No Way Back Chapter 391-The remaining rationality in Jack and Peter prevented them from doing something so outrageous

However, the appearance of the name [Jane Fowler] stirred up ripples in the ground

In an instant, countless gazes landed on the two of them

There were all kinds of responses, such as evaluating teasing, judging, guessing

Everyone there remembered that Jack and his long lost biological daughter, Jane, had caused a huge commotion in the past. They even went to court

Could that Jane Fowler be the same person as Jack's biological daughter? The names were the same

Shawn sat beside Jack and said in surprise, 'What's going on, Mr. Fowler? Is Jane related to Mr. ***? Is she representing Mr. *** to give the speech? Are they the same person?'

"That I don't know either, Mr. Lewis."

Jack was also stunned

"Oh no. Dad, we've met this Mr. ** before

"When we were looking for Jane on New Year's Day, we saw a man holding Jane's hand. I remember now! The man looked like Mr. ****!"

Peter slapped his head.

No wonder Peter felt a sense of familiarity when he saw Yale.

However, he could not remember where he had seen Yale before.

At that time, Yale and Jane were wearing hats and masks when they came out of the apartment.

However, no one could have that pair of stunning eyes and his figure....

Thinking about it carefully....

The man accompanying Jane was indeed Yale!

“That person...”

Jack vaguely remembered it too!

His expression changed!

Without their knowledge....

Jane already had such a powerful figure by her side.

How much did Jack not know about his biological daughter?

He felt that Jane was a mystery.

She looked so weak and insignificant when she was with the Fowler family. One could have easily forgotten about her.

After severing ties with the Fowler family, it was as if Jane had been possessed by another soul and was a different person.

Many sides of Jane that the Fowlers did not know had been revealed slowly.

Now

She was even related to Yale, the leader of the photolithography machine research team!

The world-famous 2D character artist, X, the sock puppet hacker, and that impressive interpersonal network....

Janel Oh, Jane! How much did we not know about you?

“Um... what are you talking about? Why can't I understand a word? Can you please explain?”

Shawn felt terrible

He did not understand what was being discussed in Jack and Peter's intermittent conversation!

“That Jane might be my daughter”

“Mr. Lewis, I didn't know that Jane would represent Mr. ***in today's speech. To be honest, Jane had severed the ties with the Fowler family. As a so-called biological father, I only found out in the end... that I never knew my biological daughter.”

Jack said bitterly

Now, it was not just a matter of asking for Jane's forgiveness.

The more Jack interacted with Jane, the more he realized....

He did not have the qualifications to do so.

Once upon a time, Jack had the qualifications and opportunity to understand Jane..

Yet, Jack had never taken Jane to heart

Now, when he wanted to understand her, he realized that they were getting further apart.

Jack did not seem to know his daughter at all.

Jane's revelation completely exceeded Jack's level of achievement.

Whatever Jack could not do, Jane could easily do it!

What right did Jack have to ask for Jane's forgiveness?

Peter could not help but feel sad. He secretly clenched his fists.

He had failed miserably... as a brother.

There could not be a man who had a worse failure than Peter in the world, right?

Larry was right. Peter had never tried to understand his biological sister, not even a little! Peter should have guessed it... He saw Jane and Hugh attending the banquet last night.

Those who could attend the banquet were also invited to participate in the photolithography research team's worldwide live broadcast

Peter did not think too much about it. He thought that Hugh had brought Jane in.

If that was the case, how could Hugh be alone when he entered the banquet? He should have walked in together with Jane!

The only explanation was that Jane was an invited attendee herself!

She was more qualified than anyone else to participate in that worldwide live stream and the banquet!

Shawn looked at Jack and Peter with grief-stricken expressions.

For a ***, he did not know what to say.

He could only sigh heavily.

Connor and Robert, who were sitting beside Hugh, were dumbfounded.

“Hugh, this Did we hear wrongly? Are you sure Jane Fowler was called?”

“This name is quite special. They shouldn’t have the same name... No! It should be the same name!”

He looked at Hugh for confirmation.

Hugh’s lips curled up. “It’s Janie.”

He seemed to be implying something else...

“Look, this is my woman... she is just so outstanding, elegant, and beautiful...”

Showing off! He was showing off!

Connor and Robert were inexplicably stuffed with sweet romance.

However, the two of them had no time to care about the sentiment. They clicked their tongues and said, “I didn’t expect... She’s Jane Fowler! She’s too amazing!”

Even the Luther and Shane Groups would find it difficult to have a connection with such a great person!

Someone like Yale, who could develop the 4-nanometer chip photolithography machine, at such a young age was a super genius scientist who was treasured by the nation!

The government would not let Yale come into contact with the corporation! They were afraid of him being led astray!

And, what did the host say just now?

Jane was Yale’s junior!

She even played a role in the photolithography machine research!

Oh my god! This was too awesome!

At that ***, Connor’s phone vibrated.

He switched it on and saw a message from Lila.

[When Janie appears, please help me take a nice photo of Janie giving the speech!]

[I can only watch the live stream here. I want photos as keepsakes!]

After reading Lila's request, Connor's gaze instantly became gentler [Okay.]

At the same time.

At Stormton City.

Some people were happy, while others were sad.

At the Fowler residence.

Anna's entire family sat in front of the television in the living room to watch the live stream.

Originally, Anna was holding a handkerchief. She was extremely touched by the fact that Cruksia had created the 4-nanometer chip photolithography machine and won respect and praise worldwide. She wiped her tears.

Madelyn only felt that the news was extremely boring. So what if the chips were successfully created? It was not like she would get any benefits

She might as well go back to her room and think about how to deal with Jane and seize the Fowler family's assets and plan for her future! However, seeing how excited the Fowler family was, Madelyn could only play along and pretend to be touched.

When the name Jane Fowler appeared.

The Fowlers were stunned.

That included Madelyn.

The tears that Madelyn forced out froze on her face

The smile on her lips gradually disappeared, and her expression turned into disbelief.

She could not help but shout.

"What... what's going on?"

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 392

No Way Back Chapter 392-Her words immediately attracted the attention of the Fowler family members. They had their eyes fixed on Madelyn.

Johan and the others were well aware of Madelyn's true colors. The words that were subconsciously said must have come from Madelyn's true thoughts, mixed with her jealousy towards Jane Fowler!

At the same time, he was filled with regret... He had been with Madelyn all day long and had so many opportunities to discover her true colors. Why had not he discovered it?

He was blind!

Madelyn came back to her senses and quickly pretended to be ***. "****, brothers, do you know about this? This Jane Fowler should be Jane, nght? Oh my god. I was so surprised when I heard the name!"

Anna did not doubt Madelyn's words because she was also confused. "This... should only be the same name. How could she be the same person?"

No matter what, Jane could not be involved in such an occasion!

Madelyn secretly heaved a sigh of relief.

That's right How could a despicable person like Jane be involved in a national-level worldwide live stream?

That man was the lead creator of the photolithography machine. He was a super genius. He was such a young and handsome man!

Even Madelyn, who had met Chester and Hugh in the past, was tempted when she first saw Yale.

She felt that it was really difficult to choose between these three men.

Chester could sweet talk and make Madelyn happy. He had Madelyn in his heart.

Hugh was the president of the D.Y. Group and the head of the Croft family. Madelyn loved Hugh's superior, cold, and aloof appearance

As for Yale... He was the lead creator of the photolithography machine. His identity and status were comparable to Hugh's! at all! The entire world fought such talent! If she stayed with a man like Yale, she would not have to worry for a few lifetimes!

It was the only positive thing Madelyn gained from watching the live stream.

Madelyn wondered which man she should accept if all three men proposed to her at the same time.

What a dilemma!

It was unbelievable! Why are all the outstanding men related to Jane?

However, what happened next completely shattered Madelyn's fantasy.

The woman who appeared on the live stream with Yale....

Who else could it be but Jane?

Jane had light makeup on, and her stunning face was extremely eye-catching. She was wearing a neat lady's suit, a Hermes belt, and high heels. Her black hair was tied into a light ponytail, and she looked extremely refreshing and bright.

Her gazes were particularly intense and unfathomable as an ancient well. Every move she made was brimming with confidence and carefreeness. There was a faint smile on her lips. Just her look and image alone scored 100%. She could be an international brand ambassador.

Since she is Yale's junior and was going to represent Yale in giving the speech, she had to carry herself well on such an important occasion. Whether she was eloquent in her speech or whether she would gain recognition by the entire world....

Let them wait and see!

No matter what, the pressure was evident!

"Jane Fowler..."

As Jane appeared,

Countless people were moved.

Peter and Jack had already guessed Yale's true identity.

They were not surprised by this result.

There just watched on as Jane and Yale stood in front of the cameras.

How much pressure was there to bear?

Only the person involved would know.

perso

They could not help but worry for Jane.

If something went wrong on such an important occasion, the consequences would be unbearable for Jane.

Jane would become a laughingstock of the world and would be mocked for the rest of her life

At for the Fowler residence, a commotion ensued.

“**, that’s Janie!”

Madelyn looked at Anna after saying the words.

Anna opened her **, but in the end, she could not say a word.

The revelation was too shocking for Anna.

She did not expect Jane to be qualified to attend such an occasion!

Moreover, she would represent Yale to give the speech to the entire world through the live stream!

An indescribable sense of shock and pride passed through Anna’s entire body.

Jane was Anna’s daughter. She had never known the true colors of her biological daughter, Jane Fowler!

What a great honor to be able to attend such a grand occasion!

“It was such Jane’s move... I’m defeated by this child.”

Anna could not help but say this.

When her tears burst, Anna quickly wiped them with a handkerchief

However, she was happy and smiled proudly.

Seeing this scene, Madelyn felt as if her heart was being cut into pieces!

Madelyn’s only support in the Fowler family was Anna.

Even though Anna’s heart was gradually leaning towards Jane.

She would still have Madelyn in her heart.

Unlike the other Fowlers, who had completely changed their attitudes and treated Madelyn like a germ that must be avoided at all times.

However, Jane's standing on such a stage was Madelyn's greatest fear manifested. She was involved with Mr. ***.

The gaze in Anne's eyes had changed... Not only did Anna feel guilty about the appearance of Jane on television, but she also felt proud and admired Jane!

That was the gaze that Anna had never given Madelyn even when Madelyn was the favorite member of the Fowler family!

"That's right. ***is right. It was indeed Jane."

"This time, we didn't expect Jane to be such an incredible person."

"None of us brothers can compare to this sister."

Johan said sarcastically.

His words were targeted toward Madelyn.

Because Madelyn has just accidentally revealed her true self just now.

Johan felt disgusted.

Then, he saw Madelyn trying to hide the contempt in her eyes when mentioning "Jane Fowler" who had the same name as Jane. Therefore, Johan deliberately said that to make Madelyn feel uncomfortable and embarrassed!

When Aaron and others heard that, they echoed, "That's right. Jane is amazing..."

They were not as observant and sensitive as Johan.

They were simply praising Jane from the bottom of their heart.

Even though all of them were as excellent, having achieved the greatest achievements at their current age in their respective fields. However, the achievements were not worth mentioning compared to the nation's achievement.

Jane, that was amazing!

The words of Johan and the others were like invisible knives stabbing fiercely into Madelyn's heart.

The invisible knife was moved violently. It was so painful that it was suffocating. It was so uncomfortable that it could make one go crazy!

"Um... ***, I suddenly have an emergency. I want to go to the toilet!"

Madelyn did not even have time to react under such intense pain. She only wanted to escape from that place.

The place made Madelyn feel incomparably painful!

To have Madelyn watch with a smile as Jane enjoyed endless glory in front of the whole world was like stepping on Madelyn ruthlessly and pushing her into the abyss of despair...

Madelyn could not do it! She really could not do it!

No Way Back Chapter 393-What exceeded Madelyn's expectations was....

Everyone's attention was on Jane's beautiful face on the television right now.

They did not even hear Madelyn's words.

She was completely ignored as if she was alr

Madelyn did not even know how she walked out of the living room

Her face was ashen, and her entire body was trembling.

She could not even walk steadily.

Madelyn only wanted to hide in the toilet and cry

She wanted to vent the grief in her heart that was about to drown her!

The host's introduction to Jane and applause from the living room were like a death spell.

It chased after Madelyn as if it was trying to devour her.

Just as Madelyn was about to enter the toilet.

Suddenly, she heard some sounds again.

“Wow, I didn’t expect it was indeed Miss Jane! She’s so amazing! Moreover, she performed so well in front of the live stream. Her skin is so good and she’s so beautiful. She perfectly inherited the genes of Master and Madam. I am envious of her!”

“Who would have thought that Miss Jane was the same person who lost to Miss Madelyn in every aspect when she was with the Fowler family? Who would have thought that after leaving the Fowler family, she would suddenly become the darling of the entire world? She’s the junior of the technological big shot!”

“Do you think Master and Madam regret it now? They didn’t treat Miss Jane well back then, causing her to leave the Fowler family disheartened. She even turned against the Fowler family.”

“Of course! I will regret it deeply! Look at Miss Madelyn. She’s dropped out of school. After such a big incident, her reputation is ruined. Sometimes, when she stands under the sunlight, I can see obvious signs of plastic surgery on her face. When she puts on an exaggerated expression, I feel like her entire face was about to collapse. It’s scary!”

“Even if she wasn’t disfigured, how could Miss Madelyn be able to fight with Miss Jane now? In the past, Old Master and others didn’t care about Miss Jane, but recently, they showed more concern for Miss Jane! I wonder why! I feel that Old Master and others have started to ignore Miss Madelyn!”

Listening to the servants’ sneaky gossip in the pantry, Madelyn finally could not take it anymore and ran inside.

When they realized she was Madelyn, the servants were so frightened that they did not even dare to breathe. They were like children who had done something wrong and were caught red-handed. “Miss... Miss Madelyn...”

Madelyn glared at the group of gossiping servants with a murderous gaze. “What? You’re not going to continue? If you have the courage, say it in front of me! What ability do you have if you only dare to talk about others behind their backs? No wonder you can only work as servants for the rest of your life!”

After saying that, Madelyn turned around and left.

Normally, Madelyn would never lose her cool and say such offensive words.

After all, Madelyn still had to maintain her image as a kind and beautiful person. She had to maintain a good and respectable image at home.

However, Madelyn was too angry at that ****. She was completely blinded by anger and could not care less.

Anyway, the Fowlers had already distanced themselves from Madelyn. Everyone felt that Jane was better!

Madelyn did not want to pretend anymore. It was too tiring to live like that!

What Madelyn wanted to deny it more than anything else...

What the servants said was the truth!

It was a fact that Madelyn could not refute!

Once she admitted that

Madelyn would be outdone by Jane forever.

She would never win!

Seeing Madelyn leave just like that, the servants could not help but whisper again.

"I was scared to death just now. I didn't expect Miss Madelyn to hear it."

"This is the first time I've seen Miss Madelyn so angry. As expected, we hit Miss Madelyn's sore points... Sigh, no wonder Miss Madelyn is angry. If I were her, I'd be worried that I would be chased out by the Fowler family and lose my wealth. She is an adopted daughter after all. How would she be compared to the glorious biological daughter?"

"Hey, didn't you guys take a good look at Miss Madelyn's expression just now? That was the exaggerated expression I mentioned. ****! I was almost scared to death! There were a few deep scars on her face. I thought I had seen a ghost!"

"Now that you mention it, it's really... ***no! Don't let me recall it! It's too terrifying!"

"Guess what Miss Madelyn is going to do now? I think she's going to the toilet..."

"What else could it be? She must be hiding in the toilet and crying. Previously, I heard the sound of crying in the toilet a few times. I didn't dare to ask. Now that I think about it, it might be Miss Madelyn hiding inside and crying. After all, she's disfigured now. The Fowler family values her lesser and lesser. Sigh! Speaking of which, Miss Madelyn is quite pitiful!"

At the same time.

At the Croft residence.

Victor purposely gathered the Croft family members.

He asked them to come to the old residence if they had free time to watch that worldwide live stream.

After all, that was the most important thing headlining Crucsia in recent years. It was a technological breakthrough that broke the monopoly.

At the same time, the successful development of the 4-nanometer chip photolithography machine also meant certain industries would rise from now on.

For corporations like theirs, it was the best time to make profits.

That was why Hugh attended that banquet.

The attendees from the first branch were Michael and his eldest son, Ford.

The second branch sent Raymond and Layne.

Luna had already been sent out of the country according to Victor's orders.

Even the news of Diane's death had not been leaked.

After all these days, Layne had become much calmer from the initial pain of losing her mother.

She no longer went berserk like before and blamed everything on Raymond.

It was mainly because she understood Raymond's current difficulties.

If something happened to Raymond now, the entire family would collapse.

The Croft family was not like the Fowler family. Once Raymond revealed his weakness, the rest of the relatives would devour him like a hungry wolf!

Raymond was confronted on all sides by Michael, Hugh, as well as Victor.

None of them were easy to deal with!

The third branch sent Matthew.

As for the fourth branch, Levi, Hugh Croft's father, could not be contacted at all. Victor could only give up.

Now, when they saw Jane's appearance, the expressions of the Croft family members changed.

Victor raised his eyebrows as if he had thought of something and smiled meaningfully.

Ford was also surprised Then, he was overjoyed.

The person he had fallen in love with at first sight was indeed somebody. Jane had such a hidden identity and strength.

To be honest, Ford had underestimated Jane!

Originally, he was just flirting with Jane to see if she was suitable to be his marriage partner.

Now Ford changed his mind, he had to get Jane!

Only then the first branch could improve its visibility and strength and obtain Victor's attention!

Layne was the most shocked one.

"That... How could that be... Is it Jane?"

"How the ***did she do that?"

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 394

No Way Back Chapter 394-Raymond frowned slightly.

Upon seeing Jane, Raymond suddenly remembered..

Layne and Jane had a marriage agreement.

Until now, it had not been canceled.

That was the agreement between the Fowler family and the Croft family.

Suddenly, his heart skipped a beat.

Maybe...

This would be a breakthrough for the current predicament!

Everyone had ulterior motives. They no longer had the simple thought of just watching the live stream.

On the other side

Jane had already picked up the speech outline.

She gave a short introduction.

Then, she launched into her speech.

Her eloquence and lack of stage fright were refreshing.

With this standard, it was more than enough for her to be a diplomatic spokesperson!

Jane was nearing the end of her speech.

She saw the newly added sentence.

Jane raised an eyebrow subtly.

She subconsciously glanced at Yale beside her,

She could see the gentle and encouraging look in Yale's eyes.

She instantly understood.

"Here, I want to solemnly thank my team members, as well as my teacher, Josh, Eden, and Jane... for giving me great help and advice in this project.

*Because of their support and cooperation, I was able to achieve what I have today and successfully developed a photolithography machine with a 4 nanometer chip.

"The research and development process was indeed extremely difficult. Many years of hard work were stuck at the last step. Just this last step was a thousand miles away. The entire project almost collapsed and ended in failure."

Yale added the sentence himself.

It was the name of her senior brothers.

Originally, Jane and others did not want Yale to mention their names in the speech.

They told Yale to just mention their teacher.

However, after they left, Yale added it

These were words from the bottom of Yale's heart.

He wanted the entire world to know.

Even though Jane and the others kept a low profile and did not want to take credit, and even though they insisted on him removing their name, at the very least, through this speech, everyone knew that... they played a role in the research on the photolithography machine

This was the glory that should be bestowed upon them!

The speech ended.

Jane bowed to the camera again.

She stepped back and left with Yale.

The audience applauded enthusiastically.

Countless people praised Jane for her speech.

*This little girl really has a bright future. She's only 20 years old, right? Her future is limitless! If she continues to improve, what will happen?" "Mr. ***even dared to let Jane make a speech on his behalf in a live stream that is being broadcasted to the entire world. This is a big deal! How much does he dote on her? He's supporting Jane and bestowing glory on Jane."

"Are you joking? Do you think this is a personal speech? This is a speech on the successful development of the photolithography machine. It concerns the reputation of the country! How can Mr. ***do as he pleases?"

*This speech outline was probably written by Mr. ****himself and vetted by the higher-ups of the country. Does this mean that it's true? Could it be that Jane really played a role in the research?"

"If that's the case, this girl is really amazing I'm impressed! In the past, I always thought that those top scientists were either from abroad or old. I didn't expect Mr. ***to be so young. He's really a blessing to the country. The new generation is surpassing the old!"

"That's right! After all, she's the real daughter of Fowler Corporation's chairman, Jack Fowler. Like father like daughter!" *Speaking of which, Jack and Anna started from scratch back then and founded one of the largest companies, Fowler Corporation, in Stormton City. They're even famous internationally. They're indeed very capable! Jane even surpasses her teacher! If I were Mr. and Mrs. Fowler, I would be so proud!"

That's right, the Fowler family lost this precious treasure. I wonder if they regret it now. Do you know if they're thinking of ways to make Jane return to the Fowler family?"

“Although Fowler Corporation is powerful, Jane is now Mr. ***favorite Perhaps Jane doesn’t even need the Fowler family anymore.” After all, the value of a corporation could not be compared to a country’s treasured scientists.

Yale was the project owner of the first 4-nanometer chip photolithography machine in Cruksia.

It was enough to earn Yale a place in the history books of Cruksia and even the world!

Countless countries secretly reached out to Yale, hoping to recruit such a genius that was rarely seen in decades!

In terms of power, money, and status, as long as Yale wanted to, he could easily obtain all of them!

As Yale’s precious apprentice, Jane naturally looked down on the Fowler family, who had offended her before.

Mockery and ridicule were directed at the Fowler family from all directions.

Peter and Jack could only pretend that they did not hear anything and looked calm.

In fact, they were already clenching their fists tightly.

They looked at the girl who was standing beside Yale on the stage.

They would never reach her, as she was now at a higher level than them.

It would be a lie to say that they did not regret it.

How ***were they to not notice Jane’s talent back then? They thought that Jane was a cowardly piece of trash who was useless. They lost a piece of treasure...

No! They had deliberately ignored Jane. They had never tried to understand her. They had never tried to understand her thoughts, her abilities, and everything about her.

Now, no matter who mocked them, they deserved it and had to bear it.

Recalling what they had done to Jane in the past, Jack and Peter felt as if their hearts were being cut by a knife. They wanted to slap themselves hard!

They hated how ****they were!

“Next, it’s time to showcase the 4-nanometer chip created by the first lithography machine in Cruksia!”

“After the chip is displayed, it will be sent to the National Museum for to be exhibited!”

The ***the chip was pushed out onto the stage, countless cameras were aimed at this hard-won chip.

The ***snapped crazily.

The chip was completely exposed to the entire world.

Just by looking at this 4-nanometer chip, who would have thought that there were so many scientists from Cruksia who had put in so much effort and time?

The small chip represented the power and unity of the nation!

It became a symbol for leading the advancement of technology internationally.

Once again, they were deeply proud that they were Cruksians!

The international live stream ended perfectly.

Peter and Jack hurriedly left the venue.

Shawn stayed behind.

He had to see Jane.

On the other side, Yale was in the backstage room.

Josh and the others had already returned.

Jane opened a bottle of champagne.

“Cheers!”

They clinked glasses and celebrated.

“Congratulations to Yale and Jane for the success of the speech.”

“Yeah, Josh and I were watching from above. Jane, your performance was outstanding!”

Josh and Eden were all flattering Jane and Yale.

Jane was embarrassed by their praises and waved her hand repeatedly. “Alright, alright. We’re all family. There’s no need to flatter me like that. I’m really going to get carried away.”

“Don’t **** Jane... too much.”

Yale said with a smile, but his gaze was sharp as he stared at Josh and Eden.

It was filled with warnings.

“We didn’t. Yale!” they cried.

Jane watched her three senior brothers banter. She took out her phone and shook it at everyone. “Rain sent a congratulatory message.”

He complained in the message about how busy he was and how he didn’t have time to attend Yale’s event, which was important: He was crying from being too busy.

In the end, he gave his blessings to Yale. After completing such a difficult project, even if Rain was not here, his thoughts were still with them.

At this ****, Clarence walked in.

“Queen, someone wants to see you...”

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 395

No Way Back Chapter 395-“Shawn?”

Of course, Jane was familiar with this name

Even Josh and the others had heard of this name.

He could be considered a very famous entrepreneur from Cruksia who had gone to Eastshel to build his business.

After all, he controlled the oil economy of Eastshel. He was also an outstanding patriotic entrepreneur. All kinds of feats of his had long spread throughout the world.

“It seems like there’s something very important that he wants to talk to you about. Because I have a good relationship with him, he has asked me to pass his message to you. If you’re willing to meet him, I’ll give him your contact information.”

“...Sure. I’m also very impressed by Mr. Lewis. It’s my honor to meet such an outstanding patriotic entrepreneur.”

Jane could guess why Shawn was looking for her.

After all, such a capable person was the owner of Hotel Molov..

Perhaps they discovered who led the army from Eastshel to successfully hack into the hotel network and resolved the matter without any casualties

Night fell.

Jane, Yale, and the others finished their celebratory feast.

They went to the agreed location given by Shawn.

They arrived at the seaside of Dinsdale.

The land beside the sea had been bought by the Lewis Group and was in the development phase.

Shawn had already informed the guards, so Jane's journey was smooth.

Soon, they arrived at Shawn's villa by the sea.

Shawn was dressed very casually. He stood on the balcony on the second floor with a glass of red wine in his hand. A bodyguard came to inform him of Jane's arrival. Shawn turned around and took the initiative to extend his hand to Jane. He said happily, "Welcome, Miss Jane."

"Mr. Lewis."

Jane shook Shawn's hand gently.

Jane was calm. Looking into Jane's eyes, which were like the deep and unpredictable sea outside, Shawn determined that Jane was not an ordinary young woman in the blink of an eye. He smiled and said, "Miss Jane, with your intelligence, have you guessed why I invited you here?" Jane answered calmly, "No, I haven't. Please enlighten me, Mr. Lewis."

"Heh, Miss Jane, you were the one who resolved the crisis of Hotel Molov back then. Why are you being humble? Since I took the initiative to find you, it means that I have sufficient evidence to prove that the person that day was you!"

"You've indeed hidden yourself very well, but I've finally found out after many rounds of investigations. It can be said that you're a great benefactor to me and the Lewis family!"

"If it weren't for your help back then, I'm afraid that the matter of Hotel Molov wouldn't have been resolved so smoothly. There wouldn't have been a miracle of zero casualties! It was an international terrorist security check that shook the world! Even the security system of Hotel Molov, which I'm so proud of, was useless. It was so easily cracked by the other party!

"After this incident, I once again upgraded the security system of Hotel Molov and made sure it doesn't have any flaws. Of course, for Miss Jane, this upgrade is probably insignificant..."

The more Shawn spoke, the more excited he became.

There were signs that he was going off-topic.

Jane thought to herself, "I guessed right. It's about the incident at Hotel Molov."

Jane interrupted Shawn, "Mr. Lewis, I admit that I did this, but I never wanted anything from it. This is just a job that Mr. York asked me to do. I agreed to help because too many patriotic entrepreneurs were involved in this matter. Just based on your contributions to the country, I can't sit back and do nothing.

"Mr. Lewis, if you want to thank me, there's no need. I appreciate it."

In the face of Jane's indifference and lack of utilitarianism, Shawn put away his flattery and spoke with heartfelt admiration. "As expected of Miss Jane. You can just leave after accomplishing such a big thing. You can even give up fame by not asking for credit even though you're involved in the research of the photolithography machine. There are really too few people like you in this world."

Jane said, "It's what I'm supposed to do In addition, Yale and his team have worked hard on the photolithography machine for many years. Of course, I wouldn't dare to take credit. If Mr. Lewis specially came to me to thank me, I have received it. Mr. Lewis, you're welcome.

"How tiring would it be to do everything for a purpose in a person's life? Although I'm not a saint, I'm still an ordinary person. I have a purpose in doing many things, but you can't say that I have a purpose in doing everything either. There are some things that I can do as I wish. Regardless of whether I succeed or fail, at least I'll feel comfortable after doing it. That's already enough."

After hearing Jane's words, Shawn was filled with respect. "I see Miss Jane, I was too superficial. I've learned a lot from you. However, I didn't call you here just to talk about this matter. More importantly I want to make a promise to you!"

Jane raised an eyebrow. "Promise?"

"Yes, you've helped me big time. If doing whatever you want is your principle in life, then my principle is to never owe anyone a favor! I must repay such a huge favor!

“Although I know that you’re outstanding, knowledgeable, and have many connections, I, Shawn, have lived for 60 years. I have resources too. If there ever comes a day when you need my help. Just let me know! I’ll definitely do my best!”

Jane was silent for a****

Then, Jane nodded. “Thank you, Mr. Lewis.”

Since it was a reward that came to her, she would accept it. As Shawn said, perhaps she would really ask for help in the future.

It was better not to be *****. This matter was beneficial to Jane.

After the conversation, Shawn said that he wanted to send Jane back, but Jane refused.

Jane took a cab and got off at a quiet street near the hotel. She planned to take a walk

Tomorrow, Yale would lead the team to Rheinsville to deal with all kinds of trivial matters.

nearby.

Clarence had already helped to deal with matters that were even more trivial.

Although Yale was unwilling, he was still on the team that created the first 4-nanometer chip photolithography machine in Cruksia. There were too many meetings and matters for them to deal with.

After the party. Yale had to rest. Eden had to follow Yale to give him treatment.

Josh had an art exhibition the day after tomorrow. He was leaving tomorrow on a flight as well.

After a short reunion, everyone had to go their separate ways because of their own matters.

Everything that happened today was still vivid in their minds.

Jane’s heart was warm.

Even if they had to part ways, Jane understood deeply when they met today....

Everyone’s hearts were still connected.

As long as this bond did not change, no matter where they were in this life, they would be tightly connected, and it would never break. Just as Jane was walking toward the hotel, a figure suddenly appeared.

Jane did not expect this.

“It’s you, Jack?”

No Way Back Chapter 396-Jane’s face was cold.

Why was Jack here?

Jane knew that Jack had gone to yesterday’s and today’s events.

Since she could not stop him, she just ignored him. She had a clear conscience.

But how could the Fowlers know about the hotel where Jane was staying?

Could it be...

Was Jack stalking Jane?

With the Fowler family’s ***and despicable nature, Jane did not doubt that they could really do such a thing!

At first, when Jack heard Jane’s voice, Jack thought that he had misheard.

“You... Jane, why are you here?”

Jack was happy today, so he drank a bit too much. He thought that he was hallucinating and could not help but rub his eyes hard.

Otherwise, why could he hear Jane’s voice here? A coincidence was not likely.

Even if everyone mocked Jack today because of Jane’s glory, Jack was still proud of Jane

He was proud of having such an outstanding daughter.

Even though Jack deeply understood that he no longer had the right to feel this way, he could not help but be overjoyed this time..

This was a national matter. It was something that every patriot of the nation would be excited about!

Therefore, Jack invited a few good friends, who had business dealings with Jack and also attended the banquet today, to the restaurant to have a drink.

Because he was drunk and too happy. Jack chose to stay at the nearest hotel available and sent Peter a message. He planned to walk back to the hotel alone to sleep and sober up.

However, he seemed to have received some kind of guidance from above.

Jack arrived at this secluded path.

It was there he encountered Jane.

A cold wind blew past.

Jack sobered up a lot.

He realized that the girl in front of him, whose shadow was dragged out by the moonlight, wasn't an illusion!

It was really Jane!

All at once, Jack became cautious.

"Jack, to think you said it so nicely back then. You said that if I agree to go to the hospital to see Anna, you'll get lost completely this time!

"And now, you followed me and found out where I'm staying!"

Jane suppressed her anger and spoke

"No... Jane, I didn't mean that! I really wasn't following you! I just happened to be walking nearby... and met you!

"I went for a drink just now. I just came out of the restaurant. I was just walking around the area because I booked a hotel nearby! It's true! I'm not lying to you!"

Jack explained in a panic.

At this****t, he wasn't the dignified chairman of Fowler Corporation.

He was just a helpless father who was extremely humble to his high and mighty daughter.

Jane did smell alcohol on Jack.

She did not answer Jack, her expression cold. She walked past Jack and was about to leave.

It was definitely not a good thing to have anything to do with the Fowlers.

Regardless of whether Jack was following Jane or not.

Jack did not have the guts to follow her even if he wanted to. Jane had already erased all her information. If he wanted to investigate the hotel where Jane was staying, he had to have ****that surpassed the Darknet's number one hacker, Queen!

However, Jack did have many sinister tricks up his sleeve.

Jane knew how clever Jack was This guy was great at provocation and playing hard to get. Even Jane's greatest weakness was exposed and she was forced by him to go to the hospital to see Anna.

She had to admit that Jack, who was famous in Cruksia and founded Fowler Corporation from scratch, was indeed capable.

To deal with Jack, Jane had long set up her pawn. Today was such a happy day. She did not want to have her mood ruined because of this chance encounter with Jack

"Jane..."

Jack could feel Jane's deep malice toward him.

He secretly clenched his fists.

He wanted to say something to persuade Jane to stay.

However, Jack couldn't bring himself to say it.

His heart felt like it was being held tightly by something.

Jack had too many things to say to Jane.

He could only tell Jane.

He had said sorry too many times.

He had also knelt down to Jane to repent for his actions.

Now, Jack didn't want to talk about this.

He only wanted to pour out his heartfelt pride for Jane.

Even Jack felt that he was too ***.

How was Jane doing and how much glory she received had nothing to do with Jack.

What right did he have to express such pride?

At this *****, two more figures appeared.

*Jack! Hey, aren't you... Jane?"

They were the two business partners who drank with Jack at the restaurant.

Jane recognized these two people.

They were the CEOs of famous companies in Uster City and Potterburg, Omar Sanders and Micheal Laton.

Micheal Laton was Chester Laton's father.

Omar was 63 years old. He was bald and weighed nearly 200 pounds. He was 5 feet 4 inches and wore a custom-made suit. His face was red and he often had a smile on his face, as well as a spring in his step. However, to be able to become an outstanding figure in Uster City, other than the connections, resources, and money that his family had accumulated over the past hundred years, Omar's business talent could not be underestimated.

As for Chester's father, Micheal, Crown Group's chairman and a big shot in Potterburg, he was an even more famous figure.

Micheal was widely known for his debauchery and his two wives who were respectively in charge of the family's external affairs and internal affairs. The 55-year-old man still looked handsome and had traces of youth on his face. He looked to be in his thirties. He was 6 feet and often worked out to maintain his figure. He was wearing a dark red high-end suit that made him look dashing.

Not only did time not corrode Micheal's appearance, but it also added to his calm and mature temperament. This kind of man was very dangerous. He could make countless young women willingly and sincerely give everything they had to him, even if the price was high. The charm in him was difficult for others to resist.

Back then, Micheal took over Crown Group and made drastic reforms. After the company went public, its performance increased exponentially. Everyone praised Micheal for being a rare business genius. The rival in Stormton City that was on par with his company was D.Y. Group, which was led by Victor Croft. There was a period of time when they were equally matched in competition. This was a first in Cruksia.

If Victor had not retired and Hugh had not succeeded the company, Crown Group wouldn't have lost. Hugh's ability was so terrifying that it was abnormal Hugh was only in his twenties when he led the bottlenecked D.Y. Group to an unprecedented peak. If Hugh didn't exist, perhaps the two leading companies of Cruksia now would be D.Y. and Crown Group, and not just D.Y. Group alone.

These two people actually appeared here...

Jane thought it was bizarre.

No Way Back Chapter 397-Jack was shocked. "Omar, Micheal, why are you here?"

"Well, we saw that you didn't even bring a bodyguard or driver with you. We were really worried, so we planned to follow you and send you to the hotel first before leaving."

"I just didn't expect... to meet Jane here. Jack, why are you with Jane? Aren't you already..."

At this point, Omar seemed to realize something and laughed loudly 'It seems that the two of you have finally let bygones be bygones! I'm really happy for you! I knew it! No matter what, you're father and daughter Blood is thicker than water. Familial ties can't be severed! Jane, when we were drinking with your father just now, your father was covered in snot and tears. He was so proud of you!"

Due to the dark surroundings, Omar could not see the expressions of Jane and Jack, so he continued talking.

If Omar could see clearly, he would definitely ***his ***and know that he was saying the wrong things.

It was also because he was drunk. It had been a long time since he met Jack and Micheal, so he was really happy and drank a lot

Micheal, who had a good alcohol tolerance and was sober, immediately sensed that something was wrong. He gently tugged on Omar's arm. "Omar, stop talking..."

"Huh? Why should I stop? They look fine, don't they?"

Omar's face turned red and his eyes were filled with stars. He pointed at Jane and Jack. "Micheal, aren't you happy for Jack? After all, we've been friends for many years!"

“Omar, sober up!”

Micheal wanted to facepalm.

The strange atmosphere between Jack and Jane....

No matter how he looked at it, it didn't seem like they had reconciled!

Omar liked to ****nonsense when he was drunk. He didn't know how to read the room at all!

“Well...”

After being persuaded by Micheal, Omar also realized that something was wrong.

He carefully looked at Jane and Jack.

Holy *****!

Why did the atmosphere between father and daughter seem so cold?

It didn't seem like they had reconciled at all.

Eventually, he could only clear his throat a few times.

He tried to hide his embarrassment.

“I'm sorry... I... I might have said something wrong... I'm sorry... Jack... Jane, just pretend that we don't exist...”

Omar had never been so embarrassed before

He wanted to ground to open up and swallow him.

Jack was completely dumbfounded.

It would have been fine if it was any other occasion.

However, Jack had just been misunderstood by Jane already. She thought he followed her, even though Jack felt he was wrongly accused. Wouldn't this make Jane's misunderstanding even deeper?

As expected

“He said that I was his pride... in front of you?”

When Jane said this, she felt as disgusted as if she had eaten a fly!

Jack's heart skipped a beat.

He couldn't defend himself

It was as if he had done something wrong in private and was caught red-handed.

There was nowhere to hide.

An indescribable sense of ***welled up in Jack's heart.

"Ah, yes. I can tell that Jack is sincere. Jane, although I know that many unpleasant things have happened between you and Jack, at least everyone is praising your performance today..."

"Your speech was so outstanding. You represented Mr. ***and our country. We are all Crucsian, and we all love this country. The foreigners are also full of praise for you on the internet and are full of confidence in the future of Crucsia!"

Since Omar took the initiative to speak, in order to prevent the situation from turning worse, Omar could only bite the bullet and continue to speak up for Jack.

However, these words sounded extremely ironic to Jane.

"If these words were said by the two of you, I can understand but..."

Jane looked at Jack mockingly. "I see now Jack, you're indeed a smart businessman! You're the ultimate capitalist!"

"Jane... I... I'm sincere... I'm not saying it just for show. I'm sincerely proud to have a daughter like you!"

Jack wanted to explain, but he was mercilessly interrupted by Jane.

Sincere? Daughter? Don't make me *****! Jack, I have long cut ties with the Fowler family. In this world, anyone can say they're proud of me, but not a ****like you!

"Oh, right, Jack. Of course, you're sincere because I'm now famous and capable. That's why you're boasting about my identity as your daughter! You want to use the glory and status I've obtained to satisfy your pitiful vanity!"

*Jack, how can you be so ***? Why don't you take a look at yourself in the mirror? How did you treat me when I was just brought back to the Fowler family? Now you're praising me like a good father? Don't ****disgust me!"

Jane's every word was like a knife cutting into Jack's heart

Especially when he looked at Jane's deep and emotionless eyes.

Jack felt as if his soul had been seen through by Jane, including the other side that even Jack didn't know about.

Jack's lips were pale and trembling like crazy. "No... No, Jane. I'm really sorry for what I did in the past. I already know my mistake! I want to make up to you for it and repent!"

"Then why didn't you say or do that when I returned to the Fowler family as your daughter who had been missing for 19 years, and before I showed how capable I was?"

"I was clearly the person you needed to make up to the most at that time! If not for your mistake, how could I have been lost? I was an orphan for 19 years! You said that you tried your best to look for me, but why did you throw me aside after finding me? You gave me hope, but then you gave me greater despair!"

"Not to mention that after I left the Fowler family, you! Jack! You forced, tortured, and misunderstood me time and time again. You know what you did! Even those things that others don't know!"

Micheal and Omar's hearts skipped a beat when they heard this.

Micheal's eyes gradually darkened, as if he was thinking about something.

Micheal's gaze was fixed on Jane as he thought about what he could gain from this.

Omar really wanted to slap himself now.

If he had known earlier, he wouldn't have dragged Micheal to look for Jack. Now that he heard about these things... how could he drink and remain friends with Jack in the future?

Jane didn't care what Micheal and Omar were thinking. It was good that they were here. She wanted to show them that this so-called Fowler Corporation's chairman, their business friend Jack, was a crazy ***!

"Now you're telling me that you know your mistake, feel guilty, and want to make up for it? If I were still the same weak and useless trash who only wanted to please you after I returned to the Fowler family, would you still say such things to me?"

"I'm afraid that after I leave the Fowler family, you would wish for me to die as soon as possible! You would hope that I, the scum who embarrassed the Fowler family, would completely disappear. Or you would wish to completely forget about me!"

No Way Back Chapter 398-Jane's words were so harsh as she treated the matter with much indifference.

Jack's heart almost stopped beating.

He was overwhelmed by sadness and did not know what to do.

He could only clench his fists tightly and lower his head. He was not able to refute Jane and could only accept that Jane had suppressed her emotions for many years.

His nails dug into the flesh of his palm. Blood was flowing from his hands.

He was in so much pain that he did not feel the pain in his palms.

The physical pain could not be compared to the torment in his heart.

Jane was right.

Back then, Jack thought that Jane would not be able to survive after she severed ties with the Fowler family. He thought that she was playing hardball. She wanted to make Jack humble himself and beg her to go back to the Fowler family. He thought she would take the opportunity to declare her rights over him.

Jack told Jane that she was daydreaming and would never give in to her. Even if Jane left the Fowler family, Jack still had Madelyn for a daughter. That was enough for him.

Jack said that if Jane did not cause trouble and stayed with the family, she might be able to inherit something from the Fowler family on account of her relationship with Jack. With that sum of money, she would not have to worry for the rest of her life. However, if Jane remained defiant, he vowed not to give her anything, including her status as the daughter of the Fowler family. She had to fend for herself going forward.

Jack thought that he was magnanimous and kind enough as a father. What Jane did was an insult to Jack, yet he was still willing to provide for Jane financially. The inheritance was something everyone would covet. However, Jane did not care for it.

When Jane returned to the Fowler family, she hid her identity and did not expose her true abilities. She did not do it for money, glory, or status. Instead, it was because they were Jane's parents and brothers. They were her blood family, her closest kin.

It was Jack who had misunderstood Jane. He had hurt her in the first place. Anna had left the Fowler family, feeling disheartened. Jack promised to clear Jane's name, but he trusted Madelyn instead. He did not realize that he had done wrong. He had humiliated Jane in every way possible.

If Jane had not revealed her true ability and impressed Jack, he would never understand Jane's intentions all along. He never showed any concern for Jane.

Jack should have known the harsh fact long ago.

No, Jack realized it, but for the sake of his pride, he chose to ignore the truth.

He did not want to admit that he was in the wrong. Now that Jane had told the truth directly, the last bit of his pride was shattered.

Jack was exactly as Jane had said. He was a selfish and cold-blooded monster.

Jack was speechless.

He was not fit to be Jane's father.

Kinship had made Jane disappointed and devastated. She used to harbor so much hope for her family.

Furthermore, Jack had never given Jane anything.

He had given Jane a life, but he had never fulfilled his duties or responsibilities as a father.

Jane had crushed Jack's pride in front of Omar and Micheal.

He was deeply humiliated by Jane.

Jane saw how quiet Jack was. He cowered in ****, not daring to say or do anything.

Jack looked like a completely different person to Omar and Micheal.

Was this the Jack Fowler they remembered? Was he the man who braved all dangers to venture to all parts of the world? Back then, he would courageously put his life at stake for the sake of his business.

Omar and Micheal had admired Jack since then. They had never lost their respect for him all these years.

Yet now, Jack looked so pitiful.

He did not dare to look his biological daughter in the eye.

He looked so defeated

Jane turned around and left.

This time, no one dared to stop her.

However, someone was observing this in secret. He saw everything.

His lips curled into a conniving smile.

That person had come to look for Micheal and chanced upon the group unexpectedly.

Besides, this matter involved Jane.

He mused, "This is going to be interesting"

The man thought for a***** and quietly followed the direction where Jane had left.

Jack stood there for a long time without moving.

If it were not for his chest heaving up and down, Omar and Michael would have thought that Jack was dead.

Sighing. Omar walked up to Jack and patted his shoulder. He said remorsefully. "Jack, I'm sorry. If it weren't for me..."

"This has nothing to do with you, Omar. It's my fault. I've sinned. Jane scolded me so hard that she woke me up completely, but I'm still in pain. Why was I such a *****back then? How can there be a father like me?"

"Jane thought that I was blinded by my own interests and only felt guilty when I saw what an outstanding person she had turned out to be. She was right to scold me. If Jane didn't achieve so much today, I might not have repented, let alone remembered that I had such a daughter. "Maybe someone like me doesn't deserve to have children at all. I'll only love them when they do me proud. If they are a *****to me, I don't care about them. Why does a cold blooded father like me exist?"

As Jack spoke, he could not help but laugh. His laughter grew louder until he finally sobbed and coughed.

He raised his head and took a few deep breaths to prevent his already swollen eyes from tearing with tears. He did not want to embarrass himself in front of his friends.

Omar did not know how to comfort Jack

He had known Jack for so long. This was the first time Omar had seen Jack so emotional. Omar had never seen him cry.

Honestly speaking, everyone was already at the age where they knew what their destiny was. If it were not for what happened to Henry and Jane, Jack would have already retired. He would be traveling with Anna, enjoying life.

After going through so much, some people had long become immune to pain.

The best way to destroy someone was to use kinship.

At this *****, Micheal walked forward. "I'm not trying to censure you, Jack. I can tell that you're really sincere about Jane. Things have come to this stage. There's nothing you can do now. If you had known about this earlier, you wouldn't have done what you did in the first place. I'm afraid you've hurt Jane too much."

"Yes, if I had known this would happen, I wouldn't have done what I did. No wonder so many people tried to lose their memories. I want to go back in time and return to the time when Jane had just returned to the Fowler family. I want to wake that ***and complacent self up.

"Omar, Michael, please. I'm in a bad mood right now. Drink with me. Let's drink again."

Jack felt so guilty that he was going crazy.

Perhaps it was better to go crazy. If he was crazy, he would not have to suffer the pain of losing his daughter and regret what he did in the past. Sometimes, being alive and sober was a mistake. He could not escape from it all.

No Way Back Chapter 399-"Alcohol is a poison that penetrates the soul. Too much alcohol will not do you any good. Jack, don't be crazy. Hurry up. Go back and take a shower. Have a rest. You may want to run away from everything now and drink until you're as drunk as mud. Not only will your body be in pain afterward, but you will also be emotionally drained. You still have to face all of this the next day.

'Michael, let's help Jack back to the hotel'

"Okay."

Omar could not bear to watch Jack in despair since they were good friends.

Without any further ado, Micheal and Omar carried Jack and walked toward the hotel, ignoring Jack's wails.

It was a clear night.

Jane was about to reach the hotel when a figure suddenly appeared in front of her..

When she realized that the person in front of him looked familiar, Jane stopped in her tracks.

There were so many coincidences that day.

Jane merely came out for a walk.

She had met so many people she knew along the way.

What luck

“Are you Jane Fowler?”

The handsome man in front of her was wearing a casual down jacket. There was a sinister smile on his face. His bangs were slightly drooping. and his looks were phenomenal.

It was Chester.

Chester had already seen Jane. He was the one who saw Jane and Jacka arguing earlier, together with Omar and Michael.

Even though Chester arrived a little late and did not hear the most intense part of the argument between the father and daughter, a smart person like him could sense that something was wrong when he saw the group of four. He chose to wait and see what happened next.

Chester had intended to look for Micheal when he went there.

He did not expect to chance upon such a scene.

Chester could tell that since Madelyn was injured and disfigured, the Fowler family's attitude toward her had taken a drastic change. Chester was no longer interested in making use of her to benefit from the Fowler family.

Right now, the Fowler family cared more about Jane.

This was especially true now that Jane had such a high reputation and status now.

The Fowlers probably regretted their decision to sever ties with Jane back then. Now they were trying all ways and means to get Jane back into the family so she could do them proud.

As long as he could win Jane over by sweet-talking her, Chester would be able to gain for this.

Thinking of this, Chester smiled brightly. “What a coincidence. I didn’t expect to see you here.”

“It’s not a coincidence. You were hiding and heard our conversation earlier. You followed me here. Am I right?”

Jane was calm

She had exposed Chester’s intentions.

Chester’s expression changed slightly.

Unexpectedly, Jane had discovered him earlier.

Although Chester looked frivolous, he had undergone a lot of training as a combat fighter. During training, he stood out from the group of senior brothers.

If it was not for his teacher’s recommendation, Micheal probably would not know of the existence of his illegitimate son.

Chester was ****in combat ***and hiding his breath.

He did not expect Jane to see through him so easily.

Chester

No wonder Chegfer could always sense an unfathomable aura from Jane.

This woman was indeed not as simple as she looked.

Chester suddenly got excited.

It had been a long time since he had met such an interesting woman.

Only a woman like Jane could make Chester have the desire of conquering her.

When he thought about how someone like Jane would kneel at his feet, he gave a smirk of satisfaction.

Of course, Chester was also rational enough to know that Jane was not one to be trifled with.

Money, glory, status, and life. Chester cherished all of them. He would not risk everything for a woman.

“You actually discovered me. Sigh, Jane Fowler, you’re really amazing. I admit defeat.”

“If there’s nothing else, I’m tired. I want to go back to sleep. Goodbye.”

If not for the fact that Chester had the ability to charm Madelyn, Jane would not take a second look at the man.

If he was really annoying, she would ***Chester like how she would crush a fly

Chester would not have the power to defend himself.

“Of course there’s something I want to say...”

Chester suddenly looked serious “Jane, are you responsible for what happened at Hotel Molov?”

I don’t know what you mean.”

Jane raised an eyebrow.

How many coincidences must she encounter that day?

First it was Shawn

Now, it was Chester.

Everyone seemed to know that Jane was the one who led Red Star Team to Hotel Molov.

Since when did information about her become so readily available?

While working with Eastshel to rescue the people trapped in Hotel Molov this time, the identities of Jane and members of the Red Star Team had been exposed.

She could understand if Shawn managed to get the information. However, she did not know how Chester knew about it.

Shawn could not possibly have told Chester.

*Looking at your reaction, I know that I’ve hit the nail on the head. I was only making a wild guess at first. When Hotel Molov was attacked by terrorsists, I secretly got a small signal transmitter. In order not to let the terrorists discover this, I could only use this discreetly.

“Other than highly-****hackers, it’s impossible for them to discover such a signal transmitter I was banking on this to get away. After we were successfully rescued, I investigated using my transmitter, and there were indeed signs of it being hacked.”

Chester took off his watch and handed it to Jane.

He took the mechanisms out in front of Jane.

The back of the watch gave out a faint blue glow.

Jane narrowed her eyes..

Two tiny signals were found in the interior of Hotel Molov

One of them was from Henry.

Jane had taught Henry this life-saving method. The frequency was the same, and Jane knew about it very well.

There was indeed another unfamiliar signal Jane had wondered who was the one who sent it.

She did not expect it to be this man in front of her. It was Chester.

He had prepared such a backup plan. No wonder he could seduce Madelyn and take off with so much money from the Fowler family in his previous life.

As an illegitimate child, Chester was indeed very capable.

“You wiped out all traces of it so thoroughly that I can’t be sure who hacked into my transmitter. However, I’ve studied this and found some clues accidentally. I also know that Mr. Lewis would not let this matter rest so easily.”

That’s why I went to test Mr. Lewis not long ago. From his tone, I guessed that he already knew who saved us. As long as we confirmed the arget, it would be much easier to find a fixed candidate. I didn’t expect the person to be you, but you’re Mr. ***junior. It’s no wonder you’re capable of this.”

Chester became more excited as he spoke.

He made his own deductions like a famous detective.

The *****the truth was revealed, it brought great satisfaction to him.

Right now, the Fowler family cared more about Jane.

This was especially true now that Jane had such a high reputation and status now.

The Fowlers probably regretted their decision to sever ties with Jane back then. Now they were trying all ways and means to get Jane back into the family so she could do them proud.

As long as he could win Jane over by sweet-talking her, Chester would be able to gain for this.

Thinking of this, Chester smiled brightly. "What a coincidence. I didn't expect to see you here."

"It's not a coincidence. You were hiding and heard our conversation earlier. You followed me here. Am I right?"

Jane was calm

She had exposed Chester's intentions.

Chester's expression changed slightly.

Unexpectedly, Jane had discovered him earlier.

Although Chester looked frivolous, he had undergone a lot of training as a combat fighter. During training, he stood out from the group of senior brothers.

If it was not for his teacher's recommendation, Micheal probably would not know of the existence of his illegitimate son.

Chester was ****in combat ***and hiding his breath.

He did not expect Jane to see through him so easily.

Chester

No wonder Chegfer could always sense an unfathomable aura from Jane.

This woman was indeed not as simple as she looked.

Chester suddenly got excited.

It had been a long time since he had met such an interesting woman.

Only a woman like Jane could make Chester have the desire of conquering her.

When he thought about how someone like Jane would kneel at his feet, he gave a smirk of satisfaction.

Of course, Chester was also rational enough to know that Jane was not one to be trifled with.

Money, glory, status, and life. Chester cherished all of them. He would not risk everything for a woman.

“You actually discovered me. Sigh, Jane Fowler, you’re really amazing. I admit defeat.”

“If there’s nothing else, I’m tired. I want to go back to sleep. Goodbye.”

If not for the fact that Chester had the ability to charm Madelyn, Jane would not take a second look at the man.

If he was really annoying, she would ***Chester like how she would crush a fly

Chester would not have the power to defend himself.

“Of course there’s something I want to say...”

Chester suddenly looked serious “Jane, are you responsible for what happened at Hotel Molov?”

I don’t know what you mean.”

Jane raised an eyebrow.

How many coincidences must she encounter that day?

First it was Shawn

Now, it was Chester.

Everyone seemed to know that Jane was the one who led Red Star Team to Hotel Molov.

Since when did information about her become so readily available?

While working with Eastshel to rescue the people trapped in Hotel Molov this time, the identities of Jane and members of the Red Star Team had been exposed.

She could understand if Shawn managed to get the information. However, she did not know how Chester knew about it.

Shawn could not possibly have told Chester.

*Looking at your reaction, I know that I've hit the nail on the head. I was only making a wild guess at first. When Hotel Molov was attacked by terrorists, I secretly got a small signal transmitter. In order not to let the terrorists discover this, I could only use this discreetly.

"Other than highly-****hackers, it's impossible for them to discover such a signal transmitter I was banking on this to get away. After we were successfully rescued, I investigated using my transmitter, and there were indeed signs of it being hacked."

Chester took off his watch and handed it to Jane.

He took the mechanisms out in front of Jane.

The back of the watch gave out a faint blue glow.

Jane narrowed her eyes..

Two tiny signals were found in the interior of Hotel Molov

One of them was from Henry.

Jane had taught Henry this life-saving method. The frequency was the same, and Jane knew about it very well.

There was indeed another unfamiliar signal Jane had wondered who was the one who sent it.

She did not expect it to be this man in front of her. It was Chester.

He had prepared such a backup plan. No wonder he could seduce Madelyn and take off with so much money from the Fowler family in his previous life.

As an illegitimate child, Chester was indeed very capable.

"You wiped out all traces of it so thoroughly that I can't be sure who hacked into my transmitter. However, I've studied this and found some clues accidentally. I also know that Mr. Lewis would not let this matter rest so easily."

That's why I went to test Mr. Lewis not long ago. From his tone, I guessed that he already knew who saved us. As long as we confirmed the target, it would be much easier to find a fixed candidate. I didn't expect the person to be you, but you're Mr. ***junior. It's no wonder you're capable of this."

Chester became more excited as he spoke.

He made his own deductions like a famous detective.

The *****the truth was revealed, it brought great satisfaction to him.

"Since you like to deduce things so much, I won't give you an answer first. Instead, I want to make a deduction about you.

"Chester, have you been very close to Madelyn recently?"

When Jane said this, Chester's gaze met hers.

Her eyes were deep as the ocean.

Chester's heart skipped a beat.

No Way Back Chapter 400-Under the gaze of Jane's eyes, Chester felt that his soul had nowhere to hide.

It was as if Jane could see through him.

"It's true that I know Miss Madelyn, but I'm not as close to her as you think."

Chester realized that he had made the wrong decision to get close to Jane

Jane was capable enough to rescue the hostages at Hotel Molov. It was something even the police in Eastshel could not do.

Jane's ****as a hacker were definitely far beyond anyone's Imagination.

How could he try to hide anything from such a ***hacker?

It was an impossible thing to do.

Chester did not think he could hide his true identity from Jane.

She was someone who knew everything about Chester all the time. It was too frightful. The slightest wrong move from Chester could cost him his life

“I suddenly remember that I have something important to do. Sorry, Jane, I have to go now.”

Chester was unconsciously drenched in a cold sweat.

Even if the wind was strong on a cold night, he could not hide his fear.

“Why are you so nervous? Relax. I won’t eat you up.”

Jane chuckled. “Go on then. I’m going back to sleep too. I look forward to chatting with you the next time when I’m in a better mood, Chester”

“I’m looking forward to it too”

Chester almost fled the scene.

After a brief confrontation, Jane destroyed Chester’s pretense with just one sentence. He felt very vulnerable in front of Jane.

After walking far away, he looked back at Jane.

She was no longer there.

Chester could not help but sigh again.

She was indeed a terrifying woman.

In this lifetime, he would rather offend anyone than Jane.

At this ***** Chester’s phone rang.

Chester’s face darkened when he saw the message. He stuffed his phone back into his pocket, hailed a taxi, and rushed to the hotel.

Micheal had gone back to his room after sending Jack back to his room. He had also parted ways with Omar.

Micheal was wearing pajamas and holding a glass of red wine. He stood in front of the window on the 56th floor and looked down at the night view. It was a city that never slept. The *****and fog settled under his feet, and his eyes swayed slightly.

Just then, there was a knock on the door.

Micheal gave a shout, and the door unlocked by voice activation.

Chester walked in. When he saw Micheal, he hid his emotions and said respectfully, "Mr. Laton."

The two faces looked so similar.

Anyone who saw them would guess that they were related by blood.

Chester was Micheal's biological son, although he was an illegitimate child who could not be seen.

He was not the child of his first or second wife. If not for his talent, no one would take any notice of him.

Whenever Chester saw Micheal, his biological father, he could only address him as Mr. Laton.

It felt like he was talking to a stranger. Like a subordinate talking to his superior.

At this*****, Chester could not help but think that perhaps he and Jane belonged to the same group of people.

They both had a sad family background. Yet they could not run away from their families till death.

"Do you know Jack's daughter, Jane?"

Micheal suddenly asked Chester about Jane.

Chester lowered his eyes "I can't say that I know her. We only met a few times. What's the matter, Mr. Laton?"

"What do you think of me taking Jane in as a goddaughter?"

Chester was astounded

He did not expect Micheal to ask him about this.

He looked at Micheal in surprise.

“Why are you looking at me like that? You should have seen what happened just now. The Fowler family is in such a mess. Jane even humiliated Jack in front of us. I think Jane will never forgive the Fowler family.

If I can have such a gifted goddaughter, it will help the Crown' Group and even the Laton family greatly. There's no harm in doing so. I can even use my relationship with Jane to get close to Mr. ****. He's the developer of the photolithography machine. This is the fastest way to rise to the ranks of Hugh's D.Y. Group. Don't you think so?”

Micheal was cognizant of these facts.

Chester thought that he should be careful in front of his father.

Micheal's appetite was much bigger than what Chester thought.

Chester thought for a ***** and said. “If you are so confident about it, there's no harm in giving it a try. Even if Jane is successful now that she doesn't lack anything, she still needs a family. Although she doesn't say it out loud, it's evident that she's been badly hurt by her relationship with the Fowler family.”

“That's what I thought too. Anyway, we have nothing to lose by trying. The important thing is the Laton family isn't too bad. Don't you agree?”

Micheal was still very confident in his own family's influence.

No matter what, the Laton family was the most powerful clan in Potterburg.

It was comparable to the Croft family in Stormton City.

Many people could not wait to **** up to the Laton family, but few could reach their status to be able to do so.

Micheal was happy to acknowledge Jane as his goddaughter as long as he could gain from the relationship.

The Laton family could give Jane much more than she could imagine.

When Chester heard this, he recalled how Jane was looking at him earlier.

He could not tolerate her icy attitude.

Initially, Chester thought that he was not afraid of anything in this world.

Chester had endured all kinds of difficulties in his life.

In fact, other than luck, Chester believed that he relied mostly on his abilities to survive to this day.

However, the minute he saw Jane, he was terrified.

It was not only because Jane had the ability to find out about Chester's identity and information.

Chester instinctively told himself that there was more to it. Jane was someone he could not provoke.

This sixth sense had saved Chester many times at the critical/****

When he thought of the look in Jane's eyes, Chester was almost certain that Micheal's plan would surely fail.

He might even get himself into trouble..

So what?

He could still make use of someone else to deal with Jane.

He would see how Micheal provoked Jane.

Just then, Micheal walked forward and patted Chester's shoulder.

"You've been doing well recently. The few hundreds of thousands of dollars I've given you seemed to have grown to hundreds of millions."

"Moreover, the land that we took from Fowler Corporation the last time has been developed according to your plan. We can earn hundreds of millions of dollars in profits. The prospects are very impressive.

"Chester, I think very highly of you. When you really achieve great results, the entire Laton family will be able to accept you and let you return to the Laton family."

Chester pretended to be flattered and said respectfully, "Yes, Mr. Laton."
