No Way Back Chapter 441-The lust immersed in Chester's eyes.

Madelyn subconsciously turned her face away when she was excited.

She did not want Chester to see her so ***.

However, Madelyn was caught in Chester's arms by surprise.

warm

She felt the reassuring smell of perfume on the man and his powerful and warm chest.

Thump, thump, thump.

It wasn't just Chester's steady heartbeat.

Madelyn could also clearly hear her heartbeat gradually accelerating.

Madelyn suddenly felt a lump in her throat.

She had the urge to cry.

It was the embrace of Madelyn.

And it was the safe haven she had always dreamed of!

"Chester... Boohoo! Chester!"

Madelyn kept calling out Chester's name. She reached out to hug the man she loved. He was the only existence that could save her and bring her hope.

"I'm right here, ***. I've finally met you..."

Chester rested his chin on Madelyn's head and gently stroked her hair. His voice was gentle and soothing, like a stream of light that flowed out of the moon.

It was his sound that made Madelyn's heart melt.

At that moment, Madelyn suddenly felt she was willing to ***for the man who gave her warmth and a voice!

After hugging for a while, Chester gently pulled Madelyn and wiped her tears with his hand.

“*****girl, we haven’t seen each other for so long, and why are you crying as soon as we meet? It won’t do any good. You look the best when you smile.”

Madelyn said with inferiority, “No... Chester, my face was disfigured, and I had to undergo many surgeries to recover to this extent. But I’m still ***... I feel like I don’t have the face to see you...”

At this point, Chester held Madelyn’s little face in his hands, forcing Madelyn to raise her eyes and look straight at him.

Chester stared at the face before him without any disdain. He said with the utmost seriousness, “You’re not ***, ****. You’re the most beautiful woman in the world in my heart. Since I’ve decided to choose you, I don’t care what your face will become. The woman who resonates with me in my heart is the one I’ll protect for the rest of my life.”

“Chester...”

How could Madelyn, who had turned into a love-struck girl in Chester’s tender embrace, tell Chester had ulterior motives?

No. Madelyn couldn’t care less now, even if she could tell.

The appearance of Madelyn’s birth parents would drive her to a dead end.

The Fowlers’ disregard destroyed Madelyn’s last shred of rationality.

Madelyn was on the verge of dying. She felt like she was floating on the sea and about to drown. She had to hold on to a lifeline to survive the storm and the cold water and hold on to the last glimmer of light.

And the only light that belonged to Madelyn’s dark and despairing life... was Chester!

Even if the light approached Madelyn with ulterior motives.

It was enough as long as he could keep Madelyn alive!

Chester held Madelyn’s face and kissed her emotionally without care.

Madelyn felt the man’s passionate and turbulent kiss. It was the kiss that she had dreamed of.

At that moment, Madelyn didn’t want to think or do anything.

She only wanted to respond to his kiss, which was the kiss of salvation that belonged to her.

Madelyn collapsed in Chester's arms after the kiss.

She was surrounded by a cloud of pink bubbles.

She felt dizzy in the head and hot all over as if she had a high fever.

Chester sat down on the couch with Madelyn in his arms. "If it weren't so obvious, I'd take you right here, ****," he said hoarsely, his voice tinged with lust.

"Chester... You're so annoying."

Madelyn punched Chester in the chest with her little fists.

"Hahaha! You can't escape even if you know I am annoying. ****, you're already my wornan!"

"Chester... You're so bad..."

What she really meant was "But I like how bad you are!"

Madelyn shyly hid in Chester's embrace.

The two were flirting like a couple in love.

After a long while.

Madelyn finally remembered her business.

Madelyn got up from Chester and said with a straight face, "Chester, I'm here to make a final deal with you."

Chester rubbed Madelyn's hair and was willing to let Madelyn sit upon him. "Go on, ***. I'm listening," said he.

"I have this thing in my hands..."

Madelyn finished her sentence.

Even Chester couldn't help but pant and widen his eyes.

"Really? ****, are you sure?"

"I'm sure... It was five years ago. I accidentally overheard it when I accidentally barged into my daddy's study. Then I secretly made a copy of it on my daddy's computer, just in case... I've ****the information. As soon as I take it out.... the Fowler family and the Fowler Corporation will suffer a calamity!"

As Madelyn said so, she had gone ahead regardless.

She forcibly hid the last bit of heartache in her heart.

If Madelyn felt sorry for the Fowler family, who would feel sorry for her life?

Her life was about to be ruined by her biological parents, who had abandoned Madelyn and had to ask her for money!

As for the Fowlers' cold treatment of Madelyn... It was not that Madelyn was repaying kindness with ingratitude, but the reality was too *****. They made Madelyn do it!

Every man for himself. Now that Madelyn had told Chester, there was no turning back for her!

Chester pursed his lips. "****", if the information is true, the person Mr. Fowler droved away from Fowler Corporation back then... We have to find him first! Only then can we maximize the use of this information!"

"It's up to you, Chester. I only have the information... I'm sorry. I need a large sum of money to guarantee the rest of my life. The information is my final trump card. I betrayed the Fowler family and if the Fowlers find out that I joined forces with you, they will definitely not forgive me. The Fowler family will be destroyed forever. I...."

Chester suddenly stretched out his fingertip and tapped Madelyn's lips. "I know, ****," he said gently. "You name a number, and I will give it to you. It is a guarantee for your future life. You don't have to worry about your relationship with me."

"I... I want to use this information... to exchange for 70 million dollars!"

Madelyn knew the importance of the information.

To tell the truth, if she found a suitable buyer, someone might buy it for 140 million dollars.

Because it was the best "weapon" to destroy the Fowler Corporation and the Fowler family.

Madelyn was too love-struck and worried that Chester would *****her for asking for so much money.

Otherwise, Madelyn could raise it to a higher price.

And it was not just 70 million dollars.

Chester thought about it and said, “****, you still held back. If the information is really as you said, it won’t be a problem to sell it for several hundred million dollars.”

Madelyn hurriedly explained, “It’s fine, Chester. I just want 70 million dollars... I’m just worried that you...”

No Way Back Chapter 442-“Maddie, I won’t look down on you. It’s a good thing that you have an idea of what you want to do with your life instead of blindly trusting someone else My biggest fear is that you will be deceived and hurt because you are too simple, kind, and naive. You remember what you thought today and don’t change Understood?”

Listening to Chester’s solicitous words, Madelyn could not help but feel a lump in her throat again. Her tears dropped crazily like pearls with a broken string

Her tears dropped wet on the Chester shirt

Trembling. Madelyn said with a sob, “Thank you... Chester... Thank you so much.

“How about this? Maddie, Ill first give you 14 million dollars as a deposit. Then I will give you another 56 million dollars to round up to 70 million dollars when the information is traded Ill give you another 42 million dollars after the job is done. With so much money, even if you escape overseas in the future, you’ll be rich and have no worries for the rest of your life.

“I’ll help you clear your tracks and create a new identity, and then the Fowler family won’t be able to find you even if they want to mess with you. However, if the plan really succeeds, the Fowler family would be so overwhelmed that they would not be able to do anything about you. Even if they find out that you sold them out, there’s absolutely no way they’re going to go after you again

Madelyn was moved to tears. “Chester. You. You’re so thoughtful. I’m so touched ”

“****girl, you’re the woman I love. If I don’t think for you, who should I think for? Maddie, it is for our future and a vast world that belongs to us. Don’t go back tonight, okay? I want to be with you all the time...”

Madelyn listened to Chester’s bewitching words.

Chester’s fingertips gently brushed past Madelyn’s small face to her lips and then continued down...

Madelyn felt her *****go dry, and her body was sweating

Her eyes could only accommodate Chester’s figure but no one else.

Gradually, her consciousness became blurry, and her mind was a mess.

She felt Chester's fingertips were like red-hot charcoal. Every time their skin touched, the trembling would leave an indelible mark in the depths of Madelyn's soul

Chester was a prodigal lover who had catered to and won the hearts of countless women.

Even Madelyn had a talent for acting in disguise.

But she was too immature in the face of feeling.

Chester had met more cool, rational, talented, rich, and powerful women than Madelyn.

As long as Chester took the initiative to attack, no woman could escape Chester's 'attack'.

Chester had countless ways to make Madelyn willingly submit as his "toy".

Madelyn had no way to run away ever since she was imprinted as prey by Chester.

She could only be devoured bit by bit by Chester like a spider.

But Madelyn was still unaware she was trapped in the spider web. She struggled with all her might but could only end up being devoured.

How could Madelyn, who had already fallen into Chester's gentleness love, have room to resist?

She felt her heart burning, her blood boiling, and the deepest part of her soul itching and screaming

She wanted to give all of herself to the man in front of her, whom she fell in love with

It was the most primitive instinct between a man and a woman. No one could resist the hormonal explosion brought about by the feeling.

Little did they know...

Their actions.

Jane had seen through everything from the beginning.

Things were already progressing in the direction that Jane wanted.

Jane was no longer interested in watching the *****scene of the adulterous couple on her phone monitor

She ***away in her Porsche Cayenne.

The next day

Madelyn was awakened by Chester's kiss.

A crimson stain remained on the *****sheet of the hotel bed.

Chester slapped Madelyn's bottom. "Wake up, sleepyhead."

Madelyn said coquettishly. "Boohoo My body is so sore. Chester... I can't move..."

"Okay, okay. I'll get breakfast for you"

Chester glanced at the marks on the bed, Chester's eyes showed a hint of heartache "I'm sorry, Maddie It's your first time, but I can't control myself. I really love you too much That's why you're in so much pain..."

Madelyn got up from the bed and hugged Chester With her eyes closed and her hair scattered, she said contentedly. "No, Chester. I'm happy You taught me how to love someone and really feel to be a woman Thank you... for appearing in my dull life. I really don't know how to live without you...

"*****girl, why are you talking to me about it? I'll be mad if you say anything else. I'll have to punish you."

Chester's hands began to roarn Madelyn's skin again.

Chapter 442

Madelyn's breathing gradually quickened. "Again... Don't..."

It lasted for several hours.

Madelyn was so exhausted that she fell into a deep sleep.

When she woke up again, it was already four in the afternoon.

Madelyn found that Chester was not in the room.

"Chester?"

Madelyn shouted Chester's name.

He was nowhere to be seen.

She found a card on the bedside table.

"Here is a bank card with your birthday password. I'll transfer 15 million dollars into the card tomorrow as a deposit.

"I will have the rest of the money ready. At the same time, I have to find a significant person to maximize the benefits of the information. Wait for my good news, Maddie.

"If you miss me, you can call me at any time. As the man who loves you most and deeply in the world, I will be waiting for your command, my princess."

"Chester..."

Madelyn closed her eyes and held the card to her chest as though she had got a valued treasure.

It was as if she could feel Chester's big hands, so hot, firm, and powerfully moving across her chest. Madelyn even secretly sniffed the card.

She could smell the fragrance belonging to Chester.

Madelyn couldn't help but think of the crazy scenes with Chester.

Her face gradually turned red.

The adrenaline in her body surged uncontrollably.

"Chester... Chester... Chester..."

Again and again, Madelyn could only repeat Chester's name to relieve the heat and desire in her body.

On the other side.

Chester ***his extremely eye-catching red Ferrari 718 to the airport.

Chester was absolutely certain that Madelyn had fallen under his feet and was his "Puppet" after these two incidents and all the hinting that Chester had done before!

No Way Back Chapter 443-Chester, who was sophisticated, handsome, tall, and gentlemanly, was absolutely deadly poison for the woman who had first tasted the lovemaking!

Once she tasted it, she could no longer have room for sobriety

She could only be thoroughly immersed in the charm of the poison and hovered on the verge of death without the antidote!

Everything was for the information in Madelyn's hands!

As long as the plan succeeded, Chester could skip a few years of development.

He was directly promoted to be Micheal's most capable son! Not one of them

Chester called Micheal.

Beep, beep, beep...

Micheal's indifferent voice sounded on the other end of the phone. "What's the matter? Chester."

Chester respectfully said, "Mr. Laton, I'd like to borrow money from you. As for the specifics... I'll talk to you in person when I fly to Harbor City..."

The next day.

As soon as Madelyn got up at the Fowler family.

She received a text message about a transfer of 15 million dollars.

She read the message and counted the eight zeros on it.

Madelyn was so excited that her entire body was trembling

It was the first time Madelyn had received so much money!

She had become a little rich woman!

Although she knew she would have to spend a lot of money to ****some people.

It made Madelyn a little distressed.

However, Chester said that when the information was ready, he would give Madelyn a total of 105 million dollars!

It would be enough!

With that in mind, Madelyn called Leia.

Beep, beep, beep...

The call was quickly picked up.

"Maddie, you finally called me."

There was a lot of noise on Leia's side.

She did not know where Leia was.

But Madelyn couldn't care less

Madelyn went straight to the point. "Leia, can you contact the famous assassin organization on the Darknet? I want its contact information!"

The concept of the Darknet was something that Madelyn had heard from Leia.

Leia said that if Madelyn had the money to buy Jane's life, she could find an assassin organization there and offer a bounty.

To curry favor with Madelyn, Leia had done everything she could to answer everything she knew!

"Maddie, you've raised the money, haven't you? Then Jane can go to *****!"

When it came to Jane, the woman who broke Leia's dream of marrying into the Fowler family, Leia hated her so much that Leia gritted her teeth hard

If Jane appeared before Leia, Leia would tear her into pieces without hesitation!

She was forced out of the piano business and fled to Eastshel to escape the Fowler family.

Jacob, who had been Leia's sponsor, somehow had offended someone. His enemies had massacred all his bodyguards, and his manhood had been mutilated. He had even been sent to the ICU to become a vegetable and had yet to wake up.

Leia wanted to see Jacob but was kicked out by the people of the Lewis family. It was okay to turn a blind eye and have fun with a kept woman like Leia. But did Leia want to enter the Lin family? She must be dreaming! Jacob was not getting a dime!

Therefore, Leia was back to being poor. Leia, who was used to spending extravagantly, no longer had a man as her cash machine. She could only rely on the money she had saved. Her money was running low immediately in those days!

Twice in a row! Leia's life changed drastically because she met Jane!

Therefore, Leia would never forgive Jane. She wanted to **** Jane more than anyone else because Jane was the bane to make her life miserable!

But...

Leia didn't have the ability, much less the money.

"Give me the contact information first. I'll make a connection."

For Madelyn, it was not Jane, who had broken off her relationship with the Fowler family, but her biological parents, who were coming to Madelyn for money!

If she didn't get rid of them, if they were forced into a corner and came to Jack and the others to tell them that they were Madelyn's biological parents,

Madelyn's plan would be completely disrupted!

"I see, Maddie. I'll leave everything to you. You must **** Jane! I'll give you the contact number right now!"

Lela thought Madelyn wanted the contact information to **** Jane.

As soon as she hung up, she gave Madelyn the contact information of the assassin organization on the Darknet.

Leia had gotten the contact information from Jacob by chance.

Leia surreptitiously saved it based on the principle that it might be useful later..

The organization was the third largest assassin organization on the Darknet: Ruthless!

After receiving Leia's message, Madelyn was not in a hurry to call to confirm.

Instead, she sent the information to Chester.

[Chester, do you know there is an assassin organization called Ruthiess on the Darknet?]

Soon, Chester replied.

[Yes. Maddie, how did you know about the Darknet... Why did you look for an assassin organization?]

[Chester, if I don't do this, someone will destroy our most important plan! I have to take preventive measures and resolve all of this!] Upon reading Madelyn's message, Chester immediately didn't ask anything. [The contact information is indeed the Ruthless assassin organization. It's no problem. Is the 14 million dollars I gave you enough to spend? Do you need me to get some more money for you? The Ruthless charges a lot of money for ****people.]

[It's okay and enough. After all, the people to be ****are just three *****from the bottom of society. It would be easy for them. I only want. them to cover their tracks perfectly! It shouldn't cost too much money.]

[Alright, Maddie. If you need any help, just let me know. I'll do my best to help you.]

[Thank you... Chester, do you think I'm a terrible woman? I actually went to an assassin organization to ask them to ****...]

Madelyn was still most concerned about Chester's opinion. It was necessary to be confirmed by Chester. Madelyn did not trust Leia at all. Currently, the person Madelyn trusted the most in the world was Chester! Since Chester also said the contact information was the assassin organization on the Darknet, Madelyn could only feel at ease!

[No, Maddie, I believe that everything you've done is for the sake of our beautiful future! Every man for his own. I've done many dark things. I can understand the feeling. I won't blame you.]

[You have to believe it! No matter what the world thinks of you and says you're a terrible person, I know your most sincere, kind, and soft side. You only want to protect yourself. It isn't a mistake at all! It is human instinct! Those, who speak from the highest vantage point and accuse you, will be crueler than you are if they put themselves in your shoes!

[I will stand by you and help you fight against the rumors of the entire world! Unwavering']

Chester's words completely touched Madelyn's heart.

It also destroyed the last trace of hesitation in Madelyn's heart.

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 444

No Way Back Chapter 444- Those who sacrificed and compromised for others were just brainless saints.

Human nature is self-interest! Madelyn had not done anything wrong at all!

She did what most people would do, just as Chester had said Those who criticized Madelyn's actions would only do worse and more outrageous things than she if they stood on Madelyn's side and looked at things!

Without empathy, it was impossible to know why Madelyn made such a choice!

Thank goodness.

Madelyn didn't care about those people's gazes anymore.

It was because she was rich. She could rely on her ability to enjoy wealth and glory for the rest of her life. She could use the money to make those who looked down on her submit willingly!

She was with the man she loved the most!

As long as Chester trusted Madelyn and knew her heart, Madelyn did not care about the others!

[Thank you, Chester. You are the man I love the most. I feel I'm not lonely with your words and a man who understands me like you. I don't have any regrets even if I ***now!]

Madelyn typed on her phone screen while crying. After sending the message, she called the Ruthless *****organization without hesitation. Jane made a simple egg and ham sandwich with hand-ground coffee, intending to make do with her lunch.

Rain called Jane sipped her coffee while holding her phone in one hand and pressing the speaker button.

"Jane"

Rain's happy words come through.

"Rain, how's it going with Madelyn?"

"Everything is going the way you want it to go. Well, Jane, haven't I been a good girl? How about a compliment?"

Listening to Rain's expectant tone, Jane said dotingly. "You, Rain, are indeed the best, cutest brother in the world. When you come to Stormton City one day, I'll take you out and meet some new friends."

“Alright, it’s settled then I’m very interested in your friends. By the way, Jane, the “SKIN” organization is almost done dealing with it and can spare some resources to investigate the Teacher, Humphrey Mitchell, you mentioned. What are you going to do about Leia?”

“Get her first, but don’t ****her. She’ll be useful in my plans later on. And... you know what to do about Madelyn’s biological parents and her sister”

“Okay, a piece of cake”

After hanging up. Jane came to the balcony with her coffee She looked out the window at the bright sun. The pedestrians on the road came and went in a hurry. From time to time, a few birds would chirp and fly past Life was so pleasant and comfortable.

How intoxicating it was

Jane took a sip of the steaming, fragrant handmade coffee.

Her lips curled into a cold smile.

Madelyn could never have imagined that her dealings with Chester, her conversations, and her every move would be fully observed by Jane.

Leia, Chester, Madelyn, and that mysterious man....

Everything was woven into a net.

And when the net was torn apart and became a raging fire

The one who *****was the Fowler family!

Several days later

Madelyn’s phone call to the Ruthless organization finally got a response that day

A chilly voice sounded from the other end of the phone “We’ve decided to take the mission. One life is 45 million dollars. If you want three lives to disappear, it will be 13.5 million dollars. Have you thought it through?

“Why are they so expensive? The three people are the unprotected bugs that nobody cares even if they *****! Can’t you make it cheaper?”

Madelyn still wanted to bargain.

She had 15 million dollars

But if she spent it just like that.

In an instant, she would only have 1.5 million dollars left.

That was 13.5 million dollars!

It was an income that ordinary people would never be able to earn in their entire lives!

1124

It gave Madelyn heartache!

“The price is right here. I’ll give you one minute to consider. If you can’t accept it, the deal will automatically be canceled. Of course, you’ll have to pay us 1.5 million dollars for these days’ lost time.”

The other party’s voice was still as cold as a machine.

Madelyn was so angry that she almost had a cerebral hemorrhage.

They hadn’t even made a deal yet, but the other party wanted her to pay for lost time. Was it true?

What logic was it? She was forced to buy and sell!

However, Madelyn did not dare to offend the other party!

After all, it was the third-ranked *****organization on the Darknet, even though Madelyn had no concept of it.

However, through Chester’s words, Madelyn knew that if she offended them, she would ****miserably!

Even Chester did not dare to offend such a colossus!

Therefore, Madelyn could only agree to the offer of the Ruthless.

The other party sent an account over through Snapchat.

Madelyn had to transfer the 13.5 million dollars in an hour.

She had just hung up the phone.

Miguel called her.

Madelyn’s eyes flashed with *****intent. She suppressed the disgust in her heart and pressed the answer button. “What’s the matter?”

Miguel pretended to be nervous and said, “*****, your sister suddenly has a high fever and is hospitalized. The doctors said that her situation was critical. Come quickly and take a look!”

Madelyn’s anger rose. “My sister? I don’t have a sister. Even if you’re my biological parents, I don’t acknowledge this so-called sister! I don’t have any feelings for her at all! Moreover, shouldn’t you, as her parents, pay for the fee when she has a fever and is hospitalized? Why are you calling me?”

“*****! How can you say that? You should know our situation. We’re already short of money for the daily expenses and staying in a hotel. How can we have more money to cover your sister’s hospital expenses? If you refuse, I’ll have to talk to Mr. Fowler. I think Mr. Fowler is such a caring person. He won’t leave us in the lurch!”

Being threatened by Miguel, Madelyn sneered. “You! Miguel, if you really go to my daddy, you won’t get a single cent if anything happens! I’ll be chased out of the Fowler family. Then, there will be nothing left! Go to him if you can!”

“In any case, what can I get with your current attitude? Perhaps I can even get some money by telling Mr. Fowler about you. I cannot count on you, the daughter who ruthlessly watches her biological sister be hospitalized. No big deal, and let’s have a life-and-death struggle! So I don’t have to look at your face and kiss your *****!

“To tell you the truth, ***** , I don’t owe you anything. Without me, how would you be able to live in the world? You’ve enjoyed 18 years of glory. wealth, and resources at the top of society. It’s time to show filial respect for your biological father!”

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 445

No Way Back Chapter 445- Miguel said with a ferocious expression.

It was not that Miguel forgot his plan to benefit from being nice to Madelyn.

It was that no matter how much Miguel tried to please Madelyn, she remained unmoved,

Even though he said Madelyn’s biological sister, Justine, was *****and hospitalized now, Madelyn didn’t seem to care.

If this continued, their money would be wasted and only decrease.

Madelyn wouldn’t care if they lived or ***** . What was the point?

She made Miguel reveal his nature!

He thought that if he were nice to Madelyn, he would get what he wanted, didn't he?

Dream on!

At most, he would extort the Fowler family's money and escape with it!

It was better than currying favor with Madelyn and not getting any money!

As expected.

Miguel's words silenced Madelyn

Currently, Madelyn's *****intent toward Miguel and the others was boiling.

The kind that couldn't be controlled at all.

She couldn't wait to transfer money to the Ruthless organization and make these *****people disappear from the world!

Otherwise, if Miguel and the others went to look for Jack and Anna, it would completely disrupt Madelyn's plan!

With that in mind, Madelyn forcefully suppressed her *****intent and took a deep breath. "I understand... You want money, don't you? How much?"

Miguel sneered "*****", don't be so cold-blooded. Why don't you just be nice to your sister? The doctor said that the hospitalization, procedures, and subsequent treatment costs are 7,500 dollars!"

Madelyn subconsciously shouted, "7,500 dollars? It's *****to be hospitalized just to treat a fever! What do you mean by asking for 7,500 dollars in one go?"

Miguel said calmly. "Justine used to be well-fed. She's never had a fever this high. The Doctor is about to give her critical notice. How can we do that without 7,500 dollars?"

It was blackmail!

It was blatant blackmail!

Madelyn could tell at a glance that Miguel was lying!

In essence, he was just using her sister, who had nothing to do with Madelyn, as an excuse to ask Madelyn for money!

"I only have 3,000 dollars right now. I'll transfer it to you on WeChat first. The remaining 4,500 dollars... I'll give it to you when we find a time tonight."

Miguel pursed his lips. “What? *****? You’re not lying to me, are you? You’re a daughter of the Fowler family. You grew up with limited-edition handbags, designer brands, and plenty of pocket money. A mere 7,500 dollars isn’t even enough for you to buy a bag. Now that your sister is in trouble, you’re still making excuses. What’s the point of not taking it all out in one go?”

“Anyway, that’s all I have. If you don’t want it, don’t! Don’t force me, Miguel, or you won’t get a cent!”

Madelyn was so angry that she almost shouted those words.

After shouting, Madelyn panted heavily.

She was like a passionate lioness with disheveling hair, and she looked terrifying.

If others saw her like this, they would surely think Madelyn was a *****.

The sudden roar frightened Miguel on the other end of the phone..

He figured he couldn’t push Madelyn too hard, or he’d lose his long-term meal ticket, and it would all be for naught. It was already a happy ending to get thousands of dollars from Madelyn.

Even though the thousands of dollars were not even enough for Miguel, over the long term, as long as Madelyn was still the daughter of the Fowler family, Miguel could dig up tens of thousands of dollars, hundreds of thousands, and even millions of dollars!

Who made the Fowler family so rich and Madelyn so popular? It was Miguel’s ultimate goal!

“Alright, alright ***** , don’t be mad. I was too worried about your sister just now, so I said those harsh words to you. Don’t take it to your heart. 3,000 dollars it is. I’ll think of a way to help your sister cover the rest. Remember, give me 4,500 dollars tonight. Otherwise, I’m afraid that something will happen to your sister.”

Madelyn hung up.

After transferring 3,000 dollars to Miguel through WeChat.

Miguel received the money and immediately replied, “Thank you, ***** . I knew you were such a kind daughter. You definitely wouldn’t leave her in the lurch. Your sister and your mother would be happy when they find out.”

After receiving the money, Miguel hummed a little tune. Unaware of the impending disaster, he bought a loaf of bread from the convenience store and walked into the underground casino happily.

“Come, come. I have a stake today. I feel that my luck in gambling has improved. Watch me *****all of you in one go. I’ll make a *****

Madelyn stared at Miguel’s reply.

She only sneered.

Happy?

Today would be the anniversary of your death!

All the eyesores went to *****!

Madelyn immediately asked Chester to transfer the 13.5 million dollars to the account of the Ruthless organization.

She wanted Miguel, Charlotte, and Justine dead!

Chester confirmed it one last time. “*****”, have you thought it through?”

“Yes, I have! Chester, if I don’t have these three people *****”, my future will be bleak, and I’ll be tied down by these vampires! And Chester, for the sake of our plan, these three can not live! If the Fowlers find out, our plan might fall apart!”

“Alright, I’ll transfer the money to you immediately.”

Chester had known these three people were Madelyn’s biological parents and sister. They had disappeared for 18 years and suddenly appeared in front of Madelyn to ask her for money to be the parasites.

Chester did not feel anything about the matter. Madelyn could *****him if she wanted to. It had nothing to do with Chester.

There was only one thing... These three people had to disappear as soon as possible. They could not affect Chester’s final plan!

Even if Madelyn finally realized they were related to her by blood and couldn’t hire a murderer to *****them, Chester would still take action and make these three people disappear from the face of the earth!

Now that Madelyn had taken action, which saved Chester a lot of trouble!

After the Ruthless organization received Madelyn’s remittance.

They called Madelyn again.

It was a stiff male voice on the other end this time.

“We’ve already received the transaction. These three will soon disappear from the world without leaving any trace.”

Madelyn’s voice cracked from anger and hatred. “I want them to *****today!
*****today! I don’t want to hear the news that they’re alive again. They’re eating away at my life like a virus!”

“It’s not a problem. Wait for our news.”

The phone was hung up.

Jane casually threw her phone on the table.

She tapped her chin lightly with her fingertips.

The corners of her lips curled into a playful smile.

Madelyn would never have imagined...

The person who had just called Madelyn was Jane.

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 446

No Way Back Chapter 446-Jane had used her voice-changing technique. Madelyn would never have noticed that it was Jane’s voice

Or rather, Madelyn was so angry that she only wanted Miguel and the others to ***** . How could she pay attention to anything else?

She would never have thought that the founder of the Ruthless, the third-ranked assassin organization on the Darknet, was Jane’s younger brother, Rain!

*Madelyn, everything will be as you wish. At the same time, it will also be as I wish.”

Jane sent the results via message to Rain.

[Rain, the fish has taken the bait. Everything will go according to our plan.]

[Don’t worry. Jane, you can count on me.]

The message had just been sent.

Eden called.

"I'm sorry, Jane. I've been too busy recently to call you back. What did you want to see me about?"

"Hm... Eden, how's Yale?"

"Yale is getting better and better. Didn't he talk to you before? His vocal cords are most fully functional. But Yale has been so busy with various projects lately that I follow him around like a top. I have to say... Yale is quite tired, but only he can do these things, and I admire him.

Eden sighed heartily.

Yale was indeed Yale.

What he could do, no one else could.

He had almost single-handedly shouldered the future prospects and hopes of Crucsia with his talent and intelligence.

Even Eden, known as Dr. Black Jackson, felt inferior after witnessing Yale's achievements and marvelous ideas!

"It's right. Yale is very powerful, and so is you, Eden. You can treat Yale's illness which no one can do. Everyone has their own shining points. In my heart, both senior brothers are equally great!"

"Alright, Jane, I know you're comforting me, so I'll accept it. Since I've decided to take this path, I won't regret it. At the same time, it won't stop me from admiring Yale because he's really amazing. Tell me, other than Yale, you have something else you want my help with, don't you?"

Eden hit the mark.

Jane was speechless for a moment. She smiled and said, "... I still can't hide it from your eyes."

"You're my precious sister, Jane. Although we haven't known each other long, as children raised by the Teacher, we are soul friends and telepathic.

*Jane, there's no need to pretend in front of me. If you have anything you want to ask me, just say it. As long as I can do it, I will definitely do it for you. The reason why we work so hard to become stronger is that we want to help the people who matter to us, right?"

Listening to Eden's heartfelt and extremely warm words,

Jane took a deep breath.

The tears welled up in her eyes.

These were tears of gratitude, happiness, and excitement.

It was no longer the regret, pain, and torture that flowed down from the past.

The current Jane had already found her light of hope.

Jane tried hard to calm her tone because she did not want Eden to hear her cry. "I want you to come to Stormton City after you cure Yale's illness and help me take a look at someone," she said.

"It's no big deal. Wait for me."

"Yes! I'll wait for you! Eden!"

Night fell.

At the Fowler family.

While eating. Anná noticed Madelyn's absent-minded look and asked her with concern, "*****, what's wrong? Are you feeling unwell? Or is the food not to your liking?"

Madelyn quickly put on a smile. "Ah... It's nothing, Mommy. I don't have an appetite. I want to go up and rest first."

"Okay. I'll ask the kitchen to make you some late snacks. Otherwise, I'm afraid you'll be hungry at night. Since you don't have much appetite, why don't you have some chicken soup?"

"Okay. Thank you, Mommy."

Then Madelyn went upstairs.

Only then did Jack feel the oppressive atmosphere ease a lot.

"Aaron, are you feeling better recently?"

Aaron shook his head and said. "It's okay... Dad, I'm much better now. It's just that... I'm a little worried about Johan. I haven't been able to contact him recently."

Quinton blurted out, "Johan seems to have gone to Yalondy to find a significant person."

Everyone looked at Quinton in surprise. "Quinton, did Johan contact you?"

“Hmm... Perhaps the signal on his side is bad. After all, some places in Yalondy are so poor they don't even have cell towers. I looked at the message. It was sent three hours ago, and I just got it.”

Anna couldn't help but worry. She said, “Why did Johan go to Yalondy for no reason? Something clearly happened to Aaron at that time. Johan has always been steady and values his family. His father and I thought that it was something extremely urgent, but he has been gone for too long. We can't even get through to his phone.”

She didn't blame Johan for leaving Cruksia at such a crucial juncture. Getting Johan to make such a choice suggested that things were getting to the point where there was no turning back.

Most importantly, Johan did not even explain what was going on. And now, he was in such a far, turbulent country like Yalondy without any news of him. Anna was afraid that something would happen to Johan in Yalondy!

“The children have grown up. Anna, Johan is our child. We watched him grow up and taught him everything we could. Trust him. He will have the ability to protect himself. Johan is not *****. He will know his limits outside. Let's trust him and wait for him to come back.”

At this point, Jack could only comfort Anna like that.

Anna sighed softly. “It's the only way...”

Ding dong.

Suddenly, there was the sound of something falling to the ground.

Everyone looked in the direction of the voice.

It was the fork that Peter did not get in his hand.

Peter quickly picked up the fork and said, “Sorry, I was distracted just now...”

“Peter, do you know something?”

Aaron and Quinton looked rather strange when they saw Peter's current appearance.

Growing up together, they were intimate and naturally had a clear idea of what peculiar expressions they would have when they hid something from each other.

For example, Peter's right eyelid would jump wildly when he was hiding something or lying.

It was his current performance.

Peter hesitated and said, "I don't know what it has to do with Johan's sudden trip to Yalondy. As a matter of fact, when I contacted Johan previously, he seemed to be having a strange dream... Yalondy is a country with a lot of religion after all. I wonder if Johan went to Talondy to interpret his dream."

Jack was slightly stunned. "interpret his dream? At such an important time, Johan suddenly went to Yalondy to interpret his dream. It's impossible, is it?"

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 447

No Way Back Chapter 447-"Speaking of which... Johan's senses have been very sharp since he was young. He almost didn't miss it. Jack, do you still remember? Johan was always accurate when he said the score about two World Cups every time he felt something.

"There were also a few times Johan stopped me and said it would rain heavily when I wanted to go out. I was puzzled at that time. The weather forecast said it was clear, and the sky looked normal. As expected, dark *****suddenly covered the sky, and it rained heavily five minutes later. There were also many, many small things..."

That was indeed the case.

At first, the Fowlers thought it was a coincidence.

Then they felt that Johan's extrasensory perception was indeed very sharp.

Sometimes, if Jack wanted to do something on a whim, he would ask Johan for his opinion.

However, he had to wait for Johan to feel it before he made a good prediction.

Johan was no different from an ordinary person when he didn't feel something.

"It... it is just a coincidence. What era are we in now? We have to believe in science!"

Jack felt guilty even as he said so.

Sometimes, Johan's guesses were ridiculously accurate.

Not once or twice, but many times!

If it weren't for the fact that Johan had entered the entertainment industry after he grew up and wouldn't have spent so much time with his family, Jack probably regarded Johan as a fortune-teller. No matter what he did, he would ask Johan first.

Aaron looked at Peter. "Peter, do you know the content of Johan's dream? If Johan did go to Yalondy to have his dream interpreted, the content of his dream might be significant for Johan."

*I asked Johan. He said it was a warehouse that was burned down by a fire. It seemed to be related to our family. Johan didn't say anything else. Johan only believed in science and didn't care about these superstitions at that time. If it hadn't been for the oddity of the dream, it wouldn't have bothered Johan, who seems to have had it for a long time in a row."

The man with the extrasensory perception actually believed in science and ignored these superstitions.

He thought about how Johan could accurately predict what would happen next with his powerful extrasensory perception even though he said it seriously...

Cough, cough, cough!

However, the world was so huge. It was possible for a few capable people to appear.

Jack and Anna had lived for so many years. They had seen a few people do things that were either today's trickery or science could explain.

They kept a low profile and hid in the city. It was hard to see their abilities if one was not related to them.

When people met them on the way, people only thought they were ordinary people and did not take them to heart at all. People could not sense any powerful aura of them.

However, the abilities they possessed were unimaginable to ordinary people.

The Earth is huge. Humans do not know and can not touch a lot of things.

All Gods and spirits need to hold the heart of awe and can not mess around.

Johan had such an ability. Wasn't it a blessing for him?

Johan's extrasensory perception could save his life at a crucial moment!

And yet.

The Fowlers, who were talking about Johan's dream tonight, had no idea what their future would be related to the dream Johan had!

Madelyn returned to her room.

She anxiously waited for the reply of the Ruthless organization.

Time and again, she wanted to call to ask about the situation.

In the end, she gave up.

She thought that she would wait until midnight before making any plans.

Finally.

Just as Madelyn was about to lose control and bite her lips until they bled...

She received a message from the Ruthless organization.

It was a photograph,

On it were three *****heads.

Madelyn could tell at a glance that Miguel and the others had *****with grievances!

Such a terrifying scene would make any normal person tremble in fear. Their stomachs would churn, and they would vomit crazily. It would become a memory they would never be able to erase for the rest of their lives

However, in Madelyn's eyes, the photo was definitely a world-famous painting. It touched Madelyn's heart more than any painting. It was incomparably beautiful

Madelyn could not help but save the photo. She ran to the toilet and closed the door.

She laughed happily.

She held her stomach and laughed until her tears came out.

"This is the price for wanting to use me! Miguel, Charlotte, in the past 18 years, you have abandoned me and have no kindness to me. I can't wait to tear off your bones and drink your blood Now that 18 years have passed, you dare shamelessly to pretend that you are my biological parents and want to make it up to me. In fact, you just want to be vampires!

"Do you really think that I, Madelyn Fowler, will sit still and wait for death? When the DNA test report was released and proved that you were my biological parents, your death was destined! You forced me to do this. It's the price you should pay! If you were lying to me, you might have way out. Now... it's good that you're dead! You deserve to *****!"

Madelyn had never been so happy.

The blood in her body was boiling.

It turned out she was so happy to see those who hindered her life plan *****without a burial place!

It stimulated Madelyn's bloodlust!

After *****Miguel and the others, the person she had to *****next was Jane.

However, it would have to wait until Madelyn destroyed the Fowler family and fled with the money to live a carefree life overseas!

Jane, I'll let your cheap life drag on for a while, and you continue to enjoy your beautiful life!

As long as she had the money and the contact information for the Ruthless organization, Madelyn could want Jane to *****whenever she wanted!

And Jane would *****miserably! Incomparably painful!

Madelyn didn't even realize...

The side profile of Madelyn reflected in the mirror looked so terrifying, ferocious, and like an evil spirit!

Especially since she didn't wear any makeup, her fresh and tender cuts could be seen clearly in her cold laughter!

At this moment, the Ruthless organization sent another message.

"Now that their *****are here. Do you want to video-check it? There's only one chance."

"Of course!"

Madelyn wanted to see Miguel and the others *****tragically.

Only then could she be happier!

She would feel that her 13.5 million dollars were not wasted!

The video link quickly popped up.

Madelyn pressed the accept button without hesitation.

Only a dim light hung from the ceiling in the cold and damp warehouse.

Miguel, Charlotte, and Justine's *****appeared on the phone screen.

And their three *****heads.

It was like the composition of the evil ghosts from *****.

However, it made Madelyne extremely satisfied,

Like a ***** , she pulled the phone screen closer and closer.

She wanted to use her eyes to carve the scene into the depths of her soul.

"Will that do? I've got to get rid of the ***** , or there'll be a bit of trouble if it drags on."

No Way Back Chapter 448-A voice that seemed to have not spoken for hundreds of years suddenly sounded.

It was as hoarse as nails scratching the blackboard, making an ear-piercing sound.

It gave people a spiritual impact.

It caused Madelyn intense discomfort

She also recovered from the excitement of seeing the corpses of Miguel and the others.

The killer of the Ruthless organization that killed Miguel and others did not appear.

He just broadcast the live stream on his mobile phone and confirmed the end of the transaction.

"Alright, I'm satisfied with the 13,5 million dollars this time. As expected of the third-ranked assassin organization on the Darknet, you're efficient and have settled it for me today.

"I hope we will have the same happy cooperation deal next time."

Madelyn was implying something.

"Next time... of course. We are always ready for you as long as you have the money."

The voice on the other end of the phone still made people feel uncomfortable.

Madelyn quickly hung up the live stream to prevent her happy mood from being affected tonight.

Naturally, she did not notice...

The uncontrollable tease in the speaker's voice.

Madelyn calmed herself down. She hummed a tune and gave herself a milk bubble bath.

And she took out her phone and reported it to Chester.

[Chester, the people in the way have finally disappeared. We can continue with our plan.]

Chester replied soon.

[Maddie, I've found the Key person, and I'm trying to pry his *****open]

[I think we can proceed with the transaction regarding the Information.]

[Really? Of course, you can. Chester, I'll listen to you and do whatever you say. I trust you.]

[Alright, let's make an appointment to confirm the information.]

[Yes!]

Three days have passed away in the blink of an eye.

On this day, Chester and Madelyn made an appointment to meet at the hotel.

Madelyn went to the hotel room two hours early. She took a shower before Chester arrived. She was all washed up and perfumed. She put on her bathrobe, blew out her hair, and flirted in the mirror, afraid she would not show her best side for Chester later.

Finally!

Madelyn received a message from Chester saying he was already at the room door. Madelyn trotted to the door in her slippers, her heart thumping wildly. She patted her chest to calm her nervous heartbeat before opening the door with a flushed face.

What greeted her eyes was a large bouquet of *****roses.

Madelyn could not help but cover her *****and exclaim, "Oh, my God!"

“Surprise! How is it? Maddie. Here are your favorite fresh *****roses that just airlifted from Raish today. There are 99 of them.”

The *****roses fell, revealing a handsome and affectionate face that Madelyn had been yearning for day and night.

Madelyn took the *****roses before her and took a deep breath. It was Madelyn’s favorite taste. She said in astonishment, “Chester, how did you know that I like the *****rose from Raish?”

Madelyn remembered that she did not tell Chester about it.

Chester reached out and hooked his arms around Madelyn’s neck. His fingertips gently caressed Madelyn’s earring. His voice was as gentle as a beam of the skylight. “For the woman I love deeply, remembering her preferences is the first necessary task for a suitor, right?”

Madelyn was instantly immersed in Chester’s tenderness and could not extricate herself. She put down the *****roses and took the initiative to throw herself into Chester’s arms. Feeling the warmth of the man she loved the most, her voice was intoxicated and blurry. “Chester... I miss you so much!

One day apart felt like three years. The days away from Chester had made Madelyn seem to have lived a lifetime, even though they could chat or video chat

Chester closed his eyes and allowed Madelyn’s head to rest on his chin. His voice lingered as he said, “I miss you, too, Maddie. These few days when I was separated from you, every minute and second, even in my sleep, I’ve been thinking about you.. Maddie... You smell so good...” Chester sniffed Madelyn’s hair, and his voice gradually became tinged with desire. His big hands touched Madelyn’s waist, and the calluses on his thumb rubbed against Madelyn’s skin.

Madelyn’s breathing also became more rapid, and she wanted Chester to get closer. Madelyn knew it was Chester giving her, a man giving a woman, a hormonal signal.

Her remaining rationality forced Madelyn to fall like a pile of mud into the arms of Chester. She raised her watery eyes and said hoarsely, “Chester... Didn’t we agree to talk about the important things first? Isn’t it too... inappropriate for us to do this?”

“It’s fine. Let’s sleep first. Maddie, you’ve already come to the room. You should know why I booked such a room... You don’t want to hold it in too much, do you?”

“Chester... You bad... bad... so bad...”

Madelyn's little fists landed on Chester's body. They were as soft as a cat's claws, and it was nothing more than a tickle to Chester.

Instead, it added flames to Chester because of the itching.

It was like pouring a pot of alcohol into an already vigorous wood fire.

It exploded from the heat.

Chester grabbed Madelyn's restless fists and said evilly, "I'm bad... but don't you like me to be bad? Could it be that Maddie... you don't like me to be bad to you?"

"You... You're so annoying. Chester, you only know how to tease me..."

Madelyn's face was so red that it seemed like blood could drip from it. She shyly hid in Chester's arms.

Chester could not help but laugh loudly. He carried Madelyn and walked straight to the *****room in the hotel room.

After the passion.

Madelyn lay weakly in Chester's arms.

Her hair was drenched in sweat.

Madelyn's fingertips drew circles on Chester's chest. "Chester, I told you to get down to business first. Now that my bones are about to fall apart, how can I talk about business with you like this?" said she.

"How about this... You lie down, and I'll get up. I'm still energetic. After we're done talking business, I'll dote on you. I haven't seen you for so many days. I want to get back at you tonight."

Madelyn thought about Chester's violent actions and could not help but feel aroused. She covered her face shyly. "Chester... You're a wolf, a wolf that's extremely hungry. I'm worried that I can't stand you anymore..."

Chester touched Madelyn's little face. "I can't help it, Maddie," he said. "You're my first woman. I am a vigorous young man. You're so beautiful that I can't bear to part with you. I love you to the core. How can I tolerate it? You're making me feel worse than death."

"Chester..."

If Madelyn had some doubts that Chester liked her to make use of her before, now under Chester's fierce attack, her doubts had disappeared without a trace.

Who would treat a woman he did not love so passionately and fiercely? Who would spend so much effort to dig out her preferences and surprise her?

Chester must be deeply in love with Madelyn! That's why he did these things!

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 449

No Way Back Chapter 449-Madelyn suddenly felt full of energy and climbed down from the bed.

Chester held Madelyn's hand and interlocked their fingers, saying worriedly, "Maddie, aren't you tired? Take a rest. It's all my fault. I only want to indulge myself. I'm sorry..."

"It's fine. I'm not that fussy. For the sake of our beautiful future, my body is filled with unlimited power at any time."

Madelyn smiled sweetly at Chester and walked to the sofa. After picking up her bag and taking out a USB flash drive from a secret compartment inside, she turned around, returned to the bed, and handed it to Chester.

"Here, Chester. This USB drive contains all the information you want. It's all inside."

"This is it..."

Chester's eyes flickered slightly as he looked at the USB flash drive that Madelyn handed to him.

He stood up and took out the laptop that he had prepared earlier.

He inserted the USB drive into the computer and read the information.

His lips curled into a cold smile.

*Indeed, Madelyn was right. This is it!" he thought.

Madelyn leaned on Chester's shoulder from behind and rubbed his firm chest with her fingertips, saying softly, "Chester, you've caught the most important person in the plan, haven't you?"

"I've already caught him and obtained an important confession from him. After all, Mr. Fowler heartlessly chased him out of the company back. then without the slightest bit of pity for the hard work he had done for so many years at Fowler Corporation. After leaving Fowler Corporation, he had always hated Mr. Fowler, but the evidence was destroyed.

"Now that I have the information on your USB drive and his confession, everything makes sense. I didn't spend much effort to pry open his *****and make him stand on my side."

Of course, Chester offered an excellent bargaining chip in the deal with the other party.

After all, if this matter were done well, Chester could earn tens or even hundreds of times more profit.

This might be the most crucial battle in his life. Nothing must go wrong!

Of course.

Chester would never have imagined...

It was so easy to pry open the other party's *****because someone's power was adding fuel to the fire.

Madelyn rubbed against Chester's neck like a cat and exhaled gently. "That's good... Chester, I'm really happy to be able to help you."

Chester smiled and replied, "The 56 million dollars will be transferred to your bank account on time tomorrow. That bank card has a special limit. I'll help you erase your identity and go overseas when the matter is resolved. Any grudges in Crucsia have nothing to do with you. I'll also transfer the other 42 million dollars to your account."

'Chester, you're so considerate of me. You're so nice..."

Madelyn was extremely touched

Chester thought for a moment and said, "I'm just thinking of using this information to find a suitable opportunity. However, the Fowler family is not easy to deal with. They must have taken precautions against this in advance. If we don't use this trump card when the Fowler family is in internal strife, the effect will probably be greatly reduced."

Madelyn's heart skipped a beat when she heard this.

After a moment of silence, she replied. "Chester, I have a method that works every time. As long as this method is used, it will definitely achieve the effect you want."

Chester raised an eyebrow. "What's the method?"

"I'll keep you in suspense for now, but I'll make sure to tell you when a success. Then you can set up and do whatever you want. We'll all...!

the happiness we deserve."

Madelyn lowered her eyes and kissed the back of Chester's neck.

The corners of Chester's lips curled up slightly. He turned around, held Madelyn's face, and planted a hot and violent kiss on it.

"Then I'll be waiting for your good news, Maddie."

"Now you're in the palm of my hand..."

"You've never disappointed me," he said inwardly.

A week passed in the blink of an eye.

For the past few days, Madelyn maintained the image of an obedient, smiling, and innocent daughter.

It was as if she had walked out of the trauma of being disfigured. She gradually returned to the lively and cheerful Madelyn Fowler of the past.

Anna was very gratified to see this

Infected by Madelyn, Anna became more and more motivated to undergo rehabilitation.

Gradually, she felt a little bit of sensation in her originally numb right leg

The Fowlers were overjoyed at this.

They didn't care what Madelyn was thinking now.

Everyone's attention was on Anna Fowler.

get

Anna had already been discharged from the hospital more than a month. In such a short period of time, she showed signs of recovery.

This was an extremely good sign.

It could give the Fowlers and Anna huge encouragement.

They firmly believed that if they had faith in the bright future, Anna would stand up again one day.

Among everyone's smiling faces, Madelyn's sincere and happy expression revealed a hint of gloominess.

Since everyone was immersed in the joy of Anna's getting better, no one noticed the change in Madelyn's gaze.

Seeing everyone in the Fowler family was focusing on Anna, inquiring about her feelings, Madelyn lowered her eyes and pretended to be obedient as she walked up. "Mommy, this is a safety talisman I got from the Beloved Church. I think daddy and brothers' prayers must have touched the heavens. Also, you fought hard and didn't give up. Wear it. It will keep you safe."

"Thank you, Maddie..."

Anna touched Madelyn's head and accepted her talisman.

"Beloved Church... Speaking of which, I haven't been there for a long time. Jack, why don't we go to Beloved Church to pray? For ourselves, for the family, and the children."

The Fowler family had always held the attitude that it was better to believe it than not. Every year, they would find time to attend church together to offer prayer. The most frequent place they visited was this Beloved Church.

Finishing, she looked at Madelyn and said gently, "Maddie, you're really considerate. You went to the Beloved Church to pray for me and got the talisman. Your piety must have touched the heavens that allowed me to recover so quickly."

Madelyn shook her head. "Don't say that, mommy. This is clearly your effort. Your persistence led to the best outcome. I'm not..."

Jack immediately made the decision. "Alright, there's no time like the present. Let's go to the church after lunch tomorrow afternoon! To pray and donate. I hope God can bless the Fowler family, the children, and you. No one will be hurt again."

Madelyn's eyes flashed with a hint of success.

In just an instant, she quickly restrained herself.

It was so fast that no one noticed.

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 450

No Way Back Chapter 450-Chester replied almost instantly. [Alright, Maddie. I'll support you at any time.]

Finishing, he glanced at Micheal Laton, who was drinking fine wine in the room. He showed his chat history with Madelyn in front of Micheal.

After reading it, Micheal finished the rest of the wine in one gulp. He stood up and patted Chester's shoulder, laughing loudly and saying, "As expected of my son! You're so ruthless in your actions. I didn't expect you to play this Madelyn Fowler in your palms and obtain such important information"

This was the first time Micheal had said that Chester was his son since they first met. Chester lowered his eyes and replied respectfully. "Mr. Laton, you're flattering me... Regarding stopping Jack Fowler and the others from attending the church tomorrow..."

"Don't worry. Leave it to me. As long as Fowler Corporation is in great turmoil, it goes without saying how many benefits will be ready for us to take. Don't worry about it this time. We'll seize the initiative. With the support of Crown Group, most of the benefits will be ours!

"At that time, you'll be my most capable son. I'll bring you back to the Laton family and justify your place in the family. Even if your stepmothers find out, they won't be able to object now that you've made such a huge contribution!"

Chester still lowered his eyes and maintained a humble posture. "Thank you... Mr. Laton."

Micheal clicked his tongue. "You're still calling me Mr. Laton? It's time to change your words. Chester, you have proven your ability to me! You're worthy of being my outstanding son!"

When Chester heard this, his body trembled. He looked up and answered with a trembling and excited voice. "Dad..."

He looked like a humble illegitimate child who had finally obtained the recognition of his biological father.

Micheal enjoyed watching Chester submit to him. That was an instinct that came from his bloodline. It meant he could treat Chester as the most valuable and loyal pawn who would never betray him!

Micheal held Chester in his arms and gently patted his back. "Good boy. It will be over soon."

“Yeah...”

Chester leaned on Micheal’s shoulder, hiding the killing intent in the depths of his eyes.

“Yes, it would be over soon...”

“This is just the first step of my plan.

“The *****I return to the Laton family as Micheal Laton’s son.

“The real plan had just begun,” he thought.

The next day.

At the Fowler family.

While having lunch, Jack received a call.

His expression changed.

He got up from the dining table and walked to the living room.

Anna and the others noticed this and were not in a hurry to ask.

Only Madelyn lowered her head and continued eating. No one knew what she was thinking.

When Jack returned, he sighed softly

“Jack, did something happen at the company?”

Anna hit the mark.

Jack replied guiltily, “I’m sorry... Honey, there’s suddenly an emergency in the company. I have to go back and deal with it. Otherwise, my subordinates won’t be able to handle it properly. I’m afraid we’ll have to postpone going to the church today..

Anna smiled considerately.

y “It’s fine, Jack. It’s more important for you to deal with the company’s matters. Peter, go and help your father too. Aaron, Quinton, and Maddie will accompany me.”

“Honey

"Alright, Jack, this is an accident. No one expected it. I'm glad that you want to accompany me. Also... trust your son and daughter. With them by my side, are you still afraid that something will happen to me? Don't worry."

Anna held Jack's hand and smiled sweetly at him.

Ever since her rehabilitation showed promising signs, her right leg had recovered some sensation. When she went to the hospital for a physical examination, the doctor praised her recovery and said that it was simply a miracle. He said Anna could stand up again within half a year if she kept exercising

Anna's confidence had multiplied. In addition, she was relieved to see Madelyn get out of the trauma of the accident. Now, she had already fixed her shattered heart that had been hurt by Jane and given up the thought that she was a burden to the Fowler family. She was even more vigorous

Since she had decided to live, she could not let down everyone's protection. She looked forward to it. She would bear all of this and transfer them into her spiritual food. It would spur her to recover as soon as possible and become a normal person.

"Okay... Aaron, Quinton, and... Maddie. I'll leave your mother in your hands."

Aaron nodded heavily. "Don't worry, Dad. We'll take good care of *****."

After lunch, the Fowlers split into two groups.

Aaron, Quinton, Madelyn, and Anna went to Beloved Church to pray as planned.

Jack and Peter went to Fowler Corporation to deal with the company's emergency.

Beloved Church was located in the suburbs of Stormton City. It was similar to Santio Church and was not far away.

The Fowler family often chose Beloved Church to pray at because they felt that the name of it was easy to understand. It suited the eye and matched fate.

It was not that they felt a difference between the two churches.

When the Mercedes Benz of Anna and the others headed toward Beloved Church.

A BMW X7 followed silently.

Sitting in the driver's seat, Jane was as calm as ever.

Until the two cars *****from the expressway to the suburbs.

At an intersection, the Fowler family's car headed to Beloved Church.

Jane *****to Santio Church.

It was like a fork in fate.

After the two cars had passed the same stretch of road, their final destination was completely different...

Fate had already given the answer.

They arrived at Beloved Church finally.

After offering prayers and donating, Anna suddenly wanted to go to the toilet.

There was a place beside the church called Fineberg Peak.

The restroom was built there.

Since it was the ladies' room, Madelyn pushed Anna's wheelchair in.

Aaron and Quinton were waiting outside.

When Madelyn was helping Anna in the restroom, Anna looked at her guiltily. "I'm sorry... Maddie, *****is useless. You have to do this... Ah.... I'm humiliated to think about it."

Madelyn was now Anna's only daughter.

As for Jane, Anna no longer dared to dream about her returning to the Fowler family after all that had happened.

She was even more afraid of being humiliated by Jane. Even if she tried her best to restrain herself, hinting that she owed Jane and had taken the initiative to harass her, she had to endure it.
