Chapter 221: Hugging a Sister to Kill (2)

Countless question marks popped up in Teddy's mind.

Teddy opened his eyes.

In the end, he could only say that it was not the right time.

He just happened to see the Purple Fox's blade once again gathering all its strength to stab at his neck.

Eh?

Wait a minute, why did he use the word "again .

When the next scene happened, Teddy understood, but he didn't.

Ding!

It was the same crisp sound as before, and this time, the sound was sharper. It was obvious that he had used more strength.

Teddy understood that the source of the sound had finally been found.

The sharp object was the opponent's knife, and the corresponding hard object was...Is it my f * cking neck?

What the hell!

Was he hallucinating?

Teddy was dumbfounded, and Purple Fox was even more dumbfounded.

“You... You!”

Purple Fox’s hand was numb from the powerful recoil. What made her pupils widen even more was that cracks appeared on her dagger.

“Monster...You are all monsters!”

The Purple Fox’s mental defenses had completely collapsed.

This was the first time she had seen her dagger being stabbed into someone’s neck. The other party’s neck was completely fine, but her dagger had been split open.

What kind of body was this?

Was his entire body made of metal?

And she still wanted to hold this monster hostage!?

He had been deceived again.

It turned out that these two people had been acting for her to see. They had been playing her like a clown.

Whether it was out of instinct or reason.

The Purple Fox only wanted to run.

He wanted to escape from these two monsters.

On the other side, although Teddy was shocked by his own body, when he saw that the Purple Fox was about to run, he immediately used the most foolish method to stall it.

“You want to run? No way!”

The idiotic way was to hug.

Yes, although he didn't know what was going on, since he seemed to have become invulnerable, Teddy was hot-headed and took the initiative to hug the Purple Fox's body.

Teddy was still shouting as he hugged her tightly.

“Big brother! Big brother, come quickly! I'm holding her back!”

However, Teddy didn't hear his big brother's voice. Instead, he was hugged by him. More accurately, it was the Purple Fox's painful wails in his arms.

“It hurts! Let... Let go!”

“It's going to break! It hurts...Please... Beg... Ah!”

Crack!

Was it nice? Good bones are good bones.

The Purple Fox's miserable scream finally made Teddy, who was hugging the Purple Fox with his eyes closed, open his eyes and take a look.

Good fellow!

This glance scared Teddy.

The Purple Fox's shoulders, which he was hugging, were severely deformed. They caved in as if they had been sandwiched between two walls. As for her originally full and majestic chest...

Aiya!

Teddy only glanced at it for a moment before he quickly looked away. He even covered his eyes in fear and did not dare to look straight at it.

Mud.

This was the friendliest adjective Teddy could think of.

He hurriedly threw the Purple Fox, who had turned into mud and fainted long ago, onto the ground. Its bones seemed to have all fallen apart, and its appearance could be described as tragic.

"Oh no, oh no, oh no..."

"Murder...I-I killed someone? No, no, no, no, no. I just wanted to hug her. I, I..."

Just as Teddy's face was pale and he looked nervous and afraid, another voice came from behind him.

"Tsk tsk..."

Liao Zixuan slowly walked over to the scene. After looking at the appearance of the Purple Fox on the ground, he could not help but shake his head and smack his lips. At the same time, he sighed,

“Teddy, oh Teddy, I didn’t expect...” So you’re this abnormal?”

“He held such a beautiful girl in his arms without saying a word, and then strangled her until her entire body was deformed and fractured.

Liao Zixuan looked at the Purple Fox who was a bloody mess. Her originally seductive body had been squeezed into this state by a powerful force. Just looking at it made him feel disgusted. “Hiss...Could this be the legendary ‘cuddling a sister to kill’ thing?”

Liao Zixuan patted Teddy’s shoulder.

He looked as if he had learned something.

At this moment, Teddy, who had been frightened by himself, seemed to have finally recovered and found the source.

“Big... Big... Big brother, it’s you!”

Teddy stared at Liao Zixuan with wide eyes.

“What do you mean by me? Don’t talk nonsense. I haven’t even touched him.

It’s you, it’s you! It’s you!”

Looking at Teddy’s little girl expression that was about to cry...Uh, why a little girl?

Liao Zixuan finally stopped teasing others.

Indeed, for a noble who had probably never even killed a chicken, it was indeed a little scary and unacceptable to personally strangle a person.

Then wait a minute, why did you beat so many people into meat paste so casually? Who exactly are you?

The case was solved.

Liao Zixuan's previous class was definitely an Assassin Master, referring to a Berserker.

Oh no, look at him! He must be a rich gamer!

"Didn't you seem to understand me very well before? Why, don't you understand me now? Do you think I can't save you and can only watch you die?"

Looking at Teddy's expression, Liao Zixuan felt that he had returned all the pretentiousness that he had not been able to put on before.

As for the price...

It was nothing more than a [White Character Summon Card-Forbidden Demon Body].

The Character Summon Card could be randomly created five times a day, but there were only three cards left in the inventory. Liao Zixuan used one here, leaving an empty slot for a random new card to be refreshed tomorrow.

"I think what you said just now was right. Don't say the word 'impossible' in front of me.

In any case, he was using an avatar.

Liao Zixuan said these words without a heartbeat. In the end, under the influence of the atmosphere, he even added to Teddy, whose eyes were shining with stars,

“Because I am omnipotent.” “By the way, you can call me...White.” He remembers what I said!

He told me his name!

He, he has me in his heart!

Teddy wiped away his tears and snot as he asked weakly,”

“Big brother, you...Are you really omnipotent?”

“Then, then tell me, what color is the underwear I’m wearing today? If you’re right, I’ll believe you!”

The atmosphere suddenly stopped.

Liao Zixuan tilted his head and glanced at Teddy with the Death Gaze.

“Red.’

But obviously, Teddy didn’t understand Liao Zixuan’s eyes.

He heaved a sigh of relief and then laughed.

“Hahaha, big brother, you’re wrong. What I’m wearing isn’t...Ah!”

Before he could finish his sentence.

Even though the Forbidden Demon Body Summon Card had not ended yet.

However, one was an experience card, and the other was the original body. The difference was obvious. Teddy's body drew a beautiful parabola in the air and flew backward.

Boom!

Viper's laboratory was really miserable.

The wall had already collapsed because of the battle with Liao Zixuan, but now that it was hit by Teddy's body, it was smashed into a big hole.

After all, Teddy's body was almost like a large piece of metal.

Walking into the hole in the laboratory that was smashed by Teddy, Liao Zixuan looked at Teddy, who was coughing non-stop in the smoke and dust. He asked again,

"What about now?"

"Red... Cough cough, it was red! Big brother is awesome! To know this, he was indeed omnipotent!

Teddy quickly gave him a thumbs up and kept nodding.

However, at this moment, he suddenly noticed that Liao Zixuan's expression began to change and he frowned.

Scared?

Did I say something wrong again?

Teddy's heart skipped a beat. He didn't want to take another punch.

However, very soon.

When he followed Liao Zixuan's line of sight and looked around him, which was around the hole that he had accidentally smashed and made, Teddy's expression gradually froze.

He saw that this should be a hidden room behind the Viper Laboratory. And here, it was no longer the bottles and jars and experimental equipment in the laboratory. Instead...

Pairs of dull eyes.

Even though they had caused such a huge commotion, there was still no reaction at all. Their eyes were filled with deathly stillness.

Yes, he should be able to guess.

How could there be no white mice in the laboratory?

However...

There were no white mice here.

Instead, it was replaced with chains that bound their limbs, exposing their entire bodies. Their festering skin was filled with visible pinholes, and many of them had long been tested by venomous snakes and were no longer human...

People..

Chapter 222: Let the Flames Purify Everything

Alchemy technology.

Liao Zixuan couldn't help but think of these words again.

In the game, the players' impression of him, including Liao Zixuan, was that he relied on drugs to mutate his body and obtain temporary powerful attributes.

Later on, players could also join the Treasure Thief Group and complete a series of missions to change their class to the rare hidden Alchemist class under the technology tree.

Because there was only one country named "Flame Domain" during the server opening period, the "Alchemist" profession caused a lot of discussion on the forum once it was discovered.

After all, a rare hidden class was quite attractive.

At that time, Liao Zixuan remembered that he had also paid attention to it. However, he was the same as the vast majority of players, focusing on the class skill group and development potential.

Even if there were a few "background" players who wanted to explore the alchemy technology, they would only focus on the founder, Viper.

However, this wasn't the time when the technology of Alchemy was at its peak. What truly made it popular was the Princess Challenge Tournament of the Thousand Islands.

Liao Zixuan clearly remembered that in the semi-finals, a professional alchemist who was known as the "Mage God of the Western Peninsula" had eliminated the popular champion at that time by relying on potions.

This really made Alchemists popular for a while, setting off a wave of players changing their profession. However, of course, it was still an unpopular profession after all, and it needed to deal with a lot of bottles. The strength of the profession also depended on the ability of the players to make potions, so the popularity quickly died down.

In his mind, he went through the past and present of alchemy technology.

In the eyes of the players, the past and present.

However, at this moment, Liao Zixuan had left his identity as a player. When he looked at it from the perspective of a " native .

What he saw was no longer a novel and strange skill group, nor was it a rare and hidden class icon.

Instead, his organs had been cruelly removed and replaced with the solution of the alchemy tube. His entire body was twitching in pain, but he was hanging on by a thread under the alchemy potion to continue the next experiment.

If one looked further into the depths of the secret chamber, they would hear the sound of Teddy retching. They were crazy enough to try to sew humans and monsters together and exchange various parts in an attempt to study the mutation potion.

"This bunch of bastards, beasts, and scumbags! He was...How could they do such a thing!

Teddy punched the wall angrily. The force was so strong that his fingers, which had returned to his original noble physique after the effect of the " Arrival Card ' had expired, became red and swollen. But this time, Teddy didn't seem to notice it.

As for Liao Zixuan...

Obviously, from the perspective of a " native ", he saw more than a player.

It was also because of this that he suddenly wanted to change his original plan. A new decision began to appear.

It wasn't big. It was just enough to set the entire Snake Clan base on fire.

However, it wasn't small at all. The Snake Clan's underground base was so huge. If there was really an explosion and a fire broke out, then the entire Fire Law City... At least, the darkness of the outer Urban area would be lit up.

However, what Liao Zixuan was more concerned about was that if he really did this, it would be equivalent to killing the future "alchemy technology" in the cradle. After all, from the plot of his previous life, this should be the place where it originated.

In this world, the people at the bottom would have one less powerful way to rise. It had to be said that the saying "the rich rely on technology, the poor rely on mutation" really made sense.

The more mature and perfect alchemy technology in the future had indeed improved the lives of many people at the bottom.

For the players, the Alchemist class would no longer exist. Perhaps the ending of the Princess Challenge Tournament in the Thousand Islands storyline would also change.

For a moment, he seemed to be wandering around, but at this moment, he suddenly felt a weak tug on his pants.

Liao Zixuan lowered his head and saw that it was a middle-aged woman. He could call her that for the time being. If he didn't see that her head had several holes drilled into it, her face would be completely unrecognizable as if it had been burned by sulfuric acid.

At first, Liao Zixuan thought that the other party wanted to ask him for help.

However, there was nothing he could do about it. Perhaps Xin Yan, who was in charge of the Authority of Life, could do it at her peak.

But soon, Liao Zixuan realized that he was wrong.

Perhaps it was because the brain was being studied, the other party still retained some of his consciousness. Similarly, his clothes were also intact.

The other party used his trembling hands to take out a small bag from his pocket and tried his best to let Liao Zixuan take it.

When he bent down to take it, he opened it and found a small stack of copper coins, as well as...It was a small card with doodles drawn on it.

It could be seen that the painter was very clumsy. Even the character was a stickman. Then, he held a sickle. Perhaps he had added his own imagination, and there was an additional cloak on his back.

There was a line of small words at the bottom of the card.

[Mommy, don't cry. Everything will be fine!]

The name of the signature was, Love, Chance..

Chapter 223: Let the Flames Purify Everything (2)

"Alright, I'll try my best."

After putting the card back into the money bag, Liao Zixuan nodded at the person on the ground beside his feet. The other party's intention was obvious.

He wanted to take the money bag out and send it to this person named Guise.

She loosened her pants and crawled back into the shadows in the corner. She hid her ugly and deformed body in the darkness as if this was her home.

“Let’s go.”

Even without Liao Zixuan’s words, Teddy had long wanted to escape from this place.

After they went out, they returned to the laboratory room. Looking at the Purple Fox, who was still breathing after being killed by Teddy, Liao Zixuan suddenly walked towards her.

Liao Zixuan fumbled around in the Purple Fox’s arms. Soon, he found a small bottle of potion. He opened it and poured it down the Purple Fox’s mouth.

“Uh... Ah... Mm... Ah...”

Very quickly, a series of indistinct voices rang out. The players had to sigh at the power of alchemy potions. Even though the Purple Fox’s body was severely distorted, the effects of the potions still stimulated the greatest potential.

Her body squirmed, and her broken bones quickly reconnected. Her shoulders that were squeezed opened up again. After a few seconds, she seemed to have returned to her original appearance.

Of course, the Purple Fox’s internal injuries had not been healed at all. This was just the last glimmer of light brought by the potion. Moreover, her mind had become dazed under the effect of the potion. She looked at the remaining half bottle of potion in Liao Zixuan’s hand with extreme desire.

“Tell me, where did the people in the laboratory come from?”

“He... Of course, they were all refugees from outside the city...Hehe, that bunch of people lacked everything now, so a little...Give them some benefits, and they’ll fight to be the pawn. The supply of goods...”

“Good-looking...Send it to our Fox Clan. Sell the rest to the Snake Clan for experiments...”

“Medicine... I want the medicine. Give it to me...”

After answering Liao Zixuan’s question, the Purple Fox reached out to grab the medicine bottle in Liao Zixuan’s hand, but it was dodged.

“Don’t be anxious. Tell me again, how many people have you captured so far?” “What... Other foxes, I, I don’t know, but under my command... He was only a little over a hundred, but don’t underestimate him...It’s only been one night. As long as there’s medicine...My performance must be able to chase me, other fox.

“Is that so? So you call this performance...”

Liao Zixuan nodded and pushed away the Purple Fox’s hand.

“Alright, seeing how anxious you are, I’ll ask you one last question and then give you the medicine.

He placed the map in front of Purple Fox.

“I’ll lure out the secret passage that your treasure thief group uses to transport people into and out of the city. Oh right, by the way... “Mark the location of your Fox Clan too. Don’t think too much about it. I don’t have any other intentions. I just feel that someone will definitely pay a visit in the future. Of course, don’t worry. That person shouldn’t be as violent as me...” Hiss, not necessarily. Anyway, hurry up and mark it.

Liao Zixuan seemed to be talking to the Purple Fox, but in fact, under the control of the drug, the Purple Fox simply obeyed unconditionally.

However, the reason why he still wanted to ramble on was that according to the analysis, people had different ways of suppressing their anger. Some people were silent, while others had to keep talking to themselves.

“Big brother...Fire... It’s on fire!”

Teddy looked in horror as the surroundings seemed to suddenly rise up inexplicably, and the flames began to devour everything at an extremely fast speed.

Zi la zi la...

The flames sizzled. In just one or two breaths, the entire laboratory had turned red, and the red color was still spreading.

The test subjects in the secret chamber at the back, who were living a life worse than death and could only hide in the shadows, were swallowed by the flames. However, there was no pain on their faces. When their gray eyes were wrapped in red, it was as if they had been freed.

The raging fire was still spreading, wreaking havoc in the Snake Clan’s base.

With Liao Zixuan and the others as the center, it surged toward the periphery.

Boom!

Boom! Boom!

A series of terrifying explosions began to ring in Teddy’s ears.

It was as if the structural system of the base couldn’t stand the flames and was collapsing. It was also like a secret pharmaceutical factory that was exploding in a series under the baptism of the flames. All the mutated drugs, whether in production or completed, disappeared in the flames.

Viper’s laboratory was no exception.

However, a second before he collapsed, Liao Zixuan put away the map that Purple Fox had marked for him. He touched Purple Fox's face and threw the remaining half of the bottle of medicine to her.

"Go, you deserve it."

Unfortunately, Liao Zixuan's throw seemed to be a little off, and he was thrown into the sea of fire just in time.

The Purple Fox only had eyes for the half bottle of medicine and nothing else. Naturally, it followed the medicine bottle thrown by Liao Zixuan without hesitation and jumped into the sea of fire.

"Big brother, fire...It's all fire. We're trapped..."

Before Teddy could finish his nervous voice, he was dumbfounded.

Because after taking care of the purple fox, Liao Zixuan had no reason to stay here. He began to walk out, and all the burning flames in the base separated as if they had seen a ghost when he approached.

"If you want to stay here and watch the fireworks, I don't mind."

"Sigh! Big brother, wait for me!"

They finally left the Snake Clan's underground base, which could be described as dirty in many ways.

The two of them arrived at a tall building.

Below.

Flames soared into the sky.

It lit up the night sky of Fire Code City, turning the darkness into a crimson red, like a small sun.

Of course, it was actually the Snake Division of the Treasure Thieves who had fallen into the sea of fire.

Even though the incident happened suddenly, the noise was soon heard. More and more people in the outer Urban area noticed the abnormality. No, even if they didn't want to, it would be difficult. The commotion was too big.

However, on the other hand, the inner Urban area was still immersed in the silence of the night. The years were beautiful, and it was a stark contrast to the chaos in the outer city.

But in short, this night in the Fire Code, at least in the outer Urban area, would not be peaceful.

The only good thing was that the fire was well controlled within a certain range.

Because they were at a high altitude, Teddy could clearly see that there was an invisible wall. As long as they left the Snake Clan base, the flames would automatically extinguish.

In Teddy's eyes, it was as if all the flames had formed a strange circle. The center of the circle was where they had just left.

"Big brother, this...This is what you did..." Teddy gulped.

He still found it hard to imagine how Liao Zixuan did it. What level of magic was this?

No, the main point wasn't just this, right?

Therefore, Big Brother was still a...Mage?

A mage who could turn others into meat paste with one punch!?

He quickly shook his head.

Teddy still wanted to talk about serious matters.

“Big brother, you...It had really blown up. It was simply... He had simply offended all three sides.”

Teddy sighed.

However, Liao Zixuan was a little curious.

“Tell me, why three sides?”

“There’s no need to mention the Treasure Thieves. They’ll definitely go crazy looking for the culprit. Big Brother, you’ve lit such a big fire in the outer Urban area. The city guards are not to be trifled with. They’ll definitely join with the Fire God Cult to capture the culprit.”

“Hmm, the Treasure Thief Group and the government.”

“It’s a noble.” Teddy pointed at himself.

Big brother, you might not know this, but many nobles have a close relationship with the Snake Clan and are counting on their medicine. Big brother, you might not know this, but in our Fire Code City, there is a strange disease that is currently prevalent. But now...”

Teddy hesitated.

Just because of yesterday's monster horde, one should not forget that the reason why Fire Code City restricted entry and exit was because of the Abyss

Fire Poison, the product of the Fire God's fall into the abyss.

But Liao Zixuan smiled.

What Teddy said was one of the reasons why he had burned the whole snake department.

How could he monopolize it?

Answer: Kill all the competitors..

Chapter 224: May I ask who Big Brother is?_I

"So, I helped Fire Law City to get rid of the treasure thieves, but in the end, I still have to face the hostility of the entire city?"

Liao Zixuan asked with interest.

"Yes... That's not right either." Teddy nodded, then quickly shook his head, looking very mysterious.

Leaving the den of thieves and breathing in the beautiful air of the outside world, Teddy became spirited.

In terms of strength, he might be a noob...The word "possible" could be removed, but in terms of situation analysis and intelligence, Teddy was full of confidence.

This time, it was his turn. Teddy pretended to cough twice before he started talking.

“It’s like this, big brother. There’s nothing wrong with punishing the evil and promoting the good. However, big brother, you’re wrong in the method. In Fire Law City, you have to abide by the rules of Fire Law City. You can’t use violence to solve everything like outside the city. As long as you abuse violence, no matter what it is used for, you will become the enemy of the entire city.”

Teddy’s earnest persuasion was like a wise military counselor teaching a warrior with brute force.

“I know you are very powerful, but no matter how powerful you are, can you be more powerful than Fire God? “Therefore, I advise Big Brother to try your best to stay out of the limelight for the time being. Even if you’re wanted by the three factions, you have to stay calm and not cause any more trouble, especially not to abuse violence.

Or else, the words, Once you are judged by the Fire God as an enemy that Fire Law City can’t deal with on its own, the Fire God will make a move. At that time, I believe you saw the scene of the Fire God descending yesterday. He is a god who can change the color of the world with a wave of his hand! ”

Although Teddy’s words were not pleasant to hear, Liao Zixuan knew that he was sincerely doing this for his own good. This was also the setting of Fallen God.

That was to say, the gap in power was even greater under the Flame Domain created by the Fire God.

This was somewhat similar to how I didn’t need my people to be strong because I, who was omniscient and omnipotent, would nip all dangers in the bud. You only needed to be responsible for living a happy life.

The Fire God allowed children to fight because no matter how much they fought, nothing big would happen. This was also why the Fire God did not want her people to have too much power.

Therefore, just like Teddy said, if it was ten years ago, before the Fallen Abyss appeared and the Fire God was still normal in Fire Code City, Alice would definitely have to keep a dangerous person like Liao Zixuan by her side to be at ease.

Of course, this was still considered good. If it was an outsider who was not from the Flame Region, it might bring about a huge disaster. Taking Xue Li as an example, how could he give her the chance to attack the city? That was why he was waiting for the word 'obliteration'.

Unfortunately, the Fire God was no longer in power.

However, no matter what, they couldn't act recklessly and break the rules just because there was no supervisor. Liao Zixuan, who had been educated well on the Blue Star, naturally opposed violence.

Since he wanted to play according to the rules of Fire Code City, then he would play.

"Stop! I know what you said. Now, listen to what I have to say... Look, let's go through them one by one."

Liao Zixuan stopped. He still wanted to try to make Teddy bear with it.

"You mentioned nobles just now."

"Then, can you shut them up?"

Pa!

Liao Zixuan placed a heavy bag filled with Purple Crystal Grass in front of Teddy.

As a noble, how could Teddy not recognize the Purple Crystal Grass? This was the special herb that he had mentioned before, the one that could cure the strange disease in Fire Code City.

"Do you still remember why I was targeted by the members of the Thief Treasure Group? It's because I have this, and there are many of them, very many of them.

This was planted in bulk by Bishop Eugenia in the Dreadclaw Nest. In the end, Liao Zixuan intercepted them halfway and picked them up.

“Yes, but only the nobles.”

Other than the nobles, there were two other forces.

The Abyss Fire Poison originated from the Fire God Sect, which had the closest relationship with the Fire God. It was ironic that only nobles could frequently come into contact with these noble mages. The relatively vulgar and low-level city guards and treasure thieves were not infected by it, so they naturally did not need the Purple Crystal Grass.

As for Liao Zixuan, he didn't care at all. He didn't expect to be able to defeat everyone with one move. Instead, he continued to take out the next one.

“What about this?”

Another slap.

Liao Zixuan placed the map that he had asked Purple Fox to draw in front of Teddy, which marked the treasure thieves' hideout and the secret passage that was definitely illegal.

“I can, but it's not enough”

Teddy had thought of using this map to make the city guards and the treasure thieves fight each other, but the problem was, how could he hand this map to the city guards? Moreover, it had to be in the hands of someone with authority and make the other party believe him.

If it was an anonymous letter...Teddy was sure that the map would appear in the trash the next day.

Liao Zixuan's smile didn't change when he saw Teddy shaking his head.

Then, he took out his third item.

“Then this...Plus this! Can you shut them up?”

Pa! Pa!

Two sounds rang out.

Teddy took a closer look and found that there was another drop necklace on the original map..

Chapter 225: May I ask who Big Brother is?_2

At first, Teddy was a little strange and couldn't recognize him at first glance. However, the more he looked at him, the more familiar he felt. He immediately racked his brains to recall...

“No way, this... This is!” Teddy's eyes widened, revealing an exaggerated expression that was several times more shocked than when Liao Zixuan took out the Purple Crystal Grass.

He finally remembered where he had seen this unique necklace.

Then, Liao Zixuan's words confirmed it.

“That's right, it's the necklace that that brat Harvey regarded as a treasure. I remember that he told me about the origin of this necklace, it seems to be...

Archbishop Maggie specially gave it to him?”

When the Focus Necklace was taken out, Teddy was no longer troubled by the question of whether he could.

This was especially so for the dignified commander of the Knight Regiment. He could be said to be the representative of the most official figure in Fire Law City. Yet, he was actually called a brat by the other party. This was simply, simply...

Teddy subconsciously took a few steps back to put some distance between them. Then, as if he had gotten to know Liao Zixuan again, he said,

“How dare you...Dare I ask big brother, you, who exactly are you?? ”

She bent down and stuck her head out, her tone filled with caution.

In fact, Teddy didn't want to do this either. It would make him look stupid, but the problem was that the hot man opposite him was too exaggerated. He had no other choice but to do this.

If he wanted to refute.

Sure.

Then please find someone who can use only three items to deal with the people from the three major forces in Fire Code City in one go.

“Alright, take the map and go to the Knight Regiment tomorrow morning to find Harvey. Tell him everything that happened in the Treasure Thief Group's Snake Division tonight, except for the Purple Crystal Grass.”

“He will definitely ask who did it. At that time, you just have to say my name...Do I have to repeat my name?”

Liao Zixuan raised his eyebrows when he saw Teddy's bitter face.

“No, big brother, since you are so close to Harvey, I think that compared to me, you should go personally...”

Teddy stammered.

How could Liao Zixuan not understand what he meant?

You guys are fighting between immortals. Don't get a small mortal like me involved.

After the experience of the treasure thieves, Teddy was obviously afraid. He didn't want to get involved in this mess anymore. Wasn't it good to be a little noble who slept until he woke up naturally every day and waited for death?

Liao Zixuan said, not good!

That was because people had to have dreams!

If he didn't have a dream, he would help Teddy find one!

For example, Liao Zixuan felt that joining Vivian's fan support group was a good idea, and Teddy also had great potential.

Since there are already two members, it doesn't matter if you add one more.

Liao Zixuan looked at Teddy, who still looked innocent and rejected him. He was like Little Red Riding Hood's wolf grandmother and began to guide him

“Teddy, do you know why I saved you?”

Sigh...

Sure enough, someone had saved his life. Just as Teddy sighed in his heart, thinking that Liao Zixuan wanted to use the excuse of saving him to order him around...

Because you mentioned Vivian.” Liao Zixuan began to show his intentions.

On the other hand, Teddy was stunned at first. He did not understand why Liao Zixuan suddenly mentioned Vivian at this time.

Until...

“You said you wrote her a letter and wanted to ask her out?”

“No, no, no. The point is not to ask her out. I want to remind her not to fall into the trap of those nobles. They have ganged up and want to threaten and control her in the name of donations! ”

Oh?

He was actually using the female protagonist’s kindness to lure her into the abyss. What kind of classic plot was this! As expected, the notebook and Little Yellow weren’t lying to me.

Liao Zixuan thought that the Earl was planning something, but he didn’t expect it to be this. He was a little disappointed. He was already sick of this type of person.

After complaining in his heart, Liao Zixuan turned his attention back to the panicking poodle in front of him, as if he was trying to hide something.

Liao Zixuan had only one attitude towards people who dared to do things but did not dare to admit it.

“So, you wrote her a love letter?”

He glanced at the petrified little Teddy after he said that.

“I know that everyone has the right to pursue beautiful things. How about this? Let’s make a deal. You help me complete a few things, and I’ll give you a chance to meet Vivian one-on-one. What do you think?”

“What?!”

As soon as Liao Zixuan finished speaking, Teddy almost jumped up.

Like a monkey, he dashed in front of Liao Zixuan and asked nervously, “Big brother, you...Is what you said true? Can you really ask Vivian out for me?”

“Of course, I’m quite familiar with her.

Liao Zixuan nodded with certainty.

However, he was sneering in his heart.

He still wanted to ask her out in person?

Look at how beautiful you are.

A little wolf version of Vivian would be good enough for you.

Ever since he transformed into Vivian in the Adventurer’s Association to deceive players and silly rich guys, Liao Zixuan felt as if he had opened up a new world.

He rejected Vivian’s flirtatious protagonist aura.

However, if it was changed to the words that he was pretending to be a little girl to hook up a rich man for Vivian, then it would feel a lot more exciting, and even a little dizzy!

Chapter 226: May I ask who Big Brother is?_3

“Alright! Leave it to me, big brother! Wasn’t it just going to Harvey to explain what had happened? It was nothing compared to saving my life!”

Teddy patted his chest and agreed without hesitation.

It was said that women were brainless when they fell in love.

To clarify, it was the same for men.

Otherwise, how could there be so many scumbags!

Yes, that’s right, I’m the b * tch Vivian.

Since he already had this title, Liao Zixuan naturally couldn’t let him down. It was not enough to just arrange this for Teddy.

Therefore, he took out the purse of the mother who had been entrusted to him in the secret chamber of the viper laboratory and showed a distressed expression.

Teddy understood what Liao Zixuan meant. He gritted his teeth. In order to get a chance to meet his goddess, he directly asked for the money bag.

“There’s no need to trouble big brother with such a small matter. Leave it to me. With the network of our nobles, it’s easy to find a refugee! Big Brother, don’t worry, I’ll be a great...He would definitely fulfill his mother’s last wish!

Perhaps in the beginning, Teddy was just trying to meet Vivian.

But later, when he opened the purse and saw the small note inside, Teddy's expression gradually calmed down and became serious. Finally, he nodded solemnly.

Although there were only a few copper coins in the purse, it was still heavy for Teddy.

"Alright, then I believe you. Oh, there's one last thing.

Liao Zixuan nodded in satisfaction and prepared to draw a perfect sentence for tonight... Let's start with the commas.

On the other side.

And... Again?

Teddy's mouth twitched.

However, he clenched his fists and Vivian's figure from yesterday appeared in his mind.

Unlike Damir who was infatuated with Vivian's magical talent and Chris who was saved by Vivian, Teddy was infatuated with Vivian because of the first two factors, but more importantly...

Flat-chested! Flat chest!

She was completely different from those clumsy, beautiful, and flirtatious bitches who had two lumps on their chests!

Teddy had had enough of all this, so when Vivian appeared like an airport, he was immediately mesmerized. Perfect, too perfect! She was simply a goddess in her dreams!

“Are you thinking of something obscene?” Liao Zixuan looked alert.

“How... How could this be! What kind of person do you think I am, big brother?”

I am thinking of justice! ”

Teddy spoke clearly and his eyes were sincere.

Flat-chested is justice!

“Alright, don’t look like you’re going to suffer again. The matter I’m about to hand over to you will also be of great benefit to you.

Liao Zixuan had already arranged everything for him. Next, he gave Teddy the role to play.

The more he listened, the brighter Teddy’s eyes became. In the end, he was so excited that his face turned red and he couldn’t wait to rub his hands together.

Unfortunately.

The wind on the high building is too strong, so we still don’t know what the two of them are plotting.

“That’s all. I have something else to do and have to go first.

“Oh, I almost forgot. I want to ask you something. I asked you to recommend a tailor shop in Fire Code City. Where do you recommend?””

Teddy thought for a moment and said without hesitation.

“Nina’s Tailoring”

The maid, Elina, strongly recommended this shop to her own eldest daughter, Liz, who had called her over in the middle of the night and brought Vivian’s old clothes..

Chapter 227: What Evil Thoughts Could the Oracle Have?

“Nina’s clothes?”

Liz frowned and repeated in a strange manner.

The fund -raising party was tomorrow night, and Liz had already noticed that Vivian did not have a decent dress.

She did think about lending her gown to Vivian, but she quickly rejected it because the difference between their figures was too big.

Even if it was the smallest size of her clothes, according to Liz’s visual estimation, it would be a great challenge for Vivian. She would be finished if the clothes did not hold up and became leaking everywhere.

LisLisi could only imagine the image of the person who lowered his head and could see his feet directly from the collar of his clothes, and then sighed.

Therefore, Liz had no choice but to go to a tailor shop to see if there were any similar gowns and buy a new one based on Vivian’s unique figure.

Since she had decided to buy a new one, she had to pick the one that fit her best. Liz had to know Vivian's exact size and figure.

However, the problem arose again. Liz was not a professional, so she definitely could not see through these details just by looking.

But to make Liz take the initiative to ask Vivian... She would never do such a thing.

The burden of being an earl's daughter was still there.

Thus, Liz used her clever little brain to come up with such a wonderful method.

In other words, when the night was quiet, he would secretly steal Vivian's clothes from the laundry room on the floor. Pfft, lend it over, and then use this as the standard measurement. Wouldn't it be done when he went to the tailor shop?

Right now, the most difficult first step of the entire plan had been successfully completed by Liz.

The old clothes in her hands were the best proof.

After that, it was much simpler.

Originally, Liz wanted to smear the reputation alone and sneak out of the manor. However, after thinking about it, she felt that it was better to bring someone with her. At the very least, she needed someone to carry things.

Therefore, it eventually turned into this scene.

But what Liz did not expect was...

When she found Elena, who recommended herself to be Vivian's maid during this period of time...

After listening to her simple explanation of what she was going to do next, the maid suddenly suggested boldly that she go to another shop called Nina Tailoring.

"Can I hear the reason?"

Logically speaking, the other party was just a little maid who was responsible for carrying things. She had no right to suggest his plan.

If it was during the day, Liz, the young miss of the manor, would not even pay attention to her. However, it was late at night and there were only the two of them. Liz had more or less lowered her status and wanted to give the maid a chance to explain herself.

Meanwhile, on the other side.

After the young miss asked her to explain, Elina immediately panicked.

Because when he heard that the young miss was bringing him to the tailor shop, he said the words "Nina's Tailor" completely subconsciously.

But in reality, Elina didn't even know where Nina Tailor's shop was, let alone buy clothes from them before and understand the quality.

All of this came from the message she had received from the Oracle when she was chatting with Sister Qing during the day.

At that time, Elena still did not understand. It was only now that Liz had found her that she suddenly realized what the hint the Oracle had given her meant.

It was alright!

Believe in the oracle!

Elena's brain worked very quickly. She paused for a moment and already thought of a reason.

"It's like this, Young Miss. I think that most of the other tailor shops don't suit Lady Vivian, but Nina's clothes are different."

"I went there once by chance when I wanted to buy some clothes for myself. Now that I think about it, although it was relatively unpopular, it really fits Lady Vivian's style.

Irina finished her sentence in one breath. Even though she had just made it up, the maid was still full of confidence. She believed that since the Oracle had told her to go there, it would definitely not trick her.

Unfortunately, Elise's confidence began to crumble under her strange gaze.

"You... Say you've been to Nina's tailor? Buy yourself some clothes?" Liz looked at Elena with a new look.

"Yes, yes...That's right...'

The maid suddenly started to feel guilty. She did not know why the young miss would show such an expression. Could it be that Nina Tailor was some very high-end and luxurious shop? Did the young miss think that a maid like her was not worthy at all?

But soon, in the next second, Elena knew that she was wrong, and very wrong.

"Is that so?"

"I didn't expect you to have a hobby of wearing men's clothes."

When Elina heard the word " male ", she was dumbfounded and her mind went blank.

“What’s wrong? Did I remember wrongly? Isn’t Nina’s tailor a men’s clothing store? Or was it that their family had also recently introduced women’s clothing?”

“This... This...”

Irina stammered.

In fact, the maid had already cursed the Oracle countless times in her heart. She knew that this was a trashy trick!

We’re done for!

Not only did they fail to get Nina to tailor clothes for them, but they also gave her a strange label in the young miss ‘heart..

Chapter 228: What Evil Thoughts Could the Oracle Have? 2

Damn it!

Mama-like!

“Alright, let’s go to the one that the Guyangs mentioned.”

Liz started to walk out of the room, leaving behind the maid who was still in a daze.

“What? Big... Young miss, are we really going there?” Elina could not believe her ears. “Didn’t you recommend this to me?”

“But...But...”

She didn't know that it was a men's store! Weren't they going to buy clothes for Vivian?? Why are we going to a men's clothing store? Elena didn't dare to say what she was shouting in her heart.

Opposite her, Liz, who had already walked to the door, turned around and urged the maid who was still standing there in a daze impatiently.

“Hurry up. Remember to put Vivian's old clothes in the clothes bag.

“I thought about it just now. Your idea is indeed good, but my thinking is too limited. Who said that women must wear women's clothes? I think, perhaps the style of men's clothing...It's really more suitable for Vivian.”

He could hear the seriousness in her voice.

Elena was speechless.

Vivian! (Sorrow)

In the maid's heart, the biggest insult to a girl was to say, “You're more suitable to wear men's clothes.”

He silently mourned for Vivian for half a second.

Elina was ecstatic.

“Alright, Miss! That was actually what I meant from the beginning! Young Miss is really amazing. She understood it all at once!

Being alone in such an environment could indeed close the distance between them. If it was during the day, even if she had a hundred guts, she wouldn't dare to talk to Liz like this.

Of course, the main reason was that she had completed the oracle's guidance well and changed their itinerary to Nina's Tailoring.

After that...

Elena recalled the third line of her "oracle."

With each line, the number of words would decrease drastically. As the last line, there was only one word left for Irina.

White.

Bai... What did this mean??

Elena complained helplessly.

She had long studied out that there was a cause-and-effect relationship between each line of the Oracle. Often, there was a close connection between each line of the Oracle and each line of the Oracle.

For example, now.

If not for the first line of the oracle, which made her run to the hall and voluntarily become Vivian's servant, then the person who the young lady came to find tonight would definitely not be her.

If that was the case, then the Oracle would definitely send him to this place called Nina's Tailoring for the third line.

That was, for the sake of the word 'white'.

But this...This was just one word, who could understand it! Couldn't he just reveal a little more to her?
At least give me a name!

He couldn't understand it no matter how much he thought about it.

Elina gave up.

Anyway, she would know when the time came. Although the Oracle seemed unreliable, the maid knew that one thing would not change, and that was that the Oracle would never harm her.

That was enough.

After packing Vivian's old clothes and carrying a package, Elena followed closely behind Liz.

They bypassed the castle guards and quietly walked out of the manor without being discovered by anyone.

When they came out and walked on the night street, Liz suddenly stopped. She raised her head and frowned, looking far away from them, probably in the direction of the night sky in the outer Urban area.

This time, there was no need to ask Elina, because she did the same thing.

After all, anyone who wasn't blind could see it.

The huge sea of fire that dyed the night sky red.

"Young miss, this... What is this..." Elina's voice was trembling.

She had never seen such a scene before.

Fire? Explosion? Or magic? What exactly happened in the outer city??

"I don't know." Liz shook her head.

"Then, shall we go? Young miss, I think it's better to go back. Don't go out..."

Although the sea of fire was far away from the inner Urban area, just looking at it from afar made Elena feel afraid.

"It's okay. Nina's dress is not far from us. She's also in the inner Urban area.

"Alright, stop looking. No matter what happens, the city guards are here. I believe they can control the fire and won't burn to our side.

He watched as the young miss waved her hand nonchalantly and started to walk again.

Elena wanted to say something but hesitated.

The maid wanted to say that she was not afraid that the fire would spread, but that the chaos caused by the fire would cause people from the outer Urban area to run to the inner city.

It would be fine if it was just a few victims of the fire, but what Elina was afraid of was that if this fire was deliberately caused by someone, they might run into fugitives again! It should be impossible, right?

How low was the probability!

Besides, wasn't there an Oracle? How could the Oracle trick him?

Yes!

Believe in the oracle!

After consoling herself, Elina continued to catch up with her young miss. Filled with anticipation, she went to Nina's sewing.

At the Earl's manor.

In Vivian's room.

The little girl who was still sleeping soundly on the bed when the wolf cubs left was now standing by the window in loose pajamas.

Vivian looked at the raging sea of fire in a certain area of the outer Urban area in the distance.

The scarlet light of the flames was reflected in the little girl's pupils. Vivian's hand that was holding the curtains tightened involuntarily..

Chapter 229: What Evil Thoughts Could the Oracle Have?

"Xiao Hei..."

The little girl's lonely whisper echoed in the dark and quiet room.

In the mental space, the second personality could not stand Vivian's depressed look anymore.

In the darkness behind the little girl, a blurry figure slowly appeared.

"Alright, let's think about it. Maybe Little Black is just, um... What about those who went out to hunt for food? Many monsters had the habit of moving at night!

The second personality tried to comfort him.

Even though she and Vivian both had a feeling that the fire in the outer Urban area was definitely caused by Little Black.

After all, with Little Black's ability, this was nothing. It was obvious how destructive Little Black was, and this was actually the reason why Vivian was depressed.

She didn't want to see Little Black use his ability recklessly. She didn't want Little Black to become a dangerous person, or even...A disaster.

However, Vivian was powerless and disappointed because she did not have the ability to educate Blackie, who was supposed to be the summoner of the summoned beasts.

"Don't think too much, Vivian. What's the old saying? The kind of Summoner, the kind of Summoned Beast! Vivian, you're so kind, I believe you. Blackie must be the same, or... Even you don't trust him?"

The second personality deliberately used goading, and the simple and honest little girl immediately fell for it.

"How could this be? Of course, I trust Xiao Hei the most!"

Vivian raised her voice and retorted anxiously.

"It's just that...It's just that I hope that next time, he can sue..."

"Can what? Vivian, I know you like Blackie very much, but you have to give each other some personal space. It's really important!"

"People can't be together forever, even I am no exception."

It's very likely that one day, Vivian, you will suddenly wake up and I will disappear. So, you have to learn..."

Before the second personality could finish his words, he was interrupted by the little girl.

"Stop! I... I understand what you mean, the other me, so I won't blame Little Black or anything, nor will I expose him. I just... He was just mumbling a little. "

"Ah! This is bad! I have to go back to sleep! Tomorrow night would be a banquet. If he was not in a good mood, it would be troublesome! "

Vivian let go of the curtains and went back to bed. But before she went to sleep, the little girl whispered,"

"There's also another me, no... I won't allow you to say anything else. You will disappear! I won't let that happen. "

"Even if one day, you disappear, I... I will do my best to find you, I promise!

After saying that, perhaps because she was too embarrassed.

Vivian closed her eyes, as if she was already asleep.

As for the second personality's shadow, after laughing silently, it floated to the bedside with a gentle expression. It held its cheeks and quietly watched the little girl's sweet sleeping face.

Under this beautiful and quiet.

At this moment, in another part of the castle, a completely different scene was playing out in the maid's resting room.

It might sound a little scary.

But it was like a zombie.

On the bed, in her sleep, Sister Qing, who had been chatting and laughing with Irina during the day, suddenly sat up from the bed at a strange angle..

Chapter 230: Pack It All Up!_I

“Abnormal...Abnormality... Detected...Special test subject...Leave...

Range...”

Do you wish to execute the first contingency plan...No...Reason for Judgement... Special test subject...[A] class...

Sovereignness, vampiric, vampiric

” Activate the second contingency plan...The program loaded...Protect...Special test subject...It can't be damaged...”

A mechanical murmur came from the mouth of the maid named “Sister Qing”.

Her eyes were lifeless, as if she had no intelligence, but there was a faint light flashing constantly, as if she was interacting with a huge information flow from some distant place.

However, after a few seconds, the light in Sister Qing's eyes stabilized and returned to normal.

However, the mechanical voice from her mouth did not stop.

"Test subject number H981...The progress of the witch upgrade was high.

Failure...Soul Remnant Rate... 57%..."

"Note...Inferior experimental product...Conscription allowed...Damage allowed... Allow to destroy.

"Review complete...Activate..."

Count Sisre treated the maids very well. He gave them generous salaries and never beat or scolded them. He even gave them a few days off a month and allowed them to go out for activities.

But no matter what, it was not good enough to let each maid have a room. The room that Sister Qing slept in was divided into upper, middle, and lower bunks, with one on each side. There were six maids in a room.

Sister Qing was on the top bunk. She was often a little troubled because every time she wanted to get down, it was not easy. She had to climb the ladder carefully. Basically, the noise she made would wake up the others.

Therefore, even if she woke up in the middle of the night and wanted to go to the toilet, Sister Qing could only hold back. She did not want to affect the dormitory because of her.

However, this time.

He was like a nimble kitten jumping down from a high place.

Sister Qing lifted the blanket and propped herself up on the bed. Then, she jumped down from the upper bunk, which was about three to four meters high, and landed steadily on the ground.

Its movements were so nimble that even a Thief who had always been good at "agility" would feel inferior to it.

Not to mention, the most exaggerated thing was...

During the entire process, not even the slightest sound was made.

The other five maids in the dormitory were still asleep. They couldn't sense what was happening outside at all.

It was obvious that this kind of skill had completely exceeded the scope of what a normal "maid" could do.

After leaving the maid dormitory, Sister Qing remained silent.

She looked around as if she was sensing her location. Soon, she locked onto the direction where Liz and Elena had left.

Sister Qing did not choose to leave the castle through the main entrance. Instead, she found the nearest window and did the same thing as when she got out of bed.

He opened the window, supported himself with one hand, and climbed down.

The result was exactly the same. Sister Qing landed quietly and steadily.

But one had to know.

This time, the distance between the window and the ground was ten times that of the bunk bed in the dormitory!

Not to mention Thieves, even Thieves would not dare to jump down without borrowing tools. If they did, they would be courting death. If they did not fall to their deaths, they would be half-crippled.

However, Sister Qing acted as if nothing had happened. After she left the Earl's manor, she did not stop and immediately ran at high speed.

In the blink of an eye, his figure had already disappeared into the lonely streets of Fire Code City at night.

"This is also... Isn't this too abnormal?"

The owner of Nina's tailor shop looked at the young man opposite the counter and muttered softly.

This was the first time he had encountered someone who came to a men's clothing store and wanted to buy women's clothing. What was even more ridiculous was that the other party was a man!

"I told you, I'm buying it for a friend, not for myself!" Liao Zixuan frowned. For the sake of his reputation, he slapped the counter and repeated himself.

With his hearing, he could hear the tailor shop owner's voice no matter how soft it was.

However, the boss gave him a disdainful look.

It was as if he was asking if the friend he was talking about was himself?

Liao Zixuan was speechless.

Farewell!

He turned around and was about to leave.

At the same time, he cursed Teddy several times in his heart. However, after thinking about it carefully, he couldn't blame Teddy. Of course, men would recommend men's tailors to men. Who would recommend women's tailors to men?

Therefore, he had to blame...It was all because of this lousy shop name! Liao Zixuan was unable to react to the feminine name of Nina Tailor.

Damn it, he was too careless!

Just as Liao Zixuan was feeling depressed, he didn't expect that the boss who had cut Nina's clothes, who was a little annoying, would immediately stop him when he saw Liao Zixuan was about to leave.

"Hey, sir, please wait a moment! Why did you leave?"

Liao Zixuan, who had stopped in his tracks, turned around and looked at the boss who asked him to stay. His face was filled with a strange expression.

"Didn't I say that I want to buy a girl... Buying women's clothes for friends! "Yes, that's right. I know. "The boss nodded, looking like he understood.

No, what do you know?

Liao Zixuan was confused.

"But isn't this a men's tailor shop?"

"Yes, but I also have women's clothing specially designed for men. I think it will definitely meet your needs! "

The boss's eyes lit up as he rubbed his hands at Liao Zixuan.

Liao Zixuan was speechless.

What the hell kind of shop was Teddy recommending?

There was more.

"I told you, I'm giving it to my friend, not myself!
