

REBORN TO BE A NOBLE WIFE

Chapter 656 - 5 Entangled, King Jing Arrives

Chapter 5 Entangled, King Jing Arrives

“Miss Liu, the king said that there is no female master in the residence, so he is not in a position to receive you, and asked if there is anything important you need?” A guard descended from the steps and walked to Liu Lanxin’s carriage, giving a respectful salute inside.

Liu Lanxin’s carriage was again blocked in front of the Ying Wang Mansion.

“It’s an important matter, a message from father’s side.” Liu Lanxin reached out and pressed the cuff of his sleeve, there was indeed a letter there, a letter to the King of England.

The guards didn’t dare to delay the border matter and said to Liu Lanxin, “Miss Liu wait a moment.”

After saying that, he turned around and went inside to report.

This time it took a little longer to get in, long enough for the originally chesty Liu Lanxin to feel like things weren’t a little unexpected again.

Finally, the guards reappeared and smiled at Liu Lanxin, “Miss Liu, our king invites you in.”

“Good!” A big stone in Liu Lanxin’s heart finally fell, and a delicate smile appeared on her face as she helped the maid’s hand down the carriage.

Regardless of what the King of England said to himself after he went in, at least what he said to Qu Mo Ying before, that he would also ask the King of England’s doctor to look at the eye disease, this matter became a fact.

She was pleased in her heart and raised her steps towards the Ying Wang Mansion to enter.

As soon as she entered the Ying Wang Mansion, a steward immediately came over and guided her over to the flower hall in front.

There was no one in the flower hall, only two serving maids, noiselessly served her two cups of tea, and then retreated to the side.

Liu Lanxin wasn't in a hurry, picking up the tea and savoring it, as if the tea in front of her was really special.

Now that she was in the King of England's house, she was in no hurry, and the longer she stayed, the better.

It would have been nice to stay until meal time.

A schemer-like finally appeared at the entrance of the flower hall, and seeing Liu Lanxin smilingly went forward and saluted, "I've seen Miss Liu."

"You are?" Liu Lanxin put down her tea and looked the man up and down.

"Below is the king's people, in front of the help to help the military affairs above the things, if auxiliary generals have any news, but also please Miss Liu relayed to the subordinate." The schemer look-alike looked at Liu Lanxin and arched his hand in a serious manner.

"Where is your king?" Liu Lanxin's face sank, she was going to use the letter as a reason to enter the door, but she hadn't thought that she wouldn't even be able to see the King of England's face.

"His Majesty is busy dealing with matters sent down by the Emperor, I'm afraid I won't be able to see you at this time, but I'm afraid that I'll miss the military opportunity, so I specially sent my subordinates over." The schemer explained with a smile.

Military affairs, especially now when the northern border is moving, but also can not have the slightest slack.

“I’m not in a hurry now, I can wait for the king to come and personally pass the news to the king.” Liu Lanxin deliberately bit the word “personally”.

“I’m afraid this is not proper, military matters, instantaneous, if because Miss Liu a momentary delay, the emperor there, our king also can not account for the past.” The strategist said with a difficult face, “I’m afraid that at that time, the auxiliary general ...”

The schemer’s words were not finished, Liu Lanxin had already taken out her father’s letter, and she couldn’t afford to take the blame for this, and knew that her own father couldn’t afford it either.

Taking a hard breath, a delicate smile reappeared on her face, “This is a public matter, naturally, it is necessary to do it quickly, only that I still have a private matter, I want to trouble the king, but I also ask you to report to the king when you hand over the letter, please ask the king to help me, and when my father learns about it in other days, he will also surely be thankful for the king’s benevolence.”

Liu Lanxin said as he stood up and gave a deep bow to the schemer.

This salute made it quite difficult for the schemer to get up as well, reaching out and flicking the three wisps of long beard on his chin, “Can you ask Ms. Liu what kind of personal matter it is? If my subordinate goes to report, he can also have an argument.”

“About my eye disease.” Liu Lanxin nodded and said.

“Good, then my subordinate will go to report to the king, just the king there ...” The strategist took over the topic, but did not dare to agree directly.

“How about the king’s place, all thanks to you sir.” Liu Lanxin politely said again.

Strategist for the capital power and noble family, may not count for anything, and even some people will think that is to raise with the elegant, fiddling with some poems and songs and other things, but in the border, that is a major role, as the master general handy beloved, sometimes even more than those subordinate generals, more than those who lead the army, the master general mind.

Advising, marching, counseling the military, all these people are helping the main general, of course, the main general is effective, these people can also directly get a certain rank.

Liu Lanxin can not see in front of this is what rank, but it is clear that Pei Yuanjun side of the strategist should be rank, all with him on the battlefield, are from the dead pile of killing out, even if the eyes of this looks refined, Liu Lanxin do not dare to really peep at him.

The schemer politely excused himself, leaving Liu Lanxin alone in the flower hall again.

This time, Liu Lanxin did not party so steady, willow eyebrows slightly knit up, she also thought that the King of England since he let himself into the House, is bound to see their own, did not think that the public affairs can not be seen, then the private affairs?

She had a bad feeling that she was afraid she wouldn’t get what she wanted again, and the hand squeezing the corner of the cuff was so overly hard that there were sticky, sweaty stains on the palm of her hand.

This time the wait was even longer, and finally, a voice came from the doorway, the voice of a gentle man, “Is Ms. Liu inside?”

“Yes!”

“The king went in to see.”

Has he finally come? Liu Lanxin was so excited that her hand fell from her sleeve, gently biting her lip and settling her mind before seeing King Jing Pei Yusheng, who came in slowly from the doorway.

How could it be King Jing? The blood qi that had rushed up to the top of his head seemed to fall back down all of a sudden, and he fell down heavily, his face suddenly turned pale, and his entire body was as if he had frozen.

This is the King of England’s residence?

“Ms. Liu.” Pei Yusheng came in and saw Liu Lanxin sitting on the guest seat, a hint of a smile appeared on his face as he greeted her gently.

“Greetings, Your Highness King Jing.” Although Liu Lanxin was a beat slower, this time she also reacted and hurriedly stood up to salute.

“Miss Liu doesn’t have to be polite.” Pei Yusheng waved his hand and was the first to take a seat in the position, “I heard that Miss Liu found Uncle Wang because of the matter of the eye disease, is it because of the matter of the famous doctor invited from Jiangnan?”

Pei Yuanjun had invited a famous doctor from Jiangnan to look at Fourth Miss Qu’s eye disease and concluded that her eye disease had healed and that the eye veil could be removed, Pei Yusheng had naturally heard about it.

“I heard that this famous doctor is very good.” Liu Lanxin had also recovered by this time, and explained in a smooth and soft voice.

“Uncle Wang will have something to do out of the house to go, let the people to invite this king over, famous doctor this king also brought over .” Pei Yusheng said, stretching out his fingers on the table and flicked twice.

The chamberlain who followed him hurriedly went down and invited the famous doctor from Jiangnan who was waiting outside.

“Does Ms. Liu want to show him your eye disease?” Pei Yusheng asked with a smile.

As things stood, Liu Lanxin could only take one step at a time, standing up and giving Pei Yusheng another deep salute, “Many thanks, Your Highness.”

“There is no need to thank you for the gift, this king and Ms. Liu are also old acquaintances, Ms. Liu’s matter is this king’s matter.” Pei Yusheng laughed.

Let the doctor come up and look at it.

Eye veil removed, eye veil under Liu Lanxin looked more than wearing eye veil a few more points of Yingqi, appearance colorful, Pei Yusheng is very satisfied.

Originally wearing eyes veil and narrow and thin she, basically can see the face is very beautiful, now see a little more clearly, and Qu Qiuyan similar, but this Ying Qi, but let Pei Yusheng more to see a few eyes, and Ying Qi and beautiful, eyes can not help but more and more gentle.

But when he thought that Liu Lanxin didn’t look for himself, but purposely found his way to Uncle Wang’s residence, a trace of displeasure flashed under his eyes, in his heart, Liu Lanxin was the person he looked at, and naturally, she was also his person.

When Uncle Wang sent someone, he didn’t say anything also because it was about Liu Lanxin.

Could it be that she still misses Uncle Wang?

The smile slowly faded, no one would be happy to have a woman they fancy with someone else in mind.

The prince already has a Jingyu county gentleman, their own things here also need to quickly set down, lest let the prince drilled a hole, before the palace after the incident, the mother consort also let themselves act quickly, but helplessly they sent several times sent a gift to the past, auxiliary general's house side is also not much enthusiasm.

"What's wrong?" The doctor checked it out and gathered the medicine chest in his hands.

"Miss Liu is already unharmed." The doctor said while cleaning up.

"Visible took the eye veil off?" Pei Yusheng asked with a smile.

"You can take it off, just don't look at the blazing sun more in the future." The doctor said.

When the sun is in the sky, not to mention those who have eye problems, even those who don't have eye problems don't dare to look at it more than once, which means of course that Liu Lanxin is really well.

"Thank you!" Pei Yusheng thanked the doctor in a masterly style.

"Your Highness is polite." The doctor finished cleaning up and retreated with his medicine box.

Liu Lanxin slowly opened her eyes as she sat on the chair, but halfway through opening them, she seemed to be a little flustered and closed them again.

"Ms. Liu, it will be fine, slowly open up and look around." Pei Yusheng looked at her gently and said.

Liu Lanxin nodded and slowly opened her eyes again, this time not closing them immediately again, but only blinking slightly.

"Is there any place of discomfort?" Pei Yusheng said with concern.

Liu Lanxin blinked again, then shook her head, "It seems ... really not uncomfortable, really good?"

“Is really good! Miss Liu also doesn’t need to wear that eye veil anymore, this later also lets the Misses of the worldly families all over the capital see how out of the ordinary the Misses that come out of the general’s family are.” Pei Yusheng admiringly said.

Used to seeing the delicate and soft young lady, this Miss Liu in front of him made his eyes light up, and he was more and more satisfied with Liu Lanxin, but when he saw the surroundings, he couldn’t help but remember that this was the King of England’s mansion, and that Liu Lanxin was here to look for the King of England, and his face darkened, and he had to settle Liu Lanxin’s matter earlier.

“Many thanks, Your Highness.” Liu Lanxin thanked him.

“The original is what this king should do, since Miss Liu’s eye disease is better, why don’t you go and see mother consort now, that day mother consort also said that she wanted to see the appearance of Miss Liu’s eye veil removed, seeing Miss Liu’s current appearance, mother consort is bound to be satisfied.” Pei Yusheng smiled and put down the tea in his hand, as if he didn’t care and invited.

Liu Lanxin’s hand shivered ...
