Chapter 211: The importance of building a good relationship with the protagonist

Teddy looked sad.

“Brother, please don’t mind if my illness acted up just now. I usually suffer from this illness. Every day, I live in pain, wishing for death, wishing for life...”

“Sigh! Brother, big brother! Daddy, don’t go, don’t go! Let’s discuss something, you see if you can help me, let this iron bar also... Break?”

Seeing that Liao Zixuan was about to turn around and leave under his teasing, Teddy quickly did not dare to be stingy anymore. He directly begged Liao Zixuan, almost crying.

But this time, Liao Zixuan didn’t even turn his head back, sneering in his heart.

Now she knew how to cry.

Where did you go earlier?

Do you know how important it is to have a good relationship with the main character?

Obviously, if Liao Zixuan had a favorable impression of him, then Teddy would definitely be negative.

However...

“Brother, I beg you! That’s right! Didn’t you say that you lacked money? I have money here! I... My name is Teddy, a Baron, a genuine noble of Fire Code City. My family is a merchant, and I have nothing but money!”

Looking at Liao Zixuan’s back that was getting further and further away, Teddy wanted to slap himself a few minutes ago. No, two!

He cried and begged, hoping that the other party would turn around.

However, Teddy knew that this was unlikely. After all, he had already offended such a mysterious and powerful person, yet he still hoped that the other party would come and save him...

Did he think this was a novel?

“Teddy?”

Therefore, when the black-haired youth stopped in his tracks and returned to his cell, he asked for his name in confusion.

Teddy felt like he was dreaming.

Then, he didn’t know how many times his body had trembled. He nodded frantically and said his full name at the fastest speed in his life.

“Yes! That’s right! Teddy Diabat, a baron and noble, was himself!

Separated by the iron bars, the young man pointed his finger at his face that had been beaten into a pig’s head.

Liao Zixuan was speechless.

This name left a deep impression on Liao Zixuan.

The bad kind.

He still remembered the first letter he and Vivian read this morning. It was a confession letter to a little girl that made people want to hit her. The name at the end was...

Baron Teddy Diabat. "Tell me, how did you get in?"

Helplessly sighed.

Although that was what he asked, Liao Zixuan could already guess.

After that, as expected.

"Big Brother, I get angry when you say this! This matter has to start from this afternoon. At that time, I was sitting in a carriage, eating hotpot, and singing. In the end, it was suddenly stolen..."

"Cut! Cut the crap! Tell me the key points!" Liao Zixuan knocked on the iron bars impatiently.

"A group of nobles wanted to frame Vivian the day after tomorrow. As a gentleman, I didn't want to be involved. I wrote a letter to Vivian to remind her, but I was beaten up."

Without even panting, Teddy finished his summary in one breath.

Liao Zixuan raised his eyebrows.

So, aren't you talking nicely?

Kacha!

“Come out.”

He casually threw the broken iron bars to the side, making a crisp sound.

Liao Zixuan turned around and walked towards the exit, leaving behind Teddy, who had yet to come back to his senses.

Although he already knew about it, he was still shocked to see it up close.

He didn't believe it, so he took the remaining iron bars beside him and tried it out.

And then...

“Big brother! Big brother, wait, little brother!”

Chapter 212: The Art of Stealth

The dark corridor was dimly lit, and from some corner of the room in the dark, there would be faint moans of pain that reached his ears from time to time.

The air was filled with an indescribable stench. It seemed like it was rotten, but it also seemed like something disgusting that had never been cleaned up, causing it to ferment.

The previous poodle was also carried over in a sack like Liao Zixuan.

Therefore, this was the first time he had seen the scene outside the prison cell. Perhaps it was because of the psychological effect of the prison break, Teddy became more and more nervous.

He covered his nose and waved the air in an attempt to get rid of the stench.

He quickened his pace and got closer to the mysterious young prisoner who was leading the way.

It was said that people tended to talk when they were nervous, and Teddy was the same.

“I really have to hand it to this group of treasure thieves. Don’t they know how to clean up? Hiring a housekeeping company would be good too!” Liao Zixuan glanced at the grumbling Teddy and didn’t say anything.

The baron quickly changed the topic.

“Speaking of which, brother, since you’re so powerful that you can bend metal with a crack of your hand, uh... Although I don’t quite understand how you evaluate your strength, you must be at least at the first or second rank, right?”

“I know that Commander Harvey of the famous Fire Law Knights of our Fire

Law City is only at the third step. You are already half as powerful as Harvey. No matter what, you should be considered a person at the level of a division leader, right?”

He could tell that Teddy was trying his best to suck up to him by comparing

Harvey to Liao Zixuan and even saying “half Harvey.”

There were only a few familiar characters. Harvey was already the most powerful person Teddy could think of.

Because of this, Teddy felt even stranger.

“Brother, are those treasure thieves really that powerful? Even you fell for their trap and got caught?”

“Do you still remember what I said at the beginning?” Liao Zixuan asked.

“You said that you met a chick in the black market. She had big breasts and a perky butt. She was beautiful and had a sweet voice.” Teddy answered.

“The last sentence.”

“Oh, you said... She brought you to a place where you can make a lot of money.” Hiss...!

As if he suddenly had an epiphany, his eyes lit up and he slapped his forehead.

“I... I-I know! You’re deliberately letting the treasure thieves tie you into their nest, and then you’ll pull the rug out from under you and rob the treasure thieves ‘nest instead!” “Your brain isn’t too stupid.”

Liao Zixuan nodded.

Teddy’s next words almost made him fall.

“No, actually, it’s because it’s written like this in novels. I love reading such things! How exciting!”

“Then tell me, what happens next in the novel?”

Of course, the protagonist will use his superb stealth skills to bypass the layers of guards and steal the treasure before leaving...” The more he spoke, the softer his voice became.

Teddy suddenly realized a problem.

They were currently in a dirty prison area, so they did not meet any guards. No one was willing to stand guard in such a place.

However, their goal after that...At the very least, his goal was to be able to get out. This meant that he would definitely encounter countless members of the Treasure Thief Group. After all, this was their lair.

As for him...He didn't know how to use Stealth!

What was he afraid of?

Just as Teddy was feeling uneasy about what to do next, Liao Zixuan, who was walking in front, suddenly stopped and gestured with his fingers.

As they spoke, the two of them had already arrived at the end of the cell area.

At the exit, there were four or five members of the Treasure Thief Group, including the burly man who had just thrown in the sack containing Liao Zixuan a few minutes ago.

"Big... Big brother." Teddy lowered his voice and called out in a trembling voice.

Liao Zixuan now realized that this guy usually called him brother, and then once he had a request, he immediately changed to calling him big brother. "Big brother, what should we do now? You... Do you know how to use Stealth?" "Yes."

"But...But I don't know how to do that, Big Brother!" Teddy was about to cry. For some reason, Liao Zixuan especially liked to see this guy suffer.

He deliberately teased Baron Teddy. "Is that so? Then you can only stay here."

"Don't, don't, big brother!"

Teddy was scared when he heard that. He subconsciously grabbed Liao Zixuan's shirt like a little girl who was left alone at a haunted house.

“Then what do you think we should do? You don’t know how to use Stealth, so you’re just a burden to me.

“This is the treasure thief group’s lair, the biggest underground evil force in the entire Fire Law City. It’s not a market, if you’re not careful, you’ll lose your life.”

Liao Zixuan wanted to continue scaring the baron, but Teddy’s next move was beyond his expectations.

Originally Liao Zixuan thought that this is a shameless character, saying what is also like a dog skin plaster, sticking to himself, holding tight to the thigh of life protection, not letting go..

Chapter 213: The Art of Sneaking (2)

But unexpectedly, Teddy gritted his teeth and let go of Liao Zixuan’s clothes. Then, his expression became lonely.

Because he felt that Liao Zixuan was right.

Although Teddy’s previous performance didn’t seem to be very smart, Yazi was still very smart.

But in reality, to be able to become a baron and inherit the nobility at such a young age, how could he be so stupid? At least he knew the big picture.

Teddy understood in an instant. If he shamelessly asked to follow the mysterious young man, the final result would only make the mysterious young man unhappy. It would be a light punishment if he knocked him out and left him behind.

Since that was the case, the best plan now...

It was better for him to take the initiative to go back and not drag the other party down. He could even gain sympathy. After the other party left, he could ask the young man to help him find someone to redeem him. That was the most reliable way to survive.

Teddy sighed deeply.

"I understand, Big Brother. Then I'll go back first. No...But before that, when you get out, can I ask you for a small favor?"

"Tell me." Liao Zixuan asked with interest.

"Can you go to my house and help me deliver a message? Just say that I was kidnapped by the members of the Stolen Treasures Group. Ask them to think of a way outside to find a way to save me..."

Teddy's expression suddenly changed.

"Sigh! Wait! No way, no way! I definitely can't let my family, who is almost 90 years old, know that I'm her only child. If she finds out, she'll definitely have a heart attack.

"But...But you can't tell my wife! My wife is pregnant. She has a big belly. The doctor said it's a boy. She still has my two little daughters to take care of. They're so small. They're just as tall as my legs... Big Brother, if they knew that their father would never come back...Wuwuwu..."

Teddy's voice was filled with tears, and the more he spoke, the more miserable he became.

Liao Zixuan...

Liao Zixuan's mouth twitched.

If he hadn't read the love letter he wrote to Vivian, he would have believed it.

Hiss, wait?

Was his thinking too conservative? What if this guy really had a wife and children and even wrote a letter to the little girl?

Teddy suddenly shivered, and he couldn't even act pitiful anymore.

"Alright."

"It doesn't matter if you know how to use Stealth or not, as long as I know how to use it."

Liao Zixuan ignored Teddy and continued to swagger towards the exit of the cell.

However, halfway through, he really couldn't help but turn around and add another sentence.

"And...'

"It's best if you made up all those words you said just now.

"Otherwise..."

Otherwise, even if he did need a pawn who belonged to Vivian's side among the nobles, you would not be able to see the sun tomorrow.

Of course, Liao Zixuan wouldn't say this out loud. He just kept it in his heart.

On Teddy's side.

"Wha... What do you mean?"

He suddenly understood the source of the chill.

However, compared to this, what puzzled Teddy more was Liao Zixuan's actions at this moment. As for the previous sentence, he didn't need to know it, as long as he knew Stealth.

But now...

NO?

What happened to Stealth?

Just walk over?

What kind of Stealth are you?

Teddy saw Liao Zixuan getting closer and closer to the members of the Treasure Thief Group guarding the door of the prison cell. Some of the guards even heard the footsteps and immediately stopped chatting. When they held their weapons vigilantly...

Teddy immediately hid in a dark corner and cursed in his heart. If they started fighting and made a scene, they would all be finished.

But then...

"What..."

Before he could even say the last word " person ", a member of the Treasure Thief Group guarding the entrance of the prison area felt his vision blur, and then the world spun in the next second.

As for his companion, it was even worse. Before he could even see Liao Zixuan's figure, he was smashed by his companion's flying body. The two of them fainted together.

Seeing that something was wrong, the remaining two or three guards immediately wanted to escape and report.

However, even though there was still a distance of several dozen meters between them, it was as if the other party had arrived in the blink of an eye.

Then, he was lifted up like a chicken. One on the left and one on the right, the heads of the two members of the treasure thief group touched intimately. When Liao Zixuan put them down again, they were already unconscious.

"You... You are!" In the end, Liao Zixuan left the brawny man who had sent him in.

Since he was a courier, he had probably done this kind of job many times and sent countless goods here.

At the thought of this, Liao Zixuan punched the other party's strong chest.

"If you don't want to be left behind, follow closely.

Liao Zixuan shouted at the corner where Teddy was hiding. He did not stop and continued to walk leisurely towards the core of the underground base.

Teddy ran out immediately.

Especially when he passed by the burly delivery man and saw the deep depression on the burly man's chest, as if he had been hit by a carriage. His heart could not stop beating.

I'm on his side.

We're on the same side, we're on the same side.

He kept repeating this sentence in his heart to comfort himself. Teddy carefully stepped over the body of the strong man and followed Liao Zixuan's footsteps.

Then, for the first time, the young baron had a new understanding of the meaning of the word "stealth.."

Chapter 214: The Art of Sneaking (3)

What was stealth?

To accomplish his goal without being discovered by others.

Teddy followed them all the way. He looked around and saw that no matter if it was the guards or the members of the Treasure Thief Group who accidentally passed by, as long as they were in the way, they would discover them.

At this moment, they were all lying on the cold ground beside his feet like corpses.

When Teddy followed the mysterious young man and stopped in front of the treasure trove's vault, he felt a little dizzy.

It wasn't an exaggeration to say that they didn't alert anyone along the way, and they weren't discovered by any members of the Treasure Thief Group.

Why?

That was because those who were alarmed and discovered them had all been killed.

That naturally meant that there was no one.

Now that he was back to his senses, he finally understood what Liao Zixuan had said to him at the beginning. He didn't need to know Stealth, as long as he knew it.

Yes.

This was basically a textbook level of Stealth!

In front of the underground vault door, Liao Zixuan clapped his hands in satisfaction.

“This is bad! Big... Brother, I know this kind of door. I have it at home too. It's not an ordinary iron door!”

It was as if he had finally found a place to put his “Holy Grail” to good use.

When Teddy saw the treasure thieves 'vault door, he immediately explained to Liao Zixuan.

“This kind of door is expensive because it has been enchanted and strengthened. Not only is it several times harder than ordinary metal, but it can't be opened with a key.”

“Big brother, if you really want to open it, I'm afraid... He could only kidnap their leader.”

Teddy had no intention of persuading Liao to give up.

If it was a few minutes ago, Teddy would have thought that he was crazy to say such a thing, but now...As if it was a matter of course?

“There’s no need to trouble others for such a small matter. “I can do it myself.” Liao Zixuan turned his shoulders.

“Big brother, you...”

Teddy was about to say that brute force was not enough to open the enchanted vault door, but his experience told him that it was better to swallow his words. Every time he said this, he would be slapped in the face.

Wait a minute!

Why was this smell so familiar? Wasn’t this what the supporting characters beside the main character in the knight novels that he often read did?

It was the kind where the main character could easily take care of everything that was impossible.

Oh no, I’ve become a supporting character?

Teddy used to read novels with great interest because he brought in the main character. However, when it really happened in reality and he found out that the clown was himself, he was instantly upset.

Humph!

I, Teddy Diabat, have never suffered such grievances!?

Hence, he changed his tone.

Since someone has to be the main character, why can’t it be me?

“Big brother, although the mages of the Divine Fire Sect claimed that this kind of enchantment door was extremely sturdy and could not be opened by brute force, I feel that these are all nonsense!

“In my opinion, as long as big brother wants to...He would definitely not even need to use 10% of his strength to open it!”

“I’m right, Big Brother!”

He looked strangely at Teddy, who had suddenly changed his style.

But what he said was true.

Accompanied by a familiar cracking sound.

It was no different from breaking the iron bars back then.

Liao Zixuan forcefully lifted the door of the vault out of the groove like lifting a manhole cover.

Teddy’s eyelids twitched.

Immediately after, the golden light in the vault shone brightly. Not all of the profits from the Treasure Thief Gang’s underground business were stored here, but more than half of them were stored here.

Teddy only took a cursory glance and knew how profitable this kind of shady business could be.

Good heavens, just this treasury alone was almost equivalent to the wealth of a small noble.

Of course.

It was still far from his home.

However, when he saw the group of people who had their treasures stolen and piled up into a gold mine, Teddy immediately realized another problem.

How could he bring so many gold coins out?

That was what he thought in his heart, but when it came to Teddy's mouth, he changed his words.

“Big brother, you're definitely rich this time. After you bring these out, you won't have to worry about food and clothing for the rest of your life. No, you won't even have to worry about your next life!”

“How can you be so sure that I'm going to take all of this out? “This time, it was Liao Zixuan's turn to ask.

According to the logic of normal people, they would definitely do their best to store as many gold coins as they could.

But when Teddy heard that, he immediately replied,” “Aiyo, big brother, don't joke around. I don't believe that big brother will leave soup for others to drink once you make a move!

“Besides, I don't even need to think to know that big brother must have prepared some high-level magical tool. It's the kind that can suck everything in front of you into it with a wave of your hand!”

It didn't exist.

There was no such high-level magic tool!

Teddy was very sure that he had never heard of this before, but he had to say the opposite!

Opposite him.

Liao Zixuan was speechless.

Then, he waved his hand, and the large amount of gold coins in the vault instantly disappeared. Then, they turned into data streams and became the numbers in the gold column on Vivian's game panel.

I looked at Teddy, who was standing beside me, who was staring at the empty treasury of the Treasure Thief Group. He looked as if it was only natural that the treasury was empty, and I wasn't surprised at all.

Liao Zixuan always felt like he had to take a stand.

The other party's face was so bruised and swollen. It was not unreasonable for him to be beaten up like a pig's head..

Chapter 215: Snake Leader, Viper

"Purple Fox, are you sure you have news of the Purple Crystal Grass?" It was the core location of the base of the Snake Division.

This place was filled with a strange and pungent smell of medicine.

It was a gloomy man wearing what looked like a breathing mask. The upper half of his face was exposed and covered with terrifying scars. It was unknown if it was burns or something else.

At this moment, the woman who was half-kneeling in front of him was frowning.

The exposed woman did not reply. Instead, she chose to hand over a cloth bag with both hands.

The masked man gently hooked the bag with his hand and was immediately attracted by the faint purple glow emitted from the opening of the bag.

Purple Crystal Grass!

“If I didn’t see the real thing, how would I dare to delay Lord Viper’s precious experiment time?”

A woman in revealing clothes...It could also be said that Purple Fox, who had personally “drugged” Liao Zixuan and taken him away in the black market, smiled when she saw the surprised expression of the masked man known as “

“Ha, I didn’t expect that even the Crow Clan didn’t have any news, but your Fox Clan was the first to discover it. “After Viper put away the Purple Crystal Grass, his tone was a little surprised.

“You might not believe it, but our Lady Seductive Fox was still throwing a tantrum at the Crow Clan yesterday.

Because guess what? During your meeting, Lady Seductive Fox said that she wanted a list of female servants to purchase from the Cecil family. In the end, the name of the first female servant on the list sent by the Crow Clan was...” The Purple Fox deliberately paused for a moment before licking her lips and saying the name.

“Vivian.”

“Vivian?” Viper repeated the question in confusion, as if it had recalled something.

“Who is she? I remember that the people of the Crow Clan seemed to have mentioned this name to me before. They said that this person was related to the Fire God Sect’s Bishop Eugenia, who had previously acted as our agent to plant Purple Crystal Grass but disappeared and could not be contacted. ” Puchi.

The Purple Fox covered her mouth and couldn't help but laugh out loud.

"Master Viper, this is Vivian, the little girl who fought against the Dark Wave outside the Fire Code City yesterday.

"These people from the Crow Clan are really interesting. It seems like they are not doing this to anger our Lady Seductive Fox. They are just trying to rely on the most popular rookie in Fire Code City.

One could tell that the Purple Fox's attitude towards the Crow Clan, which was also one of the four treasure thieves, was very bad. It could even be said that she was somewhat contemptuous.

This was actually the internal situation of the Treasure Thief Group.

As for the other three divisions, the Tiger Division had a large number of hired thugs, the Snake Division was responsible for concocting various potions, and the Fox Division was engaged in the highly profitable human population business. Every family had their own businesses.

However, the Crow Clan was the only one who did not have any businesses was always mysterious. Although they were in the intelligence department many members of the treasure thieves felt that there was no need for the C

Clan to exist.

To them, intelligence? Wasn't it just a piece of paper and a few lousy words? If it were them, they could do it too. What was so great about it? It wasn't worth the other three tribes supporting it.

He waved his hand.

Viper didn't continue Purple Fox's words. It was obvious that he didn't want to discuss the Crow Clan too much.

“Alright, hurry up. I still have a new batch of drug experiments to do.” “Tell me, what do you want from me?”

Through the mask, the low and hoarse voice unique to vipers rang in Purple Fox’s ears.

For him to become the leader of the Snake Clan, other than his ability in alchemy, his brain was naturally not bad. Now that the Purple Fox did not bring him directly to him, it must have wanted to negotiate with him.

This was understandable.

To be able to enter the treasure stealing gang and climb to a high position, all of them were very shrewd and knew how to maximize their own benefits.

“Hehe...As expected of Lord Viper, he spoke without hesitation. He was much stronger than those rascals from the Tiger Clan. Every time we traded with them, those rascals not only pretended to be stupid, but they even had designs on us. They wanted to get some benefits from them. When I came out, my legs were weak.”

The Purple Fox seemed to be complaining, but in fact, she had unknowingly approached the poisonous snake while she was talking. Her clothes were already revealing, and her old shoulders were extremely slippery.

She leaned over and whispered into the masked man’s ear, exhaling a fragrant scent as she whispered in an extremely seductive voice,

“For Lord Viper, what I want the most is for Lord Viper to make my legs go weak. If I can’t even go underground, that would be even better.”

“Is that so...”

“I understand.”

The scarred half of his face on the Viper Breathing Mask was expressionless. After hearing Purple Fox's words, he turned around and searched the table behind him.

Viper turned around and was surprised to see that there were a few tubes inserted into the back of the leader of the Snake Clan, and an unknown dark green liquid was flowing inside.

"Here, this is a newly developed medicine. It has already passed human experiments on the refugees you captured and is in the process of mass production. It is the most favorite medicine of your Fox Clan.

The Purple Fox had a bitter expression on her face at first, but soon, her gaze was completely attracted by the medicine bottle that Viper placed in front of her.

"Special medicine?"

"Yes, as long as you add a little, it will cause a person to develop a strong dependence. Moreover, depending on the dosage, you can make the other party lose their mind, hallucinate, have sex, or even brainwash them. In short, they will be at your mercy..

Chapter 216: Snake Clan Leader, Viper (2)

Viper was still talking expressionlessly, even though he was talking about such a terrifying thing.

"Is it really that powerful?" The Purple Fox shook the liquid in the bottle.

Viper glanced at him.

"If you don't believe me, you can drink it yourself and try to inspect the goods. I can guarantee that I can definitely do what you said just now, making your legs go weak and you won't be able to get down. However, as for the other effects... Please bear the consequences."

"Pfft...Lord Viper is really humorous."

The Purple Fox chuckled and kept the bottle like a treasure.

“This is just a sample. I promise you that once we finish mass production here, the first batch of goods will be given to you first.

“I heard that your Fox tribe is going to take action now. Before the large number of refugees outside the city go anywhere, you have to replenish your supplies. With it, I believe that your performance in Seductive Fox will definitely surpass the other Eight Foxes.

What the venomous snake meant by “performance” was self-evident.

The smile on Purple Fox’s pretty face grew wider. She licked her lips out of habit.

Those who were familiar with the Fox Clan knew that every time this action was made, it meant that some evil thought that would eat people without spitting out their bones was born.

“Then I won’t delay Lord Viper’s time. I’ve already captured the person who has the information about the Purple Crystal Grass and brought him to your cell. I’ll interrogate him now and I’ll definitely give Lord Viper a satisfactory answer. ”

The Purple Fox bowed to the masked man before her once again before turning around to leave.

However, before she left, she seemed to have noticed something and asked curiously,

“I’m calling you.”

“Lord Viper, did you feel that from just now, the outside seemed to... Has it become quiet?”

After Zi Hu asked, the scarred face on the viper mask finally showed some expression.

After being said that, he also noticed it.

It really seemed a little...

It was too quiet.

“Let’s go out and take a look.” Viper moved his fingers and a trusted subordinate quickly walked out of the room.

At this moment, Viper and Purple Fox only felt that it was strange. They did not take it to heart, nor did they worry.

After all...Was this a joke?

This was the base camp of the Snake Clan.

It was impossible for an enemy to sneak in silently and then kill all the elite members of the Snake Clan in an instant without even fighting. That was why it was so quiet, right?

Such a ridiculous thought flashed across the minds of the two foxes. If Teddy was here and could hear their thoughts, he would definitely slap his thigh.

He was too familiar with this smell!

Little brother, you guys can’t keep up with the version!

And what was the outcome of not being able to keep up with the version...

Bang!

A muffled sound came from the door of the room in the distance.

Viper and Purple Fox's eyebrows twitched subconsciously, and then their nerves instantly tensed up.

The Purple Fox reached out to the inner thigh. In the shadows, a sharp dagger could be seen.

In the next second.

The source of the sound was found. A black shadow flew in and crashed into the ground in front of the two of them with a deep muffled sound.

Sweeping his gaze over, wasn't that the confidant that Viper had just sent out a few seconds ago?

Then...

"Eh? Brother, this room looks quite big. Why don't we go in and take a look?

Maybe there's some treasure?"

"But... Ugh, what is this strange smell?"

From the door, a wicked voice reached Viper and Purple Fox's ears.

Oh, change what I said before.

Teddy was right there.

As the saying goes, a fox uses a tiger's might. Teddy was not a weak fox, he was Teddy... Alright, a lame joke wasn't funny. Secondly, it didn't seem like a tiger was following behind him, but a dinosaur.

As a result, Teddy was no longer as afraid as before.

What prison break? What notorious treasure thieves?

It was like he was strolling around the market. He would go in and take a look whenever he found a house. After all, this was a rare opportunity. It was exciting to be able to visit the headquarters of the treasure thieves!

In short, he had grown bold.

“Whoa! Why are there so many bottles and jars here, uh... It looked so disgusting! Big brother, do you think this place...”

Teddy wanted to say that this place didn't look simple. It was different from the previous few rooms. Could it be a place where the big shots of the Treasure Thief Group stayed?

However, he had just finished speaking when he immediately stopped at the brink of the cliff. He thought to himself that it was so close, so close, and he almost fell into the cliché again.

As the main character.

At least, as someone who had the burden of being the main character, it was obvious that...

“Hey! Big brother, we really came here. One look and we know that this is definitely the room of the head of the treasure thieves.

“Why did you use ‘as expected?’” Liao Zixuan looked at the map. It was marked in blood red, symbolizing the location of the boss battle.

“Eh? Didn't you come here on purpose?” Teddy looked at him with an expression that said, “Stop pretending.”

“I know. For someone like you, money is nothing!”

“Big brother, your true goal is to uphold justice. It’s just like in a novel I read, that person called Dilo something...Aiya, in short, he had transformed into an unknown Dark Knight and came to wipe out the treasure thief group’s scourge!”

“I’m right, Big Brother!”

Teddy looked as if he understood everything.

However, in his heart...

Eh?

F * ck!

Teddy actually thought so in his heart! Was he crazy? How could a huge treasure thief group’s stronghold be destroyed so easily? Besides, it was just a human and a dog?

It could only be said that the training was successful.

“Hey! I know you must be the boss here. I advise you to surrender obediently. This way, we might be able to leave your corpse intact.

‘ My Big Brother and I killed 81 members of the Treasure Thief Gang.”

There was nothing wrong with it.

Teddy shouted as he walked into the house.

According to his analysis, there should be no one inside.

After all, the previous few rooms had all rushed out to see what was wrong after discovering the abnormality.

And in this room.

Although it looked very high-end, with all kinds of test tubes, instruments, and equipment, they had just beaten back a member of the treasure thief group who wanted to go out. If there were really others in the house, they would have rushed out long ago.

It was because of this logic that Teddy dared to show off.

One had to know that every time he entered the room, he would hide behind Liao Zixuan.

However, it was a pity.

Because Teddy had no consciousness, only a small fry would rush out when frightened, and as a big boss, the smarter choice was to quietly adapt.

So, when Teddy stepped into the real room.

What awaited him was a group of mutated soldiers who had already gotten into formation and were staring at Teddy, the trusted aide of the poisonous snake, with crazy and chaotic eyes.

Here's why it's a mutated warrior.

The cause was Teddy's arrogant tone. Under the signal of Viper's eyes, they directly inserted the syringe they carried into their arms.

In the blink of an eye, all the muscles on their bodies bulged.

Under the stimulation of the drug, their eyes were red and bloodshot, and saliva flowed out of their mouths uncontrollably. They grew terrifying fangs that looked like demons, and they were more than two meters tall.

Can you imagine it? The moment he entered the door, he was surrounded by the group of mutated warriors. Compared to the two of them, he really looked like a little poodle.

His legs went weak.

His entire body was trembling.

He was dumbfounded.

Why was this different from what he had imagined?

No, since there were so many people in the room, why didn't you rush out earlier!

The scariest thing was that Teddy saw a man and a woman behind the room through the gaps of the mutated soldiers. The woman was not mentioned for the time being, but the scarred man with a mask...

Although Teddy had never seen him before, he was a noble after all, and there were many dirty things that nobles did in private. Even if he had never done it, he had more or less heard of it.

A strange breathing mask, and the upper half of his face was full of scars.

Could it be...Could it really be...

Poison... Viper!

The leader of the Snake Clan!

He was one of the four true rulers of the underground forces of Fire Code City!

Teddy's eyes darkened.

After that.

He shouted with all his might.

"Big... Big... Big brother...'

Help!!!"

Chapter 217: Alchemy Technology

At that time, the mutated soldier's brutal bloody claw, which was personally modified by the legendary "Viper", was only 0.01 centimeters away from my throat.

According to the normal script, I should have closed my eyes and waited for death.

But in reality, I didn't close my eyes. Instead, my eyes were wide open. I wasn't panicking at all.

Because I know that after a quarter of an incense stick of time, the owner of this claw will become meat paste.

If you ask me why?

Of course...

Hey! And it's still that broken

– Excerpt from “The Legendary Life of the Teddy, Prologue, Heroes Attract (Attracting Sucks)”

Humans were always exploring their limits.

Some people relied on talent to awaken their magic power, while others relied on money to learn martial arts. However, were those who had no talent and were born in a lowly family destined to look up to others for the rest of their lives?

That was what Viper had thought until he met the man who claimed to be from the faraway Gideon under the Ice God's rule.

Although Viper could not completely agree with the theory of “glorious evolution” that the other party had completely abandoned the human body, he was still affected by it and finally gave birth to...

Alchemy technology.

By injecting the drug to stimulate the potential of the human body to the greatest extent, it could allow an ordinary person to rival even the most elite members of the Fire Law Knights in a short period of time.

The only small side effect that Viper needed to improve on was that all alchemy technology was one-time use. After the effect was over, it would die immediately.

As for things like becoming ugly and becoming inhuman, they paled in comparison to the former and were not worthy of being considered side effects.

But overall, Viper was very satisfied.

The mutated soldiers were his masterpiece and his greatest trump card. He believed that as long as he had enough time to create more mutated soldiers, not only Fire Code City, but all the underground forces in the entire Flame Domain would submit to the Treasure Thief Gang.

It could even be said that Viper's deepest fantasy was still his mutant warrior. His alchemy technology could go beyond the Flame Domain and expand to the entire Nine Nations Continent, especially within the borders of Gideon. He wanted to let the person who had guided him in the past see the masterpiece he had created. That was the real way out for the people at the bottom.

But...

You could feel the kind of masterpiece that you put your heart and soul into, but when you actually took it out, you realized that it was a...The feeling of trash?

The viper understood.

The moment his mutated warrior was punched into meat paste.

Oh, and being thrown around like a toy and then being built into the wall. Perhaps, if Viper knew that even the Fire Elemental Giant, who had a 90% chance of winning against.

Unfortunately, he did not know.

What he knew was that the other party was alone, and in just a few seconds, he had cleaned up the mutated soldiers that he had painstakingly nurtured.

"No, no, no, no! That's impossible!" Viper's eyes were wide open, and his scarred face was squeezed into a ball.

“What kind of power is this? You... Who exactly are you?!”

Through the mask, Viper’s hoarse, unbelievable scream came to Liao Zixuan.

On the other side.

Seeing the other party’s “impossible” look.

Teddy seemed to have seen himself when he first met Liao Zixuan half an hour ago. The aura of being a big shot that enveloped Viper previously faded a lot.

What? So everyone was the same. They were all humans. When faced with non-humans, their reactions were all the same.

Therefore, Teddy’s courage immediately returned.

“Human? Ridiculous, Big Brother, did you hear that? This idiot on the other side actually called you a human!”

Teddy looked like he had just heard the funniest joke, and Viper was really scared.

“You... What do you mean by that?”

“I don’t mean anything. From the moment you treated my brother as a human, you’ve already lost.”

Teddy looked at Viper with pity.

But soon, Teddy realized that he sounded like he was cursing.

He quickly explained to the Liao Zixuan beside him,

“Big brother! I didn’t call you inhumane! You’re human, hiss... No, you’re not human. Aiya! Big brother, tell me yourself, are you even human!

“Teddy, do you know what’s the most important thing that you need to do to become the protagonist of a novel?”

“What is it, Big Brother?”

“You have a mouth.”

After Liao Zixuan said this, he rushed straight to the position of the poisonous snake.

It was obvious that Viper wanted to open his mouth to say something, but unfortunately, Liao Zixuan’s fist was clearly one step faster than him and had already reached his chest.

“I’m sorry.”

“I want to push the plot as soon as possible, and your scenes have been taken by someone else, so... Goodbye.”

It was a simple punch.

The viper’s body was blasted away like a cannonball and smashed into the laboratory wall behind it. Other than the loud sound of the wall cracking and collapsing, there was also the sound of various bottles and jars shattering.

Lying among the broken stones, the poisonous snake’s chest was pierced through with a bloody hole. It was obviously dead..

Chapter 218: Alchemy Technology (2)

This should be the case.

It was obvious that Viper, as one of the ultimate bosses of the treasure thieves, was not satisfied with his limited screen time.

Since he could use alchemy technology to transform his trusted subordinates into mutated soldiers, he could naturally do the same to himself.

Moreover, the dosage was even more ruthless and the method was even more exaggerated.

His previous subordinates had used temporary injections, but for Viper, he had long allowed his body to constantly come into contact with alchemy technology's mutated potions, fusing them and increasing his adaptability.

As for the method, it was the tube that was flowing with dark green liquid on his back.

This allowed the poisonous snake to survive the fatal injury of an ordinary person.

Not only did he survive, but he also activated the mutation.

Roar...

At first, it was a hoarse roar.

However, after that, the breathing mask that Viper had been wearing exploded as if it could no longer withstand it. In an instant, as if some seal had been broken, his originally thin body began to expand explosively.

'Two meters, three meters, four meters...

At the same time, the familiar fur of a wild beast crawled all over his body in the blink of an eye. When the snake's head also mutated and changed its shape, Liao Zixuan finally understood the source of this familiar feeling.

Roar!

A roar unique to the werewolves was emitted from the mutated poisonous snake's mouth.

Not only had his hands completely transformed, his claws that were covered in dark green fur, and even his feet were the same. His sharp fangs were exposed, and his scarlet eyes had long lost their humanity. The two sides of his head had mutated, and triangular pointy ears...

Uh, it seemed quite cute?

Pah!

It wasn't that Liao Zixuan wanted to spoil the atmosphere on purpose, but he seemed to have a natural affinity for wolves. After all, werewolves were also considered half-wolves.

Speaking of which...

Had Xue Li gone astray? If she hadn't transformed into a human like him back then, she would have transformed into this half-human, half-beast form...

After fantasizing for a while, Liao Zixuan felt that he couldn't take it anymore.

He could only say that it was fortunate that Xue Li was still young and did not understand many things.

Otherwise...

Roar!

A roar that was close to his ear pulled Liao Zixuan back to reality.

One could hear the anger in the voice.

It was as if he had already released his ultimate move, but you were still distracted. Who knew what you were thinking? Can't you show some respect?

Viper in werewolf form...Wait a minute, your name is a poisonous snake, but you mutated with wolf genes. Who exactly are you??

All in all, he exerted strength in his thick lower limbs and leaped up. Fortunately, the laboratory was very spacious, and in his werewolf form, he was mostly on all fours, so he could accumulate enough power before attacking.

He jumped from the ceiling to the walls on both sides. As he moved at high speed, he could only see the dents on the walls. It was obvious that he had transformed into a werewolf with great speed and strength.

In the end, the poisonous snake seemed to imitate Liao Zixuan's actions when he treated him. The huge wolf claw brought with it a whistling sound as it slapped towards Liao Zixuan's small chest.

As for Liao Zixuan...

Oh, alright, Liao Zixuan was too lazy to make a move.

It might not be able to sense it because it was far away, but once it got close to him...

Weng!

It was like the kind of intense ringing that would occur after a sudden strong stimulation. Then, the poisonous snake that had transformed into a werewolf felt as if time had stopped at this moment.

In the eyes of the werewolf and the viper, Liao Zixuan's body began to twist and turn chaotic.

It was as if countless messy lines were being drawn crazily. Finally, these lines gathered and formed a huge black wolf.

It was a dark wolf that struck his soul and made him tremble from the bottom of his heart. It made him lose all his hostility in an instant and only wanted to run away as fast as possible.

Ka... Kacha!

He couldn't take it anymore.

Everything shattered like a mirror. The black wolf disappeared as if it was just an illusion. The person in front of him was still the human, Liao Zixuan.

From the eyes of others, it was the same. Liao Zixuan did not move at all, but Viper's expression changed wildly. After that, it was even more shocking. Even Viper had never expected this scene. Or rather, it was something that he had always dreamed of and had been studying and improving.

He saw that under the influence of alchemy technology, all the characteristics of the "wolf" on the venomous snake that had undergone irreversible werewolf transformation actually disappeared at the speed of light.

It felt as if the mutated wolf gene was frantically escaping from his body.

Within a few seconds, the poisonous snake returned to its original appearance.

In this case, it meant that Liao Zixuan had opened a big bloody hole in his chest.

Even so, it was definitely a miracle. At least in the field of alchemy technology, it broke through the so-called "irreversible one-time use" limit.

"Ahem... 'Hahaha...' So... Come... I..."

Understood! White, yellow, yellow, yellow, yellow Blood was spurting out of its mouth, but the poisonous snake was still trying to laugh wildly.

Without the support of mutation, the viper's life force was quickly drained from its body.

His pupils began to dissipate, and his breathing became less and less. But before he died, Viper stared at Liao Zixuan, using his last bit of strength.

Chapter 219: Alchemy Technology (3)

"You... You really are... No, no, no. No..."

Before he could even say the word "human", the poisonous snake's body had completely died.

It was hard to imagine.

One of the four leaders of the Treasure Thief Gang had actually died overnight, and in such a way.

Liao Zixuan sighed and suddenly felt that something was missing.

At a time like this, it was reasonable to say that Teddy's mouth shouldn't be idle.

When Liao Zixuan shifted his attention away from the dead poisonous snake...

Good fellow!

He finally understood why Teddy had been silent.

“Hello, it looks like... We meet again.”

Liao Zixuan greeted the beautiful woman who was holding a cold dagger against Teddy’s neck.

“Oh right, I almost forgot to thank you. You didn’t lie to me. This is indeed a good place to make a lot of money.

Liao Zixuan tried to chat with the other party.

However, it was obvious that the Purple Fox was not in the mood to do so.

From the moment Liao Zixuan easily turned the group of Mutant Warriors into meat paste, the Purple Fox knew that things were not good.

Therefore, when Liao Zixuan and the poisonous snake were fighting, she waited for an opportunity to hide. With the Purple Fox’s sharp eyes, how could she not see that although Liao Zixuan was a monster, his companion was definitely a rookie.

Originally, in Purple Fox’s plan, Lord Viper was supposed to stall Liao Zixuan, and then she would threaten him. However, who would have thought that Lord Viper would be defeated so completely?

No, it couldn’t be called a defeat, because this wasn’t a battle at all. From the beginning to the end, Lord Viper didn’t even touch the other party!

Damn it! If she had known earlier, she would have run away!

And...

What kind of monster did he provoke?

How could the Violet Fox not understand now? She was obviously tricked. She thought that she was fishing for someone else, but in fact, she was the stupid fish.

However, the current Purple Fox no longer had the energy to think about what the other party's motive was, which side he belonged to, and when such a terrifying monster appeared in Fire Code City. She was racking her brains for one thing.

How can she live on?

Damn it! Damn it! Damn it!

The Purple Fox cursed in her heart, but on the surface, she had to pretend to be calm and even domineering.

"I know you're very strong. If you want to kill me, it'll be as easy as crushing an ant, but... Hehe, your good brother doesn't seem to be as powerful as you!

"As long as you let me go, I promise that I will definitely let your brother go.

"Otherwise..."

The Purple Fox pushed the blade against Teddy's neck again. Its meaning was obvious.

As for Liao Zixuan.

He first estimated the distance between the two parties, and then realized that he really did not have a choice. He was even faster than the knife on Teddy's neck.

Well...

So this was the legendary case of forgetting your teammates after a teamfight?

It was indeed a problem. He had to pay attention to it in the future.

After some self-reflection.

Liao Zixuan did not panic. Since he could not save her, he could only...It was a bargain for Teddy. He would treat it as a reward for becoming Vivian's tool in the future.

With a thought.

Then, invisible to outsiders, three crystal clear cards appeared in front of Liao Zixuan under the NPC system that belonged to Vivian.

Well...

The next thing to consider was...

Which one should I choose?

Chapter 220: Killing With A Sister In My Arms (1)

Vivian currently had three Character Summon Cards.

Based on the current situation...

Therefore, this was indeed the most suitable one.

Among the three cards.

The two cards with the words " Silver Wolf Entwined by Evil Thorns " and ' Village Girl Playing Dice " faded away.

In the end, what Liao Zixuan left behind on the card was a picture of a monster in shackles and cages.

The entire process did not take much time.

After choosing the Summon Card, Liao Zixuan continued to walk towards the Purple Fox who was holding Teddy hostage.

"I'm warning you, don't come any closer! "

Seeing this, the Purple Fox's voice immediately became much sharper.

Every step Liao Zixuan took gave Purple Fox the pressure of a mountain. It couldn't be helped, the poisonous snake's corpse was still not far away, and it was still cold.

"You... Can't you hear me? I told you to retreat! Retreat!" The Purple Fox's tone became more and more urgent.

Because Liao Zixuan had no intention of stopping at all.

The distance between the two sides was getting closer and closer.

When Liao Zixuan was about to cross the distance that the Purple Fox could tolerate, the expression on her face could no longer be maintained. The Purple Fox's originally pretty face began to change due to fear.

She started to shout in a crazy tone.

"I'm not joking with you. If you dare to take another step, I... Even if I die today, I'll drag you along with me!

"Do you really not care about his life anymore? To think that he called himself 'Big Brother Kou', and even called himself 'justice' to eliminate evil! I think you're no different from us!"

However, the reason why he stopped was not because of Purple Fox's words, but because of Teddy, who insisted on speaking even though he was being held hostage and in danger.

"You are wrong."

"Actually, we've only known each other for less than an hour. The only reason I called him Big Brother was because he was kind enough to save me from prison.

Even though the knife was on his neck, Teddy still spoke stubbornly.

As he spoke, the Purple Fox's blade happened to graze Teddy's throat. The extremely sharp blade cut open the delicate skin that was unique to nobles. Teddy's blood gushed out and he died.

Alright, although the effect was not that exaggerated, logically speaking, there should at least be a bloody mark left behind. However, the strange thing was that the neck of the poodle was still the same.

Of course, Teddy didn't know about this small detail, and Purple Fox didn't notice it at all because her attention was focused on Liao Zixuan.

Oh, let me change it. The Violet Fox was also paying attention to Teddy's words.

After all...

"What did you say?"

Teddy's words were like a bucket of cold water that had been poured on Purple Fox, making her last hope of survival disappear.

She kept shaking her head.

"Impossible! You, you must be lying to me!"

However, in reality, when Liao Zixuan ignored her warning and continued to approach, the Purple Fox had a faint feeling in her heart.

Teddy's next words gave her the last straw that broke the camel's back.

"Sigh, it seems that the old saying is right. You have such big breasts, but your brain is not working well. Think about it. Do I look like I can be a brother to someone like him?"

Perhaps he had predicted his ending.

Then why not take the opportunity to say more now? After all, there might not be a chance in the future.

However, the moment Teddy opened his mouth, he was stuck again.

"He... *+! I just realized that he hasn't even told me his name yet! "He cursed gloomily.

Teddy sighed.

“That’s the situation. Do you care about the life and death of a stranger who doesn’t even know your name?” So, face reality. Also, don’t keep saying that it’s impossible in the future. According to my experience, every time I say this sentence in front of that person, it will come true.”

Teddy closed his eyes.

He now somewhat understood why people liked to close their eyes before they died. It was because they did not dare to look at how they died.

Although Teddy also fantasized that Purple Fox would let him go after knowing that it was useless to hold him hostage, in reality, the treasure thieves were not so kind. They would definitely drag him along.

So, in the end, he still couldn’t escape...

“Big brother! Remember to avenge me!”

Poodle couldn’t hold it in and cried out. Then, just as he finished speaking, the Purple Fox knew that there was no hope. The blade of revenge began to slash across his neck.

In the last second before his death, Teddy was still thinking about his encounter with Liao Zixuan an hour ago. Although it was a short time, it was a magical experience that opened his eyes.

However, no matter how powerful Big Brother is, he can’t possibly save me at such a close distance,

This time, Teddy didn’t joke around anymore. He returned to his true feelings. However, what answered him was a crisp “ding.”

From the sound, it sounded like a sharp object had stabbed into something extremely hard.

Hmm?

Why could he still think?

Why wasn't there any pain in his neck? Could it be that he didn't feel anything when his throat was slit?
