No Way Back Chapter 431- Connor Luther was speechless; his brows knitted together.

He was covered with ****for no good reason.

No one would feel good having such bad luck.

Connor looked at Lila Sutton's terrified look.

He suddenly decided to mess around with her.

"Excellent, Lila. It looks like you remember what you just did. I don't need to remind you then."

"Of course, I want compensation from you. I hope you keep your word and be prepared."

Connor tried to tidy up his suit instinctively.

He immediately retracted his hands when he realized he was covered with vomit.

He raised his eyebrows at Jane Fowler and gave her a look.

Jane was slightly stunned.

Ford Croft did not understand Connor's hint to Jane. He quickly stood up and seized the opportunity to show off. "Connor, Miss Sutton didn't do it on purpose. Moreover, you took the initiative to approach her in the first place. How could you demand her for compensation? It would not look good on you if words get out."

Connor suddenly noticed Ford's existence after he spoke. He sized the latter up and sneered, "Well, well, look who's here? It's Ford Croft. Did I ask for your advice on what to do?"

"Why you..."

Ford's face darkened. He did not expect Connor to look down on him in public.

Ford was the most promising son of the Croft family's first branch, after all.

Ford had heard Connor had a good relationship with Hugh Croft, whom he regarded as a *****. He did not expect Connor to be so *****because of his connection. How dare Connor look down on him? Ford found it intolerable!

Moreover, it was in front of Jane. Ford decided to get back at Connor at all costs.

“All right then, how much does the young lady owe you? I’ll pay you on her behalf!”

Connor narrowed his eyes. “You want to pay for her? Who do you think you are? Do you know him, Lila?”

“What? I... I don’t know him.”

Lila did not remember Ford and much less cared about him.

She looked at Ford dumbfoundedly.

The crowd was amused by what they saw and broke out in laughter.

Ford had intended to save the damsel in distress, but the beauty in question was unaware of his existence.

Perhaps Lila did not want Ford to save her in the first place. It was a perfect excuse to be involved with the president of Luther Group, albeit an embarrassing one. It was an opportunity that many were envious of, nonetheless.

Some women took notes of Lila’s moves. Taking the initiative to throw themselves at Connor Luther and vomiting all over him seemed to be the best way to get his attention and become his lover.

“Perhaps it slipped your mind, but I’ve met you once, Miss Sutton. I’m also Miss Fowler’s friend. I can’t sit back and do nothing about this!”

“I’m also Miss Fowler’s friend” was what Ford emphasized loudly and proudly.

Connor raised his eyebrows and looked at Jane. “Jane, is he your friend?”

Jane had one hand in her pocket and shrugged casually. “He’s crazy. I don’t know him.”

The crowd erupted in boos after Ford was slammed by Jane.

Ford was humiliated. Every word he uttered thus far slapped him like an invisible hand.

“Miss Fowler, you...”

“Don’t call me by my name. I don’t know you that well. Anyway, I’ll leave Lila to you, Connor. I’ll have to take off now.” Jane waved her hand and was about to leave.

Jane knew that if she stayed behind, she would be an enormous third wheel in the universe. She had no interest in interfering with Connor and Lila’s affair.

“Miss Fowler!”

Ford left Lila alone when he realized that Jane was going. He quickly chased after her.

“Hey, Ford and Jane, wait for me! Don’t leave in such a hurry!”

Marlon Croft came to his senses and went after them hurriedly.

“What... what’s going on? Janie, wait for me. I’m coming with you!”

Lila was about to dash off when Connor held her back.

“Lila, you still owe me. You have to come with me now.”

Connor then pulled her away without any explanation.

Connor was not worried about Jane, knowing Hugh took good care of her.

Presently, his romance was more important than anything else.

Lila shouted warily, “Why are you pulling me, Connor? Don’t force me! I’m not selling my body!”

“You’ve soiled my clothes. Shouldn’t you help me clean up, huh? What do you mean by selling your body?”

Connor looked at Lila’s petite body with disdain. “Don’t worry, I’m not that desperate.”

He planned to wait for her to grow up a little and become more voluptuous before making a move.

“What the...”

Lila rolled her eyes furiously. She wished she could kick Connor in the groin.

He was way out of line!

In fact, Lila did not like Connor when they first met.

She had no idea how their relationship had improved over time.

Moreover, Lila had inexplicably taken on hundreds of thousands of dollars in debt because of Connor!

Oh

my god! Lila’s initial hunch was correct, after all. Connor was a jinx!

The crowd dissipated when the show ended.

Although there was no ending to the drama, they decided it was worth their time.

It was a good show.

“Miss Fowler!”

Ford finally caught up to Jane before the elevator doors closed. He tried to squeeze into the elevator.

Jane was at a loss for words.

She immediately walked out of the elevator as soon as Ford entered.

She bumped into Marlon instead.

“Stop your crazy cousin. I don’t have time to waste on him.”

“Huh?” Marlon was confused.

“Miss Fowler, did I say something wrong just now? Please forgive me if I’ve confused you. I hoped to be of help to your friend so that she won’t be bullied.”

Ford got out of the elevator and stood in front of Jane, explaining nervously.

‘Connor is the future heir of Luther Group, a top-notch dignitary in Stormton City. He’s taller, more handsome, and with better status, not to mention younger and richer than you. Who asked you to stand up for my friend? The two of them have known each other for a long time! It was just a flirtation between a couple, for crying out loud!’

“What do my friend and I have to do with you in the first place? Did my friend look like she was being bullied, huh? If you can’t see clearly, go to the hospital for an eye checkup. I cannot treat your lack of perception!”

Ford was dumbfounded.

Not only Connor looked down on him.

Jane did not think highly of him either.

Ford was the Croft family’s eldest grandson for crying out loud!

Although Hugh was the leader of the Croft family at present, Ford was still his elder brother in terms of seniority.

Ford was born with a silver spoon in his *****. People around him paid him token respect, and no one dared to reject his wishes. How dared Jane reject his advances and hints repeatedly?

All the while, Ford was the one who constantly rejected and despised people but never the other way around.

No Way Back Chapter 432-Marlon Croft looked at Jane Fowler, his jaw dropped.

He recalled Jane giving Ford the cold shoulder for being vertically challenged at the barbecue restaurant back then.

She belittled Ford again in front of him just now.

Oh my gosh! Why did it happen to Marlon twice in a row? He did not want to get involved in such a troublesome matter. All he wanted was to live his daily life peacefully. At the moment, he wanted to go home and play games!

Jane walked past Ford and left without looking back.

Jane did not expect Ford to be so shameless. He had the guts to approach her, knowing that she despised him.

Ford had really opened her eyes with his insistence.

Ford rushed forward and stood in front of Jane again.

“Get lost!”

Jane roared.

Then she kicked Ford in the stomach.

The kick was too fast and sudden.

Ford, the black belt judo champion, could not react in time.

The sudden kick sent him flying a few feet away.

Ford fell heavily to the ground.

He let out a blood-curdling scream.

“Ahhh!”

There was also a crisp sound of bones breaking.

Jane tossed her hair after landing the kick on Ford.

Phew! She finally felt more comfortable!

Marlon cleared his throat and said, "Ahem, Jane, you're too ruthless!"

However, he was not surprised by her move.

He could tell that Jane was on the verge of collapse earlier after Ford's repeated harassment.

Judging by the sound of bones breaking just now.

Ford would probably have to lie in bed for a month.

Jane sneered. "Reckless? You have seen nothing yet, Marlon."

Marlon was rendered speechless by her reply.

He suddenly had an ominous hunch.

"You... How dare you hit me? Even my parents didn't hit me!"

Ford's face contorted in pain; he clutched his abdomen. Jane's kick broke at least two of his ribs. Moreover, his stomach felt like a propeller had hit it. His body was about to break into pieces, and his tears were about to fall!

"Oh, in that case, I don't mind teaching you a lesson on behalf of your useless parents. I bet you understand what retreating in the face of difficulties means by now!"

Jane walked forward and stepped on Ford's right thigh.

"Ahhh!"

The right thigh was a very sensitive part of the human body.

Without special training, this part of the muscles was very weak.

A heavy step on the right thigh would bring unforgettable pain!

"Hold it, Jane, you're going to ***Ford!"

Although Marlon did not want to get involved, Ford was his cousin. Moreover, he was with Marlon at the bar.

If Jane ***Ford, Marlon would be in hot soup trying to explain himself. He could sense the genuine ***intent emanating from Jane.

“Hmph, Ford Croft, my tolerance for you has already reached the limit. Get out of my sight in the future. Otherwise, I will beat you up every time I lay eyes on you, and I will not hold back. I’m a woman of my word!”

Jane finally let Ford loose on account of Marlon pleading for leniency for him.

Otherwise, Jane might actually ****Ford in her current rage.

She thought Ford was even more *****than Layne Croft, aka Mr. Narcissist!

However, Layne at least had some ****. On the other hand, Ford was the epitome of ****!

Jane began to wonder if Hugh was the only normal man in the Croft family. The other Croft men felt that women would naturally fall for them and played hard to get games to amuse them.

Maybe they were twisted-minded too. The more Jane humiliated them, the happier they became as if the forbidden fruit was the sweetest. Perhaps the Croft men had smooth-sailing lives, and they liked challenges of this nature.

“Jane, why am I not good enough for you? Even if you don’t like me, give me time to see if we can get along! Perhaps you’ll discover a new world. You’ll see that I’m a good man and appreciate my sincere love for you at first sight,” Ford rattled on. “I’m a disciplined man. I’ve never had a girlfriend before, and I’ve been waiting for a woman who can steal my heart. It’s you, Jane! I fell in love with you the moment I saw you! Why aren’t you willing to give me a chance?”

Ford endured the pain in his abdomen and shattered pride as he growled with reddened eyes.

He could not believe it! He honestly could not think that Jane did not have any feelings for him! He was the Croft family’s eldest grandson, for crying out loud! He had the status and power that were beyond the reach of an average man! He could not be as useless as Jane had claimed! Was he that bad after all? Ford wondered.

“Ford Croft, I’ll tell you one last time. I’m not interested in a man like you who’s short in stature but thinks highly of himself. You have no perception and don’t understand the meaning of words or the surroundings. I’m not interested in a ****lovesick bootlicker like you! A *****like you may be worthy of other dubious women who would treat you like treasure. But you mean absolutely nothing to me!"

Then Jane gave Ford the finger before leaving in style.

False hope must have encouraged Ford to think that Jane had to reciprocate his infatuation for her.

Moreover, Ford's interest in Jane was also tied to many benefits he could not ignore.

He would not have pestered Jane if she did not have the world championship title and was Yale Mitchell's junior apprentice-sister.

It went without saying.

Hugh was the only man who truly liked Jane for what she was.

He did not like Jane because of her association with Yale Mitchell or her extraordinary achievement.

Hugh liked her because she was Jane Fowler.

The one and only Jane Fowler in the world.

That was all!

Ford lay paralyzed on the ground as if someone had extracted his soul.

The pain in Ford's body now paled compared to his heartache!

Ford had taken a fancy to Jane from the start because she was beautiful and had a world championship title. In addition, she was Yale Mitchell's junior apprentice-sister, among other things.

But he was utterly humiliated and rejected by Jane.

Ford was suddenly overwhelmed by sadness that he wanted to cry.

His heart palpitated when he first met Jane. It was not only because of the benefits she brought but also because he was deeply infatuated with her irresistible temperament.

Jane would not have accepted such *****infatuation from the start!

"You'd better give up, Ford. Jane will never fall for you. I don't think any man in this world is worthy of a woman like her. I'll take you to the hospital first. Your injuries look serious and can't delay."

Marlon noticed Ford's reddened eyes welled up when he tried to help him up from the floor.

Holy shit! His poor cousin, who aspired to be like Michael Croft, had tears rolling down his face.

Marlon was overwhelmed by the things that had happened tonight. They were out of this world! He strived to make sense of them but failed miserably.

God, I'm so tired. Hurry up and end all this nonsense. I want to go home, wash up, and sleep. Marlon thought.

No Way Back Chapter 433-"Um... Ford, although I've never been in a relationship and don't know how it feels to be dumped, you should pull yourself together and face the rest of your life."

Marlon could only brace himself to comfort him.

****! I'm not crying! I'm in pain! I will never cry for a woman again in my life! No!"

Ford struggled to wipe his tears with his hands and sniffed.

He had never been so humiliated! He cried from being rejected by a woman! ****it!

Jane was driving her Porsche Cayenne on her way home.

Holding her phone, she clicked on WeChat and sent a voice message to Connor.

[If you're serious, be nice to Lila. You know who I am, and Lila is my best friend. I'll ***you if you dare to abandon Lila and have fun with her. Connor, I'm not kidding.

[If you are not, cut ties with Lila immediately. You only have one chance. I won't give it to you again If you miss it!]

By now, Jane had potted the mutual affection between Luther Lila and Connor.

Jane knew Lila's character. Even though she was a little muddle-headed, she would never give up or betray once she fell in love with one.

When a person like her was moved, it would be forever, never to be separated.

The biggest fear was that Connor was not firm enough for the relationship.

If Connor could not give Lila promises and happiness, he should leave Lila alone in the first place and shouldn't bring a greater tragedy to Lila!

After a while, Connor responded.

[I'm serious, Jane. Since you're Lila's best friend, please witness my feelings for Lila. If I really betray Lila, you ***me. I won't hold a grudge.]

[Then be *****prepared. I'll watch you. It's a long life, and I hope you don't regret your decision today!]

Connor replied in a second. [Never regret']

Then Connor smiled when he looked at Lila, who was complaining about washing clothes in the bathroom.

Connor knew he would never meet a woman as attractive as Lila in his life again if he missed the opportunity.

Even Connor himself could not tell what he liked about Lila.

Countless women were prettier, fitter, better educated, and more well-connected than Lila. But Connor had never taken them seriously.

However, he was just interested in this little girl.

He didn't know when his love for her had started, but it had taken root and couldn't be removed.

Only after he fell in love did he realize there was no cure for him.

Connor once asked Hugh the same question when he was confused.

Back then, Jane lost everything and cut ties with the Fowler family. No one knew about Jane's existence, nor did they know about Jane's background.

Why would a cold-blooded man like Hugh, who would never have the definition of "love" in his life, care so much about Jane?

Connor remembered Hugh's answer to this day.

"Love Is Love. Since that's what your heart wants, does it matter why? You only need to care if the woman is the one you're willing to protect for the rest of your life."

At that time, Hugh's answer made Robert, who was single and did not know how it felt to like someone, extremely envious.

Their lives seemed to be endlessly glorious. But they, in fact, didn't feel happy in the first half of their lives.

Especially Hugh.

Fortunately, he had already met someone who would help with each other and was willing to give up everything for him.

He also had the power to pursue happiness and protect himself and the person he loved.

There was no need to pursue the reason.

He only needed to think about how to walk the path with the person he loved the most in the future...

It would be enough!

Jane had heard Connor's answer.

Connor passed the first round.

When Jane returned to her apartment, she texted Hugh.

[Hugh, do you know anything about what happened between Lila and Connor?]

Hugh replied, [I only know that he has someone he likes, but who is it... He has been hiding it all this time and never told Robert and me. Does he like Lila?]

Jane sent, [Hmm, you don't look too surprised. Hugh, don't learn to lie to your wife before you get married!]

Hugh texted. [Janie, don't get me wrong. I've never lied to you. It's just that I'm not interested in other people's love life. I'm only interested in our future!!!]

Jane could not help but laugh. She could imagine how anxious and nervous Hugh was in front of his phone screen.

Not only did he add three exclamation marks in his text, but he even typed the wrong words, which did not fit Hugh's meticulous working style.

[That's a nice thing for you to say. However! Lila is my best friend! Hugh, if Connor really cheats on Lila in the future, I want to settle the score with Connor! Don't favor your brother then!]

[That's all right. I'll carry your knife for you when the time comes. If you're unhappy with that scumbag Connor, ****him. I'll help you destroy the evidence.]

[Pfft.]

The next day, Jane had just got up when she received a call from Shawn.

Jane, I heard from my secretary that you came to see me earlier, didn't you? I'm sorry, I went to inspect the new construction site, where the network signal hasn't been set up yet, and the phone can't be connected. I just came back, and the thing got delayed."

"It's fine, Mr. Lewis. Do you still remember... what you told me that night?"

Shawn burst out laughing. "Jane, I'm not that old. It's only been a while. Of course, I remember! I, Shawn, owe you a huge favor and have always wanted to find an opportunity to repay you. I didn't expect it to be so soon. I'm thrilled to hear it."

"Okay, Mr. Lewis, I need you to help me find someone... The person's name is Humphrey Mitchell..."

Jane told Shawn all the information she had compiled about the Teacher.

She had mobilized many people to help find the Teacher's traces. Shawn could be considered a figure. With another person helping, there was always more hope.

After talking to Hugh yesterday, she knew that Hugh already had clues about Humphrey's whereabouts. Jane suddenly had a strong hunch.

She and the Teacher... would be able to meet again soon.

Her hunch was sudden and unfounded.

But Jane believed in her sixth sense! It was never wrong!

To do it, Jane needed to take advantage of everything she could get her hands on!

After listening to Jane, Shawn realized the importance of the man called Humphrey Mitchell to Jane and her desire to find him. It would be impossible to track him down.

However, since Shawn had promised Jane that he would do anything for her, he said solemnly, "I got it, Jane. I'll immediately instruct all the information channels under my company to dig deep and help you find some traces!"

"I'm counting on you, Mr. Lewis."

After hanging up, Jane washed up and ordered the take-out breakfast.

Andy texted her.

[There are two pieces of good news, a big one and a smile one. Which gift do you want to open first? Janie.]

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 434

No Way Back Chapter 434-[Andy, look at how happy you are...]

Jane could not help but smile.

[Then I choose to open the small gift first.]

[Okay! The content of the small gift is-The 150 million dollars you donated to environmental protection organizations, Animal protection organizations, the Hope Junior Schools, and other public welfare associations have been distributed and packed.

[I guarantee that they are dedicated organizations and will be able to make the best use of the money to get to where they are needed without a middleman to earn the difference and no corruption. By the way, I was moved by your feelings and donated 75 million dollars. Am I good enough?]

[Andy... Thank you.]

Jane felt warm inside.

Although with Jane and Andy's abilities and assets, they did not care about the bit of money at all.

It was fine as long as they had enough money to live. Making more money was to prove their ability and value.

The money was taken from and used for society.

Many people, animals, and environments needed the money in Cruksia.

Jane was not afraid of doing charity work but afraid that the money would fall into the wrong hands, disguised as a non-profit organization!

Therefore, after announcing the success of the research on Cruksia's 4-nanometer photolithography machine and sweeping the stock market of Meridonia, Jane took out 150 million dollars and handed it to Andy to deal with Cruksia's public welfare.

Only when it was handed to Andy would Jane rest assured!

It took Andy a lot of effort to find the appropriate and trustworthy public welfare organizations.

Now, he had finally resolved the matter properly.

There was no need for Andy to donate to Cruksia because Andy was not Cruksian, even if his career was here.

Andy also donated 75 million dollars, mainly because of Jane.

[Janie, here again. Are you trying to make me mad? I already said we would be too distant when we say 'thank you!' to each other. I'm unhappy!]

Andy pretended to be mad and shouted.

[Alright. To make amends, I promise I'll accompany you everywhere to eat, drink, and have fun the next time you come to Stormton City. In return, I'll spend as much money as you want on whatever you want.]

It was false to talk about material things to those who had everything.

The spiritual aspect was the best reward.

[Hmph... I'll reluctantly forgive you after hearing what you said. Since I can't win your heart, it feels good to be able to use this opportunity to win you and make that *****Hugh envious and jealous.

[However, the big good news might allow you to accompany me for a longer time.]

[Madelyn's biological parents finally made a move?]

Andy was a little like a deflated ball. He cried out like a wronged wife, [Janie.]

[Ahem... My fault! My fault! I shouldn't have said it so quickly. Andy, go ahead and take what I said as air.]

[You've said it. How can I take it as air? I'm not so easy to coax.]

Andy sighed softly. [Nothing can escape your eyes. I wanted to surprise you, but now I can't bear it... That's right. They're on the move. Everything is going according to plan.]

[Well, we'll be able to enjoy a good show from now on! By the way, Andy, I'm counting on you to help me with my Teacher.] [Don't worry. I've never forgotten what you asked me to do. However, it's hard to say if I can find any clues... After all, he nurtured you and your three senior brothers. If he wants to hide his aura, no one can sense it. I've been looking for it for so long, but I still haven't found anything.]

[I know, Andy... I have a hunch that I will be able to see the Teacher soon. I never had such a strong hunch!]

[Well, Janie, congratulations on getting what you want in advance.]

On the other side.

Madelyn was applying top-notch skin care products that she had spent thousands of dollars on her face in her bathroom.

Madelyn's eyes flashed with rage as she looked in the mirror, her face covered in the *****lotion that could not hide the wounds. "*****it... When can I return to my original appearance? I had taken many medicines, had surgery, and even bought a lot of essences to protect my face. But it looks the same every day! Could it be that they're cheating me of my money?"

When she thought about how Jane always mocked her about her disfigurement every time they met, Madelyn was so angry that she was about to have a cerebral hemorrhage. However, she could not refute the beautiful Jane!

Madelyn thought she was the brightest and most outstanding girl in Stormton City before she was disfigured. No matter where she went, everyone praised Madelyn for her sincerity, kindness, and innocence. She had transformed into a young socialite in the social circle and had a bright future!

However, Jane, who had returned to the Fowler family with a submissive demeanor, instantly became prettier and more attractive than Madelyn. In addition, the Fowler family was becoming less and less doting on Madelyn. Instead, they were paying attention to Jane....

Jane was the cause of all the tragedies that had befallen Madelyn today!

If it weren't for Jane the jinx, how did Madelyn end up like this? All the attention and love belong to Madelyn! But now they were snatched away by Jane!

The more she thought about it, the more Madelyn's hatred for Jane spread uncontrollably!

She wished that Jane was right in front of her, and she would not hesitate to stab Jane's stomach with the sharp knife in her hand and tear the *****woman into pieces!

At this moment, Leia's figure flashed through Madelyn's mind.

Madelyn had been investigating information about Leia these days.

Leia occasionally sent a message urging Madelyn to make a decision.

However, Madelyn had been cautious and dared to expose her true colors in front of the outsiders.

Even Leia, whose true colors had been exposed by Jane, fled abroad to become a mistress.

What if it was a trap? When Madelyn was caught red-handed, no one would have been able to save her!

“It’s time to make up my mind... the Fowlers don’t give me much money anymore, let alone the seasonal designer clothes or even skin care products.”

If not for the fact that Anna wanted Madelyn to go out more and had given her a credit card with a credit limit of 45,000 dollars.

Madelyn couldn’t even buy top-notch skin care products like these!

However, how could 45,000 dollars be enough? If the Fowlers did not give Madelyn these things, Madelyn would be spent the money in no time! If she continued to ask Anna for more money, and Anna was questioned, she would not be able to maintain Madelyn’s good image of being diligent and thrifty!

Madelyn’s status in the Fowlers was declining so fast now that the method was no longer an option!

The only way to make money was to steal the secrets of the Fowler family and sell them to Chester.

Previously, Madelyn sold two pieces of the secrets of the Fowler family and earned about 12 million dollars. In the end, not only did she use all of it to deal with Jane, she even wasted it! Now that Madelyn thought about it, she was still in pain! “Recently, the Fowlers have been keeping a close eye on me. I can’t even enter Daddy’s study, let alone steal the current development plan of the Fowler Corporation... Could it be that... I can only use that method?”

No Way Back Chapter 435-Madelyn’s eyes flickered.

That was her final trump card.

Fortunately, Madelyn saved it in time.

However, the Fowler family might be destroyed if she used it!

No matter what, the Fowler family had raised Madelyn. It was where Madelyn grew up for 18 years.

Madelyn didn't want to be so *****if she could!

At this moment.

An unknown number called.

Madelyn thought that it was Leia again. Recently, she had been calling her from an oversea landline as if she was hiding from someone. She did not tell Madelyn her regular cell phone number. It was also one of the reasons why Madelyn did not dare to trust Leia easily.

However, Madelyn frowned when she saw that the caller ID was in Rheinsville.

"Rheinsville? I don't know anyone in Rheinsville."

Confused, Madelyn pressed the answer button. "Hello? What can I do for you?"

"Maddie! I finally found you! I'm your biological ***, Maddie!"

Madelyn was stunned by the excitement on the other end of the line.

Immediately, an unprecedented sense of foreboding welled up in her heart.

"Are you kidding me? You got the wrong guy! I'm hanging up!"

Madelyn hung up the phone.

Unknowingly, a thin layer of cold sweat appeared on her forehead.

"No Way... It must be a hoax, a trap created by Jane to frame me!"

"I was abandoned at such a young age. How could I have a biological ****? Even if that *****is still alive, he can't find me! It must be a trap! It must be a trap!"

Now, Madelyn could not even protect herself. Hearing the wretched voice on the other end of the phone, it was not difficult for Madelyn to imagine a ****, bald, greasy, and obscene middle-aged man asking Madelyn for money!

Upon realizing the possibility, Madelyn was about to go crazy!

Then, the man called her again.

Madelyn pretended to be an ostrich and did not answer his phone.

When the ringing finally stopped, there was no movement for a while.

Then Madelyn heaved a sigh of relief.

“It must be an act... Yes! It is! I will not believe it!

“It’s not that easy to trick me! Now that he knows his plans have been blown, he’ll surely leave me alone!”

Just as Madelyn was rejoicing over her high IQ.

A text message directly broke Madelyn’s delusion.

[Maddie, since you’re unwilling to talk to me, I can only look for the Fowler family directly to prove that we’re your biological parents! Your mother, your sister, and I are all here!]

“What?”

Madelyn was so angry that she gritted her teeth hard.

Even though she kept reminding herself it was impossible.

Madelyn’s biological parents were long dead!

But, “what if”...

The other party knew Madelyn’s identity and phone number.

In that case, it was possible for them to find the Fowler family and made trouble!

Even if they weren’t Madelyn’s biological parents and were only here to cause trouble, the Fowlers didn’t care about Madelyn except for Anna now. Perhaps it would be like how Madelyn framed Jane back then. They didn’t ever investigate and directly sent Madelyn away. Out of sight, out of mind!

If that were the case, it would be even worse! Madelyn had to leave before she could dig up anything from the Fowler family. It would be fine if her biological parents were rich. But if they were not, wouldn’t she die? Moreover, no matter how rich they were, they could not compare to the Fowler Corporation!

Thinking of that, Madelyn could only reply with a message: [Give me an address and a time. We’ll talk after we meet! Don’t harass the Fowler family!]

[Great, Maddie. I’m so happy that you’re willing to see me. Your mother, your sister, and I are thrilled that our family will reunite. We’ll wait for you.]

After that, the other party sent another message.

It was three o'clock tomorrow afternoon at a restaurant on the fourth ring of Stormton City.

[I'll be there on time.]

After comforting the other party, Madelyn gripped her phone tightly, her eyes flickering crazily.

Madelyn was at a loss and flustered.

Chester was the one Madelyn could tell everything to, could comfort her, and give her advice.

Of all the things, Madelyn couldn't tell him the matter!

If Chester found out that Madelyn's biological parents came looking for her, it might even affect Madelyn's status in the Fowler family.

Maybe he wouldn't talk to Madelyn Anymore!

Losing Chester's love at this time was undoubtedly worse than death for Madelyn.

The matter could only be shouldered by Madelyn alone. No matter what, she had to wait until she met the person on the other end of the phone tomorrow.

Some people slept soundly this night, while others were doomed to sleepless all night.

The next day.

Madelyn arrived at the restaurant early with a hat, sunglasses, and a face mask. She had dark circles under her eyes and was exhausted from a sleepless night.

She did not choose the dining table she had arranged with Charlotte and the others.

She just sat at a dining table near it.

She ordered a lemon tea and pretended to be flipping through a magazine.

She glanced at her watch from time to time.

Madelyn thought that her disguise was flawless.

Little did she know...

Jane had long hidden her aura and stayed in the corner.

No one noticed Jane's existence or disguise.

Unless Jane wanted to leak it herself.

She stared in the direction of Madelyn with great interest.

She even took out her phone and started a live stream for Andy, who desperately wanted to watch the show.

"To be honest, Madelyn's disguise is so good that the average person can't discover her."

"The woman did it with her talent? She does know how to act."

Andy praised Madelyn in a neutral voice while eating *****.

The fact that Madelyn got such a good review from Andy showed that she was the best of the average person. After all, she had not joined the Darknet, nor had she had any special training in the Darknet. She did it all on the basis of her instincts, which are etched in her blood...

She was really awesome.

Jane said calmly, "Of course. The woman's acting skills can start and win an Academy Award for Best Actress. Otherwise, how could the people of the Fowler family have been fooled by her for so many years when they watched her? Other than the blind trust due to kinship, Madelyn's acting skills are not inferior to Johan's."

It was the same for Jane in her previous life. Because she had blindly pursued kinship and wanted to protect the hard-won kinship, she had been deceived by Madelyn for the first two years. Even after being fooled by Madelyn, Jane still thanked her ignorantly. Jane felt Madelyn was willing to stand up for her and sincerely treated her as a good sister.

However, Madelyn accidentally gave herself away. Jane became suspicious. After investigating, she discovered Madelyn's true colors!

When the appointed time was up.

Madelyn saw two people push open the door of the restaurant and walk in.

Accompanied by the crisp sound of the doorbell,

At first sight of the two people, Madelyn's heart seemed to have been hit by something.

No Way Back Chapter 436-An indescribable feeling welled up in her heart.

The woman, of course, was Charlotte, a semi-aged woman with the same charm. She was also dressed in a big-name mink coat and looked very noble.

Next to Charlotte was Madelyn's biological father, Miguel Harrison. He was dressed in a suit and had a crew cut. He looked like a gangster.

They were the characters that one could tell at a glance what they were inside and were easy to understand.

Neither of the two would be in Madelyn's sight on an average day.

After growing up in the Fowler family and receiving the Fowler family's education for many years, Madelyn had seen all kinds of people.

Naturally, she had honed her ability to read people.

Miguel's suit cost 1,500 dollars at most and was not even a big name. It could only be used to make up the numbers.

It was nothing compared to the hundreds of thousands of bespoke suits that Fowler family men wear to parties. Its material was visibly worse!

Charlotte's mink coat was real, but the bag in her hand was obviously a high-quality imitation of LV. It could be bought at the underground market for dozens of dollars, just to make up the number.

And the worst part was... Madelyn had feelings for these two people!

The feelings could not be rejected, like the throbbing of a bloodline.

Madelyn would rather ***than admit that these two were her biological parents!

Madelyn had a glimmer of hope that her biological parents, who had come to find her, would have prospered.

As expected, her expectations were all fake. For the characters like them, Madelyn would be thankful if they didn't come to ask her for money!

Jane's lips curled into a cold arc. "Andy, the main characters are all here. It's time for a good show."

Andy: "Well, I'm so tired from waiting. I can finally watch a good show."

Miguel and Charlotte did not spot the disguised Madelyn immediately. After sitting down, Miguel took out his phone and called Madelyn.

Madelyn turned her phone to silent mode. After seeing Miguel's phone call, she excused herself to go to the restaurant's ***' room and answered it.

"We've arrived. It's almost time for our appointment. ***, where have you been? Daddy and Mommy really want to see our precious daughter as soon as possible."

Listening to Miguel trying to sound like a good father, Madelyn felt her stomach churning, and she was about to throw up!

"I'll be right there. Give me another ten minutes."

After hanging up, Madelyn took off her sunglasses and messed up her hair.

She did not take off her mask. Looking at her haggard, black-rimmed eyes in the mirror, Madelyn clenched her fists and could not help but take a deep breath.

The things had come to her anyway. Running away was not the answer, and she had to face it!

When Madelyn came out of the ***' room, she walked out the restaurant's back door and then went around to its front door, pretending to have just arrived.

*****!"

Miguel saw Madelyn at a glance. He quickly stood up and took the initiative to hold Madelyn's hand. "Daddy finally meets you..."

Madelyn avoided him without batting an eyelid. "Sir, let's have a chat first. Don't address me so affectionately. I don't even know if you are my biological father."

"How can it be fake?" said Miguel triumphantly. "Since I came to you on my own initiative, I naturally confirmed the fact that I am your biological father. If you don't believe me, we can directly do a DNA test. It's great that technology has developed. Our DNA test report will be out soon."

Damn it!

At this moment, Madelyn really wanted to slap Miguel in the face!

It had been so many years since the ***** abandoned their biological daughters. Just when Madelyn thought that.

they had long ***and had nothing to worry about, they actually appeared again!

He even dared to act like a good father before Madelyn, missing Madelyn and calling himself her Daddy. It was simply *****!

“Alright, honey, let ***sit down. ***has rushed over from so far away and must be hungry. Let’s order some food.”

Charlotte felt guilty when she saw Madelyn’s dodged eyes. Seeing Miguel acting like that, she could only speak up to mediate.

“Right, right. If you have something to say, let’s sit down and talk while we are eating. Why are you still standing? Come on, ***, have a seat.”

Miguel wanted to hold Madelyn’s hand.

Madelyn quickly walked to the dining table and sat down.

Miguel pursed his lips and casually wiped his palms with his suit. He was not angry and sat down facing Madelyn.

Madelyn secretly observed Charlotte.

She realized in despair....

Her eyebrows and eyes were really similar to those of Charlotte!

The eyebrows, the eyes....

Every detail reminded Madelyn-

It was very likely that she was the biological daughter of the two people in front of her who had abandoned her in the orphanage back then!

Charlotte was also secretly sizing up Madelyn.

Even though she knew that Madelyn was the biological daughter she had abandoned back then,

She also had Madelyn’s photos.

However, this was the first time they had ever sat face to face!

No matter what, Madelyn was the first daughter Charlotte had painstakingly given birth to after nine months of pregnancy! Coupled with the debt of not raising Madelyn for so many years, Charlotte's heart ached. She did not dare to face Madelyn when she met her eyes.

Even if she had no choice but to abandon Madelyn back then, it could not be denied that Charlotte was her heartless biological mother!

Miguel crossed his legs and lit a cigarette without care. He spoke unhappily when he puffed, "***, Why are you wearing a mask? What? You don't want your parents to see your face?"

Did she think that Miguel and Charlotte had germs on them? Who did she despise?

"Honey, talk to ***nicely. She's our daughter. Don't be so mean."

"Honey, I'm not talking nicely? I'm just afraid our biological daughter doesn't care about us, her parents who gave birth to her! We're about to eat, but she's still wearing a mask. What's it?"

Miguel did not care what Charlotte thought. Since Madelyn was his biological daughter, how could Madelyn be born into the world without Miguel's sperm? It was the grace of life! Madelyn would never be able to repay it!

From the beginning, he had to put on a high horse and give Madelyn a hard time! If he softened up and was kicked in the face by his daughter, how could he ask her for money in the future?

Madelyn said coldly, "I was in an accident and had my face disfigured, and now I look terrible. I don't want to scare you by removing my mask. Because my face was disfigured, my life in the Fowler family is hard now. Since you guys came to look for me and investigated me, you know about it, don't you?"

Miguel and Charlotte's looked stiff.

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 437

No Way Back Chapter 437-Since they decided to leave Rheinsville to join Madelyn, they naturally investigated Madelyn.

Some intelligence investigations were so smooth that even they could not believe it. The private detective they hired handed over data and information about Madelyn to them in a few days.

That was why the plan to join Madelyn had moved so fast.

Of course, Miguel and Charlotte never thought that someone would secretly add fuel to the fire to the matter without leaving a trace.

It was Jane and Andy.

Miguel slammed his fist on the table and cursed, "The ****Fowler family! They have raised ****no matter what. Even if she was not their biological daughter, they could be considered to have a kinship relationship with their adopted daughter! Aren't all these years of companionship more important than blood ties? How dare they let this happen to my ****! I will get even with them for failing to protect my daughter!"

"Hehe... Even if the Fowlers ignore me now, I was raised by them. The food I eat, the clothes I wear, my education, and the company I've had since I was young were all given to me by them! What right do you have to talk about my Daddy and Mommy!"

Madelyn could not help but get angry. "Are you really my biological parents? Okay! Then let me ask you! Why did you abandon me back then? You left me in the orphanage and have never visited me! Do you know that I almost ***there? If I hadn't met the Fowler family and had the best doctors and money to cure me, I would have ***from my illness!"

"I... ****, don't be mad... Your father and I had no choice back then. We had spent all our money, and you were diagnosed with an illness. There was nothing we could do about you... If you had stayed with us, you would have ****! We had to drop you off at an orphanage and hoped some kind-hearted people could save you..."

"What if no kind-hearted people come to save me? Or even if I met a kind-hearted person, he wouldn't be able to help me? Without the Fowler family's money, I would never have been cured! I'll ****there, and no one will care about me. I'm afraid you won't even come to my grave to take a look!"

Miguel was anxious. "*****girl, what are you talking about? We were testing you. Of course, we can't just leave you alone. When you were adopted by the Fowler family later, we were happy, too. We knew that your life was saved. Otherwise, how could we have known you were with the Fowler family? We haven't looked for you for so many years because we want you to be happy!"

Madelyn could not help but fall silent.

It was also something that Madelyn could not figure out.

How could Miguel and Charlotte only appear in front of Madelyn now if they had known Madelyn had been taken home by the Fowler family?

If they wanted money, they should have appeared long ago.

Given Madelyn's glamour and the Fowler family's love for her, Miguel and Charlotte would probably have gotten the money long ago if they had wept about their poverty in front of the Fowlers.

Thinking of it, Madelyn turned her face away. "It's already too late. Why are you still looking for me? You gave birth to me, but you have never raised me. I can live up to now because of my fortune and the Fowler family. I don't owe you anything at all."

Miguel winked at Charlotte.

Charlotte lowered her head and played with her fingers. Obviously, she did not want to speak.

"Useless thing, Miguel cursed her under his breath. He said, "****, what are you talking about? We are your biological parents. Seeing that you've grown up, we wanted to come back and see if you are okay. Isn't it normal?"

"Heh, Why are you acting in front of me? A wise man should speak plainly. Aren't you just after my status as the daughter of the Fowler family? And then you're broke again and want to poach some money from me, right?"

They did not expect Madelyn to be so straightforward.

It was beyond Miguel and Charlotte's expectations.

Charlotte, who had always been greedy, vain, and full of lies, felt like she was sitting on needles.

Her garrulous *****had been stitched *****.

Especially under Madelyn's hateful gaze.

Even a thick-skinned person like Charlotte found it hard to talk to her biological daughter, whom she had abandoned for so many years and now had to turn to for help.

However, Miguel did not overthink it.

Miguel laughed and said, "Alright, ****. I'm not afraid to tell you the truth... Your mother, your sister, and I are indeed in some trouble. We need your help."

"You need my help? I'm afraid you need the Fowler family's help. But, sir, to be clear, the Fowler family is now preoccupied with their real daughter, Jane Fowler.. They've turned their backs on me, their adopted daughter, and now that I'm disfigured...

"It would have been better if you had come earlier. At least I have the right to speak to the Fowler family and can help you. ask for some money. Now... I'm afraid I won't get a single cent of what you want!"

"You"

Miguel knew that Madelyn was speaking out of anger. Earlier, Jane had told them that Madelyn was so doted on by the Fowler family. They even kicked Jane out of the Fowler family for Madelyn. How could she not be favored just because she was disfigured? If she used the scars to make an issue out of it, Madelyn would only get more!

"Great, ****, that's fine... I'll personally talk to Mr. Fowler and Mrs. Fowler about this! For the sake of their precious. daughter, I think Mr. Fowler and Mrs. Fowler will be happy to help us. After all, this bit of money is like a drop in the bucket for the Fowler Corporation!"

"Hehe, go ahead! What if Daddy was so fed up with me that he knew you were here for money and didn't satisfy you? What if he told you to take me away from the Fowler family and live with you, my biological parents? You'll get nothing!"

Seeing that Madelyn showed no signs of admitting defeat, Miguel muttered inwardly.

The ***daughter was getting more and more *****!

Miguel sneered and said, "Isn't that even better? Your mother has always been brooding over the fact that she abandoned you back then. She feels extremely guilty. If you really return to us because of it, your mother will be even happier! Of course... I'm also very happy. so is your biological sister!"

"Happy? Will you be happy? I'm afraid you'll avoid me like a hot potato if I come back to you as a useless burden without the support of the Fowler family! Also... you said that you miss me, my biological sister? Since we're both your children, why should she be able to enjoy the care of her parents while I am not?"

"Isn't it just a life-and-death struggle? Everyone, let's *****together! Anyway, I'm disfigured now. I was abandoned like a marginalized person in the Fowler family. Every day I live not like a human being. It's worse than death. I don't want to live anymore! If you have the guts, *****with me!"

No Way Back Chapter 438-The more Madelyn talked, the more her pupils turned red and the crazier she got.

She couldn't control her emotions, and her voice became louder.

It drew the attention of the crowd to Madelyn.

They wondered if she was crazy.

Miguel was also stunned by Madelyn's imposing manner.

Meeting Madelyn's crazy eyes, Miguel's heart was shaking wildly.

Could it be as Madelyn had said?

The Fowler family wasn't even paying attention to Madelyn now, so what was there to gain?

In that case, their plan would be completely disrupted!

"Honey, don't push /****, please. No matter what, she's still our biological daughter. Do you really have to push her to death before you're satisfied?"

Charlotte's heart ached as she looked at Madelyn. She increasingly regretted agreeing to Miguel's request to come to Stormton City to seek refuge with Madelyn.

However, Charlotte had no choice... That man had taken away all her assets and even stolen the money that Charlotte had saved for so many years and disappeared without a trace! She did not know how that man did it. Charlotte had hidden her money so well, but he still found it! He even knew Charlotte's password!

Without money, Charlotte could not live the same life as she did before, nor did she have the ability to feed herself!!

To count on Miguel, a daydreamer who spent more than a decade behind bars, and Justine, a good-for-nothing who only spent money to produce ****, was even more
*****!

The only person she could count on was Madelyn. Even if Charlotte felt guilty about her daughter, no matter how unwilling she was, she had no choice but to brace herself at this moment to come to her. It concerned her survival. However, Madelyn was struggling in the Fowler family. What else could they do?

"Push her to death... Of course not..."

Miguel gradually calmed down and smiled at Madelyn. "****, I'm your biological father. Of course, I won't force you. Come on, let's eat first."

Right now, Miguel could only use a stalling tactic. If Madelyn really could not gain her foothold in the Fowler family, at least she had her identity as the Fowler family's daughter. The Fowler family would definitely not be so heartless to the daughter. they had raised for 18 years, would they?

If he could get a bit of gold from the Fowler family, it would be enough for Miguel to last a few lifetimes. His “biological daughter was still of great value. He could never offend Madelyn, let alone make her leave the Fowler family. Otherwise, Miguel’s dream would be shattered!

Madelyn lowered her head, and her shoulders trembled. She gradually restrained her violent emotions and said in a muffled tone, “We’ll go to the hospital to get a DNA test report after dinner.”

“Yes, of course! Don’t worry, ****. We’re definitely your biological parents, and that’s true. I’m not asking you to forgive and acknowledge us. We only want you to know that we exist and will stand by you, help you, and never abandon you. Then it will be enough!”

Listening to Miguel’s hypocritical words, Madelyn wanted to laugh.

Always by Madelyn’s side?

Unwavering and never abandoning her?

Then who were the people who abandoned Madelyn at the orphanage and left her to ***?

Was it a ghost?

What a joke!

She was laughing so hard that her stomach was about to split open!

If Madelyn had not been adopted by the Fowler family and made the so called “biological parents” feel profitable, they might have long forgotten Madelyn’s existence and did not care if she was dead or alive!

Now, they were putting on the faces of a good father and mother. Did they really think that Madelyn was *****? Did they think that she would forget all their past grudges after expressing their goodwill and ****throw herself into their arms?

They must be dreaming!

Looking at Madelyn, who was lowering her head with her face covered by a mask and her expression not seen clearly, Charlotte suddenly felt an ominous feeling welling up in her heart.

And the ominous feeling....

It was given to Charlotte by her biological daughter, Madelyn!

Charlotte found an excuse to go to the restroom and wash her face.

Looking at her face in the mirror, Charlotte suddenly felt disgusted about herself.

Charlotte knew all too well that this was wrong.

It was simply an act that shook Charlotte's bottom line of conscience.

At the thought of it, Charlotte took out her phone from her fake Louis Vuitton bag and frantically flipped through her address book. She called them one by one.

No one answered her phone!

Including those socialites and her best friends who used to hang out with Charlotte!

After knowing Charlotte's husband had run away with the money, they all dodged Charlotte like she was carrying some viruses.

Even when Charlotte went to their houses, they called the security guards to chase her out and did not want to see her.

When Charlotte was in the limelight in the past, they all addressed her as their sisters. How happy she was!

Now that Charlotte was down and out, they had changed..

They were so realistic! It was *****!

Charlotte cursed them as she made the calls.

Still, no one answered her phone calls...

Her last hope vanished.

Until...

Charlotte flipped to the last page of her address book.

Jane's name caught her eye.

If Jane, one of the most remarkable figures in the world and Mr. Mitchell's junior sister apprentice, was willing to help Charlotte, she would not have fallen into such an awkward situation today!

However... would Jane help her? Even "the friends" that Charlotte thought she was close to shunned her. How could Jane, who she had only met twice, help her?

If she knew what happened to Charlotte, she would never meet her!

Charlotte had no other choice. The only person who she had not called was Jane.

If she wanted to escape from her current dilemma....

Charlotte called Jane hesitantly.

Beep, beep, beep...

Each note seemed to strike Charlotte's heart.

Charlotte could not help but close her eyes.

She was like a devout believer praying to heaven, hoping that Jane would answer her phone.

Finally!

The call went through.

"Hello?"

Jane's cold voice came from the other end of the phone.

Charlotte's heart almost stopped beating at that moment.

Calm down, Charlotte. Answering her phone was just the first step, and there were more to come.

"Je... Jane, I thought I hadn't called you in a while, so I'd like to call and see how you're doing. I hope I'm not disturbing you."

"Of course not, but we're not close enough to call each other at any time. Tell me what you want from me. I don't have time right now. I don't want to waste my time beating around the bush with you."

Jane's sudden alienation and coldness choked Charlotte. She felt the words Frost in June could not describe Charlotte's current feelings!

Charlotte could already imagine what kind of answer she would get if she asked Jane. Hearing no movement on the other end of the phone, Charlotte gritted her teeth. "I want to... borrow some money from you."

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 439

No Way Back Chapter 439-Jane said calmly, "Borrow money? How much? A couple of hundred dollars? I don't think a rich lady like you would care about this bit of money. Don't tell me you can't even take out thousands of dollars?"

"I... I want to borrow... borrow 150 thousand dollars from you..."

Jane was silent for a while when she heard the word suddenly multiply tens of times.

Charlotte found it hard to breathe.

She desperately wanted to hang up the phone.

She had never suffered such humiliation and waited!

However...

Charlotte did not dare to hang up.

If she hung up, she would have to become a vampire who *****Madelyn's blood.

It was the last thing Charlotte wanted to do. However, she had no choice but to do it to survive.

She could only endure the torture and place a trace of hope in Jane.

Then.

Jane could not help but laugh.

"Hehehe~ Charlotte, let's not talk about whether our relationship is good enough to let me lend you 150 thousand dollars. That number alone is astronomical to an average college student. How am I supposed to lend you 150 thousand dollars when you're not even related to me? Are you out of your mind?"

"I... I know it's rude to say it, but I'm really cornered. I was divorced. That *****man took all my money, and I had a little bit left and couldn't even live a normal life... All I could do was borrow money, and everyone shunned me..."

"Your friends are all shunning you. How can you expect me, who's a bit better than a stranger, to lend you 150 thousand dollars? Also, since you don't have any money, take your daughter to work. You won't starve to death as far as you're willing to work hard. Don't always think you can go back to your extravagant days of the past!

"150 thousand dollars? You can go and ask around. It is an astronomical figure to an ordinary family and is not as easy as you say!"

Jane interrupted Charlotte before Charlotte could finish her words.

Charlotte held her phone tightly and gritted her teeth, not letting her grievances show. "I... I'm sorry, Miss Fowler. I was rude. Goodbye!"

Charlotte hung up.

Her last hope was gone.

For a moment, Charlotte felt that her life was bleak.

It was not easy to hook up with a sucker.

The dream that she had had for less than ten years was shattered totally.

Then Miguel called her again. "What took you so long? Maddie is getting antsy! Get out of there!"

"I... I'm coming out now..."

Charlotte quickly wiped away her tears, touched up her makeup, and left the bathroom.

They rushed to the nearby hospital.

After Madelyn and the others left, Jane slowly finished her coffee and paid the bill.

They moved on to the next show battlefield.

At the hospital.

It was terrifyingly quiet at this moment.

There were only nurses coming and going.

They could not even see a single patient.

Madelyn, Miguel, and Charlotte were waiting for the DNA test report.

Due to the development of technology, it usually took 8-10 days to get a DNA test report. After spending money to speed it up, the DNA test report could be obtained within a few hours.

Miguel crossed his legs and placed his hands behind his head. He hummed a tune leisurely as if he had expected what would happen next.

Charlotte looked guiltily at Madelyn, who had her head lowered and was silent. She said with concern, "Maddie, are you thirsty? I'll buy some water for you."

Madelyn had no response.

Charlotte sighed inwardly.

She knew that she had hurt Madelyn too much by abandoning her in the past. No matter what reasons she had, it was an unpardonable sin for her to abandon Madelyn.

Now that she had shamelessly brought her family burden to Madelyn, she was in no position to ask for Madelyn's forgiveness.

"By the way, Maddie, your little biological sister... You haven't met her yet, right?"

When Madelyn heard the words "your little biological sister, she finally reacted. "Little biological sister... I don't have one. I'm the youngest in the family," she said coldly.

It was better to be the youngest. The youngest had someone to dote on and love and was no need to think about anything. Madelyn didn't want to be an elder sister and end up like Jane in the past! She was already miserable enough now!

"Yes, yes. Maddie is the youngest. Honey, don't bother Maddie."

Miguel looked at Charlotte in disdain.

If Madelyn's surname had changed back to Harrison, she would be worthless. What? One more ***** to feed? Where did they get the money? They had to spend money everywhere to survive in society!

Madelyn only had the surname Fowler and was the youngest daughter of the Fowler family. Only then would she be of great use! Charlotte was really out of her mind! Even her money was taken away by her husband without any trace! The more Miguel thought about it, the more he felt that he had been blind to be tied to such a woman! He had even been imprisoned for more than ten years because of her! The more he thought about it, the angrier he became!

Finally.

“Excuse me, which one of you is Miguel Harrison?”

“I am!”

Miguel hurried forward.

“This is your DNA test report.”

The nurse handed the report to Miguel and turned away.

The nurses in this line of work usually knew that something must have gone wrong at home for them to come and do a DNA test report.

It was better not to get involved in such matters.

Miguel took a look at the results of the DNA test and smiled. He swaggered back to Madelyn like a crab.

“Here, Maddie. Look, this is the DNA test report. It’s fresh and real. We’re your biological parents!”

Madelyn silently took the report from Miguel.

She looked at the harsh results of the DNA test report-[99% DNA physiology match].

Madelyn took a deep breath.

Madelyn made up her mind at the moment.

“Maddie...”

Charlotte looked at Madelyn worriedly.

Madelyn stuffed the report into her bag and said coldly, “Just because you are my biological parents doesn’t mean I have to get involved with you and forgive you.”

“It’s okay, Maddie,” said Miguel with a cheeky smile. “We’ll wait, we’ll atone, we’ll make up for what we did to you when we abandoned you until the day you’re willing to forgive us and accept us.”

When Madelyn heard him, she suddenly grabbed Miguel and stared at him.

Miguel felt that Madelyn's gaze was a little scary. The smile on his face froze. "Maddie, what's wrong with my face? Why are you grabbing me like this?"

"Well, as the saying goes, a long journey reveals the strength of a horse. I'll see what you'll do."

After saying that, Madelyn stood up and left with her bag.

These people...

Including the Fowler family!

They couldn't stay anymore.

No Way Back Chapter 440-Miguel was overjoyed when he heard it.

"Maddie, just wait. I'll make something for you to see and forgive us."

They did not know that Madelyn had already wanted to ****them.

Charlotte was still hesitant. "Honey, why don't we forget it... I think Maddie is unwilling to forgive us at all..."

Miguel was annoyed and couldn't help but snap, "*****", why are you being so wishy-washy? How will we survive if we don't rely on Maddie? Huh? Do you want to return to being the barmaid you used to be? Why don't you take a look at yourself now? Do you want to go to work in a factory? Can you do it?"

"Honey, how can you say that to me... Boohoo..."

"*****up if you are incapable! Otherwise, go back to the countryside with Justine to live there! Don't get in my way!" After being scolded by Miguel, Charlotte could only quickly wipe her tears and not dare to breathe loudly.

Now that Charlotte had been abandoned. Miguel was the only one she could rely on.

She had no other option.

I'm sorry... Maddie... I'm really sorry...

No one was in the house when Madelyn returned to the Fowler family.

She didn't know where everyone had gone.

The house was cold and empty.

Jack and the others wouldn't even tell Madelyn what they were doing.

Heh.

To think that Madelyn still wanted to hold back for their kindness in raising her.

Now that the Fowlers were indifferent to Madelyn, everyone paid attention to Jane.

Coupled with the appearance of her biological parents, Miguel and Charlotte, it became the last straw that crushed Madelyn.

If Madelyn was not merciless, she could imagine she would be blackmailed by Miguel for money and struggle to survive between the Fowler family and Miguel without personality in the future!

Madelyn felt despair just thinking about such a life!

She never wanted that kind of life.

With that in mind, Madelyn took the DNA test report out of her bag.

Then, she lit it with a lighter and burned it to ashes.

Her eyes were filled with ****intent!

"You forced me to do it. You forced me to do it... I wouldn't have gone this far if the report proved that you were not my biological parents. Don't blame me, don't blame me..."

It sounded like she was talking to someone else, but also like she was talking to herself.

Madelyn clenched her fists.

She must have money if she wanted Miguel and the others to disappear completely!

She had to have money to hire someone to ***them!

In that case, the best way to get money for ***someone was to betray the Fowler family!

Madelyn no longer hesitated. Her eyes were ice-cold as she dialed Chester's phone number.

Beep, beep, beep....

The call was answered.

“Maddie, what’s the matter?”

“Chester, let’s find a time to meet!”

“Maddie... is something wrong? Why are we going to meet suddenly?”

“Yes. Chester, I have something to tell you personally. Furthermore! I think we can proceed with our previous transaction! I need money!”

Madelyn no longer hid her desire for money.

Now, only money could solve all the problems that troubled Madelyn!

...Of course, Maddie. I’ve been waiting for this day for a long time. I’ll book a flight to Stormton City immediately!” Chester seemed to have been expecting this from Madelyn and was not surprised.

“Alright, I’ll wait for you. Chester, after the transaction... you and I will be completely free. Then we can really be together!” Chester’s heart skipped a beat.

Could it be...

What information did Madelyn have on the Fowler Corporation’s lifeline?

Actually, when Chester approached and *****Madelyn, he vaguely felt that Madelyn was hiding a deep secret about the Fowler family.

Even Jack and the others did not know...

Madelyn had a “Secret” that could subvert the entire Fowler Corporation!

That was what Chester wanted most, not those little “toys” that make a little money!

However, Madelyn was still reluctant to part with the Fowler family. She would never do something that would destroy the Fowler family.

Although he did not know what had happened to make Madelyn determined to completely destroy the Fowler family in exchange for money, for Chester, the reason didn’t matter.

What mattered was that the “Secret” was finally in Chester’s hands!

Little did he know...

Chester and Madelyn's every move was silently observed by Jane.

Jane took off her headphones and tapped her chin with her fingertips.

"I didn't expect Madelyn to have the 'Secret'. It should have been accidentally grasped by Madelyn when the Fowlers trusted her the most in chronological order. Otherwise, with the Fowlers' current attitude toward Madelyn, the Fowlers certainly wouldn't have given her access to such a core place.

"Huh, it turns out that Madelyn isn't so *****after all. She still has a trump card. I'm curious about what Madelyn has that can make her so confident... But it doesn't matter. The surprise is always fun to know at the end."

Next, they just had to wait for Madelyn and Chester to meet.

At that moment, Jane thought of Johan again.

According to the information obtained by Jane, Johan was taken away by Shaun to treat his wounds. After resting for a few days, he flew to Yalondy to look for Signy. He announced to the Fowlers that he had something important to do and could not return to the Fowler family for the time being. He hoped that they would understand.

He probably wanted to quickly know the outcome of that so-called "dream" with Signy's power as "a medium."

Jane did not know if Johan would realize that everything that happened in the "dream" was the outcome of Jane's death in the sea of fire in her previous life and the subsequent development trajectory. However, before Johan understood why Jane hated the Fowler family so much... the Fowler family would probably be completely destroyed by Madelyn! Jack, Anna, destroying the entire family by your beloved "adopted daughter" was also what you wanted! Two days later.

Chester and Madelyn met at a café with beautiful scenery on the outskirts of Stormton City.

Madelyn arrived early. After she looked in the small mirror in her hand and confirmed that her makeup was right and covered the marks on her face perfectly, she waited anxiously for Chester to arrive.

Ever since her accident, Madelyn and Chester had not met yet. Even though Chester had promised that he would not care about what Madelyn had become and would be willing to love and protect her, Madelyn knew that Chester had not seen her current appearance!

Madelyn must be ***now compared to old her! She was so ***she couldn't even accept herself, let alone the handsome Chester!

Finally, Chester arrived.

Upon seeing Madelyn, Chester's eyes were soaked in endless gentle light as if they had fallen into the Jade Pool. "Maddie!"
