Chapter 171: Candy, It's Candy!_I

He was like an empty-nest old man. It was not easy for him to get a chance to have a heart-to-heart talk with the children, but in the end, he accidentally said too much.

Alice held her forehead and sighed sadly.

I know, you guys were forcefully captured by an empty and lonely old thing like me, and then you kept listening to me nag, so you must be very impatient. ' But I'm clearly trying my best to explain my worldview to you guys...' She muttered in a low, aggrieved voice that only she could hear.

Soon, the tone changed.

"But I still have to say...'

"Xue Li, you are the biggest problem among them. "Alice's expression was very serious.

"Logically speaking, you should have died long ago...Yes, just like your Silver Earth Wolf pack, they will become Fallen Abyss monsters and die under my magic.

But someone used the forbidden power of the Dability to forcefully revive you.

Then, in a sense...

"How should I put it? The ending of you being turned into a monster hasn't changed either. It's just that you're a new type of monster that even I can't figure out."

Alice mercilessly labeled Shirley as a "monster."

"To be honest, I think highly of Vivian and her little wolf. I even gave them the task of influencing the future of the Flame Domain.

"I know that you are very smart and sensible, so I believe that you can understand what I mean.

Facing Alice's gaze, Shirley lowered her head, her long bangs covering her face.

There was silence.

This time, it wasn't because she was afraid that the secret would be leaked like before. It was because the Fire God knew everything. He even knew what she didn't know. Cher was just running away.

But Alice did not give her the chance.

"Monsters are called monsters because they are dangerous and uncontrollable.

"If I hadn't used up more than half of my divine power today to help you wipe out the remaining power in the depths of the Fallen Abyss 'core, you might have been controlled by it one day in the future and lost yourself.

"However, the power of Fallen Abyss is too mysterious. Even I don't understand it. Although it seems to be foolproof now, who knows when the hidden danger that even I can't detect will jump out of your body again?"

Although Alice didn't move, her words had forced Shirley into a corner.

"You're so confident that you can control a part... A power that even gods couldn't control?"

Her fingernails dug deep into her flesh, and after the last sentence, the inside of Shirley's lips was bitten.

Stop there.

Alice waved her hand, and the space began to collapse. The figure of the Fire God gradually disappeared, and the surroundings became the beautiful scenery of the God Split Lake.

Cutie Lise's cruel voice echoed in Cher's ears.

"If I were you, I would use this opportunity today to leave them.

"As a monster..."

"You have to have the self-awareness of being a monster. Don't ask for too much."

A drizzle had unknowingly enveloped the God Rending Lake.

The afternoon was approaching the sunset, the sky was gradually darkening, and now it was becoming more gray and overcast. Just like how Xue Li was feeling right now.

It was lifeless.

It turned out to belong to Xue Li's smooth and supple hair, the snow white hair that she especially liked, especially that slightly upturned hair that could be called soul hair.

At this moment, under the curtain of rain, the body of the statue had become like a wilted flower, completely soaked and pressed up, twisting and turning in a mess.

Of course, compared to her hair, Xue Li's current mood was really messy.

In the rain, she looked in the direction of Fire Code City.

However, when she wanted to raise her foot several times, she retracted it and stood there.

The rain began to flow down Xue Li's completely soaked hair. It slid down her neck and continued to seep through her clothes. Finally, the cold sensation spread to every part of Xue Li's body.

Finally, he seemed to have made up his mind. Or rather, this was his plan from the start.

Xue Li's gaze finally moved away from the direction of the city, before she turned in the opposite direction.

Let's go.

He muttered to himself in his heart.

He was like a drenched chicken, a defeated dog that was going to wander.

Lord Black must be in a warm room with Vivian now, sitting by the fire, surrounded by people celebrating and praising them.

Shirley could picture such a scene in her mind.

After all, she clearly remembered what the Fire God Alice had said at the beginning. Lord Black had said, "Don't make her wait too long." He urged Alice to end the conversation quickly.

Aside from Vivian, Shirley could not think of anyone else who could make Lord

Black so concerned about her. He did not even cherish the chance to talk to the Fire God, which was something that ordinary people dreamed of for their entire lives.

Really...How silly...Lord Hei...

Such a stupid black..Lord Hei, if in the future...If he didn't keep an eye on her by her side, she would have...What should he do...Wu...

The tip of her nose felt sour.

This was the first time Xue Li had such a feeling.

Immediately after, rainwater flowed down Shirley's eyes. Yes, it was definitely rainwater.

In any case, this was how she was going to be a bad influence.

Unlike Vivian, who had established a tight bond with Lord Black right from the start, and unlike Xin Yan, who had a noble and orthodox background and was of equal social status. Furthermore, with the help of the Fire God, even if they joined midway, it was equivalent to being bound to Lord Black.

As for her?

She did not have Vivian's integrity, kindness, and purity. Her hands were stained with blood, and there was evil power hidden in her body. She also had a lot of thoughts in her heart. She was even reprimanded by Lord Black because she doubted Vivian. Perhaps she had been hated by Lord Black since then?

She didn't have any powerful bloodlines. She was born as an ordinary, small Earth Silver Wolf. She was able to reach her current level because of Lord Black's charity.

Perhaps it was also because of this that she had obtained too many things that did not belong to her. That was why she did not have a contract that descended from the heavens, and that was why she could not be acknowledged by the Fire God. In fact, it was the complete opposite of the princess-like Xin Yan. The Fire God wanted to chase her, an outsider Cinderella, away.

Anyway...

No one would like or care about him like this, right?

This sentence is not aimless

Just as the Fire God had said, Xue Li was very smart. She was sure that with Lord Black's ability, he would definitely be able to guess the Fire God's attitude towards her. However, Lord Black...But... Lord Black didn't even have a single sentence in the parting words that he had the Fire God give them. Even a " Goodbye, Xue Xue Li " would have been fine!

So, let's go.

Just like Alice said, she might have asked for too much.

Xue Li felt that the rain was getting heavier.

Because the rain was getting heavier and heavier. If it wasn't getting heavier and heavier, what could it be?

However, just as Xue Li was about to leave Fire Code City, filled with confusion towards the future, and was about to take her first step towards an unknown place...

"Ah...Achoo!"

As if she really couldn't hold it in anymore, a loud sneeze suddenly came from behind a rock not far away from Shirley. Your mother, why is it raining? Damn it!

He had no choice.

Since he had been exposed.

Then he could only...

Cher was shocked, stunned, in disbelief, thinking that she was hallucinating. In short, her mind was blank.

Similarly, they waited for Xue Li in the rain for a long time.

However, he did not know what the other party was doing. It seemed that he had been standing still and thinking about something. He did not walk to the stone for a long time, so he was drenched. He even sneezed like he had caught a cold...

He had no choice but to walk out from behind the rock he was hiding behind.

It took him quite some effort to finally meet Xue Li's eyes, which were running around in a panic.

Chapter 172: Lord Black, Shirley... Shirley Can't Hold It In

Anymore

Shirley was speechless.

Silence, silence.

After Liao Zixuan thought that his greeting was very infectious, a few seconds later, there was still only the sound of drizzle around him. Err...

Very good, it appeared. It was a wild awkward silence!

Good my ass!

Xue Li, say something!

Liao Zixuan was a little flustered. Why was this not the same as what he had imagined?

Could it be that the way he opened it wasn't right?

Then let's do it again.

"Yo, Shirley!"

"Hello?"

"Hey hey hey, Xue Li, what's wrong? Hiss... Could it be that old woman Fire God bullied you? Damn it, you're waiting for me! I'll go and fight her now!"

The black-haired young man opposite her was about to roll up his sleeves and clench his fists, as if he was really pretending to be good. He was about to settle the score with Alice aggressively.

It was supposed to be a funny scene where Lord Black was teasing her, but Xue Li just couldn't laugh.

However, it was still effective.

"Black... Lord Hei."

Xue Li finally spoke.

She really wanted to hold back the trembling in her voice, but it was clearly such a simple thing, but she was completely unable to do it now.

“Why are you...Why was it...Here?” Xue Li wiped the rainwater from the corner of her eyes.

She wanted to make herself look more ordinary and good-looking.

However, the rain did not stop, and the more the rain fell, the more rain there was.

Especially after the black-haired young man’s next sentence, Shirley felt that the heavens were doing it on purpose, and it began to rain heavily.

“What? What are you talking about?”

“Of course, I’m waiting for you to go back together.”

He sounded very puzzled.

Yes, it was as if he was saying something that was only natural.

Cher felt her heart clench as the core engine furnace started to spin uncontrollably, causing her body temperature to rise.

“But...But you...Didn’t you say to Lord Fire God at that time... He said that he could not let Lady Vivian wait...Were they anxious from waiting..

“You’re being reckless now... Wasting time on me, really...I really don’t...” Before Xue Li could finish her sentence, Liao Zixuan interrupted her.

“Stop! Stop! What is it?”

' I did ask Alice to do it faster, but it's not because of Vivian. She has been safely sent back to Fire Code City, and Little Xinyan is with her. Compared to her...' "I'm more worried about you, Cher.

"After all, look, that old woman Alice deliberately did something bad and separated you from us. I just feel that if you stay alone for too long... You'll definitely feel uneasy, right?"

Achoo!

Liao Zixuan had just finished speaking when he sneezed again.

What kind of weather is this!

In the past, Liao Zixuan felt that in novels and movies, whenever there was a sentimental scene, there would be a light rain and the atmosphere would be quite good. However, after he really went on stage...

His entire body was wet.

Moreover, there was no atmosphere at all when he sneezed!

While Liao Zixuan was cursing the weather in his heart, Xue Li felt dizzy. Her Fallen Flame Core was so hot that it felt like it was going to burn her whole body.

There was only one sentence in Shirley's heart.

Order Order Order Order Order Order Order Order He was waiting for me...

It turned out that the " she " that the Fire God had mentioned was not Vivian, but...On his own.

"Alright, alright, come over quickly."

Liao Zixuan didn't care that Xue Li's heart had already become a mess after his words. Or perhaps, he deliberately didn't go deeper.

He dragged the white-haired girl who was in a daze to a tree to shelter from the rain.

At the same time...

"Come, Xue Li, I'll give you something good! "Liao Zixuan rubbed his hands excitedly, his face full of eagerness.

Then, under Shirley's silly gaze, he started from the crotch...He took out a red feather from his pocket.

"Yes! The Blazing Feather!

"Let me tell you, this is definitely something good! Although it looked like a feather on the outside...Uh, alright, it was indeed just a feather, but that was not important. What was important was that it came from a phoenix! It was still his natal fur! The kind that only had three nylas on its body!

Liao Zixuan proudly showed off the red Flaming Plume in front of Xue Li.

He had paid a huge price to let Vivian sleep with him for a night after he had seen Xinyan's skill panel. Only then did he get Xinyan, that little loli, to pull out this one from her body and give it to him with a pained expression.

As for the effects...

What was that? You don't know? Go back and read the skill description properly!

"I told you to pretend to fight with Vivian. You know that Vivian didn't know our plan and thought that you were the culprit. So, she hurt you a lot, right?"

As Liao Zixuan spoke, he looked at Xue Li's body. It was not difficult to find that although there were no obvious scars, there were still many shallow marks left on her body. It was obvious that simple treatment could not heal her injuries.

He reached out and gently touched the marks on Xue Li's body. Then, he touched Xue Li's head.

"I apologize to you on her behalf, and...I know you wouldn't be able to treat these injuries, so I came to help you.

As soon as he finished speaking, Liao Xuan activated the Scorching Feather in his palm. In an instant, the ordinary red feather suddenly burned like a flame, becoming beautiful and dreamy as it fused into Xue Li's body.

The three Flaming Feathers had three different effects. Liao Zixuan wanted the Healing Feather that symbolized the Phoenix's powerful " Life Recovery

Power."

In less than half a second, she could feel waves of life force surging out of her body and fusing into her organs, muscles, bones, skin...

Whether it was the previous battle with Vivian or the injury that Alice had violently removed a few minutes ago, all of them recovered at an extremely fast speed until they completely disappeared.

It could even be said that there was a lot of extra life force in Xue Li's body. It was removing the impurities in Xue Li's body, making her skin smoother and more delicate. Her eyes were more lively, and her silver hair was like pure white snow. Perhaps it was Liao Zixuan's illusion, but even many other parts of her body had become bigger and rounder.

* Cough cough *

Hiss, the effect seemed to be surprisingly good. He had to find some time to pluck another one from Xinyan's body and give it to Vivian!

Perhaps he could tell what Liao Zixuan was thinking.

It had to be said that in some aspects, a female's intuition was truly terrifying.

But at this moment, even if it was just for a short while, even if it was using some despicable means, Xue Li wanted to make Lord Black only have her in his mind.

"Black... Lord Black, Xue Li felt...My body is hot."

"Then...Why don't you go out yourself and pour the rain for a while to lower the temperature?" Liao Zixuan seemed to have noticed what Xue Li was going to do. He began to quietly pull away from her.

But how could Xue Li give Liao Zixuan this chance?

One had to know that once a wolf set its sights on its prey, it would never stop.

A rustling sound rang out.

This was not the sound of rain, but the sound of fabric rubbing against skin.

"Wait a minute!" Liao Zixuan immediately turned his head over.

However, the next second, two fair arms hugged him from behind. At the same time, he felt a strong pressure on his back.

"Lord Black, Lord Alice is in Shirley's...She did some strange things on her stomach.

“Xue Li also does not know why...” “But Shirley... She just couldn’t help it!

Unfortunately.

The higher the moral, the higher the evil. You’re still the one who’s slandering the Lord.

Xue Li had never expected that Lord Black would actually choose to face this kind of person after she had already entered the spring water. Unplug the network cable!

Xue Li only felt a white light flash in front of her eyes. Immediately after, her entire body was lifted up. Don’t misunderstand, it was the kind of thing where she was still hugging the other party’s waist a second ago, but in the next second...

She left the ground and lay on her stomach...On the black wolf..

Chapter 173: The Demoness Cultivation Plan Has Successfully Entered the Second Phase!_I “Lord Hei...

On the back of the giant wolf, a ghost-like voice sounded.

“What is it?” Liao Zixuan was good at playing dead.

“Lord Hei, you... What are you doing?

“As you can see, after transforming into a human for a long time, return to your true form and exercise your muscles and bones. ”

Liao Zixuan replied without blushing.

The situation was completely within his control. He did not panic at all!

On the other side.

Xue Li's body was pressed against the wolf's back. Every inch of her skin was connected to Liao Zixuan's soft and shiny fur. She could feel the body temperature of the black wolf, which was like a huge furnace.

And she was like a piece of white ice cream that was roasted on top.

With every breath of the giant black wolf and every powerful heartbeat, the ice cream seemed to melt a little and became wet uncontrollably. If this continued, it would probably turn into juice and flow out.

Sigh...

He sighed.

The resentment in Xue Li's heart grew even stronger.

That was because the human form was too fragile. Just this bit was enough to make it pass...

Even though he was secretly resentful.

She was even more reluctant and wanted to lie down for a while longer.

However, she had already turned from Shirley into ice cream. In order to prevent herself from turning into snow water again, she quickly got off the back of the black wolf obediently.

Rustling sounds came from the rain again.

After dressing up, Shirley's face was no longer as red and blurry as before. She returned to her normal state, the cold and indifferent face that Liao Zixuan had designed for her at the beginning.

"Sorry, Lord Black's 'Bail."

"Just now, Xue Li was possessed by the Fallen Abyss. However, there is no need to worry about Lord Black. Xue Li has already eliminated all the evil thoughts that were bewitched by the Fallen Abyss.

What did he mean by not blushing, not beating his heart, and talking nonsense in all seriousness!

Xue Li was now facing Liao Zixuan, who had transformed into a giant black wolf. She knelt on one knee, her head slightly drooping, and her eyes were looking at the ground, just like a loyal officer under the Wolf King.

Looking at the current situation, no one would associate this silver-haired lady who exuded a cold aura with the snovvy girl who almost dirtied the wolf's back a few seconds ago.

It was still the same sentence. Shirley was very smart, and she was very clear about her identity and position, although she didn't know if this was good or bad.

In short, Lord Hei's attitude had already made everything clear.

The current her...

It was obvious that he was not qualified enough, or perhaps it was not the time yet.

The second tip was to quickly shift the position and shift the center of gravity to another place.

For example..

Business.

“Lord Black, Lord Fire God once said that she had entrusted a very important task to you and Lady Vivian, so... May I know what our future plans are?” Xue Li’s light voice rang out in the light rain.

After the descent of the Fallen Abyss in Fire Code City was quelled, her original identity as the “ leader of the villains ” was also voided.

Therefore, the first thing Xue Li needed to do was to find her new identity for Lord Hei.

Xue Li already had a plan regarding this, but she still wanted to hear Lord Black’s thoughts first.

Opposite him.

They had planned to talk about it when they got back, but since Shirley had asked, Liao Zixuan told her the details of the mission Alice had given them, as well as the plan to leave the Flame Field for the Red Plume Harbor in a month and go to the neighboring Thousand Islands of the Water Country.

After listening carefully and memorizing everything, Shirley immediately asked again,

“Then Lord Hei, what do I need to do next?”

Err...

Looking down at the workaholic Cher, Liao Zixuan wiped the sweat off his forehead. He was too embarrassed to continue.

“That... Xue Li, look, you’ve been quite tired these past few days. I think since we have a month’s buffer time, why don’t we take the opportunity to rest and adjust?”

“We should eat, drink, and enjoy our debauchery in the Fire Code City...Cough, isn’t it wonderful to enjoy a happy and beautiful life?”

“Just like my favorite author, White Crit, once said, slacking off is for better creation! Put yourself in our shoes. Rest is to have more energy to complete the mission in the future!

It was reasonable and convincing.

“Shirley, what do you think?” “I think Lord Black is right.”

Yay!

Liao Zixuan had just been happy to drag a strong woman into the water and slack off together. However, Shirley’s next sentence made him recognize reality.

People, oh no, wolves and wolves could not be treated the same way.

” You and Lady Vivian do need to rest, but it is precisely because of this that you need me more to continue to develop our forces and prepare for the difficult tasks in the future.

Wait, what was it? To develop our forces?

Before Liao Zixuan could react, Xue Li continued to speak. She had already thought about it in her heart, and she gave her a new identity.

‘ Lord Black, please allow me to continue my activities in the dark. The first step is to use this brand new God Splitting Lake as the center and make all the newborn monsters in the surrounding forest obey Lord Black. This way, we can beat everyone else to occupy this land of rebirth with great potential..”

Chapter 174: The Demoness Cultivation Plan Has Successfully Entered the Second Phase!_2

“I can guarantee you that in less than a week, all the rich natural resources in this God Rending Lake will belong to you.

This was Cher’s blueprint, and it was also her instinct as a monster and a wolf.

Territory.

Territory Awareness.

Just like the original Dreadclaw Forest. The reason why it was called that was because there was a Demonic Tyrannosaurus named “Dreadclaw” who became the master of the forest. Now, in terms of the strongest demon...

Shirley couldn’t think of anyone else who could compete with her for the God Splitting Lake.

She was the new queen of the monsters here.

Alright then.

Seeing the eagerness in Xue Li’s eyes, Liao Zixuan was too embarrassed to say anything, so he forcefully pulled Xue Li along with him to destroy the Fire Code City.

Moreover, to be honest, Xue Li’s words had moved his heart.

Liao Zixuan wasn’t a geologist, so he couldn’t be too sure how rich a forest’s resources could be.

However, he knew that in his previous life, when the game was open beta, the Forest of Dread Claw was known as the Holy Land of leveling.

Other than the large number of novice villages that were fed by the forest, which provided a large number of daily missions, sub-classes, and resting places, there were also countless low-level monsters that provided experience points.

More importantly, the players could gather all kinds of materials from the forest. Whether it was making weapons, potions, alchemy items, and so on, they could not leave the Dreadclaw Forest.

The forest around the God Splitting Lake had absorbed the power of the Fire God, which was leaked from the legendary Heart of God, which was smashed by Vivian. It was a super evolved version of the Dreadclaw Forest.

Therefore, whether it was the quality of the surrounding monsters or the natural resources, they were definitely much better than the original.

Cher had taken control of this place as a territory and became the Lord of the monsters. Putting everything else aside, once the open beta was launched, it would be as if she had obtained a large number of player resources without any effort.

Just the forest around the lake was already so attractive, not to mention the main God Splitting Lake. The scenery was beautiful, like a divine lake.

By then, even if he were to sell the tickets, he would be able to earn money lying down. He would never have to worry about not having enough gold coins for the rest of his life. He would have a pot full of gold coins, and he could buy as many beautiful dresses as he wanted for Vivian!

Thinking about it, it was true.

Occupy! He had to occupy such a good treasure land!

“Xue Li, then...You’ve worked hard.”

Liao Zixuan subconsciously wanted to rub his nose to ease the awkwardness. After all, it would turn into him and Vivian eating and drinking happily while Shirley worked hard for them behind their backs.

In the end, he realized that he was still in his wolf form to prevent Cher from coveting his body. It had to be said that it was very ironic. This was a man!

Xue Li, who was sitting opposite him, seemed to have noticed Lord Black's embarrassment.

She continued to maintain her cold face as she said calmly,

"It's not hard for Xue Li to work for Lord Hei.

"And...

"I wonder if Lord Black has enough exercise? Xue Li felt that it was easier to communicate in her human form. Alright, you little Shirley!

He had grown capable!

He even learned to secretly poke at others' backbones with a blank expression!

Liao Zixuan could hear the hidden meaning in Xue Li's words, but he couldn't say anything. After all, he was very lazy, and he knew very well that once some things crossed that line, many relationships would become extremely complicated. He didn't want that to happen.

Everyone is my wing!

Well, today, he wanted to become an outstanding man who did not need to think with his lower body!

In the end, just as Liao Zixuan let down his guard, under Xue Li's suggestion, he transformed back into the appearance of a black-haired youth..

He was caught off guard and something he did not expect happened.

Xue Li, who had been talking about serious matters with him, suddenly seemed to seize this opportunity and quickly took a small step forward.

Then, before Liao Zixuan could react...

Xue Li hugged the black-haired youth tightly.

However...

He only hugged her and did not do anything else.

“Lord Hei, just a little while...Can I?”

Xue Li was slightly shorter than Liao Zixuan, but not by much. She could rest her head on the young man’s broad shoulders.

She leaned close to Liao Zixuan’s ear, and her gentle and warm breath hit his ear, making it a little numb.

Maybe she wanted to do it in one go, so she didn’t give Liao Zixuan a chance to speak again. Shirley quickly said,

“If even this level is not allowed, then Xue...Xue Li is going to be angry!” The silver-haired girl’s feigned anger sounded in Liao Zixuan’s ears.

But it wasn’t hard to tell that even if it was just a little willfulness, it took a lot of courage for Shirley to do it. After all, this wasn’t something a subordinate could do to a superior.

Nonsense! Subordinates should be gossipy with their superiors! Shirley, I support you... Mm... Wu wu...

(I was dragged away

In the rain curtain of the God Splitting Lake, it was as if the entire world was only left with the rustling sound of the drizzle.

Neither of them spoke after that.

They hugged each other for a while.

It was as if he wanted to rub Lord Black's scent into his body. After all, they would definitely be separated for a period of time.

At the very least, Xue Li wouldn't return to Fire Code City before she completely occupied and ruled over the God Rend Lake.

Enough is enough.

Before reluctantly parting for the last time.

"Lord Hei, although we did not succeed today, but...Shirley will not give up on the possession of the

"This..."

"Just treat it as a reward for your work. "After whispering softly, Xue Li sneakily kissed Liao Zixuan on the cheek.

The set of movements was as smooth as flowing water, as if he had rehearsed it many times in his mind.

Shirley's third love tip was to learn to take the initiative inadvertently!

However...

She was really...I cried my heart out, but I only dared to kiss a small part of her cheek.

After that, perhaps it was because she did not want Liao Zixuan to see her flustered and embarrassed appearance, or perhaps she was afraid that if she stayed any longer, she would not be able to suppress the desire in her heart.

Xue Li's body changed, turning into her original black and white wolf form.

In the blink of an eye, he disappeared from Liao Zixuan's line of sight and disappeared into the distant forest by the lake.

He reached out and touched the spot where he had felt the soft sensation of the first wave of the hand.

There was still some warmth and moisture on it.

"Good!"

"Then we have to start now!" Liao Zixuan patted his face and perked up.

Of course, he couldn't just let Cher do all the work. The God Splitting Lake was indeed better than the Forest of Dreadclaw in his previous life, but there was one thing that was missing.

They were the surrounding human villages and towns that had been destroyed by the disaster.

Don't underestimate the use of these villagers and towns.

Not only were they an important part of the novice village in the early stages, they could gather and attract a large number of players. They could also be used as a hub for resources, allowing Liao Zixuan to truly transform the natural resources of the God Rending Lake into wealth and enter his pocket.

To put it simply, it was the relationship between the territory and the people. Both were indispensable.

Since this place was regarded as his rear base camp, the relevant reconstruction work was imperative.

As a magical creature, Cher couldn't help much with this, so she had to rely on Vivian in Fire Code City to run the operation.

It wasn't difficult to do so. After all, there was a large number of refugees outside the city. They couldn't possibly let them stay in the refugee camp forever. The Fire Code City officials would definitely want to rebuild it.

However, it was simple...

Who would pay the money, who would contribute, and whether there would be hidden forces eyeing this piece of fat meat and secretly doing some small tricks. These could not be solved simply by relying on force.

However, it was just nice.

It would be a training for the little girl before she traveled around the world.

Vivian had more or less learned how to deal with monsters, so what awaited her next was... How to deal with people.

Fire Code City was a place where all kinds of people were mixed together. After this disaster, there were many forces that wanted to reshuffle their cards. It was simply a "leveling" treasure land for little girls!

Good! Then, I officially announce that the Demoness Cultivation Project has successfully entered the second phase!

First, set a small goal!

Within this month...

Let the people of the Flame Region's capital, Fire Code City..

All of you, kneel before Miss Vivian...Bah! He must be trembling under the terror of Witch Vivian!

Chapter 175: The First Day of a Brand New Life, Starting From the Death of Society!_I

The sky was still bright.

In the spacious and warm guest room of the mansion, the dark-colored curtains made of high-quality fabric blocked out the morning light, keeping the room dark and helpful for sleep...Sleep in.

This design was well received by the nobles.

Generally speaking, nobles who had a high expectation of their own manners would usually wake up at 90 am. In fact, most nobles would have breakfast, lunch, and sometimes afternoon tea together.

As for the remaining few Fire Code City nobles...

What was that? Wasn't the daytime used for sleeping?

People who could wake up at six or seven in the morning were all monsters, right?

Hello, no, there's still a hardworking little girl.

Although a lot of things had happened yesterday and she was physically and mentally exhausted, Vivian's biological clock still woke her up at around six o'clock on time.

She carefully lifted the silk blanket that was as soft as water.

Similarly, this was also the first time the little girl knew that the bed...It was possible for the body to cave in a little after lying down.

Was this the life of a city dweller?

Alright...How terrifying.

After staying for only one night, Vivian found that she was a little intoxicated. She could not help but have the evil thought of "lazing in bed" in her mind, which she had never had since she was young.

No way, no way!

He couldn't let evil control his body.

He had to quickly get up and wash up before preparing breakfast for Xinyan and Little Black.

Since he thought of this.

Vivian quietly looked at the spot beside her on the bed.

The beds of nobles were usually very big, enough to accommodate two or three people, and even more people would have to spend the night together. As for the reason, it was obvious.

At this moment, not far away from the little girl, a little girl with milky yellow hair was lying in a sprawling position.

She was clearly only a little girl, but she could take up half the bed. Her cute and arrogant little feet kicked the blanket on her body to the side.

As for the other one, it was even more outrageous.

Good heavens, he directly placed his foot on the face of a wolf cub who was also sleeping soundly on the bed.

“Ah, this...”

Vivian quickly freed her wolf cub from Xinyan’s tender feet and gently stroked its flattened fur.

After covering herself with the blanket again, she wiped the corner of the little loli’s mouth with her hand. Xin Yan was about to drip saliva onto the blanket.

After doing all this, Vivian took off her slightly loose sleeping robe, changed into her original linen clothes, and tiptoed out of the room.

Count Sisre’s mansion was very big, so big that it was really possible to get lost.

Vivian only realized this after she came out, so she did not dare to walk around. After waiting in the corridor for a while, she finally saw a maid who was yawning. It seemed that she had just woken up. The little girl quickly walked forward.

“That... Hello, where can I get water?”

Vivian was still stuck in the thoughts of a village. She would go to the well in the morning to prepare water for washing and cooking.

She had also considered that the people in the city might be different from them when it came to fetching water.

For example, they used simple wooden barrels that could be seen everywhere, but the people in the city might use them...Silver or even gold utensils to scoop water from the well?

On the other side.

The sleepy-eyed maid was initially startled by Vivian's sudden approach and seemed to suddenly become nervous.

However, after hearing Vivian's question and sizing up the little girl below, especially when Vivian was reluctant to throw away the old clothes she was still wearing, the maid seemed to have let go of something and patted her chest with a long sigh. "Draw water?"

"Hey, are you new here?"

Before Vivian could reply, the maid waved her hand.

She felt that she had asked an idiot question.

Wasn't this nonsense? She had other special purposes. Other than a new maid, who else would wake up so early in the morning?

"Follow me." The maid continued to yawn as she led the way to the bathroom.

"Oh... Okay, okay, thank you!"

After the little girl thanked him, she quickly caught up with him and obediently followed behind the maid.

Seeing Vivian like this, perhaps it was because she was reminded of her own clumsy appearance when she was just bought into the earl's mansion from the countryside.

As the maid walked, she used the tone of an elder to talk to the little girl.

"In a while, watch and learn with me.

"Being able to come to our earl's mansion is many times better than going to other nobles!

I'm with you, I'm with you, I'm with Count Cessler. He treats us very well, he never beats or scolds us, and there's never been any bad rumors.

Vivian was not sure if she was imagining things.

However, the little girl felt that after the last sentence, there was a faint disappointment on the maid's face.

"However, compared to the Earl..." The maid paused.

She first looked around cautiously.. When there were only the two of them in the corridor early in the morning, the maid leaned closer to Vivian and whispered,"

Chapter 176: The First Day of a Brand New Life, Starting From the Death of Society!_2

"Compared to the Earl, our Miss Liz doesn't have a very good personality. Moreover, she has a very bad temper. It seems that she often dismisses us because of a small mistake. If you encounter her in the residence, you have to try your best to avoid her!

“Eh? Was that so? But I think Liz is still very...”

Before Vivian could finish, the maid interrupted her.

“What are you saying! How dare you call the young miss by her name? If Sir Robert hears this, you’ll be finished! ”

“Alright... Alright, but I think Miss Liz definitely has her own reasons...” Vivian still wanted to defend her daughter.

But...

“Don’t interrupt me! You’re a newbie, what do you know! Let me finish!” Even though she was not much older than Vivian, the maid still pretended to be old and frowned.

“Oh... Alright, alright.” The little girl shrunk her neck.

“We just happened to mention Lord Robert. Let me tell you, this Head Butler is the one we really have to pay attention to. After all, he’s the direct superior of all our maids. You should have been recruited by him, right?”

Recruit him...It should be counted, right?

Vivian nodded.

“And I’ll tell you a secret. Don’t tell anyone!

Perhaps it was because Vivian was so approachable that everyone felt a sense of intimacy, which made the maid talk more and more. It had only been a short while, but she had even opened up some of her innermost thoughts.

The maids lowered their voices and stopped in their tracks, whispering into Vivian's ear.

"There's always a rumor among us maids. I heard it from an older maid, but I don't know if it's true or not.

' But it's said that once in a while, a maid would mysteriously disappear from the earl's manor. Although Sir Robert's explanation to our internal department is all legitimate reasons, in reality..."

Some people said that the missing maids were actually toyed with by Sir Robert, then discarded and even sold to the gangsters!"

"Ah?" Vivian couldn't help but exclaim.

This frightened the maid opposite her and she quickly covered the little girl's mouth.

"Shh! What are you doing!"

"Sigh, why would I say this to a newcomer like you? In short, you just have to remember that no matter who you offend here, you must not offend Lord Robert. Do you understand?"

"Oh... Wu wu..." Vivian nodded, but her mouth was still covered by the maid who was still afraid.

"There's more!"

"Don't tell anyone about what I said to you just now. Otherwise, not only will we be fired, but the next maid who disappears in the rumors will be you and me! Do you understand? Newbie!"

"Oh... Wu wu..." Under the maid's serious gaze, Vivian, whose mouth was covered, nodded her head vigorously.

Seeing that Vivian had agreed to everything, the maid was relieved to remove her hand from her mouth.

“Alright, don’t think too much. As a newcomer, the most important thing for you now is to quickly learn the skills of being a maid and familiarize yourself with the castle as soon as possible.

“As for me, I feel that you’re quite pleasing to the eye, and your attitude is not bad. Otherwise... Will you follow me from now on? How was it? Sister is the best!

Patting the little girl’s thin shoulder, the maid waited for a reply with anticipation.

But Vivian stammered.

For a moment, she really did not know how to answer.

However, in the eyes of the maid opposite her, she thought that Vivian felt that her weight was not enough, so she hesitated.

Hence...

“Humph! Don’t think that I look very young, but let me tell you, I, but... She was determined to become the woman of the head maid!

“What’s wrong? You don’t believe me?”

Gritting her teeth, the maid seemed to really like Vivian, the obedient newcomer. She seemed to be going all out and wanted to prove her ability in front of the little girl.

“Consider yourself lucky. I’ll bring you to see the world today!

“See...See the world?”

“Yes, you must have heard about the big event that happened outside our Fire Code City yesterday, right? Monsters surrounded the city, Fire God descended, and Divine Phoenix appeared. Any one of them was a rare occurrence!

The maid’s tone was agitated, as if she had really returned to that time. But at this moment, Vivian’s weak voice interrupted him again.

“That... It should be a divine phoenix, not a divine phoenix.”

Phoenixes, phoenixes. The males were phoenixes, and the females were phoenixes. This was Vivian’s homework after contracting Xin Yan!

Hence, when she heard that the maid had misstated Xinyan’s gender, the little girl immediately pointed it out.

In the end.

“Aiya! Who cares if it’s a phoenix or a phoenix? What difference does it make to us? Also, you weren’t at the scene. How do you know it’s a phoenix? I think it’s the Phoenix Feng is so handsome! ”

Seeing that Vivian was about to argue again, the maid quickly reached out to stop her.

“Stop! The main point I want to say is not about this!”

” The real point is that before Lord Fire God descended, you must remember him. He fought against the demon wave alone and even cooperated with his demons to kill the monster leader and force back the demon wave!

The maid’s face was full of longing as she said this. There was even an inexplicable blush on her face.

“Oh my god! Can you imagine that scene?”

Chapter 177: The First Day of a Brand New Life, Starting From the Death of Society!J

“When everyone was in despair and fear, it was him! He stood up bravely! It was him who had saved tens of thousands of refugees outside the city! ”

“To be honest, I always thought that such a plot would only appear in novels. I didn’t expect such a character to really exist in reality...

The maid became more and more enthusiastic as she spoke. It was as if she could not help herself and could not control herself.

As she had described herself, she was no different from a little girl who had read a knight novel.

However, if that was all, the maid would not have been so excited.

What made her feel like she was dreaming was...

“You know what? Just last night, a distinguished guest quietly came to our Earl’s mansion. Guess who it was?” “Vivian was silent.

The little girl had a bad premonition.

“Aiya! Why are you so stupid! I’ve already laid out so much in front of you. With your brain, only I’m willing to help you!

The maid shook her head at the speechless Vivian.

However, it was soon overshadowed by the excitement that followed.

“It’s him! That mysterious hero of the entire Fire Law City!

“Do you dare to believe it? That lord he... He actually lives in the same castle as LIS!

“Oh, God of Fire, my God! Now that I think about it, I find it hard to believe. Our Earl is really too amazing. He can actually invite such an amazing guest.

Vivian felt that she could see stars in the eyes of the maid across from her.

Wait... Wait a minute, there seemed to be more than just little stars. There were also some strange heart-shaped patterns in the depths...

“So...So, when you say that you want to see the world...” Vivian finally understood the bad premonition that had been rising in her heart.

“You! Can you be smarter! People like us who come from the countryside, have no background, and have no money. If we don’t take advantage of our good looks and figures...”

Halfway through the words “ face and figure “, the maid glanced at Vivian and silently changed her words.

“If you don’t know how to make use of your pretty face, when will you be able to stand out! Do you really want to be an unknown maid for the rest of your life??

No, I’m not. I’m not. You, don’t talk nonsense!

However, it was as if there was no turning back after some switch was pressed. Even if Vivian regretted it and did not want the maid to continue, it was too late.

“Do you know why I woke up so early today? It was earlier than the other maidservants because I had received the message from the Oracle... * Cough * Cough cough!”

As if she almost blurted out something she shouldn't have said, the maid quickly coughed to cover it up.

This secret of hers must not be exposed.

” All in all, I got hold of the great news through some means. You're lucky to have gotten up so early and bumped into me. Otherwise, you would have missed the greatest chance to make a comeback in your life, just like the other maids who were still sleeping in bed without knowing anything!! ” As they talked, the two of them finally arrived at the bathroom door.

“The early bird catches the worm. This saying is true. Alright, we're here! This is it. Let's hurry up. Later, we'll help each other wash up and tidy up. I'll try to make you look better.”

“Then, we'll wait in the mansion for that lord...” Get close to us!”

It was as if he couldn't wait.

She grabbed Vivian, who was still a little confused by the logic of her words, and the maid led the little girl into the bathroom..

Chapter 178: Isn't This Maid a Minor Actor?_I

The sound of flowing water and...The whispers of two young girls could be heard from an empty bathroom in the manor in the early morning.

At first, the maid showed Vivian the way the city people fetched water, which surprised the little girl for a while.

However, after that, the scene started to deviate in a strange way.

“Wow! Newbie, I didn’t pay much attention to you before. You... How can your skin be so good?” The maid’s surprised voice rang out.

“That, I’m not too sure either...

“Really? Mm... This feels too elastic, as if it can squeeze out water. Quick, teach me. How did you do it?”

[How did you do it...]

[If you can also possess the strength of a Tier 3, the powerful magic in your body will naturally nourish your skin, idiot!] [So, can you get your dirty hands off Vivian’s body?]

[Is that something a maid like you can touch?!!

In order to prevent her other self from coming out to hit someone in the mental space, she was furious.

Vivian quickly escaped. The maid opposite her had said that she wanted to help her tidy up her appearance, but as soon as she touched her, her hand became more and more addicted.

“Sigh, I’m so envious...”

The maid looked as if she had not had enough.

She returned to the mirror in the bathroom and took out a small box from her pocket.

“Originally, I wanted to give you some, but now it seems that you don’t need these things at all.”

As the maid spoke with emotion, she began to rub a little from the small box with her finger and gently applied it to her neck and wrist.

“What is this?” Vivian asked curiously.

“Fragrance. It’s said that it was passed down from the Rock Kingdom. It’s very powerful. As long as you apply it a few times on your skin, it can make your entire body smell very fragrant. It’s as if you’re carrying a sachet with you.

“This is a precious thing that I saved up for a long time to buy. If it weren’t for the fact that I’m meeting that lord today, I wouldn’t have been willing to use it normally!

When the maid mentioned “ that lord “, it seemed to remind Vivian immediately.

Because if nothing unexpected happened...

According to the maid, the person who had saved Fire Code City from the crisis and moved into the Earl’s mansion last night...

He should be referring to...

Her!

What was worse was that the female servant had done the same thing to Xinyan, as if she had reversed her gender.

Originally, it was already enough for the little girl to feel ashamed when she heard others praising her and praising her heroic deeds in front of her. However, who would have thought that other than admiration, this maid also looked...

It seemed like he had some other thoughts about her, the “big shot”! He wanted to take the opportunity to hook up! Something indescribable had happened! It was just like the story of the prince and the girl in the novel.

This time, Vivian really could not hold on any longer.

She couldn't imagine what would happen if the maid learned the truth. She would die, Taishe would die, and not only the maid, but she would also die!

Therefore, in order to avoid the awkwardness later, the little girl decided to run away quickly.

"Then... Well, thank you so much for today. I've already washed up, so I'll just...

Let's go back."

However, Vivian had only taken a step when she heard a shout from behind.

"Stop!"

The maid quickly ran to the door of the bathroom and blocked the little girl with her hands on her hips.

"What are you doing? Scared? Hey, you! Although we don't have a good background, you have to be more confident!

"Look at your beautiful face, which is comparable to mine. And your skin, which even I can't catch up to, is almost better than those noble ladies.

"Although her figure...Your figure is a little bad, but you're still developing. Who knows, you might get up later?"

"Besides, according to what I know, there are indeed a small number of people who like tablets like you! What if that lord was also like this? Don't you think

SO

The maid spoke logically as if she was really experienced.

On the other side.

Ping... Tablet.

Vivian's mouth twitched.

Although the other party's original intention was to encourage her, she still felt that she had been offended.

He sighed in his heart.

It seemed that if he didn't break the other party's dream, this maid was determined to bring him to see the world and find that "big shot".

"Um, I have a question."

"What problem? Tell me."

"How can you be so sure that the important person you're talking about is...What if it's a man?" It was hard for Vivian to talk to him, but she had no choice.

On the other side.

"Huh?" The maid frowned and her tone became exaggerated.

"Are you kidding me? "He can suppress the monster tide by himself and kill the leader alone. Moreover, I heard from others that that lord isn't a mage at all. He's so strong that he can crush the city walls with a single step. The weapon in his hand is an extremely huge sickle. With a casual wave of his hand, he can even slash a crack in the sky!

“Let me ask you, would such a powerful person be a weak woman like you and me? Even if you used your toes to think, you would know, right? How could a woman have such great strength and be able to wield such a large sickle? Then what kind of person would she be? His entire body is full of muscles! Were his arms thicker than his thighs? Hiss.... It’s so ugly!”

Chapter 179: Isn’t This Maid a Minor Actor?_2

As if she had really thought of the scene she had described, the maid immediately shivered and hugged her slender arms as if she had goosebumps all over her body.

Vivian was speechless.

That, my other self, put down the sickle first. We can’t use violence...

* Cough cough *

Hurriedly coughing to change the topic, the little girl said seriously,”

“But, when I saw the magic projection, that big...The person you mentioned really seems to be a woman. Moreover, her figure isn’t as exaggerated as you said. I feel that she might not rely on muscle strength, but magic power to drive it.

Vivian clarified herself in a very tactful tone.

On the other side.

“What? Was this for real? You were watching the magic projection? “The maid looked suspicious and a little incredulous.

“Yes... Eh? Wait a minute, didn't you see the magic projection?”

Vivian immediately grasped the finishing point, and the feeling of being out of place.

The maid stammered for a long time, but in the end, she was defeated by Vivian's clear but scrutinizing eyes.

“Alright then! Alright then! I admit that I really didn't watch it. After all, it was really too scary at that time. After those monsters came out, I... I was so scared that I was hiding under the bed...”

The maid's voice became softer and softer until it became the sound of mosquitoes that only she could hear.

Opposite him.

Vivian was speechless.

Alright! So you said so much, but in the end, you overheard it from someone else. No wonder your misunderstanding was so serious!

However, this was also good.

He had already told the truth, so the other party should give up, right?

“So, believe me, she's really a...You're quite a slender woman. Your previous plan, uh, how should I put it, is definitely not going to work, right? So let's go back quickly and do other things!”

Vivian thought that this would be the end of this.

But who would have thought...

"I won't!"

"I don't believe it, I don't believe it! You must have seen it wrong! Besides, just... Even if the other party was a woman, how could she be a woman? Who said that women and women couldn't, couldn't..."

I've heard of such an example before!

The alarm bells in his heart instantly rang!

The little girl looked warily at the maid in front of her, whose cheeks were flushed and in a bashful posture because she had mentioned a taboo topic.

Vivian immediately felt the danger and took a few steps back to distance herself from the other party.

"Aiya, alright! I don't care if that lord is a man or a woman. Even if it's something else, I'll accept it because I'll definitely meet that lord.

"So, uh... Please, just help me, your best friend. Come with me to see that lord!"

Actually, I'm also very nervous and scared! Is it good or not

The family members, all the details are revealed, the true form is revealed, who belongs!

The tables had turned. She wanted to acknowledge Vivian as her elder sister!

Vivian was speechless again when she saw the maid who was holding her hands tightly and begging with tears instead of her old and pitiful look.

“My best friend?”

“That’s right! Aren’t I the first friend you’ve made in this earl’s mansion? Isn’t that the best?!”

The maid winked at the little girl.

Vivian was speechless.

It seemed that he really couldn’t find any rebuttal for the time being.

“Alright, let’s not talk about gender first. Actually, from the beginning, I had a very strange question for you. “The little girl sighed.

“Yes, yes, tell me!”

The maid quickly nodded. Like a tamed pet, her personality changed so quickly that it was really embarrassing.

This was actually not difficult to understand.

Firstly, she did have a favor to ask of Vivian. Secondly, ever since Vivian told her that she had been watching the magic projection the whole time, the maid’s impression of the little girl had changed greatly. She did not dare to watch such a bloody and violent scene anyway.

“From the very beginning, you seem to be very certain that you will be able to meet that person today...A big shot?”

Vivian asked in confusion.

From the looks of it, the maid had indeed met him. No, it could not be said that she had met him. It should be that she had left the room and was completely lost. He had taken the initiative to run over and find the maid.

Wait a minute.

Had he heard this before?

Vivian clearly remembered that the maid had told her that the two of them would wait in the castle and wait for the lord to approach them.

At that time, Vivian was just curious about the maid's logic.

Normally, it should be the servant of a lower status who would take the initiative to get close to others. Why was it the other way around? But now that she had sorted it out, Vivian suddenly realized that it seemed...

The maid was right!

"Prophecy! Prophecy! I found a very, very godly witch to read my fortune before. Oh, right! She, she said that I would meet a noble person today! That's why I believe in the law!"

The maid stuttered, her gaze erratic.

Then, as if to prevent Vivian from asking again.

"I... I suddenly want to go to the bathroom again. Wait for me for a while. Don't leave secretly! Otherwise, I'll be angry! He was very, very angry!"

The kind that would never be friends with you again! "

Chapter 180: Isn't This Maid a Minor Actor?_3

The maid said and ran to a private room in the bathroom without giving Vivian a chance to refuse.

He closed the door.

After confirming that it was an independent space where he was alone.

The maid took a deep breath.

She crossed her hands and clenched her fingers as if she was praying.

Then...

Weng!

A magical scene appeared, and the wind blew.

The water in the wooden bucket in the private room began to ripple. Then, as if guided by a mysterious force, it began to arrange and form three lines of words with decreasing clarity.

The first line read, [The shining star has risen. The famous hero was already in the same castle as you last night.]

The second line read: Early morning...Wake up... Stroll...Inside, inside, inside, inside.

Xie...]

The third line: Engrave... Down... Life]

This is the secret of the maidservant

It was a secret that could not be told to outsiders.

Coincidentally, this was a magical ability that she had awakened not long after she entered the earl's mansion. It was an oracle that could predict the future and give her guidance!

Unfortunately, he could only see the first line every time. As for the remaining two lines, he could barely guess the second line, but he had no idea about the third line.

However, it didn't matter. This was enough.

The oracle would never be wrong!

Xie referred to the first line of the phrase, "Chance". When he woke up early in the morning, he would definitely have a chance encounter with that person!

The maid had been shaken by Vivian's words, but after reading the oracle again, she regained her confidence.

After dispersing her ability, she pushed open the door of the private room.

And then...

She looked at the empty bathroom door. There was no sign of the newcomer from before.

"You..."

“How could you do this!” The maid clenched her fists and stomped her foot in anger:

Damn it!

Did she really not mind losing her only friend?

No.

Because Vivian knew that if she did not take the opportunity to slip away, they would not only be unable to be friends in the future, but they would also die in the light.

It's a pity that the maid doesn't know

She immediately chased after him angrily.

There was no one else in the castle corridor early in the morning, so Vivian's figure was very prominent as she ran away quickly. She was immediately caught by the maid.

“Hey! You, stop right there!”

As it turned out, the angry woman moved very quickly. Coupled with her familiarity with the castle, the maid caught up with the little girl in two or three moves.

However, after seeing what the little girl was doing, the maid was about to ask why she didn't keep her promise, but she swallowed her words.

Vivian was opening her room door.

As a maid of the castle, Elina could naturally recognize that the little girl was facing a guest room. It was not a room that could be used by servants, but only for the honored guests invited by the Earl to the mansion.

She immediately became anxious!

Elina thought that it was because Vivian was new here and could not tell the rooms apart, so she accidentally went to the wrong room. Although most of the guest rooms in the castle were empty, it would be terrible if there were people inside!

However...

Just as Elina was about to stop him.

However, a coquettish voice sounded from behind the maid.

“What are you guys doing so early in the morning? Why is it so noisy?” Finished... It was over!

There was no need for her to turn around. Just from this familiar voice, Elena knew who was standing behind her.

The daughter of an earl.

The manor’s heiress.

Liz.

But just as Elena was about to kneel down in fear...

“Eh...Vivian! You woke up! I was just about to look for you!”
