Chapter 161: Who Can Refuse a Cute Loli? 2

Do you understand the value of the main character!

That was a terrifying physique that could attract bees and butterflies if he was not careful! If you couldn't keep up with a few plots, you would be forgotten by others and be replaced by other flirtatious sluts. In this day and age, it wasn't easy to be the second female lead or even the third female lead.

What was that?

Why can't I be the female lead?

Wasn't the female lead already decided internally? As for who it is, I can't say.

Putting aside the female lead, just look at the current situation. It's only been a short time, and there are already a lot of people who have feelings for me...

There's a Shirl in the... One...

Why was it less than Vivian's? Bastard! He couldn't lose his momentum! Otherwise, she would really be unable to raise her head in the future. Those who didn't know better would think that a young girl like her was the protagonist!

"Alright, Xinyan, I'll force myself to count you in as a stopgap. This way, we'll have a 2v2 and it'll be a tie!"

The little wolf cub, who was full of drama in his heart, picked up the little chick that he had just pushed away and brought it back.

In response, Xinyan only used her small eyes to reveal a look of great confusion. "Huh?"

Sigh...

"Life isn't easy." Wolf sighed. "You can't even say these words. You don't understand. You're just a stupid bird that's not even the size of a palm. I can't help you even if I want to. You're hopeless."

Just as Liao Zixuan was still thinking that Xinyan, who was clearly very charming in his previous life, was about to leave the stage just like that...

"Xinyan, come here." Maggie suddenly shouted and called back the little chick. At this moment, after the archbishop had integrated the overflowing Fire God's power into nature and turned it into a wonder, beads of sweat could be seen on his white forehead. It was unknown whether it was because he had used too much power to control it or because his God's Heart had been damaged.

However, Maggie did not stop because the place with the most remaining Fire God power was not the forest or the lake, but the place where the incident happened, Vivian's body!

"This is possible...It's fate." Maggie shook her head.

There were two possible outcomes in Maggie's mind. The most likely one was that Vivian accepted the Heart of God and became the new Archbishop. Then, she would bring back the Dark Flame Wolf pup and Xinyan, and use the little time she had left to train the two forbidden monsters.

If Vivian was unwilling to accept the Heart of God, Maggie would entrust Xin Yan to Vivian and help her form a natal contract with Xin Yan.

However, Maggie never expected that Vivian would not only reject the Heart of God, but also smash it! This caused her body, which was already on the verge of collapse, to have even less time left. Alright, actually, she wouldn't be able to last until tomorrow.

But similarly, if one thought about it on the bright side...

“Huh?”

After the little chick left Liao Zixuan’s side reluctantly, she flew in front of Maggie and tilted her head.

And Maggie didn’t say much either.

The Archbishop turned the remaining Divine Power around Vivian, especially the ground where the Heart of God had fallen, into flames and poured it all into the little chick.

“Squeak

At first, she screamed in shock, but then she realized that the fire did not burn her body. Instead, it made her feel warm. The little chick immediately changed to a comfortable sound.

As her strength soared, a portion of her sealed abilities and memories were also unlocked.

When he finally exhausted all the Divine Power that had overflowed this time...

The little chick still looked like a little chick, but it could not be judged by its appearance alone, because next...

“Vivian, since you have rejected becoming a Fire God and want to continue being a Summoner, can I entrust Xin Yan to you?”

“Logically speaking, a Summoner can only have one Life Summoned Beast, but you are special. With my help, I can make Xin Yan your other Life

Summoned Beast.

“You... Are you willing?”

Maggie casually revealed Vivian’s biggest secret and asked the girl. “This...

The little girl’s first reaction was not panic at the exposure of her second personality, nor did she answer Maggie. Instead, she instinctively looked at Little Black, her wolf cub.

It was as if he was saying...

Little Black, you decide, I’ll listen to you!

But at this moment, before Liao Zixuan could do anything, the little chick could not sit still.

After absorbing the remaining Divine Power, one of the greatest changes that Xin Yan had undergone was that she could now understand human speech!

The second biggest change was that she could recall a lot of past events. Although it was only a vague memory, there was always an impression.

For example, her impression of Vivian was a whip, wax, boots... Cough cough, he knew how to make food that made her feel extremely delicious! The first step for a woman to capture a man was to capture his taste. This sentence was also applicable to women capturing women, and even other species!

At the very least, the vague impression in his mind was enough to bind Xinyan.

Although she did not quite understand what a natal summoned beast was, it probably meant that she could follow Vivian in the future, and she... She wanted to follow Vivian!

Hence, the third biggest change for Xinyan came.

Knowing the principle of striking first to gain the upper hand, Xin Yan immediately used another skill from his memories. Her little nestling's posture immediately changed..

Chapter 162: Who Can Refuse a Cute Loli?—3

A few seconds later...

“Sis...Sister!”

Like a little angel, a lively and pleasant voice sounded.

One of them had smooth and fair skin. Although she was short and only reached half of her waist, her facial features were extremely exquisite, especially her pair of bright red eyes that were blinking. She was a cute little loli like a ceramic doll.

After calling Vivian ‘sister’ sweetly, the little loli quickly turned around. It was obvious that she had a clear goal and knew that someone... A certain wolf was the key decision-maker.

She had transformed into a person who looked like cheese. Her milky white hair had a hint of yellow in it. It was combed into small braids and scattered on both sides. As her body moved, it swayed.

At the same time, her chubby little legs under her red dress were also swaying.

The little loli crossed her fingers under the hem of her dress. She was lively and cute when dealing with Vivian, but when dealing with Liao Zixuan, it was obvious that she had changed her strategy and showed a pitiful expression. She used a soft voice that would make any man's blood boil and call out,

“Brother...Big brother!”

Humph.

Haha.

Do you think you can move me like this?

Master versus loli...To Lolita...I'm not interested!

Liao Zixuan was firm in his belief.

Then, he quickly nodded at Vivian, indicating that he did not mind having another loli sister... Cough cough, it was one more powerful comrade in the future!!

Speaking of which, he seemed to have listed Xinyan as a potential wife just now, right?

Now it seemed like...

Xing!

This was too much!

Sister and loli...Mm, I'm willing to call you a forbidden object! Oh, it's a forbidden monster, so it's fine.

After getting the permission of the little wolf cub, the little girl asked her other self in the mental world.

The answer he got was also very classic.

[No, I don't want a life-bound demon. But if she insists on staying by my side, hmph, it's not impossible...]

No one seemed to have any objections.

As for Vivian herself, she did not have any objections either. She had liked Xinyan to begin with, and during the battle at Fire Code City, she had developed a lot of respect for Xinyan's final act of spreading the Divine Phoenix wings and burning herself to revive all things. Now that there was an opportunity to help him, she would not reject it.

Oh, of course, there was also an apology to Maggie. Although the Heart of God was the one who started it, she still smashed such a precious thing. Therefore, the little girl naturally agreed to Maggie's request.

"Alright, in that case..."

Maggie reached out and drew in the air. The ancient and mysterious contract pattern was quickly formed. Then she divided it into two and pushed the pattern in the direction of Vivian and the little loli.

The pattern passed through Vivian's physical body and entered her spiritual space, where the second personality was. The other side of the pattern also entered Xin Yan's body.

Accompanied by a ding sound.

Liao Zixuan's mind rang with a long-lost game notification.

[You have successfully contracted the second Life Summoned Beast, the

Phoenix of Flames.]

LxmyanJ

Was this what it meant to hang on a wall?

Love, love.

Before Liao Zixuan could finish admiring the interface of the two forbidden bosses in the Flame Domain, Maggie's voice sounded again.

And this time, the archbishop's voice clearly sped up. He must have used up too much energy and his body was about to collapse, so he had to finish what he had to say.

However, his words were shocking.

"Vivian, I'll make it short.

"After a simple rest..."

"You might have to leave the Flame Region and head to the Sea Kingdom next door that is protected by the Water God. That is..."

"Thousand-island.."

Chapter 163: Triggered!_!

Fire Code City, in the guest room of Count Sisre's mansion.

The sky outside the window was gradually darkening. Vivian stood by the window and looked at the prosperous Fire Code City that was still brightly lit after the disaster outside the city.

She went back to the bed, the faint moonlight scattered in the room, shining on the little girl's palm, on a necklace shaped like a drop of water.

Under the moonlight, the necklace was even more crystal clear. It was obvious that it was not an ordinary necklace. Vivian held it tighter, as if she was cheering herself on, but also as if she was determined.

“Thousand Islands...What?” Vivian’s muttering echoed in the room under the night sky.

Therefore...

We still don’t know what Archbishop Maggie and the little girl talked about at the lakeside of the Dreadclaw Lake. Why did they have to go to the Thousand Islands...

Maggie: No, you do.

Err...

Good! I’ll listen to you since you have big breasts.

Lake of Fear Claw...

The sky outside the window was gradually darkening. Vivian stood by the window and looked at the prosperous Fire Code City that was still brightly lit after the disaster outside the city.

She went back to the bed, the faint moonlight scattered in the room, shining on the little girl’s palm, on a necklace shaped like a drop of water.

“Thousand Islands...What?” Vivian’s muttering echoed in the room under the night sky.

Therefore...

We still don't know what Archbishop Maggie and the little girl talked about at the lakeside of the Dreadclaw Lake. Why did they have to go to the Thousand Islands...

Maggie: No, you do.

Err...

Good! I'll listen to you since you have big breasts.

Lake of Fear Claw...

No.

Now, it should have been renamed again. In the future, it would become the legendary God Splitting Lake that was passed down by the people of Fire Law City for generations.

At this moment, as the first stroke of the legendary chapter, Maggie's words were a little too much for Vivian to digest.

"Qian...Thousand Islands?" The little girl stuttered as she repeated the name, which was extremely unfamiliar to her.

In the world of Fallen Gods, between the nine big countries, other than a very small number of individuals who were closed off from the outside world, the other countries definitely had exchanges with each other, but for various reasons, it was not very frequent.

Therefore, even the residents of Fire Code City, the largest city in the Flame Domain, did not know much about the outside world, let alone a village girl who had barely read a few books and was born in a poor village.

“I know this is very sudden, but if you want to go further on the path of a summoner, especially since you have contracted two forbidden fire monsters as your Life Summoned Beasts, the Thousand Islands of the Water Country is a place you must visit.”

“Because only there will you be able to see the Water God and receive her blessings. You can use this to suppress the taboo power in your two little fire-elemental fellows that is getting stronger and stronger.

“Suppress?” The more Vivian listened, the more confused she became.

Maggie wanted her to go to the Thousand Islands not to improve Blackie’s abilities, but to suppress them?

“Yes, that’s right. It’s suppression.” The Fire God’s clone nodded.

“Do you know why not only in the Flame Domain, but everywhere else, the number of forbidden demonic beasts is extremely rare? Moreover, every race will always have only one of them?”

Just like their name, Taboo. Their existence is not permitted. If they haven’t fully matured, it’s fine if they’re weak. However, once they enter adulthood or even reach maturity, the Taboo power in their bodies will bring them great danger.

“As far as I know, since the end of the Chaotic Era, the world was divided by the Nine Gods, and order was restored, there has not been a single forbidden monster that has reached the complete body stage. I don’t know the details, but the only thing I can be sure of is...”

“If one day, there really is a forbidden demon that can enter the complete body stage, then the statues in this world will no longer be called the Nine Heavens Divine Statues, but... It’s been ten days.”

After Maggie's words, Liao Zixuan and the wolf cubs, who were listening to her, opened their mouths again.

This was a secret that even he did not know in his previous life. By the way, the version in his previous life had only been updated to the third country.

so...

So I'm that powerful?

And... Good heavens, so I still have to transcend the tribulation later on, right? Amami, stop it! This is a fantasy world, not a fantasy world!

Hiss, wait a minute. It seemed that in the background of the Rock Nation under the Rock God, there were immortals. The world view would change according to the culture and customs of each country. Oh, that's fine.

On the other hand, Vivian was also shocked...Oh no, the girl immediately covered her mouth.

The little girl knew that her wolf cub must be very powerful, but she did not expect it to be so exaggerated.

Therefore, Little Black..No, not just Xiao Hei, but now there was also Xin Yan.

The two of them had contracted with him, and their future peak was actually... God? To be on par with the legendary Nine Gods?

At the thought of this, the little girl felt a little dizzy. She kept feeling that her shoulders were instantly much heavier, almost squashing her small body.

"Alright, don't think too much. "Maggie realized that she might have said too much when she saw Vivian's expression, so she began to comfort her.

“Although the forbidden demons are strong, the price is their extremely slow growth rate.

“If I hadn’t poured my Divine Power into Xin Yan’s body, and if Xin Yan had been reborn, it would have taken decades for him to grow from a young age to a mature age. The rate of growth would have been slower as time went on. So, as long as you suppress your Divine Power properly, there shouldn’t be any problems.

Maggie comforted the little girl, but Vivian’s face immediately turned pale.

The girl quietly tightened her small fists hidden in her sleeves.

“Also... My other self, how many weeks has it been since we met Little Black?” Vivian summoned the second personality in her spiritual space..

Chapter 164: Triggered!_2

[Huh? A few weeks? Vivian, you must be confused. A few days is enough!

“How many... A few days...”

Vivian actually wanted to ask Maggie, “Why did you say decades, but when it came to Little Black, it seemed like it only took a few days to go from infancy to maturity?”

However, the little girl was not stupid. On one hand, she was surprised by Little Black’s uniqueness. On the other hand, she also knew that this might be Little Black’s secret. She could not casually reveal it to others.

So when Maggie noticed Vivian's abnormality and asked what was wrong, the girl quickly shook her head, indicating that she was fine.

But in fact, the little girl felt more and more eager to go to the Thousand Islands to find the Water God. After all, with Blackie's growth speed, she didn't know if it would suddenly jump somewhere else.

Although it was up to Little Black to decide whether to use the Water God's Blessing to suppress the taboo power in his body, it was better to be prepared. As a summoner and a family member, she had to be responsible for Little Black's safety!

"Then Lord Maggie, I...If I want to go to the Thousand Islands, how should I get there? After arriving at the Thousand Islands, how should he find the Water

After making up her mind, Vivian immediately asked the two most important questions.

As a village girl, her range of activities was basically that of her village. Even Fire Code City was Vivian's first time, let alone crossing the border.

Opposite him.

He smiled.

Maggie, who could also be said to be the Fire God Alice's clone, knew this. She was actually waiting for the little girl to ask this question.

' Don't worry, I've already thought of a way for you. In a month, the messenger

I sent to the Thousand Islands, who is also the third bishop of our Fire God

Sect, Matthew, will return from the southwest border of the Flame Domain, Red Feather Port. At that time, you only need to set off to Red Feather Port in advance and take the ship Matthew wants to return to, and you will reach the Thousand Islands.

” There are no sects in the Thousand Islands. They prefer to be addressed as ‘Island Master’. The Island Master of the border island that you first arrived at will definitely be very welcoming to you after learning of your arrival. As far as I know, her relationship with Bishop Eugenia is not ordinary.

When Maggie said the word “unusual”, she deliberately raised her voice.

Alright.

It seemed that the thousand-faced witch Bella’s self-righteous little cleverness was actually all in the eyes of the Fire God.

Bishop Eugenia was Bella’s ” Flame Domain ” avatar, and the island owner that

Maggie mentioned, if Liao Zixuan guessed correctly, should be Bella’s avatar in ‘ Thousand Islands

“Take this.”

As Maggie spoke, she took off the Focus Necklace Chris had put on her and handed it to Vivian.

“This necklace is a token that the Water God left behind for our Flame Domain. As long as you take it, no one in the Thousand Islands will stop you. You can directly meet the Water God and ask her to satisfy your request.”

After saying so much, she almost helped Vivian plan everything.

This was not...

“At the same time, I have also recorded the events of Fire Code City and the descent of the evil power in this necklace. As long as Water God takes a look at it, she will release the true power of this necklace. At that time, I hope that you can bring this unsealed necklace with you when you return to the Flame Region. It will become a key tool for our Flame Region to prevent the appearance of the evil power in the future.”

“Alright... I, I’ve memorized it all!” When she heard that it was about the future of the Flame Domain, the little girl immediately tensed up and nodded her head hard, engraving everything Maggie said into her mind.

Yes, although it was very forced.

Indeed, the hidden danger of the taboo power on Blackie and the others was already enough to give Vivian a headache. Now, there was another addition, the Water God Necklace that could resist evil forces.

Maggie could only sigh in her heart when she saw how reluctant the girl was.

Originally, she had wanted to give this task to Damir, but now that Vivian had rejected the Heart of God, Damir could not leave because he was the only one left who could inherit the Heart of God.

I’ve recorded everything I said today on this necklace. If you lose your way in the future, you only need to pour magic power into the necklace to see our conversation today.

After Maggie’s last sentence, Vivian’s game system suddenly sounded in Liao Zixuan’s mind.

[Ding, you have accepted the world mission ” Water God’s Chain “] [Water God’s Chain]

[Mission Introduction: After the Fallen Abyss and the Dark Wave, your outstanding performance on the battlefield has clearly made you a hero of Fire Code City from an unknown village girl. Even the Fire God Archbishop Maggie has acknowledged you and entrusted you with the mission to determine the future of the Fire Domain. The greater the ability, the greater the responsibility! Please take note, every decision and action you make in the future may affect and change the direction of the Flame Domain. Please, please...Be careful!]

[Mission Hint: This is an extremely long mission. The mission reward depends on the percentage of Fire God's corruption by the Fallen Abyss. When it is greater than 70%, if the mission item has not been submitted, it will be considered a failure. When it is less than 40%, an additional hidden reward will be triggered..]

Chapter 165: Triggered!_3

[Mission Hint: The most direct factor affecting the Fire God's Fallen Abyss transformation is the human Fallen Abyss Vassals in the Flame Domain. If you destroy a powerful human Fallen Abyss Vassal, the percentage will be reduced simultaneously.]

[Note: Current percentage of the God of Fire 's transformation into the abyss:

[Current mission objective (real-time update): Arrive at Red Plume Harbor within a month]

It's here...

Normal missions were usually judged by letter ratings, such as A, B, C, S, SS, etc.

However, there were a few hidden special missions that would deviate from the so-called letter rating range and use Epic, Legendary, World, and... Legends were used as the division.

The Water God's Chains was a world-class quest that was second only to the Legendary level. In the storyline of his previous life, this should have been the end of Version 1.0, when the Flame Domain was destroyed. Damir, who had inherited the Heart of God, led the players to carry out this quest as a key quest to connect to Version 2.0's [Black Tide Surging].

He never expected that the mission would be triggered so early, and the person who accepted the mission would be Vivian instead of Damir.

So...

Bastard! What I want is to be with a little girl and be in love with her, not to save the world! Can you give me back the relaxed dating routine that we agreed on! Damn it!

Liao Zixuan used his wolf claws to hit the table in the mental world.

But things had already come to this.

What else could he do?

Then he could only...In the sweet daily life of playing, he could save the world at the same time!

[World: Are you polite?] Can you be more serious?

“Alright, you must be tired after talking so much. There is still a month before

Bishop Matthew returns. You can take advantage of this time to rest in Fire

Code City. Although I am not boasting, there are many interesting things in Fire Code City. Everyone in the city is very warm and friendly. I believe that before you set off for the Thousand Islands, you will definitely be able to enjoy this leisure time.

It was obvious that the archbishop’s words came from the bottom of his heart, but the wolf cub beside him, Liao Zixuan, couldn’t help but feel his forehead turn black.

If he hadn’t experienced the story of Fire Code City in his previous life, he would have believed Maggie’s nonsense!

“I’ll teleport you back to the city first. Do you have a place to stay? “Of course, if you haven’t found a suitable place to rest, I can send you to the Fire God Sect in the city first.

“No need, no need. The place to stay... Lady Maggie, please help me teleport back to the entrance of Count Sisre’s manor.

“Oh? Count Sisre...Alright.”

Margie was obviously surprised. She did not expect Vivian to have a relationship with the famous Earl in the city.

At the same time, if Maggie was surprised, then Liao Zixuan was shocked when he heard the words “Count Sisre “. The wolf cub almost jumped up.

Wha... What the hell?

He had just complained that Fire Code City was not safe at all, but in the next second, the biggest evil hidden danger in the city, Vivian, had taken the initiative to come to him!?

WTF! ?

This feeling was exactly the same as when Chris suddenly mentioned Vivian’s name. You... You stinky girl, what did you do when I wasn’t around?

Liao Zixuan cursed in his heart. He really wanted to be with the little girl now. He wanted to go back quickly and let Vivian explain everything.

Unfortunately, Liao Zixuan knew very well that Maggie would not let him go, at least for now. It could also be said that Maggie was deliberately sending the little girl away from him.

After that.

As expected.

“Oh, right. Vivian, Xinyan can go back with you first, but I might need to stay behind for a while for your Little Black. I want to teach him some things before

I disappear.”

“Alright... Alright, thank you, Lady Maggie. I’ve troubled you with Little Black!

Vivian was pleasantly surprised. She walked to the wolf cub and bent down to stroke it.

“Xiao Hei, you have to be obedient in the future. Don’t be rude to Lady Maggie.

The little girl seemed to be instructing him, but in fact, only Liao Zixuan could hear it. Vivian took the opportunity to get close to him and used their unique telepathy to communicate.

“Xiao Hei, if anything happens, remember...You must sense me like before, and I will immediately summon you back!

After experiencing the Heart of God, Vivian was obviously more cautious. She was using the methods that a young girl could think of to protect her wolf cubs.

Liao Zixuan waved his paws, indicating that he understood. He felt warm and emotional.

Tsk...

His own girl...He had really grown!

Finally.

With the appearance of the flames under their feet, Vivian and Xin Yan disappeared from the side of the God-Rending Lake.

By the way, when Xinyan left with them, Liao Zixuan had specially taken a feather from the little loli.

Maggie noticed this detail. After all, Liao Zixuan didn't want to hide it.

The archbishop, who was actually the Fire God Alice's clone, looked at the wolf cub with a hint of playfulness and interest.

Finally.

Without the little girl.

Maggie heaved a sigh of relief, as if she had finally let go of some burden and no longer had to pretend.

Her originally holy and pure temperament faded away in the blink of an eye.

What replaced it was an aura that could not be said to be evil, but at the very least, it was completely different from the elegant and intellectual woman from before. It was even the complete opposite...

"Ah! I'm exhausted...Maggie massaged her shoulders and supported her back while moaning in exhaustion.

Her dignified and proper archbishop robe became extremely loose after she stretched her shin. Moreover, in several places, her originally covered fair skin was exposed, especially her exquisite collarbone. If one looked down, one could even see two looming majestic peaks.

If there was a word to describe Maggie, who had such a huge contrast and was filled with the excitement of breaking taboos, it might be...

Bewitching.

“Next, it’s our time.”

A chair formed by divine power appeared in front of Maggie. After she sat down, she held her cheek with one hand and licked her red lips before softly spitting out a few words.

“What do you think?”

“Mine, Lord Bai?”

Chapter 166: This Fire God of yours, Is She Serious? 1

Maggie... Oh, sorry, I should call her ” Alice ‘

She looked at the wolf cub with interest.

She had played around with her cute believers in the City of Fire. Even the little girl who had summoned her was kept in the dark.

Similarly, he was also the person behind the Fallen Abyss’s descent. He could not be said to be the culprit, but he was definitely the person behind the scenes...Or was it a wolf?

Thinking of this, Alice’s interest was even higher. From the beginning, the burning sensation in her lower abdomen kept rising. After Alice withdrew Maggie’s consciousness, which represented the normal side of her Fire God, she could no longer stop it. It became stronger and began to spread throughout her body.

God was lonely.

The Fire God, whose consciousness had been half-occupied by Fallen Abyss, was even more affected by this feeling. Therefore, she instinctively wanted to pursue excitement.

In Alice's opinion, Liao Zixuan, this mysterious wolf cub, was the strongest stimulation point that could poke her nerves.

By the way, the second most exciting thing was to destroy the image of his holy and elegant clone, the Fire God Archbishop Maggie.

This time, I'm cuckolding myself.

Maggie's robe slid down slightly from her shoulders, revealing her white and soft shoulders. Her archbishop's ankle boots had been hooked by Alice's toes. She did not know what method she used to make them loose, as if they would fall off her feet in the next second.

She crossed her legs, exposing her fair and delicate ankles.

With Alice's hook and fall, the slender and delicate feet wrapped in the bishop's boots would also appear and disappear from time to time. Just a glance would make people unable to resist the temptation of holding it in their palms and playing with it.

Da-meh.

This abnormal Fire God was too difficult to deal with.

If she had a few more scenes, the entire book would be gone. He had to get this woman to leave quickly, or Vivian would misunderstand!

"Howl?"

Hence, the little wolf cub imitated the way Xinyan, that stupid little bird, did back then. It tilted its head and barked at Alice as if it did not quite understand what she was saying, trying to muddle through.

And the effect...

Of course, the effect was useless.

“Oh? I don’t mind if you want to waste your time. Anyway, under my domain, time here is still. ”

“Or is it...”

“You want to talk to me like this? Mm... Although it was a little perverted, it wasn’t that he couldn’t accept the fact that she was a ‘Holy Mead’! Alice licked her lips again.

Opposite him.

Liao Zixuan cursed in his heart.

Pervert your head!

How was it abnormal?

I think you’re wearing yellow glasses! He had been brainwashed by the color yellow!

Oh, alright, he had indeed been brainwashed by Fallen Abyss. Then it was fine.

If this continued, Alice might do something even more ridiculous. At that time, he might not be able to withstand it. After all, the Fire God, who had the upper hand in the Fallen Abyss, was too good.

Liao Zixuan sighed in order to defend his loyalty to Vivian.

Since he couldn't dodge it, then he wouldn't pretend anymore. Moreover, it seemed that although this Fire God wasn't normal for the time being, he shouldn't have any ill intentions towards him.

He recited the name of the little girl in his heart a few times, and then read it skillfully. He had saved it for this moment, and it was the feeling when he first saw the girl's flat airport.

The entire process was smooth.

After reading it, Liao Zixuan felt as if he was the incarnation of a saint. The flames that Alice had deliberately provoked were instantly extinguished by a large bucket of ice water.

Err... It seemed like Vivian had developed a little recently.

Forget it, don't use cold water. Change it to cold water. Lower one level and show some respect.

In short.

The little wolf cub's body shook for a moment. After a flash of light, a handsome young man wearing the black suit from before appeared in front of Alice.

"Hello, Aunt Alice." Liao Zixuan greeted politely.

To forbidden monsters like him and Xinyan, who were born and bred in the Flame Domain, the Fire God was like their elder.

He remembered that in the storyline of his previous life, this was how the Firegod was addressed.

However, the Fire God opposite him clearly did not think so. Her beautiful brows raised.

"Auntie?" Alice's charming temperament disappeared in the blink of an eye. In its place was a smile that hid a shark's intent.

“Why, Lord Bai...’

“This isn’t the time when we were climbing the Fire God Tower. You told Harvey and the others that you have many years of deep friendship with a small Fire God like me.”

“What else came after that...”

Alice tapped her chin with a finger as if she was recalling something.

“Oh, right, I also told him that the story between us is very complicated. There are too many origins that are difficult to explain. I said that I might have forgotten about you, and I hope Harvey and the others won’t mention you in front of Maggie.

He repeated the words that Liao Zixuan had boasted about in the Fire God Tower word for word.

Alice deliberately put on a lonely and resentful expression.

“Lord Bai, it’s not that I’ve forgotten you, but you’ve forgotten me. We’ve been through so much, but in the end.... Did I become the auntie you mentioned?”

Chapter 167: This Fire God of yours, Is She Serious? 2

“Cough cough...Cough...”

Even with Liao Zixuan’s shamelessness, his face turned red.

This was like when he was young and bragging about his beautiful young form teacher with his simple-minded classmate from the next class. In the end, he turned around and realized that the form teacher was standing behind him.

Thank you, it's already dead.

Alright, you old woman! You don't care about martial arts, but you're here to cheat and sneak attack a few years old wolf cub! You were clearly controlled by Fallen Abyss at that time, so how did you know everything?

"Hmph, the one being controlled is Archbishop Maggie. What does it have to do with me, Fire God Alice?"

Looking at Liao Zixuan's awkward and puzzled expression, even a fool could guess what he was thinking. Alice snorted coldly.

No, you didn't guess everything. He's still calling you an old woman in his heart!

However, perhaps it was because Liao Zixuan had called her Aunt Alice that she lost interest in him, or perhaps it made her regain some of her composure as an elder.

"Alright, let's talk about business. "Alice put down her crossed legs and changed to a conservative and dignified sitting position.

' You heard what I said to Vivian before, right? Why did I give her such an important task? Firstly, it's because there's really no better candidate. Secondly, it's because..."

"I trust you."

When Alice said these words, her expression became a little serious.

Of course, this seriousness soon disappeared.

' So, don't disappoint me. Lord Bai, in just a few days, you've turned a village girl who could be bullied into a great hero in the entire Fire Code City. You've even managed to infiltrate the Fallen Abyss that even I don't understand and control it a little.

"Am I right, Lord Bai?" Alice smiled, especially after she said the last sentence about Fallen Abyss. She was looking forward to seeing Liao Zixuan's secret exposed and his expression change again.

Unfortunately, Alice soon curled her lips in boredom because Liao Zixuan's expression did not change much.

After all, he had already expected this.

From the moment he sensed that Archbishop Maggie had brought Shirley along and teleported here, Liao Zixuan had a faint premonition that he had been exposed.

Right now, he was only slightly depressed.

This feeling was just like those stupid villains who were beaten up by the main character in novels. However, after transmigrating, they realized that this was not the case at all! There were no stupid villains at all. It was just that the protagonist's cheat was too powerful! That was why the villain looked stupid.

Underestimating...

He had underestimated the Fire God.

Damn it! It was all because of the game's plot that made Vulcan look like a fool.

He was easily controlled by Fallen Abyss, which made Liao Zixuan subconsciously treat Vulcan as a fool.

But in reality, as one of the only nine gods in the world, how could the peak of power be so simple?

Even if the other party's state was abnormal, as long as Alice wanted to, any movement in the Flame Domain could not escape her eyes!

He didn't care.

If he pretended to be dead, he would pretend.

Liao Zixuan directly ignored the topic of Fallen Abyss that Alice had deliberately brought up.

"As a member of the Flame Region, we will naturally be duty-bound to protect the future of the Flame Region. We will definitely complete Alice...It's a mission from my sister!"

She hypocritically replied.

Then, Liao Zixuan also took this rare opportunity to ask Fire God a question that he was very concerned about in their previous conversation.

"However, Sister Alice, what you told Vivian about the taboo power in Xinyan and me...Was it real or fake? Could it be that we, forbidden demons, will really face a heavenly tribulation after we grow to a certain stage?"

' Or did you just make up an excuse to motivate Vivian to go to Thousand Islands, just like those shameless screenwriters who don't know how to push the plot forward and start violent settings?"

Liao Zixuan subconsciously recalled a game he had played before. In order to give players a reason to run around and harm the world, Fallen God had been edited. Every time the map was changed and the version was updated, it would be complemented by the main story. As for that game, good lord, he didn't even bother to make it up. The reason for going anywhere was solved in one sentence. What was he doing? Looking for his sister!

"Ha, looks like you really know a lot. You can even mention the Heavenly Tribulation. However, you are not in the Gui Li Realm. The Immortal Beast under that old fart, the Rock God, does not have a Heavenly Tribulation in our Flame Region. It couldn't be said that. In fact, they were all similar. It was just that they had changed the name.

' But no matter how you call it, the truth is the same. As long as you Forbidden Demons grow and cross a certain line that can be tolerated, you will be targeted.

I can't tell you any more. As for whether I'm making it up or not, you can try it yourself. When the time comes, on account of Lord Bails many years of deep friendship with me...Don't worry, I'll help you collect your corpse.

Alice said the most vicious words in the gentlest tone.

And...

Can you not be old...And he even brought up Lord Bai and the matter of friendship, how could he do that!

Sigh...

Liao Zixuan sighed. Although he had unknowingly gained another hidden danger, he did not care much. At most, he would just take it easy and level up before he figured out what was going on..

Chapter 168: This Fire God of yours, Is She Serious?_3

To be honest, he had just entered the growth stage from childhood. He was still far from adulthood, let alone maturity.

With the massive amount of experience points he needed now, even if he could cheat the players in the future, he would still need to upgrade in one version.

Secondly, Liao Zixuan actually had no reason to rush to level up. To put it a little arrogantly, as a Forbidden Monster, he could already look down on the version when he was growing up. When he reached adulthood, he would press the version under his crotch. There was no need for him to pursue power too much.

After all, this wasn't a revenge story about leveling up and killing monsters.

What Liao Zixuan wanted was to travel around the world with the little girl. Saving the world, showing up in the main plot, and making a name for himself were all just side effects.

However, it was as if there was a mysterious force fighting against him.

"Alright, that's all I have to say to you. There are still two little fellows waiting for me behind...Oh, right, just take it as a bonus and remind you again.

Liao Zixuan was happy that he could finally get away from this decent old woman, but Alice's words made him frown.

That was because...

It's about Vivian."

"Although I'm not like my sister, oh, my sister has the ice sculpture face of the Water God and doesn't know how to divine fate, I can be sure that because she unintentionally summoned you, it caused that little girl's original trajectory to deviate."

Liao Zixuan nodded silently at Alice's words.

He had already thought of this.

Because even without him, the little girl was indeed not related to the "ordinary people". Just the existence of the second personality that was so strong that it was like cheating meant that Vivian was definitely not ordinary. However, the truth was that even in version 3.0 of his previous life, Liao Zixuan had never heard of an NPC named " Vivian

The cause of this was that Liao Zixuan was currently thinking of two people, the first one, and Vivian was the same as most of the other people from the Flame Domain. They did not escape, and they all turned into fallen monsters with the destruction of the Flame Domain.

However, after the second personality appeared, Liao Zixuan felt that the probability was very small.

Then the only thing left was...

She was the foreshadowing. Even in Version 3.0, it was not enough for the little girl to appear. She was a hidden character that was further behind. As everyone knew, such characters usually had extremely complicated background stories and experiences, and... Unparalleled and powerful Boss-level strength.

"My sister once said a famous saying about fate. I think it might be of help to you."

"Fate cannot be changed. What can be changed is only the different paths that lead to fate."

"By the way, if you accidentally pick up the Witch's Seed, the way to activate it is to absorb negative emotions.

Alice smiled at Liao Zixuan.

Alright!

Do you want me to take out my underwear and show it to you?

"Do you need me to send you back to Vivian?"

"Or is it..." Alice glanced at the feather that Liao Zixuan had plucked from Xinyan's body.

“Teleportation is teleportation. I don’t want to stay in the domain while you’re looking for the next one. Otherwise, it won’t be a surprise.

“Just help me send it to a hidden place outside. “Liao Zixuan was already thinking about how he should say the lines that he was going to think about later to make it more emotional.

“Tsk, I didn’t expect you to be so interesting at such a young age.

Alice smacked her lips and continued her conversation with Liao Zixuan.

“Of course, do you know the value of 200 romance comics!”

“Romance manga?”

Our omniscient Fire God Alice finally revealed a puzzled expression on her beautiful face.

Humph!

Dumb!

The Old Man from the Otherworld! You’re still far from seeing through my underwear!

“Alright, alright, hurry up.” After appreciating Alice’s momentary expression, Liao Zixuan quickly waved his hand and urged her.

After all...

“Don’t let Xue Li wait too long..”

Chapter 169: My Shirley!_I

A pitch-black box that one could not see their own fingers, or rather...Prison?

Ever since the flames rose from the ground beneath her feet, Shirley felt that she was in a narrow and dark place.

After absorbing the core of the Fallen Abyss, she had already advanced into a

Transcendent, but she was still sent here without any warning or resistance.

In the Fire Code City, the only person who could do this was probably...

In Shirley's mind, the image of Archbishop Maggie performing God's Descent a few minutes ago appeared. It was dozens of meters tall, even bigger than the city wall, and was made of flames.

Furthermore, when the other party extended his hand, the sky was dyed red with a single finger. Countless burning meteorites fell from the sky. The Fallen Abyss claws that Shirley thought were extremely powerful were all turned into ashes in the blink of an eye.

This was true power.

In comparison, the gap between her and the other party was like a star and an ant. Even if she had imagined it countless times, the shock she felt when she saw it with her own eyes was incomparable.

so...

He still couldn't hide it?

That was true.

Facing such a person...No, it should be a god. No secrets could be hidden, and she, as the “culprit” of the Fallen Abyss disaster, was discovered. This seemed to be the normal ending.

When she thought of this, she sighed deeply in her heart.

So, what would happen to her next?

Was he going to send him to the Fire God Cult for interrogation?

Or would he be tied to the cross of the Knights of Fire and burned to death as a heretic to give an explanation to the suffering people in the city?

Or rather...Was he going to imprison her in this pitch-black void forever?

It would be too fake to say that he was not afraid.

However, Xue Li was certain that he didn't regret it.

After all, although she couldn't be said to be outstanding, she had already completed the tasks that Lord Hei had given her.

She had saved Harvey from the Fallen Abyss Tide, who wanted to sacrifice himself for nothing. This human seemed to have caught Lord Black's eye. Although his methods were very villainous, she had played the role of a villain in the first place. She had successfully let Lord Black use her mouth to hint at the abnormality of the Fire God, laying the foundation for Maggie to be awakened later.

She also tried her best to control the Fallen Abyss. She left all the elite Fallen Abyss creatures in Red Flame Town and tried her best to let the lowest level creatures attack Fire Code City to minimize the cost of awakening Maggie. At the same time, she also gave Lady Vivian enough space to play.

She even intentionally, although it was her own decision, killed the only bishop left in Fire Code City, so that Lady Vivian could take the throne after the event without any competition.

As a villain, she was undoubtedly stained with blood and committed a heinous crime.

But it was also because of this that Vivian, who defeated her, could gain more honor and reputation. In less than half a day, she became a hero and the road ahead was incomparably bright.

So, what was there to regret?

After all, wasn't this enough?

This was also the final result that Lord Hei had hoped to see. It was her role in Lord Hei's heart, right?

If...

If there was one thing Xue Li regretted, it was that she shouldn't have been so greedy.

She thought that after the matter was done, she could escape from the eyes of Maggie, who was possessed by the Fire God, and let Lord Black eat her to escape the Fire God's revenge.

As for the result, it was just like now.

Without a doubt, he failed.

If she had known this would happen, she would not have let Lord Black take the risk to get involved with her and let her die at the hands of the Fire God. This way, the entire plan would be flawless and there would be no stain. Hope...

She hoped that her relationship with Lord Hei had not been exposed. She did not want to become a stain on Lord Hei.

Xue Li, who was still in the form of a black and white female wolf cub from Liao Zixuan, prayed silently in her heart.

And it seemed.

As if she had heard her prayers, light suddenly appeared in this pitch-black space.

What was that?

When Cher got closer, she was surprised to find that the light was like a small magic projection, allowing her to see the scene outside.

Although he couldn't hear the sound, he could see the scene.

As a third party, Shirley watched the conversation between Maggie and Vivian. She saw that Maggie wanted to entrust the Heart of God to the girl, and the forbidden monster, the Divine Fire Phoenix, to Vivian. In the end, she even gave the girl a precious necklace as a reward, and then teleported the girl away.

Xue Li was silent.

Everything was as she had imagined. She had achieved her purpose.

However, soon, the emotions on Shirley's body fluctuated. The little female wolf cub subconsciously moved closer to her, and closer to her, like a magic projection in the darkness.

Because she saw that after Vivian left, the second target that Margie, or Alice the Fire God, found was...

It was dark.

Xue Li's breathing quickened in an instant. She was afraid that Lord Black would also be treated badly by the Fire God because of her.

Fortunately, although the conversation between Lord Black and the Fire God was not very long, the Fire God did not give Lord Black any reward like it did to Vivian. However, it seemed that it did not make things difficult for Lord Black, which finally relieved Shirley's last bit of worry..

Chapter 170: My Shirley! 2

That's great...

He had succeeded!

Together, they had fooled the Fire God! Even the God of Fire was kept in the dark. This might be the most powerful thing in the world. It was not anyone else, not even Lady Vivian, but her... She and Lord Hei completed it together!

This secret was between her and Lord Black, and no one else in the world would know about it. Xue Li liked the feeling of Lord Black belonging to her, even though...It was just an experience.

That's great..

Unknowingly, the wolf cub's two paws were already pressed against the magic projection.

Xue Li's gaze was locked onto the black-haired handsome young man who could even chat with the Fire God. She was watching his every movement, every expression, and even the way he mouthed.

After all, this might very well be the last time she would be able to see Lord Black.

The good times were always fleeting.

Finally.

Just like Vivian, Lord Black was also sent back to Fire Code City safely by Fire

God.

That's great...

This was the third time Xue Li had said this in her heart.

But why...

He should be happy for the people in the United States.

But why...

Xue Li felt tears welling up in her eyes. When Liao Zixuan's figure finally disappeared from her sight, her heart seemed to have been pulled out and became empty. A wave of sadness seemed to drown her.

Goodbye... Lord Hei.

Just when the atmosphere was supposed to be intense, a voice that didn't seem to understand the atmosphere suddenly rang out in the pitch-black space where Cher was.

“Hey, hurry, hurry, why are you in such a hurry? She’s not your wife. Can’t you let her wait a little longer and chat with me a little longer? Really!” “I’m a mighty Fire God. Am I not as good as a little girl like her??

A cursing voice rang out in Cher’s ears.

Then, Alice, the Fire God, walked out of the flames and appeared in the pitch-black space where Shirley was imprisoned.

The Fire God’s Throne arrived, and Alice sat on it angrily.

Raising Maggie’s round thighs...Uh, why did it feel a little strange?

In short, it seemed like he had finally finished complaining about a certain someone.

Alice finally looked at the person opposite her.

She was clearly crying just now, as if she was going to die. She was so sad that she was about to die.

However, the moment she appeared, she immediately restrained her emotions and instantly turned into Xue Li, who looked like her sister’s ice sculpture.

Humph.

Alice felt a chill in her heart.

She was still playing tricks with her, thinking that she could fool him. Xue Li did this because she did not want him to know about the relationship between the two wolf cubs.

“Do you want to do it yourself, or should I help you?” Alice, who was sitting on the Fire God’s Throne, asked lazily.

Xue Li was silent.

Alice didn’t waste any time. She stretched out her hand and pointed at Xue Li. Then, Xue Li’s body started to transform uncontrollably. In the end, she turned into the villain that Liao Zixuan had designed for her, the one who had enveloped Fire Code City in fear, the Fallen Abyss Queen.

“Do you have anything to say about your crimes? Last words, repentance...You can quibble. Anything is fine. Who knows? I might let you go if I’m happy. I’m serious. I’m not joking!

“After all, to me, what you’ve caused is just a small matter. I don’t care at all.”

Alice tried to bewitch Shirley.

However, all he received was silence.

This was something Xue Li had already thought of. No matter what the other party asked her or said to her, she would never say a word.

“Alright.”

“Since you don’t want to say anything. Then you...Go to hell.”

Seeing Cher like this, Alice seemed to have lost interest. With a wave of her hand, Cher didn’t even have the chance to resist. Her hands and feet were tied up by the hot iron chains.

Her entire body was like the word “big” as she was trapped in the air by the Fire God Chain.

“I’ll give you one last chance. Is there anything else you want to say?”

Alice held her beautiful chin and tapped her other hand on the seat. Her eyes swept back and forth between Shirley's fair and tender body, which was not inferior to hers.

"I shouldn't have asked..." After muttering softly.

Alice very mischievously imitated the classic movements that Liao Zixuan had designed for Shirley. She stretched out her left hand and snapped her fingers at Shirley who was tied up in the air.

Pa!

Whoosh!

The Fire God's Flame, the most terrifying flame in the world, rapidly spread along the chains, and in the blink of an eye, it continued to climb up Xue Li's body.

"Oh..." A painful groan suddenly sounded in the space.

Even for Xue Li, when her entire body, every part of her body, and even her soul felt a burning sensation, even if she gritted her teeth, she still couldn't endure the pain.

At this moment, as if it had sensed the danger of its host, the Fallen Abyss core that Xue Li had fused with, the power of the Fallen Abyss that originally belonged to the bone dragon, which Xue Li didn't even know about, was activated.

In an instant, an evil aura burst out from Xue Li's body uncontrollably. It was so violent that it forcefully occupied Xue Li's consciousness and took over her body, wanting to resist the Fire God's Flame.

However, how could the light of a firefly match the bright moon?

Very soon, the last remaining power of the Fallen Abyss core was used up by the Fire God's Flame. If the original core was an engine that still had the remnants of someone else's inferior oil, then the oil in this engine had been completely drained.

Only then did Xue Li regain her consciousness and return to her body. Before she could react to what had just happened, another force in her body began to protect her master.

That was...It belonged to Lord Black.

NO!

He must not be exposed!

Previously, the remnant power of Fallen Abyss had occupied Xue Li's consciousness. She had no way of controlling it, but Dark Flame was different. Xue Li could use her will to suppress it.

Even if she were to be burned to death, she was unwilling to use even a bit of her dark flame to fight against it.

The biggest reason was that if she did this, it would be equivalent to exposing her relationship with Lord Black.

The second and deeper reason was...

This was what Lord Hei had left for her. It was the last bond between her and Lord Hei. Even if she died, she wanted to die with him. She couldn't waste a single bit of it.

"Hey, alright, alright. Why are you being so loyal in front of me? That guy can't see it.

Alice seemed to be bored. She stood up and walked in front of Shirley. Then, her slender fingers began to slide towards Shirley's delicate abdomen.

Immediately after, a strange pattern appeared on Xue Li's lower abdomen. Immediately after, Xue Li felt an uncontrollable heat coming from her lower abdomen.

Err... The higher-ups crossed out those who had misunderstood.

The dark flame in Shirley's abdomen was guided into the core of the Fallen Abyss by Alice's magic circle, replacing the original source of the bone dragon.

It was too complicated to explain, but to sum it up, the Fallen Abyss core was borrowed from the skeletal dragon by Xue Li, and now...

It had become a Fallen Flame Core that truly belonged to Xue Li.

At the same time, the Fire God Shackles that had been restraining Xue Li disappeared, and Xue Li regained her freedom.

And in contrast, our Vulcan has become a 'nation's sidekick'

"Tired...I'm so tired."

After finishing all this, Alice saw that her fair forehead was covered in fine beads of sweat. There were even a few strands of hair stuck to it. Her eyes were as blurred as if she had solved the last big math problem. Her lips opened and closed, like a hibiscus out of water, adding a little temptation.

Her ample chest was heaving up and down, and her archbishop robe was obviously unable to bear the weight. It was showing signs of being torn apart, and her shoulders slid down. Her long legs were sprawled on both sides of the Fire God's Throne without any regard for her image. In short, she had exposed all the places that could be exposed, as if she was dissipating heat after being overloaded.

Tell a joke, Fire God is cooling.

After lying on the chair and panting for a while, Alice finally sat up straight again and restored her image of the God of Fire.

The next sentence that she said made Xue Li's heart skip a beat.

"So, can we talk now?"

"Xue Li?"
