No Way Back Chapter 401-Seven days passed in the blink of an eye.

Jane had been made famous by that well-known speech.

Coupled with the title of X, everything about Jane, including news of her being the winner of an art competition and a racing champion, was leaked.

Everyone called her 'Immortal'. They wondered where this favored girl hail from. She was not human.

Jane's attractive looks made everyone in the entertainment industry sit up and take note of her. Her aloof and cold temperament attracted countless men and women, and they became her fans.

There was a fan club set up on Twitter to support Jane. It had exceeded five million fans at an astonishing speed, and it was still increasing rapidly.

Since Jane did not have a Twitter account and did not intend to enter the entertainment industry, she bought an account to make the speech. She disbanded the fan club immediately after that because she did not want her life to attract too much attention.

Jane was the Darknet's number one hacker, Queen. Her ability to protect information was extremely skillful. So was her ability to hide. Under the protection of the country, it was impossible for ordinary people to find any information about Jane. The information they discovered was very superficial.

There were a few people who were not afraid of death and wanted to use unorthodox ways to obtain information about Jane and sell it to the black market overseas. Jane sent them a lawyer's letter straight away. She got Red Star Team to handle the matters thereafter.

In the face of imprisonment and the complete disclosure of their personal information, all of them were frightened out of their wits. They knew that they had provoked someone they should not have, so they apologized repeatedly and disappeared.

After this matter spread, no one in the underground circle dared to stalk Jane anymore. Jane was the undisputed Queen of the Darknet. Only a small number of people knew about her true identity.

Life was still the same. It was no different from the past.

One thing had changed though.

For some reason, Lila seemed to have disappeared recently.

Jane asked Lila to go to Nightshade Bar to drink and dance, but she said that she was busy.

Jane did not know what she was busy with.

Jane felt like she had been abandoned by her best friend. She was all alone.

Did Lila not say that she would stand by Jane even if the entire world was against Jane? Did she not say that she would fight the world with Jane?

What a fickle woman! Jane was flabbergasted.

On this day, Jane received a message from Shawn.

Jane, Mr. Laton of the Crown Group asked me to pass you a message through some of our mutual connections. He wants to meet you."

"He is now in Stormton City discussing a business deal. He's waiting for your answer."

"Mr. Laton?"

Micheal's cunning face flashed across Jane's mind.

Michael was also Chester's father.

"How interesting," she thought.

"Okay, I'll give you an address and time, Mr. Lewis. Please help me pass the message to Mr.

Laton.

"By the way, why are you helping Mr. Laton?"

Jane thought that Micheal must be a nobody to Shawn. Shawn was someone Michael could not wait to ingratiate himself with.

Why would Shawn do him this favor to pass the message to Jane?

"When I established the Hope Junior School Foundation in Curcsia, the Crown Group, and Mr. Laton gave me a lot of support. After all, I'm in Eastshel and can't always be at Cruksia to handle some matters about the foundation. During this period, Mr. Laton was helping me. "In the end, it's a win-win situation for both sides. Mr. Laton gained a good reputation for the Crown Group because of this foundation. I never like to owe anyone favors."

"I understand. Please pass my message to Mr. Laton then."

After hanging up, Jane rolled her eyes and placed the phone under her chin.

Micheal was Jack's close friend, although Jane sensed that they were still guarded against each other.

At the very least, their relationship was much better than the others. They had no reason to go against each other.

That night, Micheal had witnessed Jane humiliating Jack.

After this incident, Jane did not think that Micheal would try to help reconcile Jack with her.

Micheal was full of himself. He was too ***.

"Let me see why this guy is looking for me. After all, I'm also interested in that son of his." At the same time, Chester was also in Stormton City.

After learning that Jane had agreed to meet Micheal, the corners of his curled into a cold smile.

After thinking for a while, he took out his phone and sent a message to Madelyn.

The next day, they met at a teahouse.

Micheal arrived at the private room Jane had reserved.

They agreed to meet at 12 noon.

Jane had yet to arrive.

Micheal was not in a hurry. He sat quietly, drinking his tea.

11:39-1

After half an hour, there was still no sign of impatience on his face.

At this moment, Madelyn appeared at the entrance of the teahouse.

She was wearing a mask and a Chanel hat. It was a limited edition model from the previous year. She exuded an extremely luxurious aura.

The reason why she did not have the current year's limited edition was that the Fowler family did not care much about her well-being these days. They did not buy her the latest edition of the hat.

Normally, Madelyn would only wear a limited edition item for one season. When the new edition was released, she would toss it aside. She never bothered to take it out again.

Madelyn would never wear anything from the past season.

Yet now, Jane had caused her to lose everything.

Madelyn took a deep breath.

She would suppress her anger for the time being.

The reason why she came out today was that Madelyn had not left the house for a long time after being disfigured. It was time for her to come out and get some fresh air. She could not stay at home forever.

Life had to go on. Madelyn could not possibly end her life just because of that incident.

Secondly, Chester had asked Madelyn to check out the teahouse.

He told her the tea was very fragrant, and the environment was pleasant. There was also melodious music playing in the background. It was a good place for Madelyn to rest. Chester asked Madelyn to tell him about her experience after her visit.

Since it was her Prince Charming's recommendation, Madelyn agreed to go without hesitation.

After spending so many days with Chester, Madelyn felt that he must have fallen in love with her.

Otherwise, why would he pay so much attention to how she felt? He would ask if she slept well and ate well. He was every bit the perfect boyfriend.

Before she was disfigured, Madelyn was very confident in her looks and abilities.

Chester did not know that Madelyn had been disfigured. It was very normal for him to fall in love with her.

Madelyn was secretly delighted at the thought of that.

Because of Chester's care and concern over the past few days, Madelyn felt that her life was not so bad after all. This was the power of love.

Madelyn then walked into the teashop and entered the private room that Chester booked.

It was next to the room Jane booked

No Way Back Chapter 402- Not long after Madelyn entered the teahouse, a luxury car arrived at the entrance.

The driver opened the car door, and a pair of fair and slender legs stepped out.

Jane was wearing a black leather jacket and a short skirt. Coupled with a pair of high heels, her attire showed off her curvaceous figure perfectly. Her jet-black hair was scattered loosely, looking every bit charming and gorgeous.

She removed her sunglasses and kept them in her pocket. With one hand in her pocket, Jane walked into the teahouse looking very cool.

The manager of the teahouse knew that Jane, Yale's junior would be meeting the chairman of the Crown Group, Micheal that day. He had come to the shop especially to host them and to ensure that there were no mishaps. He led Jane into the private room.

Micheal's expression changed when he saw Jane.

"I'm sorry, I was held up by something at the last minute. I hope I haven't kept Mr. Laton waiting."

"Not at all. After all, I was the one who asked you out. I'm happy to wait, no matter how long it takes. Please take a seat."

Micheal's tone was even. He smiled meaningfully. No one could guess what he was thinking.

Though intelligent, Jane was not capable of knowing what someone was thinking just by looking at their eyes or expression.

This was especially true for cunning men like Michael.

Meanwhile, in the room next door, Madelyn could finally remove her mask so she could breathe better.

While she chatted with Chester, she also took photos of the place. She wanted to post her review about the teahouse on her social media account.

"Chester's suggestion is really good. The surrounding is pleasant, and the tea is very fragrant.

She then posted her review online.

Just then, Madelyn heard voices coming from the next room.

Her heart skipped a beat.

The voices were very soft.

An ordinary person would have ignored the noises.

However, Madelyn immediately recognized whose voice it was.

Even if that person turned into ashes, Madelyn would never fail to recognize her.

She was the one who ruined her life. It was Jane.

Madelyn lamented that it was her unlucky day.

Jane had to appear during one of the rare occasions when she was chatting with her Prince

11-201

Charming.

Originally in high spirits, Madelyn's mood was changed for the worse.

Looking around the room, she came up with a plan. After some testing, she discovered that the walls were not completely soundproof.

She placed an empty cup against a wall.

She wanted to eavesdrop on Jane to see who she was talking to and what they were talking about.

Her intention was to try and uncover any of Jane's secrets.

That would be her lucky moment.

The gods had presented such a golden opportunity to her.

Madelyn was amazed at her resourcefulness.

Madelyn's efforts were not in vain. She could hear the conversation next door very clearly.

Next door in the private room, Jane smiled faintly and sat on the chair. Micheal stood up and served her some tea. "Miss Jane, tea brewing is a special skill. Since you have chosen to meet at this place, you must be interested in the art of tea brewing."

"No, I simply used my phone to find a suitable place. The rating for this place is rather high. Besides, the location is very central. I don't have to travel too far to come here."

Micheal's hand that was holding the teapot paused in mid-air. Jane's response showed she did not take this meeting with Micheal seriously. To her, it was just a casual meetup. He smiled. "Miss Fowler, you can really joke."

"Mr. Laton, let's not beat around the bush. Why did you ask me here? We only met once that night. I can't figure out why you want to meet me. Please tell me the reason."

Jane went straight to the point.

Micheal felt a chill run down his spine when he met Jane's calm gaze.

For the first time in Micheal's life, he had met with an aloofness from a 20-year-old girl.

He thought, "She's truly worthy of being Mr. Mitchell's junior. Jack Fowler, you're really *to have given up this precious gem."

Madelyn's heart skipped a beat.

Did Jane address the person as 'Mr. Laton'?

Was Jane with Chester?

On second thoughts, she thought that the man did not sound like Chester.

The voice was mature and charming.

It sounded similar to Jack.

The calm and confident voice must belong to someone very experienced and knowledgeable.

Madelyn imagined that the other party must have a successful career with high status in society. He must also certainly possess good looks.

11:30 5

She became excited.

It must be a mature and wealthy man.

She then let out a curse. Was this another man whom Jane seduced? Were they here for a rendezvous?

Jane had already bewitched Yale, Hugh, Connor, and Robert. Why was she still flirting around and seducing every man she met?

Madelyn was filled with envy and hatred. She was about to shed tears of blood.

However, Madelyn started thinking.

If Jane was indeed meeting another man, it would give Madelyn the opportunity to take incriminating photos.

She would send the photos to Hugh and the other men. That would show them what a cheap woman Jane was. Madelyn would be able to expose Jane.

When the men found out about Jane's true colors, they would cast her aside. Perhaps, they might shift their attention to Madelyn.

Moreover, the Fowlers would not treat Madelyn coldly like before. In turn, they might be disappointed with Jane again.

Everything would then go back to normal. Madelyn could return to the Fowler family as their beloved daughter. She would be the center of attention once again. Her carefree and happy days were coming back.

Madelyn felt tempted when she thought of this possibility.

She figured that if she continued to stay in the room, she would not have any opportunity to take the photos.

She had to find a place outside to take the photos in secret.

Madelyn knew it would be very dangerous for her to do so.

She might be caught if she was not careful. That would create more trouble for her. However, if she did not seize this opportunity, her whole life would be crushed by Jane. She might never have a chance to turn things around again.

She reasoned to herself, "Madelyn Fowler, this is your last chance. You have to be brave. Your future will be bright if you succeed.

"You have to take some risk when dealing with an enemy like Jane."

Madelyn tried to convince herself to take action.

Just then, she heard a voice from the room again.

"All right, since Miss Fowler is so direct, I'll be honest with you too."

Micheal made a cup of coffee for Jane before saying, "I want to have a mutually beneficial and win-win cooperation with Miss Fowler."

Jane pursed her lips. "Tell me about your plans."

"I wish to acknowledge Miss Fowler as my goddaughter, the daughter of the Crown Group can give you all the resources from the Crown Group. As long as it's not too much, I'll let Miss Fowler use whatever you need. In exchange, I need your identity to be associated with the Crown Group.”

No Way Back Chapter 403-The daughter of the Crown Group?

Madelyn realized who was the other party speaking to Jane was.

He was none other than the chairman of the Crown Group, Micheal Laton.

Michael was even more powerful than Jack, who was the chairman of the Fowler Corporation.

The Crown Group was such a powerful corporation that it was once comparable to the D.Y.

Group.

When she was young, Madelyn had attended various banquets and met Micheal a few times. She also knew that Micheal and Jack were good friends.

it!

How could a piece of trash like Jane be the daughter of the Crown Group?

The status was even higher than the heiress of the Fowler Corporation.

If Jane agreed to Micheal’s proposal, she would become the heiress of the Crown Group.

Madelyn would end up looking like a clown compared to her.

Moreover, if the Fowlers knew about this, they would cherish Jane even more.

Suddenly, someone knocked at the door.

“Ma’am, we’re here to serve you dessert.”

Madelyn was so engrossed in eavesdropping on the conversation next door. At the same time, her mind was also consumed with jealousy and hatred for Jane.

She did not hear the waiter talking outside the room.

Seeing no response, the waiter pushed the door open and entered the room.

As soon as he entered, he saw Madelyn standing in such a strange position.

Stunned, he asked, “Ma’am, what’s wrong with you?”

Only then did Madelyn snap back to her senses. She hurriedly put down the cup and wore her mask.

She glared at the waiter. “What are you doing? Don’t you know that you have to knock on the door before coming in? Did I tell you to come in? Is this how you treat your guests in this teahouse?”

Gritting her teeth, Madelyn spoke in a hushed tone. She was afraid that Jane would discover that she was next door. The soundproofing in the teahouse was not ideal.

The waiter looked aggrieved. “Ma’am, I knocked on the door and asked if I can come in. You didn’t say a word. The door wasn’t locked either. I thought you will be fine with me coming in so I...”

“All right, all right. Just put the things down and leave.”

Madelyn was anxious to continue listening to the conversation next door.

Meanwhile, both of them continued talking next door.

“Goddughter?”

Jane’s eyes flickered with a cold light.

She felt that everything sounded so ****.

“Mr. Laton, you were present that night there, and you saw how I humiliated Jack Fowler. You should know that I don’t care about kinship anymore. Do you think that just because I’ve cut off all ties with the Fowler family, I’m feeling lonely? Do you think I’ll long for family ties and will be willing to be your goddaughter?”

Jane’s tone was like a ferocious beast lying dormant at night.

It was dangerous and sinister.

Michael had underestimated her.

Micheal could hear the disdain in Jane's tone. He explained patiently, "Miss Fowler, don't be angry. I'm only making a suggestion. I respect you very much. My family admires you too. When I went back that day and told my family about you, they felt very regretful. If Miss Fowler is unhappy with my idea, just treat it like a joke. We'll pretend that nothing has happened."

"I don't want to hear such a suggestion again. You bigoted capitalists like to use kinship as a bargaining chip. You are all blinded by greed. Family ties are not important to you. You're more interested in who can bring you the most benefits."

"I feel sad for the children in your circle. I pity them very much. Kinship is never existent in your family. Mr. Laton, think about it. Anyone who has a brain won't believe what you just said."

With that, Jane stood up and prepared to leave.

Micheal did not expect Jane to get so angry. He quickly went up and apologized. "I'm sorry, Miss Fowler. If I have offended you, please forgive me. I didn't mean to offend you."

"Do you think I can't tell whether you mean it? If I am just an ordinary orphan, will the chairman of Crown Group bother to see me? He'll probably think it's easier to crush me than crush an ant. At the end of the day, you're just like Jack Fowler? Now he's only proud of me and wants to use me as a bargaining chip when he realizes how valuable I am."

Although Jane knew that if she agreed to Micheal's request, she could use it to her advantage and deal a *to the Fowler family.

However, she was not *enough to risk her future so she could take her revenge on the Fowler family.

She would never be happy working with Michael. The Laton family was no different from the Fowler family.

"Mr. Laton, I suggest you learn more about the life of an ordinary family. So what if you've gained a lot of money, glory, and status? In the end, you've lost more than all these. You'll never understand the love and warmth that a family can bring."

Jane's tone was so frosty that anyone near her would shudder.

11:39

Chapter 403

She strode past Micheal and stormed out of the room.

A pale-looking Micheal was left in the room.

After chasing the waiter away, Madelyn only managed to hear the last part of their conversation.

However, the words were not clear as they were standing far away from the wall.

“What’s going on? What exactly happened?”

Madelyn bit her thin lips.

She felt very anxious.

It was all that waiter’s fault. When she got to the bottom of the matter, she vowed to file a complaint against him.

Bang!

Madelyn was almost scared out of her wits.

Micheal had picked up a cup and smashed it to the ground.

“Ahhh!”

The shattering sound in the room attracted the manager’s attention

Knowing that the person in the private room was the chairman of the Crown Group, the manager walked in cautiously. “Mr. Laton, what’s wrong? Is something wrong?”

Micheal took a deep breath and suppressed the urge to beat the manager up. “Nothing. Get out!”

“Yes.”

Seeing that Micheal was so angry, the manager did not dare to stay any longer. He quickly scurried out of the room.

“*it. Jane Fowler, no one has ever dared to talk to me like this. You’re the first!

“You’re really capable. I, Micheal Laton, will remember this day.”

Micheal gritted his teeth in anger.

Ever since the Crown Group became more prosperous, everyone started fawning at Michael.

They were willing to tolerate looks of disdain from Micheal. They were happy to wait for Micheal for hours and be fooled around by him. They willingly swallowed their pride to be in his good books. Jane's words revealed deep mockery, contempt, and indifference.

What she did to him was unforgivable.

She even accused Micheal of being a bigoted capitalist.

No one had ever spoken to him like this.

Micheal left the private room, seething in anger.

He was boiling with rage as he stormed off. It was as if he was not here to drink tea but to someone.

Madelyn quickly went to the door of the room and watched in secret.

She saw Micheal's back as he walked off

She thought anxiously. "Are you leaving already? Where's Jane? Did she agree to be Mr. Laton's goddaughter?"

No Way Back Chapter 404-Madelyn wanted to know the ending most.

In the end, she did not get to hear the most crucial information.

Madelyn could not care less. She walked into the room occupied by Jane and Michael directly. She clenched her fists when she saw that there was no one inside. Immediately she ran out to give chase.

Madelyn saw Micheal, but she did not dare to provoke him.

She wanted to find Jane.

Madelyn's eyes searched the surrounding closely. Finally, she saw Jane's car. Jane was sitting in the car, about to drive off.

Madelyn rushed forward to stop her. "Jane! Jane!"

Jane frowned when she heard the loud voice calling her. She looked out of the car window.

Madelyn was wearing a mask. She leaned against the car window. Beads of perspiration ran down her head.

She looked as *as a ghost.

Jane's twitched. "Madelyn, are you a stalker? Why are you everywhere?"

"I should be the one saying this to you!" Madelyn fumed inwardly.

She was very agitated, but she did not forget to continue putting on an act.

"Janie, I didn't expect to see you here. What a coincidence."

"I think I saw you arguing with someone just now. Isn't that Daddy's friend, Mr. Laton?"

"What happened to you? I was so worried."

Jace looked intently at Madelyn, who was wearing a mask. Only her eyes were visible. She looked pitiful.

Jane rolled her eyes.

She felt that Madelyn was wasting her talent. She should be working in the entertainment industry.

Her eyes were enough to deceive most people.

She was a born actress.

"What do you want to know? Madelyn Fowler, why don't you take off your mask and show me how you look now?"

"I heard that you're disfigured. How tragic. I want to know how much you've recovered after being disfigured. You've always been proud of your beauty. I want to see how much you're hiding behind the mask now. I want to know how ashamed you are of seeing people now."

Madelyn was speechless.

She did not expect Jane to be so vicious.

She was rubbing salt into Madelyn's wound the minute they met.

Chapter 404

The corners of Madelyn's *, which was hidden under the mask, twitched crazily. Her eyes began to turn red, and tears started streaming down her face.

"Jamie, I... I'm already so miserable. Please, I know you me and don't like me, but don't hurt me anymore.

"Ever since I was disfigured, my family started to stay away from me. Even Janie is treating me so coldly now. I don't wish to live anymore..."

Jane merely sneered, "Why don't you go and *? Why are you pretending to be pitiful in front of me? If your trick doesn't work on the Fowlers, do you think it will work on me?"

Madelyn cursed in her heart. "it, Jane Fowler!"

Madelyn then removed her mask, revealing her face which had been stabbed earlier.

Jane pulled down her sunglasses slightly and stared at Madelyn's face. "Madelyn Fowler, your face suits you now. You only need to twitch your face a little, and you look like a monster instantly. Moreover, you can't pretend to be pitiful like an angelic now. You've become an ordinary woman. Tsk tsk tsk, this is more suitable for you."

"Janie, I know you me. Daddy and Mommy always love me for the past 18 years. I've robbed you of their love. Now, I've paid the price. I'm disfigured. As a woman, you should know how important a face is to a woman.

"I'm here to see you because I'm worried about you. I saw how angry you and Mr. Laton were just now. I'm showing you what my face looks like now to prove that I don't harbor any bad intentions..."

Jane thought for a moment and smiled. "All right, Madelyn. No matter what, I can never be like you. You are full of lies, and you live in a world of pretense all day. No one knows what you're thinking all this while. I'll be honest with you. Mr. Laton asked me to be his goddaughter, the daughter of Crown Group."

Madelyn had guessed correctly.

Her heart skipped a beat, and she asked nervously, “Janie... How could that be? Mr. Laton is Daddy’s friend. He knows what happened between you and the Fowler family. Why will he take Janie as his goddaughter? Janie, what do you think? Did you...”

“That’s enough. I will only tell you what Mr. Laton and I were discussing. As for my decision, I’m not obliged to tell you. Goodbye.”

After saying that, Jane put on her sunglasses and started the engine,

“What? Janie...”

Madelyn had yet to know what she wanted to find out most.

How could she let Jane leave without telling her the answer?

Madelyn already knew what they were talking about earlier.

Jane stepped on the accelerator and did not give Madelyn a chance to react.

In the blink of an eye, she sped off.

Madelyn also wanted to show proof that Jane hit her.

Spinning around, she screamed out loud and fell to the ground.

A bruise on her thigh soon appeared.

However, Jane did not show any signs of stopping. The car disappeared from Madelyn’s sight at lightning speed.

“Jane Fowler...”

Madelyn spat out these three words in extreme hatred.

At this moment, the security guard, who was patrolling the area, noticed Madelyn sprawled on the ground. He quickly walked up to her. “Miss, are you all right?”

He caught sight of Madelyn’s face, which was contorted with rage.

The scars on her face were visible. Her flesh was just growing out. It was a hideous sight.

“Ah! Ghost!”

The fifty-year-old security guard was so frightened that his face turned pale. He quickly scrambled away.

“it! You’re the ghost! Your entire family is ghosts!”

Madelyn roared and quickly put on her mask. She limped away with her injured leg.

Little did she know that someone saw what happened.

Chester’s lips curled into a cold smile.

It seemed that Jane had successfully provoked Micheal. Chester had achieved what he wanted.

In this world, there were only a handful of people who could make Micheal take a beating. At this moment, Chester was not able to do that. He had to rely on Micheal to survive. He scoffed inwardly, “Micheal Laton, oh Micheal Laton. It’s such a delight seeing you look so defeated. Jane is really a tough cookie.”

The more important part was Chester’s second plan.

Madelyn was sitting in the car, heading back to the Fowlers’ villa.

After calming down, Madelyn hesitated whether to tell the Fowlers about what had happened that day.

Should she pretend that she did not know anything?

If it was in the past, Madelyn would definitely tell her family all about it.

Of course, she would add more details to spice up the story.

The bruise on her thigh gave her an opportunity to things up. The Fowlers would  Jane even more.

The Fowlers were paying so much attention to Jane now as they felt guilty toward her. They even started to ignore Madelyn.

If this matter was not handled properly, her plan might backfire.

What should she do?

Just as Madelyn was deliberating, her phone rang.

No Way Back Chapter 405-The caller was Chester.

Madelyn suddenly remembered that she was so engrossed in eavesdropping on the conversation between Jane and Michael that she had forgotten to reply to Chester's message.

Looking at the series of unread messages from Chester, Madelyn quickly answered the call. "Hello? Chester, this is Maddie. Something happened just now. I'm sorry I didn't see your message..."

H

"Anyway, I'm glad to know that you're all right. Maddie, I saw that you didn't reply to my messages just now. I was so worried about you. Are you all right? What happened?"

Madelyn was touched when she heard how concerned Chester was.

Her heart was filled with warmth.

Madelyn realized that she had not lost everything.

At least there was a man who loved her dearly. He was Chester.

Madelyn had fallen madly in love with Chester. Without hesitation, she told him everything that had happened.

Of course, Madelyn still maintained her innocent and kind image. She did not mention that she was eavesdropping. She merely mentioned that she had accidentally bumped into them.

Madelyn could not let Chester think that she was a hypocritical and scheming person.

"Did it really happen?"

Chester pretended not to know anything and fell silent for a moment.

"Chester, tell me, what should I do? Should I tell Daddy about this?"

Madelyn was in a dilemma.

She did not know whether she should tell the truth.

She was feeling very frustrated.

“Maddie, I think you should tell them about it. Otherwise, this matter might get blown out of proportion. Mr. Fowler and the rest of your family might be angry if you get involved in this.”

“Well...”

Madelyn was still hesitating.

“Of course, the decision is yours. I’m just giving you a suggestion. No matter what happens,

I don’t want you to get hurt. You should know my feelings toward you. You just have to follow your heart. I’ll support you.”

Chester was retreating to advance. He managed to influence Madelyn’s decision.

“Thank you, Chester. I know what I should do now.”

Madelyn made up her mind after Chester’s cajoling.

Chapter 405

She was in two minds initially. Now she decided to listen to the man she loved most. She would leave the rest to fate.

Madelyn did not realize that her thoughts were now being controlled by Chester.

“Chester, if not for you, I won’t know what to do now. You’re my knight in shining armor. You appear when I am at my darkest. You light up my world and bring warmth to my life. You won’t leave me, will you?”

“*girl, how can I leave you? We’ve been together for so long. Don’t you know how I feel about you, Maddie?”

Chester’s gentle voice was like a spell cast on Madelyn.

She was like someone who had fallen into the deep sea, searching desperately for a life buoy to cling onto.

After hearing what Chester said, Madelyn now had the strength to stay afloat. She did not want to drown.

Madelyn started crying. “Thank you, Chester. Thank you...”

This time, the tears were heartfelt.

At the same time, it also showed that Madelyn had completely fallen under Chester's charm.

"Maddie, I know that our first encounter was an accident. Our interaction was also a transaction. However, after getting to know you for the past two years, I realized that you are a very gentle and adorable girl who needs my protection.

"My heart longs to get closer to you, especially when I see you crying helplessly. My heart hurts so much. When I saw you lying in the hospital in Eastshel, I was heartbroken. I feel the same just now, thinking that something may have happened to you. I really want to see you and hug you. I want to bring cheer and comfort to you."

"Chester..."

Madelyn cried even harder.

Madelyn could not resist Chester's tender words of love. They pierced right through her heart like arrows.

Madelyn knew she could never push this man away after hearing his confession.

She only wanted to live for Chester now.

"All right, my little princess. Are you trying to make my heart ache by crying so hard?

"Give me a smile, okay? I'm telling you this not because I want to see your tears, but because I want to see your happy smile."

"Okay!"

After chatting with Chester, Madelyn realized that she was almost home.

"Chester, I'll listen to you and tell Daddy and Mommy about this. I'm home. Let's talk next time."

"Maddie, can you give me a goodbye kiss?"

Chapter 405 "Oh..."

Madelyn blushed.

She looked around carefully.

After making sure that the driver was concentrating on the road, Madelyn kissed into the phone. "Muack!"

"Haha, Maddie. Thank you. You're so cute."

“You’re so annoying, Chester. Why are you so ? You’re always teasing me.”

Chester’s antics cheered Madelyn up tremendously.

She liked men like Chester. He was tall, handsome, and dignified. Most importantly, he was a little roguish. Yet he was willing to spend time with her and coax her.

He was the Prince Charming that Madelyn always dreamed of.

Madelyn never felt so happy in her life. She wondered if this was how first love should feel like.

She did not scheme or make use of him. She was merely in love with him. She was willing to give up everything for him. All she wanted was to be filled with Chester’s tenderness.

Madelyn was so immersed in the joy of love that she did not notice that the driver was looking at Madelyn’s delicate and posture through the rearview mirror. He rolled his eyes.

He thought that he was driving a home.

He quickly sent her to the destination.

After hanging up, Chester’s eyes started to sparkle.

“Madelyn, oh Madelyn. I will force you to a corner bit by bit. You will have to betray the Fowler family and stand on my side. Then, you will help me seize the Fowler family’s assets.

“Don’t blame me. If I don’t do this, I won’t be able to impress Micheal and return to the Laton family. I want to take back everything that belongs to me.”

Chester knew that Micheal’s two wives were already aware of his existence.

His two wives did not care how many illegitimate children Micheal had.

The only thing they would not be able to tolerate was if these children were talented and would pose a threat to their standing in the family.

If not for the fact that Chester was extremely talented and had escaped death time and time again, he would have died at the hands of these two women.

Even if Micheal could protect Chester now, if Chester did not have any achievements to show, he would still fall out of favor with Micheal.

He had to achieve results quickly so that Micheal would come to know how brilliant he was. He would realize that he needed Chester for the Crown Group to prosper.

Only then could Chester carry out his final plan.

Chapter 406

“Mr. Laton, I’ve taken my shower.”

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 406

No Way Back Chapter 406-At this moment, the bathroom door opened.

A 39-year-old woman with a curvaceous figure and burgundy, curly hair walked out of the bathroom. She was wearing a towel and looked flirtatiously at Chester.

Chester casually tossed the phone aside and went up to hug the woman. He sniffed her body and took in the fragrance, looking enamored. “Baby, I can’t wait any longer.”

“Mr. Laton, I wonder if you’re telling the truth. Weren’t you chatting with another woman just now?”

“No, I swear, you’re the only woman in my heart.”

Chester started kissing the woman’s hair.

The woman turned around and lifted Chester’s chin with a finger. Her eyes flashed seductively. “Mr. Laton, are you interested in my money or my power? Tell me the truth.” Chester held the woman’s hand and laid his face in her palm like a puppy. He looked intoxicated. “Why can’t I be greedy and be interested in everything?”

“You’re a perfect lover, Mr. Laton. Even if I know what you want, you are always capable of making me give it to you willingly.

“Of all the men I’ve played with, Mr. Laton, you’re the most dangerous. I know that I cannot keep someone like you by my side. One day, you’ll break free from the chains and leave me.

“At least for now, you belong to me. I’ll give you whatever you want as long as you can give me the happiness I deserve as a woman.”

The woman’s hand swept across Chester’s face in an infatuated manner. Her eyes were already filled with desire.

At this moment, Chester did not know why he saw the woman in front of him as Jane. The image of Jane flashed past his mind quickly. It was so fast that Chester found it difficult to capture her expression.

In the blink of an eye, he was defeated by the woman’s eyes and woke up.

Jane Fowler. She would never look at Chester that way.

Hahaha.

Chester figured he must have gone crazy. He was still thinking about Jane.

The next second, Chester picked the woman up by the waist and walked into the bedroom...

Madelyn had no idea that she was being used by Chester.

Outside at the Fowler’s villa, Madelyn took a deep breath and walked in.

“Maddie, you’re back?”

Anna had just finished her therapy. Johan and his brothers brought towels and fruits to her while she rested to regain her energy.

Seeing Madelyn, Anna gave a gentle smile and waved.

Madelyn obediently walked forward and squatted in front of Anna's wheelchair. Anna held her hand affectionately.

All the boys stood behind her, looking a little stiff.

Madelyn noticed their behavior.

If it was in the past, Madelyn would be upset with her brothers for alienating her.

Now, Madelyn had Chester. She was no longer alone.

She did not mind their hostility now.

"Did you have fun today? Maddie, you should go out more often. Recently, you've been staying at home very often and not going out. I'm really worried about you.

"No one wants something like this to happen. At least we're still alive and healthy. Life has to go on. Stay positive and listen to the doctor's advice. Only then can your face heal quickly. Do you understand?"

Anna was still very worried about Madelyn's state.

Although Anna was still concerned for Madelyn's well-being, there was not much she could do.

At the end of the day, Madelyn needed to be strong to withstand all the pressure.

Anna was happy when Madelyn told her she wanted to go out for a walk today. It made Anna's day.

At the very least, it was a good sign that Madelyn was willing to walk out on her own.

"I know, Mommy. I've made you worry these days. I'm sorry."

As she spoke, Madelyn started sobbing again. Her eyes were red, and tears ran down her face.

"child, you're my precious daughter. You don't have to apologize to me."

Anna patted Madelyn's head affectionately.

Johan and the others fell silent when they heard what Anna said.

If only Anna knew in the future what Madelyn had done...

Gosh!

Just thinking about it made Johan and the others tremble in fear.

Should they let Anna know about this?

What would she do if she knew about it?

She would definitely go mad.

Looking at Anna's gentle expression, they prayed silently, "Madelyn, please don't do anything again in the future and let the Fowler family down."

However, Madelyn looked like she had a lot on her mind.

Anna immediately noticed it and asked, "Maddie, did something happen when you went out today? Look at your eyes. Did someone you? Tell me. I will help you."

"Mommy, it's nothing..."

Madelyn forced a smile and wanted to hide her expression. Suddenly, she  in a breath of cold air from the pain.

"Maddie, what's wrong?"

Anna instantly became nervous.

She then noticed a large bruise on Madelyn's thigh.

"Maddie, what happened to your leg? What's going on?"

Madelyn hurriedly explained, "Mommy, I'm fine. I accidentally fell. That's why I got this bruise.”

Anna looked into Madelyn’s eyes and shook her head. “No, Maddie, you’re lying. Tell me, what happened? Who bullied you? I’ll settle the score for you. I will never allow anyone to my daughter.”

Bang!

A death knell sounded in the hearts of Anna’s sons.

They could not imagine how Jane would feel if she heard that.

Madelyn looked at Anna, touched.

After wiping her tears, Madelyn sniffed hard. “Actually... Mommy, when I went out just now, I saw Janie...”

“Jane?”

Anna was dumbfounded.

Even Johan and the others were stunned.

Why was it Jane again?

“Maddie, do you mean she was the one who injured you?”

“Of course not, Mommy. Don’t misunderstand. I accidentally fell while chasing Janie. I saw Janie with Mr. Laton. I was too nervous and wanted to ask her about it.”

If it was in the past, Madelyn would accuse Jane of hurting her. She would drive a deeper wedge between her and the Fowler family.

Now that the Fowler family’s attitude toward Jane had softened, Madelyn could no longer do that. She could only think of a way to tell the Fowlers about this matter without appearing too scheming.

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 407

No Way Back Chapter 407-Johan and the others, who had already seen through Madelyn, frowned discreetly.

They remembered that Madelyn always acted like that in the past. It had happened too many times.

Back then, they had not paid too much attention to her behavior, but now that they were carefully analyzing Madelyn's every move.

Why did they have this feeling that she was putting on an act? Was she trying to gain sympathy and slander Jane?

She was using the Fowlers as a gun. They would wherever she pointed.

"Mr. Laton... Micheal Laton?"

Anna was slightly taken aback. "Why is Jane with Mr. Laton?"

Micheal and Anna knew each other. The two families had a good relationship with each other.

Of course, the two businesses had a mutually beneficial relationship.

Although Anna and Jack were better off than the Laton family, they were not  enough to trust the Laton family completely.

Each family placed its self-interests above the other party. They were pretending to be cordial in front of each other.

Now, Micheal had gotten in touch with Jane.

Anna had a bad feeling about it.

, I... I..."

Madelyn hesitated and looked like she was too embarrassed to tell the truth.

Anna started to feel nervous. She held Madelyn's shoulder. "Maddie, tell me, why did Micheal look for Jane?"

Madelyn's lips quivered before she finally made up her mind. She said, "... It's Mr. Laton. He wants Jane to be his goddaughter."

"What did you say?"

Anna and her sons spoke in unison, their faces filled with surprise.

"Yes. It's true, . I heard Mr. Laton ask Janie with my own ears. I don't know if Janie agreed to it. I chased after Janie to ask her about this..."

“When I came back, I don’t want to tell you initially, but this matter blows out of proportion, you may blame me for not telling you the truth. That’s why I say…”

Anna could not help but fall silent.

Johan, Aaron, and Quinton were staring at each other. For a , they did not know what to say.

Anna sighed softly.

Chapter 407

“Give me my phone. I have to tell Jack about this.”

“Yes, ***.”

Johan opened his but did not say much in the end.

He wanted to ask if Jane had agreed to be Micheal’s goddaughter.

What should they do? What about the Fowler family?

Madelyn rolled her eyes.

Now that she had told them about it, it was none of Madelyn’s business what the Fowler family was going to do.

Perhaps the more chaotic it became, it was better.

When the Fowlers’ target shifted to something else, Madelyn could try and get more information to Chester.

She was doing it not only for the man she loved but also to make plans for the future. She could use the information to blackmail for money.

Although Madelyn had become Chester’s captive, she had not forgotten about financial gains.

Jack rushed back immediately when he received Anna’s call.

“Anna, is it true? Did Michael really do that?”

“Maddie was the one who saw them. It’s true. Jack, what exactly happened? When did Jane meet Micheal? And Micheal wants to take Jane as his goddaughter? Isn’t Micheal our business partner? Why is he doing this to us?”

Anna got angry as she spoke.

She could not help but cough.

What Micheal had done was a slap to their faces.

Jack quickly said, “Anna, calm down first. Don’t be too agitated. Remember what the doctor said. What you need now is rest.”

“I know, Jack, I won’t be angry. I’ll only fall for those people’s tricks if I get angry.”

Anna took a few deep breaths to regain her rationality so that she would not be blinded by anger.

She was so angry that she gritted her teeth.

it, Micheal. He did not even have the courtesy to inform them that he wanted to ask Jane to be his goddaughter.

This was a blatant betrayal to the Fowler family.

He wanted to take their biological daughter away from them. Anna had Jane in her tummy for nine months. She had gone through the gates of , pining for that daughter of hers.

Micheal knew that Jane and the Fowler family were on bad terms. Was he not taking advantage of them?

Seeing that Anna had calmed down, Jack thought for a and said, “I’ll call Michael and ask him what’s going on.”

Chapter 407

“Fight! We must fight. Micheal must give us an explanation for this.”

Meanwhile, Micheal looked at his phone. Jack was calling him.

He had already calmed down after his humiliating meeting with Jane.

“I didn’t expect news to spread so fast...”

Micheal narrowed his eyes, exuding a dangerous aura.

Micheal had long thought of an excuse to tell Jack when he decided to ask Jane to be his goddaughter.

He pressed the answer button on the phone.

Micheal lit a cigarette. As he puffed, he asked calmly, “Jack, what’s the matter?”

“Michael, I heard that you want Jane to be your goddaughter. Is that true?”

Jack’s voice was filled with anger.

it!

Micheal knew very well that Jane was Jack’s biological daughter. He knew that Jack was feeling very guilty about what he had done to Jane.

Jane’s blood was from the Fowler family. Jack no longer dared to hope that Jane would forgive what he had done and return to the Fowler family.

However, he could not accept Jane becoming someone else’s goddaughter. To make things worse, that person was his friend. It was a downright betrayal.

This was worse than killing Jack.

“Before I answer your question, Jack, I want to know if Jane told you this.”

When he heard Micheal mention Jane, Jack thought that the tone sounded like Jane was already his goddaughter. Jack suddenly felt like his own flesh and blood were about to be snatched away by outsiders. He instantly exploded.

“I’m asking you first. Micheal Laton! Answer my question!”

“If you don’t tell me, Jack, I’m going to hang up the phone. You’ll never know the outcome or my reason for doing this!”

“You!”

Jack did not expect Micheal to threaten him.

He was so angry that he flickered with resentment.

“Micheal Laton, what are you doing? Both our families have known each other for more than 20 years. There’s no enmity between us, and we’re business partners. We always get along well. I didn’t expect you to do such a thing.”

Anna could not help but speak into the phone.

"It seems that you really care about your daughter, Jane. Jack, you should consider it carefully. Tell me, did Jane tell you about this?"

"No! I have no reason to lie to you! Someone else overheard your conversation with Jane and told me. Tell me, Micheal. If you don't give me an explanation, I will sever all ties with you from now on. Fowler Corporation will no longer cooperate with the Crown Group!"

No Way Back Chapter 408-Was it not Jane who told him about this?

Back then, Jane and Micheal were the only two individuals in the teahouse.

How could anyone else know about this?

"Who the  could it be?"

A person flashed across Micheal's mind.

Chester Laton!

Chester was the only person who knew that Micheal was meeting Jane, as well as what they were going to talk about.

But it seemed unlikely.

Chester had no reason to do such a thing.

Jack also had no reason to deceive Micheal on this matter.

Perhaps this matter should be put aside for the time being.

Micheal decided to get his thoughts in order and started explaining himself.

"Jack, I saw you arguing with Jane back then. After that, I told my wife about what happened between you and Jane. We both acknowledge Jane's ability and feel sorry for this child."

"Of course, I was just casually mentioning this matter to Jane Fowler. My original intention was to help you improve your relationship with Jane. Jack, Jane has already severed all ties with the Fowler family. Now that things have come to this, if Jane becomes my goddaughter, I can slowly persuade her to forgive you and return to the Fowler family. Isn't that a good thing?"

Micheal's words made sense. There was nothing wrong with his theory.

However, the fact that Micheal had done what he had done made it impossible for Jack to remain calm.

"you, Micheal Laton! I don't care what your reason is, but I'm warning you! Don't come close to my daughter again! And don't mention anything about making her your goddaughter again!"

"No matter what, Jane is still my biological daughter. The blood of the Fowler family runs through her veins. No matter how strained the relationship between Jane and the Fowler family becomes, it's still none of your business! I'll believe you this time on the account that we've been friends for more than 20 years. I appreciate your kindness, but I'm warning you, you'd better not do anything like that."

"Don't worry about that. Jane has already rejected me and she made it very clear that she won't be my goddaughter."

Micheal's words were reassuring enough.

Jack hung up.

Chapter 408

The line went dead.

Micheal held his phone tightly. Then, he turned around and smashed it on the ground.

The screen shattered.

He could understand why Jack's exasperation after finding out about this.

But how dare the Fowler family behave in this manner?

The Crown Group led by Micheal was naturally stronger than Fowler Corporation.

No matter what, Crown Group was once a top corporation on par with D.Y. Group!

What right did Jack have to hang up the phone so abruptly? What right did he have to shout at Micheal and show him such attitude?

Micheal thought to himself, "The pair of father and daughter are indeed related. They are the same. They are so rude and annoying."

Meanwhile, at the Fowler family, Jack heaved a sigh of relief when he found out that Jane had rejected Micheal's request. "Anna, you heard that? Jane rejected it!"

"That's good... That's good..."

Anna patted her chest in relief.

The stern expression on her face instantly disappeared.

If Jane had really agreed to become Micheal's goddaughter...

Anna's heart would have shattered.

After all, things would not look good for the Fowler family if Jane had acceded to Micheal's request.

It would look like the Fowler family forced such a talented daughter away due to their schemes.

Consequently, Jane ran away to join Crown Group because she did not want to be affiliated with the Fowler family anymore.

Deep down, Anna knew that she had no right to regret her own actions.

She was also prepared that Jane would never forgive the Fowler family.

However, when she was really confronted with the fact that her biological daughter could potentially become someone else's daughter and get taken advantage of by them, she found herself unable to accept it.

It was something that no one could tolerate.

"If only I could talk to Jane again. Jack, after this incident, I realized that not only have we wronged Jane, but we also don't want her to become involved with other families... This will make my heart ache! My heart will shatter into a million pieces!"

Anna bit her bottom lip as she expressed her heartfelt emotions.

"Anna..."

When Jack saw Anna in this state, he could not help but think of how Jane had humiliated him that night.

Chapter 408

Jack did not have the strength left to fight back.

The last time he had managed to trick Jane into coming to the hospital to visit Anna was due to pure luck.

This time, it would certainly be exceedingly difficult if they wanted to get Jane to talk to them again.

Jack loved his wife as much as his own life. But even when he saw Anna's sad expression, he could not bring himself to promise that he could definitely persuade Jane to come and talk to them again.

In the living room, Johan and the others were waiting anxiously.

Madelyn stood in the corner without saying a word. No one knew what she was thinking.

Madelyn secretly hoped that Jane would become Micheal's goddaughter, but at the same time, she did not want things to reach that point.

If Jane really became Micheal's goddaughter, she would attract a lot of attention from the Fowler family.

As long as the Fowler family was busy dealing with their internal strife, there would be no one left to watch over Madelyn. This would make it easier for her to take advantage of the situation.

In the past few months, Madelyn had thought of selling some family secrets to Chester Laton in exchange for money.

However, Johan, Aaron, and Quinton pushed aside all of their work and stayed home to take care of Anna.

Madelyn had also realized that they were increasingly starting to lose trust in her.

As a result, it was more difficult for Madelyn to obtain any information compared to before.

On the other hand, if Jane didn't become Micheal's goddaughter, Madelyn wouldn't feel so jealous.

Just as Madelyn was lost in her own thoughts, Jack pushed Anna's wheelchair into the living room.

Aaron quickly asked, "Dad, Mom, how is everything?"

"Jane rejected Micheal and she didn't become his goddaughter."

Jack said happily.

Hearing this, Johan and the others could not help but heave a sigh of relief.

To them, the thought of Jane joining another family was worse than death.

Madelyn rolled her eyes.

An indescribable feeling arose in her heart.

She did not know if she was happy or sad.

Madelyn thought to herself, "Forget it. It's a good thing that Jane did not become Micheal's goddaughter. This way, my status would still surpass Jane's."

"I am still the only daughter in the Fowler family."

"As for the right opportunity... I will wait slowly. There will definitely be one!"

"Alright, let's go to Cloudnine Restaurant to eat something delicious tonight. It's been a long time since we went out to eat together. Today, I'll treat!" Anna said.

"Okay!"

Madelyn gazed at the blissful smile on Anna's face.

At that moment, the happiness in Anna's expression was too blinding for Madelyn's eyes.

No one even noticed Madelyn leave the living room.

It was as if Madelyn had become invisible.

Madelyn hid in the toilet. She gritted her teeth in hatred and tears welled up in her eyes.

“Mommy... As expected, even you have changed... In your heart, I’ve become nothing more than Jane’s substitute.”

“You’re so happy that Jane didn’t become the heiress of Crown Group. You’re so happy that you’ve completely ignored my existence!”

The only person who could comfort Madelyn now was Chester.

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 409

No Way Back Chapter 409-Madelyn updated Chester about the outcome via text and waited for his reply.

After a while, he replied.

“Don’t think too much, Maddie. Anyway, you’ve already said your piece. This way, no matter what happens next, it won’t have anything to do with you.”

“Chester... My heart aches...”

Madelyn was just about to send that message and confide in the person she loved.

Suddenly, her fingertips trembled.

She ended up deleting the message.

She could not let Chester know that her position in the Fowler family was in danger. She could not compare to Jane at all!

If Chester found out about it, their relationship would be severely affected.

No matter what, Chester Laton and Madelyn Fowler had started out to make use of each other! Because Madelyn Fowler was the Fowler family’s most favored daughter!

“Okay... I got it,” she replied.

The Fowler family had plans to go to Cloudnine Restaurant for dinner.

Anna and Jack finished the tea and cake that Quinton had personally prepared for them earlier. After replenishing their energy slightly, they planned to return to their rooms to rest.

The company was in good hands under Peter’s management for now. They sent Peter a message, informing him that they would gather at Cloudnine Restaurant tonight.

Johan went to the balcony and lit a cigarette. After taking a deep puff, he rubbed his swollen temples.

“Smoking is bad for your health, Johan.”

Aaron walked up to Johan.

“I know, but this is the only thing that can make me feel better now.”

Johan smiled bitterly, took another deep breath, and stubbed out the cigarette.

Suddenly, he frowned and held his head with a painful expression.

*Johan, are you alright? Do you have a headache? Did you not sleep well last night?”

Johan shook his head.

Last night, Johan had started dreaming again.

It was not like when he had first obtained Signy’s amulet and slept through the night peacefully, without any dreams.

Moreover, the dream that Johan had was very strange.

He was surrounded by a thick fog.

Chapter 409

His body could not move at all.

Only a shrill laughter could be heard.

The laughter reminded him of the disappointment he felt with others, his disdain for himself, and the despair he felt about life.

For some inexplicable reason, Johan felt like the person behind the laughter was no other than...

Jane Fowler.

However, it did not completely belong to Jane Fowler.

There were also other voices that made Johan’s heart race.

It was the voices of the Fowler family members.

One word lingered in Johan's mind.

It was the word, "Regret".

What exactly happened after that dream?

Why was Jane not the only person who felt regretful?

Why did the Fowlers feel the same?

If there really was a parallel world, Jane would be dead, and the Fowlers would feel nothing but hatred toward her. They would all feel that Jane was a jinx, and her death would only bring happiness to the rest of them.

Why would they feel regretful?

Could it be that the same things in this world had happened in that parallel world?

The dream lasted only a short time, for about twenty minutes.

Then, Johan woke up.

Sometimes he would get a headache after having those dreams.

Johan's sixth sense told him that the amulet was about to lose its effect.

Johan messaged asked Signy to ask if there was any way to stop himself from having such dreams.

Signy replied saying that she could not do anything for him right now. She had to return to the national library in Yalondy to check if there was any way to help Johan with his nightmares.

Johan told Signy to do her best.

So many things had happened.

Johan's atheism had begun to crumble.

At the same time, Johan began to wonder about the subsequent plot of the dream.

Even if this would be a torture to Johan's state, he still wanted to know.

What Johan wanted to know was what happened after Dwayne broke Jane's memorial tablet.

Chapter 409

What could possibly happen?

Why did the new dream make Johan feel such bone-chilling desolation?

"To be honest, Johan, when I first heard about this from Madelyn, I thought that Jane would agree to become the heiress of Crown Group."

"She has no reason to refuse. Crown Group is on a higher level than Fowler Corporation. Moreover, if she had agreed to it, it would be much easier for her to seek revenge on the Fowler family. Surely, Jane knows how much pain and agony it would cause our family."

Aaron leaned against the balcony railing and looked up at white *in the blue sky. The wind gently mussed his hair, and his eyes sparkled. His voice became excited.

"Hey, Johan, do you think... Could it be that Jane rejected the proposal because she doesn't want to have kinship anymore? Or could it be that she actually still cares about our family because we are her biological brothers!"

"It's precisely because father and the others had done too many wrong things to Jane that she has given up on kinship. Even so, Jane did not choose to make us suffer by becoming Mr. Laton's goddaughter. If... I mean if... we tried our best to get Jane back..."

"Aaron, I know that it's necessary for everyone to have a goal in their life. Only then will there be motivation to fight. However, too much unnecessary hope will only bring more pain to yourself. You have to understand this."

Before Aaron could finish, Johan interrupted him coldly.

He did not want to give Aaron any false hope.

Because in this matter... Johan could not see any hope at all.

Not even a little bit.

In fact, they had tried their best. On that rainy night, they had knelt in front of Jane's apartment to beg for forgiveness. Even Jack himself had knelt before Jane.

Even so, he still couldn't change Jane's mind.

All he got in return was Jane's merciless and endless humiliation.

If Aaron started to harbor false hope, it would only lead to greater despair.

After experiencing such a reality, Johan couldn't comfort Aaron or cheer him on.

"Yes, Johan, you're right. Jane will never forgive us for what we've done to her. The only reason she didn't become Mr. Laton's goddaughter was because she didn't need a family anymore.

"At that time, we saw it on the live broadcast. Yale doted on Jane very much and gave her everything that he could in this world. That was something that she would never have been able to experience as our sister. Also, during Christmas, Jane already had someone else by her side..."

At that time, Jane was smiling so happily.

Aaron still remembered Jane's confident, warm, and bright smile. It was a smile that could only come from someone who had everything in life.

And they had done nothing to contribute to Jane's happiness.

Chapter 409

The Fowlers could only stand aside like clowns.

Compared to the happiness that Jane had...

The Fowlers were all wearing masks that covered their agony.

Aaron said these words with great heartache. He exhaled and raised his head, trying his best not to let his tears fall.

His heart felt like it was being cut into pieces.

Unknowingly, negative emotions swept through Aaron's entire body like a nightmare and created a buzzing sensation.

He could not break free from those feelings.

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 410

No Way Back Chapter 410-Seeing this, Johan patted Aaron's shoulder and comforted him. "Aaron, you don't have to be too sad. You didn't do anything to let Jane down. The people who should be sad are none other than dad and ***..."

"No, Johan, you don't know... I've done something very wrong to Jane. You know that my autism was very serious when I was younger, right..."

Aaron told Johan about what only Quinton knew. Johan was so shocked that he didn't say anything for a long time.

He never expected that the mysterious female who saved Aaron's life back then was actually Jane!

At that time, Aaron's autism had suddenly improved greatly after going to Meridonia for treatment. Johan was ecstatic about that. He thought that Anna had finally found a good doctor to treat Aaron. He never expected Jane's involvement in all of this.

"In this family, I'm the one who owes Jane too much... I didn't recognize my savior and was even deceived by another woman. In the end, I came to my senses after Jane exposed me!

I deserve to ***!"

"To think that I've been searching for her for so many years. It turns out that she's right in front of me. Why didn't I recognize Jane when I saw her photo? Why?! She's clearly my light, my salvation! My life changed because of Jane's piano piece!"

The more he spoke, the harder it was for Aaron to control his negative emotions. His rational self was being drowned by a wave of darkness.

Gradually, Aaron grabbed his own hair in exasperation and lost strength in his limbs. He curled up in a corner of the balcony.

"Aaron?!"

Johan sensed that something was wrong with Aaron's current condition. It was just like how Aaron would use to suddenly lose all interest in playing when he was younger. He stayed in a corner like an abandoned child. No matter how they called Aaron's name, there was no response. He quickly squatted down and patted Aaron's face.

"Aaron, come to your senses! Don't get too immersed in the emotions of the past!"

Hearing Johan's repeated cries, Aaron gradually returned to normalcy. "Ah... Johan, I... What happened to me?"

"Aaron?!"

Johan suddenly felt a strong sense of foreboding.

This behavior...

Johan knew what was happening.

This was how Aaron had behaved when he was younger and unable to deal with his autism.

Back then, Aaron was usually fine, but the his illness relapsed, it would be as though his mind and brain were trapped in a prison cell.

By the time Aaron snapped out of it, he would have no memories of his actions.

The episodes that were not serious usually lasted slightly over ten minutes. But those that were serious could last for an entire day.

"This... How is this possible? He should be fully recovered. The doctor said there would be no problem moving forward. Why is he suddenly relapsing?"

"Is it because he owes Jane? The illness that had been treated by Jane is now relapsing again because of her hatred..."

When Johan realized this possibility, his face instantly turned pale.

If Aaron's illness had relapsed...

Anna and the rest would be devastated.

Aaron also realized this and could not help but tremble in fear.

The last thing Aaron wanted was for his illness to relapse and to become a burden to his family.

Aaron grabbed Johan's arm as if he was holding on to a lifebuoy. He said fearfully, "Johan, don't tell anyone about this, okay? Our family is already going through enough chaos after what happened to , Madelyn, and Jane. I don't want everyone to worry about me again. I don't want to cause unnecessary pressure!"

"I know this would be the best course of action. Don't worry, Aaron. You've already been fully cured. Perhaps you're just too tired from taking care of recently. On top of that, what's been happening with Madelyn and Jane must have caused you to be depressed. It's not that your autism is acting up again. You'll be fine after resting for a while. I'll accompany you to see a doctor."

With Johan's comfort, Aaron gradually calmed down. He muttered to himself, "Hmm... I really hope that's the case. Johan, I suddenly feel very tired. I'm going to rest first. Call me when we're leaving for Cloudnine Restaurant."

It was as if he was comforting himself.

Aaron would rather than return to his state in the past.

Not only would it bring pain to himself, but it would also bring pain to the important people around him.

Aaron had already broken out in a cold sweat and he left unsteadily.

Johan, who was worried about Aaron's condition, planned to send him back to his room.

Coincidentally, he met Madelyn when they were walking up the stairs.

"Johan, Aaron... Are you guys alright? Why do you look so pale?"

Hearing Madelyn's concerned words, Aaron's body suddenly trembled.

That did not go unnoticed by Madelyn.

She realized that Aaron was sweating profusely.

"What's going on here?"

Johan said calmly, "Everything is fine. Perhaps Aaron is just a little too tired from everything that's happened lately. We should just let him get some rest."

After saying that, he helped Aaron into the room.

"Are you really okay? Aaron, do you want to see a doctor?"

"No... It's alright."

Aaron's forehead was covered in cold sweat again. He grabbed Johan's arm tightly.

Johan knew that Aaron's emotions were very unstable. He was afraid that Aaron would get overwhelmed by his negative emotions again, so the two brothers quickly fled the scene.

Only Madelyn was left standing on the spot. She narrowed her eyes.

Seeing Aaron in this state... There was clearly something wrong!

Madelyn remembered that Aaron had behaved like this when he was younger and when his autism had not been cured yet. Back then, Anna and Jack would also hurriedly bring him.

back to his room in the same manner.

She thought to herself, "It can't be..."

"Could it be that Aaron is relapsing?"

"Wasn't he already cured?"

Madelyn rolled her eyes. She still could not figure out what was going on with Aaron, but she made sure to take note of this strange incident.

After all, so many things had happened recently. If Aaron was suffering a relapse, it was not too much of a surprise.

This was also a good thing. The more chaotic the Fowler family was, the easier it was for Madelyn to achieve her goal.

Night fell.

The Fowlers arrived at Cloudnine Restaurant.

After sleeping, Aaron was in a much better state.

However, he would occasionally feel a little distracted.

Johan went to Aaron's side and said in a voice that only the two of them could hear, "Are you alright, Aaron?"

"I'm fine, Johan, I feel almost fully recovered..."

Aaron gave Johan a reassuring smile.

Then, his gaze fell on his happy parents, who were holding hands and chatting.

"I don't want this matter to affect everyone's mood when we're out for dinner. Clearly, everyone is in high spirits."

"Look at how happy everyone is. Even now, I feel much better. My autism won't relapse."

Johan pursed his lips. "I'll bring you to the doctor tomorrow. Aaron, don't think too much. No matter what, you have to maintain a good state to prevent the recurrence of the illness. Don't scare yourself. Since we treated it once, we can do it again!"

Aaron said gratefully, "Thank you, Johan."

The group walked into Cloudnine Restaurant.

Little did they know...

After the Fowlers entered the elevator.
