Chapter 141: Head of the kindergarten, Liao Zixuan! 1

It seemed that the people of Fire Code City were still too unreliable!

It had been so long, but he couldn't even invite his own god over.

In Liao Zixuan's plan, everything that Vivian should have had, including reputation, strength, and even tempering her state of mind, had been achieved. The original intention of arranging the scene between Shirley and the little girl was to let Shirley sincerely acknowledge Vivian. After all, it was not a fight that made friends.

Don't underestimate this last point. This was an important cornerstone for building a harmonious family in the future.

Since he had achieved his goal, there was no point in wasting time. It was time for the curtain call, and Fire God was the key figure in this final segment.

After all, the Fallen Abyss monsters that filled the mountains and plains had to be purified by the God of Fire's transcendental magic.

However, it seemed that there was a small mistake in the last step.

Sigh...

He sighed.

The little wolf cub leaped up and transformed into a human before disappearing from the portal and reappearing outside the Fire Code City.

This wave...

This time, the director was going on stage personally.

Liao Zixuan shrunk his neck subconsciously when he was on the battlefield because he could feel the explosive aura fluctuations coming from the sky.

Cher stepped on the bone dragon and charged at Vivian, while the little girl wielded her black scythe and slashed out with her scythe.

Female...Women fighting.

It was truly terrifying.

Liao Zixuan suddenly became even more determined to invite the Fire God to descend.

Liao Zixuan no longer paid attention to the fight between the two immortals above his head. His pupils began to emit a faint white light. After activating his soul vision, he scanned the refugee camp outside the city. Even though there were more than ten thousand people, Liao Zixuan quickly found the special person he wanted through the soul mark he had set up long ago.

He took a step forward, and in the next moment, Liao Zixuan appeared near Harvev.

Immediately after.

Crack!

It was as if the director had pressed the pause button on the screen.

Harvey, Chris beside him, and the Players who had been following Harvey were all shocked to find that the entire world seemed to have become still except for them.

Uh, don't misunderstand.

Of course, Liao Zixuan didn't have a skill like Time Freeze. He just used himself as the center and pulled all the souls in the area into a separate soul space. This was quite easy for the Dark Flame Wolf, who had the authority of the soul.

"Ahem."

He coughed symbolically and instantly attracted the attention of everyone who was pulled into the soul space and was at a loss for what to do when faced with such a rare phenomenon.

Dressed in a black suit, he was graceful and leisurely. What was even stranger was that his entire body was spotless, as if this chaotic battlefield filled with dust had nothing to do with him.

If he had to describe it, Harvey and Chris felt that he was a noble who had come for sightseeing.

"I'm sorry to disturb you at such a tense moment." Liao Zixuan bowed in a very ceremonial manner.

"But..."

He quickly changed his tone and looked at the familiar middle-aged man, no, he was now a middle-aged man who looked dispirited.

Li Zai-Gan?

Liao Zixuan really wanted to blurt out this sentence, but he thought about it and decided not to. He had to be serious at this time. After all, there were still war reporters that he deliberately pulled in. Therefore, he changed his way of speaking.

“Human, you disappoint me.

At first, Harvey didn’t understand at all, but after Liao Zixuan’s next sentence...

“I’m starting to regret helping you delay the Bone Dragon in the depths of the forest.”

“Delay...Bone Dragon?” Chris asked with a face full of question marks.

When Chris said that, Liao Zixuan suddenly noticed the unremarkable hooligan next to Harvey.

Why was this guy here?

Good heavens, it seems that no matter how the plot changes, the two of you, who are good friends who love each other and kill each other, will always meet each other, right?

Liao Zixuan clearly remembered that in the game’s storyline in his previous life, Harvey was in the open, while Chris was the hidden storyline for the players. The two of them were enemies, but they cooperated tacitly from time to time. It felt like they were police and bandits. In the end, they saved the corrupt Fire Code City from both the light and the dark.

As for why Liao Zixuan remembered it so clearly...Well, it could only be said that there were quite a number of wives among the players. Such a gay couple couple had led to many doujinshi novels, even a pineapple novel.

It seemed like the topic had gone off.

In short, Chris obviously didn’t understand Liao Zixuan’s hint, but Harvey reacted immediately, and his face was filled with shock.

“You... You were from that time!”

Harvey certainly would not forget the time when the portal had just been built. The Fallen Abyss monsters from the Dreadclaw Forest had all gone on a rampage, and one of them was even larger than the Bone Dragon that the humanoid monster was riding.

If it wasn't for the fact that there seemed to be another powerful mysterious creature in the forest that dragged the bone dragon down from the sky and caused a fight, the refugees of Red Flame Town wouldn't have been able to successfully move to Fire Code City.

“You... ‘Why...’ No! Who exactly are you...” Harvey stared at Liao Zixuan. “Who I am is not important...Humans, important, you, wake up, you, wake up.

Liao Zixuan shook his head and interrupted Harvey.

According to his previous life's experience, there were only two people who could awaken the incarnation of the Fire God in the human world, Archbishop Maggie. One was the future savior Damir, and the second was the uncle in front of him, Harvey.

He didn't know what was going on with Damir, but he had most likely sent it, so Liao Zixuan could only start with Harvey.

As for why he didn't go to Maggie himself...

The Fire God was like a time bomb. There were people ready to dismantle it, so why would he take the risk?

However, Harvey was obviously going on strike because he had been dealt a huge blow by Shirley.

Therefore, what Liao Zixuan wanted to do was to help the other party regain some confidence. To put it in simpler terms...

Scolding!

I really didn't expect that there would be an existence among you humans who could fight against that person. This is indeed surprising, but I'm also very curious. When your compatriots are fighting for you, you're just... Watch from behind?"

" This isn't like the courageous and outstanding commander I saw next to the Teleportation Gate. If I had known that you would become like this, perhaps I wouldn't have chosen to help you back then."

Liao Zixuan was very satisfied with his lines after secretly promoting Vivian and Shirley and secretly mocking Harvey. He then secretly looked at the players and found that they did not disappoint. The war reporters lived up to their reputation. Many of them looked like wooden people, obviously turning on the recording function.

Harvey's fingernails were digging into his flesh. It was obvious that he still hadn't walked out of Shirley's shadow. "Facing that monster, we... I can't do anything..

Good!

The password was correct!

I can't do anything. It's too classic and spicy!

Just as Liao Zixuan was about to continue his verbal attack, he did not expect another person to beat him to it.

Moreover, she was even more aggressive than him..

Chapter 142: Flirting Vivian!_I

Pa!

Chris slapped Harvey angrily.

“Bastard! To think that I was full of admiration for the legendary leader of the Knights of the Law of the Fire, but now it seems like, pui! It turned out that she was not even as good as a village girl from the countryside!

Liao Zixuan was originally very interested in Harry’s love line. It was indeed a well-deserved love line. However, after Chris said that even a village girl from the countryside was inferior to him, Liao Zixuan was stunned.

Wait a minute...

Something was wrong.

Elemental Perception!

Could he be talking about...Vivian?

Chris’s words immediately confirmed Liao Zixuan’s bad feeling.

“Back then, Vivian had to rely on her legs and run with the Vulcan Token! She ran to Fire Code City to report the news, and now, when we were all afraid and wanted to escape, it was her! She stood out alone and fulfilled her promise to save all of us!

“Harvey! As the commander of the Fire Law Knights, could it be...Could it be that he was not even as good as a little girl? Why is Vivian able to do it, but you can’t do anything? I’m telling you, it’s because Vivian hasn’t given up, and you have!

“Your current appearance is exactly the same as mine, who didn’t dare to leave the city just now. I was so afraid of death that I even abandoned my brothers! That’s why I’m very glad that I was able to meet Vivian at that time. She was like a goddess who helped me take this step, Harvey! Now, take a good look at the figure fighting in the sky. It’s time for you to take this step!!

Chris was so excited that he used his Thief body to pull Harvey up by the collar.

It wasn’t hard to tell that Chris’s three sentences were all about Vivian. He was a qualified Vivian.

Scolding was good.

But that was why...

Chris was trying his best to get Harvey to cheer up, but he didn’t notice Liao Zixuan’s increasingly friendly eyes.

so...

How did you get in touch with Vivian?

Liao Zixuan was filled with question marks.

More importantly, it sounded like they had met many times?? ?

Moreover, with your tone and expression, you can even say such a shameful word like goddess in public. Although it’s just an emotional outburst, there’s something wrong with you, something very wrong!

What happened to Harry? You’re cheating! It was betrayal!

Liao Zixuan had already begun to consider the consequences of killing Chris here.

TMD!

Damir wasn't enough, and now Chris?

Vivian, you!

Can you not be so flirtatious!

The little girl had grown up and was going to open a harem!?! I haven't even started yet, and you're already starting. Are you the main character or am I the main character? Can't you show some respect to the little wolf cub?

Liao Zixuan was a little depressed, but he was glad that he came out personally. Otherwise, he would still be kept in the dark by Vivian's pure and innocent appearance!

After all, there weren't many famous people in Fire Code City. Other than Harvey, the only other male characters were Damir and Underground Emperor Chris, who were nicknamed Boss Ke.

This was all thanks to the last remaining Blood Countess of the Sisre family. She was a female character and quite sad. Otherwise, Liao Zixuan suspected that Vivian would have taken her in as well.

He temporarily restrained his shark intent towards Chris.

After all, this guy was quite important, and he was going to be his tool. Liao Zixuan had to hurry up and get things done first. When it was over, he would settle the score properly. He would deal with everyone who dared to plot against Vivian!

"But... But what can I do..." Harvey was awakened by the scolding, but he was still confused and lacked a direction to work towards.

Even Chris couldn't tell the time. It was obviously beyond his scope. However, this kid was indeed a gangster. He looked at Liao Zixuan for help. This mysterious person who seemed to be on their side.

"Human, have you forgotten your beliefs?"

"You... You mean, Fire God? But..." Harvey had a bitter look on his face. He spoke intermittently. In fact, the biggest reason why he could break through his defense like this was because of Vulcan.

To be precise, it was the cruel truth that Liao Zixuan had told Xue Li.

The Fire God had switched sides. There was a problem.

Although Harvey had a vague feeling about it, he didn't believe it at that time. But now, the monsters had already reached their doorstep, and neither Fire God nor Maggie had any reaction. This simply confirmed Shirley's words.

The God of Fire had abandoned them.

It was even possible that all these disasters were personally created by the Fire God.

To Harvey, this was like being abandoned by his parents in the wilderness, He had no motivation to live and was ready to die.

"The God of Fire did not appear because there was something wrong with her body. Isn't this the time when we need you?"

"Don't always think about relying on gods, because even gods need to rely on mortals sometimes.

Was the Fire God a good god?

Yes, he loved his people like his own children, to the point where he even wanted to transform into a human clone to live with humans. However, it was also because of this that the Flame Domain was the country that relied the most on God among the Nine Great Countries.

This also led to the fact that when the Fire God wanted to ask her people for help, no one responded at all. It should be said that they did not have this consciousness.

“You... What do you mean? Fire God... Do you need us?” Harvey seemed to be awakened by Liao Zixuan’s words, and the depression in his heart suddenly became clear.

The reason why it had such a great effect..Alright, because this sentence was said by Harvey himself, he only realized it at the end of the plot in his previous life. Liao Zixuan just copied it.

“Go. The answer you want is on the top floor of the Fire God Tower.”

Liao Zixuan’s figure gradually blurred and faded. The fake time freeze soul space he created also began to slowly disappear.

‘ No, wait a minute. The entire city is sealed off. They definitely won’t let us in at this time. Even if we want to go to the Fire God Tower...’

Harvey quickly realized this problem.

Liao Zixuan finally revealed a kind smile again.

“Have you forgotten? Just now, the human beside you said that he ran out of the city after the monster tide arrived. I think since he could run out, he must have the ability to go back.

“Am I right?” Liao Zixuan glanced at Chris.

The little brat, who was still the leader of the hooligans, was originally extremely excited when he heard this. He had a hot-blooded feeling that he wanted to save the world, but after Liao Zixuan said this last sentence, Chris's expression froze on the spot.

Liao Zixuan was pleased with this.

Moreover, it's like my heart is bleeding when a secret passage is exposed. I know a lot of the secrets that you still have!

Finally, Liao Zixuan's figure disappeared and the soul space shattered. For Harvey and the others, the flow of the world returned to normal.

But this time...

"Let's go!"

"To the Fire God Tower!"

Liao Zixuan, who was among the refugees, watched as Harvey headed straight for the Fire God Tower under Chris's lead. Behind them, there were excited and eager players. They must be a few lucky players who had gotten a chance to take on such a rare storyline mission.

Liao Zixuan silently followed behind them.

After all, even though it sounded easy to say that we should help the gods, it was not that easy to do.

Sigh...

Forget it, I'll just treat it as a kindergarten principal experience.

By the way...

Who knows, he might even make the Fire God owe him a favor because of this?

If it were the other gods of the Nine Gods, Liao Zixuan would not be able to say for sure. However, the Fire God was really a good person. She was also known as the Old Holy Mother. He had helped her so much. It was not too much to say that he owed her a favor.

Thinking of this, Liao Zixuan suddenly became full of motivation. He had to keep an eye on Harvey and the others so that nothing could happen to them.

After all, that was a favor from the Nine Gods!

It wasn't too much to share a [Heart of God] with him!

Chapter 143: If None of This Is True Love, What Is It?_I

' Sir Harvey, you see, this can be considered my contribution to Fire Law City.

After this matter is over, can you just treat it as nothing..."

Chris led Harvey and the other Players into Fire Code City through his secret passage. The leader of the hooligans rubbed his hands awkwardly.

This feeling was like a student copying homework in front of a teacher. Although it was a righteous copying, the homework would probably be confiscated later.

As expected.

"You wish! Do you know that illegal immigration is a serious crime in Fire Law City? It's already good enough that I didn't catch you on the spot!

As expected, Harvey glared at Chris, his nose almost crooked from anger.

He really did not expect that someone could actually create such a secret passage that connected to the city right under the eyes of his City Defense Army.

Moreover, looking at how skilled Chris was, he had probably used it many times in secret.

“Humph! Stingy and pedantic! Stingy! You meddling cop!”

Seeing Harvey’s merciless look, Chris immediately became dispirited. He had spent a lot of effort to build this secret passage back then. Of course, it had also brought him a lot of convenience and considerable income. In the end, it was gone. Of course, he was heartbroken.

But Chris couldn’t do anything to Harvey, so he could only curse and mutter under his breath to vent his dissatisfaction.

She was like a little wife who was bullied.

Liao Zixuan, who was secretly observing with his Soul Vision, expressed that this was the Harry Couple.

so...

Vivian, why did you stick your foot in the middle of others! Soulless!

“Cut the crap. Don’t forget our mission. Let’s go!” Harvey kicked Chris’s butt, who still had a bitter expression on his face, and urged him to continue leading the way.

Fire God Tower was located at the edge of the inner city, and they were currently in the outer city. In order to hurry, it was faster to go through the alleys than to take the main road. In this regard, Harvey still had to rely on Chris, who was a local gangster.

Just like that, the group of people took many turns. Because they were walking on small paths and the current Fire Code City had become extremely chaotic due to the battle outside the city, no one noticed them at all.

Soon, after running out of an alley, a tall and straight mage tower appeared in front of them.

Just as Harvey was still pondering how to explain to the guards of the Fire God Tower why they had climbed the tower, Harvey was surprised to find that the elite soldiers at the entrance of the tower were nowhere to be seen. There were only a few strange ones that were screaming...Sheep?

Puff...

Liao Zixuan was stunned when he saw this classic scene.

Caster's Tier 3 Classic Spell—Polymorph Sheep

It seemed that no matter how the world line changed, Damir would never change the fact that he liked to use Polymorph on his own people.

Dhamir! Harvey quickly reacted.

“He should have gone to the top of the tower to find Maggie before us, but why... Forget it, let's go quickly!”

With a wave of his hand, Harvey took the lead and ran into the tower, preparing to climb to the top floor.

However, before Chris and the gamers could catch up, they heard a heavy thud. Harvey, who had just entered the tower, was sent flying.

“Ahem...Cough cough...” The Sword of Solar Flare was placed horizontally in front of Harvey’s chest. Even with the magic weapon’s offset, Harvey’s armor was still charred black.

“Yes, it’s the fire element.”

Harvey coughed and stood up with his sword.

Everyone followed his voice and looked into the Fire God Tower. They could see a blurry figure of a flame giant blocking the stairs at the entrance.

“Little guys, if we want to go up, we have to fight this big guy! ”

Wiping the blood from the corner of his mouth, Harvey quickly said to Chris and the gamers,” “Don’t be afraid. Although the elemental creatures are very strong, their weakness is also very obvious. It is the core located in the heart. As long as the core is broken, they will dissipate on their own.

“After that, you guys go and help me attract the fire elemental’s attention. Then, I’ll go around to its back and give it a fatal blow!

Harvey’s expression was serious. Although Harvey was not a spellcaster, he knew that summoning Fire Elementals was a Tier 4 Extraordinary Spell. There was only one person in the entire Fire Code City who could do it.

Margie was trying to stop anyone from entering her mage tower, even using the extremely destructive fire element.

There was a problem.

There was definitely a big problem at the top of the tower.

It was useless to be anxious now. After Harvey had formulated a strategy, Chris reluctantly fumbled around in his arms and took out several potion bottles and small props.

Err... You're asking me how I found it?

Do you know how valuable a Thief is? If his clothes weren't full of things, how could he call himself a thief?

When the players and Liao Zixuan's eyes swept over...

[Undercover Dust], [Knife Oil], [Fierce Spider Poison], [Low-level Shock Absorption Rune], [Stun Spray], [Corpse Destruction Powder], [Explosion Trap]...

There were even precious potions. Although it was only an Intermediate Agility Enhancement Potion, Chris's expression was even more painful than when the secret passage was discovered.

From this, it could be seen how powerful Vivian's unconditionally large-scale attribute halo was.

On the other side, Harvey saw Chris taking out more and more items. He was stunned at first, but then his expression became very interesting. It was as if he was re-evaluating this "ordinary" hooligan in front of him, especially after the prohibited items that were strictly investigated in Fire Code City appeared. "Poison and physical attacks are ineffective against elemental creatures."

Harvey gulped down the Agility Potion and sprinkled the "Stealth Dust" on his body. His figure instantly blurred, concealing his aura and temporarily obtaining the Stealth ability of a Bandit.

"Oh right, after this incident is over, if you still have any illegal things, quickly hand them over to the city guards. Don't force me to catch you myself!"

After saying this, Harvey rushed into the tower again without seeing Chris's shocked expression.

"Bastard! I think you're the robber, you... You, you, you, be a human!" Chris was furious.

That look was exactly the same as when the other party refused to pay him after he was prostitutes, and instead arrogantly asked him to pay him back.

Despicable!

I'm really cheap!

I'll help you again in the future, you bastard!

Chris only wanted to slap himself a few times.

Then, he happened to catch a glimpse of the players who were also waiting for Chris to give them the items.

Just as he was about to give some life-saving items to these foreigners, he felt the pinch. After all, they all had to undertake the dangerous mission of attracting the attention of the fire elements. If they were not careful, they might die.

But at this moment, Harvey, who had left earlier, returned.

"What are you guys still waiting for?"

"You, oh right, what's your name?"

"Humph!" Chris shook his head. He was not going to foolishly tell the other party his name. He was just waiting to cause trouble for himself later.

Harvey didn't mind. He held Chris 'hand that was passing the item to the player and quickly continued,"

“Don’t give them props.”

“Even if you die a hundred times, these foreigners won’t really die. So, keep these to protect your own life. I don’t want to invite a corpse to Charm for a drink after this.

“What? Oh, okay... Alright then.” Although Chris didn’t really understand, since Harvey had said so, he was naturally willing to leave the good stuff, especially those that could save his life, for himself.

Of course, Chris also understood what Harvey meant by his last sentence. The hooligan’s face blushed a little, which was rare. It was unknown if it was because of the reputation of the Charm Bar or something else. Therefore, a world where only the players were injured was achieved!

The players beside him were speechless.

Liao Zixuan, who was secretly munching on melon seeds, expressed that he was super sweet! This is too sweet! If this wasn’t true love, then what was it?

So Vivian...

You’ve done all kinds of bad things! Go, Harvey! Don’t lose to that bad woman, Vivian! Take back Chris that belongs to you!

For the sake of the tens of millions of players in the future, Liao Zixuan decided to withdraw his original intention of attacking and create opportunities for Harvey and Chris.

Yes.

He was just creating an opportunity, not because he wanted to waste Chris ‘equipment.

After all, Vivian was also very outstanding. It was normal for men to be attracted to little girls. Liao Zixuan would not hold a grudge because of this and seize the opportunity to take revenge..

Chapter 144: Cute Wolf Cub Won ‘t Become One-Punch Superman (1)

In the hall on the first floor of the Fire God Tower.

The five-meter-tall fire elemental giant was wandering back and forth unconsciously.

The flames on its body crackled, and waves of heat spread out from it, raising the temperature of the entire hall.

Harvey, who was in Stealth, stood at the entrance of the Fire God Tower. He gulped nervously and tightened his grip on the Sword of Solar Flare.

If it was possible, even he did not want to fight with such a Tier 3 elemental creature,

However, the fire elemental giant stayed close to the stairs leading to the upper floor, doing its best to eliminate all intruders.

This was the only way to climb the tower and find Maggie.

“Is everything ready?” Harvey asked in a deep voice for the last time. Behind him, Chris and the other gamers nodded nervously.

“Then let’s follow our plan...Move out!”

After Harvey finished his last two words, Chris immediately sprinted out. The moment he crossed the horizontal line at the entrance of the hall, the Fire Elemental Giant that was wandering around unconsciously immediately turned its head 180 degrees.

The fire elemental giant’s reaction speed was far beyond Chris’s imagination.

Chris had only taken a few steps into the tower when the other party took large strides as well. In just a breath's time, he had arrived in front of Chris.

The fire elemental flames turned into a palm and clenched it into a terrifying fist that looked like a fireball. It went straight for Chris's face.

Oh no!

Chris seemed to have been enveloped by the fire elemental fist and had nowhere to hide. Harvey's eyelids twitched when he saw this scene. He subconsciously forgot his plan and wanted to remove his invisibility to save Chris.

However, Liao Zixuan, who was hiding in the dark, did not panic at all. He even clicked his tongue.

Because in the next moment, a strange scene happened. Just as Chris was about to be punched flat by the Flame Giant, another Chris suddenly appeared from the shadow, and its location...

Coincidentally, it was behind the fire element!

Tier 2 Thief Class, Hidden Rare Skill-Fake Body

Chris's fake body dissipated into the raging flames under the fire element's fist.

Meanwhile, Chris's main body used the fire element to attack the back of his fake body and stabbed the dagger in his hand fiercely at the heart of the other party's back, which was defenseless.

It could only be said that he was worthy of being the future Legendary Bandit, the boss of the underground forces in Fire Code City.

Even though Chris was only a Tier 2 Bandit hooligan and had yet to obtain the precious Legacy of the Treasure Thief Guild, with his innate talent as a Bandit, he had almost single-handedly killed the Fire Elementals, which were considered troublesome even for Tier 3 players.

yes, ne almost completea a SOLO Kill.

Under Chris's excited expression, he heard a crisp "ding" from his dagger, followed by an extremely strong rebound, causing his entire right arm to instantly go numb.

The fire elemental giant roared in pain.

At the core of its back, there was a dagger scratch that was neither deep nor shallow.

Chris had done everything well, but he had overestimated his strength as a Thief and the sharpness of his dagger in this final step.

Although the core of the fire elemental giant was damaged, Chris had not completely shattered it. For elemental creatures, as long as the core was not shattered, even if they were injured, they could quickly recover.

The surrounding air was filled with the power of the elements. In the blink of an eye, the crack in the core that had just been cut open by Chris 'dagger was filled.

Hence, the situation instantly reversed. Now, it was Chris's turn to be in a stiff state after the attack, not to mention that his entire arm was temporarily paralyzed by the rebound force.

On the other hand, the Fire Elemental Giant didn't even need to turn around. Its arms and head turned 180 degrees again. In less than half a second, it aimed at Chris, who was originally behind it.

The enraged flaming giant fist, mixed with an incomparably violent force, smashed ferociously towards Chris in the air.

This is bad!

This time, he was really done for!

One of the biggest taboos for Thieves was that they could not sneak up on their enemies and kill them in one hit. Once the enemy caught their breath, they would be the unlucky ones.

Chris was panicking because he had no room to dodge at all. Moreover, this was his real body. He barely used his remaining left arm to block, but everyone knew that this was just a mantis trying to stop a chariot. With his weak body as a Thief, if he really took this angry punch from the Fire Elemental Giant, even if he didn't die, he would definitely be crippled for the rest of his life.

However...

Even so, Chris still felt a little proud.

Although he had failed to kill the Fire Elemental Giant alone, his plan had still succeeded. He had successfully angered the Fire Elemental Giant and made it focus all its attention on him.

At this moment, the opponent's back was exposed to Harvey.

Bastard!

You must break the core!

This is me...This is a chance that I've exchanged for by lying in bed paralyzed for the rest of my life!

Unexpectedly.

Chris had always thought that he was a cowardly person. However, the Fire Elemental Giant's fist was about to hit his face, but the image of a young girl appeared in his mind.

Vivian...

Do you see, I'm just like you... Brave! He dared to take this step like you!

Unfortunately...

I'm afraid I won't be able to... I can't get close to you anymore...

Chris had never thought that this would be the last thought that popped up in his mind.

Of course, Chris would never have imagined that the image of the flaming fist smashing him into pieces did not appear.

This was because a middle-aged man had blocked his way with his sword.

Thump!

There was a loud sound like muffled thunder.

Harvey and Chris were sent flying and smashed into the wall of the Fire God Tower's hall. The violent force caused the wall to crack.

Fortunately, a blue light flashed on Chris 'body, and then a rune shattered, which offset the force of the shock. Otherwise, even if it was just an aftershock, it would have been enough to break his bones and paralyze him.

"Cough cough...Cough, you...You, why did you!"

He coughed out a few mouthfuls of blood clots and climbed up from the broken stones on the wall.

Chris looked at Harvey, who had been sent flying with him and helped him bear most of the impact. He was also slowly getting up. His face was filled with anger, but there was also a hint of unspoken gratitude.

“Damn it, I said...Cough, cough, cough...I’ve said it before, I don’t want to... * Cough cough * Inviting a corpse to drink! ”

The dejected and dejected Harvey retorted.

“You... Are you stupid? Am I more important or is saving Fire Code City more important?? You missed such a good opportunity just now. Let me ask you, what do you do now?”

Chris pointed at the Fire Elemental Giant, who was ready to throw another punch and was charging at them.

“I don’t care! They are all important to me! As for the method...Just think about it again! Run!”

Under the Fire Elemental’s Fury state, the fiery giant fist attacked again. Harvey hurriedly pulled Chris and tried to dodge to the side.

But at this moment...

A sigh seemed to come from the void.

Then, Chris and Harvey, who were in a sorry state, saw a flash in front of their eyes.

Then, a familiar man in a gown appeared in front of them.

Directly facing... The Fire Elemental Giant’s Furious Fiery Fist.

“I said..

“Hey.”

“A fire elemental giant has forced you into this state.

Liao Zixuan shook his head helplessly as he looked at the two good friends who were still hugging each other and dodging each other.

Chris and Harvey, as well as the players who had agreed to attract attention together, were all looking at Liao Zixuan in shock.

To be precise, it was Liao Zixuan’s palm that blocked the fire elemental giant’s violent fist.

Just as Liao Zixuan wanted to tease these two good friends, the fire elemental giant was unhappy.

It let out an angry roar again. It really could not understand why this person in front of it could make its fist unable to move forward at all. They were clearly insignificant humans.

The Fire Elemental Giant, who had low intelligence, chose to use its other arm and swung it at Liao Zixuan.

And this action ultimately hastened its demise.

“Sigh...”

“I say, you too.”

“Didn’t you see that? Am I talking?”

Liao Zixuan only made two moves when the fire elemental giant raised a gust of wind and swung its several-meter-long thick flaming arm at him.

He turned around and swung his other fist.

Boom!

The two quickly collided, and the result was obvious.

Kacha...

Kacha kacha...

From the arm to the entire body, terrifying cracks could not be stopped.

Finally, they reached the core of the fire elemental giant's heart.

Kacha!

Chris and Harvey swore that this was definitely the most beautiful voice they had ever heard in their lives..

Chapter 145: Future Legendary NPCs Won't Want to Become Disciples (1)

Bang!

A violent explosion sounded. The body of the fire elemental giant, along with its core, turned into molten debris and exploded, splashing everywhere in the hall of the tower.

It seemed that the entire process was too fast, and the core fragment still had the scorching heat of the fire element.

When the molten debris came into contact with the ground and walls of the tower, it sizzled and smoke rose, burning holes.

This caused the originally exquisitely constructed hall of the Fire God Tower to become a little difficult to look at. It was filled with ruins.

Err...

It seemed like he had indeed used too much strength.

Because the last target Liao Zixuan had personally attacked was the Fallen Abyss Bone Dragon, he subconsciously used the same strength. In the end, he did not expect to directly blow up the fire elemental giant.

Yes, in all sorts of ways.

It was like having a small bug on one's clothes. One could choose to wave it away or slap it flat in excitement. However, if it was the latter, one would have to bear the price of having their clothes stained with the green bug's juice.

Thank you. I'm already disgusted by the image. I can't take the clothes anymore.

Eh? What was that?

So this is not my clothes. Oh, then it's fine.

"Cough cough..

"I'm really sorry. When I saw that you were beaten up so badly by it, I thought that it had some strength, but now it seems that... I overestimated it and didn't control my strength well."

As a person, oh no, as a wolf, one had to have some manners.

However, facing Liao Zixuan's sincere apology, Chris and Harvey, who had just realized what had happened, twitched their mouths. Their expressions were subtle as if they wanted to say something but hesitated.

A Irioh!

I'm really sorry that we're so weak!

Ignoring Chris and Harvey who had been hit hard, Liao Zixuan could feel the elemental fluctuations in the Fire God Tower. He shook his head and said, "It seems that the Fire God's situation is much worse than I imagined."

"I can sense that there are far more than one elemental creature guard like this in the tower. In fact, the higher you go, the more there are."

After Liao Zixuan said this, Harvey and Chris' faces turned pale.

This was because they were already having a hard time dealing with a Fire Elemental Giant. If there were really more to come...

Seeing the despair on the faces of these two future Legendary NPCs, Liao Zixuan sighed in his heart. As expected, he was too anxious.

In fact, this scene seems familiar to the West Channel.

In the game's storyline in his previous life, there was also the Fire God Tower. Even the main NPCs were exactly the same. Moreover, because it was too classic, the game automatically generated a dungeon for future players to repeatedly team up to challenge.

However, the difference between now and his previous life was that it was already the end of the version of the Flame Domain, and it could be considered the final battle.

Harvey had long since grasped the power of the Sword of Solar Flare and advanced to the Tier 1+ Glorious Knight rank. Chris had also become a Transcendent Bandit under the legacy of the Treasure Thief Guild. Finally, there was also the Transcendent Great Mage Damir.

With such a luxurious lineup, they led the players who had reached the level limit and were stuck at level 30 to climb the tower and conquer the final

Ultimate Boss, Archbishop Maggie, who had been corrupted by the Fallen Abyss.

Thinking about it, that experience back then was indeed quite exciting and nostalgic.

Damir's current situation was unknown, and Harvey and Chris's official cheats had yet to arrive. As for the players...Uh, okay, do you expect war journalists to go up and fight?

It seemed that he had no choice but to act tough.

Sighing (ecstatic)

"Human, on account of my many years of friendship with the Fire God, I will help you one last time.
"Once he started acting tough, Liao Zixuan couldn't stop himself. He never needed to cut grass to make up nonsense.

In any case, it was difficult for the Fire God to coincidentally hear him if he was secretly trying to get close. "Follow me closely."

On the other side.

And...Because of their many years of friendship with the Fire God?

The players were still fine, but they were more curious. After all, the Fire God was just a more powerful NPC to them. However, Harvey and Chris were completely different.

After hearing Liao Zixuan's words, which contained a lot of information, the two of them were almost petrified on the spot, and their jaws dropped in shock.

Most importantly, the two of them really believed it. After all, in their eyes, just the casual punch that destroyed the fire elemental giant was enough to subvert their understanding of power.

Then, when they quickly recovered from the shock and chased Liao Zixuan upstairs, the scene that appeared next made Harvey and Chris even more convinced.

Bang!

Bang! Bang!

Was it nice? It sounded like a good fire element.

Liao Zixuan was right. There were indeed many Fire Elemental Guards wandering in the tower, but he was wrong because these Fire Elemental Guards had all turned into pieces of slag.

One punch.

He really only used one punch.

All of them were Tier 3 Elemental Creatures, and they had violent fire elements as their core. Just any one of them was enough to fight against an entire team of well-trained elite knights. None of the Elemental Giants could last a second time against the mysterious man in the suit.

Gulp...

Carefully stepping over the ground, Chris swallowed his saliva with difficulty.

He used his elbow to poke at Harvey, who was standing next to him with a similarly stiff expression. He was the strongest Tier 3 Warrior in Fire Code City.

“Ha... Harvey, you know, I didn’t... He hadn’t studied for many years, and that fellow said that he had a relationship with Lord Fire God. Then he had to... How many years have you lived?”

“How many years? You should say centuries! Also, let me remind you that you should show some respect to this ancient and mysterious powerful existence. Don’t call him that guy.

Harvey lowered his voice and glared at Chris warningly.

“Oh, okay, I know... I know, I know, I know

However, a hooligan was still a hooligan. Chris rolled his eyes. He saw that Liao Zixuan was really relying solely on strength. No fancy tricks were of any use. He punched and destroyed all the Fire Elemental Guards in his way, allowing them to reach the top of the tower at the speed of light as if they were on a through train. Chris’s mouth was dry and he swallowed a few times.

Don’t misunderstand.

Chris was imagining Liao Zixuan as himself. If he could have such power, no, even if it was only half or a quarter, would he be qualified to have some story with the white moonlight goddess in his heart? Was he by Vivian’s side? Or even chase...Chase...

Chris’s face turned red. He was so shy that he didn’t dare to say the last word.

Chris might be a small gangster, but when it came to love, he was like Damir, an old MT.

Seeing that they were about to reach the top of the tower, Chris finally couldn’t hold it in any longer. His restless heart because of the little girl made him even more eager for power.

Therefore, women were always the best catalyst for men to move forward.

With such a great opportunity in front of him, how could Chris not be tempted?

So, he quietly tugged at the corner of Harvey's clothes, rubbed his hands, and asked nervously,"

"Harvey, go ahead."

"I, um, if I go to that house...Bah! If that lord wants to take you as his master..."

"He.... How can I kill you?"

Chapter 146: I'm Really a Motherf * cking Genius! 1

"Hu! That was close, that was close.

He patted off the dust that had accidentally come into contact with his clothes.

On the top floor of the Fire God Tower, at the door of Archbishop Maggie's room, Liao Zixuan heaved a sigh of relief. He was not exaggerating here.

Who would have thought that the one guarding the last floor would be a super-large Elemental Giant formed by the fusion of at least four to five Fire Elementals?

Its power was so fierce and powerful that Liao Zixuan had no choice but to punch out a second time.

"Fortunately, it seems... I'm still a little stronger than them.

Since they were not family, Liao Zixuan made the same classic “a little” gesture as the little girl.

“Alright, I can only send you here. Next, you’ll have to rely on yourself.

Liao Zixuan said as he moved his back out of the way. That was the door to Archbishop Maggie’s room.

There had to be a limit to how pretentious he was.

Further in was the real Fire God. Although it was only an incarnation of the human world, with his current strength, he could still fool Harvey, Chris, and the players who had never seen the world. However, if he was in front of the Fire God, his true colors would be revealed.

It was like how Harvey and the others knew that a full score on a test paper was 100 points, and Liao Zixuan was the one who scored full marks.

However, in reality, the world was a big place. There were tens of thousands of test papers, and the Fire God was the type who would always get full marks no matter how many marks he got on the test paper.

The ceiling of the nine gods in God Fall was just that terrifying.

Oh, you’re asking how much Fallen Abyss can get?

Did he even need to take the test? The other party would tear the paper, as many as they could.

“Our Fire Code City will never forget your help! Lord Fire God is also... I will definitely feel honored to have a close friend like you who can help in times of danger!

The commander of the Fire Code Knights knelt down on one knee in front of Liao Zixuan. This was the highest level of the knight salute, second only to the loyalty salute.

Whether it was his words or his actions, it was obvious that Harvey had already regarded Liao Zixuan as the same level as the Fire God. He even boldly guessed that Liao Zixuan might be one of the other eight gods.

After all, only the gods of the other eight countries could have a relationship with the Fire God and talk about it so casually.

This was also the reason why Harvey could say those words.

“Cough cough, let’s end this topic here. Also... Regarding the matter between me and the Fire God...”

Liao Zixuan’s face was filled with vicissitudes. His eyes seemed to be looking at a very distant place, and his eyes were filled with memories.

Then, he pretended to sigh.

“The story between me and the Fire God is too complicated. It’s difficult to explain the origins of it to you...In short, she might have already forgotten about me. Therefore, I hope that you will not mention this matter again. This is not only good for me, but also for the Fire God. Liao Zixuan said to Harvey seriously.

Nonsense.

He really didn’t expect Harvey to be so good at boasting. Good heavens, even the God of Fire would feel honored to have a friend like me. If the God of Fire really heard this, no matter how gentle and kind he was, Liao Zixuan would feel a chill down his spine.

“What? Oh, okay... Alright, as you wish.” A strange expression flashed across Harvey’s face, but he quickly suppressed it out of respect.

However, when Liao Zixuan saw the paparazzi behind Harvey, his eyes were glowing with green light as if they had caught some big news. Liao Zixuan instantly understood an old saying.

If you want to cover a lie, you have to use ten new lies to cover it.

And...

What did it mean to be struck by lightning for acting tough?

It was fine. Vulcan did not have a player system. She could not go to the player forum to read the posts. It was fine.

Liao Zixuan comforted himself.

“Ahem.”

He quickly used his cough technique to get back on track.

“I’ll give you one last suggestion.” Liao Zixuan recalled how Harvey and Damir had woken up Maggie, who had lost control, in the plot of his previous life.

“If I remember correctly, other than the sword in your hand, the fire...That archbishop should have given you other special items, right?”

“Other special tools? Could it be that you mean... This?”

Harvey was stunned and confused at first, but then he suddenly understood. He quickly lowered his head and took off a crystal clear necklace that was shaped like a water droplet from his neck.

Focus Necklace!

It was not produced in the Fire Domain of the Fire God Realm, but rather, it was taken from the neighboring Water God Kingdom, which was also the home of Fallen God Version 2.0, Thousand Islands.

According to the plot of his previous life, this necklace was extremely important. It was one of the key items to connect the two versions.

But now.

“Remember one thing.”

“Light comes from darkness, and light comes from darkness.”

Liao Zixuan’s figure gradually disappeared. He told Harvey the most classic line that Damir had said in the plot of his previous life.

Just as Harvey was deep in thought because of his words, he seemed to have grasped something, but also seemed to have missed something.

Chris, who was beside him, saw that Liao Zixuan was about to disappear again. He hurriedly mustered up his courage and shouted out the words that he had been holding back for a long time.

“Big... My lord! I, can I see you again? I want to worship you as my master, I also want to obtain the same powerful strength as you!”

Ignoring Harvey’s anxious gaze, Chris looked at Liao Zixuan with sincerity and desire.

This might be the reason why Chris was able to become a prominent figure in the future. He had the courage, the ability to take action, and even more so, he was willing to give it a try even if the chances were slim.

After all, what if?

That was what Chris thought.

What he did not expect was that the other party actually seemed to be interested and asked him a question.

“Oh?” Liao Zixuan raised his eyebrows. He was indeed amused by Chris.

Out of curiosity, Liao Zixuan asked,”

“Tell me, why do you want power?”

However, after asking this question, Liao Zixuan regretted it.

That was because...

“Because! I have someone I admire! She was the one who was fighting the monsters in the air outside the city! “Therefore, I also want to obtain strength. In this way, I will be qualified to stand by her side and fight alongside her! With her...

With her...”

Chris’s face turned red. He didn’t dare to lie to Liao Zixuan. Besides, there was nothing to lie about. This was the most honest thought in his heart.

In the past, perhaps his life goal was to join the legendary Treasure Thief Group, but now...

Chris realized that the back of the little girl in the alley, who had resolutely left the city to fight alone, could no longer be erased from his heart.

On the other side.

He... tui!

Pah!

In your dreams!

I'm so angry!

Liao Zixuan didn't want to bother with him anymore. He wanted to leave as soon as possible because he was afraid that if he stayed any longer, the future of this world would be short of a Legendary Bandit.

However, he suddenly had an idea.

Alright.

Haha.

You like to pursue Vivian, right?

"Your talent means that you can't walk my path. However, I can give you some guidance in a limited area.

When Chris heard that he couldn't take this path, his expression instantly became dispirited. However, when he heard Liao Zixuan say that he could give guidance, his expression immediately changed and he became ecstatic.

Even Harvey, who was about to apologize for Chris' rudeness, widened his eyes at Liao Zixuan's words.

After all, in his heart, Liao Zixuan was on the same level as the Fire God, and to be able to receive the guidance of the Fire God...

F * ck!

Harvey began to wonder if it was too late for him to become a disciple now.

However, Liao Zixuan wouldn't let Chris off so easily. The real trap for this bastard was behind him.

"However, I have a condition.

"The Fire God often tells me about the human she's most proud of. It seems to be called... Damir? If you can defeat him, then I'll acknowledge your determination to become stronger and point out the next path for you." Aren't you two bastards plotting against my little girl?

Alright, then you guys fight first! It was recommended to beat him to death!

This grandpa is really a genius!

After this sentence, Liao Zixuan's figure was only a little blurry.

At this moment, Chris seemed to have thought of something and hurriedly asked,"

"Teacher! I'll definitely defeat that Damir. And me, I still don't know your name!

Good fellow, you even called me teacher. This shamelessness is really worthy of you!

Liao Zixuan finally disappeared from the top level of the Fire God Tower. His final words echoed in everyone's ears.

"You can call me...

“Are NPCs so casually named these days? Could it be that the lazy copywriter was too lazy to name it?”

However, no matter what, Bi Weirong was still very excited. He looked at his notebook and saw that he had added a new member to the list of “ Taking stock of all the important NPCs in the closed beta stage ” that he had prepared for the next forum column.

[NPC Name: White]

[Identity: unknown](He has an unclear relationship with the Fire God. He is suspected to be one of the Nine Gods.)

[Faction: unknown] However, from the looks of it, it should be playing the role of a good person in the plot, on the same side as the players.

[Relationship Network: Old Friend of the Fire God, and then... Master Chris?

(Not sure)

[Combat Power: S. Currently in the closed beta, it should be the ceiling level.

For reference, Vivian A+, Harvey B+, Chris B-]

[Personal Evaluation: He should be a hidden BOSS character in the main storyline. However, due to his strength, I believe that he doesn't have many opportunities to appear. It's very rare and can only be seen in key storyline events. Bai's main function seems to be to act as a guide.]

His attitude towards the players is unknown. Whether he is a suitable target for the players is unknown. If there are players who are willing to try, they might be able to use Chris as a breakthrough.”

[In addition, it is worth noting that the other party's personality is suspected to have elements of Versailles. If you are lucky enough to come into contact with Bai, please pay attention. Perhaps you can use this to gain Bai's favorability.]

"To put it bluntly, this name...It sounds a little familiar. I feel like I've heard the same thing somewhere before..." After looking at her record with satisfaction, Bi Weirong suddenly frowned.

She could only say that she was indeed a professional blogger, Bi Weirong, and another name popped up in her mind.

mao meal.

In Vivian's arms, there was the wolf cub that was almost inseparable from her.

Little Black, Black...

Hiss...

Could there be any connection between the two?

This thought flashed through her mind, but Bi Wei Rong did not write it down in the end. After all, this was just a whim of his and had no basis to speak of. With a professional attitude, he definitely could not put it in the column.

But then again...

Now that Vivian was mentioned.

Bi Weirong watched as Harvey and Chris worked together to push the entrance to Archbishop Maggie's room. The tall and ancient flaming door was slowly opening, and her heart was filled with excitement.

Because Bi Wei Rong knew that he would be able to come into contact with the biggest secret of this closed beta plot, which was also the truth behind everything.

At the same time, if his guess was correct, he would be able to slap some people in the face on the forum and completely clear his beloved Vivian's name. He would also give Vivian justice!

Yes, my beloved Vivian.

At first, Bi Wei Rong had no feelings for Vivian. Her impression of the little girl was that she was just a very popular NPC. In fact, because Vivian was too popular at that time, the forum was flooded with her videos. This made Bi Wei Rong feel a little disgusted. This was not rare. When a group of people bragged about something, some passersby who knew nothing about it would naturally feel disgusted.

However, all of this changed when Bi Wei Rong was also attracted to Red Flame Town because of the little Phoenix's [Fortitude Recovery] skill. After she saw what Vivian did up close, she finally stood up alone outside the Fire Code City and faced millions of monsters. After she single-handedly turned the tide of the battle, she completely fell.

Angel!

If this wasn't an angel, then what was?

But even so, on the game forum, there were still a lot of clowns who kept slandering Vivian as a villain witch.

Their core evidence came from the screenshot of the hidden mission [Block the Portal] that Vivian had sent to a few players in Red Flame Town.

What left a deep impression on Bi Wei Rong was a hater player with the ID

[Most Handsome Wolf]. The other party seemed to like to smear Vivian on the Internet and kept promoting the words of the villain witch, which made Bi Wei Rong gnash her teeth.

There were a few times when he wanted to refute and defend Vivian, but she took a screenshot of the mission and arrogantly used his little angel's famous saying to change her skin. She said sarcastically, if this is not considered a villain, then what is?

Bi Wei Rong Rong was speechless. Even he could not figure out why Vivian did this, but Bi Wei Rong still believed that Vivian must have had a purpose for doing this. Perhaps it was something that they did not know.

When they arrived, the portal changed drastically and could not be closed. After countless Fallen Abyss monsters attacked Fire Code City through the portal, Bi Wei Rong finally figured out everything. He immediately raised his pen and retaliated on the Internet, saying that Vivian's mission to stop the portal was probably because she noticed this and wanted to prevent the disaster from coming.

But who would have thought that the most handsome wolf, Vivian's brainless hater, would turn around and say that Vivian was the one who caused the portal to go wrong.

The most infuriating thing was that even now, Vivian had stood up to protect Fire Code City by herself. This player called "The Handsome Wolf Cub" was still stubborn. He insisted that it was all Vivian's plan and the witch's trap. He said that this was all a play directed by the little girl to increase her prestige.

The most direct way to deal with this kind of brainless slander was to take out evidence and slap it on his face.

As long as they could prove that the problem of the portal had nothing to do with Vivian, or even directly expose the mastermind behind the disaster, everything would be revealed. And all that Bi Weirong wanted was...

Thump!

With a muffled sound, the heavy ancient door of Maggie's room was finally pushed open.

What followed was a surprised voice.

“Ha... Uncle Harvey?”

However, after the pleasant surprise, it was followed by the sound of surprise.

“Not good! Harvey, be careful! Teacher, she, she!”

Chapter 148: The Correct Way to Use a Player in the Land

Boom!

The fireball with terrifying heat brushed past where Harvey had been standing and hit the wall of the opposite tower. A visible melted dent appeared on the wall.

“You still want to!” Relying on the danger warning from the Thief, Chris successfully pounced on Harvey and dodged the Open Door Kill.

After pulling Harvey up from the ground, Chris glanced at the wall behind him that had been hit by the Fireball.

“Are you sure that the one inside is Archbishop Maggie? The one you were bragging about earlier, the one who had a deep friendship with you?”

“She... She was indeed so passionate towards me in the past.

Harvey, who was still in shock, stood up and added another sentence to make it easier for Chris to understand.

“However, it was after I fooled around in Charm Night Bar for a night.

It was amazing that Harvey could still be so talkative at a time like this.

It could be seen that he had been suppressed by Xue Li's despair for too long. After breaking through this shackle, that flirtatious and cold middle-aged man returned.

At this moment, Damir's anxious shout came from Maggie's room again.

"Uncle Harvey, you...Are you alright? Are you still alive?"

Harvey immediately rolled his eyes.

"Even if you die, I won't die!"

Finally, Harvey cut to the chase, and his voice became more serious. After the opening of the door, he didn't rush into Maggie's room. Instead, he shouted into the room.

"Damir, quickly tell me what is going on!"

Chris, who was originally nervous, was stunned when he heard Harvey call out Damir.

Damir?

Wasn't this the person Lord Bai had mentioned to him before? The person he wanted to defeat?

It was actually inside?

On the other side, Damir, who was trapped in Maggie's Flame Cage, didn't know what Chris was up to. He also didn't know that he had been secretly tricked by someone, and that he would have a difficult opponent in the future.

The genius young mage of Fire Code City was anxiously reporting everything he had found to Harvey who was outside.

“Uncle Harvey, Mr. Maggie...’Teacher is being controlled by something. I can sense the same evil aura from her body as when I was in the Dreadclaw Forest!

“I was imprisoned by my teacher using magic. The reason why the Teleportation Gate outside couldn’t be closed was because my teacher was still chanting an incantation to maintain it. We must stop Teacher now!

Although he was mentally prepared, Harvey’s heart still skipped a beat after hearing Damir’s words.

It was still the same sentence.

The idea was beautiful, but the problem was, how could it be realized?

“Damir, so you mean to say that we have to rely on the few of us who are half-baked, and then count in some of the more stinky outlanders behind us, to stop a Tier 4 Extraordinary Mage?”

Player: Are you polite?

Oh, it seems like we haven’t been of any use since we climbed the tower.

Then it was fine.

Endure!

After all, this was only the internal testing phase. It was not the home ground for the players. Yes, they were in charge of watching the cutscenes and the plot.

But unexpectedly.

When Damir heard that there was a group of undying foreigners behind Harvey, his eyes lit up and his face lit up.

“That’s great! Uncle Harvey, I have an idea now. Listen carefully!

“Although Teacher Maggie is indeed very strong, the current teacher clearly has no intelligence. She is only a puppet controlled by evil power. In addition, not only does teacher have to maintain the teleportation door, but she also has to maintain the Flame Prison that trapped me. She doesn’t have the energy to cast any high-level spells!

“As long as you think of a way to distract Teacher a few more times, for example, casting the Fireball Spell a few more times, I can take advantage of the gap between Teacher’s incantations and escape from the Flame Prison!

If they wanted to wake Maggie up, Harvey and Chris would definitely not be able to do it alone. Releasing Damir, a Tier 3 genius mage, was definitely the first step.

Although they pretended to leave, Liao Zixuan, who was still secretly observing, nodded at their actions.

But the problem was still the same.

How are you going to achieve that?

“Brat! If you want me to die, just say it. Do you really think I can dodge Maggie’s fireball every time? How many times? If I do it again, I’ll die!” Harvey shouted anxiously from outside.

Damir, who was inside, seemed to have expected this. He immediately shouted back anxiously,

“Uncle Harvey, are you stupid? Didn’t you bring along a group of outlanders? “Teacher can’t hear our conversation at all. She can only attack all intruders who enter this room like a machine. Why don’t you let those foreigners come in and attract Teacher’s attention?”

Hiss...

That's right!

Harvey slapped his thigh as if he had been awakened by Damir's words.

Foreigners people were immortal anyway, so what were they afraid of?

Then, he immediately turned his passionate gaze to the players behind him who were still immersed in the cinematic.

"Warriors, you heard me. I'm now...I need your help!"

Who called us stinky fish and rotten prawns just now? Now that we can be of use to them, they will become warriors! ?

Bah!

We players are not tools! He could be ordered around whenever he wanted to!

Everyone, stay with me and let the NPCs feel awkward for a while!

Liao Zixuan was secretly watching the show and stood from the perspective of the players, fighting for the players.

In the end...

[Ding! Commander Harvey of the Knights of the Fire Order has issued an

S-rank quest, 'Glorious Sacrifice'. Will you accept it?)

' Brother Meng, charge with me!!'

With the bountiful rewards from the S-rank mission, the players rushed into Maggie's room one after another.

Of course, there were still some players who were careful and did not go crazy after seeing an S-rank mission. They still quietly chose to slack off and save their lives.

Bi Wei Rong Rong was one of them.

Although their resurrection point should still be in the Fire God Tower, if they missed the plot because they were resurrecting, Bi Weirong would regret it to death.

He wanted to record everything. After all, it was all important evidence to expose the plot mastermind and to clear Vivian's name!

Boom! Boom! Boom!

As the small team of players launched a suicidal charge, it was just as Damir had said. Maggie, who was under the control of Fallen Abyss, didn't care who it was. As long as she dared to barge into the room, she would be bombarded with Fireballs.

However, multitasking was already her limit. If she were to multitask again, even Maggie would not be able to take care of the Flame Prison that was imprisoning Damir.

It was now!

"Mystery -Counterspell!"

A pink question mark appeared above Damir's head...Alright, I'm just joking. It was as if a transparent film had been put on his body.

After Maggie dealt with the Players, she wanted to turn back and imprison Damir, the great threat, but she realized that when she released the Flame Prison at Damir, it was bounced off by the membrane on his body. Without stopping, Damir took advantage of this time to prepare his second spell.

He aimed at the position outside the door. Before Maggie's next spell arrived.

"Flash! "

Chapter 149: Tell Me More, I Love Listening

Whoosh!

It was as if he had been photographed by something called a camera that had been passed down from the Thousand Islands of the Water Nation.

Chris felt his vision turn white.

In the next second, a male Mage who was about the same size as him and was quite thin, but in terms of temperament and appearance, he was far superior to him, appeared beside him.

"Phew, that was close, that was close." Damir, who had flashed out of the door, lost control of his strength and staggered. Fortunately, Harvey, who was beside him, quickly helped him up and finally stabilized his body.

After Damir escaped from the room, as long as they didn't enter the room,

Maggie wouldn't attack or chase after them.

It could be said that they had obtained a chance to rest.

"Thank you, Uncle Harvey. It's great to see you again! "Damir was so excited that he wanted to give Harvey a hug, but he was pushed away by Harvey.

"Get lost, brat. I'm not interested in men.

"I'm serious, Uncle Harvey! I really didn't expect you to appear here. Tell me quickly, how did you get to the top of the tower? If I remember correctly, the entire Fire God Tower should be filled with the Fire Elemental Guards that Teacher summoned, right?"

Damir asked in confusion. He had held back from asking when he was trapped in the room. Now that he was free, he immediately looked at Harvey curiously.

"What's wrong? Brat, what do you mean? Are you looking down on us?" Harvey raised his eyebrows.

"Yes, indeed." Damir nodded seriously.

"After all, when I wanted to climb the tower, I had to spend a lot of effort to use spells to deceive the Fire Elemental Guards. I don't think Uncle Harvey has the ability to do so.

Hiss...

Harvey glared and wanted to retort, but he realized that Damir was right. If it weren't for the sudden appearance of the mysterious figure called "White," they probably wouldn't even be able to get past the hall on the first floor.

Damir, I know you're knowledgeable. Let me ask you, do you have any impression of the name the mention of this lord, Harvey's expression became much more serious.

The young genius mage revealed a disdainful expression. He was like a top student from 985 University who was asked a stupid question like " Why do people fall when they jump?"

Damir's theoretical illness was about to flare up again. He wanted to give Harvey a long lecture on the summoning and composition of elemental creatures to highlight how ignorant he was about the previous question.

"If you don't believe me...I suggest you take a look at your surroundings first. Harvey interrupted him and shrugged.

What did he mean?

Damir frowned, then he suddenly thought of something.

Oh, right.

He remembered that there should have been a Fire Elemental Guard at the door of his teacher's room, and it should have been a super-large fusion. But where had that one gone?

This question didn't bother Mill for long because he got the answer in the next second.

"Wait... Wait a minute, this, this is!"

After Harvey's reminder, Damir finally noticed the pieces of molten debris scattered all over the ground. Wasn't this the materialized body of the fire elementals?

It wasn't until here that the young genius mage finally understood Harvey's strange question.

"You... You mean..."

“That’s right, we were able to ascend the tower, and even had the idea of ascending the tower to find Maggie, all because of a mysterious person called ‘White’.”

Harvey quickly summarized their short experience with Bai to Damir.

Mm...

How should he put it?

Have you forgotten that Archbishop Maggie is still waiting for you to save her?

In the end, you guys are chatting at the door?

No wonder the Flame Domain would be finished in the end! Aren’t you guys a little too ambitious?

Liao Zixuan, who was observing in the dark, was speechless.

So...

Well said! Say more, I love to hear it!

Especially Liao Zixuan, the son of the version from his previous life, the future savior. He was simply a character with all kinds of halos and was full of acting. Under Harvey’s words, he was dumbfounded and shocked by his new avatar. It was simply too satisfying.

Maggie: Where are your teammates? Teammates, save him!

Maybe he finally realized that now was not the time to be shocked, or maybe Harvey had just repeated the advice Liao Zixuan had left him before he left, about how to wake Maggie up.

Harvey handed over the Focus Necklace that he had been holding in his hand to Damir.

“This is what Maggie gave me previously. I originally thought that it was just an ordinary magic necklace, but from the tone of that Lord Bai, it seems that this necklace is the key?”

Harvey was a Warrior, so he naturally didn't know. However, as soon as Damir touched the necklace, he immediately sensed the pure and peaceful water elemental fluctuations inside.

The young mage's face lit up.

“An ordinary necklace? This was the Focus Necklace produced by the Thousand Islands! Its greatest function was to allow people to negate mental magic and have the effect of calming their minds!

“As long as Teacher Maggie wears this necklace, she will be able to wake up and break free from the control of the evil power!

Damir shouted excitedly because hope was right in front of him, but his expression soon froze.

Because now a new problem has arisen

How to take this necklace, how to take it? What if I put it on the neck of a teacher who had lost control?

At this moment.

Chris, who had almost become invisible, had finally found an opportunity to interrupt after Damir's arrival and had been subconsciously ignored.

He took a step forward and looked at Damir with a challenger's gaze that was unwilling to admit defeat and wanted to prove himself.

"Let me do it!"

Damir was speechless.

The genius mage ignored Chris and turned to Harvey with a puzzled look.

It was as if he was saying.

Who was this person?

Chapter 150: Love Rival Meets (1)

You!

Chris was almost angered to death by Damir's performance.

Even though Damir seemed very easy-going and normal before, you had to look at who he was talking to. Harvey, needless to say, had a deep relationship with Damir like an uncle, and before that was Vivian.

A little girl...He understood everything.

But in fact, the only people who could make him communicate normally were these two and his mentor, Maggie.

What kind of concept was this?

Damir had lived for 20 years and had a handsome face that was on par with Liao Zixuan's. However, in the entire Fire Code City, there were only three people who could be considered as friends to chat with! Three!

Vivian had only been added recently, and it was not certain whether she could be considered as a friend to chat with. Excluding the little girl, there were only two of them.

This was no surprise. This genius Mage of Fire Code City was also known as a proud Mage both in and out of the game. Players, especially female players, affectionately called him a straight dog and a smelly otaku.

Therefore, it was too normal for him to have such a reaction to a stranger like Chris. Or rather, this was Damir's daily attitude towards people.

"Uh, he... He was a hooligan who was about to be wanted. "Harvey scratched his head as if he was trying to think of a way to describe Chris.

Chris was speechless.

Damir was speechless.

"Alright, he's actually a passable Thief and helped me quite a bit along the way."

From this, it could be seen that Harvey valued Chris quite a lot. His EQ was also surprisingly high. He knew Damir's bad personality, so he deliberately started with a joke to make Damir's emotions fluctuate. This way, Chris would barely leave a better impression in Damir's heart and not be forgotten immediately.

It could only be said that he was indeed a middle-aged man with a lot of stories. And, yes, it was so difficult to be friends with Damir.

Uh, what about Vivian?

Hiss... People can't be treated as equals. Some people blatantly cheat, but I won't say who.

By the way, when Harvey was scratching his head and hesitating, he was actually considering whether he should introduce Chris to Damir with the words "This is your love rival." However, after pondering for a moment, he figured that it would probably be too aggressive, so he gave up.

Despite this, Damir immediately became more vigilant when he heard that Chris was a Thief, and that Harvey had rated him as a "passable" Thief.

This was an instinct. All mages had a natural aversion to Thieves.

"Are you sure? Are you confident? There was only one chance, and...I have to remind you that it's very dangerous!"

Despite Harvey's introduction, Damir was still very worried about Chris, who looked like a pure street thug, whether it was in terms of clothing, appearance, or temperament.

"Humph." As for Chris, he snorted coldly, as if he couldn't be bothered to speak to Damir. This time, it was the genius mage's turn to be infuriated.

Good!

As expected of our future CEO Ke, he's so tough!

Liao Zixuan, who was secretly observing, was so happy that he almost opened the champagne when he saw the two people who were already filled with gunpowder.

"Alright, then it's settled. Our best friends, the outlanders, have also been resurrected. It's time to take action!"

Fortunately, Harvey interrupted in time and eased the situation.

Liao Zixuan wanted to apologize to Harvey.

It turned out that he wasn't just casually chatting at the door. He was waiting for the Players who had died to save Damir to resurrect and run over.

As soon as the gamers were in position, Harvey immediately rushed to save Maggie.

The plan was still the same as before.

After they were in charge of attracting Maggie's attention, Chris sneaked behind Maggie and aimed at Maggie with a piercing, ahem, sorry, just to help Maggie put on the Focus Necklace.

This time, they also had the powerful help of Damir, a 3rd rank mage.

When the players who had just returned from the corpse run heard that it was still coming, their faces immediately turned bitter. However, after this mission initiated by Damir not only rewarded a huge amount of experience experience, but also came with precious random skill books, they were immediately filled with motivation and resolutely played the role of cannon fodder again.

"Agility Enhancement!" "Dynamic Vision!"

Fire resistance increased!"

Intermediate Magic Amplification!

A qualified mage would be embarrassed to go out without four or five buffs on him before a fight.

Once an expert made a move, one would know if there was one.

Even though Chris didn't have a good impression of Damir in the past, when Damir became serious and stacked buffs on the players and him, Chris finally understood Damir's aloof personality and what Bai, who was Liao Zixuan, had said to him.

A human that even the Fire God paid attention to.

As expected...So strong.

Of course, the stronger ones were still to come.

Before, when Damir wasn't around, the players had rushed up and were attacked by Maggie's Fireball Shark Burst, using their lives to buy time.

"Arcane Barrier!"

"Flame Spear Technique!"

A blue barrier easily blocked Maggie's terrifying fireball. Chris had seen it with his own eyes on the battlefield outside the city. It was the same spell that Greco, who was at the bishop level, had cast. A spear wrapped in flames shot straight at Maggie.

Thick waves of magic waves were emitted from Damir's body. One spell after another was released quickly as if it was free. Chris had experienced this feeling the last time, and it was from Vivian.

This was...

This was what Lord Bai had requested of him, f * ck..An opponent he would defeat in the future?

How was this possible?

Wasn't this too abnormal?

He...Could he really do it?

After Damir truly fought, Chris immediately fell into the same state of mind as the other mages in Fire Code City. He began to be struck by a strong blow and began to doubt himself.

The only difference between Chris and them was that he had actually failed, but he hadn't received the money yet.

* Cough cough *

The biggest difference between Chris and the others was that he had faith in his heart!

That's right!

For the sake of Vivian, for the sake of one day standing with the goddess in his heart, he had to work hard and force himself to break through! If he wanted to reach the level of the little girl, he would have to obtain the guidance of that Lord Bai, and the first step forward was...Defeat Damir!

Even if Liao Zixuan had not set up a trap for him, Chris was still imagining things. What if Damir also took a fancy to Vivian and started pursuing her? What would he do then? After all, even Chris had to admit that with Damir's strength and looks, he was probably the most outstanding man in Fire Code City.

Fortunately, Damir had a bad temper, was proud, and was rumored to not get close to women. Thinking about it, it seemed that Damir's personality was not so annoying in Chris's heart.

In short, the current him might not be qualified enough.

But at the very least, Chris tightened his grip on the necklace in his hand, activated Stealth, and disappeared into the shadows.

At the very least, he had to let Damir remember him as an opponent. At the very least, he had to let himself have some reputation. At the very least...He had to become a hero first!

Sweating his palms, he stopped letting his imagination run wild and focused. In Chris's eyes, there was only Maggie, who was constantly distracted.

Step after step.

The distance between the two of them was rapidly shortened!

Harvey and Damir, who was casting spells to restrain Maggie, couldn't help but hold their breaths when they saw Chris 'shadow appear behind Maggie.

Did he succeed?

NO!

The moment Chris left Stealth and was about to tie the Focus Necklace around Maggie's neck, Maggie gave up and immediately turned around.

Their eyes met, and Chris 'first reaction was that he was done for. At such a close distance, he couldn't dodge Maggie's spell at all.

But even so, his hands did not stop tying the necklace.

Unexpectedly, although it was only for a short second, it was more than enough for Maggie to resist. However, she only turned around and did not say anything else, as if she was waiting for Chris.

Hence, a second later.

A crisp ding was heard.

Chris was ecstatic because he had successfully tied the Focus Necklace around Maggie's neck.

In an instant.

An extremely dense sea blue light erupted from the necklace, illuminating the entire room..
