Chapter 181: The First Day of a New Life, Starting from Test Host

Liz passed through the trembling Elena.

Then, the young lady looked at Vivian, who had an expression of " don't come over ", and showed a puzzled expression.

"Hmm? What's wrong, Vivian? Could it be that he was not used to staying in the guest room and did not rest well last night?"

Liz's voice was filled with concern. She even took a few small steps closer, wanting to touch the little girl's forehead.

After all, she had witnessed Vivian's performance outside the city yesterday and was very concerned about Vivian's physical condition. On the other side, there was only one person left on the scene.

Wha... What was that?

Did she hear wrongly?

This Earl was famous for being arrogant and rude, yet she could actually speak in such a gentle tone. Go...To care about a new maid?

No! Wait a minute, was she really a new maid??

Irina tried her best to recall her encounter with Vivian, and then she found a truth that she was unwilling to accept.

It seemed that from the beginning to the end, she had never admitted that she was a new maid. It was all her wishful thinking.

Then... Then...

I-if this was called...If the girl named Vivian was not a new maid, then her real identity was...

His eyes went black.

In the guest room, Miss Lissy's attitude was even more so. Every time he mentioned 'that lord', the little girl would always show an evasive expression.

Elena was not stupid.

All kinds of clues seemed to be connected at this moment.

No, no, no.

NO!

Irina screamed in her heart. She was unwilling to accept the answer that she had already guessed.

Unfortunately...

Reality was always cruel.

On the other side, Vivian shook her head as if she had given up struggling.

As expected, when Lissy calmed down, she inevitably started to talk.

The Earl's daughter was extremely excited and took the initiative to hold the little girl's hand.

“Vivian! Your performance outside the city yesterday was really...It was... I can't even describe it with words!

“Especially when you were fighting with that female monster leader, uh... He was simply too handsome! However, this also made me a little confused. Didn't you say that you were a Summoner? I've just entered the basics and don't really understand. Could it be that your class is all about melee combat like a warrior?”

“Oh! There was more! The last black wolf that appeared and was able to smash such a huge bone dragon into pieces and even eat the female monster leader in one bite was the summoned beast called Xiao Hei that you mentioned earlier?”

Liz didn't have the image of a young lady at all. She was just like an ordinary girl discussing the plot of the popular movie with her best friend.

Oh, the only thing that might not be ordinary was that the best friend in front of her was the female lead of this movie.

The Earl's daughter made a few exaggerated gestures with her hands in front of her to describe the appearance of the black wolf that Liao Zixuan had transformed into.

Then, she asked with anticipation and a little nervousness,”

“That Xiao Hei...Is Little Black with you now? Do you still remember our agreement? You promised to let me, Kangkang, Little Black...And a hug!

Once, no, twice...Three times! Three!”

Just as this young lady's face was full of excitement, as if she had endless words to say, she spat out a series of words like cannonballs... Creak!

Vivian was about to open the door, but he had revealed a small gap.

Then, a wolf cub with messy hair, which could be seen at a glance, walked out of the room leisurely, showing its little canine teeth and yawning fiercely. It wanted to see why it was so noisy outside.

Hmm, let me see.

Liao Zixuan looked around at the three people outside the door.

Vivian, my summoner, but... What's with this expression of despair?

Liz, the future Blood Countess, had a tragic storyline in the game...Hiss! Wait a minute! Even if Vivian told me how you two met last night, what are you trying to do by acting like a fan meeting her idol?

Ah, forget it.

Liao Zixuan was already used to the scumbag Vivian.

He finally looked at the third person present.

One... Eh?

It was as if his entire body was exuding a feeling of 'I really want to die. God of Fire, drop a meteorite and smash me to was with the gloomy temperament of the maid?

WTF!

Wait a minute!

Because the maid had lowered her head so low that her face was almost buried in the ground, Liao Zixuan did not recognize her at first.

However, when he habitually used the detection in the game to scan the other party.

Elena?

This name...It sounded familiar?

He quickly searched through the memory bank in his mind.

Finally, after finding a fragment that had been sealed in a small corner, the little wolf cub revealed an expression that said, "So it's this guy."

Elena.

No! No wonder it sounded familiar.

After all, she was more widely known by the players.

That is...

Test subject...K421!

As the boss BOSS of the first level of the Bloody Earl Fortress dungeon, she left a deep impression on the players because of the BOSS's mechanism..

Chapter 182: The First Day of a New Life, Starting from Test Host K421!_2

Test subject K421's attributes were actually not strong. It could even be said that she was ranked last among the bosses. However, she had an extremely abnormal passive skill, which seemed to be called... Oh right, it was a man-made talent called [Eye of Revelation].

The description of the skill given by the official website was roughly equivalent to the ability to see into the future and give enlightenment.

However, the actual effect of the game was that all the players' non-directional skills almost all missed and could not hit the opponent at all. To put it simply, it was a scripted hack that came with the official game!

Hence, when they wanted to clear the Bloody Earl's Castle dungeon, the first condition was that the party had to have a certain direction and a skill that could definitely hit. Otherwise, they would not even be able to enter the main gate.

As for the second item, it was the items that the players dropped after killing K421. There were no equipment, items, or skill books that normal bosses would drop.

Players could only get some strange and strange items from K421, such as dressing mirrors, handkerchief, ointment, etc.

At that time, there was a guy on the forum who didn't believe in evil. He felt that there was definitely something fishy about this, so he killed this BOSS almost a hundred times.

It was said that this guy had a dream at night, and it was all the words that test subject K421 had uttered before he died. For..." She could not even finish the Boss's ten classic lines, "Why?"

After paying so much, he realized that the rarest item among K421's loot was a broken diary. It seemed to have recorded K421's trivial matters as the head maid of the castle, as well as the best friend she had made when she was just an ordinary maid.

Other than that, there was nothing else. He could not even trigger a mission.

The reason Liao Zixuan had an impression of Elena was because of the defense breaking post and the screenshot of the item that fell from K421's body. It was called "Elena's Diary."

If it wasn't for this guy, the gamers might not even know the real name of K421 and that he was the head maid of this castle.

He ended his memories and returned to the present reality.

So...

Good!

Well done, Vivian!

As Version 1.0 was just the beginning of the game, there weren't many Instance Dungeons that could be considered classic. The previous "Fire God Tower" was one of them, and the current "Bloody Earl Castle" was also one of them.

There were four levels in the dungeon, each corresponding to the four bosses.

"Test subject K421," "Crazy Butler," "Fallen Human Alchemist," and finally..." Test subject K423 ", also known as..." Blood Countess."

I announce!

Vivian had succeeded, beautifully... All of them! He had befriended all four future bosses here!

Not bad, not bad.

It seemed that she was already a mature NPC. She knew how to find scenes for herself and add plots!

Just as Liao Zixuan was still complaining in his heart, a pair of small hands from the person he was complaining about lifted his body off the ground.

“Come, Liz.”

Vivian picked up the wolf cub and handed it to the Earl’s daughter.

In the end, Liao Zixuan hadn’t even done anything yet, but this young miss opposite him had already become incomparably nervous. This was the classic All Mouthy King. Previously, he had been shouting about wanting to give it a try. But when it was time to do it, Lissy looked at the little wolf cub and even began to retreat.

As a noble, she had naturally received the best education and had read all kinds of books. Therefore, Liz was very clear that just by being able to change the size of her body at will, the bloodline of this little wolf monster in front of her was definitely not low.

In addition to its performance yesterday, two words that made countless people revere were about to come out of Lissy’s mind...Transcendent!

Even if it was not at the level of a Transcendent, it was still a monster with a Transcendent bloodline!

According to the historical records, these monsters were terrifying existences that could destroy a human city!

“Yes... Or else it would feel like it was very unwilling.

“What if it doesn’t like me...”

Liz’s delicate body trembled as she quickly recalled the scene of the seemingly harmless little wolf cub in Vivian’s hands turning into a giant black wolf and swallowing a living person in one bite.

But at this moment, the little girl's voice interrupted him.

"It's okay, it won't. If it were anyone else, I wouldn't be sure, but for Liz... I believe that Xiao Hei will definitely like you very much.

Vivian looked at the Earl's daughter and gave her a reassuring look.

"Really...Really?"

"Really, come, if you don't believe me, try hugging me. "

Then, under Liao Zixuan's watchful eyes, Vivian placed him directly into the arms of the young lady opposite him.

There was such a good...Bah! How could you do this?

Facing Liao Zixuan's indignant eyes.

Then, the little girl tilted her head slightly and conveyed a message to the little wolf cub, who was being carefully held in Liz's arms. The general meaning was...

"Eh? Didn't Little Black like Big Sister very much? Did I misunderstand?"

Liao Zixuan was speechless.

Damn it!

Then, the wolf cub guiltily looked away from Vivian.

Because I can't, I can't, I can't

It was too easy to sense!

Children born in noble families were much better than commoners in terms of nutrition!

Vivian was speechless.

"Ah, right! I almost forgot that my father is still waiting for us at the restaurant! He said that he had something important to tell you, I think...It was about the noble banquet in two days!"

After a while, Lizzie suddenly realized why she came to find Vivian. "Aristocrat...Banquet?" It was another very unfamiliar word for the little girl.

"That's right. Moreover, this time is different from the past. After all, such a big event happened yesterday. It is said that it will be very grand. Basically, all the famous people in the Fire Law City will be present...'

"In short, it's very important. I don't know any more details. You can ask my father later! After all, you are one of the main characters of this banquet!

Vivian was speechless.

After talking about serious matters, Liz reluctantly put the wolf cub back on the ground. Then, she wanted to lead Vivian to the dining room to meet the Earl. They would continue chatting while eating breakfast.

However, she had only taken a few steps when she stopped with a frown.

"What are you still standing here for?"

Liz looked at the maid who was still looking down at the ground, blocking the corridor. She seemed to be talking to Vivian.

“Ah? Hug... I’m very sorry! Big Miss Liz!” The voice of the Earl’s daughter woke up the maid who was still immersed in the feeling of wanting to die.

Elina quickly gave way.

Just as Liz saw the strange look on the maid’s face and was about to ask a few more questions...

“Liz! That... Let’s go quickly! Don’t make the Earl anxious.”

Vivian’s voice rang out in time. She had saved Irina, and in a sense, she had also saved herself.

At the end of their departure, when the little girl passed by, Elina seemed to be very hesitant, but she still clenched her maid’s skirt with both hands and spoke in a voice that only the two of them could hear.

“Thank, thank you.”

“Wei...”

“Wei...Wei...”

After holding it in for a long time, she still couldn’t recite the little girl’s name. Elina’s face turned red as if it was about to bleed, and she ran away.

Vivian did not know what to say. She could only think of reducing the chances of them meeting in the future to avoid such an awkward situation from happening again.

However...

The wolf cub, who had just enjoyed the brand-new noble version of the human wolf tree, was in a good mood. However, after hearing the maid's last sentence, he was suddenly stunned.

Hiss...

Inhaling a breath of cold air, his entire body quivered, and a few hairs stood on end.

That was because...

Wait a minute!

Elena's last sentence...Doesn't this sound familiar?

The wolf cub immediately turned around and looked in the direction where the maid had disappeared.

"Hmm? Blackie? What's wrong?" Vivian, who was on her way to the dining room to meet the Earl, keenly noticed Liao Zixuan's abnormality.

The little girl quickly sent a voice transmission.

"It's fine. Let's go." The wolf cub shook its head and retracted its gaze.

Was he thinking too much?

Or could it be...

For... For... Yu Wei... Wei....?

Chapter 183: There's Such a Good Thing?_I

The restaurant was located on the second floor of the castle.

Count Sisre was obviously one of the rarest nobles, someone who had a " self-cultivation requirement."

The best proof was that the clock on the wall had just struck eight o'clock, and the servants in the mansion were already busy preparing breakfast.

To be able to eat breakfast on time...

Oh my god! This was simply unbelievable.

When Vivian and Liz arrived at the spacious and bright dining room, there were already maids waiting for them. They took them to their seats, set the cutlery, and arranged the dining cloth.

A delicious aroma wafted into his nose, and the exquisite silver cutlery was filled with sumptuous food.

The golden eggs were cut into soft pieces that were easy to eat.

It was obviously a freshly baked croissant that was still emitting heat. It was crispy on the outside and tender on the inside. A small slit was cut in the middle with a knife, and the mellow cream slowly flowed out.

Other than that, there were also bacon, red wine, oats, and the most classic vegetable soup of the nobles.

City... Did the people in the city have such a big appetite?

He had to eat it in the morning...So many?

The little girl suddenly understood. No wonder she and Liz were so different in certain aspects.

No! You don't understand!

Some things were destined from birth and couldn't be changed. No matter how much you ate, it was useless!

After complaining about Vivian's strange thoughts, the little wolf cub perked up and was eager to try before the little girl started eating. He first glanced at the sumptuous food on the table.

Well...

Damn it! He didn't drug her?

Count Sisre! You disappoint me!

She was supposed to be an ignorant brave woman with brute force. After defeating the Demon King and returning, she was feigned to be entertained by the upper nobles. In the end, she was secretly drugged and finally suffered...Oh, that's the plot of the novel. It's fine then.

Liao Zixuan pursed his lips as he looked at the normal breakfast food in front of him.

Sigh...

It seemed that in his Plan A, the scene of the Earl's breakfast causing trouble and then being discovered by him, followed by a swipe of his paw and killing this great scourge, would not happen for the time being.

Yes, temporarily.

Pretending that it had only unintentionally swept through a room that was connected to the dining room, the little wolf cub then yawned as if it was bored and lay back in the little girl's arms.

On the other side.

It was already a bright and sunny morning, but the curtains were not drawn at all. They completely blocked the light outside and the room was still dark.

In the shadows, through the half-closed door, Count Sisre's cold gaze locked onto the little girl's figure the moment Vivian and Liz appeared in the dining room.

He was observing Vivian's every move.

Count Sisre felt an endless rage rise from the bottom of his heart just by seeing the other party appear. The pitch -black hand that symbolized the Fallen Abyss stretched out from his back and waved in the darkness of the room like a disgusting tentacle.

'This...!' A sinner who dared to blaspheme the oracle!

Xue Li's figure appeared in the Earl's mind subconsciously.

That perfectly proportioned golden figure...Those beautiful Fallen Wings...That evil claw that was filled with explosive power...That unparalleled beauty and cold face in the world, as well as...That, that was simply a pair of bare feet that could die without regrets after being stepped on.

Ah... God... My God Envoy...

Obsessed, fanatical, intoxicated, and so on appeared on the earl's face in his memories. However, very quickly, it was as if a mirror that symbolized beauty had been broken and shattered into pieces.

'Why...'

Why?

As if the most important thing had been taken away, the earl's eyes turned red.

Unforgivable...Unforgivable!

Phew...

After taking a few deep breaths, the earl forced himself to calm down. After all, he could not avenge the oracle if he was impulsive.

Moreover, although the Earl did not want to admit it, since the other party's strength could rival the Oracle, or even defeat him, it meant that he was definitely crushed by this country girl in terms of combat strength. He was not her match at all.

However...

Humph.

The Earl snorted coldly. It was at this time that Vivian had just sat down at the gorgeous dining table and was surprised by the sumptuous breakfast on the table.

What was the use of having a strong body?

Outside the city and inside the city were two completely different worlds. Inside the city, the definition of "power" was not just the amount of mana or the level.

Otherwise, why would they be able to control the most resources in Fire Code City despite the vast majority of nobles being ordinary people? They could even order them around as they pleased. Those who were several times more powerful than them, such as the mages of the Fire God Church, the city guards of the Knights, and even the underground forces, the thieves of the Treasure Robbers, would do things for them?

Just look at this village girl in front of him who was born in the countryside and had never seen anything. Look at her disgusting and defenseless kind appearance.

It was no exaggeration to say that dealing with such a person was definitely the best thing for the nobles. Count Sisre dared to say that he had a hundred ways to play Vivian in the palm of his hand.

However, right after he said this in his heart.

Coincidentally, the wolf cub poked its head out of Vivian's arms and looked at the food on the table expectantly.

This scene...

With the Earl's eyesight, how could he not see what Liao Zixuan was doing?

Chapter 184: There's Such a Good Thing?_2

Alright...Alright then.

If he reduced one type, the 100 types that he had mentioned before would become 99 types.

Among them, using addictive drugs to control the other party was a common way for nobles. Obviously, it would not work on Vivian.

He suddenly felt a sense of relief.

Fortunately, he did not use such low-level methods. In addition, he was not sure whether these drugs on the black market would work on Vivian, who did not know the depth of her strength, so he did not use them.

Now it seemed like...

Cold sweat broke out on the earl's forehead.

After that, it quickly turned into a cold chill that covered half of his back.

He saw that the wolf cub, who had finished checking the food, had suddenly swept a glance at the room where he was hiding and secretly observing without any warning.

In an instant, the black hand that was waving wildly behind the earl's back was frightened and retracted back into his body, not daring to come out again. I can't say that I'm not afraid of being a dictator

In the count's eyes, Vivian was secondary. The little wolf cub, the summoned beast beside the little girl, was the real problem.

After all, that was a terrifying monster that could swallow an oracle in one bite. It had caused a huge psychological trauma to the earl who was watching the magic projection at that time.

His arrogance from before seemed to have been doused with a bucket of cold water. Just a glance from Liao Zixuan made the Earl become cautious again. He kept reminding himself.

He couldn't be anxious...

He had to take it step by step.

Although the city was his home ground, the other party also had the ability to flip the table.

He would just follow the plan that he had thought of all night last night..

The earl looked at the few letters beside him.

Then, he quickly sorted out his expression and put on the honest, open-minded, and approachable Count Sisre.

He pushed open the door of the room. Regardless of whether Vivian's summoned creature had noticed him or not, he did not dare to continue hiding here and spying.

Indeed, the demons were sensitive to food safety and could sense gazes in the shadows.

But...

Could it be that demons could transform into humans and understand the schemes of humans?

"Haha! Look who's here! The great hero of our Fire Code City!" A hearty voice rang out in the dining room.

Although he was middle-aged, he was still very handsome. He was wearing a tuxedo.

"Father!" Liz immediately went up to him.

He touched the body that he loved the most...Oh, sorry, it was the head of his most "beloved" daughter.

Count Sisre turned his head and gave Vivian a warm smile. No one would doubt that he admired and liked the little girl.

After the earl took his seat.

Some of the pleasantries that were used to enhance the atmosphere and to get closer to each other were unnecessary.

That is...

“Earl, that...Just now, Liz mentioned to me about the banquet in two days. “Vivian could not help but ask.

“Ah! Aiya, look at my memory! I almost forgot about it if you didn’t mention

Count Sisre slapped his head.

Yes.

He acted as if it was real.

I’ll give you a thumbs up.

Please continue with your performance.

The wolf cub in Vivian’s arms turned over and changed into a more comfortable position. It continued to squint its eyes to see what the Count was up to.

Don’t tell me, this feeling is quite interesting.

If Liao Zixuan did not know the script, then he would respect Count Sisre. The annual Oscar was at least a nomination, but unfortunately, there were no ifs. In the eyes of the little wolf cubs, the current Count...Oscar? No, no, no. He was just a clown on the stage.

On the other side.

Mr. Clown...Oh no, the Earl's expression became serious.

"Vivian, I know that you're new here in our Fire Code City. There are many things that you're not familiar with yet, so you're definitely not used to these things. But this time is different. You must attend the banquet in two daysP'

Count Sisre had a serious look on his face. As soon as he opened his mouth, he immediately blocked Vivian's way out.

Very good.

What was the reason?

Liao Zixuan perked up his ears because the next part was the main point.

After that, as expected.

"Although we managed to survive this monster disaster, our Fire Code City has also suffered great losses. Not only did Archbishop Maggie go missing, but tens of thousands of refugees outside the city were also destroyed."

"So to put it bluntly, the reason why I initiated this banquet in two days is actually to use the name of the gathering to gather everyone in Fire Law City together and hold a donation event.

' Naturally, the targets of the donation are the refugees outside the city. Actually, before the disaster started yesterday, I also initiated a similar donation at the Fire God Square. To be honest, I prepared the magic projection for this purpose, but who would have thought...

Count Sisre sighed heavily.

Sigh, after those terrifying monsters appeared, everything became a mess. And now, it seems that even if there was no chaos, the donations were just a drop in the bucket. It was not enough. Therefore, I feel that we can't just rely on the citizens anymore. The other nobles are also part of Fire Code City, so it's time for them to contribute.. “

Chapter 185: There's Such a Good Thing?]

Righteous words, reasonable and well-founded.

‘ So, the Earl wants me to attend the banquet as well. It's...” Vivian was a little confused and did not understand the meaning of the earl's words.

“I want to use this opportunity to recommend you as the leader.

“Master... The leader?” The little girl had an apologetic expression because the more she listened, the more confused she became.

On the other side.

Count Sisre did not mind at all.

On the contrary, he did not want to see Vivian understand immediately.

The earl gave the little girl a reassuring smile.

In fact, he was smiling from the bottom of his heart.

It was just mockery.

As expected, although he had obtained power from an unknown source, he was still a villager who knew nothing.

After sorting out his words, the Earl began to speak,”

It’s like this. No matter what you do, you need a leader. This is especially true for the follow-up settlement of the refugees outside the city and the reconstruction work. Because even if everyone is willing to attend the banquet because of me, if there is no leader that everyone can trust, those nobles will not be willing to pay.”

“I thought about it last night, and in the end, I found that you, Vivian, are the most suitable for this position! “The Earl said with certainty.

On the other hand, Vivian was sitting opposite him.

“I... Me?” The little girl pointed at herself weakly. It was obvious that she was very flattered.

“Don’t be anxious. First of all, your performance in this disaster is enough to prove your integrity and kindness. Everyone will be at ease if they hand over the money to you. ”

“Secondly, you happen to have a similar background and background as the refugees outside the city. There are even many people who are from the same village as you. I believe that the refugees would like to see you lead them.

“Finally...Sigh, to put it bluntly, other than you, Fire Code City...There was really no one else. The Fire God Sect was in a mess. The three bishops were either dead or missing. One of them was overseas and had not returned. The knights were also busy and could not spare any energy.

The more Count Sisre spoke, the older he seemed. He was not optimistic about Fire Code City’s current situation.

“Father...” Seeing this, Liz immediately held the earl’s hand in heartache.

Then, the young lady also looked at Vivian with a pleading look, as if she was begging the little girl to support her father this time. Everyone really needs you.

Vivian had no reason to refuse.

After all, just as the Earl had said, she was born in the countryside. Even if the Earl did not take the initiative to mention it, the little girl would do her best to help rebuild her home in the month before she left the Flame Domain.

The only thing that made Vivian hesitate was that she did not expect that she would be pushed to such a high position by the Earl. Was she qualified?

However, all of this melted away under Liz's pleading gaze.

"Alright... Alright then."

"Then I'll give it a try!"

The little wolf cub in Vivian's arms could clearly feel that after Vivian's last affirmative answer, the little girl's body was a lot more tense. It was obvious that she had completely made up her mind to take on this burden.

Liz hugged Vivian excitedly, and the beautiful girl stuck to her again. It was obvious that these two silly girls were the most simple-minded at the scene.

As for Count Sisre, our Lord Count laughed heartily. He looked relieved, as if he had finally relaxed and was extremely pleased.

It seemed like he was trying his best to give Vivian more power, but in fact, he was not afraid that Vivian would have power, but he was afraid that Vivian would not have power. As the old saying goes, only by letting others stand high, then when they were pushed down from behind, they would fall even harder, and even... He was crushed to pieces!

Did he really think that he had the ability to lead the reconstruction of the entire village?

Without connections, where could they find a large number of workers who knew how to build? Alright, even if you count those ignorant refugees as coolies.

However, if he didn't build some connections in the underground forces and had no one to protect him, countless bandits and robbers would be eyeing this piece of fat meat. At that time, could he still expect these refugees to be both coolies and guards?

Needless to say, the villages and towns would definitely be connected to the new forest, right? If they couldn't hire an excellent regional planner, how would they deal with the surrounding monsters? Waiting for the monsters to attack after overlapping with the monsters' habitat?

So, in fact, in the end, what he gave Vivian was only air rights.

There might be nothing left except for the donation money.

And once Vivian messed up this matter.

What awaited the little girl would be endless accusations, criticism, and extremely high debts.

The more he thought about it, the brighter the smile on the Earl's face. He seemed to see the image of him controlling Vivian and avenging the Oracle.

And finally, the last person present...One wolf.

Although Liao Zixuan did not laugh, his eyes were getting brighter and brighter. He even started to doubt himself, wondering if he had wronged the Earl.

After all...

There was such a good thing?

Sending a pillow when you're sleepy?

Money?

The only thing we lack is money!

Chapter 186: The Strange Development Begins From Reading the Letter!_I

[To the beautiful and kind Miss Vivian:

Please forgive me for sending you such an abrupt letter, but please allow me to express my most passionate and sincere love for you.

From yesterday when I saw you sweeping through thousands of troops on the battlefield in the magic projection, I understood that I had fallen hopelessly in love with you.

The light from your entire body is as dazzling as the sun. Your endless magic power is like the descent of the God of Fire. Your beautiful face makes me unable to sleep at night. Your graceful figure... (Traces crossed out)

In short, if it's possible, I hope you can come tonight. I've already prepared a sumptuous private dinner at my residence. I look forward to spending an unforgettable, beautiful, and dreamy night with you.

[Write down: Unable to extricate himself from Miss Vivian and fell into a drowning man named " Love River "-Baron Teddy Diabat] He put down the first letter in the letter basket.

Liao Zixuan was speechless. Vivian was speechless.

“Little...”

As soon as Vivian uttered the first syllable, black flames spread from the corner of the letter. Yes, it was the signature in the corner. She had seen shameless people before, but she had never seen such a shameless person.

Then, in the blink of an eye, the entire letter was turned into ashes and swallowed up. It was like a dazzling firework. After a series of fancy fireworks, there was nothing left after a bang.

“Ah, this...”

Seeing that the letter was in her hand a second ago, but it disappeared the next second, as if it had never existed in the world, Vivian hesitated.

The little girl felt that this was not very respectful to others, but...Why did she secretly feel a little refreshed?

[Alright! Beautifully done! Little Black!]

[Burn this bastard who dared to have designs on Vivian! The second personality in the mental space applauded.]

Oh, so it was from here...

“Next letter, next letter.” The wolf cub waved its paws and urged Vivian.

He had almost forgotten to explain the origin of this scene.

Having achieved the purpose of having Vivian attend the dinner two days later, the breakfast was meaningless to the earl. Before the end of the banquet, the earl handed the little girl a few letters, saying that they were all sent to the castle last night.

To be able to obtain the information of Vivian's residence so quickly, the ordinary low-level people could not do it. Only some high-level people and powerful forces could do it.

The purpose of their letters was nothing more than to get close to Vivian, the "new upstart" of Fire Code City, and to get familiar with her.

However, it was obvious that the first sender had gotten zero points from the little wolf cub due to his overly intense expression and left regretfully.

Alright, let's welcome guest number two! Vivian opened the second letter in the basket.

[To...To:

I heard an interesting story yesterday and I want to share it with you. Please read it to the end.

Once upon a time, there was a young girl who wanted to enter the city, but she accidentally dropped her identity token into the river. When she was anxious, a handsome and mighty River God appeared.

The River God asked the girl, "Did you drop this purse?" The girl shook her head. The River God asked again, "Did you drop this noble teacup?" The girl shook her head again. In the end, the River God took out the girl's identity token. The girl immediately nodded and said that it was this.

However, the River God shook his head. He raised three fingers at the girl and then disappeared.

[To be continued]

[Note: If you want to know the rest of the story, please meet me at the usual place.]

[Inscribed: Youth in the Alley] Liao Zixuan was speechless.

Vivian was speechless.

This time, the little girl knew to strike first. She immediately took the initiative to look at her wolf cub with an innocent gaze, then tilted her head and asked,

“Little... Xiao Hei, do you understand?”

“If you can’t understand it, how can I?” Liao Zixuan was speechless.

No, don’t open the channel!

And who was this ‘young man in the alleyway’ who signed it? How many women have you been fooling around with behind my back!

Moreover, good heavens, this story was just a riddle, and it was still in the “to be continued” section, right? Can’t a broken dog go to hell!

Burned! Burned!

Good! Look, our guest number two has also received a rating of zero and successfully received a set of Dim Flame Set Meal. She has turned into ashes with number one and disappeared from this world.

Liao Zixuan was a little depressed.

Why were these letters completely different from what he had imagined?

If this was in a novel, it would definitely be an understatement. It couldn’t be an ambush, right? Can’t you do something more meaningful?

Perhaps he had really heard the little wolf cub's inner thoughts, the next few letters returned to normal.

Among them was an invitation letter from the Association of Adventurers, hoping that Vivian could register with them as soon as possible.

There was also an invitation letter from the Fire God Law School, asking Vivian to be the professional instructor of the new Summoning Element.

Of course, there was also a letter from his old friend Damir.

The letter mentioned that he seemed to have dreamed of his mentor,

Archbishop Maggie, last night. In the dream, his mentor seemed to have changed into a different person, very... He couldn't say for sure. In short, Maggie had stuffed something into his body and passed the position of archbishop to him.

After that, the young boy who was originally a talented student in the academy and could focus on his magic research without any worries had taken on the burden of the entire Fire God Cult and Fire Code City overnight. Damir could not take it and could not adapt to it in a short time..

Chapter 187: The Strange Development Begins From Reading the Letter!_2

As for the purpose of writing the letter, apart from venting his grievances to

Vivian, his only friend, Damir also hoped that the little girl could go to the Fire

God Cult as soon as possible to assume the position of " bishop."

After all, after Greco's manipulation, most of the people in the Fire God Sect now regarded Vivian as the successor of Bishop Eugenia.

Right now, the Fire God Cult was leaderless, with only Damir as their commander. The deacons and disciples below them were all in desperate need of a new bishop who could support them.

These were all the letters...Oh, wait, there was another one. It was written by the refugees outside the city. The whole story was about how miserable they were now. They had no home, no land, and their wives and children were separated. They begged Vivian to help them.

The little girl's heart ached when she saw this, and she became even more determined to attend the donation banquet in the future.

Alright then.

Liao Zixuan was too lazy to expose Count Sisre's little tricks. Only ghosts would believe that refugees had the time to write such things.

His focus was on the three letters.

To the little girl, it might be just a letter, but in Liao Zixuan's eyes, every letter was a "ding", triggering a system notification. Three warm free missions!

"Xiao Hei..."

Vivian cast a questioning look at the wolf cub on the table.

She couldn't make up her mind for a moment. Moreover, it seemed that she wasn't willing to accept these invitations. She wanted to focus her energy on the banquet in two days and do some relevant research.

Seeing this, Liao Zixuan couldn't do that. Of course, he immediately began to persuade her.

First, the little wolf cub placed its paw on the first invitation letter from the Adventurer's Association. At the same time, the mission prompt box in the game also appeared on the left.

Yes, although he was the only one who could see it.

[Our goal is! Stars and the sea!]

[Mission Introduction: It's spread all over the world. Almost everyone knows about it. It has branches in all nine countries. One of the largest forces on the continent, the Adventurers Association, has taken the initiative to invite you to join them.

[This is both an honor and an opportunity. As long as you pass the certification, all your achievements and deeds will be recorded by the association. The information that you wish to disclose will not only be available in your country, but also to anyone in any association in the world.]

Mission Target: Head to the Adventurer's Association located west of Fire Code City and speak to the staff at the front desk. [Quest Reward: Title-Platinum Adventurer]

[Platinum Adventurer]

[Type: Title]

[Rarity: Epic]

[Wearing Effect 1: The Affinity of all forces belonging to the Adventurer's

Association will automatically be raised to the " Reverence " level.]

[Wearing Effect 2: Region Reputation +60]

[Wearing Effect 3: Legendary +3]

Good fellow!

It could only be said that as expected of a native of the world, this treatment was like heaven and earth compared to the players.

Liao Zixuan clearly remembered that the levels of the Adventurer's Association were Black Iron, Bronze, Silver, Gold, and...Platinum and Star Glory. There were rumors that there was a titled adventurer above Star Glory, but they didn't know if it was true, so they didn't mention it for now.

In his previous life, the game had been launched for almost three years, and it was already the third country. Among the players, even those who were the most focused on earning the title of " Adventurer " were at most " Platinum .

However, Vivian only spent a day, no, to be precise, only half a day, and she was already able to get the " Platinum " title. The Adventurer's Association even took the initiative to invite the little girl to come and get it as soon as possible.

By the way, the upper limit of most of the world's ordinary natives was between Bronze and Silver. They were actually stuck in the same place as the players, which was the so-called influence.

Reflected on the game panel, it was the two rare attributes that were definitely the most difficult to increase: " Regional Reputation " and " Legendary Level."

That was why Liao Zixuan wanted Vivian to go to the Adventurer's Association and claim the title.

Let's not talk about anything else.

Just the third effect of " Legendary Point +3 " was enough to make him drool.

This would greatly affect Vivian's system rating as an "NPC," and unlock more functions unique to NPCs, including but not limited to... Higher mission rewards, dungeon production rights, and even a faction system that belonged to him alone.

"Xiao Hei, wipe...It's about to flow down!"

Vivian wiped away the marks on the wolf cub's mouth with her little hand. She did not mind.

Damn it! It was sour!

No, there was more to come.

Just as Liao Zixuan was about to prepare a long speech to explain the benefits of joining the Adventurer's Association to the little girl...

Vivian spoke first.

"Then let's move now!" The little girl started to pack her luggage.

"Huh? Where are we going?"

Liao Zixuan was interrupted for a moment, unable to react.

"To the Adventurer's Association."

Vivian said matter-of-factly.

"Since Xiao Hei, you...Since you like to see me become an adventurer so much, I, of course, have to satisfy you!"

After saying that, as if she was a little embarrassed, she did not dare to look at the wolf cubs anymore. The little girl's ears turned slightly red and she left the room first.

Looking at Vivian's fleeing figure, the wolf cub was dumbfounded.

No!

This car can also be driven?

It was a very serious conversation, but could you not show it? It was as if you were trying to satisfy your boyfriend's desire for a uniform and a professional change of clothes in some indecent plot!

Hiss...

Speaking of which..

Since they were all platinum-level Adventurers, the Association would definitely issue uniforms, right? Definitely!

His eyes instantly lit up.

The little wolf cub left the room at the speed of light.

In the end, there was only this person left in the room.

Yes, that's right.

A certain little loli who was still sleeping on the bed scratched her butt, then turned over and continued to snore weakly.

What part? What plot? How could it be more important than sleeping!

Outside the earl's manor.

It was better to be in a spot with a clear view of the hidden positions of everyone entering and leaving the manor.

There was a group of people hiding here.

The young man in the lead stretched his neck and did not feel tired. He was like a gibbon, staring at the entrance of the earl's manor.

"Boss, we... We've been waiting since morning until noon. Do you think Big Sister will really come out?"

Little Seven, who had the best relationship with Chris, was the first to represent the back. The group of suspicious underlings asked their boss.

In fact, this was not the expression on the faces of the lackeys at the beginning. They were excited and excited.

Why?

After all, they were all people who had experienced it outside the city yesterday. After knowing that their boss actually knew their savior, Vivian, almost all of them opened their mouths in disbelief.

When they found out that Chris had something important to tell Vivian, they asked her out for a meeting. Everyone was eager to come along, as if they were fans of a big star. Many of the underlings had dark circles under their eyes and could not sleep well because of the excitement. By the way.

Chris himself had dark circles under his eyes.

But now, at first, he was looking forward to it. Then, he was puzzled. Now, he was suspicious.

Because they had been waiting for half a day.

Why isn't he here yet?

Didn't you say that you would ask me out?

Chris didn't feel good being looked at suspiciously by his underlings, so he began to reveal some information.

"Humph! You wouldn't understand even if I told you! The Earl's manor was full of hidden dangers. Of course, I couldn't ask Vivian out openly. It would be terrible if she found out!"

Chris recalled the secret he had unintentionally overheard in the washroom.

At that time, he was scared out of his wits and only wanted to run away. Moreover, he did not know Vivian's true strength.

But now...

He had to tell Vivian the truth as soon as possible! "So...So, Boss, how did you secretly ask Big Sister out?"

"Write a letter!"

"Write...Write a letter?"

Chapter 188: Adventurer's Association and Self-Traveling Plot Lady

Little Seven was dumbfounded.

Boss, with your level of education, you're still writing letters?

Moreover, didn't they agree that they couldn't ask her out openly? Wouldn't outsiders know everything after reading the letter?

Perhaps he had read her expression, Chris snorted in disdain.

"I wrote a secret letter, do you understand?"

"I don't understand." It wasn't just Little Seven. The group of Chris 'underlings behind her all shook their heads in confusion.

Sigh!

Uncultured, how terrifying!

'What I mean is that my letter is full of code words. Outsiders will only be confused after reading it. Only Vivian and I can understand it!

"This... That powerful?"

After listening to the explanation, Little Seven and the group of lackeys came to a realization. However, the suspicion from before quickly appeared on their faces.

It was as if he was saying, Boss, you have such ability?

Hiss... Chris's temper flared up immediately.

He had spent an entire night thinking hard about that letter before finally writing it. Even he was surprised by his own talent.

The story was fascinating, and the design of the code words was ingenious. It was simply amazing. Chris even thought that if he had not lost his parents when he was young and embarked on the road of being a gangster, he would really have been able to do literature and become an outstanding writer.

So, in order to prove himself, plus the fact that it was boring to wait for Vivian, Chris began to recite the contents of his letter to his underlings.

He borrowed the story of three axes falling into the river that he had heard when he was a child. Then, he replaced the protagonist and matched the three axes in the story with the items that had appeared in the only three meetings between him and Vivian to let Vivian know his identity.

As for the most extreme, it was also what Chris thought. The finishing touch of the entire secret letter was the three fingers that the River God raised at the end.

“Yeah, Boss! What was the meaning of the last River God! Why didn’t you return the things to the family?” Little Seven asked anxiously.

Even his underlings behind him seemed to be attracted by Chris’s dogshit story and were eager to know the follow-up.

so...

Sigh, indeed, it was scary to be uncultured.

“I’m hinting to Vivian that the place where we meet is the alley after our third meeting!”

“So that’s what you mean! Amazing! Boss, you’re too awesome!”

Chris's work had successfully convinced his underlings.

However, Little Seven realized the blind spot after she recalled the situation.

"Boss, there's a problem. What if Big Sister...What if he didn't understand what Boss meant?"

"Bah! Do you think others are as stupid as you?" Chris was so angry that he kicked Little Seven.

But Little Seven felt wronged.

He rubbed his aching butt and hesitated to speak. He wanted to say something but did not dare to.

Chris had misunderstood him.

What Little Seven really meant was that you and Big Sister have only met three times.

What if Vivian didn't take it to heart and even forgot that Boss was here? Then Boss, she wouldn't understand what you were hinting about!

However, for her own safety, Little Seven decided to swallow her words.

However, it was as if he wanted to slap Little Seven's face.

"Boss! Look! It came out! Is Big Sister out?"

When Vivian appeared at the entrance of the manor with the cubs in her arms, a sharp-eyed underling immediately patted Chris excitedly to confirm with his boss.

Even though they were the ones involved, they could only recognize the general appearance of the little girl. They did not know her true appearance. This was the situation of the vast majority of people in Fire Code City.

But Chris, you're not the same.

He had met the little girl three times, so he naturally recognized her at a glance.

"What, what are you shouting about! What's there to fuss about? I've already told you, everything is in my plan! "Although he said that, the young man still looked excited.

Chris's hands trembled uncontrollably at the thought of meeting his goddess.

He quickly tidied his clothes and fixed his hair, although he had done these actions countless times while waiting.

However, it was also at this time...

"Hello, Boss...Something seems to be wrong!

"What's wrong?" Chris was still rehearsing his lines in his mind and did not realize the seriousness of the problem.

"Big Sister and Boss agreed on a meeting place, but she went in the opposite direction! "

Chris hurriedly stopped what he was doing and looked at Vivian. However, the little girl was almost gone. He had no intention of meeting them in secret.

"Old... Boss, what do we do now?"

“What else can we do? Bring a few people with you to chase after me!”

The distance was closer than he had imagined.

After walking for a while, a multi-story building that looked like a big tent appeared in the sight of Liao Zixuan and the little girl.

Adventurer’s Association.

This classic old friend had a sphere of influence that spanned the entire Nine Nations. Even the architectural style of each branch was highly unified, as if they were carved out of the same mold..

Chapter 189: Adventurer’s Association and Self-Traveling Plot Mistress (2)

Looking at the people coming in and out of the association, the little girl could not help but feel a little nervous.

This was the first time she was in a public place with so many people.

Moreover, regardless of any profession, person, or even race, as long as they were certified, they could become a new “Black-Iron” adventurer. It could be said that there was no threshold. This was also why the Adventurer’s Association was bustling with activity no matter where it was.

However, Vivian carefully observed that among the adventurers of Fire Code City, the proportion of women was very small, let alone a weak little girl like her.

Alright, Rourou was fine, but as for “weak”, it was still up for discussion.

However, since he was already here, and he was invited by the association, he should be full of confidence!

The little girl cheered herself up in her heart and then puffed out her chest to appear more confident.

The little wolf cub in his arms expressed...

Well, could you tell me in advance before you puff out your chest next time? It didn't mean anything else, it just felt a little rough...

"Towards the stars and the sea, welcome to the Adventurer's Association."

As soon as she stepped into the association's door, Vivian heard the sweet voice of a young lady, which gave the little girl a fright.

It was said that experienced adventurers could tell whether a person was a newcomer or not based on their performance when they entered the association.

Because this greeting sound wasn't sent by a real person. After all, the Adventurer Association had so much traffic every day. If he really wanted to hire people to greet him one by one, he would have to change his voice.

This was a spell created by the founder of the association. The effect of the spell was to ring this voice in the ears of everyone who had just stepped into the association's area.

By the way, when the players did missions related to the association in the future, they could also discover hidden easter eggs.

In other words, the Adventurer's Association's slogan should have been "Towards the Stars and Abyss", but because too many people complained that the Abyss was too dark, it finally evolved into the current ocean.

In short.

As soon as Vivian entered, the little girl's figure immediately attracted everyone's attention. When everyone saw that it was such a thin and poor girl, everyone in the hall cast a mocking look at Vivian. There were even two or three strong men with scars on their faces, who were obviously not good people. They surrounded the little girl as if they were looking for trouble.

Yes.

In the little wolf cub's fantasy, the classic plot that allowed him to show off his skills and let Vivian show off her might at the beginning did not happen.

Damn it!

What about the extras? Where did all the dragon troopers go these days? Without you guys, how can I act cool!

Of course, who would have the problem of staring at the people at the entrance every day? Besides, the association was so big, and there were so many people coming and going. Even if they looked, they would only look at those famous high-level adventurers with silver or even gold badges on their chests. Who would have the time to stare at a young girl? Who are you?

"Hello, I...I'm Vivian."

Coincidentally, there was an empty window. After the young lady hurried over, she very politely greeted the young lady from the association in front of the stage.

"Towards the stars and the sea! Hello, Miss Vivian. How can I help sweet voice of a lady from the Adventurer's Association sounded.

This time, it was a real person...Uh, it didn't seem like it could be said that way.

That was because...

“That... It’s like this. Today, I received a letter from the association...” Vivian said as she took out the letter from before.

This seemingly familiar scene, also with a token, subconsciously made the little girl recall the first time she took the Fire God Token to the Fire Code City.

However, it was clear that the Adventurer’s Association was a world -class force that was far ahead of the Fire God Sect.

Before Vivian could take out the letter...

” Abnormal data detected...Face Recognition...Identification successful...”

“The database shows that...This person has been recorded as...VIP class...”

Transferring to the senior receptionist...”

The sweet voice from before immediately turned into a soft and mechanical voice.

It happened very quickly, just after a few breaths.

“Towards the stars and the sea! Hello, Miss Vivian. Thank you for coming to the Adventurer’s Association, receptionist J319. It’s my pleasure to serve you. ”

The mechanical voice disappeared, the voice echoed, and it was actually another new kind, sounding very mature and steady, like the voice of an older woman.

This was...This was...

The little girl was confused by the other party’s actions. Instead, Vivian was a little mechanical. She stuttered and politely greeted her again.

“You... Hello.”

“Excuse me, is Miss Vivian here to apply for the adventurer membership certification?” At the counter, the receptionist who claimed to be J319 asked.

After the young lady nodded, another receptionist who looked exactly like the one at the counter immediately walked over from behind her.

No, even the sound lines were exactly the same.

“Miss Vivian, please come with me. I have prepared a VIP room for you upstairs. I will provide you with a one-on-one service there.”

“Oh... Okay, okay, thank you.”

The little girl nodded in confusion and followed behind the receptionist..

Chapter 190: The Adventurer's Association and the SelfTraveling Plot Lady (3)

And this time.

It was no longer the little wolf cubs 'fantasy. Vivian was led to the second floor by the association staff. When she was discovered by the adventurers in the first hall, it immediately caused quite a stir. Immediately, many adventurers looked over.

“Oh my god! Am I seeing things? Who was she? He could actually go to the legendary second floor of the association?”

“What is it? Isn't the second floor of our association just for decoration?”

“I’ve been an adventurer for almost ten years. I remember the last time someone was invited to the second floor.”

“With your brain, I suggest you retire quickly!”

For a time, the mysterious figure on the second floor quickly became the topic of discussion in the Adventurer Hall. Among them, there were also a few new adventurers with IDs above their heads.

That’s right, even though the demon wave attack in Fire Code City had ended, the restrictions on entering the city had not been lifted. Instead, they were being watched even more closely.

The biggest reason was that they were afraid that the homeless refugees outside the city would swarm into the city.

The players were naturally classified as refugees and were not allowed to enter the city.

However, there were still a small number of players. Yes, that’s right. They were the ones who had followed Harvey, Chris, and the other NPCs to participate in the city’s storyline and charge into the Fire God Tower. They were lucky enough to stay in the city and were let off by Harvey with one eye closed.

There was still less than half a month to go before the end of the closed beta.

It wasn’t much, but it wasn’t little either. The thing that troubled them the most now was...They didn’t know what to do!

Fire Code City was simply too big. Wandering aimlessly was something that only newbies would do. Those who could sneak in were all old foxes. Everyone knew that they should try their best to find new side quests as soon as possible. Under the guidance of the NPCs, they would be able to familiarize themselves with the city and obtain information as soon as possible.

Therefore, they naturally came to the Adventurer’s Association. In terms of quests, this was the place.

However...

Clearly, they had received an unexpected surprise.

“Hey, hey! Did you see it clearly?” Long Road poked Dust Fall who was beside him.

“A young girl with a flat chest and clothes, and a little wolf in her arms!

Luo Chen’s eyes were experienced, he grasped the details and nodded with absolute certainty.

“That’s right! Absolutely Vivian!

Vivian!

Our light!

Oh, no, start again.

Vivian... The designated storyline NPC for our closed beta!

Sister! Don’t forget about us!

Err...

It seemed that he had not appeared for too long and had indeed forgotten about it.

In short, the players here were all old acquaintances. In addition to the two above, there were also high-quality chives, melee archmages, and a big watermelon that had been with Vivian since the beginning.

“What should we do now? Are you still going to do the missions you just accepted?” the melee mage asked meekly.

“Do? Do my ass! They were all ordinary people, not as comfortable as hugging Vivian’s thigh! If you want to do it, go ahead. Anyway, I’m going to wait for her downstairs!

As Vivian’s most loyal fan, Long Road was the first to tear up the mission he had just received. He then found a chair in the hall and sat on it, as if he was going to defend Vivian to the death.

What he said was true. As new Black-Iron Adventurers, the most the players could do was to find lost Dets, or to send messages or watch the shop. “Indeed, Vivian is still more fragrant. Although I don’t think the inner game will give us any more plot content, but... What if?”

As he spoke, Fallout sat down beside Long Walk. As for the remaining players, they followed suit and began to wait below.

It was quite funny to say that at this time, another group of people also rushed into the Adventurer’s Hall.

Chris asked around and knew that Vivian must have been the one who went up to the second floor.

Great!

He had to continue waiting!

They were not qualified to go to the second floor.

Hence, Chris and the others happened to sit opposite the gamers.

Then, the two groups of people looked at each other.

Chris recognized them at a glance. Weren't these foreigners the cannon fodder who had climbed the Fire God Tower with him?

What were they doing here?

Moreover, from the looks of it, it did not seem like he was here to accept a mission. It was more like...Waiting for someone?

Wait a minute!

Waiting for someone?

Chris immediately became alert!

On the other side, the players were on a completely different side.

They naturally recognized Chris, an important NPC who was on the "Beta Beta Beta NPCs Ranking List" released by Bi Wei Rong.

Of course, this was only secondary. What really made the players excited was...

Chris seemed to be waiting for someone, but who was he waiting for?

Luo Chen and One Big Watermelon looked at each other.

The slightly weaker Long Road and Melee Mage had yet to react, but these two true experts could see the excitement in each other's eyes.

That was because...

As the saying goes, it takes two to clap, but if two palms are put together...

Something big!

Something big was about to happen!

As expected! It was absolutely right to follow Vivian closely!

How long had it been since the "Dark Wave Attack" Main Storyline? There was already something new!?

This wasn't just a main storyline NPC!

This was simply a plot princess who walked on her own in human form!
