No Way Back Chapter 61-“I just wanted to inform you that although Henry and Rose are not easy to deal with, they are destined to leave in disappointment.”

“I can’t believe that you have so much evidence that could doom them!”

“Also, do the reporters and media want to prepare for you in advance for the lawsuit tomorrow?”

“Okay.”

After contacting Andy, she happened to have no classes tomorrow. No one expected Jane to actually start a lawsuit with the Fowler family. Soon, the news of this matter would spread like wildfire.

What would happen to Jack Fowler then.

As for the Fowler family’s reputation, their shares greatly plummeted as well.

It was a good thing that Jane stood by and watched the show.

Just then.

Her phone vibrated.

It was a WeChat message from Hugh.

Hugh asked, [Do you need me to send you food tonight?]. [There’s no need. I ate outside with Andy.], replied Jane.

Hugh replied, [Oh], and added a smiley emoticon.

Jane’s nose twitched.

She suddenly felt...

A little sour

Where did the jealousy come from?

Jane even specially ran to the kitchen.

But there was nothing.

Everything was quite normal.

As for Hugh

He began to regret agreeing to Andy and Jane becoming so close

Even if they were friends.

Hugh seemed to have found himself a powerful opponent.

There was nowhere to hide his jealousy.

Especially since recently, Jane Fowler and Andy often went out together.

Hugh was about to go berserk.

He wanted to hammer someone.

Fortunately, Conner and Robert were not with him right now.

Or they would see how cold and bitter Hugh looked right then. He looked like he was about to kill someone.

They would definitely be caught and dealt with.

There came the sound of a message notification.

Hugh texted, [The lawsuit with the Fowler family is starting tomorrow. If you need any help, just let me know.]

Jane was not surprised that Hugh said this at all.

Although news of the lawsuit did not spread, even Henry knew.

With Hugh's capability, it would be stranger if he didn't know anything.

Jane replied, [I'm fully prepared. You not asking me why I'm doing this is already the greatest help.]

[I support any decision you make, Janie. Whatever you decide to do, you naturally have your reasons. I won't interfere.], promised Hugh.

Finally, Hugh added one more sentence.

[May the glory and courage of victory be given to you.]

Jane smiled

[Of course]

The next day

The trial started at ten in the morning.

It was a small matter in itself.

It was nothing more than an ordinary dispute.

However, the two parties involved were different, so it became a big deal.

Moreover, Jane expressed that they would never reconcile in private!

The judge in Stormton City had never been so careful.

One of those parties was the head of the Fowler family, Jack Fowler.

The other was the real daughter of the Fowler family, Jane Fowler, who had gone missing for 19 years, and who had finally been found after much publicity and hassle.

And this real daughter, who had been missing for many years, actually filed a complaint to sue Jack Fowler in court.

Jack Fowler was asked to apologize to Jane Fowler and Lila Sutton through official media.

It sounded like a fantasy.

A tiny leak could turn the media upside down!

Not to mention...

Jane Fowler's lawyer was Cruksia's first-class lawyer, Andy.

The lawyer sent by the Fowler family was Rose, who was very popular in Yalondy.

The judge was afraid that the impact would be too great and cause the media to go haywire.

He planned to handle this case in a low-profile manner.

Even if they didn't deal with it in a low-profile manner, the Fowler family planned to take the initiative to request for it.

No one expected the court to think the same way as the Fowler family.

As for Jane's end... they expressed their support for all the decisions of the court.

And so...

Jane and Andy ascended the courthouse stairs.

It was 9 a.m.

There was still an hour before the court session.

Coincidentally.

Jane and Andy bumped into Jack, Henry, and Rose at the entrance of the courthouse.

The Fowler family didn't send everyone out. After all, they wanted to deal with it in a low-profile manner.

Only the key members came.

Upon seeing Jane, Jack looked like he was about to start spitting fire

He wished he could get rid of her.

Andy only briefly gave Rose a once-over.

Rose was wearing a bright lady's suit today. The sun was blazing as she loosened her bow tie and said provocatively, "Andy, long time no see."

"Long time no see, Rose. I didn't expect the Fowler family to be able to invite you..."

"Looks like this lawsuit is going to be interesting."

Andy gave a fake smile.

His deep, neutral-toned voice was filled with casualness.

Her jade-green eyes did not reveal any additional light.

It was as if everything was under control.

"I'll make this lawsuit very interesting. Even if it's a small matter, you're my opponent, so I'll put my 120% into it in terms of attitude and capability!"

Rose wanted to win against Andy so much.

Even if it was only once!

She stayed up all night and sorted out all the materials.

Because the lawsuit was simple, Rose was fully prepared within a day.

She was here today to wash away the humiliation from before!

Normally, Rose would definitely complain about Jane's pretentiousness. She was going to court over such a small matter.

Wasn't this a waste of everyone's time?

She was completely ****.

However, because Jane had found Andy to fight in this evenly matched lawsuit...

Rose had to thank Jane instead.

***with Rose's burning gaze, Andy shrugged. "I'll wait and see."

Obviously, he did not take Rose's provocation to heart.

Seeing this, Rose snorted and led the way into the court.

On the other hand, Henry's eyes were indifferent.

He did not even look at Jane.

Just like in her previous life.

The indifference in his eyes kept Jane at a distance.

Even if Jane carefully and humbly wanted to get close to Henry and talk to the backbone of the Fowler family, the big brother whom all the brothers admired, whom Jack and Anna trusted deeply.

And yet.

This was the first time Henry saw Jane Fowler.

It was different from Peter's more direct method cold violence and humiliation.

Henry ignored him.

He threw Jane aside.

In his eyes, there was only Madelyn.

As long as Jane and Madelyn appeared at the same time.

Henry would only look at Madelyn Fowler and walk to her side. He would dote on her, be gentle, and ask about her well-being.

He treated Jane like she was as invisible as air.

Even without Madelyn, only Jane-only Jane Fowler had the courage to take the initiative to call him "Henry."

Henry ignored her and turned to leave.

It was as if Jane was a virus that could not be avoided.

Once touched, one's entire body would fester and die.

At that time, Jane found out...

It turned out that there were crueler methods than cold violence, ruthlessness, insults, and causing misunderstandings.

And...

After what Henry said.

Jane Fowler had a month of nightmares.

She fell into an endless cycle of self-doubt and self-denial.

One could say that the worsening of Jane Fowler's depression in her previous life had a lot to do with Henry's return!

In this life, she saw Henry's regal and expressionless face again. It was as if he was not a living person, but a machine.

Jane's lips curled into a mocking smile.

She would no longer be foolishly influenced by Henry's attitude, and him affect her brain and judgment.

In this life, Jane Fowler was Jane Fowler She was no longer the *** who the Fowlers saw her as!

Jane was so nonchalant as if she didn't care about the Fowler family at all. Instead, it made Henry pay more attention.

Of course, it was only one part of it.

Henry did not feel anything toward his biological sister.

Like Peter and Dwayne before him, he believed that Jane should not have appeared.

She should have died or disappeared forever after her 19 years of disappearance.

And she should not have appeared in the Fowler family.

The Fowler family was fine as they were.

They had seven sons, brothers who had a harmonious relationship, parents who were happy and in love, and their little princess, Madelyn Fowler. Madelyn was Henry's little sister and his pride. She had been doted on since she was young and was the most beautiful, most eye-catching rose. that bloomed in Stormton City.

An unstable variable like Jane would only be a time bomb when it returned to the Fowler family.

Henry did not want to change his very satisfactory way of life right now for a burden like Jane Fowler, with whom he had no emotional foundation and who he only saw as a nuisance who shared his blood.

Henry's emotional changes would only happen for his six brothers, his biological parents, and Madelyn Fowler.

It could not accommodate anyone else.

However, because Jack and Anna felt guilty about their daughter who had been missing for 19 years, they were forced to bring Jane Fowler back to the Fowler family, for the comfort of the two elders.

Henry had already planned that no matter what the other brothers thought, no matter what Jane said or did, Henry would ignore her and treat her as air.

This was for Madelyn. It was also a warning to Jane to hold onto the position of the real daughter of the Fowler family and only take the assets. that belonged to her, and nothing else.

He would not think too much about other things. Jane wasn't worthy at all! Henry could not accept and would not acknowledge his sister, Jane Fowler Unexpectedly.

Henry's ominous premonition would come true in the worst way.

Jane didn't just cut ties with the Fowler family.

She even had the guts to sue Jack in court.

She wanted to embarrass the Fowler family.

This was something that Henry could not tolerate!

Just like that, the two teams entered the court.

When they arrived at the lounge.

Jane and Andy chatted casually. They were not nervous about the lawsuit. later.

After all, they were well prepared and had a 100% chance of winning.

The trump card they had was something the Fowler family had probably never dreamed of.

During this time, Jane went to the toilet.

And yet.

She bumped into Henry.

Or rather...

Henry had deliberately waited here.

He waited for Jane.

"I didn't expect Young Master Fowler to have the hobby of waiting in the female toilet. It's really an eye-opener."

Jane Fowler raised her chin slightly and said sarcastically.

Henry only looked at Jane Fowler coldly.

He was not in a hurry to speak.

This was the first time Henry had officially sized up Jane.

Jane wanted to laugh.

These the Fowler people were getting weirder and weirder.

In the past, Jane had bowed down to him and carefully tried to please him. Henry had ignored it and treated her as air.

Now, Jane Fowler had started to cause trouble. She had escaped the control of the Fowler family and even stood against them.

Henry would instead look at Jane in a different light.

He even squatted in front of the female toilet.

Regardless of whether Jane Fowler would come to the toilet or not.

Henry just squatted there.

For the 50% chance of seeing Jane Fowler.

In her previous life, Jane would have felt flattered.

In this life, Jane only felt that Henry was ***.

Very, very ***!

He was acting like a child who knew that kicking up a fuss would mean getting candy to eat!

“Jane Fowler.”

Henry spoke emotionlessly.

This was the first time Jane Fowler had heard Henry call her name.

There was no mistake.

Even in her previous life, Jane had returned to the Fowler family for five years.

Henry had never called Jane’s name.

Oh.

She had almost forgotten..

In her previous life, before she died, she was set up by Madelyn and burned alive in the fire.

The Fowlers rushed in and rescued Madelyn Fowler. As for the “culprit, Jane, who was lying on the ground and unable to move, he cursed her viciously. He could not wait for Jane to die.

At that time, Henry called Jane Fowler’s name.

It was the only time he had.

He said in an extremely vicious and hateful tone.

“Jane Fowler, you deserve to die!”

Heh.

Now that Jane thought about it.

How comical.

How ***.

Jane was not in a hurry to speak.

She crossed her arms.

And looked at Henry indifferently.

Now that she was reborn, all the sad things had yet to happen.

Jane was a little curious.

Jane, who was now going against the Fowler family and who was regarded. as a thorn in the Fowler family’s side....

Would this force Henry to say it?

That sentence Jane remembered for a lifetime. It had once transformed into an invisible nightmare and tortured her for countless days and nights.

The next second.

Jane was looking forward to it.

“Whether I want to admit it or not, we’re blood-related siblings.”

“So, as your big brother... I have something to ask of you.”

At this point, Henry took the initiative to walk forward.

He stopped two steps away from Jane.

Henry was 1.88 meters tall. Jane looked at him and had to raise her head slightly.

Her gaze crashed into Henry’s gaze, which seemed so impossibly tumultuous and cold, so much so that she felt like his eyes could shatter her soul right there and then.

He parted his thin lips.

His cold words, which were filled with bloodthirsty killing intent, were like thousands of flying knives that were aggressively shot at Jane.

Henry was determined to kill Jane Fowler, in such a way that even her bones would be shattered.

“Jane Fowler, I think...”

“You. Should. Die.”

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 62

No Way Back Chapter 62-When Henry said this, he was extremely serious.

There was nothing fake about it.

It was a combination of intense disgust and hatred.

No one expected the president of the Fowler Corporation to have such a side to him.

To say such things in front of his biological sister, who had been missing for 19 years.

He said that he wanted her to die.

However, in her previous life, Jane already knew this.

At that time, she wanted to please Henry.

She secretly observed that Madelyn had learned how to make cakes and often made chocolate cakes for Henry.

Henry liked it very much and praised Madelyn's baking.

So Jane made a chocolate cake and gave it to Henry.

Henry only took a glance and spoke to her expressionlessly, in an extremely cold tone that made him sound like he was out for blood.

He said, "As the eldest brother, and blood-related siblings...

"I have only one thing to request of you.

"I think that... you should die."

That was the only thing Henry said to Jane Fowler before she perished in the fire.

After that.

Henry closed the door.

He left Jane standing there with the chocolate cake in her hands.

Her bones and blood turned cold.

She was at a loss.

It became extremely difficult for her to breathe

She was like a clown frozen in ice.

***, childish, laughable...

Jane didn't even know how to describe herself at that time.

These words were far too weak.

Jane only remembered that after that day, her depression became, e several times worse.

It was then that the more severe symptoms of suicidal tendencies and self-denial manifested in her..

What changed was...

In her previous life, Henry did not even bother to call Jane by her name.

It was as though his breath would ***if he said her name/

In this life, he used her name.

There was no difference.

Jane could not help but smile.

The corners of her lips curled up.

The curve of her lips was a complete mockery of the man in front of her

Henry did not expect Jane to smile like this.

It was like...

She had expected this.

His attack did not have the expected effect, which made an endless stream of ideas begin to form in Henry's heart.

"Yes, I will die. People will die eventually, but I will close my eyes peacefully while I am under the protection, prayers, and love of important people

"I'll do all the things that people should do to live in this world. I'll fulfill all my dreams and happiness and experience all of it once.

"This way, I won't regret coming to this world for a single time. Many people will remember me. Even if I'm dead, I'm still alive in their hearts!"

Lila Sutton, Andy, H.F., and even Hugh Croft.

There was also Jane herself, who lived her life in different ways this time. She was no longer servile. She was like the blazing sun and raging fires, her face as dazzling as a blooming peach blossom. She lived by taking things one step at a time and living according to her heart's desires!

She would definitely meet many more people.

There was no need for many close friends, but she would always have a few.

Jane Fowler didn't need the Fowlers to participate in her beautiful life from now on, that was meant for her alone!

Just the mere thought of having a second chance.

It made even Jane's blood jump for joy.

Seeing that Jane Fowler was not affected at all, Henry's eyes burned as he spoke coldly.

"Remember? Who will remember a terrible woman like you, who betrayed her family and went against them? No one in the Fowler family will remember you!

"Everyone has seen through your true colors and can't wait for you to die! What I said is the only prayer of your blood-related family!

'Jane Fowler, you're living such a lowly life. Do you still hold hope that you won't go to hell?!'

When Henry said these words, his eyes were fixed on Jane

He did not leave out a single detail.

According to the information that Henry had.

Jane returned to the Fowler family with a humble and ingratiating personality.

Even after Henry had used all of Fowler Corporation's resources, and the hacking skills he had honed in the Darknet.

He could not find any other background information about Jane.

He simply thought that Jane was a pitiful girl, though not without her moments of cleverness, who had wandered around and been missing for 19 years

Who yearned for kinship, the love of her family, and everything that Madelyn had.

Ever since the trending topic incident, Jane seemed to have become a different person.

She still looked the same as before.

However, her style of doing things was completely different from before.

If one wants to defeat the enemy, one must first obtain the most secret information about them.

Jane's natural talent for computers...

And Andy as one of her connections...

This was something that Henry had never mastered before.

He had to see what other trump cards this "enemy" in front of him had.

Only then could he kill Jane Fowler and make sure she would never reincarnate!

Jane Fowler saw through Henry's probing.

Her eyes were filled with contempt.

In her previous life, Henry did not manage to find out Jane Fowler's true background

At that time, Jane Fowler was still a dog in the Fowler family. She connected the Fowlers' joy, anger, sorrow, and joy directly to her the depths. of her heart.

As long as Henry was willing to try to understand her a little.

Jane would probably *** tell him everything.

For Henry, this was his first time meeting Jane Fowler in this lifetime.

But as for Jane, she had already completely figured out the character of someone like Henry.

Henry did not deserve to know details about Jane, and nor did he have the ability to know!

"Henry, you'll die too, but a person like you is only worthy of going to hell!"

"Don't say that in front of me if you haven't already really died once!" Henry frowned, though it left no creases in his forehead.

Why..

Did he keenly sense that there was another meaning to Jane's words? It was as if...

Jane looked like she had really died once.

Like it was because she had died once and tasted despair that was worse than hell.

Like this was why this Jane Fowler had been born.

Before Henry could think about it carefully.

Jane suddenly shouted.

“Help! There’s a ***peeping in the ladies’ room! Help!”

Even Henry did not expect Jane to shout this after saying such ruthless words.

For a moment, he was stunned.

Jane’s cry instantly attracted the attention of the people nearby.

“Where’s the ***?”

“How dare you peep in the ladies’ room! This is the court!”

“How outrageously bold!”

A group of people blocked the entrance to the ladies’ room!

They saw Henry.

And they could not help but be stunned.

Even if some people had never seen Henry before.

And did not know that the handsome man in front of them was Fowler Corporation’s president.

The eldest son of one of the top wealthy families, the Fowler family.

Just by looking at Henry’s appearance and the aura he had...

Why was it that he really did not seem like the kind of ***to peep into the ladies’ room?

One could never judge a book by its cover!

Jane Fowler, you?!”

Henry looked at Jane Fowler with a livid expression.

“You might be shameless and not want your reputation, but I value it!”

For Henry absolutely could not be tainted with this kind of stain.

Henry actually had serious mysophobia. Other than his family, no one else was allowed to touch his things.

This included Henry's glory, dignity, and reputation!

This damned Jane Fowler had seriously dared to lie through her teeth!

Aunt Diane was right. Anna should not have found Jane Fowler back then.

A daughter who had been missing for 19 years and had been wandering around had long had inferior genes mixed into her very bones.

It was impossible to make her change back for the better.

She was indeed a liar full of lies!

An inferior person who had never received an education worthy of aristocrats!

Jane Fowler had shouted that she had been peeped at by Henry in the ladies' room. Henry was not the only one whose reputation was affected. Jane Fowler had also lost her reputation!

Did she not have any shame?

"Help! He's a ***!"

Henry was panicking! He was truly panicking!

Jane Fowler covered her face and ran out of the ladies' room.

Henry was left alone in front of the ladies' room with a furious expression. After exiting the ladies' room, Jane Fowler's expression instantly changed. Humming a little tune, she walked towards the lounge.

A man like Henry, who looked noble, low-key, and like he could not be violated or touched...

Jane Fowler knew where his greatest weakness was!

Having severe mysophobia meant that he could not tolerate the existence.

of any stains!

Things like this...

Even if Henry could easily deal with it.

It would also make him feel as uncomfortable as if he were made to eat a cockroach!

“Janie!”

Andy walked over, calling her name in a sing-songy voice.

“Why did you go to the toilet for so long? I was worried about you.” Jane blinked at Andy. “I’m fine. Something interesting happened.”

“Oh? Tell me about it...”

Seeing how happy Jane was, it was obvious that some enemy had been dealt with. How could Andy miss out on something so fun?

It was time for the court session.

Jane and Jack took the plaintiff’s and defendant’s seats.

The lawyers from both sides, Andy and Rose, were already in place.

This time, the case was conducted in a low-profile manner. There was no jury.

The only audience was Henry.

But this “only” audience...

Was late.

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 63

No Way Back Chapter 63-Both Rose and Jack frowned slightly.

The trial was about to start, but Henry had run off somewhere.

When they called Henry, Henry only said that he had something to deal with. for the time being and would arrive on time.

Since he had already said so, it was not appropriate for them to ask further.

Unexpectedly, Henry had not arrived yet.

He had never been tardy before. Something must have happened!

Just as Jack was about to say something...

Henry walked into the courtroom. “I’m sorry I’m late.”

His expression was indifferent.

It was as if nothing had happened.

As expected of Henry.

He had clearly just been stuck at the entrance of the ladies' room, which was extremely awkward. For a moment, he couldn't control his emotions and vented his anger on Jane.

However, when he came to the court, he could still maintain his extremely calm and elegant demeanor.

He did not even look at Jane.

Jane's lips curled into a cold smile.

It was expected.

Still

Could Henry still remain calm after what would happen next?

Jane Fowler was waiting to see how interesting their expressions would become!

Andy could not help but chuckle.

"What are you laughing at?"

Rose noticed and asked coldly.

Her intuition told him that Henry was late this time because of Andy and Jane Fowler!

Andy shrugged and did not reply.

Then, he thought of something happy.

He accidentally laughed out loud.

Rose was speechless.

Rage bubbled up in her crazily.

She secretly clenched her fists.

“Andy!

“How dare you look down on me like this? This time, I’ll definitely teach you a lesson!”
Rose thought.

The court session officially began.

The judge announced the plaintiff’s statute

The accused would speak first.

Rose took the initiative.

She took out a bunch of theories, data, and information to prove Jack’s innocence.

She also posed several pointed and critical questions to Jane that would surely spell her demise.

She wanted to force Jane to reveal a flaw.

So she could find the key to turning the tables.

Unexpectedly, Jane appeared extremely calm.

Her answer was flawless.

She did not look like a nineteen-year-old girl at all.

On the contrary, she was like an iron-blooded queen who had experienced countless battles.

She was so calm that it was terrifying.

Rose’s carefully prepared questions had no effect on Jane at all.

Even Jack and Henry could not help but take a few more glances at Jane Fowler.

They had spent a whole night coming up with such pointed questions.

They did not expect Jane’s reaction to be so good.

It was far beyond their expectations.

Even if Andy had simulated all sorts of possible questions that Rose could ask Jane.

This steadfast and confident attitude made her seem like she was truly a member of the Fowler family.

However!

Their disgust of her would not change!

Because Jane Fowler had stabbed them in the back this time! The Fowler family!

How could they appreciate a traitor? Now, the Fowler family only wanted to expel her from the family tree!

Rose didn't get what she wanted from Jane Fowler.

A smidge of an unwillingness to give up flashed across her eyes.

She ended the questioning.

At the same time.

Andy did not say a word from the beginning to the end

He even yawned lazily.

He did not care about the Fowler family or Rose at all.

This extreme contempt made Rose grit her teeth.

Her beautiful eyes swept over Andy, and her angry voice was forced out from between her teeth.

"Your turn, Lawyer Andy!"

The lawsuit was a small matter, but as long as Andy did not have any evidence, Rose would not give him a chance to succeed!

Regarding the hypothetical questions that Andy would pose to Jack, the Fowler family had long honed various situations!

If even Jane could do it without giving Rose any clues, Jack Fowler definitely could.

Except...

While Rose was furious, there was also a trace of indescribable nervousness.

In the past, when Rose fought with Andy, Andy had always been full of confidence, as if victory was within his grasp.

No matter how disadvantaged the situation was, Andy could still turn the tide.

However, Rose had never felt such contempt from Andy in these few lawsuits.

No matter how small the case was, Andy would not be able to handle Rose so easily.

Unless...

Andy had already found the magical something that would guarantee his win.

What exactly was it...

Before Rose could think further

Andy made a proposal to the judge.

"Your Honor, before I formally file a legal claim for my defense, I have several videos I'd like to show you."

Videos?

The judge naturally granted Andy's offer.

When the video was projected on the screen.

Jack Fowler suddenly stood up.

His face was filled with disbelief.

The video was from the surveillance camera in the canteen.

There were also videos taken from the students' phones.

"Impossible! This is clearly..."

Jack was so emotional that he almost couldn't control his emotions and cried out.

"Mr. Fowler!"

Rose immediately shouted

She stopped Jack Fowler from “committing suicide”.

Court trials were recorded and monitored.

Any word spoken could turn into a fatal knife at any time, stabbing fiercely at Jack!

Jack immediately shut his mouth.

His face was livid, and his lips were trembling.

This video clearly captured Jack’s ugly face as he insulted Jane and Lila.

The video also captured the food residue all over the ground, plus the conversation at that time.

The other video was a also surveillance video of the cafeteria.

This video clearly showed something.

It showed Jack Fowler rushing to Jane and Lila before he overturned their food containers.

The footage was clear.

This was the most unarguable, tangible proof

Rose instantly felt like a clown.

Looking at these two videos, she was speechless.

What happened to the video being completely destroyed?

Fortunately, Rose had stayed up all night and sorted out all kinds of information and evidence.

She was just waiting to recharge and use 120% of her strength to fight a good battle with Andy.

No wonder Andy did not take this matter seriously at all.

With such evidence, Rose would not care about anyone either!

Rose turned to Henry.

A rare panic flashed across Henry’s face.

He still gestured to Rose.

“Your Honor, I request to verify the authenticity of these two videos!”

Looking at Jack and Henry’s attitude, the appearance of this video was really unexpected.

Rose had a deep relationship with Henry and knew Fowler Corporation’s strength.

It was absolutely impossible to fabricate such a clumsy lie to deceive a lawyer like her.

The judge looked at Andy.

“Of course.”

They waited for the results to be released.

The video was authentic.

There were no editing, photoshop, or forgery elements

Jacks face instantly fell.

“Your Honor, if these two videos alone are not enough, our defense has more evidence to offer...”

Andy wanted to produce more evidence.

Rose made a prompt decision and said, “Your Honor, I request to be tried another day! Please allow us more time!”

“Lawyer Rose, the evidence is right in front of us. I don’t think there’s a need for that.”

The judge cleared his throat.

It was mainly because the video Andy showed was too convincing.

However, due to Rose’s persistent arguments and Jane Fowler’s lack of response...

The judge decided to rest for a week and wait for the second session.

It was a very small matter in itself, but the two parties involved had different identities, so the nature of the matter had completely changed.

The judge did not dare to make a decision easily. He decided to use a week. to rest and reorganize himself. At the same time, the Fowler family would. also have time to rest and reorganize themselves.

After the court was dismissed.

Andy and Jane Fowler walked out of the courtroom with ease.

“Jane Fowler!”

Just then, Jack caught up with them with a serious expression. “How did you get those two videos?”

Jack had a good grasp of Dwayne’s abilities. Jack knew his limits and trusted him.

Dwayne had immediately arranged for someone to delete the surveillance video.

Even if the student videos were leaked, it would not spell their end.

What doomed them was the clear surveillance video from beginning to end!

Jack never imagined that such a video would fall into Jane’s hands.

In such a short period, Jane had been pestering Jack and had never left the canteen.

How did she get her hands on that video?

“If you don’t want people to know, don’t do it. Why? Does Mr. Fowler think. that he can win just because he deleted the video?”

Jane’s eyes were filled with disdain. She put on a high and mighty attitude. and mercilessly the man in front of her under her heel, her so-called biological father!

Seeing Jack’s expression change crazily like the weather, Jane felt an indescribable joy in her heart!

“Also... Mr. Fowler, do you think this is the end?”

“I only gave you a chance to catch your breath so that I could torture you better.

“Now, you have only just begun paying the price you should pay!”

No Way Back Chapter 64-“What do you mean.

“With Andy’s strength and such conclusive evidence, do you really think your lawyer can stall until the next trial to give you time to catch breath?”

Jane only said this

Then, she left with Andy

Leaving behind Jack, whose heart was pounding crazily

His face was pale and his brain was buzzing

He could no longer hear the surrounding voices clearly

Cold sweat broke out all over his body

His clothes were drenched

This feeling.

No one knew how long it had been since Jack last felt it

Now, he was feeling it because of his own daughter

“Dad!”

“Mr. Fowler!”

Rose and Henry came to Jack’s side.

Jack Fowler bit his tongue lightly and composed himself “Let’s go back. first...”

Now, he was caught off guard.

Their preparations had all gone up in flames.

he couldn’t think of a better solution.

But...

Jane had already eliminated all routes of retreat for Jack.

Was there a better way?

“We’ll go out the back door I’ve called the driver to pick us up.”

To be safe, Henry decisively pulled Jack out of the back door of the court

And yet.

They were oo late.

When Henry and the others stuck their heads out.

A large group of reporters gathered around.

“Look! It’s Chairman of the Fowler Corporation!”

“And Fowler Corporation President!”

“Looks like the news was right. They’re fighting a lawsuit here!”

“Did Mr. Fowler win or lose?”

“I heard that the lawsuit is against your biological daughter Is that true?”

“Also, about the real daughter of the Fowler family, who was missing for 19 years, already cutting ties with the Fowler family-please explain!”

There were even people who started a live broadcast.

Jack and the others were blocked at the back door of the court. The unexpected scene was fully captured.

Henry answered expressionlessly that he had nothing to say. He cooperated with the Fowler family’s bodyguards who came to pick them up. and forcefully pushed their way through.

They brought Jack and Rose into the nanny van, shook off the reporters, and drove straight to the Fowler residence.

How *****!

Jack clenched his fists, the veins on his forehead bulging.

In the end, he seemed to have seen through something and let out a long breath.

He closed his eyes and leaned the back of his head against the chair.

This time... Jack really thought too simply.

Or rather...

Jack had underestimated the enemy too much.

He had never taken Jane seriously.

He thought that Jane had greatly overestimated herself!

With Jack's ability, wouldn't it be easy to crush Jane?

Therefore, he exposed too many flaws, which Jane quickly connected,

In the end.

Jack was stabbed hard.

Jane had far exceeded his expectations!

At this moment.

The nanny van happened to pass by the main entrance of the court

Jane and Andy were naturally surrounded by reporters.

Jane and Andy chatted with ease with the reporters as they walked out of the court.

From the corner of her eye, she saw the Fowler family's car pass by.

She even waved at them.

She smiled as prettily as a flower.

Henry saw this scene.

It was rare for his handsome, usually calm and composed face to be filled with killing intent.

"Jane! Fowler!

"You terrible, damned woman!

"You dare to challenge my bottom line again and again!

“Unforgivable!” Henry thought.

The trending topics exploded online.

A single stone caused a thousand ripples.

[Shocking! The real daughter of the Fowler family, Jane Fowler, personally admitted to severing ties with the Fowler family!]

[Today, Miss Jane Fowler and Chairman Fowler Corporation are fighting a lawsuit in court. Whose hands do you think victory is in?]

[Jane Fowler requests for Jack Fowler to officially apologize on official media']

Countless onlookers instantly lost it.

They all had an impression of the real daughter of the Fowler family, who had been missing for 19 years.

After all, the trending searches were so well-known back then.

Unexpectedly.

How long had it been since Jane Fowler severed ties with the Fowler family?

She even sued her biological father and demanded an apology in public!

What gossip!

What fantastic gossip!

It was delicious!

There were countless comments below.

[Is Jane Fowler crazy? She gave up the position of the real daughter of the Fowler family and even sued Jack Fowler?]

[Oh my god, I just got up to go to the toilet and there's already such news.] [Jane Fowler is giving up billions of assets. This boldness is awesome!] [I guess this real daughter isn't doing very well in the Fowler family. If she's forced into a corner, even a rabbit will bite when it's anxious.]

[She dares to sue her biological father. This daughter is really a b*tch!] [That's right. We're all family. Why can't we discuss it properly? Why must we make a scene in court? Both parties should be ashamed.]

[If you want me to give birth to such a daughter, I would strangle her to death! I pity Mr. Fowler!]

Everyone had different opinions about Jane Fowler's actions.

However, there was no surprise that...

This matter was very hyped up.

Fowler Corporation's share prices instantly plummeted.

Jane and Andy got into the car.

Lila Sutton called.

"Janie, the trending topics are bursting. It's all about you and the Fowler family."

"Are you okay. I saw some people scolding you very harshly. I'm about to die of anger. These people obviously don't know the real situation, but they still dare to *****nonsense!"

"But I can't win against so many of them alone. I only have five alternate accounts. Boohoo..."

Lila Sutton was about to cry from anger.

These bastard keyboard warriors!

Did they know how much courage it took for a girl who had been wandering for 19 years, who had never tasted the warmth of family, and who was still in university, to sue her biological father in court?

And what kind of cruel things the Fowler family did to Jane to make her disheartened and use this method to regain her dignity and rights?

It was not enough to completely ***a person, but it was enough to trample on their soul. That was why Jane embarked on this path without hesitation. and officially declared war on her family!

They clearly didn't know anything.

At the thought of this, Lila Sutton bit her lips and almost cried for Jane.

"It's fine, Lila. There are so many people in this world. Since I've decided to kick up a fuss, I won't care about what others think."

"As long as the people I value know what I'm doing this for and what I am. like as a person."

Jane comforted Lila gently.

If she cared so much about other people's opinions, Jane might as well commit suicide.

Even in her previous life, the maverick Jane Fowler had never cared about the gazes of others.

Of course

The Fowlers were the exception.

Jane Fowler cared so much about the Fowlers' opinions.

Their every move made Jane's nerves tense She was afraid that she would not be able to meet their expectations and do her best.

It would make the Fowlers even more disgusted and hateful, and make them alienate her...

Now that she had given up on the Fowlers, the world instantly became bright

Or rather..

This was the Jane Fowler who had never met the Fowlers!

The real Jane Fowler had revived!

"Yes! Janie, if you have anything to tell me, feel free to look for me. My shoulder is always ready for you to cry on and my heart is always open for you!"

"Other than that, I'm ****and useless. I can't help much..."

Lila would use all her strength to support Jane!

Even if this power was insignificant and negligible in the eyes of others!

"Idiot... If you're willing to believe in me, standing by my side is the most important support for me."

"Who dares to call you **or useless? I'll tear their ***mouths apart for sure!"

"...Thank you, Janie."

“Alright, I’ll continue to use my alternate accounts to fight. Those damn. keyboard warriors. I must use the speed I use to play Glory of Legends. today when I fight against these people. I’ll scold as many as I can so that they won’t dare to badmouth you again!”

After Jane hung up.

“Is this your... Lila Sutton?”

Andy could not help but ask.

It was rare to see Jane with such a gentle expression.

Andy had never actually seen Lila.

He only knew this person existed.

Listening to the conversation between Jane and Lila

It seemed that Lila was very important to Jane as a best friend.

“I’ll introduce you to her another day.”

“Are you serious?”

Andy was a little surprised

He was from the Darknet!

“You’re just like Lila. You’re very important to me. I think the three of us will click very well.

“Also, don’t look so surprised. Don’t forget, I’m also from the Darknet.

“I’ll be responsible for protecting the people around me. I won’t let you get hurt at all.”

Jane Fowler spoke with certainty.

The current Jane Fowler had the confidence to say this!

She was no longer the pitiful person who only cared about her family! “Janie!”

Andy’s heart softened and he could not help but act cute.

His neutral-toned, soft voice cried out this word without any pretense.

Instead, it was like a ray of sunlight illuminating the darkness in one's heart.

It could melt glaciers.

"You're the best!"

He was regarded as an important person by Jane and was included in her range of protection.

Andy's heart felt warm.

Countless people had said such things to Andy.

But no one had ever been like Jane Fowler.

A simple promise made Andy overjoyed.

"Because it's you. The one and only you.

"That was why a simple sentence can make my heart beat out a poem," thought Andy.

"Alright, let's stop talking nonsense. We've almost achieved our goal. I do want to see how chaotic the Fowler family is now."

"It's a pity that I can't see it with my own eyes. Just imagining it is not satisfying enough."

Jane was right.

Jack and the others returned to the Fowler family.

Dwayne sat on the sofa with a gloomy expression.

News of the reporters' live broadcast had already spread like wildfire.

In this era, information in media spread too quickly.

Once there was any change, it could instantly be transmitted to the entire country and even the entire world through the Internet.

Not to mention that Fowler Corporation was famous in Stormton City and had a high status in the entirety of Crucsia.

This was about the Fowler Corporation chairman and his real daughter, who had been missing for 19 years.

This was about an internal struggle within a top wealthy family that countless people were talking about!

It was even more exciting than reading a novel!

Naturally, it was pushed to the top of Tik Tok's trending searches by countless users!

"Dad!"

Seeing Jack and the others return, Dwayne immediately stood up.

"Where's your mother?"

"***is dealing with the shareholders at the company..."

"Dad, Henry, I'm sure all the videos were deleted! I really don't know how Jane Fowler got those two videos!"

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 65

No Way Back Chapter 65-Dwayne was anxious to explain himself.

Henry had sent Dwayne a WeChat message about the situation in court.

"I know. This has nothing to do with you."

"It's fine if it's just a video from a student's phone, but Jane even obtained the surveillance video."

"How did she do it... through Andy's ability? But even if Andy has heaven-defying abilities, the data was completely destroyed. How could he get it after so many days?"

Jack rubbed his temples.

He felt a splitting headache.

Now that the matter had blown up, it was too difficult to suppress news about it forcefully.

Just then, a term flashed through Henry's mind and he subconsciously said, "Hacker technology..."

Everyone immediately looked at Henry.

"If Jane has hacking ***and installs a hacking app on her phone, she can copy all the videos in time before they are destroyed through the school's WiFi."

Henry had learned to hack before and was ranked 11th on the Darknet. He was the apprentice of the legendary Queen!

Other than this method, Henry could not think of any other possibility!

"Jane is a hacker?"

Jack was dumbfounded.

How many more sock puppets identities did this Jane Fowler have?

"It's very likely. I've seen Peter's talent and passion for computer programming. If Jane really has the ability to easily break Peter's record, then it's not surprising that she's a powerful hacker."

After Henry analyzed the situation, he could not help but narrow his eyes, revealing a cold sharpness.

Unexpectedly

Jane Fowler actually could do such a thing!

It was not just Jack.

Even Henry had underestimated her!

Who would have thought that an ordinary university student would have such capabilities?

However, if she had such capabilities, then Jane would really get along very well with that first-class lawyer, Andy.

All these reasons made sense.

"I'm sorry, Dad, Henry... It's all my fault. I was too careless at that time and didn't check Jane's phone..."

Dwayne was filled with regret.

One could say that that day's matters becoming so troublesome and difficult to resolve...

Was all because of Dwayne's guilt toward Anna back then!

Dwayne wished he could give himself a tight slap!

“It’s not your fault, Dwayne. If Jane Fowler were truly a hacker with such strength, you wouldn’t be able to find anything even if you checked her phone. She would have hidden it long ago.

“Also, I want to ask you, how much time did you spend handling the scene?”

“Not much time. After Dad left the cafeteria, I immediately contacted the University of Oricle’s security guards to deal with it. I immediately sent someone to delete the surveillance room’s recording. It took less than five minutes!

“I was looking at my watch and paid attention to the time. I’m very answered Dwayne

Five minutes.

Calculating the time...

Henry’s expression froze involuntarily.

sure!”

If one wanted to hack into the student’s phone and get the video at that point in time.

As well as obtain the surveillance video.

Considering the various unexpected factors at the scene, there might not be enough time!

Even a hacker like Henry, who was ranked 11th in the Darknet, could not do it!

Did Jane truly have such capabilities?

What other abilities did she have that Henry could not find out about?

It was hard to imagine that. Jane Fowler was such a powerful person! “Henry...”

At this ***, Rose spoke.

Henry temporarily retracted his shock at Jane's abilities and looked at Rose. "I'm sorry, Rose. We made a huge mistake this time I'll compensate you."

"Your mistake is indeed too big. Let's not talk about an evenly-matched battle with Andy. With such evidence, even if the lawyer hired by Jane Fowler were not Andy, those who are slightly more powerful will win for certain."

Rose sighed softly. "Well, we have a great relationship. I'll forgive you this time and help you think of a way to minimize your losses."

"...Thank you, Rose."

Peter and Madelyn received the news and immediately took leave from the University of Oricle to rush back.

When they got home, they only saw Dwayne.

"Dwayne, where's Dad?"

Peter and Madelyn spoke in unison.

"They're in the study dealing with the company while thinking about how to handle this matter properly"

Dwayne pulled at his hair, his eyes bloodshot.

He had never **his helplessness so much before!

At this juncture, he could not help at all!

"Dwayne, Peter, why did things turn out like this? We have Rose's help. We have the upper hand in this lawsuit..."

Madelyn was so anxious that she started crying.

Hearing Madelyn's words, Dwayne opened his ***, but nothing came out.

His heart felt like it was being cut by a knife.

It was all his fault!

Peter could see the guilt in Dwayne's eyes. He patted Madelyn's shoulder. "Alright, ***, stop talking. No one wants things to turn out like this. Let's trust ***and Dad now."

“Boohoo... Peter...

“As expected, this is all my fault. It’s all my fault... If only I wasn’t in the Fowler family... Janie, she wouldn’t. she wouldn’t

“I ***myself to death! I shouldn’t have lived! Boohoo...”

Madelyn turned around and fell into Peter’s arms, crying madly.

Even if Peter did not know how to face Madelyn and deal with his guilt. towards Jane.

He could only pat Madelyn’s back and comfort her gently in this situation.

Soon.

Jack and the others came out of the study.

Dwayne rushed to the stairs and asked nervously, “Dad, how is it?”

Peter and Madelyn followed closely behind.

“There is a solution, but Peter, I need your cooperation.”

Jack looked at Peter solemnly.

Anna, who was following behind, had a look of pity in her eyes.

“Me?”

Peter was slightly stunned.

Then.

He thought of a possibility.

Andy and Jane were at the Maple Leaf Hotel.

“Cheers.”

They opened the champagne bottle and celebrated their destined victory.

Just as he finished his glass of champagne, Andy’s phone rang.

After picking up the call and chatting for a while, Andy hung up.

“Janie! Just as you expected, Fowler Corporation is holding a press conference.

“They might have to admit defeat decisively, to prevent the stock prices from falling further and to stabilize themselves.”

With those two videos, the Fowler family was destined to lose this lawsuit. There was no possibility of making a comeback.

To protect the Fowler family’s reputation and the Fowler Corporation’s interests, Jack decisively agreed to Jane’s request to apologize.

It was a good plan.

“Then we’ll drink champagne and celebrate while we watch Jack Fowler grovel.”

Jane’s expression was indifferent.

All of this was already within her control.

Fowler Corporation called for a press conference.

In an instant, the mainstream media caught wind of the news and squeezed into the venue.

After setting up various equipment, they raised the cameras in their hands.

They were waiting for the famous person who was trending today to appear!

At that ***.

Peter Fowler was backstage.

He lowered his eyes.

They showed unprecedented helplessness.

He thought of the method Jack had mentioned.

And of facing his family’s pleading gazes.

Eventually.

Peter still had to make up his mind

Jane Fowler...

Sorry.

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 66

No Way Back Chapter 66-Anna appeared, looking at Peter with an aching heart.

Madelyn followed closely behind with her head lowered.

Peter took a deep breath before saying, "Mom... Please don't look at me like that. I've already made up my mind. You don't have to blame yourself"

Anna sighed softly. "I'm sorry for making you do what you once despised the most, even if it's all for our Fowler family.

"Henry and Dwayne have gone to settle some matters at the company. As a son of the Fowler family, I have enjoyed the blessings and protection that come with it. From clothing to food, I have grown up carefree with luxuries all around, and even the education and love I have received were impeccable.

"This is my home. I have the blood of the Fowler family flowing in my veins. My family has given me a life that countless people can only dream of but dare not imagine. Now that Dad's in trouble, since all that's needed to turn the situation around is a few words from me

"I have to do it. This is something only I can do, isn't it?"

Peter seemed as if he was speaking to Anna.

Yet, he also seemed to be talking to himself.

After saying that, he even sent a smile to Anna.

Anna's mouth opened.

But in the end, she couldn't say a word.

Indeed.

Even if Peter was unwilling to do it, Anna would still go against Peter's wishes and force him to do it.

Even if her heart ached for her son.

However, this was the simplest and most effective solution to the current dilemma.

At this moment, Madelyn raised her head and wiped away the tears on her face. She sniffled and sobbed, "I'm sorry, I'm really sorry... If it weren't for me... If it weren't because of me..."

"***, this has nothing to do with you. This is something that's related to our Fowler family.

"I've already made up my mind. Please support me."

A thought suddenly came to Peter's mind. "Hasn't Madelyn displayed this sort of appearance much too frequently?"

Even though he knew that Madelyn was blaming herself and was trying to carry all of the burdens.

Perhaps it was because he was feeling much too guilty for what he was about to do to Jane Fowler.

Peter no longer wanted to see Madelyn showing such an expression anymore.

He was a little frustrated by it.

Peter turned around and closed his eyes. "I'm sorry, Mom, ***Please give me some time to calm down first. When the time has arrived, I'll go on stage."

"Peter..."

Madelyn bit her lips.

Her swaying eyes were wavering crazily.

Peter had changed once again.

He felt even more distant this time.

"***it. Where did I expose myself?" Madelyn thought.

That's impossible! Ever since she was young, Madelyn Fowler had always acted like this, gaining sympathy from others.

This one move was extremely effective against the Fowlers.

In the past, whenever Peter saw Jane blaming herself and crying, his heart.

would ache uncontrollably and he would comfort her gently.

This time, however, he turned his back towards Madelyn and did not comfort her!

Alarms rang out in Madelyn's head!

"Alright, **, let's leave first. We'll leave Peter alone."

Anna didn't think too much about it as she knew that what Peter was going to do next would go against his moral compass

It was only natural for him to be distraught.

After leaving backstage with Madelyn, Madelyn immediately started crying.

"Mummy, my heart aches for Peter. I know that Peter isn't this type of person..."

"Also, saying it would definitely hurt Janie.

"Peter was so cold towards me just now. He wasn't like this in the past Mummy, does Peter also think that I'm a jinx? If I wasn't in the Fowler family, Janie wouldn't have left

Anna hugged Madelyn in her arms and wiped away her tears. With her heart aching, she said, "**, you shouldn't think that way. Also, don't misunderstand your brother You should know how much he dotes on you. since you were young and how well he treats you. Don't talk like that ever again."

But before Madelyn could reply.

At this moment, a commotion grew outside

Jack Fowler had arrived!

Jack was accompanied by Rose and two bodyguards.

Under countless spotlights and flashing cameras, they walked onto the stage.

His expression was calm and steady.

It was as if he was completely unaffected by today's trending searches.

His calmness swept across the entire place like an invisible aura. Gradually, even the reporters present began to feel its effects.

Their gaze was no longer as sharp.

Jane Fowler and Andy were waiting in front of the live broadcast on television.

They had even bought potato chips, melon seeds, and other snacks.

As they chew on their food, they made comments to each other.

Andy gave a short praise, "As expected of Fowler Corporation's chairman. Even within such a storm, his expression still doesn't change. He must have come prepared this time."

"Wouldn't that be good?"

Jane answered mockingly.

In the eyes of outsiders, this so-called chairman of Fowler Corporation. might be tall, steady, and unostentatious, like a trained, cunning fox down to his very bones.

However, Jane had once seen Jack Fowler's exasperated expression and knew that he was just an ordinary person who had been praised unto the heavens. He was nowhere close to being a god.

He had many weaknesses and would reveal his true colors upon being slightly provoked.

Rose, who represented as his lawyer, spoke first.

The meticulously thought out and seamless opening speech obstructed everyone's comments.

Then, the microphone was handed to Jack Fowler

Jack took the microphone and coughed lightly.

A low and reserved voice sounded.

"I'm sure everyone has seen the trending incident today.

"This did happen. Because I did something wrong, I misunderstood my biological daughter, Janie.

"Janie had grown sorrowful and cut ties with the Fowler family. She even went to court. As a father, I have failed in my duty.

"I'm here to ***apologize to Janie, and also to her friend, Lila Sutton."

Jack Fowler simply, and without hesitation, admitted it.

He took a step back, and in front of the live broadcast cameras, reporters, media, and the entire country's **.

He bent his back forward and bowed down.

Such a sincere apology made everyone confused.

It was too unexpected.

Everyone had thought that with Fowler Corporation's power, the chairman would hold this press conference to clarify and try his best to cover it up. Unexpectedly, Jack Fowler openly admitted his mistake, laid down his dignity, and apologized to his biological daughter who had been missing for 19 years!

“****!”

Andy, who was watching the live broadcast in front of the television, almost vomited in disgust.

“Why is it that when the word ‘Janie’ comes out of this guy’s mouth, it becomes so ***?”

“Can this guy just **!”

Even Andy couldn’t endure it.

Indeed, Andy also called Jane Fowler “Janie”.

But when he thought of such an intimate nickname coming out of the mouth of a ***like Jack Fowler,

Andy had the urge to sue Jack to **and make him spend the rest of his life in prison!

***with any other matter, Andy had always been calm, composed, and cheerful, as if everything was under his control.

However, as long as it was related to Jane Fowler, who Andy cared about the most, he could not accept it! He would go berserk!

Even someone who was familiar with Andy wouldn’t be able to recognize him right now.

And this was before even mentioning Jane.

“I knew Jack Fowler was shameless, but I didn’t expect him to be this shameless.

If Jane was at the location of the live broadcast, she would definitely grab Jack Fowler and ruthlessly curse at him.

How dare Jack Fowler address her as “Janie”?

This was a term that only those who had received Jane Fowler’s recognition, only her treasured partners could call her that!

Moreover, in both lifetimes, Jack Fowler had never called her “Janie” so intimately.

They all called her directly by her name, “Jane Fowler”!

So they’re finally acting gentle? Kneeling down and begging for mercy? Playing the “family” card? Lying to everyone else? Did they think that simply by shouting “Janie”, they’d be able to show how much they dote on their biological daughter?

Bah!

“I’m sure all of you reporters have deep doubts about why my client is suing Ms. Jane Fowler.

“Let us first invite someone up..

Rose took the microphone and spoke.

As soon as her words ended.

Peter Fowler walked onto the reporter’s stand.

At this ***, Jane’s eyes narrowed, and she began to exude a dangerous aura.

Andy spoke coldly, “I roughly understand what the Fowler family intends to do.”

The cause of this lawsuit was originally Peter Fowler

Now, it had come full circle. It was time for the one who created the problem to address it.

As they were all intelligent people, Jane and Andy could immediately guess.

There was only one way that Peter Fowler could minimize the ongoing storm.

***with the dark crowd below and the countless reporters' flashing cameras,

Peter Fowler spoke in an extremely calm manner.

The flashes enveloped Peter's body, emphasizing the bodily outline of Jack Fowler and Anna Fowler's excellent genes.

This generation had exceeded that of the previous generation.

The young man had the bearing of a noble.

He explained the entire misunderstanding and the cause of it clearly.

There were also testimonies from people who knew about it at the time.

Everything was clear and organized.

It was convincing.

At this ***, a reporter asked a sharp question.

"According to Mr. Peter Fowler, it was all caused by a misunderstanding. Chairman Fowler misunderstood Ms. Jane Fowler because he loved his son and panicked.

"Then, when Ms. Jane Fowler met Mr. Peter Fowler, was it because Ms. Jane Fowler broke Mr. Peter Fowler's record that Mr. Peter Fowler fainted? Was it because you had difficulty accepting the fact? Or was there another reason?"

The microphones were all pointed toward Peter Fowler.

**with pairs of eyes that were filled with deep inquisitiveness,

Peter took a light breath.

Both are true, but I'm not at liberty to say what the other reason is.

"I bear the greatest responsibility in this matter Father fainted after meeting my sister Jane Fowler In addition, my sister Jane Fowler broke my record, so we thought of seeking an answer from my sister."

Peter stepped back as well.

In the exact same manner as Jack.

In front of countless cameras.

He bowed deeply.

“Right here, I’m really sorry, my sister, Jane Fowler

“I’ve already told you my apology from the beginning. You were unwilling to accept it.

“Then.. I’ve followed your request, and have given it to you in front of the entire nation. I hope that you! That you can accept this apology!”

Like a tidal wave, they posted comments, likes, and messages under various trending topics.

They did this in an attempt to minimize the impact of the situation.

“Oh my god, and I thought this was a big deal, but it’s just a minor mistake? Who could have guessed that it was just a small misunderstanding?”

“Isn’t this Jane Fowler being too unreasonable? It was clearly just a misunderstanding due to love from Mr. Fowler’s side. Wouldn’t it be fine if they just made it clear? Is there a need to bring it to court? How ***.”

“What a waste of the country’s resources! Shameful! Disdainful!”

“To think that Jane Fowler was the biological daughter that Mr. Fowler had painstakingly searched for for 19 years. If I were Mr Fowler, I would have strangled her to death.”

“Mr. Fowler’s apology is so sincere. He must be a good father. He really loves her. He’s handsome and famous for doting on his wife. He’s also so rich and powerful. Now, we’ve even seen how he can admit his mistakes and change. Jane Fowler really doesn’t know how to be satisfied with what she has!”

“That’s not right. Do you think it’s okay to blame someone for something they didn’t do just because you misunderstood? Are your heads working correctly? And this is especially so since she’s the biological daughter who had been missing for 19 years. I won’t say anything about the fact that the father doesn’t dote on her, but he even misunderstood her. I don’t think there’s anyone in the world who can stand that!”

Naturally, there were voices of objection.

However, they were soon drowned out by the ***netizens enjoying the show and the Fowler family’s hired internet trolls.

The press conference ended.

“As expected of the Fowler Corporation. Their ability to shift the blame is top-notch.

“Janie~ Do you want to play another round? Although they’ve already fulfilled your request, I’m quite unhappy that they used moral blackmail in the end.

“It’s obvious that they’re trying to lead the fire back to you so that Jack Fowler can escape. Coupled with the fact that the Fowler Corporation arranged for an internet army’s interference...”

Andy’s jade-green pupils were as cold as ice.

Jack did indeed apologize to Jane through the media in a way that was displayed to the rest of the nation.

However, the process was different from what Andy had expected.

And with Peter's additional words...

The situation had instantly become completely different.

Peter only vaguely described the reason, then took all the responsibility and apologized.

Sometimes, the best thing to do was to be vague.

If he had been too clear and detailed, it would have been easy for others to counterattack him.

Peter's actions were so perfect that there were no problems with them.

It had indeed diverted a huge amount of criticism from the Fowler family. Although the impact on the Fowler family's influence was not something fixable in a short period of time,

At least the damage had been considerably diminished as compared to if he had not made addressed the issue now.

Giving an appropriate reason in the shortest time possible was ultimately the correct way to face a problem.

It had to be said that Jack Fowler's decisive way of handling the matter did prove that he had the demeanor of a noble

It wouldn't cause the situation to ***up any further, and it wouldn't hurt. their dignity at this point in time either.

Quick and decisive. When it was time to kneel down, he would prostrate himself, but as long as it was not time to submit, he would refuse to take a single step back.

Rose must have helped a lot by giving this suggestion.

something like this happened to Andy's client, Andy would have done the same as well.

This was a very normal suggestion.

What was abnormal was.

Because the person that the Fowler family was trying to disgust was Andy's good friend, Jane Fowler!

And thus, Andy would fight for his own!

He agreed that the Fowler family had done the right thing, but he definitely would not accept this!

He wanted to take revenge!

Andy was already cracking his knuckles, waiting for Jane Fowler to give orders...

her

"There's no need for that, Andy.

"Did you think I wouldn't know the Fowlers' true nature? That I didn't prepare anything?"

Jane swirled the champagne glass in her hand and took a sip, her eyes gleaming with dark intent.

Andy was intrigued. He leaned towards Jane and asked curiously, "Oh? What did you prepare? Tell me, Janie."

"We don't need to do anything about this. The Fowler Corporation has been expanding its territory so much over the years, and even if many people submit to the Fowler family or rely on them to survive, there are naturally more people who don't obey them and would love to snatch a piece of the cake from them.

"All I did was just collect information about these people and gave them some data in advance. Now, all we need to do is just watch as the world burns down."

Jane had already known that such a minor matter would at most be a scratch to the Fowler family and would not be a big deal.

If the Fowler family had apologized obediently and didn't plan any schemes, Jane would also have kept her promise.

After all, Jane Fowler wanted nothing more than to cut ties with the Fowler family as soon as possible. She didn't want to get involved with these scums and waste her precious time.

However, Jane Fowler knew that such a thing was impossible. There was no way that the Fowler family would let go of what they saw as "*****".

At the same time, they would not obediently submit, and would definitely lie wantonly, distort the truth, and slander Jane Fowler!

In that case, Jane would play with them.

She would teach the Fowler family the meaning of “overestimating themselves”!

“Janie~ You’re so smart! This act of using an enemy’s enemy is so great!”

The tips of Andy’s lips curled up slightly, and his voice was filled with joy.

Indeed, after provoking our Queen, how could the Fowler family be allowed to retreat safely?

Dream on!

Night fell.

Henry and Dwayne Fowler had yet to leave.

They continued to command and control public opinion in an orderly manner.

All in order to try and minimize the impact of this event.

“Dwayne, it’s almost done. You can go back first.”

“It’s fine, Big Brother. Let me stay for a while longer and see if there’s anything else I can help with.

*“After all, I’m partly responsible for this matter ***up like this.” Dwayne had already gotten over his dilemma under his family’s comfort. He no longer took all the responsibility onto himself, and he no longer hesitated in his actions.*

However, Dwayne still felt that it was his duty to contribute 100% of his effort into this matter.

And it wasn’t just for the Fowler family.

It was also because Dwayne did not check Jane’s phone as a show of benevolence back then.

Even though Henry had already told Dwayne that he wouldn’t be able to find any evidence if Jane was really a super hacker

However, if he did succeed in discovering some evidence, there was hope that Jack would not have ended up in such a sorry state.

Henry understood Dwayne's personality. Although he was a little hot-tempered, his sense of responsibility was top-notch.

Another half an hour passed.

At the same time, Fowler Corporation had already put pressure on the major media outlets.

All of them worked crazily on sweeping away the trending posts and searches that were unfavorable to Fowler Corporation.

*At the very least, it would ***many people's **.*

This was the best way for them to salvage the situation and rescue Fowler Corporation.

Henry once again arranged for a few more trending posts about Jane in order to muddy the water and make the situation less clear.

In the end, the most popular search results included both praises and complaints about Jane.

This was to ensure that nothing would be too obvious. Otherwise, anyone with a discerning eye would be able to tell at once that the Fowler Corporation was paying netizens to defame Jane.

The best way to divert attention was to gradually remove the Fowler family from the netizens' interest.

And in turn, the main culprit, Jane, would be discussed by everyone.

Regardless of whether Jane was seen as good or bad, as long as the paid internet army was involved, the main point would be made blur.

The Fowler family and the Fowler Corporation would not be at the top of the search bar this time.

Meanwhile, those who hated Jane would go all out to defame her.

Two extremes would appear!

“Big Brother, it should be about time.”

Seeing that the situation was under control, Dwayne reported the good news to Henry

“Strange

He felt that something was wrong.

Dwayne’s heart skipped a beat “What’s wrong, brother?”

“We can’t let our guard down for the time being. I keep feeling that it’s too quiet. This matter seemed to have been solved a little too easily.”

Henry pursed his thin lips and a trace of frost gleamed in his eyes. Regardless of who Jane was.

How could Andy not have expected such a situation?

Since Andy had decided to help Jane with the lawsuit.

Naturally, he would help Jane anticipate any possible consequences.

Not to mention holding an emergency press conference in the afternoon.

With Andy’s connections and strength, how could there still be no movement?

“President! The trending posts about Jane Fowler that we just paid for suddenly exploded!”

"The search numbers have gone down! The articles have all disappeared! The comments from all the major marketing accounts are gone! All of the posts have collectively disappeared!"

Sure enough, it was here!

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 68

No Way Back Chapter 68-Henry promptly gave his orders, "As expected. Tell the internet army and marketing accounts to post and increase the popularity of the trending posts!"

The Fowler Corporation's Public Relations Department was made up of intelligent people. All of them were specialists, talented generals that Henry Fowler had specifically picked and lured over with lots of money.

After all, this was the information era, the era built upon the internet.

Just as public opinion could easily save a company, it could also easily destroy it.

The facts proved that Henry's choices for strategic investment were perfect. The money had been well spent. The public relations department he had built had already saved Fowler Corporation's reputation several times in just the previous few years!

They would defeat all of the enemies who wanted to slander the Fowler Corporation!

"Yes!"

Unfortunately, a while after the Public Relations Department made its move...

"Not good! Mr. Fowler, the other party clearly came prepared! There are too many of them!"

"A lot of corporate accounts have appeared once again and are starting to go against Mr. Fowler's plans!"

"This isn't the sort of manpower a single person can move!"

"There are at least several companies in this!"

"I've tracked the IP address of one of them. This messaging company is one of our group's competitors!"

"She actually prepared such a move

Henry's expression was so dark that the people around him were slightly. frightened.

So that's why there was no movement from Jane.

Who could have expected that she would contact the Fowler Corporation's corporate enemies?

Moreover, they could not have been contacted in the afternoon as it would be too late for all of this to be prepared!

Even before the court had been opened, Jane and Andy must have already contacted them!

They were waiting for Henry to attack and counter his move!

It seemed that Jane had already predicted that the Fowler Corporation would fight the online war for public opinion!

Dwayne watched as their numbers were slowly being eroded. The hired internet trolls and public relations department were completely useless. He could not help but panic. "Brother, what should we do now?"

"Calm down. Just send out everything we have and all the forces we can mobilize to fight back.

"In the end, this is just a minor issue. We've already apologized, and they can't possibly cause too much trouble. What else can they do?"

Jane's approach was a little unexpected, but fortunately, it was still manageable.

Today's press conference had already been held, and Jack and Peter Fowler had already explained the cause and effect of the matter and apologized.

Although they were being attacked by the Fowler Corporation's enemies, the crux of the entire matter was still just a misunderstanding.

And as the misunderstanding had been cleared up, no matter how big the following shockwave was, it still wouldn't create any major trouble. It wasn't as if the Fowler Corporation had done anything illegal!

"Damnable Jane Fowler! How dare she actually use this move!

*"Joining forces with the Fowler Corporation's enemies to deal with us! This ***, has she forgotten that she's also a Fowler, or that the blood of the Fowler family flows through her veins!*

"What benefit can she get from backstabbing the Fowler family like this?!"

Dwayne gritted his teeth so hard that they almost shattered.

If Jane was standing in front of Dwayne right now, he would definitely punch her face hard and tear her hypocritical and ****face into pieces!

Jane had filed a lawsuit against Jack Fowler, humiliated Dwayne Fowler, humiliated Jack Fowler, and humiliated the Fowler family.

Dwayne could already only barely tolerate these.

But the one thing he could not tolerate was...

After all, this matter was only something within the Fowler family.

But Jane Fowler actually dared to work against the Fowler family together with external enemies.

What was this called?

This was called betrayal!

She had betrayed the family that had given birth to her!

It was absolutely unforgivable and it was something that made her deserve to be sent to the bottom of **!

The noble and hot-blooded Dwayne despised such behavior the most! However, the person who did this was actually Dwayne's biological sister! What did the Fowler family do wrong? Why must God punish the Fowler family like this? The biological sister who had been missing for 19 years was actually such a devill

"There's no point in talking about this right now. Dwayne, Jane is not our sister, but an enemy that we have to fight!

"We will settle this score with Jane!"

Henry's eyes were filled with killing intent.

No matter how many abilities Jane had.

Even if she was their biological sister.

This debt

Henry would definitely find Jane and settle everything clearly!

"Of course, Brother. We must settle this score with that slut Jane!"

If they didn't, Dwayne would not be able to take this lying down.

His guilt towards Jane had disappeared without a trace.

In its place

It had been replaced with anger!

He wanted to burn Jane to ashes in the flames of his rage!

"Oh no! Mr. Fowler!"

At this moment, the head of Fowler Corporation's Public Relations Department rushed before Henry.

"What is it this time? Why are you so panicky?"

"It's... it's D.Y. Group. They're actually helping Jane as well! They're working together to deal with the Fowler Corporation!"

"What did you say?!"

Henry's face was filled with disbelief.

"That's impossible. Our Fowler Corporation and the D.Y. Group have never had grievances. We've clearly worked together a few times before, and our cooperation had been good!"

Henry had met Hugh Croft many times.

That man was impossible to forget and had left a deep impression on him.

In the beginning, Henry thought that Hugh Croft was a formidable. opponent.

As such, he had to be on guard against him.

Even if the Fowler Corporation and the D.Y. Group were working together.

Although there were no conflicts of interest back then.

It was hard to guarantee this would stay the same in the future!

As long as the Fowler Corporation continued to develop, one day, it would have to compete against D.Y Group!

However, after working with D.Y Group a few times, Henry was convinced that it would be better to aim to have Hugh Croft as a partner instead

It was really too difficult to go against such a man, let alone defeat him.

Henry, who had always believed himself to be an undefeatable genius and an outstanding talent, had this thought for the first time in his life!

If one day, the Fowler Corporation and D.Y. Group became enemies. because of a conflict of interest...

That was the last thing Henry wanted to see!

However, he just couldn't predict this!

That the day he feared would come so suddenly!

So quickly!

Maple Leaf Hotel.

Andy confirmed the current situation after receiving a call. "Yes?"

Then, it was as if he had heard some surprising news.

Andy hung up the phone and went to Jane Fowler, who was playing online. games with Lila Sutton in an aloof manner while wearing headphones.

He was not in a hurry to speak. Instead, he watched Jane play her game with much interest.

Jane performed a Penta Kill and wiped out the enemy.

"Janie~ You're amazing. With you carrying me, there's practically no way for me to lose at King of Glory!"

"Alright, Lila, you can play the next round first. Andy seems to have. something to tell me."

"Okay! Oh right, Janie. You said that you wanted to introduce Andy to me. I'm looking forward to it!

"Alright, I'll open my alternate account and continue to log in. Those damn. trolls finally replied to me after two hours! I'll definitely drown them in spittle!

The little kid was eager to start another argument.

Jane removed her earpiece and looked at Andy. "How's it going?"

"The chess piece you set up in advance has already displayed its effects. It has indeed had a huge impact on the Fowler family."

"Even Fowler Corporation is overwhelmed by the premeditated and prepared siege of so many hostile groups. It's destined that they won't be able to sleep tonight."

"But what's even more unexpected is..."

"Hugh Croft has made his move as well." "Hugh Croft?"

Even Jane could not help being stunned.

"I didn't tell him about this issue. According to my investigation, D.Y. Group and Fowler Corporation have worked together a few times."

Even if they were not allies, they could not be considered enemies.

Otherwise, Jane would have definitely sent this news to Hugh Croft in advance.

Although, with Hugh's capabilities, he would definitely know that Jane was going to sue Jack today,

"Janie, do you really not know? Or are you just pretending not to know?"

Andy poked Jane's forehead with his fingertip and spoke in an exasperated and humorous tone.

"Hugh did this to help me."

Jane had guessed the reason.

After all, the two of them. Hmm, how to describe it?

As they were both owners of Type Omega blood.

They attracted each other and marked each other.

And at the same time.

They also needed each other's aura and companionship to dilute the side effects of their blood.

Otherwise, Hugh Croft would never have paid attention to a minor character like Jane.

He even humbled himself and tried to please her.

It could be easily seen from how people with Type Omega blood would be sent their favorite food.

Every night, at a fixed time, Hugh would ask Jane if she wanted to eat.

Once Jane replied with a yes, Hugh would immediately drive to Jane's residence personally to deliver.

Andy looked at Jane and knew that she had not understood his motives.

Sigh~ After spending a few days with Jane, Andy finally realized that some aspects of Jane's heart were terrifyingly pure and simple.

It was completely different from the girl who could easily control the Darknet, or the one who had everything in the grasp of her hand while facing enemies.

However, this appearance of hers... It was indeed how an ordinary. nineteen-year-old girl would look.

Jane glanced at Andy. "And why are you smiling at me like that, Andy?"

"I'm not~"

Andy raised his hands in surrender.

"Anyway, I've already delivered the news.

"With D.Y. Group's Mr. Croft joining in, even the Fowler Corporation will have to panic this time. They will most likely be unable to cope.

"It's definitely enough for them to run around in circles for a while. How refreshing! I've definitely vented my anger with this!"

Jane could not help but purse her lips.

Hugh Croft did such a thing...

And yet, he did not send a message to Jane.

After hesitating for a few minutes, Jane took out her phone and sent a message to Hugh.

Her first sentence was.

"You shouldn't have jumped in this mess."

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 69

No Way Back Chapter 69-After all, the D.Y. Group had once worked together with the Fowler

Corporation.

And as far as Jane knew, they currently had a collaborative project worth tens of millions of dollars.

Hugh Croft quickly replied.

"I can't forgive them for slandering you.

"I'll cancel all collaborations with the Fowler Corporation, we will not be having any more collaborative projects from now on."

After Hugh saw the spread of public opinion online.

Although he believed that Jane had the ability to handle all of this.

He still could not resist giving the order.

He had completely broken off his relationship with Fowler Corporation. And it was all just to help seek justice for Jane.

Or rather...

He'd go even further if Jane wasn't biologically related to the Fowler family. Only the Fowler family would dare to treat Jane Fowler like this.

With Hugh Croft's temper, he would have long turned them into ashes! And that would still only be the minimum punishment he would give!

Jane saw Hugh's reply and hesitated for a moment before replying.

Thank you / (smiley face)"

Almost instantly, Hugh sent back a reply, "Between you and me, there's no need to thank me. / smile"

Jane, "Kay~"

And just like that, the two of them started chatting.

Andy even stole a glance at their chat history.

However...

Hoho.

Andy was secretly delighted.

Although Andy knew that it was impossible for him and Jane Fowler to enter a relationship.

And that the two of them could only be friends.

That they would be happier this way.

However, Andy was not kind enough to help his love rival win Janie's heart.

There was no way he wouldn't remind Hugh.

Otherwise, Janie's life would have an additional Hugh Croft. If that happened, how would Andy be allowed to come to find Janie and play?

Unless Hugh Croft used his own abilities to enlighten Janie and make him fall for her.

Then, that would be another matter altogether.

Just as their conversation was about to end.

Hugh sent a message.

"I have seen your courage and the glory of victory.

"Janie, meeting you, and witnessing your brilliance, is the greatest thing that has happened to me."

≡

*When Jane saw this, the corners of her ***curled up.*

“So, Mr. Croft likes to use these words to seduce little girls?”

“I’ve only ever said something like this to you.

“No matter if it’s the past, the present, or... even in the future.”

Hugh sent a loving and emotional reply very quickly.

Jane could even imagine Hugh Croft’s noble-looking appearance as he stands in front of her and spoke these words in a serious manner.

Something in her heart seemed to have been shaken.

“It’s my honor to be so favored by Mr. Croft.”

Jane applied for another two days of leave.

She didn’t care about what was right or wrong.

Every day, she would bring Andy around to eat, drink, and have fun as if nothing had happened.

She also finally found the right time to introduce Andy to Lila.

The two of them officially met and got to know each other.

“Lawyer Andy, h-h-h... ***!”

She finally saw the legendary invincible gold-medal lawyer and was especially focused on the man with a pair of jade-green, soul-stirring eyes, slightly curly and soft golden hair, sickly white skin, and a pair of red lips, looking like a handsome and seductive Count Dracula.

Lila Sutton stuttered. She didn’t know where to put her hands and her face turned red.

Heavens!

There really existed such a man in this world!

Not only was he good-looking...

And he was so powerful! With such a presence!

Lila did not dare to look at Andy any longer. She was afraid that Andy would have a bad impression of her if she stared at him any longer.

She really couldn't resist, so she would still secretly stare at Andy.

Yes! He was indeed handsome! Too good-looking!

"Alright, Lila, you can look if you want. There's no need to hold back. It's human nature to like to look at beautiful people or things. What's there to hide? It's not in your personality to do say regardless."

Jane wrapped an arm around Lila's shoulder and teased.

"Oh, heavens. Janie, can't you let me look good in front of the handsome guy? Please."

Lila wanted to bury her face.

Was this the experience of having a bad friend?"

"I've heard a lot about you, Lila Sutton. Janie told me about you many times. I've always wanted to meet you.

"I begged Janie for a long time before she was willing to bring her most important best friend to me. As expected, you're a very beautiful lady.

"May I call you Lila? It'll make us seem closer"

Andy's low and gentle voice was extremely lethal to anyone, not to mention women.

And when coupled with that noble and handsome face that looked like a vampire.

Anyone would submit to such a voice under the gentle gaze of that pair of jade-green eyes.

Both men and women were the same.

There was no exception.

Even one's soul would be easily taken away.

There would only be one thing left in their mind. To pounce on him!

To immediately push down this man in front of them!

Lila nodded vigorously. "Of course! Andy, it's my honor!"

When Lila Sutton said that she was going out on a date with Jane Fowler and Andy today, her stupid brother didn't believe her!

She would definitely take a photo later and show off in front of her stupid brother!

Jane planned to bring Andy and Lila to the amusement park to have fun.

Of course, Jane was now a famous, or rather, infamous figure.

She had to disguise herself.

And Andy as well!

Those eyes, blonde hair, and skin color were too eye-catching!

They did not want to be surrounded and blockaded for eternity!

Fortunately, Jane and Andy were both extremely familiar with disguises.

They went to the toilet to change their clothes. When they finally walked out, Lila was so shocked that her eyeballs almost popped out.

"Um... Are you really Andy and Janie?"

"Of course, it's us, Lila. Could we be faked?"

With makeup on, Jane Fowler gave off a completely different presence from before.

Her lips were covered with lipstick and foundation, making her skin look bright and fair.

Her purple contact lenses made her look even more aggressive.

And with the sunhat on top of all that...

Perfection!

Andy's makeup was even simpler. He wore sunglasses, a mask, and a hat.

His curly blond hair was tied up into a bun and held up with a hair tie, hiding it under the hat.

Jane and Andy's disguises weren't flawless.

That wasn't the case at all.

However, Lila felt as if...

The two of them had completely restrained their auras.

It was as if they would not attract any attention even if they walked past her.

They were clearly two extremely famous people in the public's center of attention.

Lila could never have imagined that this was an ability that people who lived in the Darknet had to learn.

Disguising one's appearance, concealing one's aura, erasing one's traces, and infiltrating in disguise...

Of course, Andy and Jane would not allow the innocent Lila Sutton to come into contact with the world of the Darknet.

That world was much too dark and recorded too many unpleasant things.

Lila Sutton could only be allowed to run on the grass under the sun. It would be enough if she was able to continue maintaining such innocence and romanticism.

"Alright, don't think too much about it. This way, we won't be treated like animals at the zoo. Let's go! To the amusement park!"

"Yes!"

Jane pulled Lila onwards, and she didn't think too much about it.

What would be the point of thinking about this? Happiness and having fun.

At the same time.

Pleasantville, Stormton City.

Madelyn Fowler was led around by a tall woman dressed in branded clothes.

"Little Maddie, I want to ride the roller coaster. Play with me."

"Okay, Luna."

Madelyn forced a smile in response.

*"Come on, little Maddie, don't be unhappy because of that slut Jane Fowler. Look, your beautiful little face is so crinkled that it doesn't look good! The matter had nothing to do with you. It's all caused by that ungrateful ***Jane Fowler. If I were Uncle Jack, I would* definitely strangle her to death! How could there be such a bastard daughter? I'm about to die from anger just listening to what happened!"

When she saw Luna Croft insulting Jane Fowler with an indignant expression, Madelyn quickly pretended to be a saintess and said, "Luna, don't say that about Janie. In truth, it's all my fault. If I hadn't offended Janie at home, things wouldn't have..."

"Alright, I knew that a kind and innocent girl like you would definitely think too much and carry the responsibility. Silly girl, you don't listen even though. I've said it so many times. Your character really gives me heartache. You're far too kind to people!"

"Let's not talk about that slut, Jane Fowler. I've been entrusted by Auntie Anna and my mother to definitely make you happy today! Let's go!"

Just as Luna pulled Madelyn and ran to the roller coaster

They bumped into two people

"Jane Janie?"

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 70

No Way Back Chapter 70-Madelyn doubted her vision for a moment.

This was because the person in front of her gave off a completely different presence from Jane.

However, Madelyn had a radar-like intuition when it came to Jane.

As long as the real Jane appeared near Madelyn, Madelyn would always be able to spot her figure.

Perhaps this was a symptom of Madelyn's deepest fear as an adopted daughter of the real daughter, Jane Fowler.

She was afraid that her family, the wealth she possessed, the warmth and high status she enjoyed, that all of these would be snatched away by the outsider, Jane Fowler!

She subconsciously blurted out Jane's name.

Jane looked at Luna and Madelyn with an expression as if she had stepped into dung.

In her previous life, there were a few times when the Fowler family had left injuries all over her body and her heart was chilled. When Jane eventually suffered from severe depression and did not want to meet anyone, she even rejected the Fowlers.

As a lone shadow, when she saw Madelyn and the other Fowlers in the same warm, loving scene, Jane deliberately hid her aura and wanted to leave.

And yet, Madelyn Fowler would always spot Jane's figure and shout out "Janie", pushing Jane even deeper into the bright abyss.

*At that moment, Jane would feel like a vampire, enduring the cold eyes and disregard from the rest of the Fowlers. Her skin would fester and burn. under the sun, and she would have no respite, her life worse than death, a living ***!*

Afterward, Jane realized that Madelyn did not have any special abilities and was just very sensitive to Jane's existence She was so sensitive that she could easily detect Jane even when she was hiding her presence!

Lila even began to doubt reality.

After Jane put on her makeup and concealed her presence, Lila could barely recognize Jane.

And yet, Madelyn recognized her with a single glance?

What in heaven?

Lila felt that she was a failure as Jane's best friend! She could not even *compare to a green tea ***!*

"Jane Fowler? It's you?!"

Luna exclaimed in surprise.

If Madelyn had not spoken, Luna would not have realized that the woman in front of her was Jane.

But on closer inspection, it really was Jane Fowler!

She almost missed it!

"Janie, ignore them."

*Although Lila was a little depressed, she had come out today to have fun. She didn't want to ruin her good mood by mingling with these ***from the Fowler family, especially this green tea ***Madelyn Fowler' She pulled Jane's hand and tried to leave.*

She knew that nothing good could ever leave the *** of these Fowlers!

Jane had the same intention.

“Jane, what right do you have to leave? Stop right there!”

Since she recognized Jane, how could Luna allow Jane to walk away so easily?

When she heard about Jane’s shameless acts of backstabbing and ungratefulness towards the Fowler family, Luna wanted to immediately grab Jane’s hair and drag her out into public. She wanted to punish Jane by making her kneel on the ground and giving her a tight slap. She wanted to kick her until she was disfigured and unable to take care of herself!

She was so angry that she almost coughed out blood!

Now that she saw this *** in front of her, Luna rushed forward and moved to grab Jane.

Jane did not even turn around, her hand moving to grab Luna’s hand as if she could predict the future.

A gentle twist

“Ah!”

Luna immediately cried out in pain.

Jane quietly stepped away.

Her speed was too fast.

No one noticed her movements.

“Luna!”

When Madelyn saw Luna scream, she quickly went forward. “What’s wrong? Are you alright?”

Luna glared at Jane. “Jane Fowler! How dare you attack me!”

“Hey! Don’t spout nonsense. You rushed to my side, then pretended to be injured, saying that I hurt you? Do you have evidence? Did anyone personally see me hit you with their own eyes?”

Jane turned around and stared at Luna with contempt. “I can sue you for defamation!”

In her previous life, Luna had also been fairly evil towards Jane.

With Diane Croft and Anna Fowler behind her back, coupled with the fact that Jane was badly treated in the Fowler family.

Although Jane had never provoked Luna, she would still be slandered and insulted by Luna in all sorts of ways.

Every time Luna went to the Fowler family's house to play or ran into Jane while outside, Jane would inevitably suffer.

She had even barricaded a toilet and tossed a bucket of water over Jane's head within the cubicle, all while laughing heartily.

She warned Jane not to tell on her to anyone else, or else Luna would pull the other members of the Fowler family to her side and distance them from Jane even further! Furthermore, no one would believe that Luna had bullied

Jane!

At that time, Jane was so stupid that she actually endured it in silence!

That was because Jane knew that reality was just as Luna described

Even if Jane said that Luna bullied her, no one in the Fowler family would believe her

Instead, they would accuse Jane of maligning a good person and become even more distant from her, bullying Jane even further!

A strong sense of shame welled up in Jane's heart at the thought of the past.

Originally, she did not want to waste away today's good mood.

But now that she thought about it...

No way!

The other party had already taken the initiative to come and seek a beating.

Jane would not let her off so simply.

She would just treat it as if she had found a punching bag to vent!

The series of words coming out of Jane's rapidly running ***caught Luna off guard.

She had not expected Jane to be so sharp-tongued!

As expected! This was the upbringing of a commoner! She had learned how to talk, but she did not show any upbringing!

‘Maddie, you saw it, right?’

“I... Luna... I think I saw it... Maybe I didn’t...”

Actually, Madelyn did not see anything earlier.

All she saw was that Jane did not turn around at all.

Her speed was also too fast, all she saw was a swoosh.

Before Madelyn could even react, Luna had already cried out in pain.

Hence, Madelyn could only confess with such an ambiguous answer. She chose to completely absolve herself of all responsibility.

In truth, with Luna Croft’s personality, it would not be surprising for her to do something like blackmail.

Luna was originally like a female delinquent, and she often hung out with some of the shadier groups in society.

However Madelyn did not want to offend Luna Luna was the daughter of Diane Croft and Hugh Croft’s second uncle, Raymond Croft She was also Layne Croft’s younger sister

As she treated Madelyn very well and was also from a prestigious family, currying favor with her would definitely be of great use in the future!

In truth, Luna herself did not see it just now.

All she felt was her wrist getting pinched by something.

It hurt terribly.

Unable to obtain a witness or any surveillance footage, Luna, who was not a fool, knew that continuing to throw a tantrum like this would definitely allow Jane to obtain an advantage over her.

*“You green tea ***, stop waving your presence around in front of us. Get lost!”*

Having stayed with Jane for a long time, Lila’s temper had grown.

It especially blew up when she saw Madelyn's cunning and manipulative appearance. What the heck did she mean by seeing yet maybe not?

*This was a standard textbook example of a green tea ***manipulative words.*

She didn't want to offend either side.

Yet, at the same time, she tried to throw the blame on Janie!

Why did this Madelyn appear so hateful!?

Having been cursed at by Lila, Madelyn instantly became anxious. She felt a lump in her throat and pursed her lips, and her eyes instantly began to turn red and tear.

"I... I didn't... Lila, I really didn't see it... I wasn't sure..."

*When she saw Madelyn crying, Luna instantly felt as if her own sister had been bullied. She glared at Lila Sutton. "What are you talking about?! You ***monster! How dare you act so fierce towards my sister Maddie? You wanna die?"*
