Chapter 111: Cannon Fodder Monsters Won 't Control the Authority of Fallen Abyss

No matter which man it was, their psychological defense would be vulnerable under this scene.

But fortunately.

Liao Zixuan quickly chanted Vivian's name in his heart. Well, don't get me wrong. He was imagining the little girl's shriveled body. Some of the flames in his heart that were agitated by Shirley were finally suppressed a little.

It was impossible to expect Xue Li to transform into a human outfit.

After all, Xue Li only had a superficial understanding of humans, and even her words were stuttering.

Obviously, she didn't know that she had also changed clothes to cover her body.

Liao Zixuan did this very well.

He coquettishly gave himself a handsome casual suit. Although it was only a transformation and not a physical body, he still had to get a custom-made suit from the tailor shop in Fire Code City.

The topic of conversation went far away.

Liao Zixuan now felt that he had great foresight. Fortunately, he had already taken it from the grocery store in Red Flame Town...Well, she bought a few clothes and stored them in Vivian's inventory.

Although these clothes were originally prepared for the little girl in case of emergencies, Vivian had not even worn them once, so she had to put them on Shirley first.

Hiss...

Why did it seem to be getting weirder and weirder?

Whatever, Liao Zixuan believed that Vivian would not mind!

However, when he took out the clothes, Liao Zixuan discovered another fatal problem.

Xue Li tilted her head and looked at the clothes that Liao Zixuan handed to her with a confused expression. She tugged at them and looked at the holes in the clothes curiously.

Alright then.

He didn't know how to wear it at all!

However, the scene of Liao Zixuan personally putting on the clothes for Xue Li did not happen. As a person... Oh no, there was still a bottom line to being a wolf!

He put it on himself first and demonstrated it to Xue Li. Then, he turned around and urged Xue Li to quickly imitate it.

However, what Liao Zixuan did not know was that when he turned around and looked away from Xue Li, Xue Li's confused expression was swept away. Instead, it was replaced by a gloomy and unhappy expression, as if her plan had failed.

However, Liao Zixuan seemed to have thought of something. He pretended to cough a few times and then said,

“Oh right, because this is Vivian’s dress, the size might be... Uh, how should I put it? It’s a little small for you.”

“Anyway... Bear with it for now. Liao Zixuan tried his best to erase the image of the snow-white mountain from his mind.

On the other hand, when Shirley heard that the clothes were actually Vivian’s, she was surprised at first. Then, the sullen look on her face disappeared in an instant, and a few traces of a victorious smile appeared on her lips. Finally, after the rustling sounds of clothes being put on...

Xue Li’s voice came from behind.

“Boil... Boiled Ren, dressed up...It’s done.”

Liao Zixuan turned around and saw that although he had expected it correctly, Shirley’s explosive figure made Vivian feel a little overwhelmed and full.

However, they could still look at each other normally.

“About that, don’t call me master in the future. “The first thing Liao Zixuan did was to correct the way Xue Li addressed him.

As an excellent successor who had transmigrated from the Blue Planet and had been influenced by the teachings of the socialists, Liao Zixuan could not stand the title of master.

After thinking about it, it seemed that the only name he had in this world was Little Black, which Vivian had given him. He could not let Shirley call him Little Black, could he?

As for the real name, forget it. It was even more obedient.

“Just call me Lord Black.” In the end, Liao Zixuan chose a name that the players had once called him.

“Black... Lord Hei!”

Xue Li tried her best to learn Liao Zixuan’s pronunciation and read it out seriously.

She seemed to be very happy. In Xue Li’s eyes, this name had never been called by anyone else before, which gave Xue Li a feeling that Liao Zi Xuan belonged to her.

“Alright, let’s get down to business. How do you feel now? After absorbing the core of Fallen Abyss, did you feel any discomfort or abnormality?”

Even though Liao Zixuan already knew all the information about Xue Li through the system interface, he still had to ask Xue Li personally.

On one hand, he was concerned.

Of course, the other side was also a test.

“No, I feel better than ever. I feel... His entire body seemed to be filled with power, Lord Hei! “Xue Li shook her head and looked down at her hands. “Oh? Power? Did you get any new abilities?”

Liao Zixuan pretended that he was just answering the question and asked casually.

But in reality, he wanted to see if Xue Li would hide anything from him.

If Liao Zixuan was not wrong, there was a skill in Xue Li’s interface that could be said to be unprecedented and extremely dangerous.

If Xue Li could tell him everything about this ability, then Liao Zixuan would be able to dispel his last bit of worry about Xue Li.

"I think... Able to control the Fallen Abyss and the Boomerang

"It seems possible to make all the Fallen Abyss creatures listen to my orders within my influence..." Xue Li paused halfway.

The pause here did not mean that she was hesitating whether to tell Liao Zixuan or not, but that she herself felt complicated about the ability that she was about to tell him.

It felt like he had finally become someone he hated.

Xue Li didn't even know if Liao Zi Xuan would hate her or even kill her if she told him about it.

After all, this ability was supposed to be absolutely forbidden. It was extremely evil and should never appear in this world.

The entire Terrifying Claw Forest, her tribe, her family, and even herself had suffered because of this.

But...

Taking a deep breath, Xue Li closed her eyes and opened them again. Her eyes were filled with determination.

Liao Zixuan had saved her from the Fallen Abyss, saved her race, and allowed her to evolve all the way to her current state.

Xue Li was already prepared to give everything to Liao Zixuan.

She wanted to tell him everything about her.

Xue Li knew that it was a wolf instinct that was engraved in her blood. Only the strong and useful wolves were qualified to follow the king. The weak and sick wolves could only wait for the fate of being abandoned. Therefore, she wanted to prove her strength to Liao Zixuan.

Even if she hated this power.

Hence, he decided to do it.

“I think I can still...Degenerate life! Just like the Fallen Abyss Bone Dragon that Lord Black destroyed previously, it transformed all lives weaker than mine into...”

“Fallen Abyss Monster.”

Xue Li raised her head and looked at Liao Zixuan. She said seriously,

“Transformed into...”

“My minions..”

Chapter 112: Xue Li 's Terrifying Ability

Just saying it might not be enough.

Shirley took a few steps back and looked around as if she was looking for a target.

Coincidentally, at this moment, a Rotten Mole broke out of the ground and was about to bare its teeth when it sensed the presence of a living creature on the ground.

However, when it poked its head out and saw the real situation on the ground, the rotten mole regretted it.

However, before it could rush back in, Xue Li had already raised her hand towards it, her black pupils emitting a devilish light.

In an instant, a pitch-black hand that symbolized the classic Fallen Abyss shot out from Xue Li's palm like a poisonous snake.

They caught the corrupted mole that had already been infected by the Fallen

Abyss once again and eroded it, modifying it, causing the mole's body to twitch crazily.

It was as if the original Fallen Abyss will had been erased and replaced with Xue Li's own will.

In just a few blinks of an eye, the Rotten Mole's palm-sized body began to rapidly expand. At the same time, the level of Liao Zixuan's detection panel also showed a rocket-like increase.

In the end, the size of the Rotten Mole stopped at the terrifying size of a small mound. Its level had also reached level 30 , becoming a tier 3 monster second only to tier 4 Transcendents.

However, although its strength had increased by several times, this Rotten Mole...No, it should be called the Rotten Rat King now, but its aggressiveness had completely disappeared.

In fact, it even moved its fat rat body and ran in front of Shirley.

Then, he lowered his head and his body trembled as he kneeled beside Xue Li's bare feet.

It looked as if it was kneeling before their new Fallen Abyss Empress.

Liao Zixuan had witnessed the whole process of Xue Li's attack and he had to admit that the new power that Xue Li had displayed was much more ridiculous than he had expected.

Originally, all Xue Li could do was use the remnants of the Fallen Abyss in her body to disguise herself and conceal her aura so that the Fallen Abyss creatures would not target her.

But now...

Not only could he snatch the dominance of the monsters from Fallen Abyss 'will, but from the looks of it, he even had Fallen Abyss' most terrifying ability, the ability to catalyze and strengthen.

If the Fallen Abyss was compared to a sophisticated computer, then the feeling that Xue Li gave Liao Zixuan was like a virus born from a bug.

It had its own independent system and was not connected to the Fallen Abyss network. At the same time, it could also enjoy the use of the huge computer in the Fallen Abyss and borrow its computing power and operating memory.

"How many times can you use this ability to control the world?" Liao Zixuan pointed at the Fallen Abyss monster that had turned from a mole into a rat king.

"Infinite number of times, but within my consciousness, I can only have one rank 3 abyss creature, which is already my limit, Lord Black.

Liao Zixuan nodded after Xue Li answered.

It seemed that there was still a gap.

Logically speaking, the upper limit of a low-level Fallen Abyss Seed should be pseudo-transcendent, which was the level 40 Bone Dragon from before.

Although Shirley had absorbed the Fallen Abyss Core, her current abilities were still not comparable to the true Fallen Abyss Will.

However, it was already quite a monster. It could instantly transform any creature at hand into a Tier 3 Fallen Abyss monster. Although only one could exist at a time, just thinking about it was terrifying.

“Wait, what are you doing, Shirley?”

Seeing that Xue Li was about to kill the Fallen Abyss Rat King that she had just transformed into and retrieve the power she had given him, Liao Zixuan hurriedly stopped her.

“Don’t be anxious. We’ve destroyed that Bone Dragon. We’ll use this Rat King to replace the empty main dish.

As Liao Zixuan spoke, he sized up the giant Fallen Abyss Rat King and nodded in satisfaction.

“Yes... His strength is just right.”

“If it’s only Level-30, then with Vivian’s upgraded strength, she should be able to kill it. Perfect!” Liao Zixuan clapped his hands.

“Wait... Please wait for a moment, Lord Black, I don’t understand. “The more Xue Li listened, the more confused she became. Finally, she couldn’t help but speak.

“From what Lord Hei means, could it be that you...Don’t you want to rely on my strength to stop those Fallen Abyss monsters from attacking human territory?”

Xue Li didn’t understand.

It wasn’t that she was on the side of humans and wanted to help them, but based on Xue Li’s observation of Liao Zixuan, at least she felt that Lord Black had a friendly attitude towards humans.

However, the source of the disaster had been resolved. With her current ability, although she could not control the Fallen Abyss monsters in the entire Dreadclaw Forest, there were too many of them and the area was too wide.

However, Xue Li could do that. She would be able to guard the teleportation gate of Red Flame Town for humans. As long as she could turn all the monsters near the teleportation gate into her minions and send them back, she would be able to protect Fire Code City from the disaster of the Fallen Abyss.

Originally, Xue Li had thought so and had planned to do so. Even though it was a huge burden on her, it seemed...

Had she guessed Lord Hei's thoughts wrongly?

"Stop? Why do you want to stop it?" On the other side, Liao Zixuan shook his head after listening to Xue Li's words.

The Fire God was even an accomplice to Fallen Abyss's disaster. Why should they waste their energy to clean up the mess?

To be able to stop this Fallen Abyss Bone Dragon and even kill it, it had greatly alleviated the disaster of Fire Code City.

Liao Zixuan thought that he had treated Fire Code City well enough, and a large part of it was because of Vivian.

Moreover, he had to be careful.

Even if they wanted to clean up their mess, they had to have the strength to do so.

Indeed, Xue Li was able to defend the teleportation gate, preventing the Fallen Abyss monsters from approaching Fire Code City. But what happened after that?

What about these Fallen Abyss monsters?

Tell them that you've worked hard and that you can disband on the spot, and let them return to the Forest of Fear Claw?

At the end of the day, the people of Fire Code City had to wake up their own Fire God and borrow its power to cast a super spell to completely wipe out all the Fallen Abyss monsters. Only then would the disaster be completely resolved.

so...

"Not only are we not going to stop them, Xue Li, you have to continue to urge these Fallen Abyss monsters to attack Fire Code City."

"Because this is the only way to force the Fire God to attack and completely clean up the Fallen Abyss. Otherwise, if we let these monsters continue to stay here, it won't just be humans. All the monsters in this area, other living races, and the ecological environment of all living things will be destroyed.

After hearing Liao Zixuan's words, Xue Li finally realized that she was too short-sighted. She only cared about the present and did not think about the future.

He couldn't help but admire and love Lord Hei even more...Cough, cough. Respect.

However, it was also because of this that the other name that Liao Zixuan had just mentioned was even more ear-piercing to Xue Li..

Chapter 113: Accept your punishment, Shirley!_1

"I understand, Lord Hei."

' But you mentioned Vivian just now...' Xue Li was obviously hesitant.

Liao Zixuan thought he had guessed what Xue Li wanted to ask. He smiled and explained,

‘We have delayed the time for Fire Code City for so long and helped them so much. It is not too much to collect some interest, right?’

“I was just worrying about how Vivian was going to establish herself in Fire Code City. Now, isn’t the opportunity and stage here?”

“If I can kill the leader of the Fallen Abyss monsters by myself and successfully delay the arrival of the Fire God, I’ll definitely become the hero and celebrity of the entire Fire Code City, right?”

“This is simply a free gift of fame and glory! From the looks of it, from a certain point of view, I really have to thank Fallen Abyss.

Just as Liao Zixuan was still fantasizing about the world, the little girl was sought after by tens of thousands of people. In the true sense of the word, she had gained a firm foothold in Fallen Gods...

However...

What Xue Li said next made the smile on Liao Zixuan’s face gradually disappear.

” No, Sir Black, what I mean is...”

Xue Li pursed her lips.

She secretly clenched her fingers behind her back and rubbed the clothes she was wearing. They were very unsuitable for her size. They were originally spare clothes that Liao Zixuan had given to Vivian.

In the end, under the flash of jealousy in her eyes, Xue Li mustered up her courage and said.

“Are you...Did you overestimate Vivian?”

“What if she’s scared and doesn’t dare to leave the city to face the enemy?”

‘ Besides, in my opinion, Vivian has no obligation or responsibility to go out of the city to help the city guards fight the Fallen Abyss monsters. If I were her, I would definitely choose the safest place in the city to hide until this disaster is over.’

“Then, what are you going to do, Lord Black? Are you going to send this rat king to Vivian, who is hiding in the city?”

Xue Li spoke faster and faster, as if she felt that she was right. She didn’t even notice the change in Liao Zixuan’s expression.

Until...

Xue Li’s voice stopped abruptly.

She could not finish her sentence.

Because she didn’t know when Liao Zixuan was standing less than a fist away from her.

Xue Li’s heart began to beat rapidly.

If it was any other time, the thumping here would definitely be the result of some kind of emotional heartbeat, but now...

Fear, panic, fear, regret...

Liao Zixuan gently pinched Xue Li’s smooth and fair chin, then lifted it up to help Xue Li shut her mouth.

Even though Liao Zixuan did not reveal any obvious anger at the moment.

But Xue Li still felt like she was sitting on pins and needles.

From Liao Zixuan's eyes, she could tell that he was dissatisfied with her words.

From the suffocating pressure around her, she clearly understood that she had said something that did not belong to her status in front of Liao Zixuan.

After releasing Xue Li's chin, Liao Zixuan smacked his lips a few times.

"Hiss...No wonder I felt a little awkward listening to the sound of the class.

"You always call me Vivian, but you call me Lord Black. Why don't we unify?

You can call me Black, or Little Black. "

Liao Zixuan suggested to Xue Li with a smile.

However, this made her kneel on the spot. With her intelligence, how could she not hear the hidden meaning behind Liao Zixuan's words?

"I'm sorry, Lord Hei. It's... It was Shirley who should not have guessed Lady Vivian. I-I was wrong. Shirley was wrong. Please... I request Lord Black to punish Cher for her nonsense!

Xue Li's kneeling body trembled continuously as she lowered her head. Even though her snow-white hair covered Xue Li's face, the expression on her face was definitely one of extreme fear.

For Xue Li, whose family had been destroyed, Liao Zixuan was her only spiritual pillar.

Xue Li had fantasized that it would be great if she could monopolize it.

That was why she was hostile to Vivian. But if this hostility would cause Liao Zixuan to hate, alienate, or even abandon her...

Cher would rather let go of all her prejudice against Vivian.

If Liao Zixuan wanted her to, she could even obey Vivian. Even if she had to serve Vivian, she would not hesitate.

“Alright, get up.”

I know that you look down on Vivian now. In fact, it’s not just you. Many others are the same, but I believe that it won’t be long...”

Liao Zixuan looked in the direction of Fire Code City. Then, he said to Shirley confidently, as if he was talking to himself, ‘Vivian, she’s gonna prove herself to you guys.

He let out a long breath.

Liao Zixuan was actually having a headache now. He never thought that he would be troubled by two women one day.

It seemed that he really could not be too flirtatious. He could not hold on to two of them. If there were more in the future, he would collapse.

The palm and back of his hand were all fleshy, and it was not good to lean towards either side.

However, he still had to give her what she should. Otherwise, with Xue Li's personality, she would never be at ease if he didn't punish her severely.

But it just so happened that...

There was indeed something that Xue Li had to do.

"About the punishment...Cough cough, Xue Li, you said you wanted it, I didn't force you. Let's make it clear first!

Cher nodded her head eagerly. She needed this punishment to calm her down.

Seeing this, Shirley and Liao Zi Xuan finally revealed an evil smile like a big bad wolf.

"Then I'll punish you."

"Go play the role of a big boss behind the scenes!

Liao Zixuan's eyes lit up when he thought about what he would ask Xue Li to do, and he rubbed his hands excitedly.

He quickly reached out his hand to greet the confused Xue Li and began to mutter in her ear.

"First you do this, then you do this, and finally you do this..."

"Do you understand?"

"Big... Do you understand?" Xue Li nodded.

However, Liao Zixuan didn't care too much. After all, if this dragged on, Red Flame Town would really be finished.

At this point, Damir must have noticed that the portal was unable to close.

Therefore, even if all the refugees were moved away, they would not retreat. With Harvey and the others' personalities, they would definitely hold on to the defense line and buy time for Damir to repair the portal.

But in fact, as long as the Fire God didn't wake up, how could the portal be repaired? The only correct solution was to hurry back to Fire Code City and go to the Fire God Tower to find the abnormal Archbishop Maggie.

Liao Zixuan was well aware of this, but Damir, Harvey, and the others were still in the dark. After all, even if they were dreaming, they would never have thought that the one who had harmed them would be their most trusted protector.

Therefore, at this time, someone needed to wake them up.

If they said that the Fire God had betrayed them and that there was a problem, most people would be executed for treason. Even if they were not executed, they would be treated as a lunatic and no one would believe them.

Therefore...

It would not cause trouble, and it would not make them believe it immediately, but it would at least plant the seeds of the truth. It was actually very simple.

In other words, using the enemy's identity.

Moreover, this enemy had to have a status, be powerful, have an aura, and have a cool aura!

Only in this way could the best effect be achieved!

Liao Zixuan simply fiddled with Shirley and made a shape that satisfied him. He was eager to try and waved his hand.

“Since you understand, let’s prepare for the next scene...”

“Let’s start the show!”

Chapter 114: Desperate Arrival (1)

After escorting the last family of refugees into the portal.

At the last moment when he disappeared, the whole family of five, old and young, looked at him with tears of gratitude. There was even a little girl who was a few years old. Until the last second before they left, she still held his hand tightly and cheered him on, giving him a fierce kiss on the cheek. All of this filled the player’s heart with pride.

It was a wonderful feeling because for a moment, the player really thought that he was not in a game made of virtual data, but in a real world.

With their hard work, tens of thousands of refugees from Red Flame Town were able to escape from the claws of the monsters and move to a safe place.

However, this feeling didn’t last long.

Because he was too immersed in his emotions in the next moment, he did not pay attention to the battlefield. If he was not careful, the Fallen Abyss monster would take advantage of the gap and push him to the ground.

Fortunately, a sharp sword came in time and pierced through the monster, saving him.

“Don’t get distracted, rookie!” Harvey casually threw the monster’s corpse on the sword to the side and then pulled the player up from the ground. Just like how the players felt about the world, the natives like Harvey had changed their attitude toward the players.

If he had mentioned the wonders of the outlanders in his letter to Mayor

Thorin before, he would have thought that he was exaggerating.

But now, Harvey felt that Sorin was still too conservative.

It was as if they had unlimited energy, did not know fatigue, and did not fear death. It could be said that they had held the portal for almost an hour. In the first half hour, the main force was the elite soldiers of Red Flame Town, but as time went on, the soldiers’ physical strength gradually could not keep up. Instead, it was all thanks to the outlanders who fought more and more bravely that they could hold on for the second half hour and successfully complete the retreat plan.

Motherf * cker!

It seemed that in the future, these foreigners would have to be included in the recruitment list of the Knights. Moreover, they would have to be the key recruitment targets!

At the same time, he also asked Damir to get some information from Vivian and ask that little girl how she had such a great reputation among the foreigners.

He had to snatch her before the Fire God Sect and the nobles reacted!

The most difficult period had passed, and Harvey’s thoughts could not help but drift away. He began to think about the future.

After all, the refugees had all left. Next, they would be responsible for bringing up the rear. They would enter the teleportation gate and retreat. Finally, they would close the teleportation gate and complete the mission.

“Everyone, pay attention!”

“Shrink the defense line. We don’t have to accompany these ugly monsters anymore. Prepare to retreat! Return to Fire Code City!”

Under Harvey’s command, the soldiers and gamers let out a long sigh.

Seeing that victory was at hand, everyone gathered their strength and pushed back the Fallen Abyss monsters while approaching the Teleportation Gate.

“Damir, have you set the closing time of the portal?”

Harvey was only asking just in case. He believed that Damir would not neglect such an important matter.

However, Harvey did not get the response he had expected.

When he took a break from the battle and looked at Damir in surprise, Harvey’s heart skipped a beat when he saw the young mage breaking out in cold sweat and his lips trembling.

“Damir! What happened? Was there a problem with the asked anxiously, but Damir still had a muddleheaded expression.

Harvey immediately grabbed the mage by the collar and shouted in his ear,” “Speak! Damir! What happened?”

“Pass... Teleportation Gate...I can’t close it...” The young mage sat on the ground with a thud.

"I also... I don't know if something went wrong when I activated it, but why...Why is there no response to the instruction that my teacher taught me to shut down..."

Damir had tried all sorts of methods an hour ago, but none of them worked. It was as if the magic had never been turned off from the very beginning.

On the other side, Harvey took a step back after hearing Damir's words, his face filled with shock.

"You... Do you know what you are saying?"

Harvey, who had lost control of his emotions, lifted Damir up from the ground and pointed at the utterly lost Damir, who had surrounded Red Flame Town with a dense mass of Fallen Abyss creatures.

"Take a good look at these monsters. If you don't close the portal, do you want them to follow us to Fire Law City for a tour?!"

"Then why did we work so hard before? Why did those soldiers die?"

"You... You!"

Liao Zixuan was right to insist that Vivian not touch the portal. Even with Damir and Harvey's deep affections, Harvey almost drew his sword and cut Damir down after such a big mistake.

Even though the source was not on their side.

Fortunately, a clear stream of energy flowed out from the necklace on Harvey's chest and instantly suppressed his anger, allowing Harvey to quickly calm down and regain his rationality.

This was one of the two pseudo-extraordinary items that Maggie had given him, the Focus Necklace.

He knew that it was useless to blame Damir. He had to think of a solution now. The necklace on his chest not only woke Harvey up, but also gave him a hint..

Chapter 115: Despair Appears (2)

“Listen up, kid! Now, right now! Go through the portal to Fire God Tower and find your mentor, Maggie. Even if you cause a problem with the portal, I believe that Maggie will have a way to solve it and close the portal.

“Yes... Yes, yes, yes! I can go directly to the teacher!”

Damir also seemed to have been enlightened. He had really thought that he had made a mistake with unimaginable consequences, and had been scared silly.

However, just as he stepped into the portal, he seemed to realize something.

“Wait a minute, I’ll be leaving then, Harvey...Uncle Harvey, what about you “Get lost! ” Harvey didn’t even bother to talk nonsense. He kicked Damir directly into the portal.

It was exactly as Liao Zixuan had expected.

Harvey and many soldiers, after knowing that the portal could not be closed, gave up the chance to retreat safely and chose to silently hold on.

They were trying to buy time for Damir.

Until Damir found Archbishop Maggie and closed the portal.

Until then, unless the Fallen Abyss monsters stepped over their corpses, they would never let any monster enter the portal.

Harvey didn't say anything hypocritical or touched to the soldiers who were determined to fight alongside their commanding officers.

Because anyone who wasn't a fool could tell.

After an hour of fighting, everyone was already at the end of their rope. Now, they were using their lives and flesh to block the monsters. It was no longer a matter of death, but a narrow escape.

"If we are still alive in Fire Code City after today..."

"Everyone, go spend a night at Charm, my treat!"

By the way, Charm Night was the most luxurious and most alluring bar in Fire Law City. It was said that most men would have to walk out the next day while holding onto the wall.

As soon as he and Shirley arrived at Red Flame Town, they heard Harvey's arrogant words, and the wolf cub was amused.

Oh, as for why it was a wolf cub again, of course, it was only in this form that he could enjoy the feeling of being hugged by others!

Alright, it was actually because he wanted to leave his human form for later to cause trouble in Fire Code City, so it wasn't appropriate to expose himself now.

But in short.

"Go, Shirley. Don't forget what I taught you, and the most important action! He had to remember those moves! This is very important!"

The wolf cub jumped down from Xue Li's chest.

He looked at Cher's face, which was cold, indifferent, and filled with disgust and disdain for the human race. She was simply the standard supervillain's face. He waved his claws in satisfaction.

He wanted to invite the survivors to Charm Night?

You old fool.

I'll make you go bankrupt in minutes today!

When Damir found Maggie, he would have to find a way to wake her up from Fallen Abyss. By then, Harvey and the others would probably be dead.

Therefore, the guards of Crimson Flame Town who were kept in the dark, although their spirit was admirable, were only doing useless things. They were all meaningless sacrifices.

Therefore, what Liao Zixuan was doing now was to use even greater despair to make them lose their will to fight. He made them give up the portal and indirectly saved their lives.

As for why...Despair.

Stomp...

Ta Ta...

The crisp sound of footsteps echoed in the ears of everyone in Red Flame Town.

This did not mean that the footsteps were loud.

Instead, at this moment, all the noise disappeared, leaving only the sound of footsteps. That was why it was so clear and so...

Strange.

One had to know that there were hundreds and thousands of Fallen Abyss monsters surrounding the Teleportation Gate. There were also many who could not squeeze through and were pacing back and forth crazily.

However, at a certain moment, it was as if someone had pressed the freeze button. They all stopped in place. There was no longer any roaring, and even the sound of breathing was reduced to the minimum.

“How... What happened?”

“I don’t know...”

“What are these monsters doing?”

“Don’t let your guard down. Be careful! ”

Harvey and the other guards of the Teleportation Gate took the opportunity to gather and regroup. They were glad that they had a chance to catch their breath, but they were also extremely nervous.

Because everyone understood that sentence.

There must be something wrong with things.

“You... Did you hear any footsteps?”

“Do you have one too? F * ck, I thought I was hearing things.” “Now that you mention it, I seem to have heard it too.

“Wait! You... Look at the sky!”

The players were the first to discover the source of the strange footsteps.

At first, it was a black dot in the sky. However, as it slowly drew closer, everyone was surprised to find that it was a human figure slowly walking towards them from the sky.

This scene only made the people in Red Flame Town feel bewildered.

Then, the scene that appeared in the next moment made Harvey and the others ‘pupils shrink, and they almost couldn’t even hold their swords.

Roar!

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The Fallen Abyss monsters that had surrounded Red Flame Town, the soldiers, and the players started to riot again. They were far more ferocious than before, and the ground under their feet trembled.

However, the target of this riot was not the Teleport Portal that Harvey and the players were guarding.

Instead..

It was the figure who was walking down from the sky.

The Fallen Abyss creatures began to crowd around each other as if they had gone crazy. They even reached the point where they did not care about anything. Even if they were trampled to death, they still wanted to run in the direction of the figure that was walking down from the sky.

In the end, a ladder of flesh and blood formed in front of the mysterious woman. When she stepped on it, all the crazy actions of the Fallen Abyss creatures below finally stopped. They returned to their initial state as if they had been frozen.

Stomp...

Ta Ta...

One step, one step.

The crisp sound of footsteps echoed in the ears of everyone in Red Flame Town.

This time, it was as if she had stepped on everyone's heart. Combined with the bloody and crazy scenes of the Fallen Abyss creatures that had just happened, the pressure that the mysterious woman brought with her every step from the stairs to the ground was suffocating and difficult to breathe.

Stomp!

After the final sound of the ground landing, Cher finished her appearance and stood in front of the guards and players of Red Flame Town.

She concealed the black mist and shot out countless pitch-black hands that represented the Fallen Abyss from her back. They intertwined, transformed, and reassembled into Xue Li's wings and claws.

Beneath the tall figure was a pair of black wings that were decayed on one side and exuded a demonic aura. Similarly, it was also a pair of giant evil claws that were wiggling as if they were alive.

Xue Li's features were already clear, and with the addition of the Fallen Abyss 'aura, she gave off a suffocating beauty.

It was as if just a glance was enough to make people unable to resist at all. They only wanted to quietly wait to be dominated by the other party or be bestowed with death by the other party.

His eyes were as calm as a deep pool as he looked at the players and Harvey's soldiers who were guarding the Teleportation Portal tightly behind him. Shirley recalled the lines Liao Zixuan had taught her and spoke.

"Human..."

"Give up your pointless resistance."

"After all, even your god has already...I abandoned you.."

Chapter 116: The Queen Snaps Her Fingers (1)

Shirley looked at Harvey when she said this. This commander of the knights also had a deep relationship with Archbishop Maggie.

It could be seen that Harvey's eyes didn't waver at first, and the surrounding soldiers of Red Flame Town didn't believe Cher's nonsense at all.

But then...

Xue Li continued to speak in a calm and cold voice,

"Do you still not understand? This portal was not opened by the Fire God for you. It was opened for us, for us, for the Fallen Abyss to descend upon Fire Code City.

"Before we reach Fire Code City..."

"No matter how hard you try, the portal will not close.

“Therefore, like your god, throwing yourself into the embrace of our Fallen Abyss is your only way out.

A stone stirred up a thousand ripples.

As soon as Xue Li finished her sentence, there was an intense reaction.

“Bah! Bullshit!”

“Don’t you dare slander our Fire God! ”

“Everyone, don’t be bewitched by this witch! Demonesses were the best at bewitching people! ”

“That’s right! Who would believe the nonsense of a witch like you!

“How dare she slander Lord Fire God!!

The furious roars came from the soldiers at the bottom of the hierarchy. They were extremely loyal to the God of Fire, so much so that you could humiliate them or even kill them, but you could never smear their faith.

This was perhaps why these soldiers were willing to sacrifice their lives, even though they knew the difference in strength between them and the enemy, they were still willing to defend the teleportation gate under the Fallen Abyss Dark Wave.

Of course, perhaps it was also why Fallen Abyss could easily occupy the Flame Domain without facing any resistance.

After all, even in the end, the people at the bottom of the Flame Domain still trusted their Fire God until the Fire God, who had long been corrupted, turned them into ugly creatures of the Fallen Abyss.

Seeing that his soldiers were about to fight Shirley to the death, Harvey, who was the only one who was still calm, immediately roared and stopped them all.

“All of you f * cking come back!”

“Are you all idiots?! With just a few words from someone else, they would make you give up your position, give up the Teleportation Gate behind you, and rush into the enemy’s group to die!?”

After Harvey stopped everyone, he took a deep breath.

He looked at Xue Li, who was surrounded by countless Fallen Abyss creatures.

Harvey knew that with the appearance of this evil and powerful mysterious woman who was most likely the mastermind behind this disaster, it was impossible for them to defend the portal with their current strength.

Moreover, Harvey was different from the soldiers at the bottom. Although he was also loyal to the Fire God, he also had his own independent judgment.

From the moment the Fallen Abyss appeared to the birth of the Teleport Portal Project, the entire process was strange, as if there were too many coincidences.

With Harvey’s ability, he had already sensed something subconsciously, and Shirley’s words had only helped him pierce through the window paper that he had never dared to and was unwilling to pierce.

However!

Even so, even so!

Harvey clenched his fists. He forced himself to give up on thinking. He focused his attention back on the present, thinking about how to face the unfathomable Cher in this desperate situation and try to struggle stubbornly, even if it was just to buy a few more minutes for Damir and Maggie.

Yes, he still trusted Maggie.

This was the lamentable part of the Flame Domain.

Even if someone else had told you the truth, if you didn't want to wake up, no one could wake you up.

This was also why Liao Zixuan insisted on not letting Xue Li stop him. On the contrary, he even wanted to help Fallen Abyss attack and create such an evil and powerful villain.

You can't wake me up, right?

If once is not enough, then twice. If twice is not enough, then three times!

Clang!

Along with the sound of a sword being unsheathed, Harvey, the highest commander of the Knights of the Fire Code, lowered his gaze and gently rubbed his fingers against the blade of his sword. His eyes revealed a look of distant memories.

Then, a miraculous scene appeared.

As Harvey's finger swept across the sword, the sword, which originally looked ordinary and at most slightly sharp, actually had complex and ancient patterns on it.

Then, when the patterns covered the entire sword, it was as if some kind of seal had been broken. In an instant, a dazzling red light like the sun erupted from Harvey's sword.

"Maggie, I believe that you, who gave me this Sword of Solar Flare, will never betray us, right?"

The uncle's eyes reflected the fiery red light of the sword. Harvey muttered to himself in a low voice that only he could hear.

As mentioned before, Archbishop Maggie, the incarnation of the Fire God in the human world, had given Harvey two pseudo-transcendent items.

One was the Focus Necklace hanging on his chest, and the other, which was much more powerful, was the Epic weapon in Harvey's hand, the Sword of Solar Flare!

Of course, it would only reach the Epic stage in the future, but it had not grown to this stage yet.

Puchi!

With the tip of the sword pointing down, Harvey stabbed the sword, which was shining with the light of the sun, into the ground in front of him.

Even though Harvey's strength had skyrocketed thanks to the pseudo-transcendent level Sword of Solar Flare, he wasn't so stupid as to think that he could take on the mysterious woman alone.

Even though Shirley hadn't made a single move, the appearance of Liao Zixuan had already made Shirley's strength rise to the same level as Archbishop Maggie in Harvey's heart.

That was...

An existence that mortals could not match.

Therefore, Harvey chose the wisest and most optimal solution at the moment.

weng!

The Sword of Solar Flare that Harvey had stabbed into the ground in front of him let out a loud roar. The magic that had been designed on the sword was instantly activated.

At this moment, with the Sword of Solar Flare as the center and eye of the array, and with the help of the power of the pseudo-Transcendent weapon, an incomparably powerful magic barrier began to expand rapidly until it enveloped the entire teleportation gate, as well as all the soldiers and players around it.

It's coming, it's coming!

Watching the wolf cubs munching on melon seeds in the dark, his eyes were filled with excitement and reminiscence.

Harvey's signature technique, Wall of Solar Flare!

Liao Zixuan had a deep impression of this skill.

This was because at the end of Fallen God Version 1.0, the final plot was the destruction of the Flame Domain and the fall of Fire Code City. Harvey used the last remnants of the will of the Fire God and burned his own life as the price to use the Radiant Wall. With his own strength, he stopped the pursuit of tens of millions of Fallen Abyss monsters and successfully allowed the players and the surviving citizens of the Flame Domain to escape outside the country, thus starting the prelude to the next version.

Back then, this cinematic had touched many players. Everyone had shed tears for this commander who had a strong sense of tragedy. His country had fallen and his family had fallen.

Liao Zixuan was no exception. So at this moment, when he saw the rising red barrier that was as dazzling as the sun in front of him again, even though the scale was much smaller, he still felt a myriad of emotions.

But of course, they were all emotional.

Although he felt sorry for Harvey, after all, what was going to happen next...

It would probably leave a deep shadow in the commander's heart.

It would make all the soldiers despair...

At the same time, it would also leave a deep impression in the hearts of every player present..

Chapter 117: The Queen Snaps Her Fingers (Part 2)

"Is that so..."

"Is this your answer, human?"

Cher quietly looked at the Wall of Solar Flare that had blocked her and all the monsters from the Fallen Abyss.

Many Fallen Abyss monsters roared and began to charge at the Wall of Solar Flare. However, these monsters, whose potential had been stimulated to the maximum by the Fallen Abyss, were actually defeated.

No matter where they attacked from, no matter how many Fallen Abyss monsters attacked at the same time, they could not shake this thick and tough defensive barrier.

It could even be said that after each collision, the crimson Wall of Solar Flare did not dim, but instead seemed to absorb the impact and became more solid and dazzling.

The soldiers cheered when they saw the helpless look on the Fallen Abyss monster's face. As for the players, when they saw that the NPC Harvey was indeed not simple and had such a powerful hack, they clicked their tongues in wonder and felt much more relieved.

As for Harvey himself, he heaved a long sigh of relief. The Sword of Solar Flare was his last trump card, and it was also the reason why he chose to guard the portal with his soldiers and foreigners.

Even though the vitality in his body was draining away, and his internal organs and bones were already in pain, if nothing unexpected happened, as long as these Fallen Abyss monsters continued to rampage against the Wall of Solar Flare without reason to replenish its energy, the Wall of Solar Flare would continue to grow. The price was only his own lifespan and potential.

But...

It was still the same premise. If nothing unexpected happened...

Harvey's gaze was fixed on Shirley's face.

He had seen this evil woman before. Her beauty was second only to Maggie's, and her strength was also second only to Maggie, the archbishop.

The commander couldn't help but feel more and more uneasy and nervous, even though the situation seemed to be in their favor.

The reason was simple.

Harvey still didn't see any change in expression on Shirley's face.

Even though he had summoned the indestructible Wall of Solar Flare, the other party's calm and terrifying gaze was still as dark as ever.

No, no, no.

There was finally a change!

In short, the little wolf cub had already told Shirley everything that could happen and had prepared a response plan for every possibility in advance.

The reason why Liao Zixuan was so excited when he saw the Wall of Solar Flare was because of nostalgia. The more superficial reason was that only when Harvey released this skill could Shirley also perform the classic move that Liao Zixuan had been looking forward to!

Yes, it was.

It was the action that the little wolf cub had mentioned to Shirley before the fight began. It was the action that was the core and the most soulful!

Liao Zixuan was eager to try.

But Harvey was the complete opposite.

Harvey's heart skipped a beat. The bad feeling in his heart grew stronger.

Finally!

Harvey's pupils constricted because Shirley finally made a move.

Cher swung her arms outward, causing the giant claw weapon to disappear into thin air. Then, under the nervous gazes of Harvey and the others, she slowly raised her left arm.

She was...What was she doing?

At this moment, the soldiers held their breaths, and the players widened their eyes, afraid that they would miss something.

As for Harvey...

' Believe in Maggie, believe in Maggie. She said it before. Even if it's a one-on-one situation, it won't be easy for her to break through this wall of solar flares...'

Before Harvey could finish his self-comforting words, his voice was drowned out.

To be precise.

It was changed by a snap of his fingers.

"Wha... What?" Harvey was not the only one who was shocked. Even the soldiers and players were dumbfounded, and their minds went blank.

After that, Cher straightened her slender left arm and aimed it at them. She didn't use any evil magic that she had imagined. Cher only did a very simple action.

She flipped her round wrist.

Following that, her slender fingers, which were so fair that they were somewhat bewitching, pointed up and gently pressed her thumb and middle finger together...

Ding!

The crisp and melodious sound of snapping fingers resounded in everyone's ears and echoed in Red Flame Town.

The method to break the Wall of Solar Flare was very simple. There were only two things to do. First, one must not use continuous attacks to charge it up. Second, after charging up in advance, all the power was concentrated on one point.

Some villains died from talking too much.

However, some villains took advantage of the opportunity to talk and wait for the charged status bar to be full.

Shirley was obviously the latter.

The power of the abyss that had been accumulated and continuously compressed to the point that it had only become a black light on his fingertip instantly erupted.

Of course, there were many ways to explode in an instant, but Liao Zixuan chose to let Shirley perform the most handsome one out of his feelings.

When Xue Li snapped her fingers and crushed the concentrated power of the Fallen Abyss, along with the sound waves of the snap, there was also an incomparably terrifying force.

However, outsiders couldn't see through these hidden tricks.

In the eyes of the soldiers, players, and even Harvey, all they saw was Cher snapping her fingers...

Ka... Kacha...

Kacha! Kacha!

It was once thought to be indestructible, and even Archbishop Maggie herself said that she wanted the absolute defense of a pseudo-Transcendent... Alright, Maggie was definitely lying to Harvey.

In short, the Wall of Solar FIFlare, which symbolized the last hope, snapped its fingers...

It was completely shattered.

After hope, despair surged like a tide.

Harvey had thought of countless ways to break the wall, but he had never thought that it would be broken in such a ridiculous way.

She was...

How strong was he? I'm sorry... Maggie...

1...

He had done his best.

Plop!

Harvey immediately knelt on the ground with his hands on the ground. He had lost all will to resist. Shirley's snap of her fingers had not only broken the Wall of Solar Flare, but it had also shattered Harvey's heart.

Even the commander had given up under Cher's despair, not to mention the soldiers under him and the players who were already on the edge.

"Retreat!"

"Return to Fire Code City!"

Harvey used his most humiliating voice to shout out with tears in his eyes. This meant that they had completely given up on guarding the Teleportation Gate and had opened the gate that could lead directly to Fire Code City to the endless Fallen Abyss Dark Wave.

When Harvey and the others ran into the portal, Red Flame Town finally lost all its defense. All that was left was the terrifying Fallen Abyss monsters.

The little wolf cub walked out from the shadows. He saw Cher's gaze asking him if he should proceed with the next step and nodded.

Thus, Xue Li raised her arm once more and pointed at the teleportation gate in the deepest part of the world.

Roar!

The earth shook violently. The Fallen Abyss monsters that were blocked by the Wall of Solar Flare no longer seemed to be restrained and let out earth-shaking roars.

All of them rushed toward the portal, bringing up a cloud of dust. In the end, their hideous bodies disappeared from Red Flame Town..

Chapter 118: Treasure Thief Group and Business Opportunity

An hour ago.

Fire Code City.

Underground Black Market, Treasure Thief Guild Headquarters.

In the cold and dark meeting hall, there was a chair on each side of the square table. Behind each chair was a flag that seemed to have some kind of animal drawn on it.

The skinny man sitting on a chair with a "crow" flag on his back spoke first.

"Now that the portal has been opened, the villagers of Red Flame Town and the surrounding areas of the Dreadclaw Forest will be temporarily transferred to Fire Code City. What do you think?"

'Hmph, I'm not interested in these country bumpkins. Dead Raven, I want your Raven Clan to find out what exactly happened in the Fearful Claw Forest. What kind of disaster would make the Fire God Cult so generous that even Archbishop Maggie, who hasn't shown her face for years, was forced to make a move.'

"Also, when will this matter be resolved? When will Maggie continue her closed-door cultivation? Just because she, the archbishop, was alerted and came out of seclusion, the higher-ups of the Fire God Cult were all frightened. Each and every one of them told me that they wanted to temporarily stop cooperating!

"What a bunch of cowards. Isn't it just an old woman? Look at how scared they are. They're almost turning into cowards!

The giant man with a "tiger" behind him snorted coldly.

The man's body in the shadows leaned slightly toward the table when he spoke due to his emotions, revealing his strong muscles.

However, even though he knew that the giant was angry, a seductive mocking voice still sounded from under the flag with the image of a fox.

"Tsk tsk, isn't she just an old woman?"

"If it wasn't for Archbishop Maggie's closed-door cultivation in the past few years and not caring about the world, how could the Fire God Sect's internal corruption be so fast? They could even collude with your Tiger Clan to collect protection fees.

Bang!

He slammed the table.

“Seductive Fox, what do you mean? Without our Tiger Clan to help you take care of your territory and eliminate your opponents, do you really think that you can do human trafficking so smoothly?? Besides, your bars and brothels make so much money every month. What’s wrong with collecting protection fees from you?”

The burly man glared at the woman under the fox flag.

However, the other party was not afraid of being under his command at all.

“Earn that much money? Who doesn’t know that ever since the Fire Law City was sealed, my supply has been reduced by 70 – 80%. I’ve already warned those customers to be a little gentler during this period of time, but they don’t know how to be gentle with women. Instead, they’re consuming faster. If it wasn’t for the fact that I have some supplies from the city, I wouldn’t be able to continue my business.

“So, I still have to thank Maggie for opening the portal. Thanks to her opening the portal, such a large batch of goods worth more than 10,000 yuan was sent over. Black Tiger, you have to know that those poor bumpkins you mentioned are all cheap and affordable money-making machines in my eyes.” After she was done with Black Tiger, Seductive Fox turned her head to the skinny man with the code name Death Crow.

‘ Darn Crow, I heard that the other nobles didn’t go to the surrounding towns and villages to buy servants this year because of the city-sealing order. However, the Cecil family is still the same. Coupled with the fact that their servants are consumed the fastest every year, I suspect that the Cecil family is also doing that kind of business.

“In the past, I couldn’t and didn’t dare to snatch the source of goods from the Cecil family, but now, hehe...Damn Crow, I need the intelligence department of your Crow Clan to help me get the list of the girls that the Sisre family has selected for this year. It’s said that because they happened to be in time for Count Sisre’s daughter’s coming-of-age ceremony, the girls that they bought from the countryside this year are all carefully selected. I'm going to take advantage of this chaos and cut off all these goods in advance!

After Seductive Fox said that, Raven nodded. The skinny man finally looked at the person who had been silent all this while. He was sitting under the last flag with a snake pattern.

"Viper, what about you?"

' I, Black Tiger, the same, the most concerned about what happened in Dreadclaw Forest. I'm now contacting Bishop Eugene and Niya. Our Snake Division's priority now is to recover the Purple Crystal Grass that we spent a lot of money and effort to cultivate. I don't need to explain the value of the Purple Crystal Grass in Fire Code City, right?"

"Dead Crow, I need you to send someone to track down the whereabouts of Bishop Eugenia. Any clues about her will do. Our Snake Clan will also send someone to see if we can get any useful information from the refugees outside the city.

"Alright."

After everyone had said it once, the dead crow stood up.

" Then let me summarize. Let's put aside Black Tiger's matter with Archbishop Maggie for now. This is beyond the Crow Clan's ability. However, the last two things, one is the list of reserved servants selected by the Cecil family, and the second is about the whereabouts of Archbishop Eugenia and the Purple Crystal Grass. Once there's news, I'll give you an answer as soon as possible." "That's all then. The meeting is over."

After the dead crow finished speaking, the three leaders of the branch of the treasure stealing group also prepared to leave through the secret passage.

However, in the end, the dead crow seemed to have suddenly thought of something and raised its mouth again.

“Oh, right.”

“Regarding the foreigners, I’ve asked the people of the Rat Clan to get in touch with them. If there’s anyone that suits our Treasure Thief Group, I’ll let the small leaders of the Rat Clan absorb them themselves and try to become our peripheral members first.

“Humph, let those small fries from the Rat Clan do whatever they want. A bunch of foreigners who came out of nowhere is indeed quite compatible with the Rat Clan. ”

After the black tiger sneered, the giant man disappeared into the secret passage. The other two leaders were not interested in this either. They did not say anything and left directly.

In the end, only the skinny man called Death Crow was left alone in the empty, cold chamber.

“Trash...What?” he murmured, then shook his head.

Very soon, Dead Crow also turned into a black crow feather and disappeared on the spot.

“What exactly happened? What is the teleportation gate outside the city?”

“I heard from my brothers in the City Defense Army that there was a great disaster in the northern forest. Archbishop Maggie personally cast magic and transferred all the refugees here.

“Ah! Archbishop Maggie was still so kind! ”

“Compared to this, I’m more worried about these refugees outside the city. Don’t let these refugees enter the city. Look at their tattered bodies. They’re so dirty. Don’t bring them to us again.

“That’s right, that’s right. In my opinion, Archbishop Maggie is still too soft-hearted. Why does she care about the lives of these country bumpkins? Now that such a large group of people is squeezed outside the city and there are so many guards to take care of them, what about the security of our Fire Code City?"

"Sigh, first the city was sealed, and now there's this mess. This year is really not going well. God of Fire, please bless us. Don't cause any more trouble.

Outside the Fire Code City, there was a huge array of people. There was a huge portal not far from the city, and a large number of Red Flame Town refugees were escaping from the portal.

The residents of the city, as long as they were not blind or deaf, more or less began to discuss. Most of them had worry and displeasure on their faces.

Of course, there was also a small group of people who were excited and happy.

Kesley was squatting in a small alley in the city with a group of his underlings.

He heard Little Seven, who was panting heavily and had just returned from gathering information outside the city, telling him about the situation outside with a beaming face.

"Boss is rich! Now that so many people have arrived outside the city, how much money can we earn just by selling fake entry permits!

The underling named " Little Seven " was trembling with excitement. His voice was trembling, and his eyes seemed to be shining with the silver light of silver coins.

However, in just a second, his dream was shattered.

"Are you an idiot? The city guards have strictly stated that no refugees are allowed to enter the city. The city gates have been completely sealed off. Even if we have a fake entry permit, it won't work anymore. Who would buy it?" Chris patted Little Seven's wooden head in disappointment.

“Then... Then boss, are we just going to watch these fat sheep outside the city? If it really didn't work, why not... Why don't we use our secret passage to do the smuggling business?”

Thump!

Little Seven's head was hit hard again.

“Do my ass! Are you crazy about money? That secret passage was dug out by us through all the hardships. We must not let outsiders know. Moreover, I think the city guards are serious this time. If they are caught, they will lose their heads! ”

“I... I just want to earn more money and prepare a better betrothal gift for Nana. Boss, you know that Nana and I have been together for so long. It wasn't easy for her family to agree to our marriage, so I thought that I had to work harder and not embarrass Nana...”

Seeing that Little Seven's face was filled with happiness at the mention of Nana, Chris and his lackeys behind him instantly looked at him with disdain.

They looked like they were about to get tired of hearing about this again. However, when they heard that they had to prepare a betrothal gift this time, the air immediately became sour.

“Get lost. My ears are about to grow calluses from hearing such trivial matters. Nana must be blind to fall for you!”

Chris kicked Little Seven.

Little Seven just laughed foolishly, as if she was immersed in the beautiful fantasy of the future.

“Alright, a fake entry permit will definitely not work. Don't even think about sneaking into the city. It's too dangerous...”

After listening to their boss's final decision, the lackeys all showed bitter expressions, especially Little Seven who was more eager to earn money.

"However..." Chris's tone changed, and a smug look appeared on his face.

"In our line of work, we have to be flexible. Previously, because the city was half-sealed, the entry permit was the most sought after. But now that the city is completely sealed, what is the most sought after item?"

Chris also tried to teach his underlings, but when he saw the big eyes of his underlings that were filled with confusion, Chris gave up.

"Idiot! Of course, it was the basic materials! There were so many of them. Tens of thousands of refugees were blocked outside the city and were not allowed to enter. What they ate, drank, wore, and slept were all business opportunities!" After Chris said this, his underlings were not really stupid. They immediately reacted.

"That's right..."

"We buy a batch of supplies in the city, then transport them outside the city and sell them to the refugees at a high price. This round of trading will make us a lot of money!"

"F * ck, boss is too smart!"

"Nonsense, otherwise, how could the boss be the boss!"

"With Boss's brain, we won't be far from the rat tribe! As long as he followed

Boss, he would definitely become an official member of the Treasure Thief

Group!

Chapter 119: Boss, After This Job, Go Home and Get a wife! 1

After the joy of finding another way to make a fortune, it quickly turned into a flattery session.

‘ Cough, cough, it’s alright.’

Chris deliberately waited for a while to enjoy the worship of his underlings, especially the last part about becoming an official member of the Treasure Thief Gang. This was his goal. In fact, he wasn’t the only one. All the hooligans in Fire Code City were proud of being able to join the legendary Treasure Thief Gang.

‘ Cut the crap. Hurry up and buy the basic supplies before the shops in the city react. Oh, right, remember not to buy crazily in one shop. Spread out and keep a low profile. Try not to let other people in the same trade notice.

“After we buy it, we’ll gather at the secret passage and transport the supplies out. Do you understand?”

“Understood, Boss!”

After Chris gave the order, the lackeys immediately took action according to the plan. They split into several waves and headed to the various grocery stores.

They were considered the biggest local tyrants in this area. They clearly remembered the location of every shop and were already familiar with the matter of purchasing supplies.

In less than ten minutes.

Chris, who was waiting at the entrance of the secret passage, was surrounded by his followers who had returned from purchasing supplies.

He saw that everyone else was carrying big and small bags, but Little Seven was the most ruthless. She even found a small cart and bought a whole cart.

Seeing Boss's mouth twitching, Little Seven laughed.

"Sell more and make a lot of money!"

"Can't you make a few more trips?" Chris kicked him again.

Chris and the rest of the group undid the hidden mechanisms that they had set up and passed through the secret passage. They brought all kinds of supplies to an inconspicuous corner outside the city.

Taking a deep breath, Chris was also extremely excited at first.

Because this was a big business. If he could do it well, the money he earned would be enough for him to bribe the official member of the Treasure Thief Group and get rid of the Rat Clan members on the periphery.

Chris had even planned that after he officially joined the Treasure Thief Group, he would choose to join the rumored most mysterious Crow Clan and become a member of the Death Crow.

However...

Chris looked at the refugees under the huge portal. The expectant expression on his face gradually disappeared, and he frowned.

What Chris saw was a group of people in ragged clothes with bitter expressions.

Many of the refugees had fled in a hurry, so they did not bring anything with them. They were only wearing thin clothes. However, it was not warm outside the Fire Code City. From time to time, there would be a cold wind blowing. It was fine for the adults, but the children were all shivering from the cold.

As for hunger, Chris saw a mother crying and crying because of her young child. She kept pulling her mother and shouting, and kept begging in the group of refugees.

There were countless more tragic scenes like this. Furthermore, with the refugees constantly being transferred over from the Teleportation Gate, the resources provided by the Fire Code City officials were simply not enough.

“Little Seven, what price do we have to sell it at?”

“Three times boss!” Little Seven rubbed her hands excitedly.

“Reduce it by half, 1.5 times. Then tell the brothers that the money that is missing will be deducted from my share. “Chris said through gritted teeth.

“Boss, this...

Little Seven didn't understand at first, but when he followed Boss 'gaze and saw the true appearance of the refugees, he immediately stopped talking.

“Sigh! What is this! Boss was too stupid to not grasp such a good opportunity to make a lot of money!

Little Seven muttered gloomily.

However, when he went to inform the rest of his brothers, Chris was surprised.

“Boss said that we're all suffering, so don't make things too difficult for others. As hooligans, we have to have a bottom line. All the supplies will only be sold at 1.3 times. The money that everyone loses will be from Boss and...And my share!”

“Little Seven, you...”

Chris was speechless.

Although Little Seven’s heart ached and he almost cried, he still shook his hand coolly.

“Look at you!” Chris smiled and kicked out of habit.

However, at this moment, a group of five people suddenly broke away from the group of refugees and walked towards Fire Code City. Not only were they not stopped by the city guards, but they were even escorted by a team of people.

Before Chris’s underlings could sigh, they realized that there was something strange about their boss.

Among these so-called important figures among the refugees, Chris, who had sharp eyes, saw a familiar young girl who left a deep impression on him.

This made him unable to take his eyes off her. He stared at the young girl in a daze as she disappeared into the entrance of Fire Code City.

“Little Seven, about that, you guys sell things outside the city first, 1...1 have to go back!”

Recalling his encounter with the girl and the unbelievable things that happened after that, Chris felt like there was a ball of fire in his heart. His strong curiosity made him eager to follow her.

“Alright, boss! Leave the outside of the city to me!”

“I promise that I will sell the most goods. Then, after this is over and we earn enough money, we will go home and marry Nana!

But this time...

For some reason, even though he should have gotten used to hearing it, Chris suddenly panicked.

“What’s wrong, boss? Don’t you have something to do? Go back to the city quickly!” Little Seven looked at Chris and asked curiously.

“You say...”

“Is there any danger?”

Chris asked suddenly, but he didn’t know what he was asking. It was just a subconscious instinct.

“Haha, Boss, what are you thinking about? Are you stupid? This is Fire Code

City, right below Fire Code City. What danger can there be? Alright, alright, Boss, you should go quickly. Don’t delay us from earning money! I’m in a hurry to earn a betrothal gift for Nana!”

“Then... Then I’ll take my leave first.”

After Little Seven’s words, Chris felt that it was true. He really couldn’t think of any danger at the foot of Fire Code City. Moreover, they weren’t doing anything bad. Selling supplies was a small matter, and the city guards wouldn’t care about it. They would even be happy to see it.

It should be just that he was worrying too much, right?

However, before returning to the Fire Code City through the secret passage, he felt a strong sense of panic. Chris had to remind his underlings.

“What if, I mean what if there is any danger? Don’t worry about the goods or the money. Hurry up and run back to the city through the secret passage.

“Little Seven, especially you. Think about it carefully. Is the betrothal gift more important or is it more important to let your Nana be a widow?”

Chris especially glared at Little Seven, who was the most eager and impatient.

“Let’s go, let’s go. Don’t worry about Boss!”

He shook his head. Even he felt strange. What was going on? He didn’t think too much about it and went into the secret passage.

After exiting from the other side of the Fire Code City, he quickly ran to the main road at the city gate. After looking around a few times, his eyes lit up.

He quietly followed Vivian’s back..

Chapter 120: What Is Sunken Cost?

“This is the first time Miss Vivian has come to Fire Code City, right?” Butler Robert was chatting and laughing with the girl beside him.

The little girl hesitated at first, but she quickly nodded. After all, when she went into the city alone to report, she should have...It couldn’t be counted, right?

On the other side, ever since they left the refugee camp outside the city, Robert felt as if he had returned home the moment he stepped onto the main road of Fire Code City under the escort of the city guards. He had rid himself of the last bit of tension in his body and completely relaxed.

It could even be said that the disaster was not over yet, but he had already begun to have the leisure to act as a tour guide and introduce Fire Code City to Vivian.

Because I've already said hello, so the noble carriage of the Cecil's house soon arrives, several people get on the carriage, Robert raises the curtain of the carriage, points the building outside to the little girl.

"Miss Vivian, look, we are now in the outer Urban area. There are many shops and hawkers here. If you buy daily necessities, it will be cheaper here. Oh, but the security in the outer city is not so good. I heard that there are many hooligans.

" A few streets further in were mostly taverns and entertainment venues...The tallest building in the distance was the Fire God Tower. It was the center of the Fire God Sect, the largest sect in the Fire Law City. There was also the Royal Law School next to it. Every year, a large number of outstanding mages were nurtured for the Fire Law City. There was also the Fire Law Library that had to be mentioned... The most famous statue of the Fire God."

Robert's passionate introduction made Vivian a little confused and confused. However, her younger brother Andy, who was beside her, was extremely excited. He leaned against the window on the other side of the carriage, full of curiosity about the big city.

As for Vivian's father, Anlu, he had never dreamed that he would one day be able to ride a carriage like his master and drive on the main streets of Fire Code City.

Mage Lake, who was also sitting in the carriage, saw the behavior of this family of country bumpkins. Although he did not show much on the surface, the disdain in his heart intensified.

However, this state did not last long. After a while, the carriage gradually slowed down and finally stopped at the entrance of a luxurious manor in the inner Urban area.

In the inner part of the manor was an extremely magnificent castle. One of the ancient nobles of Fire Code City, the Sisre family, had arrived.

"Sir Robert, it's been a long journey. "The rows of maids who had been waiting at the door for a long time bowed in unison when they saw the butler coming down from the carriage.

Robert ordered a few maids to send Vivian's father and brother away. After settling them elsewhere, he and Mage Lake led Vivian into the mansion.

At the same time, in the dark.

Chris, who had followed her all the way to the entrance of the manor, frowned when he saw the girl's figure disappear at the entrance of the castle.

"She... Shouldn't she be a village girl from the countryside? How could he be related to a noble like Sis!"

"Wait, could it be..." Chris suddenly remembered that some great nobles had the habit of buying servants from the countryside, and the Sisre family was one of the nobles who were most keen on this.

Although Vivian was skinny and skinny, she still had good looks. It seemed normal for her to be bought as a maid.

However...

Chris muttered the name 'Cecil' in a low voice. In his mind, he recalled the rumors he had heard in the Treasure Thief Gang.

There were rumors that the servants of the Sisre family would mysteriously disappear every year. It was precisely because of this that they bought more servants from outside than other families every year.

It could even be said that half of the city had been sealed off some time ago. The other nobles had given up on buying servants this year, but the Sisre family had spent a lot of money to bribe their connections and still wanted to recruit servants.

"You... You, sigh! F * ck! Why was this silly girl so annoying no matter where she went!" Chris cursed.

The last time they met, it was the same. Vivian had just entered the checkpoint when something terrible seemed to have happened inside. Although Chris did not dare to enter, he had seen the guard being sent flying.

Later on, Chris asked someone to ask around and found out that there was a very powerful mage who was destroying the Fire God Church's territory. In the end, even the legendary number one genius mage of Fire Code City, Damir, was alarmed and rushed over to Drovide suDDort. That was the end of it.

But after everything was over, Chris wanted to find out how Vivian was and if she had been affected by the incident, but the little girl seemed to have evaporated from the face of the earth and disappeared without a trace.

That was why Chris was so surprised and curious to see Vivian again today. He could not help but put down his big business outside the city and wanted to follow her.

In the end, curiosity really killed people. It didn't matter what he saw, but Chris was extremely conflicted again.

Regardless of whether the rumor was true or not, Chris felt that it was better to believe it than not. If there was really something wrong with the Cecil family, then the girl before him would be like a sheep walking into a tiger's den. After struggling with his emotions for a few times, Chris wanted to turn around and leave.

But in the end, he gritted his teeth and stayed.

"This is for the travel expenses that I gave to that silly girl back then. I want that bag of money not to be wasted! If something really happened to her, wouldn't it be equivalent to wasting my money?"

Chris had sunk his capital.

After forcefully finding an excuse to convince himself, he made up his mind to sneak into Sisre's house and warn Vivian, who knew nothing about it. Chris's aura instantly changed.

The original appearance of a hooligan had disappeared, replaced by a slightly hunched body. After taking a deep breath, a magical scene appeared. Chris's figure gradually blurred, and finally, he even merged with the surrounding environment. If one did not look carefully, one would not have noticed that there was actually someone here.

It was the signature skill of a Tier 2 Thief, Stealth.

Chris was the boss of this neighborhood, so he must have some real ability.

With the buff of Stealth, he bypassed the guards and easily snuck into Cecil's manor. Chris observed for a while before cursing in his heart.

This was because in the entire huge manor, especially the servants who could enter and leave the castle, there were actually not many male servants! They are all maids!

There was nothing he could do. It was fine to sneak into the manor, but if he really entered the castle, a noble like the Sisre family would definitely have defenses that could detect the Stealth of a Thief. Therefore, Chris had no choice but to give up halfway.

He would definitely extort a sum of money from that village girl later. Otherwise, he would not be able to live up to his sacrifice today!

Chris was extremely unwilling. He secretly knocked out a maid in the castle, then dragged her to a corner where there was no one. He quickly exchanged his clothes with the maid. In humiliation, he put on a dress for the first time in his life. Finally, he used the thief's skill to disguise his face and figure at the same time.

Just like that, when she came out again, the brand-new maid of Cross sensed Vivian's aura and quickly moved around the castle..
