No Way Back Chapter 51-Andy whistled.

"Well, now that I know what you want. I know what I need to do," he said.

Jane said, "Also, this is the recording of Jack framing me again at the University of Oricle today, and the evidence of Anna trying to bribe at the airport."

She added, "This time, I need you to make sure Jack is going to be doomed in court!"

This might not cause Jack's entire life to be ruined.

But it was enough for the Fowler family to suffer.

As long as the news spread out, the Fowler family would lose all face and become the laughingstock of upper-class society.

It would have a huge influence.

She could not help but look forward to that.

Just thinking about it made her feel excited!

Jane had already sent the video to Andy.

"Roger that," he replied.

At that, Jane said, "Tell me if it's not enough. I have more here."

This time, in order to deal with Jack, she had made a lot of preparations indeed!

"Janie, this is the easiest case I've ever received," Andy said.

He then added, "You've already found all the evidence. Honestly, I don't think I'll be of much use."

Upon hearing that, Jane replied, "I'm already so glad that you're willing to help me. No matter what, the Fowler family is one of the top wealthy families in Stormton City. I know 99% of the lawyers out there wouldn't dare to take on this case."

She jokingly said, "Didn't you see how frightened the Fowler family was by the mention of a big shot like you? Jack could only run to the school to look for me, and Anna could only go to the airport to beg you."

She thought about these two clowns.

Jane could not help but want to laugh.

Upon hearing this, Peter's expression darkened.

He couldn't sit still anymore.

He stood up and wanted to walk toward Jane.

"Hey, Peter, calm down. Have you forgotten what you just said?"

Larry felt that Jane had gone too far.

No matter what, Jane was still a member of the Fowler family.

She clearly knew that Peter was there.

But she still said that on purpose.

She insisted that she wanted Jack to kneel down and apologize.

However, that was impossible.

Therefore, in the end, they would go to court and the Fowler family would be embarrassed. They would become a laughingstock in Stormton City! This was Jane's true intention!

Larry was not surprised that Peter wanted to confront Jane at this time.

"I remember what I said. Don't worry, I'm alright," Peter said.

If this happened in the past, he would have rushed over to argue with Jane.

But now, he was different.

Peter walked up to Jane.

Meanwhile, Jane still ignored Peter.

She was drinking and chatting with Andy.

Peter was suddenly distracted.

He had never seen Jane drinking before.

Under the influence of alcohol, Jane's cheeks turned a little red.

Under the candlelight, her starry eyes sparkled.

One could tell that she was sincerely talking to Andy.

At that, Peter thought of something.

Once upon a time, she treated him with such sincerity as well.

"Jane, Peter said.

He actually took a deep breath before he spoke.

His voice was neither loud nor soft.

Regardless of how regretful he was about the past, it was meaningless now.

The important thing was what he was doing now.

And what he was about to do in the future.

Jane acted as if she did not hear anything.

She still pretended as if she did not see Peter.

Seeing Jane's reaction, Peter could not help but exclaim, "Jane, I have something to talk to you about."

Only then did Jane turn her head reluctantly. She glanced at Peter and curled her lips. She then showed a mocking smile and asked, "Don't you have any dignity?"

"What?" Peter said.

Jane lowered her head and answered, "I broke the record once and you fainted because of that. You did such an embarrassing thing in front of me. Can't you tell that I don't even want to pay attention to you? Still, you chose to come forward."

She continued, "Peter, that's why I'm wondering if you have any dignity. Did I say anything wrongly? Andy, don't you think so too?"

Jane shook the wine glass in her hand. She did not even look at Peter when she spoke. Instead, she was staring at Andy.

“Janie, of course, you’re right!”

Andy raised his glass and clinked it with Jane’s. The two of them looked at each other and smiled.

They embarrassed Peter together.

Even Peter’s face darkened.

With that, he secretly clenched his fists.

This was the first time in Peter’s life that he had been humiliated like this.

Yet, it was his biological sister!

This feeling to him was new.

It was so torturous.

“Hey, aren’t you guys going too far?”

Larry initially did not want to interfere, but he thought that Jane had gone too far!

He walked to Peter’s side. He could not help but speak.

After all, Peter was Larry’s good friend.

Seeing that, Jane said, “Larry, are you sure you want to help Peter? You clearly know this is none of your business. What right do you have to interfere?”

Jane added, “Do you think you’re a hero by standing up for him? Huh? I’m just telling the truth. If you don’t know anything, just *****up!”

Jane knew that Larry and Peter were very close.

Seemingly, Larry wanted to help Peter.

She did not mind scolding him too.

“Jane! How dare you!”

Larry was scolded by Jane for no reason. He was so angry that his face turned ashen.

At this moment, Larry could not believe that he actually listened to Peter and even felt sympathy for Jane just now.

He actually felt bad for Jane just a couple of minutes ago.

However, Jane *****him off.

That was when he realized Madelyn was the best! He knew that Madelyn, being such a kind, gentle, and well-behaved woman, would never say such a thing.

He thought to himself, "No wonder the Fowlers only doted on Madelyn and turned a blind eye to Jane! They are so different"

If Larry was Peter, he would have made the same choice back then!

"Larry, stop."

At this moment, Peter spoke up, stopping Larry who tried to continue arguing with Jane.

Larry snorted and turned his head away angrily.

Peter said seriously, "Jane, I really have something to tell you."

At that moment, Jane was surprised slightly.

Jane raised her eyebrow as she heard what Peter said.

It didn't seem like Peter's personality.

She figured that he had finally learned to be smart as he knew to do the right thing at the right time.

If this happened in the past, he would have lost his mind and even wanted to attack Jane. The Fowlers would curse Jane and wish that she would ****. "Oh, really? But I'm not interested and I don't have time to listen to you." She added, "I rather drink with Andy than deal with trash like you."

Jane mercilessly trampled on Peter's dignity.

It was obvious that she despised the latter.

And this happened not because of no reason.

In the past, Jane groveled and wanted to hear from Peter.

Peter was the disdainful one.

Now, Jane didn't care anymore. She didn't want to ask for attention anymore. All she ever wanted was to cut off all ties with the Fowlers for good.

Yet, it seemed that Peter was acting superior as if Jane was the one who wanted to hear it.

This time, Jane would not entertain him!

"Janel"

He had been humiliated again and again.

Even Peter could not help it.

His tone was filled with anger

"You're starting to reveal the real you, aren't you? Haha. Peter, this is the real you. You don't have to suppress your nature anymore."

She asked, "Why are you pretending to be a good brother? I'm so disgusted!"

She chuckled and said, "If I didn't get Andy to help me with this lawsuit, you probably wouldn't even bother to look at me!"

At that, she added, "But once it involves the Fowler family's potential loss of reputation, aren't you becoming nervous? Are you trying to get close to me now as an older brother?"

She snorted and asked, "What do you think I am? A stray dog that will run over with its tail wagging if your family shows the slightest kindness?"

Peter heard what Jane said.

He was slightly stunned.

In an instant, he felt as if a bucket of cold water was poured over his head.

For a moment, he did not know what to say.

He had clearly warned himself in his heart that he had to calm down.

No matter how angry Jane was, it was understandable.

He could not figure out why did he still lose control.

Larry said, "Jane, you've gone too far. Peter knew that he did something wrong and wants to make it up for you!"

"Did he know that he's wrong? I know his ill intentions. I disdain his self-awareness and don't want to talk to him anymore. The Fowlers are now a pile of vermin to me. I really don't wish to encounter anyone of them!"

Larry fell speechless after hearing what Jane said.

Larry said, "Forget it, Peter. This is your sister's personality. She definitely won't be able to speak calmly with you. If you stay any longer, you'll only embarrass yourself. Let's go!"

Larry really did not want to be scolded by Jane anymore. He could not bear to see Peter being scolded in front of Jane either. He pulled Peter and wanted to leave.

Unexpectedly, Peter silently let go of Larry's hands.

He stared at Jane.

"Jane, I do have something to tell you."

At that, Andy spoke. "Hi handsome, it's not too gentlemanly of you to ignore the women's rights and pester me shamelessly."

Peter was silent. He knew that he was like a clown now, but he had to talk to Jane.

Even if he could not turn back the time, Peter still wanted to try to fix the relationship between the Fowlers and Jane.

Not only that, there was still a lawsuit against the Fowler family.

Peter, as one of the Fowlers, had heard what Jane and Andy had just said. He could not sit back and do nothing about it.

Jane suddenly stood up.

She held the wine glass in his hand.

With that, Peter thought that Jane was finally moved by him and wanted to talk to him.

He said happily, "Jane..."

The next second.

She splashed the wine in her glass onto Peter's face.

No Way Back Chapter 52- That was when the entire place fell into dead silence.

Jane's table has already caught the most attention.

In addition, the person who went to Jane was nobody else but Peter.

Everyone knew Peter. He was a regular customer of Nightshade Bar and was a good friend of the boss's younger brother.

She actually splashed the wine on Peter's face.

Everyone was shocked.

They were clueless about what was going on.

Meanwhile, Peter clearly did not expect Jane to do this.

He looked at Jane in a daze.

The wine slowly flowed down his face, soaking his clothes.

Soon, Peter's shirt was stained.

On the other hand, Andy whistled cheerfully.

His eyes flashed with admiration for Jane.

This was the Jane that Andy knew.

Indeed, she was the Queen of the Darknet!

"Tsk... If I were wearing high heels today, I would definitely pour the wine down your head and give you a cold shower," she said.

Jane couldn't feel any better at this moment!

She just splashed the wine on Peter's face!

After all, there was still a difference in their heights.

"Jane, are you crazy?" Larry asked.

Larry returned to his senses and glared at Jane angrily.

*"You're the ones who are crazy! Why do you even think I would want to talk to you guys? How ****! I have nothing to talk to you about!"*

Without any delay, she said, "Someone's harassing us! Please help!"

Jane directly shouted at the security guards at the Nightshade Bar. Apparently, the security guards heard Jane.

Without further ado, they immediately came to help.

However, they then saw Peter and Larry.

For a moment, they did not know what to do.

"Jane, you're clearly the one who splashed wine on Peter's face!"

Larry added, "Do you know how humiliating this is for a man?"

At that, Larry was furious.

"Huh? He can finally have a taste of his own medicine now. I have nothing to do with him anymore, yet he still took the initiative to come and talk to me!"

*She continued, "I have been trying my best to ignore him, yet he still calls me by my name again and again. It's *****"*

"This is obviously harassment! Peter, you're shameless and degrading yourself!"

Jane mercilessly used the most vicious words against Peter.

But that was not enough!

For Jane, it was far from enough!

Such humiliation and revenge could only give Jane the slightest pleasure!

It was far from what Peter had done to her in the past 15 days!

Little did he know how much courage it takes to cut a girl's favorite long hair. It was such a torture that she had to go through.

At the thought of this, Jane recalled how she trembled while holding the scissors. She was heartbroken and tormented *****.

In the end, she still cut her hair in order to please Peter.

She had cut off her favorite long hair.

Anyhow, after what she did, Peter just turned around and stroked Madelyn's long hair in front of Jane.

He praised ***long hair, saying how beautiful she was. He said Jane looked like some *****who overestimated herself and even tried to imitate ***. No matter what, Peter thought that Madelyn was the most beautiful for him.

Jane could only imagine how helpless she looked at that time

She felt as if her heart was being grabbed by an invisible hand, being kneaded hard. She almost suffocated.

However, she still had to hold on. She put on a flattering face and said, "Little ****long hair is indeed beautiful."

*That was ****!*

There were countless times when Jane called Peter but the latter only responded with a stone-cold expression, forcing Jane to cry

All of these happened in just 15 days.

However, this lasted for five years in her previous life!

The torment was getting more and more unbearable day by day God knew. what Jane had experienced!

Compared to what Jane has been through back then, what Jane did to Peter now was just a drop in the ocean.

It was nothing compared to what the Fowlers did to her.

It was nothing compared to the trauma that Jane has gone through.

The Fowlers had no right to complain.

None of them were innocent!

Seeing this, Andy's jade-green eyes lit up.

Initially, he was worried that Jane would be hesitant to sue Jack.

Even if she was tough enough, he was worried that Jane would be emotionally hurt in the end.

From what he saw now, Andy realized he was really over worrying.

Jane was being serious this time.

The Fowler family had completely offended Jane.

And Jane would no longer have any pity for the Fowler family.

Thus, Andy was free to do whatever he wanted to seek justice for Jane!

Larry was trembling with anger.

Right now, he had only one thought in his mind.

"Peter, that's enough. Let's go," Larry said.

"You don't need to waste your time anymore!"

Larry thought what the Fowlers did back then was right.

After all, it served her right!

Now, he was not at all surprised that the Fowlers would misunderstand or mistreat Jane.

Judging from what he saw today, it was true that nobody would like Jane. No wonder they wanted to chase Jane away!

Jane really looked like a mean person who did all the bad things.

Even if Larry wasn't one of the Fowlers, he could tell the difference between Jane and Madelyn.

So what if Jane really had some hidden strength? Larry thought that she was indeed very mean.

She could never compare to Madelyn who has always been gentle, virtuous, and innocent.

She was a nobody compared to Madelyn.

After all, everyone in the Fowler family was more capable than Jane.

But Jane still thought that the Fowlers owed her!

*That was *****!*

"Hmm. Mr. Fowler, please don't do this. We'll be in trouble."

Actually, the staff saw what happened just now.

After all, Jane was the woman Robert had told them to keep an eye on.

It was obviously Peter who took the initiative to come to harass Jane.

The surveillance footage clearly captured everything that happened.

Jane was so resistant to Peter's approach that she even called for security.

It was obvious that she did not want to give Peter any chance at all.

She did not want to let Peter continue to pester her.

They did not want to worsen the situation.

The other people who were drinking were silently paying attention to the scene.

Their gazes were filled with mockery, ridicule, and curiosity.

Of course, they were happy to watch the show and did not say anything.

After all, Peter was the seventh son of the Fowler family.

Nobody would dare to mock him. If they were targeted by the Fowler family, later on, they would be doomed.

"Jane, do you have to do this to me?" Peter asked.

He added, "You know what? I've begun to reflect on what I did to you. I've apologized to you. Isn't that enough?"

He said aggrievedly, "What else do you want me to do? Do you know that no one has ever dared to humiliate me in public like this?"

"The reason why I didn't get angry and still tried to speak to you so calmly is that... you're my sister! My biological sister! I'm giving you a chance!" he said.

Peter gritted his teeth.

Only God knew how hard Peter tried just now to calm himself.

He did not give Jane a big slap on her face.

It was all because of the guilt he had for Jane.

But now, this sense of guilt was slowly retreating.

Gradually, he was filled with fury.

Upon hearing that, Jane wanted to laugh so badly.

She was staring at Peter.

She was suddenly disgusted.

She could not believe that Peter made himself sound so innocent now.

He looked very righteous.

He was clearly putting on the look of a good brother who was tolerating his younger sister.

At the end of the day, Peter got it from both Anna and Jack.

All the Fowlers were more despicable and self-righteous than anyone else He spoke in a high and mighty tone as if he was doing Jane a favor.

Indeed, they thought that acknowledging Jane as one of the Fowlers was already a blessing.

At this moment, he looked exactly the same as Anna at the airport. Looking at this scene, Jane had only one thing on her mind.

She did not want to see his face anymore!

"I don't need your apology," she said.

She added, "It's easy for me to forgive you!"

"From now on, the Fowlers are not allowed to appear wherever I go!" she said.

"I won't allow you to breathe the air I've breathed!"

She sneered, "Stop acting high and mighty in front of me as if being one of the Fowlers is a huge blessing!"

*She continued to say, "Let me tell you, all the Fowlers are a ****of vermin. The last thing I want was to have anything to do with the Fowler! I don't want to be one of you!"*

Jane felt physically uncomfortable if she ever related to the Fowlers.

She initially thought that she just had to ignore them.

After all, the Fowlers have always hated Jane from the very beginning. They desperately wished that Jane would disappear immediately.

This way, Jane would regain her happiness and freedom.

At least it would be tens of thousands of times better than her previous life.

*In the end, the Fowlers were a group of despicable *****.*

She had clearly cut ties with them, but they still stuck to her like a slug. every time!

If she didn't make it clear to them, they wouldn't realize it!

Meanwhile, Peter's nails dug into the flesh of his palm.

He tried his best to stay rational and calm

*He did not lose control and ****insulted Jane, or even hit her.*

He only glared at Jane with a hatred look before turning around and leaving.

"Jane, you've gone too far!"

On the other hand, Larry looked at Jane and said, "Do you know that Peter really regrets what he did to you? He even took the initiative to look for you this time because he wants to reconcile with you and apologize for what he did in the past!"

He further added, "He has already treated you as his sister, but how did your repay him?"

He continued, "It's fine if you don't even give him a chance, but you still want to say these harsh words to him. Are you even a human? Do you have a conscience? Wouldn't you feel bad?"

Larry looked like he was defending Peter.

Hearing that, Jane did not say a word but only looked at Larry.

*The corners of Jane's ****twitched slightly. She showed a disdainful. smile on her face.*

Her mocking gaze had already made it clear that she saw Larry as a clown. She then said, "Why do I have to forgive him just because he apologizes?"

"What does it have to do with me whether he regrets it or not?" she muttered.

"Well, since you already said that I have no conscience. I'm a demon. I'm evil beyond redemption. Why did you still shamelessly come to talk to me?" She paused and said, "Perhaps, you can ask Peter yourself. If I don't plan to sue Jack and find Andy for help with this lawsuit that will ruin the Fowler family's reputation, will he ever feel guilty and take the initiative to apologize to me?"

She raised her voice and said, "The only reason why he came to me and played the victim card was that he wanted to ask me not to sue Jack!"

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 53

No Way Back Chapter 53-Larry stuttered, "You... Peter doesn't think that way. So what if he's being a little selfish? Peter is doing it for the family. Family is more important than anything else. And I can tell that he's sincerely repenting!"

He added, "Besides, Mr. Fowler is your biological father. No matter what, the Fowler family is where you belong. It's fine if you don't want to repay their kindness, but why do you still want to take revenge?"

"How sad will Mrs. Fowler be if you do this? She went through so much hardship to find you!" he asked.

Larry's words made Jane feel like there was no point in her saying. anymore.

"As expected, I shouldn't have much hope as you're Peter's friend... Forget it!"

Larry was glad that he was not one of the Fowlers.

Luckily, he had no conflict with Jane.

Otherwise, Jane would have caused him a lot of trouble right now!

Jane sat back in her seat. Andy then poured a glass of wine for Jane in a gentlemanly manner. "Drink this and cool down. Don't be mad because of these people. It's not worth it."

"Huh? What do you think you're talking about?" Larry said.

'Mr. Shane, I don't mind if you want to argue with me. I'm just afraid that your family will not be happy about that.'

At that, Andy's voice was full of threats.

He didn't even look at Larry when he said this.

However, it was as if he poured a basin of cold water filled with countless ice cubes on Larry's head.

Larry instantly returned to his senses.

His anger disappeared without a trace.

Larry instantly returned to his senses.

He could not believe that he actually forgot something.

It was Andy that he was talking to

He was the first-class lawyer in Cruksia.

Even a wealthy family like the Shane family would never dare to offend such a lawyer.

If anything, they would try their best to curry favor with him to build a good relationship.

It was impossible for them to try to become enemies with someone like Andy.

If they ever offended Andy, the Shane family would be doomed if they went to court one day.

All their enemy needed to do was just go to Andy for help.

Then, they would be at a huge disadvantage.

In fact, Andy was someone that even the Fowler family did not dare to provoke and wanted to please!

If the Shane family knew that Larry had offended Andy today...

Larry's legs would probably be broken!

Larry began to regret being so impulsive. He clearly did not behave this usually. He just could not bear to see his good friend suffer.

"I'm sorry, Andy. I was too impulsive just now."

After saying this, Larry bowed to Andy.

Jane could not help but laugh.

"Hahaha..."

She laughed so hard that tears came out of her eyes.

Larry was instantly slapped in the face.

He even admitted defeat instantly.

Larry really looked like a clown at this point.

When Larry heard Jane's laughter, it was extremely mocking.

Larry was so angry but he could not do anything.

He did not dare to refute him.

way

*"It's fine for young people to be ****, but don't forget who you're talking to."*

Andy looked at Larry and said, "Furthermore, perhaps, I'm not the one your should be worrying about the most."

Andy still didn't look at Larry.

He only said something with a meaningful look on his face.

Larry did not have time to think about the underlying meaning behind Andy's words.

He knew that Andy did not want to continue fighting with him.

He didn't even look at him anymore.

Larry had never been treated as such before. However, he did not dare to be mad when facing Andy in front of him. He only had respect for the latter.

They could only leave to avoid such an awkward situation.

Thus, they slunk away.

The staff was in charge of cleaning up the scene.

The others also looked away as there was no more show to watch.

Still, they had watched a good show tonight.

However, no one dared to spread this matter.

After all, Larry and Peter were not people that they dared to mess with. They could only gossip about them.

If they ever spread it and were found out, they would be dead.

When the two families joined forces to target them, they would not be able to live.

The richer a person was, the more they were afraid of taking such risks. They would not give up their hard-earned wealth and glory, let alone do such ****things that could bring harm to them.

At the same time, they had respect for Andy and Jane.

They could never imagine being like them.

Even Peter and Larry had to run away like dogs in front of them.

Not to mention people like them.

After chasing away Peter and Larry, Andy shook his head helplessly and said, "The Fowlers are so pitiful."

Initially, he only thought that they were ****, like comical clowns. Now, he simply felt sorry for them.

He thought that the top wealthy families had everything under control.

However, they could not even figure out what a terrifying enemy they had offended.

The truly terrifying people were those who were being looked down on the most.

It might sound cliché but it was true indeed.

“Just ignore them. Don’t let them spoil your mood. Let’s continue drinking.” Jane said.

Jane apparently took it very well.

She already knew the true colors of the Fowlers.

She would not feel any sadness now.

She was unaffected emotionally.

Seemingly, everything was developing in a good direction!

“Here, cheers, Janie, for your rebirth!”

“Cough!”

Jane’s heart skipped a beat.

Andy had mentioned the word ‘rebirth’.

She had a feeling that she was almost being exposed.

“Cheers!”

Peter and Larry left for about 20 minutes.

After that, three more people came.

As soon as these three people appeared, they immediately caught everyone’s attention.

Everyone’s eyeballs almost fell out.

Everyone was taken aback.

They could not believe these people actually existed in this world.

They all had their own styles.

All of them could effortlessly stand out in the crowd.

Not the mention the man at the front.

He was putting one hand in his pocket. His cold eyes exuded a cold aura.

However, his appearance quickly outshone the two other men who were walking beside him.

Jane noticed it too.

She remained expressionless.

However, she could not help but feel a little strange to see these people showing up together.

She saw Hugh, Robert, and Connor walking into the bar.

Her instinct told her something was wrong.

It reminded her of what happened in the Cloudnine Restaurant.

Hugh walked to Jane's side. He stood still and greeted her indifferently.

"What a coincidence!"

"Tsk.. Tsk..."

Robert and Connor almost laughed out loud at the back.

Hugh had rushed over nervously the moment he saw the photos of Jane and Andy in the Nightshade Bar.

However, when he saw Jane, he stubbornly pretended to meet the latter by chance.

They could not help but find that hilarious.

They thought a cold-blooded and heartless tyrant like Hugh would be brave enough to come and warn Andy to get lost and not approach Jane. anymore.

At that, the two of them were happily ready to watch the show.

"Yes, it's quite a coincidence," Jane replied.

In fact, Jane just played along.

She already knew that Hugh was a regular here.

She knew that the Nightshade Bar was run by Robert.

She knew that Robert and Hugh were close when she bumped into them in the Nightshade Bar last time.

It was quite likely that she would bump into Hugh here.

Jane didn't think too much about it.

Somehow, she just felt something was wrong.

The atmosphere seemed a little strange.

She did not know how to describe it.

But her instinct told her that something was off.

On the other hand, Hugh was having something on his mind too.

Hugh's eyes met a pair of jade-green eyes that were curiously sizing him from head to toe.

"Hi, Andy. Long time no see," he said.

"Mr. Croft, I've heard a lot about you, " Andy said.

Hugh and Andy greeted each other in a friendly manner.

Apparently, everyone who overheard their conversation was shocked.

Everyone could not help but gasp!

They could not believe what they just heard.

They only realized that the man who walked in was Hugh Croft.

No wonder he had such a strong presence.

On the other hand, they also noticed Andy who had a pair of jade green eyes. There was no doubt that he was indeed the first-class lawyer in Crucsia.

All these people were rich second-generation heirs.

Therefore, they had long heard about these two famous figures from the elders in their family.

They all stood up silently and paid the bill to leave.

Some women already had their eyes attached to these handsome and elegant men. It was evident that they were rich.

They were all thinking about which guy they wanted to prey on.

They thought that they would be rich in the future if they ever got together with one of these men.

Still, they were all pulled away by their friends.

It was next to impossible for them to even talk to these men. In addition, if they made them angry, their lives would be doomed. At that, all the other customers on the second floor left together. Hugh walked to a table not far from Jane and Andy and sat down. Connor and Robert suppressed their laughter and came to Hugh's side. Jane glanced at Andy and asked, "How do you know Hugh?"

"Hmm... I met him at the Darknet," Andy replied.

"Since you already know him, then let me tell you that he was actually the person who asked me to help find Type Omega blood in the Darknet last time."

A person with Type Omega blood could easily smell the scent from the other party and imprint him or her.

In other words, one could easily detect others with Type Omega blood.

Seeing that Jane had just greeted Hugh, Andy assumed that the two of them must have met before.

"Oh..."

Jane took a sip of red wine.

"I'm sure Hugh started pursuing you. Janie, you didn't reject me because of Hugh, did you?" Andy asked.

Of course, Andy said this with a hint of jealousy.

Still, Andy would find it acceptable if Jane rejected him because of Hugh.

He had dealt with Hugh a few times and found him to be too unfathomable.

Even Andy couldn't see through him and felt inferior in front of him.

It was anyone's right to pursue a better person.

Moreover, Andy thought that Hugh deserved a girl like Jane.

It would not be the same case if it was other men.

Andy would be ready to win over Jane anytime if it was other guys but not Hugh.

Dont tak nonsense We're not in that kind of relationship

Jane rolled her eyes at Andy

Seeing this, Andy's red lips curled up as he said teasingly, "Oh, does that mean that I still have a chance then?"

Jane replied, "Stop messing Let's drink

No Way Back Chapter 54-Jane and Andy chatted and drank for half an hour.

One could hear their laughter from time to time.

Obviously, they did not care about the presence of Hugh at all.

Connor and Robert felt bad for Hugh.

It was true that they were both here to watch what was going to happen.

However, they could not help but notice how resentful Hugh was at this instant.

Now, the fun of watching the show was gone. Instead, they started worrying for Hugh.

Andy looked around subtly.

He then turned to tell Jane that he wanted to go to the toilet.

He stood up and left.

Seeing this, Hugh fell silent for a ***and followed Andy.

When he passed by Jane, Jane could not help but ask, "Where are you. going?"

"I'm going to the toilet."

Of course, Hugh was extremely patient when it came to Jane.

Jane fell silent after hearing his response.

She obviously did not believe what he said.

She replied, "No, you look like you're going to beat someone up."

Therefore, there were two men walking into the male toilet in the Nightshade Bar.

Hugh walked in after Andy.

He saw Andy leaning against the wall.

Andy crossed his arms and stared at Hugh with his jade-green eyes.

Andy first said, "Mr. Croft, I can't believe we're meeting each other again so soon. What a coincidence!"

Hugh replied with a poker face, "No, actually I came here to look for you."

"Hmm... I could feel it. When I'm drinking with Janie, I could feel being watched over from afar which makes me very uncomfortable."

He added, "Especially when we were laughing happily when I talked to Janie about some funny things. Mr. Croft, your gaze seems to be going to poke a few *****holes in my body. It feels so scary."

Andy said these words so naturally as if he was saying something casual. Strangely, one might even find him to be very charming.

No wonder he was called a vampire who always used his beauty to win over people in court.

Hugh said, "Well, I won't deny it."

Apparently, he was never afraid of showing his intention.

The reason was that he was considered the king of the business world in Stormton City.

He definitely would openly admit to his desire.

"Hmm... Looks like you like Janie too," Andy said.

He added, "Of course, who wouldn't like a beautiful girl like Janie, right? I like her too... I want to make her mine."

Andy deliberately dragged out the word.

As expected.

He instantly felt strong killing intent from the man standing in front of him. That was intense.

It was so intense that he could feel his adrenaline rushing.

Andy then continued, "But... Janie had rejected me, saying that she could only be my good friend for life."

"Sigh... What a pity. I didn't expect that I could not get the girl that I want. This would surely be one of my greatest regrets in this life."

"Of course "Hugh replied.

Hugh said coldly, "Because she belongs to me."

It was obvious that he was very possessive.

At this ****, Hugh finally showed his power as the president as well as the dictatorial emperor of the D.Y. Group.

Andy shrugged and asked, "But why do you look for me? You should confess to Janie directly will do. I think that sounds like something you will do."

Hugh answered, "I myself have Type Omega blood. I know the personality of people with this blood type. Moreover, I've interacted with Janie. I know she's exactly just like me. She's ***and doesn't like to be restrained." "That's why I know that if I were to force her, it will only have the opposite effect on Janie. It wasn't easy for me to meet someone like Janie. I have all the patience to wait for her. But I wouldn't allow anyone else to get in my way!"

Upon hearing that, Andy said, "You're right. Well, you already knew that I'm just friends with Janie. Please stop staring at me like you want to kill me when I talk to Janie in the future. You really ruined my mood."

At that, Hugh answered, "Hmm... I'll try my best not to."

Hugh couldn't promise Andy.

After all, it was understandable for him to worry about a man like Andy. Especially when he saw Jane talking to other men so happily.

Hugh felt envious in his heart.

This was a feeling that Hugh had never felt before.

This was the first time he felt this way because of a woman.

He knew that it was not because them having the same Type Omega blood.

Instead, it was something else.

It was because he liked her.

Indeed, he loved her.

If not for the fact that he was afraid of scaring Jane off, he would have done a lot of things.

There was no way for him to let a man like Andy approach Jane.

Okay, Mr. Croft. I got you," Andy replied.

Andy washed his hands and walked out of the washroom.

He stopped and stood at the door before leaving

He turned and said to Hugh, "Mr. Croft, being a business partner who worked with you a few times, I hope you don't mind me giving you some advice."

He paused for a while and continued, "To like someone is an option but to love someone is never one. If you love someone, you would want nobody else but that person."

"If you don't plan to pursue Janie with that on your mind, you wouldn't even be qualified to leave an impression on Janie."

Jane was a girl who knew how to protect herself.

It did not matter if it was friendship, kinship, or love.

She would no longer take risks easily and throw herself into a situation where she would be easily injured.

With that, Andy left.

Hugh was left standing there alone.

He was still thinking about Andy's words.

Jane had been waiting for a long time and was a little nervous.

She knew that Hugh and Andy must have bumped into each other in the toilet.

Even though Hugh looked aggressive, she thought that they would not go overboard since they both knew each other.

However, she was waiting for quite some time.

She figured it was better for her to take a look.

At the thought of it, she stood up.

Robert and Connor also stood up.

Obviously, they were thinking about the same thing.

At this ***, they saw someone coming back.

Andy returned and waved at Jane.

Andy said, "Janie, I'm sorry for making you wait."

Seeing that Andy was fine, Jane secretly heaved a sigh of relief. "Why were you gone for so long? Are you alright?"

Andy said, "I just went to the toilet. How can anything bad happen? Alright, we should make a move. Let's go."

"Huh?" Jane was puzzled.

Andy dragged Jane without any explanation.

Connor and Robert were left dumbfounded too.

Seeing that Andy was fine, both of them supposed that Hugh did not get into a fight with Andy in the toilet.

Andy was back. They wondered why wasn't Hugh back yet.

Robert and Connor could not directly ask Andy about this matter.

They quickly ran to the toilet to look for Hugh.

When they reached the washroom, they realized that Hugh was still standing there, deep in thought.

With that, Connor and Robert heaved a sigh of relief.

"Hey, Hugh, what are you doing here? Are you thinking about life?" they asked.

"Did Andy say something to you?"

Connor spoke first.

Hearing that, Hugh came back to his senses. As usual, he was expressionless as he replied, "Nothing."

Connor added, "Huh... I was really afraid that you guys would start fighting in the washroom."

"By the way, your sweetheart and Andy have already left. What are you doing here?"

He could not even finish his sentence.

Hugh had already furrowed his eyebrows.

He immediately rushed out of the washroom.

He then arrived at the entrance of the bar.

However, he could not see Jane and Andy.

They had left long ago.

"This guy..."

Hugh narrowed his eyes, exuding a dangerous aura.

Even Connor and Robert, who were chasing after him, did not dare to approach him. They hid far away from Hugh.

Connor said, "From what we saw, Hugh was probably tricked by Andy"

"As expected of a first-class lawyer. This is the first time I've seen someone who can trick Hugh," Robert added.

"That's all because of Jane. If it was anyone else, he would not have gotten tricked. You know how smart he is usually."

Connor and Robert were busy watching the show.

In fact, they were having so much fun.

They were indeed enjoying, watching Hugh being in such a situation.

It was such a rare thing to see.

It was like once in a blue moon for them to see Hugh being tricked like this!

In fact, Hugh was the one who always toyed with others.

Indeed, the tables have turned this round.

Of course, it would be a huge loss if they did not watch him being tricked.

Sure, they were afraid that Hugh would take his revenge.

*Otherwise, they really wanted to take out their phone to record this ****.*

It would definitely be very interesting to show the recording to Hugh on his birthday in the future!

Apparently, Hugh had no time to care about Connor and Robert.

He muttered softly, "Jane."

He thought of what Andy told him, "To like someone is an option but to love someone is never one."

Andy wanted to remind himself that.

He was asking himself that question too.

Seemingly, the answer was obvious.

On the other side, Jane sent Andy back to the hotel.

Andy asked, "Janie, aren't you coming to spend some time with me?"

At that, Jane said, "No, it's too late. I'm going home."

She had no classes tomorrow.

Jane wanted to be a *****bum and sleep a little longer.

"Okay, the court date will be decided soon. I'll inform you then," Andy said.

"You're my host. You should bring me to take a tour around Stormton City when you're free to pay me back," Andy replied.

"Of course!" Jane replied.

Only then did Andy leave reluctantly.

After that, the driver ***Jane home.

Jane took out her phone.

She clicked on Hugh's profile picture on WeChat.

She was hesitating if she should send a message to Hugh.

After all, the two of them had known each other and seemed to have to rely on each other in the future.

Otherwise, they would not be able to escape the side effects of Type Omega blood.

Because Jane was suddenly pulled away by Andy. She felt a little inappropriate for her to leave without saying goodbye to Hugh.

After all, Hugh even sent Jane such delicious food that was suitable for people with Type Omega blood.

Jane was really contemplating.

That was when her phone vibrated.

Jane was so frightened that she almost dropped her phone.

She saw the screen.

It was a message from Hugh.

She was shocked suddenly.

She thought there was some kind of telepathy between the two of them.

Hugh sent her a message.

[My heart beats for you. You're irreplaceable.]

Jane was clueless.

*She thought to herself, "What the ***was that?"*

She certainly did not get what he meant.

Hugh then replied. [Help me to tell Andy. This... is my reply.]

Jane helplessly replied, [Hmm... Sure, I'll pass on the message. Andy suddenly wants to go back to the hotel because of some emergency matter. I didn't see you just now. So I left without telling you. Sorry!]

Hugh then replied to her with a smiling face sticker.

Jane was speechless as she saw that.

Somehow, she felt something was wrong.

It seemed to her that Hugh sounded strange.

She reckoned Hugh was definitely hiding something important from her.

No Way Back Chapter 55-That night, Jane and Hugh texted each other.

After that, they returned home.

It was so late that it was time to shower and sleep.

Then only they said goodbye to each other.

Hugh said goodnight first.

Jane then replied to him good night either.

Jane looked at his chat history with Hugh again.

She couldn't help but laugh.

She wondered what kind of conversation was this.

That night, the two of them slept soundly.

In the blink of an eye, half a month had passed.

Jack looked at the court notice with a livid expression.

*"The trial is in two days. ****it..."*

These days, Jack and Anna had used countless methods.

None of them could contact Andy.

Not to mention asking Andy not to help Jane with this lawsuit.

Still, they wondered what the relationship between Andy and Jane was.

Perhaps...

Jane was hiding something from them!

They could not believe that Jane could actually talk with Andy!

Unfortunately, Jack and Anna could only find another alternative.

They decided to find a lawyer who can go against Andy!

After all, Jane did not have the most important evidence to prove that Jack had slandered and hurt Lila, which was the surveillance video!

Fortunately, Anna had Dwayne follow and destroy all the evidence last time!

Although Jane still had other evidence, the Fowler family was relieved when she did not have the most crucial one.

*However, no matter how famous the lawyers were, all of them tried to curry favor with them the ****they heard that the Fowler Corporation wanted them to help with the* lawsuit. Anyhow, when they heard that Jane's representative lawyer was Andy, they were instantly frightened and turned them down, saying that they could not help.

For them, to go against Andy was no different than asking for humiliation. In the legal world, Andy was considered a god. It was fine if they lost to Andy because no one would laugh at them. However, the most terrifying thing was that they would be seen as overestimating themselves and therefore ruining their reputation!

Hence...

Jack and Anna had not even found a recognized lawyer to help them with this lawsuit!

Anna walked into the study with a solemn expression.

It was Dwayne who was following behind her.

"Jack, I've asked all the famous lawyers in the neighboring city, but no one is willing to take the lawsuit." she said.

Anna really did not expect this.

No matter how tempting the price they offered, they would immediately say that they could not take the case and hung up after they heard it was Andy.

They did not even care if they would offend the Fowler family.

Obviously, going against Andy was a nightmare that every lawyer was afraid of!

Anna knew how powerful Andy was, but she did not expect that Andy would actually be such a terrifying presence in the law field.

Jack scratched his head in frustration. He took out a cigarette and lit it up, took a deep puff, and blew out a smoke ring.

Jack usually didn't smoke. He would only smoke when he was in a particularly irritable mood. Ever since he became successful, he had stopped smoking for Anna.

This time, he was really frustrated by Jane!

Anna also knew that Jack was in a bad mood. Hence, she did not stop him and looked troubled.

Ever since the last time when he broke off with Jane, he thought that he could find another method. However, he did not expect that the Fowler family's strength alone was far from enough to solve this problem!

Now, Anna couldn't even go to see Jane and play the victim card.

Dwayne said, "Dad, ***, why don't... we tell Henry about this?"

As the court session had yet to start, the Fowler family had tried their best to suppress this matter and did not let their other sons, who were busy with work, know for the time being.

Of course, Jack and Anna also reminded Dwayne and the others not to let the other brothers know about this. They did not want them to worry about them.

When they were chatting in the WeChat group, they always talked about the good news but not the bad news.

The eldest son, Henry Fowler, was the current president of the Fowler Corporation. He was the actual person in charge of the company. After Jack put himself as the Emeritus Chairman of the company, he then retired and passed the company to his eldest son, whom he was most proud of. Henry was also the eldest brother who was recognized by the other siblings'

His intelligence was indeed another level. That was why he could master the game in the business world. He could easily stir things up in the business world. He had perfectly inherited the excellent genes of Jack and Anna. He had even surpassed both of them!

Henry's personality was too distant and aloof, and could sometimes be considered weird. In fact, the so-called geniuses more or less had some problems that the world could not understand. All seven sons of the Fowler family had this trait.

However, no matter how different the Fowlers' personalities were, there was only one principle that they were determined to hold onto.

The family came first. The family bond would always be their priority.

They were willing to give up everything and work together just to help their families to overcome the hardships!

They were more proud than anyone else to be one of the Fowlers! It was the utmost honor to them.

They could not tolerate when saw their families suffer more than anyone else. They were determined to send their enemies to ****!

They figured there might be a turnaround if they told Henry, who was on a business trip in Wetanean, what happened to the family.

"I can't!"

Jack stubbed out the cigarette in the ashtray and gritted his teeth. "This is something that I caused. How can I ask my eldest son to clean up my mess? Moreover, Henry is currently negotiating a project involving billions in Wetanean. I can't distract him!"

Everyone remained silent again.

Indeed, Jack felt embarrassed to even ask Henry to help clean up the mess because of Jane.

Furthermore, he did not want the family members to worry. Even if the Fowlers' goal was to overcome hardship together, they still preferred to resolve issues in private when problems came.

This was also another way they showed their care for the family.

At this ***, Jack's phone rang.

Seeing who was the caller, Jack frowned and answered the call.

"Yes... I understand. Alright, send me the message," he replied.

After hanging up, Anna asked, "Jack, is there any news?"

"They found Andy's hotel and contact information. Andy hasn't left the hotel. yet. I'll go over and see if there is any chance to stop him," Jack said.

At that, Anna said, "Jack, but..."

Anna recalled what happened at the airport.

Not to mention that Andy was a famous first-class lawyer in Cruksia Country. She wondered how much would it cost to tempt him to give up this lawsuit.

More importantly, Andy seemed to have a very good relationship with Jane!

It was unlikely that he would give up on helping Jane to fight this lawsuit just because of the Fowler family's bribery!

"No matter what, I have to give it a try. After all, I was the one who caused this chaos," he said.

He added, "This time, I'll go alone. You don't have to follow me."

Anna replied with a worried look on her face, "But... Jack, I'm worried about you!"

Anna bit her lip as she was worried.

Jack walked over to hug Anna and stroked her hair.

*He said, "Don't worry. I'm not going to ***. Even if the deal doesn't work out, he wouldn't do anything to me. Back then when we ran the company, we encountered even more difficult challenges. Didn't we make it through too? It's fine."*

*Anna was silent for a ***before saying, "Hmm... Alright, Jack, I'm not going with you this time. But I want Dwayne to follow you. He specializes in combat. If anything happens, he can protect you."*

Dwayne took a step forward with his eyes lit up. He said, "Dad, let me go with you. Otherwise, I won't be at ease! As your son, it's my duty to protect. you!"

"Okay... Honey, wait for me at home!" Jack replied.

"Sure!" Anna replied.

Maple Leaf Hotel was a five-star luxurious hotel in Stormton City.

Jack and Dwayne arrived here very quietly.

The private detective that they sent over earlier had been watching over here all this while. When he saw Jack arrive, he quickly leaned forward and said, "Mr. Fowler, I've been watching the guy all this while. The person you mentioned hasn't left the hotel since this morning."

"Got it. I'll transfer the payment to your account on time," Jack answered.

The detective said to Jack, "Sure, he's in room 502. You need the card to use the elevator. I've already booked a hotel for you. This is the room card and the elevator card,"

"Sure."

Jack took the room card and elevator card.

He was just about to go up with Dwayne and find an opportunity to look for Andy.

At the very least, he wanted a chance to talk to Andy.

*At this **. something happened.*

*A Porsche Cayenne ***over elegantly.*

Then, Jane got out of the car and took off her sunglasses before casually putting them in her pocket. She threw the car keys to the doorman who would help to park her car in the exclusive parking lot.

All the five-star hotels provided such exclusive services.

Not to mention regular customers like Jane who often came here and booked a room for a whole month.

Jane's eyes met Jack's and Dwayne's.

*"Why? Are you playing *****tricks again?" she asked.*

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 56

No Way Back Chapter 56-Jane looked at Jack and Dwayne with a disdainful look on her face.

"Huh?"

Jack and Dwayne did not look good when they saw Jane.

Obviously, they did not at all expect to bump into Jane here.

They could not believe that they would coincidentally bump into Jane at this time.

Seemingly, Jane would always ruin their plans.

"Why? Do you own this hotel? Why can't I stay here when you can stay here?" Jack asked shamelessly.

"Come on, Jack. Everyone knows what you want to do. You don't even need to find an excuse to cover it up. Well, since you said that, don't you try to come close to me when I go out with Andy later."

Jane finished saying and walked straight into the Maple Leaf Hotel.

At that, Jack was even more furious.

“What should we do? Dad, Jane just happened to be here. Why don’t we come at another time...” Dwayne suggested.

“No, she came at the right time. Let’s try to settle this in one go. Otherwise, I can’t promise to take down Andy if even your mother couldn’t.”

“You mean...”

He could roughly guess what Jack wanted to do.

To be honest, as far as Dwayne knew, what Jack planned to do was no different from asking for humiliation.

However, for the sake of the Fowler family’s reputation, Jack would still do it, even if there was very little hope.

On the other hand, Jane entered the elevator.

When the elevator door closed, she saw from the corner of her eye that Jack and Dwayne were walking towards the elevator.

She took out her phone and sent a message

Jane texted Andy. [Hey Andy, Jack, and Dwayne came to the hotel. I’m afraid they’re coming for you. I bumped into them just now.]

Andy replied. [Hmm... interesting. Did you guys fight?]

*Jane then replied. [No, but I promise that something more interesting will happen later. We’ll just wait to watch the show. Isn’t it more interesting than going out to bask in the sun and **from the heat?]*

Andy replied to her. [We’ll see.]

After these few days of getting along, Jane and Andy knew each other better.

They treated each other as confidants.

Their values were too in sync.

They were the kind of friends who would go crazy and cause trouble together.

Even Andy had slowly let go of his liking for Jane.

He agreed with Jane.

Being friends with Jane was way better than being lovers.

Something could only be said between friends, but not between lovers.

“But...”

He was still a little jealous.

Meanwhile, Jane arrived at Andy's room.

They deliberately left the door.

They didn't close it.

It was as if she was inviting her prey into a trap.

“Would Mr. Fowler really come over? That's like selling his dignity.”

Even Andy expressed his doubts.

Jack clearly knew that Jane was there. If he still came to look for Andy...

He did not get the purpose of Jack doing so.

“Dignity? Do you think they have dignity?” Jane asked.

“They will please you in every way possible if they find you to be worthy. If you're useless to them, just watch how cold and **they could be. That's the Fowlers.”

Jane showed a cold smile on her face.

Everything happened as how she expected.

Soon, Jack and Dwayne appeared near the door of Room 502.

At that, Dwayne looked at Jack's ashen expression. He could not help but say, "Dad, why don't we leave? It's not too late to come back tomorrow."

He guessed they would see Jane if they really went to look for Andy now. Jane would not let this slide.

He could not picture that.

"We can't leave now! Now that Jane has bumped into us, she knows that Andy's location has been exposed. If Andy packs up and checks out later, it'll be impossible for us to find Andy before the court hearing!"

Jack thought about it and made up his mind.

No matter how embarrassing it was, Jack knew that he was the one who caused all this matter.

Anna was right. He could not let others clean up the mess after him.

As the head of the family, Jack had to be a role model.

Jack appeared at the door of Andy's room.

He walked straight in.

Dwayne knew that Jack had made up his mind. He pursed his lips and followed the latter.

Since he could not help Jack much, he could at least be there for him.

At least Jack would not be alone when being humiliated by Jane later.

Jack walked into the living room.

Jane and Andy were sitting on the sofa.

Jane crossed his arms and stared at Jack as if she had expected this.

"Mr. Fowler, are you in the wrong room? This is Andy's room," Jane said. mockingly.

Jack clenched his fists and dug his nails into his palms. He said, "I didn't enter the wrong room. Jane, you're right. I'm here to look for Andy!"

He had already walked in, so it was expected that he would be mocked by Jane.

It was rare for Jack to be so embarrassed and unable to refute.

However, Jane was the one who embarrassed him every time recently.

It seemed to him that he really owed Jane something a lot in his previous life. Hence, Jack found her so-called biological daughter in this life and got himself in trouble.

“Hehe...”

Jane laughed softly. The contempt in her eyes could no longer be concealed.

Jack and Dwayne looked like clowns to her at this moment.

“Andy, they said they were looking for you. Why don’t you talk to them?” Jane said.

Andy said, “I know why Mr. Fowler is here. When Mrs. Fowler tried to stop me at the airport last time, I seemed to have made myself clear.”

He added, “What you did today was a futile attempt to bribe the opposing lawyer. According to Article 1873 of the Punishment Law, you are guilty of bribery.”

“If this gets out, not only will it be bad for your reputation, but it will also be bad for the Fowler family’s reputation. This matter could initially be resolved with an apology and compensation. Now, you might be jailed.” Andy was indeed a professional lawyer. With just a few words, he could clearly make Jack understand what kind of consequences he needed to bear.

At this point, Jack understood no matter how ***he was.

If he bribed Andy in front of Jane and Andy refused, Jane would definitely take the opportunity to use it against him.

Hence, he could not say his initial purpose for coming here. Somehow...

If he didn’t say it, he would miss his only chance.

At that time, Jack would definitely lose in court!

Andy had such a terrifying ability!

“Mr. Fowler is the chairman of the Fowler Corporation after all. He’s also an influential figure in Stormton City. He can’t be that **.”

“However, Mr. Fowler, you broke into someone else’s room without permission. According to Law 192, if it’s serious, we can call the police and ask you to apologize. How do you plan to resolve it?”

Jane and Andy apparently did not plan to let him go easily.

Jack's expression turned even darker.

"Jane, that's enough..."

Dwayne knew that they would definitely be humiliated by Jane this time, but he thought Jane had gone too far.

No matter what, Jack was her biological father. He had brought her into this world. There was no way she should be treating Jack this way.

"Dwayne, don't say anything."

Jack was the chairman of Fowler Corporation after all. After pondering for a while, his mind was much clearer. He was not as rash as when they met. the previous few times. So, he stopped Dwayne in time.

*Only then did Dwayne *****his mouth angrily.*

"Mr. Fowler, why can't you let Dwayne say it? What he said was what you. liked to say in front of me in the past," Jane said.

*Jane took a comfortable position on the sofa. She supported her chin with one hand. She was expressionless. Her voice was ***and calm like a cat playing with a mouse.*

He closed his eyes.

Finally, he opened his eyes again.

"I'm sorry," he said

He suddenly enunciated these words.

Dwayne looked at Jack in disbelief

He thought he had heard wrongly

*"Andy, did you hear someone *****just now?"*

Jane asked as she looked at Andy in confusion.

*Andy scratched Jane's little nose and replied, "Janie. That's not a ***. It's*

Mr. Fowler speaking, but it's too soft. I didn't hear it clearly."

"How dare you?"

Dwayne was trembling with anger.

This was such a humiliation.

Even Dwayne could not stand it anymore!

He couldn't take it anymore!

He was about to explode!

"I said... I'm sorry! Isn't that enough for you, Jane?"

His eyes were filled with killing intent as he glared at Jane.

"I know I was wrong. I misunderstood you that day and even hurt your classmate. Regarding this matter, I'll visit her another day and apologize to her. At the same time, I'll compensate her for everything. I'll be responsible for everything!"

He further said, "I've already given you the apology you wanted. You got what you want, right? Do you really want everyone to laugh at our family and us?"

Jack had never bowed like this before.

He had never apologized to someone humbly in his entire life.

He was filled with anger.

But he had to endure it.

At this moment, he swallowed all the hatred into his stomach.

He felt extremely aggrieved.

Not to mention that it was nobody else but Jane.

He had no choice but to apologize to Jane.

Jane was his own daughter!

No Way Back Chapter 57-Looking at Jack, Dwayne was completely stunned.

Even Dwayne did not expect Jack to suddenly apologize to Jane. Dwayne noticed that Jack had never apologized to anyone except Anna. Stubbornness, pride, and defiance were the perfect definition of Jack.

Even when he coaxed his wife when she was angry, Jack didn't look like this.

At most, it was natural for him to coax his wife because he loved her deeply.

This was also Jack's principle of being a husband all this while.

However, this was clearly not the case.

He felt a heartache as if his heart was getting stabbed by a knife.

God knew how hurtful he was when he was forced to apologize to her biological daughter in front of his own son.

Only Jack knew how much pride did Jack have to swallow to do that.

He placed his dignity in front of the person that he once looked down on the most in the past and allowed his dignity to be trampled on and crushed.

He did all these just to protect the Fowler family.

In order to prevent their children from being hurt by the rumors.

On the other hand, Jane did not seem to be impressed.

“What an attitude. People who don't know better might think you're trying to kill me instead of apologizing to me.”

She continued, “I don’t accept your apology!”

Jane was indeed Jane.

She was a vicious and mean woman to Dwayne.

The words she said made him have to urge to strangle her to death!

“Jane, that’s enough. Look at this man! He’s your father! The father who gave birth to you! He’s your blood-related family! Do you have to be so mean?”

Dwayne’s eyes turned red.

His heart ached.

Still, he said this for Jack.

Jane was nothing compared to Madelyn.

Jane couldn’t even compare to Madelyn.

She was not even a sane person to him. He thought she had gone crazy.

Even a dog would appreciate and be grateful for its master who had given it shelter and food. It also knew how to please its master.

But Jane could not even do that.

It was better to keep a dog than to raise a daughter like Jane!

At the very least, dogs would not betray their owners unlike a vicious daughter like Jane, who forced her father to apologize. Somehow, she still did not want to let him go. She even spoke rudely and humiliated him in every possible way!

Dwayne was filled with regret now. When Anna said that she wanted to find Jane and do a DNA test, he should have stopped her even if he had to risk his life!

Otherwise, the Fowler family would not end up in such a mess. Jack did not have to go through all this either.

Jane said, "Watch your words. Dwayne, I've cut ties with your Fowler family. Don't come to me and play the victim card. Father? He's not my father! You're not my brother either! Do you really think you're my brother? That's *****!"

"From the beginning to the end, after I cut ties with the Fowler family, I've never wanted to have anything to do with you. It's you who appeared in front of me again and again. You've misunderstood me again and again. Why are you pretending to be a victim now? Don't talk nonsense in front of me! I'm not going to buy it!"

Jane narrowed her eyes, exuding a cold aura.

Jane hated the most when the Fowlers played the victim card in front of her.

When Jane didn't make a fuss or show her strength, the Fowler family would ***her in every way possible. They would turn a blind eye and neglect her.

They only doted on Madelyn and caused Jane to have depression. Every time she committed suicide, it was Lila who found her in time and called an ambulance.

The Fowlers had never appeared from the beginning to the end. When Jane recovered from her injuries and returned home after stabilizing her emotions, they would only say that Jane was being ***. They thought she was too childish to even commit suicide.

They found Jane to be ungrateful when she had already gotten the chance. to return to the Fowler family as the real daughter. She could enjoy endless wealth and glory. The Fowler family thought they had already given Jane enough. Yet, she was the one who was being ungrateful all the while!

They had always cared about the Fowler family's reputation. They would unite in order to kick Jane out of the house and protect Madelyn, who would always be their little princess.

After Jane made a scene and revealed her ability, Jack was forced into a corner. That was when the Fowler family remembered that Jane was one of them. They were using words like kinship and bloodline to gaslight Jane. But what right did they have to do so?

Jane would only be considered one of the Fowlers when they found her to be useful. Otherwise, she was worthless.

When she was useless, they even wished she could disappear and ***. They would never want her to mention the Fowlers,

"Janie, calm down..."

At this moment, Andy spoke softly.

He reached out and gently touched Jane's arm.

Jane instantly regained her senses.

She suppressed her anger, and her eyes became calm again.

Jane said calmly, "I'm sorry, Andy. I lost control just now. I was really disgusted and furious."

She then told Andy not to worry.

"Jane..."

Dwayne still wanted to say something.

"That's enough, Dwayne. Don't speak yet."

A that, Jack chided.

"Dad!"

Under Jack's gaze, Dwayne could only lower his head and turn his face away. He could not bear to look.

He was afraid that he would not be able to control his temper and rush up to beat Jane up.

Dwayne felt like his heart was about to stop beating.

To him, Jane was really too much. She was simply not human! She was a beast!

Again, Jack spoke. "If you think my apology is insincere, fine I'll put down all my pride and apologize to you now

"I'm sorry, Jane. It's my fault this time I shouldn't have misunderstood you." Jack even bowed to Jane.

He tried his best to slow down his breathing.

He suppressed his anger.

His dignity was shattered into pieces.

And yet, Jane did not give in.

Jane said, "Kneel to me."

Jane spat out these words coldly.

Jack froze.

He looked up in a daze.

It was as if he could not believe what he had just heard.

Meanwhile, Jane was looking down on everything like a queen.

She stared at Jack, the so-called head of the family and also the Emeritus Chairman of the Fowler Corporation.

She had nothing but disdain for this man.

"Are you deaf? If you want me to withdraw the lawsuit, I want you to kneel down and apologize!"

It seemed like Jack did not get what she said.

Then Jane repeated for him.

She did not mind saying it twice.

Because that felt so satisfying!

She could repeat it as many times as he wanted!

With this condescending attitude, she wanted to see Jack kneel down and apologize!

He looked at Jack who was apologizing.

Jane couldn't help but recall the third year after she returned to the Fowler family in her previous life.

Madelyn set Jane up. Madelyn ended up screaming in pain when her hand was scalded by hot water.

Jane clearly did not even touch the kettle

Madelyn's hand was burned, and Jane was ***founded.

As she came back to her senses, she wanted to check on Madelyn's injuries.

Then, she was pushed away by Jack who was the first to rush over

She was caught off guard and her head was about to hit the sharp edge of the dining table. Fortunately, she instinctively dodged the edge.

Still, there was a huge wound on her forehead. The blood flowed non-stop and she started to feel dizzy.

Jack did not care about her at all. He carried Madelyn and left the kitchen without any hesitation.

He even said fiercely, "If anything happens to ***, Jane, I'll make you wish you were dead!"

The entire family was awake.

They surrounded Madelyn who was crying and comforted her gently. They got a first aid kit and applied medicine to her, protecting her like a baby. But what they had for Jane were vicious words and an angry gaze.

They did not care about Jane at all. She was covered in blood and could not even walk steadily. The huge wound on her forehead had not been treated. No one even brought a band-aid for Jane!

In the end, they forced Jane to kneel down and apologize to Madelyn!

At that time, Jane was suffering from dizziness and coldness from losing too much blood. She tried everything to look for evidence and reason to prove that she did not do it.

Even Madelyn ****said that it was her being careless instead of Jane's fault.

Jack still insisted that Jane did it He deliberately scalded Madelyn's hand with hot water when no one was around.

He thought that Madelyn was too kind to help Jane.

He kicked Jane's knee. Ignoring Jane's wound and painful cry, he grabbed Jane's hair and forced Jane to kneel in front of Madelyn.

He knocked her head on the ground again and again, causing the blood to flow again.

Jane still remembered vividly.

It was a living ***for her.

If anyone else had treated Jane like this, they would have been kicked away by her before they could even get close to her.

Yet, it was nobody else but Jack.

At that time, the person who treated Jane so ***was her own biological father whom she had always dreamt about. She respected him the most and wanted to get close to him.

As for the so-called biological mother and seven biological brothers, they all surrounded Madelyn and watched coldly aside. They said that Jane deserved it because she had hurt Madelyn and should be punished.

The funny thing was that....

Jane was knocked unconscious by Jack.

It was Madelyn who jumped out, crying and yelling to stop Jack.

Otherwise, Jane would have been sent to the ICU for emergency treatment.

At that time, Jack was not only furious but also ruthless!

It was as if he wanted to kill the humiliated, jealous, and despicable daughter, Jane, to maintain the so-called peace of the Fowler family!

Jane didn't even know how long she had slept before waking up.

Lying on the cold floor, the blood on her forehead had already dried and her hair was in a mess.

Not to mention his family, even the servants did not dare to come forward to help Jane up.

Everyone knew that Jane's status in the Fowler family was inferior to a cat raised by Madelyn.

She was vicious and mean.

She was also a punching bag that was getting bullied and abused.

Jane could only grab the first aid kit. She suffered dizziness from the concussion. She went into the empty bathroom and looked in the mirror to treat the huge wound on her face.

Tears flowed from the corners of her eyes. They were no longer warm. They were cold, just like Jane's heart back then.

Every time she thought of this...

Jane felt the adrenaline rush in her veins.

Her eyes flickered with the extreme pleasure of revenge!

No Way Back Chapter 58-“Jane Fowler, this is different from what you said back then! You’re clearly messing with me!”

Jack’s attitude had been meek before, but now that he heard Jane’s words, he was furious!

As someone in a prominent position with a lot of power, Jack had a terrifying aura that engulfed the entire place.

His sharp, eagle-like eyes stared at Jane.

Even the worst punishment would not quench his hatred!

Submitting to such a gaze could easily disintegrate a person’s body!

“That’s all in the past, Jack. Looks like Mrs Fowler didn’t have the guts to tell you.

“At the airport, she bit me like a mad dog. At that time, I said that I would never settle this lawsuit! I will never forgive her!

“Unless you’re willing to kneel and apologize! This is the only solution!

“What you said is old news!”

Jack was so angry that he threw out his foot and kicked the sofa beside him.

He did not dare to attack Jane in front of Andy

If he did not vent this anger, Jack would go crazy!

“It’s fine, Mr. Fowler. You have plenty of money anyway, so even if you kick the sofa and break it, you’ll lose ten thousand dollars at most.”

“On the other hand, such a heavy kick may hurt your bones and tendons at your age. Even a doctor won’t be able to help you much. If you get injured, you’ll have to rest for at least a hundred days.”

Jane mocked Jack for throwing a tantrum.

Did he really think that Jane Fowler was still that **from his previous life? Did he really think that she would spend so much effort to make it up. to him and wonder what she had done wrong just because he lost his temper?

Jane couldn't wait for Jack's kick to have repercussions and send him to the hospital for a long time!

That would be satisfying!

Jack almost choked.

He gritted his teeth and glared at Jane.

"Don't worry. Even if you ***, I won't!"

"Uh-huh. I'll remember what you said. I wish you a long life. It's just a pity that... my blessings often don't come true."

Trying to compare whose tongue was sharper with Jane Fowler?

In this aspect, Jane admitted that she had inherited this trait from the Fowler family.

The student had surpassed the master.

This was more than enough to anger someone to death.

"Regarding what Janie said just now, I can testify for her. At that time, Mrs. Fowler intercepted me at the airport and bribed me. She kept pestering me and that forced Janie to get angry and say those things. Regarding this, I unconditionally support my client's use of her legitimate rights to get back the rights she deserves.

"Therefore, Mr. Fowler, here are the conditions. My client can vouch for this. As long as you kneel down and apologize, the lawsuit will be dismissed. immediately. Everyone will pretend that nothing happened. It depends on whether you can accept these terms."

Jane reached out and placed her hand on Andy's shoulder, her slender legs intertwined. Her eyes glinted and she spoke in a teasing voice.

"Look, Andy has already said so. The decision is yours. Mr. Fowler, do you want to kneel down?

To be honest, I'm looking forward to seeing you kneel down and apologize. Don't worry. I won't take photos or videos. This will hurt your pride too. much..."

'Go to ***! Jane Fowler! How did I have a ***like you? If I had known. earlier, I would have asked Anna to abort you, you ****! Or I would have strangled you to death!"

Before Jane could finish, Jack interrupted angrily.

All the vicious words poured out like a tide of water

He did not care about his upbringing at all.

Jack had almost been driven crazy by Jane.

Jack wouldn't have been so angry and his heart so cold if it were an enemy with no relation to him.

However, this woman who drove Jack crazy was the biological daughter of the Fowler family, whom they had searched for for nineteen years and had finally managed to find!

How unfortunate for the family indeed!

"That's a pity, Mr. Fowler. I'm still alive and well. You didn't abort me or strangle me back then. I've successfully lived till I became what I am today, and now have the ability to go against you and force you to the edge" Jane's gaze gradually turned cold. Her red lips curled into a bloodthirsty arch. "So, the negotiation has broken down. Mr. Fowler, you'd better get out of my sight. See you in court in two days!"

"Lawyer Andy, don't you think your client has gone too far? It's not even enough for her to force her biological father to throw away his dignity and apologize!

"Do you hear that? She's trying to force her biological father to kneel down. and apologize! She's ***and unforgiving!

"As a lawyer, do you seriously want to help a ***like her defend herself?"

Dwayne knew that it was useless to talk to a ***like Jane now.

He could only place his only hope on Andy.

As long as Andy didn't take this lawsuit, the Fowler family could be confident that they would win.

Andy turned his body slightly. His jade-green eyes flickered with a strange. glint. His floaty voice, its tone neutral, sounded like a dream. "Janie, their words are so unpleasant. Do you want to sue them for an extra sum when we go to court?"

"Of course!"

Were they hoping that Jane would let the Fowler family off the hook now?

Haha! What a joke!

Since they took the initiative to give her something to use against them...

Jane was going to ruin the Fowler family's reputation as much as possible!

They would regret their decision!

Dwayne could not say another word.

He had completely seen through all of it.

They had made the wrong choice by coming here today.

Jane and Andy were birds of a feather

Expecting Andy to give up on this lawsuit?

This was a trap to jump into ***!

"Dwayne, let's go!"

After saying that, Jack left, filled with anger and killing intent.

If he had continued being in the same room as Jane, with her ***, boastful, and superior face...

Jack really was afraid that he would not be able to control his anger and slap Jane to death!

"Jane, you will regret it! You will definitely regret it!"

Dwayne glared at Jane. After throwing out his threat, he left with Jack.

Jane seemed to have heard something funny. As she smiled, it was almost as if ice was gradually covering her face.

"Regret? No, I definitely won't regret it!"

She seemed to be talking to Jack and Dwayne.

Or maybe Jane was talking to herself.

Ever since she experienced the torture of living a life worse than death in her previous life, of being thrown into the fire like trash..

She had been reborn in this life.

Jane Fowler would not do anything that she would regret! Including...

Cutting off all ties with the Fowler family!

Do you know...

To make a sunflower voluntarily give up the sun...

What unforgivable things would have to be done, and how deeply hurt would that sunflower have to be?

What it would take for a sunflower to give up the sun!

Andy patted Jane's head with concern. "Alright, Janie. Don't be angry. It's not worth it to be for them."

"Yeah, it's not worth it. Not at all."

Jane repeated with all her might.

Then, she smiled at Andy.

"In my heart, you're the only ones worth it, my most important friends!" she said.

"I am not alone," Jane thought.

Jane had abandoned her family, who had hurt her terribly.

What she gained was a light that she had not grasped in her previous life, which had long been by her side and that she had almost overlooked!

To wait was something to leave for people who truly mattered.

The people who really treasured someone would try their best to squeeze into their world.

Unlike Jane in her previous life, who had abandoned her dignity and tried her best to squeeze into the Fowler family's world, but who was ruthlessly pushed away and withered!

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 59

No Way Back Chapter 59-Night fell.

Jane and Andy had a good time before sending Andy back to the hotel.

As for whether they should change hotels, Jane did ask Andy.

Andy expressed that, if the Fowler family still came to bribe him after what was said, they would be ***.

People from wealthy families at the very top would not be so single-minded and stubbornly risk it all!

So Andy continued to stay there.

Jane drove back to her apartment. Lila sent her a message.

Lila texted, [Janie, what have you been busy with recently?].

Jane replied, [I'm busy with the lawsuit. Lila, the court session will start the day after tomorrow. Don't interfere in this matter for the time being Just wait for Jack Fowler to apologize to you.]

[Janie... I don't need an apology for this, but you have to work hard I support your lawsuit!], texted Lila.

Jane continued, [I've thought about it a lot. Even though your parents supported me after finding out about this, I'm afraid that the Fowler family will do something bad to the Sutton family ].

Her parents already knew about the lawsuit between Jane and Jack Fowler.

Not only were they not angry, but when they heard the full story, as well as learned about the abuse Jane had suffered in the Fowler family, they were. filled with indignation. They supported Jane's lawsuit and said that they would do their best to help if she needed it!

Which normal parent wouldn't protect their own child? Especially their biological daughter, who had been missing for 19 years! Shouldn't they do their best to make up for it, get on her good side, and comfort her?

A family like the Fowler family, who had found their missing daughter at last, ended up neglecting and abusing her with all sorts of violence. Instead, they doted on their adopted daughter, who had enjoyed wealth and glory for 18 years. It was indeed an eye-opener!

Her parents were furious when they heard this!

It was just that...

The Sutton family could only be considered a small rich family in Stormton City. It was impossible for them to compare to a top wealthy family like the Fowler family.

Lila was very grateful that her parents were so understanding and were willing to seek justice for their daughter, and help Jane.

In this world, very few were like the Fowler family, and most were like the Sutton family!

Just having good intentions alone was enough.

Lila couldn't let the Sutton family suffer because of her

[Lila, do you believe in me?], asked Jane.

[Janie, why are you saying that? Of course I believe in you.], replied Lila

[If the Fowler family is truly shameless enough to lay a single hand on the Sutton family, I will help you rise to the very top of Stormton City and trample the Fowler family under my heel!]

This was Jane Fowler's bottom line.

Jane had to help Lila get this apology.

Jack had hurt Lila because he wanted to get at Jane

If the Fowler family was still shameless enough to not repent after doing something wrong and tried to find a way to deal with the Sutton family as a way of threatening Jane...

They would be completely unforgivable!

No matter how difficult it was.

Jane would do everything she could.

She would boost the Sutton family to the peak of glory.

And destroy the Fowler family!

[...Janie, I believe in you.]

Lila only thought for three seconds.

She replied to Jane.

It wasn't just because Lila and Jane were very close

There was more.

Ever since Lila and Jane became best friends.

Jane would always keep her promises to Lila.

No matter how outrageous it sounded, or if it was full of difficulties.

Jane Fowler always kept her promises

Lila continued, [I've said it before. Even if the entire world doesn't believe you, I'll believe you for sure and stand by your side.]

[I won't forget my promise, so Janie, don't forget your promise to leave the Fowler family. You have to be happy and do what you want. Don't be hurt anymore.]

[Yes!], answered Janie.

She switched off her phone.

Jane placed her hand on her chest.

She walked to the French windows and looked at the magnificent scenery in front of her.

Even if she completely broke off ties with the Fowler family, she would still insist on going to court.

There was no panic in her heart.

Because...

There were people who were more worthy for Jane to treasure. They firmly stood by Jane's side without any hesitation and supported her!

"I'll introduce Andy to Lila another day."

Jane smiled.

Though she had been debating whether to let Lila contact Andy.

After all, Andy was from the Darknet.

Having too many connections with the Darknet was not good for a pure little thing like Lila, who lived in the world of light.

But.

Jane almost forgot.

She was from the Darknet too.

Queen.

They were all of Jane's most important friends.

She believed that they would definitely get along very well.

In the future, two women and a man would travel whenever they were free, drink coffee, visit pet shops, go to amusement parks, play with claw machines, and do many happy things that they did not have time to do in their previous lives.

Just thinking about it made her excited!

When Jane came out of the shower.

She planned to blow dry her hair and go to sleep.

And at that moment.

Crack-

A special notification noise sounded.

Jane Fowler was a little stunned.

This notification was a private message from the Darknet.

Jane rejected strangers' private messages.

Otherwise, she would have been harassed to no end by the Darknet's fanatical fans.

Only people who followed Jane and who she also followed could send private messages to Jane.

One of them was Andy, of course.

The other one.

Was Jane Fowler's apprentice in the Darknet.

This person was also from Crucsia.

The Darknet's number 12 hacker-H.F.!

Andy had Jane's number and various contact details on WeChat.

Naturally, he would not send Darknet messages to Jane.

So the only possibility was.

Jane picked up her phone and opened the Darknet was H.F.!

As expected!

[Master, you're back.]

[... Yes, I'm back. Did you hear the news?], answered Jane.

Seeing this apprentice of hers, Jane's expression was gentle.

Initially, she had taken in this apprentice purely because she had liked that he was also from Crucsia.

Moreover, this H.F. was extremely talented.

He was so talented that even Jane, who only wanted to find her family and who was unwilling to be involved too much, started to love his talents.

She couldn't help but take him in as her apprentice and give him a few pointers.

H.F. was only ranked 12th on the hacker rankings.

One reason was that the number of missions he accepted was very few. As Jane's apprentice, she naturally had the same expectations for him. They must not endanger national security.

They could not turn their backs on the bottom line of humanity.

And they would never stand against the innocent.

Secondly, H.F. had only officially been in contact with the hacker industry for a short three years.

To be able to obtain the position of 12th place in a place like the Darknet, where there were talented individuals and dangers lying around every corner...

It was not an exaggeration to call him a “genius among geniuses”!

Unknowingly, H.F. had become one of the only two ties Jane had in the Darknet.

In his third year as Jane’s apprentice, H.F. had offered to meet her, but Jane refused.

After all, being involved with the Darknet’s people involved a lot of factors, and would have a lot of disadvantages while not having a single advantage

At that time, even Andy, Jane Fowler’s most trusted subordinate, had never met her.

They had to drag it out until now.

After that, Jane finally found her family. She did not want them to be hurt by someone from the Darknet, so to protect them.

Queen officially announced her withdrawal from the Darknet, and completely disappeared.

H.F. knew that Jane had made up her mind to leave, so he also announced his withdrawal from the Darknet.

Just like that, the master and apprentice had completely cut off all contact with each other.

Unexpectedly, during the few days that Jane returned to the Darknet, H.F received the news and went online to contact him again.

[Yes... I’m sorry, Master. Recently, I’ve been busy with some real-life matters. It wasn’t easy for me to settle them.], texted H.F.

H.F. asked, [I just found out that you returned to the Darknet. Will you leave this time?

[I don’t think so,] replied Jane.

Previously, she had left the Darknet because she was worried that the Fowler family would be hurt.

Now, there was nothing to be afraid of.

Jane no longer had any weaknesses.

During her time on the Darknet, Jane had been growing and doing what she was good at.

It was a much happier time than being in the Fowler family.

From now on, friendships and her career... Jane Fowler wanted it all!

Not a single one could be missing!

Jane Fowler no longer cared about kinship!

[That's great. I can talk to you again.]

[**, even if we don't know each other in reality, we'll always be master and apprentice.], chided Jane.

[As long as you live your own life in the future and remember the techniques I taught you, our relationship will not be broken.], continued Jane.

[Yes... But now that you're back, I don't need to think about it. I can clearly feel that you're on the other side of the chat box, keeping me company...] Jane was also filled with emotion.

After quitting the Darknet in her previous life, Jane never contacted this apprentice again.

Now that she had been reborn and returned to the Darknet, she had really found too many shining feelings that she had previously lost.

Jane chatted with F.S. for half an hour

[I'm sorry, Master. I'm getting on the plane back to Cruksia. Something troublesome happened at home.]

[Okay, be careful! We'll have plenty of opportunities to chat in the future.] [Yes, Master.]

In the future.

There would be plenty of opportunities in the future.

Exactly.

Master was back.

This time, she would never leave his side again..

In Yalondy. at a private airport.

Julian Crowley, Henry's secretary, stood beside him in a suit and gold-rimmed glasses. His hair was neatly combed back, and he was obviously well-trained and capable. He said respectfully, "Mr. Fowler, the plane is ready."

"Noted."

Mr. Fowler turned off his phone, got up, and walked towards the private plane on his long legs.

Julian was stunned.

What he caught from the corner of his eye just now...

Had he seen wrong?

Henry had clearly ended negotiations with Wetanean and successfully obtained a billion-dollar deal.

After knowing what had happened to the Fowler family, he had been expressionless and had an icy look about him.

No one dared to approach the topic casually, afraid that they would anger this lion and be torn apart.

But.

While waiting for the plane to finish preparations, Henry was on his phone and chatting with someone.

He seemed...

Very happy.

Just now...

He seemed to have laughed.

Julian did not know how long it had been since he had seen Henry smile like this outside, without his family by his side.

The joy he felt was like that of regaining the most precious treasure that he had lost.

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 60

No Way Back Chapter 60-On this day, Jane slept especially comfortably.

However, as for the Fowler family...

They did not sleep the entire night.

During breakfast, the atmosphere was very gloomy.

Jack, Anna, and Dwayne all had dark circles under their eyes.

Madelyn and Peter were not any better.

They all knew that the court hearing was tomorrow.

The Fowler family had not even found a decent lawyer.

They were all scared off by Andy.

Instead of successfully bribing Andy, Jack had almost been forced to apologize to Jane Fowler in a disgraceful manner.

They had never felt so aggrieved before.

However, they could not think of a countermeasure.

Madelyn bit on her bread. Seeing that no one spoke, she suddenly pursed her lips and felt a lump in her throat. Bean-sized tears fell crazily from her eyes like pearls off a broken string.

No matter how much Madelyn tried to suppress it, she could not control the trembling of her shoulders.

Dwayne, who was sitting the closest to her, was the first to notice and could not help but speak.

Everyone's eyes fell on Madelyn.

"I'm sorry, Dwayne, daddy, mummy, Peter... Actually, this is all my fault."

"If I hadn't come to the Fowler family, I wouldn't have angered Janie. Everyone wouldn't be in such a difficult situation today, and things wouldn't have gotten to this point."

"If only I had left the Fowler family or even disappeared. I feel really bad. My heart hurts because everyone was so good to me and gave me 18 years of safety, security, and the warmest familial love."

"But my existence is a burden to the Fowler family, and I caused daddy and mummy such difficulties..."

Madelyn could not go on.

Covering her face, she gritted her teeth and sobbed silently.

Her entire body emitted an aura of extreme grief, speechlessness, and guilt.

Dwayne's heart was about to break.

He quickly patted Madelyn's head and comforted her.

"****, don't think that way! You didn't do anything wrong at all! This is all Jane Fowler's fault!"

"If it weren't for the fact that Jane was so vicious that she couldn't even accommodate a younger sister like you, things wouldn't have gotten to this point..."

"You don't have to take any responsibility for this!"

At this moment, Jack also said, "Yes, ****. In the end, I was the one who caused this. If you want to blame someone, blame me. You don't have to bear any responsibility for this."

Madelyn immediately looked up like a frightened little rabbit and shook her head frantically. "Daddy, please don't say that. If you say that I'll feel even more guilty."

"Alright, we're all family. Now that it has come to this, let's not dwell on whose responsibility it is. It's best to think of a solution."

It was still Anna who spoke.

She looked at Madelyn, her eyes filled with concern.

"Peter, it's almost time for school. Go to school with ***."

"You two don't have to interfere in this matter. Your father and I will think of a suitable solution."

"Mommy..."

Madelyn still wanted to say something.

"Go, ***. No matter what happens, you will always be a member of the Fowler family, my daughter."

"In this world, there's no such thing as a life good enough to justify our daughter sacrificing herself. At least not in our Fowler family! Absolutely not!"

Peter heard what Anna said.

His lips couldn't help but twitch.

Even if Peter had suffered a huge humiliation at Jane's hands half a month ago.

When he got home, he was very angry, so much so that he felt like he was about to go crazy. He wished he could grab someone and beat them up

However, in the past half a month, Peter had kept quiet and did not tell his family about this.

At the same time, he did not participate in the lawsuit.

Not only did Peter not have the ability to do so, but it was something that even Jack and Anna found troublesome.

In his heart, he still felt guilty about Jane.

Even if Jane had humiliated her so-called biological brother and had taken revenge in a crazed manner.

Now that he heard Anna's words, Peter became even more silent.

There was no such thing as a life good enough to justify a daughter sacrificing herself...

Then what was Jane Fowler to the Fowler family?

Madelyn looked at Peter's silence and could not help but roll her eyes.

Peter Fowler had become quieter and quieter in the past half a month.

Even when facing Madelyn, he would still maintain a smile and dote on her. Just like before, he would stroke her head.

However, Madelyn could clearly feel that... Peter had changed. He was starting to distance himself from Madelyn!

Just as Madelyn was about to speak...

"Master, Madam! Young Sir Henry is back!"

A surprised voice cried out.

Jack and the others could not help but be slightly stunned.

Chapter 27

Then, they looked in the direction of the footsteps.

Henry was 1.88 meters tall and exuded a noble aura. He was wearing a custom-made suit, and the busy days had done nothing to affect his handsome face. He had sharp, neat eyebrows, and his dark, up-tipped eyes practically rippled with the blackness of the night.

On his wrist was a Hublot's Big Bang worth millions of dollars. It was not encrusted with diamonds, and every button on it was placed extremely carefully, symbolizing its owner's meticulousness. It was a glossy black, and did not contain even a trace of excess color.

Henry's expression was indifferent. His elegantly defined silhouette and ever-so-slightly raised chin were enough to show that the low-key, regal air about him was impeccable.

Like a firefly thrown into the darkness, he automatically glowed. Once one caught a trace of him in the crowd, they could not look away. Their gaze would be subconsciously drawn to him automatically.

"Henry!"

"Henry!"

The Fowlers were pleasantly surprised to see Henry.

Jack hurried forward. "Why are you suddenly back? Has the negotiation been settled?"

"It's already settled, Dad. Any work to do with the aftermath has been handed over to the company's person in charge over there."

"I already know Jane Fowler's lawsuit against us. I have a lawyer friend in Wetanean. She's capable and willing to help us fight this lawsuit after knowing the situation. I've already brought her over."

"Rose."

"Okay."

A woman of mixed descent with blue eyes and black hair entered. She was wearing a professional lady's suit and casually introduced herself.

She spoke fluently in English and Chinese.

Jack was pleasantly surprised. "Rose! I know you! You're a very famous lawyer in Yalongdy! With you joining us, I'm a hundred times more confident!"

Rose was so famous that even Jack, who was in Crucsia, knew about Rose's reputation. It was clear that Rose was extraordinarily capable.

"You're being too kind, Mr. Fowler. However, I'm confident about this lawsuit. I've already heard the details from Henry. As long as the other party doesn't have concrete evidence, I'm confident that I can win this lawsuit, even if the other party is Andy!"

Rose's expression was full of confidence.

As well-known, top lawyers in their respective countries, Rose had gone against Andy a few times.

She had a deep impression of the man who was as regal and charming as a vampire.

Rose had never won those few times.

While she felt humiliated, her interest in Andy grew.

When Henry asked Rose for help to fight a lawsuit against Andy.

Rose accepted without hesitation after understanding the situation.

Firstly, she had a good relationship with Henry. Secondly she naturally wanted to redeem herself and

This time, Rose was confident!

"Of course. The videos from back then have all been deleted. The other party won't have any evidence."

“We’re relieved by your words.”

An unexpected turn of events for Jack Fowler!

Originally, they were not able to find a suitable lawyer on the last day!

They had already reached a dead end!

No one expected Henry to know about this in advance, or for him to even bring back a lawyer who could compete with Andy!

Jack and Anna did not have time to catch up with Henry

The court session was tomorrow. They had to quickly explain the current situation to Rose and fill in the details.

So Rose could prepare the materials for the next day’s trial.

Henry only knew the general situation, and only Jack and the others had the specific information.

He followed Rose to the study on the second floor.

“Henry! You’re finally back...”

Madelyn walked to Henry with red eyes.

Henry, who had always been cold and expressionless, saw the beloved only sister of the Fowler family and his face softened. He reached out his finger and gently wiped the tears from the corners of Madelyn’s eyes.

“If I hadn’t come back, who would have wiped your tears when you were crying like this?”

His voice was deep and extremely gentle.

“Henry...”

Hearing Henry’s words, Madelyn’s defenses were instantly shattered. She sniffed hard and started crying again.

She took the initiative to throw herself into Henry’s arms, her body trembling like mad.

“Henry, it’s great that you’re back. Boohoo... We don’t know what to do...”

“Janie hates me and even wants to sue Daddy. The atmosphere at home has been very depressing recently. I can’t help. These things are all because of me... Because of me...”

Henry hugged Madelyn and patted her back gently.

He spoke with firm words.

“Don’t worry, ****. I’m back.”

“I’ll protect this family. Father, Mother, and everyone. I won’t be hurt by that woman Jane Fowler at all!”

“Yes!”

Madelyn’s hot tears fell on Henry’s shirt and she nodded vigorously.

“Henry.”

Dwayne and Peter also stared at Foss with admiration.

Now that their big brother was back, they had the backbone to support their family.

Not to mention that he had solved their urgent problem and brought back a lawyer from overseas, who was capable of competing with Andy!

“Now is not the time to relax. The trial starts tomorrow.”

“Jane Fowler...”

At the mention of this name, Henry’s eyes darkened.

The scum of the Fowler family!

She clearly had the blood of the Fowler family flowing in her veins, yet she still dared to bite back at the Fowler family!

Unforgivable!

At night.

Andy called Jane Fowler.

“Janie. I heard that the eldest son of the Fowler family has returned and brought back a helper-Rose.”

Andy naturally had its own intelligence network.

After all, as a lawyer, he had to fight for the defense.

So naturally, he had to control everything about his opponent.

Even if this was a sure-win lawsuit.

“Henry...”

Jane narrowed her eyes.

The mentioning of this name...

It was a nightmare that Jane couldn't get rid of from her previous life! Because Henry was different from the other brothers.

As the eldest of seven sons, he was the firstborn of the Fowler family.

His ruthlessness was something that the other sons could not compare to.

In her previous life, when Henry first met Jane, he left a “deep impression” on her.

Jane still remembered Henry's words.

It was also because of that sentence that he spoke back then.

That was why Jane was extremely afraid of Henry in her previous life.

Stili...

In this life, the situation had been reversed!
