “Let’s go and settle the score with the father and son of the Moore family!”

Annie's face was ashen.

She had lived for more than 20 years, and this was the first time in her life that her view of the world had been overturned.

Draxton and Isabella were both abnormal, right?

Shouldn't normal people have already started to doubt each other and become estranged?

She couldn't help but lower her head and look at the deformed phone on the ground.

Draxton and Isabella walked out of the bathroom and saw Kimberley standing at the door in a daze. Isabella squinted her eyes slightly and said, "Miss Sullivan, I've received your gift today. As the saying goes, it's impolite not to reciprocate. Miss Sullivan, wait patiently. I'll definitely return the favor!"

Kimberley looked at Isabella and squinted her eyes. She smiled and said, "Miraculous Doctor, you're too kind. However... I'll be looking forward to it!"

Their gazes met, and they saw dense hostility and battle intent in each other's eyes.

Kimberley watched as Isabella's family of three left. When she looked at Isabella, she could not help but feel a trace of jealousy.

Such a good man should be hers!

James was one step behind. He looked at Annie and did not say anything. However, Annie felt as if she had fallen into an freezer. It was as if she was facing a demon that wanted to take her life.

Seeing the fear in Annie's eyes, James smiled in satisfaction. He raised his hand, adjusted the silver-framed glasses on his nose, and whispered, "Annie, enjoy the final times of your life."

With that, he strode away to chase after Isabella and Draxton.

Kimberley stood on the spot and looked at Annie with contempt before leaving in her high heels.

She did not treat Annie as an opponent at all.

Annie was the only one left in the bathroom.

Her face was pale. She hesitated for a before picking up the distorted phone. However, as soon as her hand touched the phone, it turned into dust.

Annie's eyes widened in disbelief.

Draxton... What kind of power did he use?

Annie was so shocked that she did not know what to do. In the next , she came back to her senses and ran out in fear.

She wanted to tell her grandfather and grandmother about what happened today, as well as her parents. Isabella and Draxton arrived at the banquet hall and saw that the atmosphere in the banquet hall had changed.

*At that , the music in the hall had stopped. All that could be heard was Grant's weak wails and Desmond's angry roars.

The members of Red Crystal stood guard at the entrance, not letting the father and son of the Moore family leave at all.

Since Grant dared to poison the patriarch and their young master in front of everyone, he had to bear the consequences.

*If they were allowed to leave, everyone would think that their patriarch and their master were easy to ****.*

When everyone saw Isabella and Draxton, they all looked at them.

When Desmond saw that Betty was still intact in Draxton's arms, his eyes widened and he said in disbelief,

"How is she still fine?"

Shouldn't Betty be like his son, suffering and living a life worse than death?

No Way Back Chapter 350-"They... are with Mrs. Fowler because Mrs. Fowler is also in surgery."

"However, Mr. Fowler has already informed us to find the best caretaker for you, Miss. Madelyn..."

"They're all with my mother?"

Madelyn could not help but bite her lips.

No matter how stupid Madelyn was, she was self-aware.

Even if Madelyn's life was in danger, if something similar happened to Anna at the same time...

...The Fowlers wouldn't care about Madelyn. All their attention would be on Anna.

However, in the past, even if both of them were injured, it was not to the extent that not a single brother came to visit Madelyn.

Madelyn suddenly realized that her recent hunch was not wrong.

The Fowlers had indeed distanced themselves from her.

No matter what the reason was.

All in all.

Madelyn would not resign to her fate.

If this continued, she would end up being chased out by the Fowler family.

Madelyn would have nothing by then!

A vicious look flashed in Madelyn's eyes.

What Madelyn did not know was that her mentality had silently undergone a change.

And this decision would cause her and the Fowler family to fall into an abyss...

Seeing that Madelyn had calmed down, the doctor left after giving her many reminders.

Only the caretaker was left to take care of Madelyn.

The caretaker had many years of experience, so she knew that Madelyn would definitely not be able to accept the fact that she was disfigured. She had to be more patient.

For the sake of money, the caretaker smiled. "Miss Madelyn, do you need water? Are you feeling unwell?"

Madelyn thought for a moment and said, "I'm feeling fine... By the way, other than Mom who is in surgery, what about the others who were involved in this disaster? How are they?"

"I heard that although many people were injured, most of the injuries were small. Among them, you and Mrs. Fowler were the most seriously injured."

“Only one person died. Sigh, the west side of the fourth floor suddenly collapsed, implicating you and the others.”

“Someone died? Who is it? Dia... How is Mrs. Croft?”

The caretaker looked around and lowered her head, not daring to answer.

Chapter 350

“Tell me! What’s the point of hiding it from me? I would find out sooner or later anyway, just like you can’t hide my disfigured face from me!”

If not for the tranquilizer, Madelyn’s voice would have been enough to scare someone.

Her eyes, which were not bandaged, had a fierce look in them as she stared at the caretaker.

The caretaker was shocked and quickly said, “That person... is Mrs. Croft, as you mentioned.”

“Aunt is dead?”

After all, she was Diane, who had loved and trusted Madelyn for so many years.

Upon hearing the news of Diane’s death, Madelyn could not help but feel sad.

“What about Layne and the others? Did they visit my aunt?”

“Yes. When they heard the news of Mrs. Croft’s death, they couldn’t accept it. The doctor even brought someone to get a tranquilizer.”

Madelyn thought about it and suddenly got off the bed.

“Miss Madelyn! Your injuries are serious. The doctor said that you have to rest and not move around!”

“How can I still sleep after knowing what happened to my aunt? I must go and see her!”

After saying that, Madelyn put on her slippers and pushed past the caretaker. She limped toward the ward where Diane was.

Layne was still sitting beside Diane’s bed.

He looked at the message he sent to Raymond on his phone. Raymond still did not reply.

A hint of hatred flashed in his eyes.

“Layne!”

At this moment, a familiar voice sounded.

Layne looked up and saw Madelyn limping with bandages around her head. He was slightly stunned. “Maddie? How did you...”

Madelyn opened her mouth, and the next second, her tears fell like broken strings of pearls. “Layne, is it true? Is Aunt Diane dead?”

Layne kept quiet and glanced at Diane’s body which was covered by a white cloth.

Madelyn trembled as she walked up to Diane’s bed. She lay down next to Diane and sobbed uncontrollably.

“Aunt Diane, please, open your eyes. Don’t die... You’re the kindest person in the world... You’re a good person... How could this happen...”

“I’d rather die than let anything happen to you. Aunt Diane, wake up. If I could exchange my life for yours, I would do it without hesitation.”

Seeing Madelyn like this, Layne couldn’t help but feel sad, and his eyes reddened.

Chapter 350

The tears that had just dried up came again.

Seeing this, the caretaker quickly walked forward. “Miss Madelyn, the doctor said not to be too emotional. Get up first.”

“Leave me alone! Leave me alone!”

Madelyn broke free from the caretaker, buried her face in the bed, and cried unbridledly.

The entire room was filled with sadness.

The caretaker looked at Layne because she was in a dilemma.

Layne wiped his tears away and took a deep breath. Then, he walked forward and comforted Madelyn. “Maddie, my mother has already passed away. This is a fact. If she was still alive, she definitely wouldn’t want us to be sad.”

“Layne...” Madelyn sobbed.

Madelyn turned around and threw herself into Layne’s arms.

The two sad people’s lonely hearts were connected at this moment.

Layne could not help but raise his hand and gently stroke Madelyn’s back to comfort her .

Just like when they were young.

He forcefully held back the tears that were about to fall.

Little did he know...

A cold smile flashed across Madelyn’s face as she hid in Layne’s arms.

Now that she was disfigured, she had lost the Fowlers’ attention.

She had to try her best to collect as many pawns as possible.

Madelyn was no longer picky. She couldn’t afford to choose now.

At least...

She had to grab hold of this lifeline called Layne.

Jane returned to the apartment.

She smelled a particularly fragrant scent.

When she walked into the kitchen, she saw her three senior brothers working together i n the kitchen. They were all busy.

She could not help but be engrossed in watching them. She leaned against the wall with her arms crossed and a warm smile on her lips.

Josh said, “You’re back? Jane, go and wash your hands. We’re almost done.”

“Hm... Have you guys figured out the recipe that I prepared?”

“Of course! Who are we? We’re all culinary experts and very capable.”

Eden spoke as he opened the lid and took out the crabs that had been cleaned.

“Oh, it’s really a blessing to be able to taste the delicacies cooked by the three of you.”

“But... where’s Rain? I don’t see him anywhere.”

“That guy was so enthusiastic to help out, but he knows nothing about cooking. He almost blew up the kitchen.”

“I had no choice but to ask him to go out for a walk. I’ll call him when it’s time to eat.”

Jane could not help but slap her forehead.

She did not expect that such an expert killer would not know how to cook.

For some reason, it matched his persona quite well.
