

NPC Become 191

Chapter 191: Unlocking a New NPC Ability! 1

Adventurer's Association's second floor.

In the VIP room.

On the spacious and comfortable sofa

She tightened her legs, pressed her toes together, placed her hands on her knees, and straightened her back.

They looked extremely alike...It looked like they had to give out their report cards in primary school.

' Miss Vivian, this is the Platinum Adventurer Badge that the Association has awarded you. '

J319 said as he placed a beautiful reddish-brown wooden box on the table in front of the little girl.

Vivian opened the box and saw a badge pendant that was half-wrapped in soft silk satin. Under the reflection of the lights in the VIP room, it shone with a silver glow.

Some people often said that they would mix up the name tags of silver and platinum because they were similar in color and were both silver.

But in fact, as long as one had seen a " platinum-grade " brand, it was impossible to say such a ridiculous statement. Whether it was the texture or the luster, the difference between the two was not just a little bit.

Not to mention the function of the badge.

Everything about the Association, as well as the rights and benefits that you can obtain based on your adventure rating, have been engraved on your badge with magic. Miss Vivian only needs to pour magic into it to check it at any time.”

If you’re unwilling or inconvenient to carry the badge, you can also infuse magic power into it to transform the badge and attach it to any part of your body.

Could it be like this?

The receptionist’s words hit Vivian’s heart. She felt that if she really wore such a thing, it would be too conspicuous. The little girl did not like to attract attention.

So when Vivian tried it out, she saw that it was still in the shape of a badge pendant, but in the blink of an eye, it turned into a silver thread and wrapped around her wrist. If one did not look carefully, no one would notice it.

Alright...So powerful!

The little girl immediately liked it.

“Miss Vivian, do you have any other needs or questions?”

“No, thank you!” Vivian quickly waved her hand and told the rest. She went back and slowly studied the imprint, the badge, the content, and so on. She didn’t want to trouble others.

It’s my honor to serve you. I won’t disturb you anymore, Miss Vivian. You can use this VIP room all the time. There’s no time limit. ”

“When you want to leave, the second floor of our association is also equipped with a VIP teleportation room. It can lead to most places in Fire Law City to provide you with convenience.”

“If you have any other needs in the future, you can also use the bell in the room. I will immediately rush over to serve you.

After bowing slightly to the young lady, the receptionist turned around and left the room. She gently closed the door. The entire process did not make a sound. It was smooth and natural, reflecting what professionalism was.

Whoosh!

With no outsiders left, Vivian and Blackie were the only ones left in the room. She finally relaxed and let out a long sigh.

However, it was soon covered by a wave of excitement.

Vivian picked up the wolf cub that she had placed next to the sofa and put it back on her lap. After finding the familiar comfortable position, the little girl immediately shared the function of the badge with Liao Zixuan.

“Wow! Little Black was really amazing! “As long as I use a little bit of magic power, it will show the current time, the location of the nearest association, as well as the missions in the area, and...

As more and more badges were discovered by Vivian, the little girl’s exclamations increased.

However, after recovering from the novelty, Vivian seemed to have finally realized something. She quickly and carefully asked weakly,”

“Xiao, Xiao Hei, you said that this small brand...It can’t be very valuable, right?”

In response, the wolf cub waved its paws. “It’s not expensive.”

Then Liao Zixuan gave his strong testimony.

Didn't you notice that there are Adventurers in every Association Hall? Basically, there is such a thing in front of their chest. There are so many of them, how could it be valuable?""

After her wolf cub transmitted her voice, Vivian recalled that it seemed to be true. As long as they joined the association, everyone would have a small sign like this.

The only difference was...It seemed that the color was different.

However, it was just a change of color. There shouldn't be much difference, right?

Thinking of this, Vivian was relieved. Since everyone had something, and it was not something expensive, she did not have to worry about it.

The little girl immediately chuckled again. Clearly, she liked this multi-functional badge of hers even more. It could even change its style at will. She liked it even more.

Well, it's good to be stupid. It's easier to raise.

Seeing Vivian like this, Liao Zixuan sighed in his heart.

Of course, he couldn't tell the little girl that the token in her hand was probably not the only one in Fire Code City, and it was a genuine magical tool.

As for the other adventurers...What kind of joke was this?

Other people have this treatment that association can't early bankrupt, gold level just stuffed to death, give when watch function, as for gold level below. Maybe it could be used to crack walnuts?

But Liao Zixuan was afraid that if he told Vivian about this, the little girl might do something outrageous, such as.... Would he worship this badge as a family heirloom when he returned home?

Chapter 192: Unlocking a New NPC Ability!_2

He no longer cared about the little girl who was still playing with her badge with sparkling eyes and curiosity.

The benefits of this Platinum Adventurer Badge were far more than that.

The benefits here naturally referred to the improvement under the framework of the NPC system.

After putting the title of " Platinum Adventurer " on Vivian's panel, the little girl's legend level immediately increased by R D0ints.

Don't underestimate these three points.

For the players, Legendary was the ultimate quest that could jump out of the letter grade. Epic, Legendary, World, and even Legendary quests were the threshold that could not be crossed.

Without enough Legendary Points, the players would not even be able to trigger these missions.

For NPCs, Legend Points were even more useful. The most direct manifestation of this was the increase in the points of the " NPC Rating ". After all, Legend Points were placed in the last solo area, meaning that it would not be diluted by any other attributes.

When it came to Vivian, the little girl's rating was tripled! From the original S-class, it had directly risen to SS-class.

As for why S multiplied by three should be three S? You can't count!

It could only be said that the higher the score, the wider the range. Even if it was multiplied by three times, it was still a hundred million points away from the edge of SSS-rank, let alone the grades beyond the letter.

For example, other than the Fire God, who had long jumped out of the ranking system, the highest ranking NPC they had encountered so far should be the Witch Bella.

Look at what they had. They were terrifyingly above Level 60, and they were spread all over the world. There were clones of her in all nine countries, as well as countless factions derived from her clones. However, this was only an Epic NPC.

Okay, Ms. Bella, I'll change the word 'just' so can you move the knife away?

All in all, it was clear that the revolution had not yet succeeded, and the wolf pups still needed to work hard before the great legendary witch Vivian!

However, after all the blabbering, what kind of substantial improvement did he get after his NPC rating reached SS?

The little wolf cub carefully studied the interface. After all, as a player in his previous life, he could not come into contact with this thing.

After figuring it out, aside from the increase in the reward quota of some regular missions, what attracted Liao Zixuan's attention the most was the two NPC modules that Vivian had unlocked.

[Character Summon Card] and [Dungeon Production Right]

One after another, one after another,

The first was the [Character Summon Card] system.

At first glance, Liao Zixuan looked very familiar. When he was playing a game called " Super Ghost Mechanic," the main character he controlled often used this item to cheat.

The principle was that one could borrow the ability of an extremely powerful character for a period of time, which was to descend on one's own body. It was commonly known as the wall experience card.

Just as he was excitedly thinking that the little girl had another cheat...Uh, why did he say again?

Liao Zixuan was surprised to find that the Character Summon Card he had was different from the one in the Super Ghost Mechanic game!

Because of the Summon Card system on Vivian... It was not for her own use at all. She could only create the Summon Card and give it to the players...Or are they aborigines?

Liao Zixuan wasn't too sure about this, so he decided to give it a try later. After all, if he guessed correctly, there should be several waves of people waiting for Vivian, right?

What was that? How did he know? If he couldn't even sense that someone was following the little girl, then Liao Zixuan could just kill himself.

As for how to try it out...Hehe, ever since the wolf cub could transform, a certain evil thought had been accumulating in its heart for a long time!

He held back and didn't think too far ahead. He returned to the main topic.

Although he felt that Vivian's Character Summon Card module was a little weird.

However, after careful consideration...

Hiss, there didn't seem to be anything wrong with it. After all, it could only be given to others and not to oneself. This was a normal NPC system!

I don't care about that anymore!

Let's try it first!

There was a limit to the number of times a Character Summon Card could be made, and the total number of cards was also limited. With the little girl's current NPC rating, she could only make five cards a day at most. Then, the total number of Character Summon Cards given in the card library could not exceed three.

Of course, the biggest limiting factor was actually the last one.

That was to say, it had nothing to do with the NPC's rating, but the little girl could only use her network of connections as a template, and then choose a character to create a Summon Card with a certain ability.

In other words, Vivian couldn't see a person and copy their ability to become her own Character Summon Card.

If he really wanted to obtain someone's Summon Card, he had to go on a date with them first and make them shy...Cough, he had mixed feelings. He had to include the other party in his own network of forces.

Well... There didn't seem to be any difference?

Liao Zixuan continued to look at the 'Character Summon Cards' that Vivian could make so far.

The first one was undoubtedly the little girl herself, Vivian's Summon Card. Then, it was shown that one of the little girl's abilities could be randomly copied onto the card.

These included [Intermediate Tailor],[Lucky Halo],[Extreme Magic Affinity],[Quick Learning],[Please, the other me], and...[Little Black!]

[Summon Xinyan]

Chapter 193: Unlocking a New NPC Ability!_3

It could be seen that the randomly copied ability pool did not necessarily only have combat types, but also had high and low levels.

Among them, [Intermediate TailTailor] was definitely the worst. Liao Zixuan felt that [Quick Learn] was the worst.

This "Quick Learn" should be referring to Vivian's ability to quickly learn magic just by watching the other party cast magic. She was also known as Vivian Kakashi Ann.

It didn't seem like they were weak, but when compared to the other students, it did seem like they were lacking. It was like getting the 2111 exam was not easy, but looking back, everyone was either Tsinghua University or Peking University, and the last one was even Harvard!

Yes, that's right.

Especially the one who went to Harvard, the most invincible skill.

As for which one, was there a need to ask? His skills were as good as his name suggested.

[Little Black!]

Good heavens, did this mean that he could replicate Vivian's ability to summon him? Heaven-defying! Then what else was there to fight? Just throw it!

In order to prevent any misunderstandings, all the borrowed abilities of the [Character Summon Card] were just mirror images. It was a poor imitation! It would not affect or have any relationship with the original Vivian and the wolf cubs.

However, even if it was just a clumsy imitation, the starting point was too high. Although the real effect still needed to be tested, Liao Zixuan could already imagine how attractive it would be... No, it could already be considered a wall hanging prop.

He understood!

The little wolf cub finally understood!

Other people's Character Summon Cards were used to borrow the ability of hanging on the wall to possess themselves, but for him and the little girl...The two of them were already hanging on the wall! They didn't need to borrow others' cheats anymore. It was others who needed to borrow their cheats!

So that was how it was!

He did not know whether to laugh or cry, but as he continued, other than the [Vivian's Summon Card], there was also the [White Summon Card] that appeared in his human form, the [Shirley Summon Card] that was automatically included in Vivian's sphere of influence, and finally the [Xinyan Summon Card].

Well, one by one, Liao Zixuan looked at them. They were all hanging on the wall. Very good!

The only problem now was that he only had five production opportunities every day. He didn't know if he could randomly pick the character skills he wanted.

It was useless to think so much. Liao Zixuan had always followed only one word for this kind of luck, reckless!

Hesitation would lead to defeat!

My turn, draw card!

[Ding! [You have successfully obtained the " Vivian's Arrival Card-Intermediate

Tailor

Liao Zixuan was speechless.

He tore it off and moved on to the next one!

Sacrifice ten years of Damir's luck with women, draw a card!

[Ding! [You have successfully obtained " Vivian's Summon Card -Luck Aura It's alright. I'll keep it for now. There are still two portions left. Continue! Sacrifice Chris's 100 years of luck with women, change " White " as the target, and draw a card!

[Ding, you have successfully obtained White's Summon Card-Forbidden Demon Body.]

F * ck!

This hundred years was indeed different!

Sacrifice Damir's 100 years of luck with women, change 'Shirley' as the target, draw card!

[Ding, you have successfully obtained "Shirley Summon Card-Cute Pet"] "Bastard! I knew that you had no luck with women at all! "Liao Zixuan was exasperated!

In short, after retaining the two skills of Luck Aura and Forbidden Demon

Body, he finally drew the last one. Although Cher's Fallen Abyss Affinity Summon Card wasn't the best, there was nothing he could do about it. He had used it up five times today.

He looked at the three cards floating and spinning in his card deck.

Although he could not use these...Uh, this was nonsense. Did I descend on myself?

However, they would greatly increase the overall strength of their own forces.

Liao Zixuan seemed to have seen it already. Three temporary wall hanging figures were slowly rising!

Then, the next question he had to consider was...

This hack...

Who should he give it to in order to maximize the benefits in the upcoming situation?

Chapter 194: Master, Vivian!_I

“Xiao Hei, then...Then I’ll go to the Fire God first?”

Vivian looked at the wolf cub who seemed to like the snacks prepared by the association in the VIP room.

The little girl asked for the last time.

This was because Vivian had automatically become a member of the Association after she received the Platinum badge.

Any adventurer with a Gold Rank badge would receive such a message in the Fire Code City area, and Damir was one of them.

Before Maggie passed the throne to him, this kid had been very idle every day.

Besides studying magic, he occasionally needed practical experience. Therefore, after a while, he had unknowingly become a " gold-level " adventure certificate medal that ordinary people might have to work hard for their entire lives to reach.

This might be the saying that people often say. Many times, the end point for you is just the starting point for others.

Geniuses were unreasonable.

Of course, everything was afraid of comparison. It seemed that Damir was very powerful, but if you compared him to Vivian...

"Talent?" In my opinion, this talent that is known as the " Flame Domain's once-in-a-century peerless genius, number one mage " is useless! Can you give me the whole wolf? A cat would do too. It would be best if it was a cat girl.

He really didn't want to work hard anymore! " he-tui!

The little wolf cub broke a bite. What kind of lousy peach was this!

However, he had no choice. He had to find a reason to separate from Vivian and stay here. Otherwise, he would not be able to carry out his 'big thing'.

Liao Zixuan's excuse was the one mentioned at the beginning. He stared at the fruit platter and snacks in the room and pretended to like them.

In the end, the fruits here seemed to be 80% good. There was even a poisonous peach just now. It was simply too sour!

"Alright, go! The people of the Fire God Sect were still waiting for their Bishop Vivian!"

In order to make himself less guilty, Liao Zixuan waved his paws, indicating that there was no need to worry about him, and urged the little girl to hurry up and set off.

“Oh, right!”

“Remember to ask them for a bishop’s uniform! Robe! It was the kind that Eugenia had worn before! When I get there, I must see Bishop Vivian, who has finished changing!”

Liao Zixuan added this sentence through his telepathy.

Although Vivian still could not hear the whole sentence, she could understand what her wolf cub meant by the keywords such as “uniform,” “robe” and

Eugenia ‘

She immediately ran out of the room with a look of “I’m ignoring you”.

Looking at the little girl’s figure that disappeared into the association’s teleportation portal, the little wolf cub shook his head in a very old-fashioned manner.

Young, too young.

With this appearance, she was far from being a witch.

so...

Watch me!

After confirming that Vivian had left the Adventurer’s Association, the wolf cub’s eyes lit up.

This thought that had been buried in his heart ever since he mastered the transformation could finally be realized!

Hence...

Shua!

A brief white light flashed in the VIP room. Then, after the light dissipated...

“Humph!”

A smug snort sounded.

The little girl who had just left the Adventurer’s Association had magically appeared in the room again.

Eh? What was going on? Could Vivian teleport?

Alright then.

“Tsk tsk, I’m so beautiful!” Walking to a large mirror in the room, Liao Zixuan looked at the mirror in front of him, and he looked like Vivian. He smacked his lips in satisfaction.

Hiss... Suddenly, he frowned.

Because something was wrong! It felt like something was missing...

Liao Zixuan used a gentleman...He continued to examine the little girl’s body in the mirror.

It was as if he was watching a game, a female character that he controlled and nurtured. What? Why would a rough man control a female character?

Err...

This might be the new era. I really don't understand you young people.jpg cc+! I knew it. So this is where the difference lies! "The VIP room, the room, Vivian, the little wolf, the child, the angry curse.

Then, the little girl did not say anything and acted like an old man...Uh, although they were actually just lords, that was not important.

More importantly, the little girl raised her left leg and stepped on the coffee table in the VIP room, using the coffee table as a step.

As for the reason...

The girl's long cloth dress immediately slid down a little under the effect of gravity, revealing her fair legs that were originally covered by the dress.

Newton was ecstatic! Finally, the anti-gravity skirt was gone! Long live Fallen!

Then, the little girl waved her left hand, and the platinum-grade badge that had been transformed into a silver bracelet immediately turned from the bracelet that Vivian had set up. It wrapped around her knee and a little below her thigh...

Leg ring!

This was good for the stomach!

Liao Zixuan looked at her again with a satisfied gaze. At this moment, in the mirror opposite her, she looked like a bad girl. She was stepping on the coffee table, and the silver-white leg ring tightened the flesh of her legs just right. She looked thinner, but she was very attractive, making people unable to look away.

It was clearly just a small object, but it could make a person's entire temperament change. One could not help but sigh at the power of human invention..

Chapter 195: Master, Vivian!_2

"As expected."

"I'm so beautiful!"

He looked like someone who had pinched his face for 24 hours before the game even started.

I really don't understand you youngsters.jpg*2

He was no longer smug.

If they continued to be smug, some people would curse!

Please, push the plot!

Damn it!

As if he could hear the anguished wails of the players waiting for him below the Adventurer's Association, Liao Zixuan could only hold back.

There was no rush. There would be plenty of time in the future.

However, before he summoned the players to provide him with the plot, Liao Zixuan had to take the opportunity to figure out the problem that had always been a mystery to him, even in his previous life.

Ring, ring, ring...

The little girl shook the bell in the VIP room.

After a short while, there was a knock on the door.

“Enter!”

The young girl’s voice rang out. The wolf cub’s transformation was not only in appearance, but also in voice.

“Miss Vivian, how can I help you?” The receptionist, Miss J319, walked into the room.

“I just browsed through our association through the badge, but there are still some things that aren’t written on it. I want to ask you.”

Liao Zixuan spoke very quickly, completely different from the real Vivian.

However, receptionist J319 did not seem to have any doubts about this.

This further confirmed Liao Zixuan’s original guess.

This was because if this was a normal human receptionist, or a high-level receptionist who specialized in serving VIPs, they would definitely suspect what was going on with the girl in front of them who had a completely different temperament.

However, J319’s expression did not change. It was as if he could not think, or rather...Was it beyond her thinking range?

He no longer thought about it blindly.

Therefore, Liao Zixuan asked directly,”

“Why do all the receptionists in your association look the same? Also, does your number J319 mean a serial number? Also, when we just met, you were clearly at the counter, but how did you suddenly possess the receptionist behind me?”

“Could it be that all of you are twins and can transfer souls?”

Hearing Liao Zixuan’s question, receptionist J319 shook his head.

“I’m sorry, Miss Vivian. According to my authority in the association, I can’t answer your question completely.

Was it like this again?

Liao Zixuan was a little disappointed after hearing the other party’s answer. Many players in his previous life had asked such an obvious question, but the answer they received was the same.

However...

” But Miss Vivian. what I can tell you is that all the receptionists in the Adventurer’s Association, including me, are not real humans, but... Magic puppet.”

‘ Magic puppet!?’ This was the first time Liao Zixuan had heard this term.

” As for the soul transfer that you mentioned, Miss Vivian, it’s a unique magic net system that is installed in the unified magic puppets of our association. We don’t have souls, and we only exist in the consciousness of the magic net system.

“Magic Net system? No soul? Higher consciousness? What do you mean?”

More and more new words appeared, and Liao Zixuan hurriedly asked. It seemed that Vivian’s platinum-level adventure level was really useful. She could really get some insider information.

However, it was just a little bit and that was it.

Under Liao Zixuan’s questioning, receptionist J319 shook his head and repeated the words ” no authority “.

Alright then!

It was already a profit to be able to get a little information.

Liao Zixuan then instructed J319 to help him invite the players downstairs to his VIP room.

The receptionist...After the magic puppet receptionist left, Liao Zixuan revealed a thoughtful expression.

A magic puppet?

The reason why he asked this was not because he had nothing to do, nor was it because of curiosity...Alright, the last one was still a little bit.

But the real reason was actually the maid who had gotten together with Vivian in the earl’s mansion.

Elena.

Test subject K421!

As for Liz and the Blood Countess, they were also...Test subject K423!

Was he a little familiar?

That's right, it was very similar to receptionist J319's numbering.

Liao Zixuan had reason to suspect that there was some connection between the two parties. Moreover, there was a deeper reason why he was so concerned.

With test subject K421 and test subject K423, according to this logic... Where did test subject K422 go?

If he thought about it further.

Vivian would have entered the Count's castle with or without him. The only difference was that she was now a distinguished guest. In the plot of his previous life, she was probably sold into the city by her father to be the Count's maid.

If there was anyone in the entire Castle who was qualified to be the test subject, K422...

Dong dong dong!

A knock on the door interrupted Liao Zixuan's thoughts.

The receptionist J319 had already brought the gamers to the entrance.

Forget it, there were too few clues. It was useless to make wild guesses.

However, there was one thing that was certain.

From the looks of it, the storyline content that the players could come into contact with in the Bloody Earl Castle dungeon in his previous life...It was definitely not complete! It was a plot of a ghost father who had been corrupted by the Fallen Abyss and then used an evil spell to occupy his daughter's body.

Let's put this aside for the time being.

Liao Zixuan, the little girl in Vivian's form, got up from the sofa to open the door.

Because of the presence of the players, he did not say the word "enter" like before. Instead, he did something that was more in line with Vivian's actions. After all, he could not expose himself... At the very least, he couldn't reveal everything at the beginning.

At the same time, behind the door of the VIP room.

Of course, Liao Zixuan did not call too many players up. He only named a few familiar chives.

Long Road Man rubbed her little hands together in anticipation. At the same time, she had a silly smile on her face. It was so good that she could see her goddess again! And he was summoned by the goddess at such a close distance!

His appearance made the players who were called up by Liao Zixuan, such as Dust Fall and Big Watermelon, subconsciously pull away from the long road.

"You're here. Come in and do it.

After the door opened, the familiar figure of the little girl came into view. After Vivian led them to their seats, she thanked the receptionist very politely and finally closed the door.

So obedient, so cute!

The long road was already filled with stars.

However, the two players, Luo Chen and Big Watermelon, looked at each other sharply. They seemed to have sensed something strange about Vivian.

“Foreigners, I saw you guys down there, so I called you over. I didn’t delay anyone, right?”

As soon as Vivian opened her mouth, as a qualified bootlicker, the melee Archmage immediately waved his hand.

“No, no! As long as it’s for Miss Vivian, I’ll always be free!”

What?

Just as he was about to open his mouth, Long Man Lu, who had his lines snatched away, suddenly became alert. He did not realize before that there was actually someone who was fighting with him for the position of bootlicker?

How could he endure that!

Hence...

“It’s like this, outlanders. I’m in a little trouble now, and I don’t know if I can...

Entrust everyone to help?”

In the room, Vivian had just finished her second sentence, and the long road was full of anticipation. She immediately shouted,”

“No problem!”

“Miss Vivian’s trouble is our trouble! No matter what it is, I will do my best!

Damn it

This time, it was the melee Archmage’s turn to look angry. He also focused and prepared to answer Vivian’s next sentence.

Err... There was no one else like these two idiots.

Perhaps it was only Luo Chen and Big Watermelon who were getting more and more curious about Vivian.

Then, immediately after.

He saw the great hero who had saved Fire Code City, a kind and pure country girl.

Vivian smiled sweetly again when she saw Man Man patting her chest and making a vow.

She slowly said,

“Eh? Really? That’s great!”

“Outsiders, since this is the case, please help me...Did he kill the Earl?”

“Good! No problem!”

Congratulations, the Melee Archmage answered successfully!

However, before he could look at Long Road with a smug expression, he noticed the dazed expressions of the three players left in the room.

Hiss...

Wait a minute?

Just now, Vivian, the main storyline NPC, asked us to.... What was he doing here?

Chapter 196: Demoness 'Great Cause Reveals Its Prominence! 1

“Miss Vivian, maybe I didn’t hear you clearly. Can you... Say it again?”

The melee Archmage asked carefully. On the sofa opposite him, at this moment, her hands were on her knees and her legs were close together. Anyone would think that she was a well-behaved and quiet little girl.

The little girl, on the other hand, was surprised at first, but then she immediately showed an apologetic expression, as if she was apologizing for not letting the melee Archmage hear her clearly.

He was back! He was back! This was how Vivian felt!

With the little girl’s expression, the melee Dharma God felt more and more certain that there was something wrong just now. Could it be that there were too many guides last night? Was he hallucinating?

However, very soon.

“That... What I wanted to say was, but... Can I ask everyone to help me kill the Earl? “He raised his voice a little, as if to let them hear him clearly this time.

However, her tone was still the same. It was still the kind of shy little girl.

And what she said was indeed very consistent...

Matched? Matched my ass!

Who would shyly ask someone to kill someone in broad daylight!

The melee Archmage was going crazy.

Everything was normal at the beginning. Why did it suddenly change when it came to him?

However, Vivian, who was sitting on the sofa opposite him, seemed to be unaware of what she was saying. It was as if she had said something very ordinary and serious.

After she finished speaking, she even blinked her big watery eyes and looked at them with anticipation.

[Melee Mage God: >

Faced with Vivian's expectant gaze, the melee Archmage was sweating profusely. It was as if he had successfully answered the question only to find out that he did not know how to do it.

Therefore, he immediately looked at the other three players in the room.

What about his teammates? Teammates, save him!

"Good!" As long as the other party dared to show their blood, even if it was a god, Vivian, if you were willing, I would kill them!"

Brainless fans, who were in a state of insanity.

The current situation was clearly not something that Long Road and the melee Archmage could handle.

snap out of one's astonishment

Luo Chen and Big Watermelon, these two truly skilled players looked at each other...No, I've tolerated you many times! How many times have you looked at each other since the beginning? You mean, Nan Tong?

In short, the two of them quickly shut up and Luo Chen tentatively asked the little girl, "Miss Vivian, we still don't quite understand. The Earl you're talking about is..."

"Count Sisl.

Good fellow!

Living in someone else's house and hiring someone to kill the owner of the house, this, this plot...

Was it that exciting?

"Can we hear the reason?" Luo Luo Chen's eyes flashed with excitement as he quickly asked.

He was not one of the first to come into contact with Vivian. He had only come after the little girl had made her debut.

However, Fallout now felt that following Vivian was the right choice!

The title of "Walking Plots Lady" was too valuable. Such explosive content was thrown out right from the start. It was not even twice as good as the missions issued by some other lousy NPC in the Adventurer's Association!

Indeed, for the players, the more ridiculous the story, the more it would stimulate their desires. After all, the purpose of the game was to satisfy the things that humans could not do in real life.

In terms of the players' mentality, a certain wolf cub in the skin of a little girl was really stable!

But in reality, this was only the beginning of the plan.

"Yes... It's like this."

From the perspective of the four players, Vivian continued to speak in her soft and weak tone.

"Outsiders, you were also the ones who experienced yesterday's demon wave. Therefore, you should be clear that even though Fire Code City won, the price they paid was also very high.

"The most pressing problem at the moment is what to do with the tens of thousands of homeless refugees whose homes have been destroyed. After Vivian's words, the four of them nodded, but they felt a little strange.

Because, indeed...

However, what does this have to do with you saying that you want to kill the Earl?

It was not until Vivian's next sentence rang out that the four players gasped and their eyelids twitched.

The little girl sighed.

And then...

” Count Sisre, who has always been known for his kindness, can’t bear to see the refugees suffer, so he’s preparing to hold a donation banquet the night after tomorrow. At that time, all the nobles in the city will be there to raise funds for the reconstruction of their homes.

It was originally a good thing, but who would have thought that the Earl actually wanted me to be the leader of the reconstruction work.

The little girl frowned.

The players on the other side were dumbfounded.

Long Road Man, who was the most straightforward, immediately asked in confusion.

“Vivian, this is great! Isn’t that a good thing?”

“Something good?”

The little girl tilted her head and looked confused. Man Lu could not help but feel an inexplicable chill in his heart.

After that...

“Why is it a good thing? How could a little girl from the countryside know about such a big mess? What if something went wrong? If I screw up, won’t I have to bear all the responsibility?”

Chapter 197: Demoness ‘Great Cause Reveals Its Prominence! 2

If it was really a good job, it wouldn’t have been my turn. It would have been divided up by the other nobles long ago. On the surface, it seems that they trust me, but in fact, I feel that these nobles are taking advantage of my new arrival and that I’m in the limelight, so they’re taking the opportunity to suppress me and deliberately let me clean up the mess.

The little girl shook her head and said to the players in a distressed tone,”

“So...So I was thinking, should I fight back and protect myself?”

For example, if they hired someone to kill the Earl, would they be able to make these nobles give up on this idea?”

From the perspective of the players, Vivian seemed to be seriously thinking about the problem. Even after she finished speaking, she looked at them with a ‘ what do you think of this suggestion?” look.

“Now, do you understand what I said at the beginning? Outsiders, you...Can you help me?”

The players were speechless.

He didn’t understand! He did not understand at all!

Is your way of solving problems just to “solve” the problem?

The heroic image of the lone demon horde that Vivian had displayed outside the Fire Code City seemed to have melted away in their hearts.

In its place was a player that the players, and even the player who was the first to come into contact with Vivian, who should know the NPC’s ” nature ” the best, had almost forgotten and forgotten about...

Witch!

Yes, it was! Other than the witch, there was no one else who could say the most ruthless words like Vivian now, with the appearance of a weak little girl.

This was a huge contrast. As the one who was talking to the little girl, Fallout suddenly felt a chill on his back. The temperature of the entire room seemed to have dropped.

Moreover...

Wait a minute!

Could it be that everything before yesterday was also...

Fallout suddenly remembered that someone had posted a screenshot of Vivian's hidden "Villain Mission" on the forum.

Therefore, he had analyzed some of the threads on the Thulta. He remembered that the fiercest one among them was a player with the ID "The Most Handsome Little Wolf" who had started to advocate conspiracy theories.

In fact, all of this was Vivian's evil plan. Her purpose was to take the opportunity to self-direct and gain the reputation of Fire Code City.

As a result, a large number of anti-fans of the "most handsome wolf" began to follow the trend of the "most handsome wolf" as their spiritual leader, and the forum was in a mess.

And the most annoying thing was that they attacked people randomly. Some of them were often players who were neutral to Vivian. As long as they said something good about Vivian, they would be criticized by the leader of the anti-fans, "The Most Handsome Wolf."

One could imagine how the passerby could still tolerate it. Those who were originally neutral had all turned into fans and joined the other side, starting to fight against Vivian's haters.

Luo Chen was one of the "Lu Zhuan fans".

Initially, he had been enjoying the melons, but he still had a deep impression of the night.

The fuse was because he saw that there was an ID called " I like Zixuan ' Vivian, who had posted a comment on why the little girl's chest was so flat, which made Luo Chen laugh.

He immediately replied, 'It's fine if I'm spraying something else, but can I be a spraying point even if I'm flat-chested?' In less than three seconds, he received a reply that said, " Then I hope that the girlfriend you find in the future will be as flat as this."

Sigh, no, just thinking about it made me f * cking angry!

Luo Chen clearly remembered that he had immediately started playing games with both of them. As a result, his current XP system had been subtly changed. It seemed that he really felt that being flat-chested was not bad. It was not that bad. It was clearly very cute!

* Cough cough *

He seemed to have gone a little too far.

In short, justice might be late, but it would not be absent.

Ever since the story of the Dark Wave's attack on the city officially ended yesterday, the blogger with the ID " Bi Wei Rong ", who had previously published various rankings and was already a little famous among the players, posted the inside story that they had come into contact with when they climbed the Fire God Tower. In fact, the real culprit was Archbishop Maggie, who had been bewitched by the Fallen Abyss, and had nothing to do with Vivian. The trend of the forum was truly one-sided.

All of Vivian's haters were speechless, like street rats. As the leader of the haters, " the most handsome wolf " directly chose to dive and disappear.

It was also because of Bi Weirong's post that Vivian had established Vivian's image of justice and made everyone forget about the short-lived " witch ' setting.

But now it seemed like...

Although it was not like what the "most handsome wolf" said, that everything was all directed by Vivian, it was definitely not mentioned by "Bi Wei Rong" and had nothing to do with Vivian.

At the very least, the young lady in front of him was definitely not that innocent! It was the complete opposite of the "Virgin Mary" label that was being posted on the forum!

Black-bellied! Absolutely two-faced!

Furthermore, her acting skills had deceived everyone! The acting skills that could manipulate the players in Fire Code City and even outside the game!

So, so scary...No! What a terrifying woman!

Chapter 198: Demoness 'Great Cause Reveals Its Prominence!J

Looking at Vivian, who was slightly turning her head to him and waiting for his reply, Fallout shivered again. It was as if he was not looking at a country girl, but a girl who was playing with people's hearts... Little demon!

And, it seemed to be to verify.

[Ding! You have received the SS-rank quest "Assassinate the Count" from 'Witch Vivian, who is good at disguising'. Do you accept?]

A witch who was good at disguising herself!

Not only Luo Chen, but also the melee Archmage and Big Watermelon. Now that they saw this familiar word, they had a deeper understanding of what it meant to... He was good at disguising!

They were originally sitting on the sofa casually, but now, one by one, they subconsciously became the same as the little girl opposite them. Their legs were close together and their hands were on their knees. This was called the primary school child's good baby sitting posture.

This was deterrence!

It was as if the big shot opposite him was sitting obediently, so how would the people below dare to say that they were crossing their legs? Was he courting death?

Yes! Very good!

Seeing this, the wolf cub that had transformed into Vivian nodded in satisfaction.

Indeed, he couldn't change his attitude towards the little girl quickly. Since he couldn't change the little girl, then Liao Zixuan had to let the others sit properly! All become obedient babies!

Of course, what surprised Liao Zixuan even more was the sudden sound of a system notification in his mind.

[Ding, your Witch's Seed has absorbed nutrients and gained imperceptible growth.]

What?

Witch's Seed?

The remnant soul of the Witch Bella, who had been devoured by the Bone Dragon of the Fallen Abyss, had left it behind for him. It was a key item that could allow him to change his occupation to the top-notch Extraordinary profession, Witch!

Liao Zixuan originally wanted to let Vivian take the opportunity to change her class on the battlefield yesterday, but the prompt at that time was "unable to use"

But now it seemed like...

Liao Zixuan suddenly remembered the hint that Fire God Alice had mentioned to him. To activate the Witch's Seed, collecting negative emotions was the core element.

As he was still talking to the gamers, Liao Zixuan did not have the time to check the Witch's Seed's situation.

However, as an experiment...

Although the players on the other side were frightened by him mentally, their hands were still very honest.

After seeing that it was an SS-rank mission, he did not even think about whether he had the ability to assassinate the Earl or whether he should assassinate the Earl. In any case, he accepted it immediately.

But in reality, Liao Zixuan would not let these players, who were not even as strong as a pinky finger of an Earl, do such a mission.

If he failed to assassinate the Earl, it would only arouse suspicion.

Of course, he had other plans for these players. Assassinating the Earl was just a prelude.

so...

Back to the players' perspective.

"Then... That one."

“Although I’m very grateful that everyone accepted my commission, if I fail, I... I’ll be a little angry.”
Hmm?

What did he mean?

Luo Chen instantly became alert to the little girl’s words and felt a chill run down his spine.

After that.

The source was found.

[Ding! The SS-rank mission you have accepted, “Assassinate the Earl”, has been modified. A new penalty mechanism for mission failure has been added.]

[Due to a change in the mission, you have one chance to choose whether to continue or not.]

WTF!?

Luo Chen quickly clicked on it.

And then...

[Mission Failure Punishment: Vivian will remember your appearance and grant you death until you have been resurrected ninety-nine times]

The four players were speechless.”

He looked at the little girl’s embarrassed expression.

He recalled Vivian’s words, “ I might be a little angry.”

At this moment, in Liao Zixuan's mind..

[Ding, your Witch's Seed has absorbed nutrients and has grown slightly!

Chapter 199: Dungeon Crystal

"Honey, can you wear this tonight..." "Bah! What are you thinking?"

"Then, honey, can you buy me a new game that's being released today..." (I already rejected him once. It's not good to reject him again. Sigh, forget it.)

Hence, the man happily bought a 3A masterpiece for free. He was secretly delighted. Women are not as fun as games.

This was obvious.

During the negotiation process, he deliberately made others reject him, so that others would feel indebted to him. After he occupied the high ground of reason, he would then reveal his true purpose, which would make it easier for him to succeed.

– From a certain wolf pup who did not want to leave his name, anthology of his work," Negotiating Skills."

Regarding the matter of how high the title of a book will be after adding dashes and numbers."

Adventurer's Association, second floor, VIP room.

With such a terrifying punishment mechanism for mission failure, the four players in the room did not dare to accept Vivian's mission. They gave up faster than anyone else.

Then, they saw that after they rejected the mission to assassinate the Earl, the little girl sitting opposite them immediately changed her expression and began to look gloomy and disappointed.

This made the hearts of the players jump!

This is bad!

Could it be that his favorability had dropped?

However, compared to the former being chased by Vivian 99 times, they would rather lose some favorability.

Just as they were anxious and wanted to do something to salvage the situation, someone brought them a pillow just as they were about to doze off.

“How about this, Outlander.”

The little girl spoke again.

Since assassinating the Earl is not feasible, it seems that the reconstruction of the refugees' homes will fall on my shoulders in the short term. However, you should know that I have just arrived and do not have many friends in Fire Code City. The only people I can rely on now are you, foreigners.

“So, are you willing to help me and rebuild the homes that were destroyed by monsters outside the city?”

After Vivian's words, Fallout heaved a sigh of relief.

He was really afraid that the other party would suggest something else. With the current them, they definitely could not complete the mission, and then their favorability would drop drastically.

If it was just construction, then the players were too good at it!

This mission can be accepted!

However, unlike the melee Archmage and Long Road, who agreed without hesitation, Luo Chen and Big Watermelon hesitated for a moment.

This was because they had all noticed that the prerequisite for this mission was to leave the city. In other words, they had to return to Fire Code City after entering it with great difficulty.

It was easy to leave the city, but it was difficult to enter again.

Didn't they see the other players who were mingling with the refugees outside the city?

Actually, the focus of the closed beta would still be outside the city, which Fallout could guess. After all, most of the players were still outside the city, so the plot would naturally follow them, not the small group of people who entered the city.

Therefore, the only thing that Fallout was conflicted about was whether he should give up the rare opportunity to stay in Fire Code City for Vivian's mission.

However, it didn't take long for Fallout to decisively accept.

Firstly, even if players entered Fire Code City, they would be considered as the lowest level of small characters. Without the guidance of NPCs, they would only be like headless flies flying around.

As for the second...

The main reason was that Luo Chen...He did not dare to reject Vivian a second time!

Who knew! If he rejected this seemingly harmless little girl twice, would the other party send another "a little angry" prompt? Then he would die without knowing how!

"Ah! Really? That was great! Thank you, helpful and warm-hearted foreigners!

After they all accepted the mission, as expected, the little girl opposite them immediately revealed a happy expression as if she was relieved.

Then, to the surprise of the four players, Vivian magically took out a crystal-like item from somewhere and placed it on the table.

"Miss Vivian, what is this?" Luo Chen couldn't help but feel puzzled.

When he subconsciously used his "Detection" skill to scan it, the system gave him a notification of [Dungeon Crystal].

Vice... Instance Dungeon Crystal?

While Luo Chen and the others were in shock, the little girl's explanation soon sounded.

"I know that you foreigners like to take risks and fight, so I was wondering if it would be a little boring to trouble you to do construction work all the time. That's why I brought this for you.

"I got it from Damir of the Fire God Cult. It's a magic crystal developed by the law school. It can simulate and reproduce scenes that I've experienced before to repeatedly train.

He casually made up a source to make the Instance Dungeon Crystal look more impressive. "How about it? Do you want to try it now?"

“Good!”

The eyes of Fallout and the others flashed with excitement. After all, this was the first instance dungeon that they had encountered in the game that could be repeated!

And what did it mean to be able to repeatedly run an instance dungeon? It meant equipment! Props! Experience points! Gold coins!

All kinds of resources!

Even though it was a closed beta and most of the items would be recycled, this did not affect the players' enthusiasm for the dungeon!

Chapter 200: Dungeon Crystal (2)

After all, besides resources, there were many other precious things in the dungeon.

Teamwork, teamwork, and the excitement of getting the First Clear. The only choice was to scold each other with voice messages, bring girls with a god, and act cool. It was the key function of the game that turned players from individuals into groups and closely connected with each other!

If you say that bag is a woman's love, that instance is a man's romance!

As if they were on drugs, the four players in the room immediately formed a team and entered the dungeon crystal that Vivian took out.

“This is...Fire God Tower?”

When Dust Fall and the others entered, they immediately recognized the towering Mage Tower in front of them. It was second only to the Fire God Statue in Fire Code City.

So, this was a replay of the scene they participated in yesterday, where they bravely charged into the Fire God Tower to wake up Maggie who was controlled by the Fallen Abyss?

Dust Fall immediately sighed in his heart.

This was because it was indeed a good idea to use this as a dungeon for Version 1.0's closed beta. After all, only a few of the players who were chosen by Harvey had participated in it and learned the truth. Most of the players had only found out about the inside story through the post of "Bi Wei Rong"

At that time, there were many players who protested on the forum. They also wanted to experience the content of this piece. They did not expect the official to pay so much attention to it. The next day, they used it as a template and made the Instance Dungeon Crystal. Then, they gave it to them through Vivian's hands.

Huh?

Wait a minute!

So, did this mean that Vivian was the official's biological daughter and that she had become the official main storyline NPC?

Good fellow!

Before Fallout could finish his analysis, a notification from the dungeon rang out, pulling him back to reality.

"Eh? We can actually choose different factions!" The melee Archmage was a little surprised when he saw the dungeon notification.

The players could choose to join the Fire Code City's Harvey Camp, which belonged to the righteous side in the original plot, but they could also choose to join the Fallen Abyss Maggie Camp, which belonged to the evil side.

"We've already experienced Harvey's camp once. Why don't we try the villain camp this time? Follow Fallen Abyss Maggie?" A Big Watermelon suggested. "Seconded! I want to see bad women!" The melee Archmage was the first to agree.

"Seconded! I want to too!" Luo Chen nodded.

"Fu... Seconded! But I didn't go for the fallen Maggie. I, I was devoted to Vivian! "After a long journey, he finally spoke with difficulty.

The other three players immediately cast a disdainful look at Long Road. This was because when they were fighting against Bishop Eugenia, this guy had said the same thing. In the end, he was more excited than anyone else when he saw the bishop's long legs!

After choosing the faction, the next step was to choose the difficulty. Whether it was the hero or villain faction, the difficulty options were the same, but they were reversed.

For example, after they joined Maggie's Fallen Abyss faction, the highest difficulty was that Harvey's faction had replicated the original plot. There were three NPCs, Harvey, Chris, and Bai.

The next intermediate difficulty was without Bai. There were only Harvey and Chris.

The lowest difficulty was only Harvey.

If you choose a decent faction, you will be the exact opposite. When you choose an NPC, you will be added to the later. When you choose an easy difficulty, you will only have a high difficulty. When you choose an NPC, you will have a low difficulty.

It's the first time. Why don't you choose the lowest one Big Watermelon in a Mouth asked again.

"No need! The highest difficulty is the first clear, so of course, we're going for the first clear. Let's go for the highest difficulty!"

Luo Chen waved his hand indifferently.

After all, what kind of joke was this? He was a high player, do you understand?

And then...

After everything was ready, the few of them originally wanted to see Maggie from Fallen Abyss, but they found that their bodies had all turned into fire elements wandering in the tower.

At the same time, the condition to clear the game was not to kill all the NPCs in Harvey's camp, but...Survive for half an hour?

WTF

Was the villain so shameless?

Then wouldn't it be easy?

Other than the more experienced and steady Big Watermelon, even Luo Chen felt that it was easy.

In the end, five minutes later... [Your party has been completely destroyed.]

[Dungeon Challenge Failed]

[Your challenge count has been exhausted. You will be returning soon.]

Just as Liao Zixuan expected.

It was even faster than he thought.

After a white light flashed in the VIP room, the four players who had been sucked into the dungeon crystal returned to the room. Moreover, each of them still had a dazed expression on their faces, as if they had not figured out what had happened.

Seeing them like this.

Liao Zixuan sneered in his heart.

Because one look and one could tell that to be able to die so quickly, he must have chosen the villain faction and even chosen the highest difficulty!

After that, as expected. "F * ck!"

"What happened?"

"I don't know. I was about to kill Harvey, but then my vision suddenly blurred, and it showed that I was dead."

"I saw it from the side. It was the fire element you were playing that was blown up by someone else with a single punch. It looked terrible, and the slag shattered all over the ground." Big Watermelon spread his hands.

He was the most experienced, so he chose to secretly watch and figure out the dungeon first. Only then did he let the other three know how he died. Of course, Big Watermelon was also sent away by "White" after that.

“No way! Could it be that the mysterious NPC named White’s combat power was really based on the original plot? I thought it would be weakened. Then what’s the point of our villain faction playing!”

After Long Road’s rant, the melee Archmage immediately nodded, somewhat speechless.

Previously, they were in Harvey’s camp, so White was a friend, so he might not have experienced it so clearly. However, after choosing to play the villain, the fire element, he truly experienced what it meant to be afraid and helpless.

Explode! Explode!

The melee Archmage touched his chest in fear. Although he was playing the role of a fire elemental in the dungeon, the tragic scene of White’s casual punch piercing through his chest and causing his body to explode seemed to still reverberate in his mind.

“Don’t be so pessimistic! The game wouldn’t give us a dungeon that we couldn’t clear. Besides, I finally understood why the only condition to pass the villain camp was to survive. It seemed that it was because of the plot of “White” to kill the NPC. AS long as ne made a move, tne game would end.”

“Therefore, I think that if we want to conquer this instance dungeon, we have to think about how to avoid the battle with ‘White’, and what is the trigger mechanism for ‘White’!”

He listened to the players discussing excitedly.

And at the end, as expected of a top player, this person called “Dust Fall” hit the nail on the head.

Liao Zixuan was very pleased. The Instance Dungeon Crystal was indeed very attractive to the players. At the same time, he could also advertise his avatar,” Bai “, and accumulate popularity among the players.

Of course, more importantly...

“Wait a minute! We discussed it for a long time, but...I don’t have any more dungeon challenges!”

The four players finally realized this problem.

Then, when they looked at Vivian again, they saw that the little girl tilted her head and looked confused, as if she did not understand what they were talking about.

Of course, all of this was just an illusion.

Why were the players so sure?

That was because...F * ck!

[Vivian's store has new goods.]

The system notification sounded at this moment.

I knew it!

How could the Witch be so kind as to give them such an item for free!

The players looked as if they had expected it, but they were actually very honest. They immediately opened Vivian's shop and skillfully prepared 'experience points' as a tribute to the witch.

Liao Zixuan felt gratified once again. Not bad, it was already a ripe leek. It knew how to harvest itself.

However, what he needed now was not experience points.

Before Vivian obtained the Witch class and advanced to Transcendence, the ordinary class Summoner had already reached the level limit.

Therefore, what Liao Zixuan needed the players to provide was a new currency that he had developed.

It was called...

Contribution Points!
