No Way Back Chapter 361-Jane asked Jack to kneel down in front of so many people.

Jane was planning to completely trample on Jack's dignity and let him never be able to make a comeback.

Even Jack couldn't help but change his expression and tremble when he heard Jane's words.

Peter's heart skipped a beat.

Peter recalled the scene a few days ago. He, who had broken down, knelt at the door of Jane's apartment with six brothers

These kneels represented the guilt and repentance of older brothers toward their younger sister.

But Jack couldn't do that.

"Can't you do it? If you can't do it, then get lost!"

"How dare you say that you will agree to anything I want. Jack, that's all you're capable of. You're a liar who goes back on your word and treats your words as farts. That's your nature!"

This time, Jack was in no position to stop Jane again.

Yale and the others also felt that Jack would not kneel.

If Jack still dared to say anything more, they would definitely not hold back and would beat him up before leaving.

Jack pursed his lips, and his voice seemed to be squeezed out from between his teeth. "Is it that you are willing to go to the hospital to visit Anna as long as I kneel?"

"Kneel down first. If you can't even do this, what's right do you have to talk with me about it? Get lost!"

Jane had just finished speaking.

Plop!

Jack bent his knees and actually knelt in front of Jane.

"I beg you, Jane. I beg you to go to the hospital to visit Anna. I am willing to kneel down to you. I did it!"

"Dad" Peter cried out in disbelief.

Peter rushed to Jack's side immediately. "Dad, what are you doing? Get up! Get up now! If she wants, I can kneel to her. You can't kneel!"*

"No... Peter, let me kneel. This is Jane's request. As her father, I owe Jane!

*Jane, back then, we lost you and let you live a wandering life for 19 years. Even if we didn't want all this to happen, it was ultimately me, as your father, who didn't protect you well!

"During the 19 years of Anna's painstaking searching for you, I've even repeatedly persuaded her to give up. It wasn't easy for us to find you and let you return to the Fowler family, but because of Madelyn, I've hurt you again and again!

"I'm not worthy of being your father! In this family, only Anna has been persevering to find you! This kneel represents my guilt and repentance for you!"

Finally shedding all his dignity and the armor as a father, Jack, as a penitent, expressed the guilt in his heart toward Jane.

Jack should have said these words a long time ago.

However, for the sake of his so-called dignity that he had given Jane a life after all, Jack didn't say them out.

All the misinterpretations and misunderstandings seemed insignificant under the effect of this life.

Jack really knelt down.

Yale and the others had not expected this, and neither had Jane.

Jack used to be insufferably and as a father, asked for anything in front of Jane without mercy because of giving Jane a life.

It turned out that such a man would also kneel in front of Jane and repent for what he had done.

It was just like Jane who had been like a puppy wagging its tail and begging for mercy back then.

All Jane did at that time was nothing but gain the attention of her family, even if it was just a glance.

Unfortunately, it was too late.

Everything was too late.

There was no longer any so-called sympathy, nostalgia, or kinship for Jane to the Fowler family.

Even hatred became illusory at this moment.

Jane had met a group of people whom she should cherish even more, the light of hope in her heart.

So, the Fowler family had become an insignificant existence in Jane's life.

Seeing that Jack had made up his mind, Peter gritted his teeth and said, "Jane, Dad has already done as you requested Please! Please accompany us to the hospital to visit Mom."

Jane lowered her eyes and put on a teasing smile. She held Yale's arm and said, "Oh? I see. However, I refuse"

Jane's tone was so light, bright, and harmless, but now, it was like a cold December wind, making Jack and Peter feel as if they had fallen into an icehouse, which was terrifyingly cold.

"What... What did you say?"

"Jane, I've already knelt down according to your request. But why are you still unwilling?"

"I told you I will consider. I didn't go back on my word. I didn't promise you from the beginning to the end. I only said that if you're willing to kneel,

I'll consider it

"I've already thought about it just now, but I still can't go with you. Because I think seeing you guys is too fucking disgusting!"

Peter's entire body was trembling. He could not help but criticize, "Jane, aren't you going too far? Why did you go back on your word?" "Why? Didn't I learn this from you? Jack, you promised me that after I proved my innocence, you would find out the truth and give me an explanation.

"It's been almost nine months since that day. It's been a full nine months. You only found out the truth now. Now, you actually still kept Madelyn in the Fowler family?"

"Not to mention that after I cut ties with the Fowler family, you kept forcing me and framing me. Do you think I still have any so called personality standards for you after what you've done?"

"Yale, let's go!"

After saying that, Jane walked past Jack and left heartlessly.

Jane had already said so much. Moreover, it was clear that Jane was toying with Jack and Peter like pets.

If even at this juncture, Jack could still have a servile manner, Jane would really admire Jack, this undignified piece of trash.

Jane wished Jack hated her and never appeared in her world in the future.

Yale and the others naturally listened to Jane. No matter what Jane did, they would always support her

Just as they were about to leave, Jack suddenly thought of something and smiled.

Jane could not be bothered to leave this old madman and wanted to leave even faster.

And yet, Jack's words shocked Jane.

"So, Jane, you're still thinking about me as your father and still think that the blood flowing in your body is the Fowler family's!",

Jane was totally confused.

What?

Was Jane's humiliation of Jack not bad and clear enough?

Or did Jack go crazy from too much stimulation?

When Peter saw Jack in this state, he naturally thought of the possibility of the latter. "Dad, calm down. Could you stop pestering Jane? Let's go back, okay?"

Peter was really afraid that Jack would lose his mind after being insulted by Jane.

"No, Peter. I'm wide awake, very wide awake.

“You’re indeed my daughter. Jane, you’ve learned the essence of my way of handling things.

“After this incident, I finally understand. You keep saying that you don’t want to see the Fowlers and hate the Fowler family, but your heart is still with the Fowler family.

“My blood will always flow in your body. This is a fact that can’t be changed. That’s why you’re imperceptibly learning my way of handling things!”

No Way Back Chapter 362-At this moment, Peter noticed the scheme in Jack’s eyes and vaguely understood why Jack said that.

Jack was deliberately provoking Jane, wanting to stimulate Jane

Yale and the others also understood what Jack was implying

“Mr. Fowler, don’t you think it’s meaningless to keep pestering some matters?

“Even if you bring Jane to visit Mrs. Fowler in the end, with Jane’s current attitude toward the Fowler family, aren’t you afraid that Jane’s words will stimulate Mrs. Fowler and cause her condition to worsen? Mrs. Fowler has just escaped from the life risk. You will not even have time to regret it if something really happens.

“If Mrs. Fowler really cares so much about Jane, and you guys are worried about Mrs. Fowler’s health, I think it’s better if you don’t let Jane visit Mrs. Fowler.”

In the end, Josh still spoke up to help.

Actually, Josh hoped that Jane would visit Anna.

Therefore, just now, Josh did not stop Jack from begging Jane here.

In Josh’s heart, the Fowler family’s life didn’t matter.

Josh only wanted Jane to leave herself a way out that she could regret

*As long as Jane went to visit Anna and cut ties with the entire Fowler family, even if Anna , Jane would not live the rest of her life with regrets.

Not just Josh, the others all had the same thoughts.

That was why they did not make a move on Jack’s continual entanglements.

If they had known what happened to Jane in her previous life, the moment they saw Jack, Jack would have been shot to death and not have had the chance to bullshit here.

“Peter, let’s go. Since we know that Jane still cares about us, it will be okay even if only we both go back. I’ll be satisfied to tell Anna about this. when she wakes up.

“I believe Anna won’t blame us, and she’ll be gratified too.”

Jack already didn’t have the mood to listen to Josh’s words. He laughed and turned around to leave.

Peter took a deep look at Jane and slowly turned around.

“I have to say, Jack, your provocation is too obvious. At the same time, it’s very useful to me,” At this moment, Jane finally spoke. Hearing it, Jack and Peter subconsciously stopped and looked at each other.

“Sorry, Yale, Josh, Eden, Rain. How about you go and choose a place to play first? I’ll go with them for a while. I’ll be there later.”

“Jane, I understand.”

The three senior brothers seemed to have already thought of Jane’s decision.

It was good for Jane to go and visit Anna. Otherwise, Jane would regret being so heartless today.

“Jane, are you really going?”

Rain did not want Jane to be involved with the Fowlers.

In Rain’s heart, the Fowlers were as bad as his family. They were both the culprits who forced Rain and Jane and erased their relationship! Jane stroked Rain’s smooth white hair, her lowered eyes as gently as water “Don’t worry. I’ll be back soon. Be good and listen to them.” Rain nodded repeatedly. “Yes. You must come back quickly. Don’t give them any single chance to hurt you!”

“Hurt me?” Jane whispered and could not help but laugh.

There was a hint of disdain in Jane’s smile.

“Of course not.”

Jane would never give them any slight chance to hurt her.

Eden took the initiative to say, “Jane, it’s still early Actually, we can go with you”

“There’s no need to want to waste your precious time because of these insignificant people”

Insignificant people?

Jane did not raise her voice when speaking these words.

However, to Jack and Peter, Jane’s words sounded so ear piercing that their hearts ached.

However, Jack and Peter could no longer refute Jane’s words.

Jane passed by her senior brothers and arrived in front of Jack and Peter.

“Jack, let me praise you first. You are indeed worthy of a veteran who has seen through lots of people. You’ve hit the biggest weakness in my heart

“You know that I don’t want to be similar to you even if I . In fact, if there’s a chance, I want to drain the blood in my body and then input it again. Oh, of course, I won’t seek death and deliberately hurt myself.

“That day, when I broke off all ties with the Fowler family and left the Fowler family, I made up my mind to live better and happier than anyone else, I wanted to blossom into my own glory and live my own life!

“This time, you’d better not regret asking me to visit Anna. If anything happens, don’t pin all the blame on me!”

“Let’s go, Jane. No matter what happens, I will bear the consequences alone!”

Jack had already made up his mind.

No matter what would happen, Jack knew that letting Jane visit the current Anna was the best choice.

If something really happened such as, because of Anna’s current situation, Jane’s heart softened, and she was willing to return to the Fowler family...

Jack knew that this hope was extremely slim. With Jane’s current attitude, it was just a  dream.

However, if people did not even have a dream, what was the point of living?

In the car. Peter had already informed Henry and the others that Jane was coming to the hospital to visit Anna.

When they heard this, they were completely stunned.

“Peter, no way? Jane is really willing to come and visit Mom?”

Immediately, Henry and the others almost thought that they were hallucinating.

With how much Jane hated the Fowler family, how would Jane care about Anna’s life?

“A lot of things happened. Anyway, Jane will be here. We’re on our way to the hospital.”

Peter really couldn’t bring himself to say that Jack even knelt down in front of Jane in order to beg Jane to come to the hospital to visit Anna.

“I... I know... Just now, the doctor came to remove the equipment for Mom and transferred her to a normal ward. The doctor said that Mom will regain consciousness soon.”

Speaking of this, Henry paused. “Is Jane beside you...”

“Jane said she didn’t want to be in the same car as us. She called a cab herself and followed behind. We won’t be here for about half an hour.”

“I understand...”

After hanging up the phone, Henry looked at his five brothers. “It’s just as Peter said on the phone...”

For a moment, no one knew what to say.

Originally, when Peter told them that Jack was going to find Jane to come to the hospital to visit Anna, they all felt that Jack was going to humiliate himself.

They hadn’t expected Jack to really invite Jane over.

However, they became even more uneasy.

Johan sighed softly. “To be honest, I think it’s better for Jane to reject Dad decisively and refuse to come.”

“Johan is right. With Jane’s attitude toward the Fowlers, it couldn’t be thought a good thing.

“No matter what method Dad used to invite Jane over to visit Mom, with Jane’s temper, I hope she won’t anger Mom to death. Now that Mom has just escaped death and has yet to recover from her serious illness, I’m really afraid that Jane will agitate Mom. By then, things will only get worse.”

Putting aside his prejudice against Jane, Sam saw that this matter had developed to this point and also had a bad hunch

No Way Back Chapter 363-“But Dad insisted on inviting Jane over. Now that he has done it, what else can we say?

“And I also know Mom actually really misses Jane and wants Jane to forgive her. If there are no twists and turns, this might be the best solution”

When Jane arrived, everyone felt that there were good and bad things.

In the end, they all fixed their gazes on Henry

As the Fowler family’s eldest son, Henry was the most trusted and capable of the seven brothers

Henry’s decision at this time was extremely important to these uneasy younger brothers.

Henry thought for a full five minutes before saying, “In short, we can only make a move according to the situation. No matter what, we have to consider Mom and Dad’s emotions first. If Jane really provokes Mom, we’ll stop her.”

“That’s the only way. Let’s do as Henry says”

Henry turned around and walked to the window. The sunlight fell on Henry’s handsome face, but it could not soothe the worry hidden in it.

“Jane, why did you agree to come and visit Mom? What exactly do you want?”

In the end, Henry looked at Anna, who was unconscious in the ward, and secretly clenched his fists.

If something that would make them regret it for the rest of their life really happened, Henry would rather Jane not come over and never forgive the Fowler family

Madelyn was recuperating in the ward.

They didn’t come over.

It had been an entire day.

The brothers still hadn't come over.

Anna had clearly finished her surgery, been out of danger, and been transferred to a normal ward.

But no one came to care about the disfigured Madelyn.

Madelyn took a deep breath. She wanted to calm her anger and calmly think about what she should do next.

Now that Diane had *, Layne was physically and mentally injured. So, Madelyn could take advantage of the situation to maintain her relationship with Layne.

However, Madelyn now was disfigured. Even if Layne would not leave Madelyn in a short period because of his past feelings for Madelyn, as time passed, it was impossible for Layne to accept a disfigured woman, let alone the Croft family.

Madelyn had to regain the Fowlers' attention and use this disfigurement to regain the Fowlers' love and care for her.

Otherwise, Madelyn would really have to use that final plan..

At the thought of this, Madelyn's eyes flashed with gloom.

Madelyn really didn't want to use that plan unless it was absolutely necessary.

At this moment, the caretaker walked in. "Miss Madelyn..."

Madelyn quickly asked, "How is it? Did you bring the news to my brothers?"

The caretaker nodded. "Yes. They said they would come over when they were free."

Not getting the expected answer, Madelyn was so angry that she cursed angrily, "Damn it! Since there's no good outcome, why did you come back? Continue going to them!"

"Ah? Miss Madelyn, what's wrong?"

The caretaker looked at Madelyn in a daze.

Madelyn was clearly speaking softly and gently just now as if she were a pool of water.

it was totally different from the current Madelyn who shouted angrily and looked like a violent shrew.

At this moment, Madelyn also realized that she had almost exposed her true colors.

Madelyn quickly took a deep breath and pretended to be sobbing

"I'm sorry. Mrs caretaker Because I am disfigured. Actually, I'm really scared and in pain. And my brothers won't come to see me. I'm so desperate and lonely I don't know what to do....

"I'm really sorry for shouting at you just now. My mind is a mess. I know I shouldn't vent my personal emotions on you. I'm so sorry. Please forgive me, okay?"

Under Madelyn's explanation, the caretaker finally understood

"Miss Madelyn, you have the best temper among the many patients I take care of. Sigh! No one can remain calm after encountering such a thing!

"I can understand. I'll find an opportunity to mention this to Mr. Fowler again. No matter what, Miss Madelyn, you are the daughter of the Fowler family. If not for Mrs Fowler's injury

"The Fowlers are too heartless. Miss Madelyn, you are clearly so seriously injured, but they still haven't come to visit you."

Even the caretaker was indignant on Madelyn's behalf.

"Don't say that, Mrs. caretaker I know Mommy's matter is the most important I don't expect to compete with Mommy for anything:

"I only hope that my brothers will remember that they still have a sister. Then, I'll be satisfied."

Chapter 363

"Miss Madelyn, you are really too kind and sensible. If only I had a daughter like you."

Hearing Madelyn's words, the caretaker was almost in tears.

After the caretaker went to fetch water for Madelyn, Madelyn's expression changed instantly.

"I'm injured so seriously, but my brothers still haven't come to visit me. How despicable!

"If they still don't come, I can only take the initiative to attack. I have to find a good opportunity..."

Madelyn began to think of a way. She got off the bed, stretching her body as she wondered if she should wait for Anna to wake up or go over later and put on a play to gain their sympathy.

Right at this moment, Madelyn seemed to have seen someone through the window and her pupils contracted.

*That figure was so familiar! Madelyn would not be wrong about it even if she ****.*

It was Jane.

Moreover, Jane was dressed up very beautifully today, accentuating her naturally elegant charm and noble face to the extreme.

It was a stark contrast to the current Madelyn who was disfigured, repenting her errors, and thinking of ways to struggle for her unknown future.

It could be called despair.

Why was Jane here?

Could it be Jane was here to visit Anna?

The Fowlers were already more inclined to Jane now and distanced themselves from Madelyn.

If Jane really came to visit Anna with the intention of restoring good relations and returning as the Fowler family's real daughter, how could the Fowler family still have a spot for Madelyn?

At that time, there would be no need for Madelyn to put on a play to ask the Fowlers to chase her away.

There were only two ends waiting for Madelyn.

Either the Fowler family would volunteer to kick Madelyn out, or Madelyn would fall into the hands of Jane and be tortured until she wished she were dead.

Jane had already walked into the hospital, and Madelyn could no longer see Jane from the window.

Madelyn bit her nails and looked flustered.

"No! I can't just wait and do nothing! I have to take the initiative to take action now!"

With that, Madelyn left the ward in a hurry.

After they arrived at the hospital, Peter had already sent a message to Henry. They were waiting for the elevator and were preparing to go up. After Henry received the message, he took a deep breath and looked at his brothers behind him. "They're here."

"Okay."

Knowing that Jane was coming, for some reason, Johan and the others were on tenterhooks.

Jack and the others took the elevator to the floor where Anna's VIP ward was located.

When the elevator door opened, Henry and the others' eyes were instantly fixed on Jane, who was standing the innermost.

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 364

No Way Back Chapter 364-Jane crossed her arms and leaned against the wall of the elevator. Her small face with exquisite light makeup exuded a coldness that had nothing to do with the troublesome matters in the world.

When Jane noticed the Fowlers' gazes on her, her expression did not change at all

Jane's eyes as deep and calm as water in an old well were filled with an invisible color as she stepped out of the elevator in the lady's call leather shoes

To be honest, before coming here, Jane had thought of the countless probable moods in face of the Fowlers.

However, in the end, Jane did not expect herself to be so calm.

Even Jane herself was shocked by this feeling.

After all, the people in front of Jane had once brought deep and unforgettable pain to her.

However, now, Jane no longer had any feelings for the Fowlers.

This couldn't be any better.

It meant that Jane had really walked out and could go to welcome her own life.

Jane's silence made Henry and the others even more flustered.

Henry could not help but say, "Jane, to be honest, I'm very surprised that you're here to visit Mom. Why are you willing to come?"

As Queen's previous apprentice on the Darknet, Henry knew that Jane had no tolerance for traitors.

Henry didn't understand why such a person would come to visit Anna. Henry wanted to convince himself that Jane came because of her love for her mother but he knew it was impossible.

Among the Fowler family, Henry could be said to be the most familiar with Jane. Henry had always been pessimistic.

"What's wrong? Jack and Peter only said I would come to visit Anna, but they didn't tell you how they invited me over?"

When Jane said this, she didn't even look at Henry.

Among the seven brothers, Jane hated Henry, the so-called eldest brother, the most.

*Henry gave Jane endless despair and even told Jane to ****.*

However, it just so happened that Henry was the apprentice whom Jane used to dote on and be proud of the most. Once, Jane thought that this apprentice was one of only a few shackles in this world.

The layers of identities of Henry made Jane feel the sense of betrayal from Henry become unprecedentedly strong.

"What?"

When Henry and the others heard Jane's words, they immediately felt a strong sense of unease.

Then, they subconsciously looked at Jack

What exactly did Jack do?

Jack turned his face away and did not speak.

However, Jack's evasive gaze had already betrayed his heart.

Henry and the others instantly felt their hearts turn cold.

"Alright, Jane. Mom is in the ward. Let's go and see her."

Peter did not want Jane to reveal that Jack had knelt down and begged Jane to come over so that Jack would not embarrass himself in front of Henry and the others. So, Peter wanted to pull Jane to Anna's ward.

“Peter, don’t touch me with your hand!”

Jane dodged Peter’s hand.

The coldness on Jane’s face never faded as she strode forward.

Jack bit his lip slightly and followed Jane silently

Peter looked at his hand that was dodged by Jane and laughed at himself mockingly.

That was right. What right did Peter have to touch Jane? He really didn’t know his place at all.

Seeing Jack and Jane walk into the ward, Peter wanted to follow them, but he was stopped by Henry and the others. They asked anxiously, “Peter, what the kind of deal did Dad make with Jane so that Jane is willing to come?”

I’m sorry I can’t say this. Please don’t ask Dad either. Please.”

Seeing Peter’s sad expression, Henry and the others could not help but fall silent.

It was Sam who came back to his senses first, and he said, “Henry, let’s go into the ward quickly. I’m afraid Jane will agitate Dad and Mom.”

“Okay!”

In the ward, Jane stood in the corner and looked coldly at Anna, who was lying unconscious on the bed.

Jack came to Anna’s side and held her hand. He caressed Anna’s pale face. “Anna, I’m here. I’m Jack. I’ve brought Jane over. Wake up and open your eyes. It’s really Jane.”

Jane...

This name stimulated Anna’s brain like some kind of electrooptic index.

Anna subconsciously held Jack’s hand.

Chapter 364

Seeing it, Jack was pleasantly surprised. “She moved! She really moved! Anna, hurry up and open your eyes! Jane is here! I’m not lying to you!” After saying that, Jack turned to look at Jane. “Jane, please say something to Anna. As long as it’s your voice, it will definitely wake up Jane!” Jane thought for a second and smiled playfully. “Are you sure you want me to say something?”

At this moment, Henry and the others had already arrived at the door of the ward.

They heard Jack speak anxiously, "Yes! Please! Jane, only you can awaken Anna and wake her up from her coma!"

"Really?"

Jane deliberately dragged out her tone. She narrowed her eyes and revealed a sharp glint.

Then, Jane opened her thin lips. "Anna, get the up!"

Everyone looked at Jane blankly.

"Why are you looking at me like that? Didn't you want me to say something and wake Anna up?"

"Or do you want me to go up to slap Anna a few times and use physical effects to stimulate her? Based on my current medical skills, this method is simple and will achieve twice the result with half the effort. I am sure if I do so, Anna will wake up immediately."

Jack actually prodded Jane to come over and wanted her to help wake Anna up?

Jane could come but she would not do as she was told tamely.

Jane loved to stir up trouble and anger the Fowlers badly very much!

Jack fell silent.

It was naturally impossible for Jack to reply to Jane's trash talk.

Jack had already expected this situation when he asked Jane to come over, hadn't he?

It was just that Jack still had a trace of hope in his heart at that time, hoping that Jane would have some sympathy when she saw Anna like this.

However, such hope was mercilessly shattered by Jane.

At this moment, Anna's fingers moved.

Sam keenly saw it and quickly said, "Dad! I saw Mom moved!"

Everyone looked at Sam's fingertip in unison when they heard Sam's words.

It was not an illusion.

Clearly, Anna's fingertips were moving non-stop.

Immediately after, those tightly eyes slowly opened, filled with chaos toward the world.

Anna's brain had yet to fully awaken, and she looked at the person in front of her in a daze.

When Jack saw that his beloved wife had woken up, he was overjoyed. He quickly went forward and held Anna's hand tightly. His voice trembled with excitement. "Anna! You're finally awake!"

"I..."

*Anna opened her and spat out a word when she instantly felt as if her throat was burning.

"Water... Water..."

"Water? Anna, I'll bring it to you immediately!"

After Jack fed Anna some water, Anna's chaotic brain gradually regained its clarity.

Anna remembered her identity, what had happened, her family, and...

Anna's gaze was fixed on Jane, filled with disbelief.

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 365

No Way Back Chapter 365- "Jack, am I dreaming? Why is Jane here?" Anna said in a hoarse voice.

If this was a dream, the tiredness, soreness, and pain from time to time on her body were too real.

This was reality.

But if it was reality, why would Jane appear here?

"I was the one who asked Jane to come over, Anna. When you were unconscious, you subconsciously shouted Jane's name. At that time, I knew that if Jane came, she would definitely be able to wake you up!"

"I'm sorry, Jane. As your husband, I thought that time would wash away all sadness. Even if you couldn't forget, you could face life again. The truth is that I neglected your feelings too much and didn't care about your true thoughts!"

Jack's words had already let Anna know that her unconscious murmurs had exposed the true desire in her heart.

Anna looked at Jack gratefully. "Thank you, Jack. You're right. When I was unconscious, I heard everyone shouting for me, but I didn't have the strength to get up until I heard Jane's voice..."

Speaking of this, Anna looked at Jane. Jane, I'm really happy that you're willing to come and visit me. I know I'm not qualified to be your mom anymore, but thank you so much for coming..."

If it weren't for Jane's words, Anna probably wouldn't have had the strength to wake up until now.

Toward this biological daughter, Anna owed Jane the most and hurt her too deeply.

If time could flow back to the first day Anna found Jane, Anna swore that she would never do those things again to make Jane sad

"Before you say that nonsense, I have something to remind you of..."

When Peter heard Jane say this, he felt that something was wrong.

Peter wanted to stop Jane, but it was too late.

"The reason I'm here is that your husband, Fowler Corporation's chairman, Jack Fowler, knelt down and begged me to come over!"

"Otherwise, why do you think I came to visit you? Take a good look at yourself in the mirror, Anna. What right do you have to make me give up the good time of New Year's Day to visit your crippled woman?"

Like a knife to kill people without any hesitation, Jane's vicious words stabbed Anna's heart hard.

Before Anna could react, it was already stirring crazily. When Anna came back to her senses, a heart-wrenching pain spread throughout her body, making her unable to resist it.

"Jane!"

Jack's eyes widened. He did not expect Jane to be so merciless at this moment and say such vicious words.

"Why do you shout at me? Jack, you're the one who tricked me into coming here. I've said before that you would definitely regret letting me come to the hospital to visit Anna! Don't tell me you still expect me to say some sweet words to make you happy?"

"You already live for half of your life, yet you still like to dream such unrealistic dreams like a fairy tale. Then I'll be merciful to be a realist to help you shatter your fantasies!"

Jane completely ignored the gazes of Jack and the others.

"Speaking of which, it's such a pity. When Jack knelt in front of me and begged me to come to the hospital to visit you, I actually forgot to take a photo. I was really muddle-headed. If you're suspicious, you could ask Jack if he really knelt down and begged me to visit you."

Jane immediately threw the hot potato to Jack.

The so-called biggest torture of someone was only so-so.

Anna bit her lip tightly and looked at Jack.

The moment Anna saw Jack's evasive gaze, she instantly understood everything.

This time, Anna finally experienced the feeling of having her heart cut by a knife.

It was an intense pain that even her blood could turn cold as if all the bones in her body had been shattered.

"Jack, why are you doing this? You're so muddle-headed! How could you even kneel down to beg Jane to visit me..."

When Anna said this, she even felt uncomfortable breathing. She had to keep gasping to complete the sentence.

Her eyes were red and glistening with tears. Anna was about to burst into tears.

I'm sorry, Anna. I know this is *, but I can only think of this method. Otherwise, I wouldn't have been able to get Jane to come over. "I've said it before. For you, I'm willing to even pluck stars and the moon. I'm willing to give up everything for you, including my life. The effect is good, right? You woke up as soon as Jane arrived. Or it will be even worse than killing me if I watch you continue to be in a coma!"

Jack tried his best to smile gently and comfort Anna to divide her sadness.

It was like a lion licking the lioness's cheek, ignoring the huge bottomless wound on its chest

More importantly, Jack said these to divert Anna's attention, trying his best to make Anna not pay attention to her leg.

If Anna realized that she could not control her leg at all and was already crippled, coupled with Jane's mockery, Anna would probably really break down emotionally

Even though Jack knew that it was impossible to hide this matter forever.

*Jack, you're really too ***..."

Anna took a deep breath and swallowed her tears.

Anna reached out and gently stroked Jack's cheek, her eyes filled with heartache.

Anna didn't want to make the people around her sad at this time.

Compared to the others, Anna was already living very happily.

Anna had a husband, who loved her deeply, and sons who esteemed her.

As for Jane, it was a sin that Anna had planted himself.

Anna had to pay for what Jane had suffered.

"Jane, thank you. Since Mom has woken up, you had better leave."

In the end, Peter made this decision.

Peter walked up to Jane and spoke without holding anything back.

This was the best choice. Even though they would blame Peter and Jane would hate Peter even more, Peter had to ask Jane to leave.

Henry and the others all saw Peter's determination.

Silence represented their response.

They even secretly heaved a sigh of relief.

Even if they all knew that this was for the best, none of them had the courage to be like Peter to say such words to Jane.

“Okay, then I’m leaving.

“Jack, I’ve done what I promised you. Remember to watch your . Don’t go around spouting nonsense!”

Even if the Fowlers wanted to keep Jane, Jane wouldn’t agree.

Staying here and breathing in the air where the Fowlers were like a fatal virus entering Jane’s nose, making Jane disgusting, nauseating, and uncomfortable all over!

This time, Jane’s involvement with the Fowler family was completely resolved.

Jane turned around and was about to leave.

Jack did not speak either.

Although Jack wanted to salvage this father-daughter relationship with Jane, from the looks of it now, the disadvantages of Jane staying were greater than the benefits.

Jack could not let Jane continue to provoke Anna anymore.

At this time.

“Jane, wait a minute!”

When Anna saw that Jane was about to leave, she hurriedly wanted to get up from the bed.

However, Anna could not feel her right leg, and it could not support her body.

Anna almost fell off the bed.

“Anna!”

No Way Back Chapter 366-Fortunately, Jack reacted quickly and supported Anna.

At this , Anna suddenly realized that she could not feel her right leg at all. She said in horror, “Jack, my right leg... How did it become like this?”

At that, Jack cursed inwardly. His worst fears came true. “Anna, calm down. You must calm down! The doctor said that as long as you persist in the treatment and rehabilitation, your leg will recover! One day, you will be able to walk again!”

*Jack, sometimes, I really quite admire your optimism. The doctor's words are really more than ten times pleasant to hear in your ***!"

Jane mocked.

Jack could not care less about Jane's mockery and only looked at Anna worriedly, afraid that Anna would agitate, collapse, and faint again because she could not accept reality.

Unexpectedly, Anna's reaction was very calm.

"Is that so?"

"Anna? Are you alright?"

Anna's reaction was beyond everyone's expectations.

Now, the calmer Anna appeared, the more afraid they were.

They were afraid that this was a sign that a bigger storm was coming.

*Jack, before I fainted, I protected and a huge rock smashed into my right foot. At that time, the intense pain swept through my entire body, and I was already prepared.

"Actually, I'm more afraid that I'll directly. I'm afraid of losing you and our children. Now that I can wake up and have only lost my right leg, this is already a gift from the heavens. I'm already very lucky."

Facing her own disaster, Anna could speak these words so calmly.

Her strength far exceeded everyone's imagination.

Even Jane was surprised.

If it were Jane who had suddenly encountered such an accident, she could not have been as calm as Anna.

Once someone crossed her bottom line, Anna had always been prone to losing her mind and getting furious. To be honest, seeing Anna look so calm in such a big , Jane really thought highly of her.

Then, Jane turned around with a cold smile and continued to walk away.

No matter what Anna had become or what her true colors were, it had nothing to do with Jane anymore.

However, it was a pity that Jane's plan failed slightly. This time, Jack tricked Jane into coming to the hospital and used her to wake Anna up. Jane originally wanted to anger Anna to take revenge, but she failed, which made Jane a little disappointed.

"Jane, thank you. I know you still me but thank you for coming to the hospital to visit me. Otherwise, I don't know when I would have woken up

"Also, I'm sorry. I've let you down. As your *, I didn't protect you well but did a lot of things to hurt you. I'm really sorry!"

Anna apologized sincerely from the bottom of her heart, expressing the guilt she had always felt for Jane.

Now, Anna finally had the chance to say it out in front of everyone.

At that , Anna felt as if her heart had been temporarily redeemed and welcomed the warm sunlight.

*Since you feel sorry for me, don't appear in front of me anymore. I don't want to see you again."

Jane's answer was still as cold as ice, without a trace of warmth.

Hearing this, Anna could not help but lower her head.

Anna didn't have the courage to answer Jane's question, even if Anna knew in Jane's heart, Jane had already given up on the Fowler family. However, Anna felt so much guilt toward Jane. Moreover, Jane was Anna's biological daughter after all.

How could Anna bear to abandon Jane and never see Jane again from now on?

After all, Anna was pregnant for nine months and finally gave birth to Jane.

It was just that Anna was too back then.

Anna even had forgotten how she was filled with joy back then and how she had meticulously prepared with the entire family to welcome the birth of this little life.

Now, the only thing Anna wanted to do was to atone for her sins.

If they couldn't even meet, how could Anna atone for her sins?

Jack and the others were shocked because of Jane's heartless words.

Just now, Jane said that since they felt sorry for her....

Was it that Jane softened and wanted to reconcile with the Fowler family?

Jane did not wait for Anna's answer and ignored the Fowlers' different thoughts.

Then, Jane strode forward.

They silently watched Jane off.

This time, Jane's arrival was thought to be an atomic bomb.

However, because of Anna's calm attitude toward her accident, the bomb that was about to explode into pieces didn't explode.

To a certain extent, it was a form of luck.

However, before everyone could secretly heave a sigh of relief, there was the sound of hurried footsteps.

“!”

Madelyn's anxious voice came from afar.

Upon hearing Madelyn's voice, Jack's and the others' expressions all changed..

Only Anna seemed to have thought of something. “It's ! By the way, is *alright...”

Before Anna could finish speaking, Madelyn appeared at the door of the ward.

Pretending not to see Jane, Madelyn ran directly to Anna's bed and knelt down as she cried, her eyes red.

“, are you okay?”

Madelyn's sudden appearance disrupted the thoughts of Jack and the others.

Then, disgust flashed across their eyes, which was quietly captured by Jane.

It seemed that what Jack said was real.

Now in the Fowler family, except for Anna who was still kept in the dark, everyone had known Madelyn's true colors.

No, there was still a person who didn't know it and that was Madelyn herself.

As long as Madelyn wasn't , she knew that the Fowlers were starting to alienate her.

However, Madelyn did not yet know that the matter of her framing Jane back then had been exposed.

Seeing that Madelyn's face was covered in bandages, Anna instantly felt worried. "*, are you alright? Your face..."

"I... I'm fine, , as long as you are fine!

"I'm sorry, . I've always wanted to come and visit you, but you were unconscious. Daddy and brothers are all here. I was afraid of disturbing you. When I heard that you had woken up, I rushed over immediately!"

Before Madelyn could finish, Anna interrupted anxiously, "*, this can wait. Your face... What happened to your face? Why did it become like this?"

" ..."

When Madelyn heard Anna's words, her tears finally could not be held back anymore, and they fell like pearls with a broken string. "*, my face is ruined... Although I survived, I'm disfigured!"

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 367

No Way Back Chapter 367-Anna's heart felt like it had been hit hard by something.

Anna looked at Madelyn's tear-stained face that was covered in bandages, her heart was filled with guilt.

"I'm sorry. , I didn't protect you well.

"I was clearly by your side, but such a thing still happened. You disfigured. It's all my fault.

"Don't worry, , I will definitely find the best plastic surgeon for you. I will definitely do my best to restore your face to its original state!" "Mommy, it's alright I am alright. It's already my greatest happiness that we're still alive and talking like this. I even swore last night that I would rather not recover my face for the rest of my life as long as you could wake up. I can do anything as long as you can wake up!"

Madelyn's eyes were misty with tears. Her voice was sincere as she sobbed. She really looked like a good daughter who could move anyone.

If not for the fact that Jack and the others had concrete evidence and knew about Madelyn's true colors, they would really have been completely deceived by Madelyn.

Looking at Madelyn who was acting in front of Anna, Jack could not help but feel emotional. Madelyn used her innocent face to cheat all of them, causing them to misunderstand Jane for a long, long time.

It was not that the Fowlers were too *. After so many years of being together and cultivating trust, coupled with Madelyn's flawless acting skills like an Oscar-winning actress, even the Best Actor, Johan, could only instinctively sense that something was slightly wrong.

It was reasonable for them to not be able to tell Madelyn's true colors.

If Madelyn hadn't let the cat out of the bag in the matter of framing Jane, they would probably have been kept in the dark for the rest of their lives

At the same time, Jack and the others subconsciously looked at Jane, afraid that Jane would misunderstand when she saw this scene and hated them even more

Currently, only Anna was still kept in the dark, but they could not tell the truth.

Seeing this scene, the Fowlers felt desolate and disgusted.

With a disdainful smile, from the beginning to the end, Jane just felt like a bystander.

If it were in the past, Jane would have been sad and hateful when she saw the deep mother-daughter relationship between Anna and Madelyn.

However, now, Jane really didn't feel anything at all.

Jane only felt that Anna was very ****

Anna could only live in lies for the rest of her life.

No, in this life, these lies would not be as long as a lifetime.

Just as Jane ignored this touching drama between a mother and a daughter and was about to walk out of the ward, at this moment, Madelyn cried out in surprise as if she had just discovered Jane, "You are Janie! Are you really Janie?"

After saying that, Madelyn rushed over and blocked Jane's side. Then, Madelyn said excitedly. "Janie, is it really you?! I knew you wouldn't be so heartless as to leave mommy alone! You must have come to visit mommy because you were worried about mommy, right?"

Madelyn's action was too sudden and unexpected.

Jane watched Madelyn's perfect acting skills. Every detail on Madely's face was so natural. However, when they looked at each other at such a close distance, Jane naturally would not miss the hatred and jealousy in the depths of Madelyn's eyes.

"Yes, I'm here to visit Anna because I have an agreement with Jack. As long as I come to see Anna and successfully wake her up, you'll have to get out of the Fowler family penniless. Without money, you'll have to live on the streets with a disfigured face and live the rest of your life like in ***."

When Madelyn heard Jane's words, a hint of panic flashed across her eyes.

The Fowlers, who were constantly paying attention to Madelyn, captured it.

They themselves were good observers to begin with.

They were from one of the top wealthy families. Of course, they had seen countless people.

After learning about Madelyn's true colors, when they saw Madelyn like this now, they finally understood they were wrong so deeply in the past. They must have been blind in the past.

"What? Jack, is this true?"

Anna looked at Jack in disbelief.

Jack was about to speak when Madelyn suddenly laughed.

"Janie, you're really willing to return to the Fowler family. This is really great. I'm not the Fowlers to begin with. I'm already very satisfied to be doted on by the Fowler family for 18 years!

"For an orphan like me, such happiness is too extravagant. Others don't even dare to dream of it, but I've enjoyed it for 18 years. This identity belongs to you to begin with. I'll return it to you now!

"You don't know, Janie. Ever since you left the Fowler family, daddy, mommy, and brothers have missed you very much. They really want you to return to the Fowler family. If my departure can help you untie the knot in your heart and return to the Fowler family, I'm more willing than anyone else! As long as you're happy, I'm even willing to

**** ..."

As Madelyn spoke, her voice changed and was covered with a hint of grief.

Really unable to continue, Madelyn took a deep breath and raised her head, not wanting to let her tears fall.

This kind of acting was really amazing.

Jane almost applauded for Madelyn.

After all, this was an excellent acting skill that even Jane did not see through at the beginning of her previous life.

No wonder Madelyn was determined to be in the entertainment industry. With such superb acting skills, even without the Fowler family's help, with Madelyn's personality as an angelic and ability, she could still make a name for herself in this muddy and place.

Jack felt a little dazed.

Why not just take the chance to chase Madelyn out of the Fowler family?

Even if it was impossible for Jane to return, at the very least, doing so could reduce Jane's hatred for the Fowler family. It could also be considered an explanation for Jane.

Moreover, when the Fowler family met Jane in the future, they would not have to hurt each other like enemies.

At the same time, after Madelyn left the Fowler family, the atmosphere of the Fowler family would not be so suffocating, and there would be room to breathe.

"No! I won't allow it!"

Anna said with agitation at this time, "Jack, are you crazy? How can you agree to Jane's conditions like this? We've already lost one daughter. Are you willing to force another daughter to ?" Anna was so anxious that she coughed.

Seeing this, Jack quickly said, "Anna, don't be agitated! Jane was just joking. I didn't agree to her request like that."

"A joke?"

Anna recovered and looked at Jane in confusion.

"That's right, Anna. Don't be agitated. Your precious daughter won't be chased out of the Fowler family. She will stay by your side and be filial to, you for the rest of her life."

Jane's mocking words made Anna who realized she said something wrong panic at once. "Jane, don't... Don't misunderstand! Actually, I don't mean what you think..."

"I didn't misunderstand. I don't want to know what you mean to say. I've said it before. I have nothing to do with the Fowler family anymore. You can do whatever you want."

Jane left after saying that.

Jane took out her phone and made an online car-hailing.

As for the location, Jane had already asked her senior brothers about it.

There was no need to continue wasting time. In any case, Jane could not anger Anna to death.

Madelyn pretended to just come back to her senses. "Don't! Janie! Don't leave! I'm the one who should leave! Wait for me, Janie!"

Madelyn chased after Jane and left the ward too.

No Way Back Chapter 368-"Quick! Peter! Go over and take a look. I'm afraid something would happen!"

Jack was worried that something would happen to Jane

As for Madelyn, her image in Jack's heart had already been ruined, and Jack could no longer trust her.

If these two daughters stayed together, based on Madelyn's personality of pestering and Jane's disgust for Madelyn, Jack was afraid that they would fight.

Jack knew that Madelyn was no match for Jane. But Jack was afraid that Jane would suffer a loss and get into unnecessary trouble.

"Alright! I'll be right there!"

Peter quickly caught up.

Anna hurriedly shouted, "Peter, help me tell Jane that I didn't mean that by the way. Tell her not to misunderstand!"

"I know, ***."

With that, Peter left

Jane and the others left. Anna seemed to have lost all her strength and was almost faint.

Fortunately, Jack quickly reacted and supported her “Alright, Anna. You suffered from a serious illness and have just woken up after the Surgery. You can’t make yourself too tired.”

Anna lay in Jack’s arms and said in pain, “Jack, did I do something wrong again? I just don’t want to lose after losing Jane. I feel guilty enough about Jane. What should I do if I also lose *? What should I do?”

“It’s alright. Anna, I know. I know your thoughts. You don’t have to take it to heart. It’s the most important for you to recuperate now...”

Jack could only hug Anna and comfort her gently to prevent Anna from being agitated and affecting her health.

When the other sons saw this scene, they could not help but feel bitter.

If one day, Anna had to know Madelyn’s true colors, recalling the past, would Anna accept it?

The betrayal from one’s beloved was far more unacceptable to Anna than the fact that she was crippled. It was extremely painful.

On the other side, Madelyn chased Jane out of the hospital.

Seeing that there was no one around, Madelyn sped up and rushed in front of Jane with a sudden big stride forward. Madelyn opened her arms and stopped Jane. “Janie! Wait a minute!”

Jane crossed her arms and looked at Madelyn coldly. “What’s the matter? Madelyn, now, only you and I are here. Do you still need to act?”

Jane raised her chin slightly. With the posture, Jane’s fair and smooth skin like that of a newborn baby was entirely exposed to Madelyn’s eyes.

Jane, who had light makeup on, was almost the most beautiful woman in the world. Her bright red lips were charming and beautiful Jane was wearing a limited-edition winter windbreaker that accentuated her perfect figure. The black silk stockings wrapped Jane’s long, slender legs in not-very-high heels. Under Jane’s charm, even the sunlight on her face dimmed.

All of this almost blinded Madelyn’s eyes.

Before Madelyn was not disfigured, she claimed to be the school belle of the University of Oricle who was the most outstanding one with the richest family background.

However, Jane's return changed everything.

Glory, money, and status began to distance themselves from Madelyn and rushed toward Jane like a surging river.

Even the Fowlers, who were taken by hand and firmly believed in Madelyn, were starting to alienate themselves from Madelyn.

What was even more unacceptable to Madelyn was that her peak appearance was not even comparable to Jane's light makeup. Madelyn did not even have the qualifications to be Jane's competitor.

Jane was too beautiful. Her deep eyes combined with her dark eyebrows, like long and distant mountains. Jane had perfectly inherited the advantages of Jack and Anna and eliminated their flaws.

Even the appearances of the Fowler family's seven outstanding sons inherited from Jack and Anna were not as profound and engraved as that of Jane.

Anyone who saw Jane would think that Jane was indeed the Fowler family's real biological daughter. Madelyn had completely become a background, an existence that set off Jane.

Compared to Madelyn's life a year ago, this was a world-shaking change, not to mention the disfigured Madelyn.

Madelyn's envious gaze was fixed on Jane's face. Seeing it, Jane could not help but laugh.

Jane stretched out her fingertips and gently hooked the outline of her face, like a hunter walking into the forest with a shotgun.

"Isn't my face good-looking?"

Jane's mocking words were especially ear piercing to Madelyn's ears, piercing Madelyn's heart.

Jane was such a . Jane clearly saw that Madelyn was disfigured, so she deliberately bragged.

How could there be such a shameless, cheap, and vicious woman in this world?

Madelyn gritted her teeth in hatred Madelyn even wanted to rush up and peel off Jane's face with a knife and replace it with her own.

However, her rationality told Madelyn that she couldn't! Madelyn had another plan for chasing after Jane

"Janie, you do look pretty. You are the Fowler family's biological daughter, and you inherit daddy and excellent genes. You are a real princess, unlike me, an ordinary woman. Even with the help of daddy and , it's Impossible for me to become a real princess.

*Janie, how about coming back to the Fowler family? Daddy and need you. Brothers need you too. The fact that you came to visit today proves that you still have this family and have daddy and others in your heart, right?"

Madelyn was still acting. Her acting skills were so real.

However, Jane had long seen through Madelyn's ulterior motives. Jane thought about it and had an idea.

Since Madelyn took the initiative to come to Jane and the time bomb prepared by Jane was about to explode, then, Jane should act as a catalyst and catalyze it so that this mess would become messier and messier.

"Are you sure you want me to go back to the Fowler family? Madelyn? Is that what you really mean?"

"Of course, Janie, I've always wanted you to come back! It was daddy who misunderstood you back then. I think daddy really regrets it! It's just that he can't bring himself to tell you....

"He can't bring himself to tell me? Madelyn, do you know that when you were not around, Jack knelt in front of me and personally apologized to me? He even begged me to come to the hospital to visit Anna. Otherwise, why do you think I came?"

"What did you say?"

It was as if a bolt of lightning had struck Madelyn's head.

Jack actually knelt down to Jane?

How was this possible?

Jack was the chairman of the Fowler Corporation and the head of a top-notch rich family.

“Now, you’re already disfigured. Even if you think that Anna will always protect you, it can’t help you long. Now, you’re useless. You can’t gain your foothold in the Fowler family at all. Even if I don’t go back, you’ll be chased out sooner or later.

“Do you think no one knows about the bad things you did? When I proved my innocence back then, everyone knew that I didn’t make up the trending topic and the culprit was someone else. If it is really you who did it, do you think Jack has already found out the truth?

“Think about your status in the Fowler family. I’m afraid you already have a premonition. Now that you even have lost your looks, I guess you’ll probably be chased out of the Fowler family soon.”

Every word Jane said was like a bow aimed at Madelyn.

Unable to dodge, Madelyn could only endure it forcefully, and countless holes were poked into her body..

Madelyn’s most ominous premonition was heard from Jane’s , which invisibly became a form of verification.

Could it be that it was really as Madelyn had thought?

The Fowlers’ attitude toward Madelyn was worlds apart from before not only because of Jane but also because Madelyn’s actions had been exposed?

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 369

No Way Back Chapter 369-Actually, Madelyn long had a premonition.

Otherwise, they wouldn’t have been so strange. Henry and the others clearly looked so happy when they came back.

However, after being called to the study by Jack, they came out and then suddenly disappeared. When they returned, all of them became indifferent to Madelyn.

At that time, Madelyn guessed that something she had done had been exposed, causing the Fowlers to alienate Madelyn.

However, the Fowlers did not question Madelyn or even chase Madelyn out.

Madelyn could only comfort herself that her actions had not been exposed.

But now, things had turned out this way

*Think about it carefully. My taxi is here. I’m leaving”

Jane had already put down the bait.

What should Madelyn do to maximize the benefits? Jane believed that with Madelyn's smart brain, she could think of a good solution.

"Janie, I don't know what you're talking about... If you're still angry with me, you can hit me and scold me, but you can't slander me and sully my innocence!"

Madelyn gradually came back to her senses and did not forget her main purpose for chasing after Jane.

Jane only revealed a cold smile and ignored Madelyn. Then, Jane got into the car and left.

"Janie!"

Madelyn had an idea and immediately chased after Jane.

The car kept driving forward. Madelyn was running behind in slippers. How could Madelyn catch up?

Before long, Madelyn fell flat on her face heavily to the ground.

Jane knew that Madelyn wanted to play a show to gain the Fowlers' sympathy, so Jane followed Madelyn's wishes.

However, Jane was full of confidence in Madelyn. Jane hoped Madelyn not let her down.

Jane still needed Madelyn to go back and stir up the mess in the Fowler family.

When Peter arrived, he saw Madelyn lying on the ground and crying non-stop.

Then, Peter subconsciously hid

When Peter saw that Jane already disappeared, he secretly heaved a sigh of relief.

Fortunately, Jane did not have any unnecessary conflict with Madelyn.

Then, Peter glanced at Madelyn, who was lying on the ground, and left without any reluctance.

Peter was afraid that he would not control himself to expose Madelyn's fake mask and cause their plan to fail.

After Madelyn finished crying, she got up and limped back to Anna's ward.

Anna finally calmed down under Jack's comfort. She was still waiting for Peter and Madelyn to return. Anna even got impatient because of waiting for too long and wanted to call Henry over to take a look.

Henry was about to speak when Madelyn in a sorry state returned to Anna's ward covered in wounds.

Anna's heart ached when she saw that. "*, how did you become like this?"

"I'm sorry, . I was too . I wanted to chase after Janie and persuade Jane to return to the Fowler family, but I accidentally fell..." "How can that do? Jack, hurry up and take *to treat her wound! has just escaped death. She can't suffer any more damage!"

1..."

Jack did not want to go at all

However, if Jack did not go, Anna might see through something was wrong.

Madelyn saw Jack's hesitation and her heart skipped a beat.

It was just as Jane had said.

If it were in the past, Jack would have already sent someone to bring Madelyn down to treat her wound and would not have been as hesitant as he was now.

Madelyn said softly, "It's okay, . I'll go to the doctor myself. Your health is the most important thing now. Daddy, you should stay here and accompany ***..."

Anna frowned slightly. "How can you go alone? You're seriously injured! I'm worried!"

"I'll go with ***."

Aaron stood up in the end

After all, there had to be someone to accompany Madelyn to see the doctor.

Since Jack was unwilling, Aaron, Jack's son, would do it for him.

"Okay."

After Aaron and Madelyn left, Anna mumbled, "Strange? Why isn't Peter back yet?

Didn't he find Jane and ***?"

"It's Line. Since already back, I will call Peter back later.

"Alright, boys, since your has woken up, you should go and rest."

15-49

Chapter 369

Henry subconsciously said, "Dad, we're not tired..."

Anna could not help but put on a straight face when she heard that. "How can you not be tired? You guys have taken care of me for so long. I finally woke up now. Do you want me to see my sons ill from tiredness helplessly? It's fine as long as your dad is here. When your dad needs to rest, you guys will have to take over!"

“Well... Alright...”

Right now, Anna was the boss. No one dared to go against Anna’s wishes, afraid that Anna would be angry.

The Fowler family’s sons discussed who would take care of Anna at what hours and then left.

“Come, Jane. You should rest too. I’ll watch over you from here. If you need anything, just let me know.”

Jack up the blanket for Anna by the way.

Anna looked at Jack’s beard and dark circles. She said with guilt and worry, “Jack, I’m really sorry that something like this happened. It’s been hard on you”

“Anna, what are you saying? I’m your husband, the man who’s going to spend the rest of my life with you. It’s my responsibility to take care of you like this.

“As for you, you just need to take good care of yourself and recover quickly. I am still waiting to retire with you and live a happy travel life.”

Jack helped Anna lie down. Meeting Jack’s gentle gaze, Anna hesitated for a moment and said, “Jack, did something happen between you and when I was unconscious?”

Jack’s heart skipped a beat. Afraid that Anna would see through something was wrong, Jack forced himself to meet Anna’s gaze in the same way he did in the drill. Jack did not dare to look away and force a smile. “Well... Why would you think that?”

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 370

No Way Back Chapter 370-“I keep feeling that you’ve distanced yourself from Maddie. No, it’s not just you. Henry and the others also... It’s just that no one said it. But I’m afraid Maddie has already sensed it...”

When they were in the ward just now, Anna could be said to have seen through this.

When Anna was unconscious, something must have happened, but Anna didn’t know.

“Maybe it’s because of Jane. When we see Maddie, we’ll think of our debt to Jane. Over time, we won’t know how to face it.”

Jack had already thought of an excuse.

Taking Jane as an excuse did dispel most of Anna’s suspicions.

“Jack, I know what you’re thinking. It’s the same for me. The guilt toward Jane makes me feel very painful, but we can’t place such pain on

Maddie

“Maddie is also our daughter. Do we have to hurt Maddie after forcing Jane away? This is just repeating the same mistake! Jack, promise me! No matter how uncomfortable you are, you have to treat Maddie better. I won’t force you to treat her as well as before. But I just want you to treat her a little better, okay?”

“Alright, Anna, I promise you. Don’t be agitated! I promise you!”

Under Jack’s comfort, Anna slowly closed her eyes.

Anna was already very tired. She had just woken up and so many things had happened.

With Jack’s assurance, Anna could finally rest in peace.

Looking at Anna’s sleeping face, Jack reached out and stroked Anna’s cheek with a worried expression.

“Anna, what exactly should I do? We can no longer go back to the past with Madelyn, but I can’t tell you the truth. You’ll find out one day. When the time comes, can you accept such Madelyn? What should I do to minimize the damage to you?”

On the other side, Aaron sent Madelyn back to the ward. After instructing the caretaker, Aaron wanted to leave.

Madelyn said pitifully. “Aaron, I’m in so much pain... Can you stay with me?”

Aaron avoided Madelyn’s gaze. As soon as he saw Madelyn, Aaron could not help but think of all the lies Madelyn had done in the past. Aaron could not get over it. “I still have to call a doctor for you to treat your wound, Maddie.”

“Just let the caretaker handle this. Besides, there’s a phone number in the ward to specially contact the doctor... I’m begging you, Aaron. I’m really scared. And none of you came to visit me. Aaron, are you really not going to want me like Janie said?”

At that, Aaron was slightly stunned. “Jane? She told you this?”

Aaron’s look instantly made Madelyn feel as if her heart was being cut by a knife. Madelyn did not even need to act. She felt sorrow from the bottom of her heart. “Yes... Aaron, so I’m really afraid. I’m really afraid that you guys will do as Janie said...”

“Don’t think too much. We didn’t think that way. It’s just that something so big happened between you and . We didn’t even have the mood to spend the new year holiday, so our minds are in a mess...”

Aaron was just explaining when his phone suddenly rang.

Aaron saw that it was a call from Henry. After picking up the call, Aaron talked with Henry for a while and then said, “I’m sorry, Maddie. Stay here alone to wait for treating your wound. The doctor will be here soon. Henry has something urgent to discuss with me.”

“What? Aaron...”

Before Madelyn could persuade Aaron to stay, Aaron left the ward as if he was running for his life.

Only Madelyn was left in the ward, remaining silent. Her fists could not help but clench the blanket covering her legs.

The caretaker at the side didn’t know what to say when she saw this. She only felt sorry for Madelyn.

Even if something happened to Mrs. Fowler, she had already woken up, and there were so many people taking care of her.

Why was it that when something happened to Madelyn, no one was willing to stay?

After all, it was their family matter, and it was such a big family. The caretaker understood the principle that trouble came from the . “Miss Madelyn, I’ll go find a doctor for you. The wounds on your body need to be treated...”

“Okay.”

Madelyn lowered her head and responded indifferently. No one knew what Madelyn was thinking now.

The caretaker Could only sigh silently and close the door, leaving enough room for Madelyn.

When Madelyn was alone, she could not help but secretly clench her fists.

“Good Very good. The Fowler family, do you really think that I, Madelyn, have no humanity at all? Do you really think that you can humiliate me at will like this and cause me to cover in wounds physically and ***?”

"I've already given you many chances. Even though I learned such a cruel truth from Jane, I'm still giving you a chance! However, in the end, you really don't care about me at all!

"You are the ones who treat me heartlessly first. Don't blame me for being rude to you!"

Madelyn had to plan for her future.

Currently, the Fowler family already knew about Madelyn's true colors and completely distanced themselves from Madelyn.

Madelyn could roughly guess the reason why they did not come to confront her. It must be because of Anna.

Currently, Anna's existence was an exemption to Madelyn.

Madelyn could rely on Anna to stop the Fowler family from exposing her true colors, helping her enjoy the glory and wealth brought by her

Identity as the Fowler family's daughter.

What was more, Anna was even willing to chase Jane away for Madelyn.

"Should I take the initiative to admit it and regain the Fowlers' favorable impressions... No, this move is too dangerous. If has the same attitude as the Fowlers after knowing the truth, I will really be alone and helpless in the Fowler family!

"I can't stay in the Fowler family for long. I have to take the chance that I am still in the Fowler family to get money as much as I can now!"

At that time, even if she was chased out of the Fowler family, Madelyn would still have the capital to go far away and live a carefree and extravagant life.

The key was to get some money. A lifetime of carefree and extravagant life, as well as the subsequent facial repair and maintenance surgery for Madelyn, all of this added...

Madelyn had to get at least 140 million dollars from the Fowler family.

Otherwise, Madelyn would be too much of a loss.

A figure flashed across Madelyn's mind.

The only one who could help Madelyn do this was him, Chester!

But now, Madelyn had been disfigured.

Madelyn thought of Chester's affectionate gaze when he looked at her in the past.

If Chester knew that Madelyn was already disfigured now, would he still look at Madelyn with that affectionate gaze from back then?

If Chester's eyes were filled with disdain, Madelyn would go crazy.

But if Madelyn didn't go to ask Chester for help, who else could Madelyn look for....

On the other side, when Aaron found Henry, Henry was smoking in the smoking area.

"Henry, why are you looking for me in such a hurry?"

"Nothing."

Henry put out his cigarette and said calmly, "If not, Madelyn will definitely keep you to stay there, right? I'm just helping you find an excuse to leave."
