

Nothing's gonna change my love for you

Chapter 56 The Priceless Ring

Chapter 56 The Priceless Ring

Mimi Winston snorted coldly, staring at her with sparkling eyes. Contrary to her mood, she strangely said, "It is interesting, don't you know?"

Alena Wright was stunned for a moment, and a feeling of irritation could not help appearing between her eyebrows. "Miss Winston, I am not familiar with you. If you have nothing else to say, I will leave first."

All night, Mimi Winston was lingering and could not avoid her wherever she went. She was really bored.

Mimi Winston stretched out her hand to block her way, her gaze fell on the ring on her finger. The jealousy in her heart was instantly magnified, and she sneered, "Alena Wright, Mr. Gray lent you the ring to wear. It really was a waste. If you are self-aware, you should return the ring to President Gray."

After speaking, she glanced up and down Alena Wright arrogantly, and continued, "You are just a little assistant. What qualifications do you have to wear this priceless ring?"

Looking at the jealousy that she could not hide in her eyes, Alena Wright cursed Waylon Gray in her heart.

If he had not torn the band-aid, this troublesome thing will not happen.

Seeing that she has not spoken, Mimi Winston thought that she was poking her inferiority in place. She raised her head proudly, "Give me the ring."

Hearing this, Alena Wright was stunned and looked at her in surprise.

"Did you hear me? Give me the ring." Mimi Winston repeated impatiently.

Seeing her so tight and arrogant, Alena Wright also angrily laughed. She sneered at the corners of her mouth. "Miss Winston, what qualifications do you have to let me give you the ring? Waylon Gray gave me this ring."

Needless to say, this ring can't be taken off at all.

If you are not reading this book from the website: novel5s.com then you are reading a pirated version with incomplete content. Please visit novel5s.com and search the book title to read the entire book for free

Even if it can be taken off, it must be returned to Waylon Gray, not to Mimi Winston.

Mimi Winston was completely furious when she contradicted her. When she was about to attack, an idea suddenly flashed in her mind and a sinister gaze appeared in her eyes.

"What do you mean he gave it to you? You obviously stole it." She sternly accused.

'Stole?'

Alena Wright looked at her in astonishment. She was stunned by Mimi Winston's ability to accuse her without evidence.

Mimi Winston's chin was raised high, his eyes were haughty, and she threatened her. "Alena Wright, you return the ring to me now, I can assume that nothing has happened. Otherwise, don't blame me for being polite."

Alena Wright laughed instantly. She met such a shameless person for the first time.

Seeing her silent, Mimi Winston thought Alena Wright was timid and scared, and her expression became more triumphant. The eyes that looked at the ring were unabashedly greedy, "Alena Wright, give me the ring."

She stretched out her hand directly to Alena Wright, with a straightforward and confident appearance. Alena Wright thought that Mimi Winston was hallucinating to think that the ring should belong to her.

Alena Wright looked at her quietly for a few seconds, sneered at the corner of her mouth, turned around, and was about to leave.

Seeing this, the expression on Mimi Winston's face froze, and she hurriedly grabbed her wrist. "Where are you going? Give me the ring, otherwise, I will call the police."

Alena Wright shook her hand away and looked at her indifferently, "Miss Winston, don't lose your father's face because of your temporary greed."

Enjoying the book? Don't forget to visit novel5s.com for the full experience. You won't find the next chapter anywhere else. Happy reading!

Listening to her mocking words, Mimi Winston's anger hit the pinnacle. Staring at her fiercely, shouted, "Alena Wright, what qualifications do you have to teach me? You should quickly give me the ring."

"Miss Winston, if you don't talk too much, you'd better do it yourself." After speaking, Alena Wright turned around and left.

How could Mimi Winston miss such a great opportunity? She bit her lower lip, a sinister light flashed through her eyes and immediately shouted. "Here, the thief is caught."

She is not afraid to make a big deal of things. Even if goes out of hand, and Mr. Grays knows, he will worry about her father's face and won't expose her. Then Alena Wright will have no reason to argue, so she does not need to be afraid at all.

The people standing around slowly gathered. Some people who knew Mimi Winston asked, "Miss Winston, what thief was caught? Did you lose something?"

Mimi Winston looked at Alena Wright provocatively and pressed her with silent threats.

Alena Wright frowned irritably. She did not expect Mimi Winston to be so shameless that she wanted to use public opinion to force her to hand over the ring.

"Mimi, what on earth did you lose?" Mimi Winston's best friend walked to her, but her eyes fell on Alena Wright.

Everything Alena Wright is wearing is limited edition. Would such a woman steal Mimi Winston's things?

Mimi Winston's eyes rose with a mist, and she said in a grievance, "Don't you believe me? She stole my diamond ring. She took it as her own and refused to give it to me."

Diamond ring?

Everyone's eyes saw the blue ring on Alena Wright's finger, and there was a hint of surprise in her eyes. Although she does not know how much this ring is, it will definitely not be cheap.

Enjoying the book? Don't forget to visit novel5s.com for the full experience. You won't find the next chapter anywhere else. Happy reading!
Alena Wright looked at Mimi Winston, who was full of drama, and sneered, "Miss Winston, it's a shame that you are not it showbusiness!"

Mimi Winston clenched her hand tightly to her side. With a pair of apricot eyes filled with tears, she looked at Alena Wright accusingly, and said distressed, "Alena Wright, I think you are Mr. Gray's assistant. He has been patient with you again and again, but you are like this... "

Alena Wright felt the scornful gazes of the people around her and said indifferently: "Mimi Winston, I won't give you the ring."

Mimi Winston was waiting for her words.

She deliberately cried softly, and said in tears, "Have you seen it? She has not repented until now. If it were not for it, I would not want to make things worse."

Suddenly, everyone looked at Alena Wright in disgust.

Alena Wright looked at Mimi Winston coldly, her expression did not panic, and she did not want to be caught as a thief at all.

The more she calmed down, the more aura and jealousy she felt in Mimi Winston's heart.

Mimi Winston bit her lip, wiped her tears pretending to be wronged, and made a compelling look, "Alena Wright, you still don't understand, don't blame me for being polite."

After speaking, she pointed to the two security guards standing next to her and ordered, "You arrest her and send her to the police station."

Upon hearing this, Alena Wright snorted coldly in her heart. Before that, she thought that Marx Winston and Waylon Gray are partners. If there is a conflict between her and Mimi Winston, it may affect their cooperative relationship.

Therefore, she was being patient again and again.

However, Mimi Winston kept pushing, Alena Wright did not want to endure any longer, and said coldly, "Mimi Winston, are you sure you want to send me to the police station?"

Mimi Winston thought she was scared, raised her head arrogantly, and said in a proud tone, "What? Are you scared? You give me the ring now, maybe I will be generous and compassionate to let you go."