No Way Back Chapter 381-In Fowler Corporation.

Because of Anna and Madelyn's accident, this time, only Henry, Dwayne, and Sam had gone to Eastshel to handle business. The other four brothers stayed at home to take care of Anna and help with Fowler Corporation's business. Aaron, Quinton, and Johan postponed all the work at hand and focused on Anna's rehabilitation training.

Regarding the business in Fowler Corporation, it was not their job, so they could not help much.

In order for Jack to have more time to manage Fowler Corporation, taking care of Anna was the best help they could do.

On Fowler Corporation's side, Peter had already graduated in advance and started to handle matters as Jack's personal assistant.

Peter even asked Larry over to temporarily help Fowler Corporation tide over the crisis.

In the president's office, Jack could not help but laugh loudly. He was extremely happy

"I didn't expect our country to create the photolithography machine so soon! It's so sudden!

"Good! That's great! Now that the 4-nanometer chip photolithography machine has been born, the country's strength and technology can be greatly enhanced!

"It's also time for Fowler Corporation to consider a new direction!"

Jack looked at the foreign forums that expressed surprise and admiration at the birth of this photolithography machine and smiled to his ears.

"Dad!"

At this , Peter walked in with an invitation.

"Regarding the banquet in Dinsdale in three days, it's an invitation to every outstanding entrepreneur in every city.

"Fowler Corporation received an invitation. The invitee can participate with a family member."

Logically speaking, this invitation was prepared so that the couple could attend

However, with Anna's current situation, it was really not appropriate for her to attend such a banquet.

Jack thought for a and said, "Peter, accompany me when the time comes."

"I understand, Dad, but as for ***..."

"If it weren't for such an important banquet, I wouldn't be willing to leave Anna to go to Dinsdale. This concerns the country's major interests. I want to personally pay my respects to the team members who invented this photolithography machine! This is a rare occasion!

"Peter, you should go and learn some social etiquette!"

"Yes!"

As soon as the trending topic of the birth of the photolithography machine was out, the Fowlers noticed it.

Recently, Anna had been even very happy every day and doing rehabilitation training more actively.

Jack and Anna were examples of patriotic entrepreneurship.

Fowler Corporation established a foundation and was passionate about various public goods. It had a good reputation in Cruksia and had even built more than ten Hope Junior Schools.

It had always been Fowler Corporation's creed to take it for the people and use it for the people as well as help the poor become rich.

Thanks to the support of customers and national policies, Fowler Corporation was able to reach its current scale and reach the top.

Jack and Anna had never forgotten their original intention. Therefore, after learning about the birth of the photolithography machine, they felt more national pride than anyone else. They were proud of this country and the people who worked hard for it.

Then, they immediately made the decision to donate 1.5 million dollars to the Science Foundation Project Team through the foundation.

After Jack and Peter returned to the villa, they told Anna about this.

Anna was also very excited when she heard this. "This is a good thing! Jack, you must participate! Peter, follow your dad and watch him. Don't let him drink too much because he is too happy. I'm afraid of him making a * of himself if he's drunk. At the same time, you should go and learn something! Those who can attend such banquets are all A-list celebrities in Cruksia. It must be helpful to your future growth!"

Jack pouted aggrievedly. "Honey, I won't. I'm already so old. I know my limits."

I've been married to you for so many years. Don't I know your personality? You definitely know your limits at other banquets. It's hard to say at such banquets

Even so, Anna was still happy.

Johan was peeling an apple for Anna. He smiled and said, "That's right, Dad. is the boss in the family now. You should listen to obediently"

Aaron and Quinton carried freshly washed Raish grapes. ", these are purple grapes imported by air today, the Raish grapes. Try them." Peter said seriously. ", this is a rare opportunity. I will definitely seize it and follow your orders to watch Dad, study hard, and make connections!"

Anna touched Peter's face and smiled "Good boy."

"Peter, how could you say that too? You've really learned bad things from your *****..."

Jack looked aggrieved.

Jack wanted to cry. He wanted his precious wife to kiss and comfort him.

It was rare to see the usually serious Jack act like this. Everyone could not help but laugh.

On this side, kinship was warm. The spring light of March was warm and comfortable, and infinite love floated like musical notes

No one noticed Madelyn was hiding at the top of the stairs, watching the Fowlers' happy scene in the living room, and could not blend in at all. Madelyn gritted her teeth so hard that they were about to shatter. She clenched her fists tightly, and her nails dug into the flesh of her palms. It hurt so much, and Madelyn was so angry that she was about to vomit blood

Madelyn didn't even have the right to walk over and say a few words, because it might break this blissful balance.

Madelyn felt that as soon as she went over, she would be treated as an intruder and immediately like a pest.

Once upon a time, such a warm and happy scene was something that Madelyn could easily obtain.

Once upon a time, the Fowlers all centered on Madelyn.

At that time, Madelyn took it for granted. It was as if the entire universe had to center on Madelyn. The sun and moon were both existences that set off Madelyn's happiness and beauty.

When Madelyn saw Jane hiding in a corner and being ignored by everyone, occasionally revealing eyes that flickered with anticipation, desire, and fear, Madelyn's mentality was greatly satisfied.

When Anna found Jane, her biological daughter who had been missing for 19 years, Madelyn was really afraid.

Madelyn was afraid that the position of the Fowler family's daughter would be snatched away by an outsider like Jane.

Jane was the Fowler family's biological daughter who had been missing for 19 years. The Fowlers had spent so much effort, money, and time to find the biological daughter. It would be strange if they did not dote on Jane after she came back.

However, in the end, the Fowlers did not care about Jane at all at that time. They just treated Jane as air and ignored her coldly and violently. The Fowlers still treated Madelyn well and even bullied Jane for Madelyn. They only cared about Madelyn's feelings.

Only Madelyn was the real young lady of the Fowler family, the good daughter of Jack and Anna, and the precious sister of the brothers!

No Way Back Chapter 382-In the eighteen years of harmonious getting along with each other, Madelyn had played the role of a considerate and obedient daughter and sister without any flaws. In the end, Madelyn won the bet. She overestimated Jane at first.

Even though Madelyn was not related to the Fowler family by blood and was adopted by the Fowler family, her status was much higher than that of Jane, the biological daughter by blood who suddenly came back.

Jane was the one who had the Fowler family bloodlines, and Anna had looked for her for so many years. However, the things that Jane had dreamed of but could not obtain seemed so very natural to Madelyn, an existence as normal as air.

Madelyn thought that she was far above Jane and that * Jane was as simple as crushing an ant.

It was originally a comer that belonged to Jane to hide, and no one would care about it.

However, the person here now was changed to Madelyn.

That poor Jane had instead become the beloved one that the Fowlers could never touch.

It was Madelyn's turn to be a pest, the insignificant air that was ignored by everyone, and the existence which others regarded as destroying happiness.

Why?

What exactly went wrong?

The Fowler family's familial love was clearly something that should belong to Madelyn.

Now, Madelyn had become the person who wanted to touch the Fowlers but could never touch them. But Jane became disgustful with them.

Didn't that mean that Madelyn was being stepped hard on by Jane instead?

The pride and complacency from before turned into an invisible slap that ruthlessly slapped Madelyn's face.

God, there must be a mistake somewhere. There must be.

"Miss Madelyn, why are you here?"

When the servant who came to clean saw Madelyn standing at the staircase, she subconsciously spoke.

Madelyn suddenly turned her face away.

The servant gasped in shock and took a few steps back.

Because Madelyn was looking at her with an unprecedented dark and murderous gaze.

Was this still the innocent and kind Madelyn from the servant's memory?

In the blink of an eye, Madelyn retracted her vicious expression.

It was so fast that the servant even thought that she was hallucinating.

Or perhaps Madelyn turned her head so quickly that the servant saw wrongly.

"I just came down. I was thinking about something and was about to look for daddy and ****."

"Jenny, thank you today."

"I'm fine, Miss Madelyn. Go quickly then. Mr. and Mrs. Fowler are in the living room."

Jenny shook her head.

As expected, she had seen wrongly.

This was the real Madelyn, kind and innocent.

Since Jenny had seen Madelyn, Madelyn had no choice but to brace herself and walk into the living room.

As soon as she entered the living room, Madelyn even could feel the change in the air.

"Hello, daddy, , Johan, Aaron, Quinton, Peter"

Madelyn greeted them one by one.

"Maddie, you're here. Quick. There are purple grapes sent from Raish by air today. They're very sweet. Try them!"

Anna smiled and waved at Madelyn warmly.

"Okay Thank you, ***"

Madelyn walked over obediently. Anna took Madelyn's hand, peeled a grape, and personally handed it to Madelyn's . "Open your ***"

Madelyn obediently opened her and swallowed the grape..

Anna asked with concern, "Is it sweet?"

"It's so sweet. , thank you"

Madelyn smiled shyly at Anna.

Jack rubbed his shoulders uncomfortably and said, "Alright, I still have some contracts to deal with. Peter, accompany me into the study." "Okay, Dad."

Jack and Peter quickly slipped away.

They did not want to be restricted by the dreary air and feel uncomfortable.

As for Johan and the others, they did not have such a good opportunity

They could only stay in the living room and watch as Anna and Madelyn chatted and laughed.

Sometimes, they would talk to Anna.

Toward Madelyn, there was a strong distance in their words.

It was as if they were not siblings not long ago, but just friends who were a little more familiar than strangers.

The more Madelyn felt this atmosphere, the more her heart felt like it was suddenly clenched by a big hand. It was so uncomfortable that she could not even breathe.

Madelyn could only find an excuse to run away.

Anna did not ask her to stay and could only watch Madelyn leave with a pitiful gaze

Then, Anna looked at Johan and the others. "Johan, Aaron, Quinton, isn't this too unfair if you're treating Maddie like this?"

"I'm sorry, . That's all we can do. We've told you before. Because of Jane, we can't be as kind as before to Madelyn like you anymore, . We can't get past the barrier in our hearts."

Henry and the others had already found an excuse.

As long as they took Jane as an excuse to reply to Anna, Anna would never be able to continue the topic..

"I... How can I get over that? Jane is my biological daughter who was born after nine months of pregnancy. She was lost as soon as she was born. I've put a lot to find Jane..."

"It wasn't easy for us to find Jane, but I didn't cherish it. I hurt Jane deeply again, making Jane disheartened by the Fowler family. Jane even saved our lives. I owe Jane too much. I can't repay it in this lifetime!"

"I can only force myself to face all of this. Because I have hurt Jane. I don't want to hurt Maddie again. Jane and Maddie are all my precious. daughters. They are all people I should risk my life to protect. This is all I can do..."

As she spoke, Anna felt a lump in her throat, and tears filled her eyes again.

As soon as Anna thought of Jane, who had cut ties with the Fowler family and left the hospital so decisively that day, her heart felt like it was being cut into pieces

Anna also wanted to be like Jack and the others to abandon everything. If she did not face Madelyn, she wouldn't think of Jane, and it wouldn't make her feel so sad.

But Anna couldn't. She couldn't be so selfish to Madelyn. She couldn't.

Seeing this, Johan quickly comforted Anna. "Alright, , I'm sorry. We said the wrong thing. Don't think too much."

Little did they know these words were all heard by Madelyn who had yet to leave.

At that , Madelyn truly understood what it meant by despair.

"So, in heart, I'm just a burden now, a responsibility that must be carried...

"I am just a substitute for Jane. I'm just a substitute for to relieve her loneliness and feel guilty toward Jane!

"Why... Why are they doing this to me? This is unfair to me! It's unfair! I'm already disfigured. But Jane has such a good-looking face and has everything. Besides, the Fowlers look down on me so much and don't care about me. I can't forgive them!"

Madelyn clenched her fists tightly. She was so angry that her entire body was trembling, and her eyes were filled with hatred.

Jane was once the trash that Madelyn looked down on the most and the existence that the Fowler family spurned. But now, Madelyn had become Jane's substitute, while Jane had become the Fowler family's inseparable concern.

Knowing this kind of fact was even worse than Madelyn.

Three days passed in the blink of an eye.

No Way Back Chapter 383-At Austin Castle-style Hotel in Dinsdale, the people who received the invitations stepped on the red carpet. They wore heavy makeup and bright clothes. One by one, they entered this seven-star hotel that was known as the most high-end hotel in Dinsdale, which could be said to be a miracle building.

There were Maybach, Rolls-Royce, and other dazzling luxury cars at the entrance.

The fountain water reflected the faces of people who could cause a huge commotion in various big cities with just a stomp of their feet. This time, it was a special private banquet whose invitations were sent secretly, so no reporters were invited to interview and take photos. To these people, being invited to this gathering was undoubtedly an affirmation from the country, which was a supreme honor. Tomorrow was the day of the worldwide live stream. The members of the photolithography research team would receive the medal, give a speech, and display Cruesia's first 4-nanometer chip.

Logically speaking, with these people's identities, status, and horizons, they had long been trained to remain calm even in the face of danger. Moreover, among them, no one would think highly of each other.

Except for the appearance of that person....

Everyone's eyes involuntarily fell on the man who had a dominating aura.

Hugh got out of the specially customized top-notch Maybach that had just sped over.

The car has the special Stormton City license plate, 10000.

It represented that the man was extremely noble and had an identity much higher than ordinary people.

He was the president of D. Y. Group, the youngest head of the Croft family in history.

He single-handedly led D. Y. Group, which had already reached its peak, to a higher realm, becoming the youngest tycoon on the Forbes' List of Billionaires.

Hugh was so powerful that even Victor, who was super talented and in his prime, was willing to retire. Against all objections, Victor handed the Croft family and D. Y. Group to Hugh.

As soon as Hugh took office, he suppressed everyone with firm and ruthless methods. His swift and decisive style of doing things made people tremble in fear and not dare to offend him.

There was a saying in the business world of Crucsia.

"There's a fixed rule in this game venue, which is that you must not offend Hugh!

"Even if you can't become a business partner with D. Y. Group, you definitely can't become an enemy!"

Once someone was targeted by Hugh, they would have a of peace until they died.

There was no one who wasn't afraid of a mad dog, especially when it was a mad dog with intelligence that knew how to bite through the enemy's throat with only one try

There was once a big shot in Miktin who wanted to compete with D. Y. Group for a landmark worth hundreds of millions of dollars. For this reason, the big shot even used many despicable underground methods and various resources to deal with the D. Y. Group. In the end, they were all resolved by Hugh one by one. The big shot was dealt a huge *. He even had gone mad and jumped off a building later. His company was taken over by D. Y. Group to expand its power in the end.

Such methods were terrifying.

Hugh had so many titles. It would be strange if Hugh wasn't outstanding and eye-catching.

Not to mention Hugh's height which was close to 6 feet 3 inches, his handsome face was attractive enough. The outline of his side profile was like a work of art personally drawn by God with a carving knife.

Hugh was wearing a custom-made black suit, and his long legs were wrapped in his pants which looked quite soft. His figure could be said to be that of a supermodel, which was perfect.

Hugh's lips were sexy and thin, and his eyes were so deep that they seemed to hide the universe. When someone looked into his eyes, their souls would disappear without a trace. Hugh had the aura of a king born to rule the world. Even some noblewomen blushed, and their hearts raced when they saw Hugh, which was as if they had returned to their youth and met their first crush.

Hugh was overwhelmingly charming, and no one could compare him.

This kind of person was born to be a spotlight. Once he appeared, many excellent people in the venue became dim and became a foil.

Hugh looked around and did not see the person he wanted to see, a little disappointed.

Hugh took out his phone and sent a message to Jane as he walked. [Janie, I'm already at Austin Hotel. Where are you?]

After a while, Jane replied. [Take a look around first. I'm putting on makeup for Yale.]

Yale?

A man?

Yale Mitchell?

The main creator of the photolithography machine?

Now, Hugh was even more jealous.

Even the aura around Hugh became incomparably cold

Some people who wanted to build a good relationship with Hugh stopped in their tracks.

They couldn't help but sigh.

It was true that the new generation surpassed the old

Young people nowadays were really overbearing, which made these old men sigh that they were really old.

They had lived for so long, but they were still frightened by Hugh, a young man.

"As expected, no matter what banquet we attend, Hugh will become the center of attention the he appears.

"Sometimes I feel that Hugh is so pitiful. He clearly doesn't want to be noticed by so many people, but his aura is so strong that people can't help but look at him. Don't you think so, Connor?"

Not getting the expected response, Robert frowned slightly and tentatively called out again, 'Connor?'

Robert then saw Connor recording videos and taking photos everywhere.

Robert could not help but complain. "*, Mr. Luther, you've been to this kind of banquet at least dozens of times, right? Why are you taking photos as if you were here for the first time? How humiliating is that? You're simply getting worse the more you live!"

Connor did not look at Robert and said calmly, "No, I took photos for her to see. She sent me messages on WeChat, saying she wants to see it." Robert was speechless.

Could they still be friends now?

Now that Hugh and Connor were no longer single, Robert seemed redundant.

One day, Robert would also have to find a girlfriend. Then, the three would get out of singlehood together. At that time, Hugh and Connor would have no chance to laugh at Robert.

When Robert was still arguing with Connor, another black Bugatti Veyron pulled up in front of the hotel.

The two people who got out of the car were Jack and Peter.

“There are quite a lot of people invited this time...”

The Jack and Peter got out of the car, their gazes were fixed on the back of Hugh in front of them.

They were both the top corporations in Stormton City, but D. Y. Group’s foundation was far beyond what Fowler Corporation could reach. There were four major families in Stormton City, the Fowler family, the Luther family, the Shane family, and the Croft family.

Among them, the Croft family was the most terrifying existence.

The gap between the Croft family and the other three was like a chasm.

These were the game rules that everyone acknowledged.

The reason why there was such a desperate distance was not just that Victor had laid a good foundation for the Croft family back then.

It was also because after fighting with Hugh, none of them and their descendants felt that they could be enemies with Hugh.

“Dad, I remember that Hugh helped Jane when you were fighting a lawsuit against Jane back then...”

“What exactly is his relationship with Jane?”

Peter whispered.

“Who knows? At the *, Fowler Corporation hasn’t had much business involvement with D. Y. Group since we fell out due to that incident. “However, I didn’t expect Hugh to be related to Jane. We really know too little about Jane.

“I’m afraid...”

Speaking of which, Jack paused.

Peter asked curiously, “Dad, what are you afraid of?”

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 384

No Way Back Chapter 384-Jack sighed softly and said in a voice that only the two of them could hear, "I am afraid that Hugh has taken a fancy to Jane

Peter's eyes widened. "What? Dad, is that really possible? I admit that Jane is capable and good looking, but that's Hugh! He's the person in charge of the Croft family!"

If Hugh really got together with Jane, the people of the Croft family would strongly oppose it immediately when they knew it. They would think that Jane was not worthy of Hugh.

"Everyone has their own loved one. Back then, when I was with your *, your grandparents strongly opposed it. In the end, we resolved all the problems. It's just that someone like Hugh is too high-ranking and dangerous. Being by his side is no different from being with a king in ancient times

"It's better to be safe than sorry. I'm really afraid that Jane and Hugh are emotionally involved. It's not easy to be Hugh's wife. With so many people watching it's easy to dodge an open attack, but difficult to guard against a hidden trick. I'm afraid that Jane's life will be in danger because of this!"

This danger did not only come from the Croft family, but also from the outside world, and even more so from Hugh.

Hugh had the power over life and death, and he was well known in the business world for being cold-blooded and heartless, more terrifying than a living King of Hell. Hugh was even No one dared to provoke Hugh for fear of getting

***.

It was clear that Jane, who had inherited Jack's stubborn character, was in great danger with such a man.

Once Jane resisted Hugh, Hugh would be furious and hurt Jane. Just thinking about that result made Jack tremble.

Hearing Jack's words, Peter also felt that this matter was too dangerous.

If so, Jane's life would be in danger.

In that case, they had to warn Jane as soon as possible.

But...

"If that's the case, Dad, what can we do? Jane doesn't forgive us and has already cut ties with the Fowler family. If we suddenly go explain the stakes to Jane, it will only make Jane resist and us even more. In the end, in order to show her revolt to us, she might want to be together with Hugh even more."

Peter's eyes dimmed a lot.

They no longer had the status and qualifications to say such things to Jane.

When Jane came to the hospital to visit Anna, it was Jack who knelt down and begged her before Jane agreed.

"If things really get to that point, I'll break up Jane and Hugh even if I have to lose my dignity!

"I've already been wrong once. I can't be wrong again. Even if Jane will never forgive me, I can't watch Jane jump into a fire pit like the Croft family!

"If this goes wrong, she might end up like Diane. She'll die! I'd rather she me for the rest of her life than die and really leave our world!"

Jack could not help but secretly clench his fists.

Back then, Jack was a hypocritical father. Just as Jane had said, Jack was headstrong and blind. He hurt Jane and trusted Madelyn wrongly. He even humiliated and framed Jane again and again. He was simply shameless to the extreme for his so-called dignity.

Jack deserved it no matter what the outcome was. He was already mentally prepared.

However, this time, Jack had to use his identity as a true father to save his daughter.

Jack had to make up his mind.

"Dad"

"Peter, don't tell your *about this for the time being in case she worries. Anna should be focusing on rehabilitation training now. Things aren't that irreversible yet. Let's wait and see!"

"Yes!"

Peter also secretly made up his mind.

To protect Jane's life, as a brother, Peter was willing to give up everything, even if it was opposing Hugh.

In the spare dressing room at Austin Hotel, Jane did not know about the thoughts of Jack and Peter, two troublemakers.

Jane personally put makeup on Yale and nodded, satisfied.

“Here, take a look. Yale, do you like it?”

The makeup Jane did for Yale was very plain which perfectly accentuated the noble skull of Yale.

Yale was unsmiling and always hid his emotions at the bottom of his heart. Coupled with the fact that he had not been able to speak for a long time, there were traces of facial paralysis.

However, Yale was too good looking When he pursed his lips slightly and looked into the distance, he exuded a sense of wisdom that ordinary people could not compare to Yale’s eyes were filled with the stars of the universe. He could see more and further than ordinary people. His eyes were filled with stories. “Jane, it’s very nice...”

Yale’s hoarse voice was filled with gentleness.

“As long as you think it’s nice. Come, Yale. Put on your suit and I’ll put on a tie for you. You’re the main character today!

161204

“I just didn’t expect Eden to be so social phobic. He ran straight to sleep when he saw so many people.”

Jane brought the specially customized black suit for Yale to wear and chose a blue tie with many little stars on it. Then, Jane personally tied it for Yale while complaining about Eden.

“I don’t really want to participate either...”

Yale looked helpless.

For banquets like this, Yale had always kept a distance.

Moreover, in order to protect a top scientist like Yale, the country did not recommend Yale to appear in public.

However, the birth of Crucsia’s 4 nanometer chip photolithography machine had already shocked the entire world.

Yale had to show up even if he didn't want to.

"It's okay, Yale. I'm by your side. I'll be your bodyguard and spokesperson. It's just a banquet. It'll be over soon."

Jane raised her eyebrows and smiled brightly.

Yale rubbed Jane's head, using actions to represent words.

[I'll leave it to you then, Jane.]

At Austin Hotel, everyone gathered together in joy.

Jack also found his business partner and chatted enthusiastically.

At this *, a figure barged in unexpectedly.

Jack's eyes lit up. "Mr. Lewis! Why are you here?"

This man was the owner of Hotel Molov in Eastshel, having power over petroleum economics in Eastshel. He was the chairman of Lewis Group, Shawn Lewis

Shawn was also present when Hotel Molov was held hostage by terrorists. He had interacted with the Fowler family, and they had a good relationship

Shawn was wearing a tailor-made dark red suit with a brooch on his chest. He raised the Lafite from 1982 in his hand and smiled. "Why? Mr. Fowler, since you can come here, can't I? Huh?"

"I don't mean that of course. It's just that I didn't expect to meet you here... It must take you much time to come to Dinsdale from Eastshel, right?"

"I have to come no matter how far away I am! Since the country is thinking about me and is willing to send me an invitation, I'm so pleased to personally witness the members of the photolithography research team! It's a national blessing. How can I not come personally?"

As an overseas Crucsian, Shawn was famous for being a patriotic entrepreneur.

Over the years, Shawn had donated a lot of money, materials, advanced equipment, scientists, and funds to Crucsia.

When Shawn was young, he had even participated in the army, fought on the battlefield, bore the brunt of guns, and protected the country with planes and cannons.

Shawn even received the Patriotic Peace Medal personally issued by Crucsia. He was a person who had been to the national auditorium.

No matter where he was, Shawn was an existence that was extremely respected.

It wasn't just because of his money and power. It was also because of Shawn's sincere patriotism that moved everyone.

"I took the initiative to look for you this time because I have something to ask you, Mr. Fowler.

*Jane Fowler is your daughter, right?"

No Way Back Chapter 385-Jane?

Jack and Peter were slightly stunned when they heard this.

Why did Shawn suddenly mention Jane?

Jack said carefully, "Mr. Lewis, it's true that Jane is my daughter. May I ask why you are looking for Jane?"

"Mr. Fowler, may I have a word with you alone?"

"Of course."

Jack gave Peter a look, and Peter nodded.

Jack followed Shawn to the circular windowsill with a glass of wine.

Looking at the bright moonlight outside, the fountain water, the endless green lawn, and the dazzling lights, Shawn then said, "Mr. Fowler, I've already investigated the person who helped the police in Eastshel hack into the Hotel Molov's network and saved us that day was Jane!"

Jack secretly heaved a sigh of relief. I see. It's because of this..."

"Looking at your expression, Mr. Fowler, you don't seem to be surprised by this fact. You knew about it long ago, right?"

*To be honest, I thought Jane had offended you. That's right. My eldest son, Henry, told me about this, She saved my wife and my son. I'm very grateful to her,"

“Mr. Fowler, you were really thinking too much just now. How could Jane offend me? I’ve never met her before. Now, she’s even the savior of Lewis Group and me! Back then, such a huge thing happened, and the entire world was shaken. There were so many people in the hotel at that time. If anything happened to anyone, I can’t bear the responsibility!”

At this point, Shawn still had a little lingering fear.

Crucsians, who came to attend the banquet at the Hotel Molov that day, were all rich and powerful.

Strictly speaking, people like Henry and Anna were considered inferior among the guests.

Even if Shawn did not expect this to happen, it was still Shawn’s hotel where the accident happened. Besides, it was a Crucsians Fellowship Party held by Shawn!

If something really happened, Shawn could not afford to bear the consequences at all.

“If it weren’t for Jane’s help, the police couldn’t have wiped out the terrorists with zero casualties. I didn’t come back just to attend this banquet, but also to see Jane and thank her! This is really a huge favor for me. I don’t know when I’ll have to repay this favor!”

“That’s... That’s great, but Mr. Lewis, you should have investigated. Between the Fowler family and Jane... To be honest, we’re the ones who let Jane down. If you are going to meet Jane, you’d better not mention us. Otherwise, Jane will be angry.”

Speaking of this, Jack also looked worried and could not help but sigh.

“Each family has their own squabbles. After all, this is the Fowler family’s family matter, so it’s not appropriate for me to ask. However, seeing you like this, Mr. Fowler, I can see that you have realized your mistake and sincerely repented. I believe that as long as you persist, Jane will be touched one day. No matter what, you’re biological father and daughter.”

Seeing this situation, Shawn could only say some unimportant comforting words.

Jack smiled bitterly. “I hope so. I don’t dare to look forward to this anymore.”

Recalling the past, Jack only hoped that Jane would not the Fowler family more..

Jack didn’t dare to ask for anything else.

At this *, cheers came from the hotel.

“Looks like the team members have appeared. Let’s go in and take a look.”

“Okay”

Jack and Shawn returned to the hotel.

The Wetanean castle-style ball could accommodate 5,000 people.

It was extremely spacious, bright, and filled with all kinds of drinks and desserts.

At this *, under the circular sprinkler platform in front of them, there were already SWAT officers in plain clothes patrolling.

This operation was personally led by Clarence.

The lights gradually dimmed.

“Ladies and gentlemen, good evening. Welcome to this banquet. I am...”

An opening statement that couldn't be more than familiar was mixed with a Yalondish interpretation.

The host knew that the people below were all super big shots. After the opening statement, he did not dare to waste too much time and immediately said, “Next, let us welcome the research members of Cruksia's photolithography machine to appear one by one!*

Everyone applauded and looked expectant

After the few members in charge of studying the photolithography machine at the base in Harbor City appeared, the host introduced them in terms of their professions and names.

“In the end, let's welcome, Mr. Mitchell, Yale Mitchell, the person in charge of the photolithography machine's study!”

When Yale stepped onto the platform, everyone was shocked.

Were they seeing it wrongly?

The person in charge of the 4-nanometer chip photolithography machine project research was actually a handsome man at such a young age? They thought that it would be an old professor who had won the Nobel Prize.

When the host gave a systematic introduction about Yale, Yale's expression remained very calm.

Then, Yale bowed slightly and left.

Yale didn't say a word the whole time

After a short interlude, everyone was discussing the person named Yale Mitchell.

What kind of genius was this to be able to take on such a heavy responsibility at such a young age?

Yale even did what ordinary people thought was impossible.

In a clearly gloomy mood. Hugh was standing in a corner, waving a glass of red wine in his hand.

When the surrounding people saw Hugh like this, even if they wanted to muster up the courage to greet Hugh, they were scared away.

Hugh was like a child who had not received a reward.

Robert came to Hugh's side with a glass of wine at this time. Robert looked charming and handsome in his white suit. He took the initiative to clink glasses with Hugh's "Hugh, why do you look so unhappy? As if someone owes you tens of billions? What the hell?"

Hugh took a sip of red wine and said, "Nothing..."

"You're still saying that it's nothing? Didn't you notice that your surroundings are very empty? Even no one dares to approach you.

"Everyone thinks you look like you want to someone. Only a suicide squad member like me dares to take the initiative to talk to you. Otherwise, I think you're really going to someone."

Robert complained.

Robert really should have taken a photo of Hugh like this with his phone and shown it to Hugh to see.

Then, Hugh would have no excuse to still deny it.

"Where is Connor?"

"Ah! Don't mention that bastard! I'm going to cut ties with him! This guy ignored me today and kept staring at his phone to chat with a woman Didn't he just find a woman he likes? What's so great about him? He doesn't even want his friend anymore!

"People always say that women are like clothes, and friends are like hands and feet. There are so many women in the world. But there are only a few friends who know him well. We can be said to have known each other since we were little. He actually ignores me because of a woman! He ignores me! When did I suffer such humiliation before? I'm so angry!"

Robert complained a lot about Connor, venting the frustration and anger in his heart in one go.

After saying that, Robert instantly felt relieved and much happier.

"He has a woman he likes? Who is it?"

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 386

No Way Back Chapter 386-To be honest, there were very few things in this world that could surprise Hugh.

The matter that Connor had found a woman he liked did surprise Hugh.

Robert pursed his lips. "Who knows? He treasures her so much that he won't say anything until they really get together. He is so mysterious about it. Isn't he just trying to show off in front of a single man like me?"

Hugh said calmly, "Robert, you're not young anymore. It's time for you to find a suitable woman. Once you touch the joy of meeting someone you love deeply, you won't be able to quit and escape"

Robert looked at Hugh as if he was looking at a monster.

", Hugh, if you said this in the past, I would definitely think that you were crazy! This is not the Hugh I know at all!

"If I record it and let your subordinates or close friends hear what you said just now, they will definitely think that I made it up with an AI voice. No one would believe that!"

If Robert hadn't heard it with his own ears, he wouldn't believe that Hugh would say something like Robert's elders meeting each year during the new year to remind Robert to get married and have children as soon as possible!

That was Hugh, D Y Group's president, the head of the Croft family. In the past, he did not believe in love the most. Hugh once thought that love could just add to his worries and weaknesses, and it was just an idiotic way to move himself. Women were just tools for Hugh to carry on the family line. How could there be any so-called love?

As long as Hugh stood there, countless women would throw themselves at him. Those who wanted to climb into bed Hugh could line up a long line

Hugh glanced at Robert coldly. "You can choose to listen or not."

"I will listen to you. Hugh, I know that you care about me in your heart. You have a place for me, unlike that bastard Connor who forgets me after having a woman."

Robert spoke coquettishly. He smiled and wanted to put his arm around Hugh's shoulder. However, he was frozen in place by Hugh's murderous gaze. Robert then could only retract his hand resentfully and touch his pants.

"However, Hugh, it's so difficult to find a woman I like. Logically speaking, I've seen many women of all races and countries. I've tried to communicate with many of them, but I haven't had the kind of palpitating heart and soul connection. It's just a need for physical complementarity. They only want my body and money..."

"Is there any way to quickly find a woman I like? Why don't you introduce some to me? I see that you and Connor seem to be quite distracted after having a woman you like. I also want to try the feeling of being hurt by love! In the future, when I write my autobiography, it will be more immersive!"

"I don't know. Go to hell."

Hugh was indeed Hugh.

The words of Hugh's concern for Robert just now seemed to be a dream.

In the next second, Hugh returned to the man who could torture Robert to death in the past.

"Although it hurts to be scolded by you, you are still Hugh I know. You haven't changed at all.

"Damn it... I'm actually a little happy when I realize this. Could it be that I'm suffering from masochism? No! I'm a normal man!"

Just as Robert was having all sorts of thoughts, Hugh's phone vibrated.

It was a special prompt tone.

Upon hearing this tone, Hugh immediately took out his phone.

It was as if there was urgent news waiting for Hugh on the other end of the phone.

After Hugh saw the message, his cold expression as if someone owed him tens of billions instantly melted.

Hugh was about to leave silently.

“Hugh, where are you going? Wait for me.”

“I’m going to see Janie. Why are you following me? Go play somewhere else.”

Robert could only stare dumbfounded at Hugh’s departing figure.

This time, it was not an illusion.

Hugh really smiled happily.

And Hugh’s Baunting tone in front of Robert....

Ah!

Hugh was indeed showing off their love in front of Robert, a single man.

Robert thought that Hugh was different from Connor, but in the end, they were both the same. ****!

Hugh arrived at an empty corridor on the second floor of the Austin Hotel.

At this *, a pair of soft hands reached out from behind Hugh and pressed his eyes.

A playful voice floated over. “Guess who I am?”

When sensing the familiar fragrance on the person behind him, Hugh smiled slightly.

“Janie, why did you make me wait so long?”

15

Jane had never appeared. Hugh was so distracted.

It was not easy for them to meet, but in the end, Jane stood him up for so long.

It must be playing hard to get. This was the first time in Hugh’s life that he had tasted the torture of waiting.

It came from the woman Hugh loved deeply.

Hugh turned around, grabbed Jane’s little hand, and pulled her into his arms.

Hugh greedily sucked on the fragrance of the woman in his arms

Hugh had already waited for too long for this hug. He could not stand it anymore.

"I can't help it. Yale is the main character today. I have to accompany him no matter what, right?"

"I took the time out of my busy schedule to see you. You have to be grateful!"

Jane obediently stayed in Hugh's arms.

Jane felt the warmth and heartbeat of the man she loved the most and became a weak woman.

Jane never wanted to become powerful enough to face all the storms alone.

That would be too tiring.

However, after experiencing too many disgusting and harmful things, Jane had to disguise herself and become stronger.

Jane only wanted to hide under someone else's umbrella and be a person who only needed to enjoy life and waited for the end of her whole life.

Jane wanted to live every day leisurely and do what she wanted to do without thinking too much.

Jane only wanted to care about the current time.

In the future, someone would hold Jane's hand firmly and run toward each delicate and blissful day that had been waiting for them for a long.

Gradually, after Jane was reborn, she left the Fowler family and found her senior brothers, Rain, as well as Hugh who she loved and also loved her deeply.

"Hugh..."

"Yeah."

"Hugh..."

"I'm here."

It was as if Jane wanted to confirm the existence of Hugh, making sure that it was not an illusion, but a real one.

Just like that, Hugh hugged Jane, giving Jane the greatest sense of security in the world.

From then on, even if the world collapsed, Hugh would be by Jane's side, blocking the falling sky and allowing Jane to play as she pleased. This time, the scorching warmth in their chest did not come from the calls of Type Omega blood from the two of them.

It was simply a woman's attachment and love for a man that resonated.

Their hug was very simple.

Just like that, Hugh hugged Jane tightly.

Jane's side profile sank deep into Hugh's chest.

Hugh rested his chin on Jane's head and wrapped his arms around her slender waist like a gentleman.

In the dim corridor, only the moonlight shone..

The commotion below and the bustling lights of the city had nothing to do with them.

They were an isolated island isolated from the rest of the world. They only needed to be with each other and exist in this quiet corridor. That was enough.

It was almost April in Dinsdale. When the wind blew, it was still bleak and cold.

However, in the warm embrace of the two of them, it seemed so insignificant. Without saying much, they shared their thoughts about each other through the hug.

After all, Hugh and Jane had never stopped chatting.

They were like a couple in a long-distance relationship.

They could finally see each other and hug each other.

Amidst the silence, there was warmth and heartbeats in this embrace.

It could turn into thousands of words.

In a year, there was the spring breeze in March, the summer rain in June, the autumn leaves in September, and the frost and snow in December. They would accompany each other all year round. Hugh would hold Jane's hand and slowly walk past, seeing the prosperity of the world and snuggling up with each other.

They would never leave and never abandon each other.

No Way Back Chapter 387-The two of them hugged like this for a long time.

Until a ringtone broke the atmosphere that seemed to freeze time and space.

Jane reluctantly pulled away from Hugh's arms and took out her phone. It was a message from Yale.

Yale asked where Jane was.

Jane quickly replied [In the toilet.] Then, Jane waved the phone in her hand at Hugh. She stuck out her tongue and said playfully, "I have to go back and be the bodyguard, Hugh."

Hugh held Jane's hand and said willfully, "Can you not go back?"

After tasting such warmth, how could Hugh bear to let go?

Hugh wished he could crush Jane in his arms for the rest of his life and make a golden cage to lock Jane up forever.

Hugh wanted Jane to only belong to him forever.

A light flickered in Hugh's deep eyes.

"No. I still have to help Yale go up to give a speech tomorrow. I still have to discuss with Yale about the speech later. Don't look at me like this. I'm very busy. Of course, I can't compare to a busy person like you, the president of D. Y. Group..."

Looking at Hugh's reluctant expression, Jane thought of something. "But I lied to Yale. Since Yale thinks I'm in the toilet, he won't rush me. Do you want to say something? It feels a little boring to just hug like this!"

Actually, Jane could not bear to leave Hugh so soon.

"Okay."

Hugh held Jane's hand and interlocked their fingers. The two of them crossed the corridor and arrived at the rooftop

As soon as they walked out of the hotel, the noisy wind blew like a violent storm.

However, staying by Hugh's side made Jane feel very safe. The wind was completely blocked by Hugh's body.

Jane leaned against Hugh to hide from the wind at ease.

“Wow, Hugh, look at the sky!”

Jane suddenly pointed at the sky.

Hugh looked in the direction Jane was pointing at and saw a sky full of stars as well as a full moon hanging in the sky.

The stars flickered and glowed, very beautiful.

If it were the previous Hugh, even if he saw such a beautiful night sky, he would not be moved at all.

In Hugh's eyes, all the beautiful sceneries were just clouds in the past which could not stimulate any ripples in his heart. But now, Hugh had Jane by his side.

Hugh saw Jane's happy smile. He then looked at the starlight under the same sky as Jane.

Such a beautiful scene fell into Hugh's eyes and turned into a rainbow-colored fairy tale.

It was extremely beautiful.

It turned out that the beautiful scenery in the world could be so different because of a change in mentality brought about by a person.

The things that Hugh used to look down on started to be different now because of Jane.

Hugh's mentality became calmer and calmer. He was no longer as cold as before as a pool of stagnant water without any ripples.

Hugh began to pay attention to the bits and pieces around him and discovered many details that Hugh usually saw but ignored.

All of this was the transformation that Jane had brought to Hugh.

Hugh knew that this would make him have a huge weakness, and it was the way he had always despised in the past.

But for the sake of Jane, Hugh was willing to change.

Jane was still talking to herself, “Is it beautiful? The view in the suburbs is indeed bright and spacious. We can't see such scenery in the city.”

Suddenly, Jane was kissed on the cheek.

Jane reacted and covered her face. “Hugh, you ambushed me! No morals!”

Hugh smiled Janie, if you like it, I'll buy the naming rights of a star and give it to you"

"How can it be that simple? The naming rights of the stars now can only be obtained by the person who discovers a new star!"

"It's fine. I'll immediately invest 4 billion dollars to build rocket spaceships to explore the universe. The future era is the era of the universe. There will always be a star that others haven't discovered. I'll give it to you."

*! Hugh was really rich and willful! He even could invest 4 billion dollars so easily!

Jane tiptoed and poked Hugh's forehead "Alright, I'm looking forward to it."

A special gift with a right to name a star it felt pretty good

Hugh said gently, "It's windy in the suburbs at night. Is it cold? Shall I put some clothes on you?"

"I'm not a baby. Moreover, I have you, a protective umbrella that can shelter me from the wind and rain, by my side. I'm not afraid. You have to be prepared to be my man, Hugh. In the future, you can't go against me at any time. You have to listen to my orders and be obedient

*Also, even if the entire world stands against me, you have to stand by my side and help me fight against the world. No matter if it's right or wrong, you have to support me brainlessly. You can't resist."

"Okay."

No matter how many willful requests Jane made, Hugh would always give this answer without hesitation.

Jane smiled 'Really? Although your quick reply is commendable, I still have to spend some time observing if you can do it."

"Then how about spending the rest of your life with me so that you can observe me carefully? Don't look away. Don't leave me. I'll prove to you. that, Janie, for the rest of my life, you'll be more important than my life."

"Alright, I'll wait and see."

Under the moonlight, in front of Hugh stood a woman who was smiling so brightly. She was so beautiful that no one in the world could compare her.

She had light makeup on her face, fair cheeks, red lips that smiled slightly, long hair that fluttered in the wind, slightly long eyelashes, and clear eyes that reflected Hugh's face.

Everything intertwined to form the image of the woman Hugh loved in his heart.

"Then shouldn't you give me a reward?"

Hugh moved closer and closer.

Hugh's magnetic and deep voice was as alluring as a poppy in the night.

"Then, what reward do you want?"

"Janie, you know. Don't make me suffer anymore."

Hugh stared at Jane's red lips.

Hugh had secretly kissed Jane's cheek just now.

It was not satisfying.

Hugh thought about how sweet the taste of Jane's lips was, and his Adam's apple moved slowly.

Saliva exchange during a kiss was the sweetest pheromones.

Jane tapped her lips with her fingertips and said, "Then say something nice to make me happy and I'll kiss you."

*Janie, I've read a paragraph written by Mr. Morgan before. At that time, I didn't care about it at all and even despise it. However, after meeting you, I thought of this paragraph. I flipped through it and read it again and again carefully. Now, I want to tell you.

"Between the green mountains and the clear water, there is a bridge. I want to hold your hand and walk across this bridge. There are green leaves and red flowers on the bridge, and under the bridge are many houses. On one end of the bridge is young us, and on the other end is old us."

Jane's heart skipped a beat. "Using the paragraph of Love to Emma to trick me?"

Hugh did not answer. He just held Jane's hand and used his other hand to hook Jane's hair.

Just like that, Hugh's lips landed on Jane's

As soon as Jane touched such a sweet taste, she could no longer resist and push Hugh away.

In an instant, Jane fell into the abyss of sweetness.

The moonlight was flawless, and the spring light was limitless.

A sweet kiss ended.

No Way Back Chapter 388-"Alright, I'm going to look for Yale. I don't want him to worry. Hugh, go play by yourself first."

Hugh pursed his lips. "If he is worried, so be it. You are an adult. You won't go missing..."

Hugh still didn't like the fact that Jane cared about other men.

Hugh wanted to occupy Jane's heart and wanted Jane to only care about him.

"Hugh, don't be willful. Anyway, we've made a deal. The rest of our life is so long. I have many, many opportunities to slowly look at you."

"Alright..."

Hugh would try to put down his overbearing temper and accept the things and people around Jane in a more tolerant manner.

It felt very difficult. It was as if to change Hugh's deep-rooted personality.

But Hugh would work hard to do it for Jane.

At this *, Peter happened to come up to take a breather.

After all, Peter had just graduated and had not officially participated in the company's running and management.

In such a high-end banquet, Peter really had to be careful when talking to those cunning old men in the business world who had long been trained not to show their emotions. It was like walking on thin ice, very dangerous.

Peter was afraid that if he said something wrong and did not realize the meaning behind their words, it would bring unnecessary trouble to Jack.

“So, this’s what Henry has experienced back then... I’m really too inexperienced.

“In the past, I always wanted to accept Henry’s protection at ease and pursue my dreams.

“I’m really too selfish. Jane was right.”

Peter laughed at himself.

Peter had always wanted to help the family, but in the end, he had always been silently protected by the family

Peter already felt suffocated just by accompanying Jack to attend such a gathering for A-list celebrities.

From this, it could be seen how much pressure and expectations Henry had to bear as the eldest son in the family.

However, Henry had never said these words to his younger brothers.

Henry had always protected them with the image of the eldest brother, who could handle anything and remain calm in any situation.

In the Fowler family, it was not as competitive as in other wealthy families. They would not fight with each other just for the position of chairman of Fowler Corporation.

So, Peter now deeply felt that he did not just owe Jane.

Unknowingly, Peter had owed too many people.

It was rare for Peter to want to get a cigarette to smoke.

Otherwise, Peter would not be able to vent the frustration in his heart.

When Peter wanted to light a cigarette, from the corner of his eye, he seemed to have caught sight of two figures.

Then, Peter’s pupils constricted.

These two people...

One of them could not be seen clearly in the darkness.

The other figure could not be forgotten even if Peter died.

It was Jane.

The two of them looked like they didn't bear to part away.

Peter immediately thought of it

Was that man Hugh?

Did their ominous premonition come true?

Just as Peter was thinking. Jane and Hugh had been separated.

The first to walk toward Peter was Hugh

When Hugh saw Peter, he narrowed his eyes and revealed a dangerous aura.

Just the dark aura that exuded from Hugh's body as that of a king descending into another world by force could already make Peter feel suffocated

Peter's heart felt like it was being held by a pair of invisible hands.

The feeling in his body clearly told Peter that the man in front of him was an existence that he absolutely could not afford to provoke.

Hugh's danger coefficient was many times higher than Henry's!

No wonder tonight's banquet, which gathered all the top entrepreneurs in the country, was centered on Hugh's emotions. No one dared to provoke Hugh, and everyone wanted to befriend Hugh.

Hugh walked up to Peter and stood still. "Why are you here?"

This sentence indirectly expressed Hugh's disdain for Peter.

Jane didn't care about the Fowlers and already cut ties with the Fowler family.

Hugh would *anyone who Jane ***.

The reason why Hugh did not continue to attack the Fowler family was that Jane wanted to play this game herself.

"Mr. Croft, the person you met just now was Jane, right? What's your relationship with Jane?"

"What right do you have to know about my relationship with Janie? Peter, do you think you're still Janie's brother?" Hugh said coldly.

"Janie? Is your relationship with Jane already that close?"

It was as if a bolt of lightning had struck Peter.

When he went to eat with Madelyn in the past, Peter had seen Hugh and Jane together.

However, Peter did not expect that Hugh and Jane would really develop to this extent as Jack had feared.

“I don’t have to answer any of your questions.”

Hugh was about to leave after saying it.

At this *, Peter gritted his teeth. He did not know where he got the courage, but he stood out to stop Hugh.

“Mr. Croft, with all due respect, it’s impossible for you to give Jane happiness. I don’t want my sister to be played by others! How can a family like the Croft family accept Jane?”

With such a stubborn personality, if Jane married into the Croft family, it would only cause trouble for her and might even put her life in danger. “I’ll naturally protect my woman. I’m the one in charge of the Croft family now. If I want to marry anyone, I don’t need anyone’s approval or opposition.

*Also, Janie said that she has nothing to do with the Fowler family. Peter, stop pushing your luck and calling yourself Janie’s brother!” Peter knew that he was not in a position to say these words. Facing Hugh’s humiliation, Peter was powerless to refute.

But Peter clenched his fists tightly. He felt he was Jane’s brother forever. The blood in his body was boiling as he looked up and met Hugh’s cold and hunting gaze fearlessly.

“I know Jane would never forgive the Fowler family. But it doesn’t matter. The Fowler family has made too many wrong things against Jane. So, in this matter, we cannot be wrong again...”

Bang!

Peter had yet to finish speaking and a punch already landed on his face.

Peter was caught off guard and was punched to the ground by Hugh.

Peter lost a tooth and spat out a  of blood.

Because this punch came too suddenly and too forcefully, Peter even felt that half of his face was numb.

Hugh lowered his eyes, his gaze as cold as the moonlight.

"If it weren't for Jane, because of what you said just now, I might have already turned you into a corpse that would never speak again.

"Usually, I don't care about trash like you at all. Also, I don't need trash like you to teach me what to do!"

Hugh's tone was cold and emotionless.

Hugh was as if just telling Peter about a natural law that was like the sun rising in the east and setting in the west.

Such an impudent tone showed that Hugh did not take Peter seriously at all.

As long as Hugh wanted, he could destroy the entire Fowler family as well as Fowler Corporation easily.

Of course, Peter did not doubt that Hugh had such an ability.

In just a short exchange, Peter had already submitted and didn't dare to move.

Hugh straightened his suit and stepped on the back of Peter's hand.

Ignoring Peter's screams, Hugh left.

Peter was left alone on the ground like a homeless dog.

It took Peter a long time to regain some strength. Then, he stood up shakily.

Fear of Hugh down to his bone arose in Peter's heart.

No Way Back Chapter 389-The banquet ended.

Jack sat in the car and looked at his watch. He waited anxiously and frowned.

Why wasn't Peter back yet?

He sent a message to Peter, and Peter said that something had happened and that Peter would be here soon.

It was already 11 p.m.

At this *, the car door opened.

Peter sat in.

“Peter, where did you go? Why did you appear so late?”

“No.. your face...”

Jack realized that something was wrong

“Peter! What happened to your face? Why did it become like this?”

“I’m fine. Dad, it was dark upstairs just now. I was feeling a little depressed and wanted to go out for some fresh air. I accidentally fell...” “Impossible! How could you fall like this? Peter, are you still hiding it from me at a time like this? Your face was obviously hit by someone!”

Jack spoke with absolute certainty.

Peter thought of Hugh’s cold and emotionless face. He was afraid that Jack would find out about Hugh and Jane. He was also afraid that Jack would settle scores with Hugh after Jack knew Hugh hit Peter.

It was not that Peter did not want revenge, but Hugh was too dangerous!

If things went wrong, the entire Fowler family would be ruined together!

“Dad, why would you think that? This is Austin Hotel! The people who come here are all top figures in various cities, and they don’t have any hatred for me. How could they attack me for no reason?”

“Well...”

Peter was telling the truth.

But these marks... No matter how Jack looked at them, he did not believe that Peter got hurt himself.

Since Peter insisted that no one hit him, Jack could only believe Peter’s words.

“Have you treated your wounds? Do you want to go to the hospital?”

“There’s no need, dad. I’ve already asked the doctor in the hotel to help me deal with it. The swelling will subside tomorrow. We still have to rush to Cruksia to participate in the live stream ceremony of the production team of the 4-nanometer chip photolithography machine. We have to rest early. We can’t be delayed by such things.”

“Fine...”

Jane still did not know what happened between Peter and Hugh.

She stayed in the room with Yale and Eden and polished the speech for Yale.

“Hmm... That’s about it. That’s the final speech.

“Yale, see if there’s anything else you need to add or modify.”

Yale shook his head. “No... Thank you... Eden... Jane... I’m very satisfied.”

Eden stretched and glanced at his watch. “The next day’s live stream will start at ten in the morning. It’s already one in the morning. You have to rest well, Yale. Jane, you have to pick up Josh tomorrow, and you have to help Yale with the speech. You have to sleep well!”

“That’s true. Yale, go to sleep. You’re the main character tomorrow. You must rest enough! We won’t disturb you anymore!”

Jane and Eden immediately left.

Yale glanced at the prepared speech. He pursed his lips and suddenly had an idea. He walked forward again, picked up the pen, and added a few more sentences.

The next day

Jane and Eden stood at the VIP staff passageway at the back door of the hall, waiting anxiously.

“Maybe there’s a traffic jam. Jane, why don’t you go back and accompany Yale first? You’re going on stage with Yale later.”

As soon as Jane finished speaking, she saw a familiar figure with her sharp eyes and quickly waved.

“Josh, you’re here!”

Josh arrived late. “Phew, what a terrible traffic jam on the road. I was afraid I wouldn’t make it in time. I didn’t expect the morning rush hour in Dinsdale to be so scary

“In short, it’s good that you arrived successfully. Today is Yale’s most important day. Although Yale doesn’t say it, he definitely wants us to be here.”

“Where’s Rain?”

“There are still some serious problems left behind by SKIN. Recently, Rain has been busy and is dealing with them. If he doesn’t handle them well, he’s afraid of causing a large number of innocent casualties. I’ve told him about this matter and told him not to come. He has to be dealt with them. He can only watch the medal award of Yale through the live stream.”

“That’s a pity…”

The three of them chatted and laughed as they arrived at Yale’s lounge.

Inside, Clarence was talking to Yale.

Seeing Jane and the others walk in, Clarence greeted them happily.

In the end, he even said with a regretful expression, “Queen, Josh, Eden, are you really not planning to add your names to the team member list? We’ve already held an internal meeting. Even the research members have unanimously voted to add your names”

Josh said, “Forget it, Mr. York. I prefer to keep a low profile. Too many titles will inevitably make me live in the spotlight. On the surface, I only need the title of a painter”

Eden said, “I’m a social phobic. That’s definitely not my thing!”

Jane said, “Me too!”

“Alright, since that’s the case, I won’t force you. It’s rare for successful people like you to keep such a low profile. Josh, Eden, follow me. I’ll bring you to the audience seats”

“Queen, I’ll leave Mr. Mitchell to you later.”

Hearing Clarence’s words, Jane nodded. “Yes! I will! Mr. York, Josh, Eden, don’t worry!”

Josh came to Yale’s side and gave him a gentle hug “Yale, congratulations. It’s really my honor to have such a powerful senior brother like you. I’m also very happy to be able to see such an important * in your life up close.”

“Thank you… Josh…”

Yale still spoke intermittently.

However, the hoarseness was much better than before.

Yale kept exercising, and the medicine given by Eden worked.

Little by little, it subtly changed Yale's body.

After hearing Yale's voice, Josh paused.

A bitter feeling instantly surged up his nose like a tide.

"I've never really heard Yale speak with my own ears. Now... I'm so happy that I want to cry."

Josh quickly turned around and raised his head. He took a deep breath to stop his tears from falling.

Today was a happy day. It was really  to cry.

Immediately, Josh came to Eden's side and took the initiative to put his arm around Eden's shoulder. He smiled and said, "Eden, I have to remember your contribution. If you have any requests, I will do my best to satisfy you!"

"Alright, Josh, I'm your junior brother after all. I can treat so many people. Isn't it natural for me to treat my Yale? Look at you. If I'm helpless, I'm really afraid that you'll me.

"Also, you have to thank Jane. If not for Jane's ample experience in treating Yale, I wouldn't have thought of a new method so quickly."

No Way Back Chapter 390-Jane held Yale's arm and raised her eyebrows. "Eden, you don't like to take credit Yale's improvement was partly because of you. I don't dare to take credit!"

Thank you! If you have any requests for another day, feel free to ask me I'll satisfy you!"

"Alright, just remember your promise."

Josh and the others left while chatting and laughing

Only Yale and Jane were left in the room.

"Are you nervous... Jane..."

Yale suddenly spoke

Jane turned around and saw Yale's eyes were filled with worry.

After all, she would be giving a live speech in front of the entire world as well as in front of so many audiences.

It would be a lie to say that there was no pressure.

If ordinary people had such difficult responsibilities, they would probably be so frightened to death. They might not be able to speak clearly. “It’s fine. With you around, I’m not afraid of anything. Moreover, I’m used to such situations. In the past, I encountered even more difficult matters when I studied with the Teacher Didn’t we all survive it?”

As Jane spoke, she rubbed her head against Yale’s shoulder.

Yale reached out and patted Jane’s head dotingly. “Thank you... Jane....”

“What are you thanking me for? As your junior, it’s only right for me to fulfill your requests! You dote on me so much, so, of course, I have to repay you! Everything has its cause and effect. I firmly believe that any sincere efforts work two-way!”

“Alright, it’s almost time. We should set off.”

“Yeah...”

The atmosphere in the assembly hall was solemn. There was a Red Star sign reflected on the ceiling.

The guests took their seats one by one.

Soon.

The live stream began.

The scene was also broadcasted on an online live-stream platform simultaneously all over the world.

In an instant, countless netizens rushed into the live stream platform.

“Press 1 to assemble!”

“I’m pressing 6 on my keyboard!”

*Please show us the big shots and geniuses who created the photolithography machine!”

“*! Everyone invited to the auditorium this time is a big shot! I can even see Mr. Fowler from Y City’s leading company!”

The anthem was played

The research members of the photolithography machine were officially revealed.

The commentator introduced each person's name and their technical expertise in bilingual. Their profiles were also shown on the screen.

Yale was officially announced as the lead creator of the photolithography machine.

The entire world was shocked!

No one expected such a young and handsome man to be the leader of the research team for the photolithography machine with 4-nanometer chips!

"What the ? He's so young. Is this a joke? Or was he a child of a minister who stole the credit?"

"Are you *crazy? Do you think the child of a minister dare to steal the credit for this matter that shocked the world? Who can bear this responsibility? It must be true!"

"He looks like he's in his twenties, right? He's so handsome! What kind of godly appearance is this?! I instantly feel that my idol doesn't look good anymore!"

"I wonder if Mr. Mitchell has a girlfriend? If not, I want to fight for the position! If you see his girlfriend, just pretend I didn't say anything..." "Don't be too strict on the gender. It can be a boyfriend!"

"Have you gone crazy from chasing after celebrities? You're comparing trash celebrities to national heroes. Are you belittling the heroes?" "Hello everyone, I'm trainee a from CXK, who has been practicing for two and a half years. I like singing, dancing, rap, basketball, music..." "Gini is too beautiful-"

"Hayden, you're only showing your feet!"

"You've led me astray..."

For a *, the majority of the countries did not expect the news and hurriedly activated the backup plan.

They tried to investigate who Yale Mitchell was!

They realized that their database did not have any information on Yale Mitchell!

No information could be found even in the most powerful database of Meridonia.

*****!"

“Who exactly is this Yale Mitchell? Why is there no information in the database at all? Has the information protection of Cruksia reached such a high level?”

The directors of the intelligence center of various countries were in a mess.

At the same time.

At Stormton City.

The Croft family was also paying close attention to this live stream.

There were also the Fowler family, the Shane family, the Sutton family, and the Luther family....

Including Rain, who was far away overseas.

And countless Cruksian as well as people of all races in the world.

A conservative estimate was that 800 million viewers tuned in to the live stream worldwide!

The number was still rising rapidly!

It was a terrifying number!

From this, it could be seen that the successful development of the 4-nanometer chip photolithography machine by Cruksia had given the world a huge surprise and shock! They did not dare to underestimate such a gradual awakening of the nation from the east!

After the medals were awarded to every research team member of the 4-nanometer chip photolithography machine, the entire venue was once again filled with enthusiastic applause!

Jack, Shawn, and other patriotic entrepreneurs of the older generation had already begun to tear up. They applauded louder than anyone else!

They knew very well how hard it was to develop the photolithography machine with 4nm chips! Furthermore, not a single person or country knew about it before the news became viral on the internet!

At that time, the Western countries did not think that Cruksia would be able to develop the 4-nanometer chip photolithography machine. They mocked Cruksia's technology level for being too , and Cruksia was trying to copy developed countries like them. Cruksia were simply overestimating themselves! They were not worthy of spending time tracking and anticipating the development by Cruksia!

Now, Cruksia had successfully created it! They had completed that seemingly impossible mission! A mission that even the people of their own country did not have confidence in!

The presence of the photolithography research team seemed like the arrival of gods in Cruksia. It symbolized the new beginning! It symbolized transcendence! It symbolized that Cruksia would be able to break through all stereotypes to create a miracle and myth that others did not expect!

Next.

It was for Yale, who was the absolute core of the team, to give the speech.

Everyone looked forward to it.

Suddenly, the broadcasting host interrupted.

“Because Mr. Mitchell has some health issues, it’s not convenient for him to speak. After we discussed and weighed the pros and cons and with Mr. Mitchell’s recommendation and permission, the junior of Mr. Mitchell will represent Mr. Mitchell to give the live speech.”

“Next, let us welcome Mr. Mitchell and his junior, who is also a member of the research team who helped Mr. Mitchell develop the photolithography machine, Miss Jane Fowler!”

The entire atmosphere was dead silent

No one expected that to happen.

It was only a while later that they applauded.

And yet.

The appearance of the name “Jane Fowler” shocked countless people from the bottom of their hearts!

Jack and Peter could hardly control themselves and almost stand on their feet

Their eyes widened.
