Chapter 231: Pack It All Up!_2

“Aiya, I know, sir! You don’t have to repeat yourself. Speaking of which, I once had a friend who looked exactly like you!”

The boss comforted Liao Zixuan with an emoji that said, “It’s okay. We’ve all been through it. Don’t be shy here.”

“So, Sir, do you want to follow me to the inner room to take a look?”

“I’ll be honest, sir. The men’s women’s clothes that I design are all high-quality products. I won’t sell them on the surface. I’m only willing to do it when I meet someone like you who knows the ropes.

Nonsense!

Even if you took it to the public, no one would buy it!?

However, the boss’s words gave Liao Zixuan a new inspiration. With Vivian’s figure, it seemed that a man’s style would indeed match her better.

“Let’s go and take a look.”

“Alright!”

He was so excited that he spoke in his hometown.

The most wonderful thing in the world was to meet someone who had the same interests as him.

Under the boss's lead, Liao Zixuan came to the special exhibition area behind Nina's Sewing, which was not open to the public.

And just as the boss had said, the men's women's clothing referred to the upper body of the men's clothing that was completely covered by the clothes without the chest opening. At the same time, it combined the concept of the dress that represented women's clothing, turning the lower body into a skirt.

Liao Zixuan's eyes immediately lit up when he saw it.

This was simply too suitable for Vivian!

Moreover, it had to be said that although the number of clothes here was far less than those on the counter outside, it could be seen that all of them were of a higher grade in terms of workmanship and materials.

According to the boss and Liao Zixuan, one was for life and to make money, while the other was for love and hobbies. How could they be the same?

"Wait a minute? Wear it?"

Liao Zixuan was just about to buy one, but he took it back.

Seeing this, the boss hurriedly waved his hand.

"Sir, please don't misunderstand. I don't have a figure like yours, so how would

I stain these clothes? When I said to wear it, I meant to let it wear it.

She ignored the first half of the boss's sentence.

As the boss spoke, he lifted the item that had been covered with a gray cloth.

“This is...

Liao Zixuan looked in front of him. It was lifelike, as if it was a real person... Sculpture?

“How is it? It’s very powerful, right? This was a high-grade product imported from the Winter Country. They called it...What was it called? Oh, that’s right, a magic puppet!”

Liao Zixuan got closer and carefully observed the magic puppet that the boss mentioned.

He was surprised to find that it was not enough to describe it as lifelike. Even the veins on his fingers were exactly the same. What was even more amazing was that there was almost no sense of strangeness.

It was as if...

Other than not being able to move, Liao Zixuan could believe that it was a real person.

“Amazing, right? When I first saw it, I was fascinated. However, this is still a defective product. It is said that a real magic puppet can move and talk. It is no different from a real person!”

Liao Zixuan looked at the boss and said while fiddling with his beloved magic puppet model.

His experience at the Adventurer’s Association during the day immediately surfaced in his mind.

Magic puppet...Winter Country...

In the game, the players used the Flame Domain as their starting point to expand the world. The countries that were updated in each version were also based on their geographical location.

Therefore, even Liao Zixuan had rarely heard of the Winter Country, which was so far away.

“Don’t you think that magic puppets are very terrifying?”

“Terrifying? Sir, are you joking? I really hope that the Inferno Domain can introduce this technology and make magic puppets popular! How good would that be!”

The boss looked like he didn’t understand at all. As for the reason, Liao Zixuan didn’t need to ask to know.

The image of the magic puppet could obviously be customized. From the statue of the magic puppet in front of the boss, it could be seen that it looked like a classic loli with small breasts.

However, what the boss saw was only the benefits of the magic puppet, which could satisfy his fantasies at will. On the other hand, what Liao Zixuan saw was...

“Or rather, someone else used a magic puppet that looked like you to kill and set fire everywhere. In the end, they would frame you and ruin your reputation and family.

“Another example...”

Seeing that Liao Zixuan was about to continue, the boss, who was already sweating profusely, quickly stopped him.

“Sir! Don’t! Don’t say anymore!”

“You, you should continue choosing clothes. How is it? Is there anything you like? ”

The boss quickly changed the topic.

Liao Zixuan saw that the other party was probably going to have nightmares at night, so he didn’t have the heart to say anything more.

He chose the smallest size from the pile of men’s clothes.

“Eh? You... Are you really going to buy it for your friend?” The boss asked in surprise. Obviously, with Liao Zixuan’s figure, it was impossible for him to wear it.

He rolled his eyes.

He couldn’t be bothered with this boss.

Liao Zixuan didn’t buy it right away. Instead, for insurance, he noted down the size of the clothes and asked the boss for the location of the bathroom..

Chapter 232: Pack It All Up!!

The reason was that he wanted to use the toilet, but in fact, he wanted to transform into Vivian’s body. He wanted to see if the proportions were appropriate and if he needed to make it bigger.

When Liao Zixuan left, the boss was the only one left in the room.

He looked at his favorite magic puppet beside him. At this moment, after Liao Zixuan's words a few minutes ago, the boss inexplicably shivered.

After quickly covering the magic puppet sculpture with the Ashen Cover Step, the boss heaved a sigh of relief and felt a little better.

Forget it, this was good enough. Don't let the magic puppet move.

If he could really move like a human...

Suddenly, the boss felt a weight on his shoulder, as if a pair of hands had patted him from behind.

Shocked, the boss jumped up as if he had been electrocuted and almost fell to his death.

When he turned his head shakily and saw his back clearly, he let out a long sigh of relief as if he was afraid. He kept patting his chest where his heart was.

"Sh... You scared me to death."

He saw that it was not the magic puppet that he had covered with a gray cloth that had really moved. It was also not the gentleman who had gone to the bathroom just now, but...

Two new customers arrived.

Why didn't you say anything before coming in?

The boss, who was about to have a heart attack, wanted to scold him angrily because the other party had indeed come to the back of the shop without his consent.

However, just as the words were about to come out of his mouth, the boss took them back.

There was no other reason.

Alright...So beautiful...

The person who patted his shoulder just now was probably a maid, so the boss couldn't take his eyes off her.

However, behind the maid, there was a young lady with the aura of a noble lady. She could definitely be said to be a perfect appearance that the boss could not even dream of.

What was going on tonight?

A handsome man had just arrived, and now there were two beautiful women?

Could it be that the Fire God was hinting at something?

What pulled the boss back to reality was the maid's words.

"I'm sorry. I saw that there was no one at the counter and the back door was open, so I came in without permission. I didn't scare you, did I?"

Elena apologized apologetically.

"No! Not at all! How could a man like me be scared? Haha.

The boss shook his head repeatedly. Who would say bad things about others in front of a beautiful woman?

Therefore, no matter which world it was, as long as it was a person, looking at the face seemed to be the most important thing. "May I help you two? I have all kinds of men here..."

The boss habitually said,

However, after recovering from the beauty of the master and servant, the boss suddenly stopped halfway because he realized a problem.

This was a men's clothing store. What were these two women doing here? NO!

What was worse was that he couldn't show the things here to outsiders. Otherwise, his reputation would be completely ruined!

The boss was sweating profusely after he reacted.

He quickly used his body to block Elina and Liz's line of sight while apologizing as if he wanted to chase them away.

"Ah! The two ladies might not know, but we sell men's clothes here. You might have come to the wrong place. If you want to buy women's clothes, I suggest you go..."

Before the boss could finish speaking, the hostess walked past the boss and looked around the "special" exhibition area.

It was exactly the same as the one she used to be, and even more ruthless.

Liz's eyes lit up as she waved her hand.

"Boss, pack up all of this place..

Chapter 233: If One Finger Doesn't Work, Then Two! 1

“Ah, this...”

The boss was a little dumbfounded and wondered if he had heard wrongly.

In Fire Code City, women’s formal wear, especially among the nobles, was a tradition. It had never been said that it would cover the upper body tightly.

After all, we are nobles. We are very decent.

The boss looked at Liz. Not only could she bring a maid with her when she went out, but just by looking at her temperament and appearance, he knew that she must have an extraordinary background.

Especially her fair and supple skin, it was as if water could come out of it with just a squeeze.

The boss didn’t even dare to think about it. Since he was born, he probably hadn’t done any rough work or been exposed to the sun for a few days.

However, why would such a rich lady buy these clothes that were not presentable at all?

“What’s wrong? Is there a problem?”

Liz saw that after she finished speaking, the owner of the shop opposite her was still in a daze and could not help but ask.

Only then did the boss confirm that he did not hear wrongly. The other party really wanted to buy it, so he quickly explained.

“Miss, these...Uh, these are just the designs I designed on a whim. The men’s version of women’s clothing. With Miss’s figure, I’m afraid you can’t, can’t...”

The boss glanced at Liz's chest and immediately moved away.

He really didn't dare to look.

How could he afford to offend such a big shot?

The boss had seen it with his own eyes. Just because a person on the road looked at a certain female noble's chest a few more times, the next day, his eyes were dug out and thrown into the smelly drain.

It was also because of this that he was so anxious to explain to Liz, afraid that Liz would only find it fresh and find that her figure would not fit at all after buying it.

How could he be so sure?

Of course, she couldn't wear it. It was a man's dress, so there wasn't much space left in front of her chest.

The boss only glanced at it roughly.

However, he was in the business after all, and he had sharp eyes. The boss was very sure that even if it was the largest size he had, the young lady opposite him would have to button it non-stop if she wore it.

Sigh...

So this was what aristocrats were like. They had fair skin, beautiful looks, and big breasts...However, hmph! What's big? A flat chest is justice!

The boss pursed his lips in his heart.

As expected, they were not family, so they did not enter the same shop. As expected of the shop that Teddy strongly recommended. There was nothing wrong with it.

However, who knew that this sentence would be used again very quickly.

“Of course not.”

As soon as Liz opened her mouth, the boss immediately felt a sense of familiarity, as if someone had just said the same thing to him a few minutes ago.

Then, the next sentence should be...

“I’m buying it for a friend.” Liz explained to the boss.

“You, you have a friend too?”

The boss almost made the decision on the spot.

Good heavens, a man came to buy women’s clothes for his friend, and now a lady came to buy men’s clothes for her friend.

It couldn’t be said to be similar. It could only be said to be exactly the same as the gentleman just now.

The boss, who had been tailored by Nina, felt a dull pain in his temples at the moment, and he began to doubt whether there was a problem with them, or if he could not keep up with the trend.

On the other side.

“What?” Liz frowned.

She repeated her boss's words.

"I also have a friend in the US? Can't I have friends? Or is there a rule here that only the owner can buy the clothes?"

Liz raised her voice slightly, her tone gradually filled with dissatisfaction.

This scared the boss out of his wits.

Knowing that he had said something wrong, the boss quickly shook his head.

"No, there's definitely no such rule..."

"But..."

Seeing her boss's hesitant expression, Liz's brows furrowed even more tightly.

"Speak."

"Yes, it's like this, Miss. Before you, almost right after you, a gentleman also came over to choose the clothes here, and... He had already reserved the innermost piece.

"So, you can take everything else with you, but this..."

Actually, the best thing to do now was to do whatever the young lady opposite him said.

However!

As the manager of a tailor shop and a businessman, the boss still had his own bottom line. At the very least, he had to be honest!

Therefore, even if he had to take the risk of offending the other party.

The boss also gritted his teeth and resolutely helped Liao Zixuan. He kept the smallest size of clothes that he had promised to buy from Liz. Even the boss himself was touched by this kind of trustworthy attitude.

Until...

“Pre-order...In other words, he hadn't paid yet, right? “Liz asked.

She glanced at the clothes that had been reserved according to the boss's words.

If it was something that obviously did not suit Vivian, then so be it. But it was the smallest size. At a glance, it was also Liz's favorite.

She had to take it down!

” That's right. That gentleman is just going to the bathroom now. He should be back soon...’

Before the boss could finish, Liz suddenly interrupted him.

“How much is this dress of yours?”

The boss was stunned. Logically speaking, a person who wanted to clear the entire place should not care about the price.

However, he quickly said,

“Miss, the price of these clothes here will probably be much higher than those outside. After all, these were all designed by me personally. The fabric and sewing are even more...”

“I don’t want to hear this. Just tell me the price. “Liz waved her hand impatiently. She knew that these merchants liked to interrupt.

“Two...Twenty silver for one piece.

The boss raised two fingers and said carefully. This price was already very expensive for just one piece of clothing.

But immediately after.

“I’ll give you 40 silver coins each.

Liz doubled the price.

Humph!

So this was what he meant by asking about the price?

Did he really think that he was the kind of person who would fall under the skirt of a noble for money?

“Don’t be like this, Miss. I can’t do this!” The boss shook his head firmly.

[One Gold CoCoin, One Conjugation] Liz raised a finger at the boss.

Breathing a little faster, “No, no, I’m a man of my word. That gentleman came first...”

“Ten gold coins for one.”

Liz still had that tiny little finger, but in the eyes of the boss opposite him, this lady's finger seemed to be growing infinitely, and then pressed him down like an ant.

Ten gold coins was equivalent to 1,000 silver coins, which was 50 times the original price!

"No..." The boss's lips trembled as he opened his mouth with difficulty.

However, before he could say the word "okay"...

"Twenty gold coins for one."

"Excuse me, do you need me to pack it for you now? We can also provide door-to-door delivery services!"

Behind Liz.

The maid, Elina, saw that when her Miss raised her second finger, the store manager, who was originally very stubborn, immediately turned into a pug and wagged his tail at Liz.

Elina's eyes were full of little stars.

Young Miss...So handsome!

Could this be the famous quote of a great novelist?

If one finger couldn't satisfy him, he would use two!

Err...

Wait, it couldn't be Elena, right?

Liao Zixuan thought for a moment. It was really possible. After all, Liz was a young lady. It was impossible for her to go out alone at night. She had to bring a servant girl with her. And during the day, Elena, who was fighting to be Vivian's servant, should be Liz's first choice.

Liao Zixuan quickly figured out what had happened from the boss's words.

Immediately after, a feeling of wonder arose from the bottom of his heart.

Firstly, it was to lament that this Earl's daughter, who looked quite unreasonable on the surface, was actually a tsundere. To be able to secretly buy clothes for her best friend, she had to go to this extent. It was really no one

Secondly, he was naturally lamenting that there were so many tailor shops in the city, but they had found the same one as him.

Was it really just a coincidence?

Or could it be...

Thinking of this, an evil thought immediately popped up in Liao Zixuan's heart.

If he thought so much, he might as well ask them directly.

However, this method of "asking" ...

Liao Zixuan had to educate the master and servant.

She wanted them to understand that girls, especially weak ones like them, should never go out at night.

After all, what if he encountered a bad person with ill intentions?

Yes.

It was definitely not because Liz had stolen his clothes!

According to research, when people did bad things, their nerves would be several times more excited than usual.

According to research, anyone who said the words " according to research " was nonsense.

In short, Liao Zixuan did as he said. Since Liz had already bought the clothes, it was useless for him to stay in the shop.

However, before he left.

"Give it to me."

Liao Zixuan extended a hand to the boss.

"Take... Bring what?"

"Of course it's the money you earned from selling me out! "Liao Zixuan glared at the innocent owner of the casino.

Seeing that the other party was about to make an expression that said, 'What are you talking about? I don't understand at all'...

Liao Zixuan casually picked up a metal clothes rack beside him.

Then, under the boss 'gaze, he used one hand to crush the extremely hard metal clothes rack into a ball.
"Do I need to repeat myself?"

Clang!

The boss was so frightened that he placed the bag filled with gold coins on the table in a trembling manner.

"First...Sir, this, this is all. I-I really didn't do it on purpose. I was forced. Sir, don't look for me. If you want to look for someone, look for them..."

"They, right, right, right, right! Find them! They have just left the house. Sir, if you chase after them now, you will definitely make it in time!

As he spoke, the considerate boss even pointed Liao Zixuan in the direction where Liz had left.

Thump!

The shops closed again. After Liao Zixuan left, the boss leaned against the wall and panted heavily.

First, he found the same metal clothes rack, then he tried to use one hand, no, two hands, no, three hands...Damn it, he didn't have any extra hands.

But in fact, the boss estimated that even if he had ten hands, he wouldn't be able to knead a metal clothes rack into a ball.

Just then, he came to the window and saw the raging fire that lit up the night sky in the outer Urban area.

"Sigh..."

“It seems that this Fire Code City...It’s going to be chaotic.”

Sighing faintly, I go to the top.

The boss was about to close the shop.

However, when his gaze swept past a certain humanoid object, he suddenly exclaimed.

“This cloth...Why did it fall?”

On the return journey of the master and servant.

Compared to when they had just come out of the earl’s manor, the noise from the outer Urban area was even more serious.

The city guards who were supposed to be in charge of night patrols in the inner city had been reduced to the point where they could hardly be seen.

The reason was obvious.

They were all urgently mobilized to support the fire in the outer Urban area.

This caused the streets of the inner Urban area, which were already very lonely at night, to become even more empty at this moment.

Liz looked around, but she couldn’t see anyone.

According to research, one of the top ten things that girls were most afraid of was walking alone at night.

Although there was still a maid named Elena beside Liz, who was carrying bags of clothes.

“I remember that your name is...Elena?”

Perhaps it was to ease the atmosphere, or perhaps Liz was really satisfied with tonight’s operation.

On the way back to the manor under the cover of the night, this young lady took the initiative to speak.

“Ai...Cough, in short, the shop you recommended is very good. You can keep the remaining money for the clothes you bought tonight. You don’t have to return it to me. Just treat it as...Here’s your reward.”

Liz originally wanted to use the name of a maid, but in the end, she changed it to the habitual “ you ” as the subject. However, this was enough to make Irina excited.

“Thank... Thank you, Miss!”

The eyes of the little maid had already turned into gold coins. She quickly calculated in her heart. Even if there were not many left, there were at least a dozen gold coins. It was enough to cover her salary for who knows how many months!

This time, it was really...

Earn...He had profited big!

As a maid, Elina had the attitude of a little girl. Just a few gold coins could make her extremely happy.

As expected, the Oracle would not cheat him!

Following the oracle was the right thing to do!

With the unexpected windfall, Elena praised the Oracle in her heart.

However, at the same time, the maid was confused.

so...

What did the word "Bail" in the last line mean?

Oh! She understood!

The oracle must have told her that she was a freeloader!

Oracle:

Prepare to be angry!

Therefore, this story tells us that as a person, we must not always think about whoring for free!

Because retribution would come soon!

Elina, who was still immersed in the pleasure of being a prostitute, suddenly realized that the young miss, Liz, who was walking in front of her, had stopped.

The maid looked ahead in confusion. Elina shuddered.

They saw a man blocking their way.

"Yo!"

“The two young ladies are going to.... Where are we going?”

Chapter 235: A Perfect Sentence... SenSentence...

A frivolous tone.

He spoke with an unclear meaning.

In addition, the other party had no intention of moving at all.

Alina's little heart began to accelerate and jump up.

The thing she was most worried about had happened.

Could they be...She must have been targeted by the bad guys!

Big...”

Just as the maid was about to whisper nervously, she was stopped by Liz's gaze.

Compared to Elina, who was flustered and her mind went blank, the Earl's daughter, Lissy, reacted very quickly.

This young lady chose to remain silent. Then, she brought Irina and the two of them quickly changed directions and took another path.

The maid realized that this road did not lead to the earl's manor at all.

However, Elena quickly reacted.

After all, the Earl's manor was in the inner Urban area and was in a relatively remote location. If they continued in the direction of home, they would not meet anyone else on the way.

Liz chose a path that led to Fire God Square, which was also the closest to their current location.

Big... Young miss, you're so calm...

In the past, Irina's respect for Liz was mostly due to their relationship.

However, at this moment, the little maidservant felt admiration for Liz from the bottom of her heart.

Because if she was alone, she would probably have...She was so scared that she stood rooted to the ground, not knowing what to do.

Therefore, if a girl walked at night and met a bad person, the first thing she had to do was not to think about running home. The right thing to do was to find a place with a lot of people closest to her or an official occasion.

Oh, there were no girls watching at all. Then it was fine.

Theoretically speaking, under normal circumstances, Liz and the others should be able to encounter the patrolling city guards very quickly. At the very least, they should be able to encounter pedestrians.

However, that was under normal circumstances.

The current Fire Code City was clearly in an "abnormal" situation.

Due to the sudden explosion in the outer Urban area and the raging fire, not only did the city guards move away in large numbers, but even those who had nothing to do in the inner city at night and came out for a stroll had long been scared back home.

Therefore, even though Lissy had tried her best to change her route, they were still unable to find anyone who could help them.

Fortunately, however.

The maid, Elina, couldn't help but secretly glance behind them.

Whoosh!

She heaved a sigh of relief and patted her chest in fear.

There was no sign of the man from before.

The other party did not follow.

That was great!

Just as the maid was rejoicing in her heart, a familiar scene suddenly played out again.

Liz, who was leading the way in front of Elena, stopped again.

And this is the best way to get back to the game

Elina could clearly feel that not only did the young lady's body tense up, but even her hands that were hidden in her sleeves were so nervous that they curled into fists and trembled slightly.

Could it be...

A bad premonition rose.

No! That was impossible!

They had clearly chosen to walk in the opposite direction from the frivolous man from before, and Irina was very sure that she did not see him following them.

Logically speaking, there should be no reason for the other party to be faster than them, let alone appear in front of them and continue to block their way.

But then, reality mercilessly slapped Elena in the face.

Perhaps this was also why even Liz, the previously calm and composed young lady, was starting to get nervous.

A few minutes ago, the man's voice rang in Elena's ears again.

"Yo!"

"The two ladies, this is... Where are you going now?"

They looked at the man who seemed to have grown wings and appeared in front of them like a ghost.

Liz's expression turned solemn.

Her beautiful eyebrows were tightly knitted together.

Liz's description was not exaggerated at all.

The maid in front of her saw more than the maid behind her, especially when she was already extremely focused.

This young lady was extremely certain.

A second ago, there was no sign of the man in front of her, but in the blink of an eye, the man had appeared out of nowhere. Magic? Martial arts techniques? Or something else?

Liz did not know.

However, she was sure that the other party was definitely not some hooligan who was just here to hit on her.

However, in the next second.

“Come, little girl, give me a smile!

For some reason.

Seeing the usually mighty young lady opposite him looking so nervous in front of him, this line suddenly popped up in Liao Zixuan’s mind.

Alright, she took back what she had said before. The other party might just be someone with extraordinary skills and unfathomable strength... She was just trying to hit on hooligans.

“Cough cough.

He cleared his throat.

In any case, his ego had been completely ruined by that sudden thought of his.

Liao Zixuan stopped pretending.

He announced that from this moment on, it would be temporarily renamed as "I've Taught the Missy of the Evil Servant to Be XXX"

The content of the word 'X', please make up your own imagination according to your own situation.

"Who are you? What's the purpose of stopping" asked in a low voice.

As for Liao Zixuan, the more cautious Liz was, the more he wanted to be even more indecent. He wanted to change the atmosphere and see how the Earl's daughter would react..

Chapter 236: A Perfect Sentence... Sentence... 2

Hence...

"Miss, these words...Isn't that a little too serious?"

"As the saying goes, if fate brings us together, we will meet from thousands of miles away."

Shaking his head, the scholarly air of a scholar came rushing over.

It was a pity.

Liz and Elena were speechless.

They knew every word the man in the way said, but... He just didn't understand!

On the other side.

Liao Zixuan pursed his lips.

Tsk.

Foreign girls were uncultured.

"I mean, since we're so fated to meet in the middle of the night, why don't we... Let's go to my house for a drink? Don't look at me like this, but my house is still quite big.

Liao Zixuan had just finished speaking.

"No, thanks." After rejecting her coldly, Liz turned around and left with Elena.

But this time, Liao Zixuan would not let them leave.

Playing cat and mouse once was fine.

Any more and it would be meaningless.

"No, no, no, ladies, don't be so anxious."

The master and servant only felt their vision blur.

A man's figure blocked their path.

Yes, in front.

Previously, they were just blocking the way and there was a certain distance between the two of them. However, now, they could almost be said to be face to face with each other.

The distance between them was getting closer, and the two of them couldn't see how Liao Zixuan had come over.

His pupils constricted.

Liz hurriedly pulled the servant girl who was already dumbfounded, and the two of them immediately took a few steps back. Their high heels clattered on the street, echoing in the silent night.

"Miss, look, it's dark and there's no one on the street. What if you meet a bad person?"

Liao Zixuan looked concerned.

"Just in time. What a coincidence. My house is nearby. I think it would be safer for the two ladies to stay at my house tonight and go back tomorrow morning.

With Liao Zixuan's reasonable suggestion, Liz was very regretful.

She did not regret coming out to buy clothes for Vivian tonight.

What she really regretted was that she had been so concerned about her status as a young lady that she did not want others to know. Therefore, she did not tell her father or bring any guards. She only let a maid, who might be weaker than her, carry the things with her.

He took a deep breath.

It could be seen that just hiding and running could not escape, so he could only...

Liz's expression suddenly changed.

The solemn expression from before disappeared and was replaced by a smile on this young lady's face.

"Oh, really?"

"How about this, Sir? Since you're so enthusiastic and afraid that we'll encounter bad people, why don't you come...Why don't you come with us?"

"Of course, we won't let you work for nothing. As a reward, when we get home, I'll invite you to our house.

"At that time, you can drink as many glasses as you want with us." Liz turned the tables and looked at Liao Zixuan with a smile, her words extremely seductive.

It could even be said that this young lady borrowed his words and pretended to be full of teasing.

"Sir, although it's not good to say this, our family... It's also quite big."

But in reality.

The earl's manor and the castle.

Using the word 'pretty big' to describe it was indeed very appropriate.

As long as the other party was bewitched and dared to follow them.

She didn't even need to go to the entrance of the manor. Even if she was only close to a certain area of the Sisre family, Liz naturally had the means to get all the guards in the family to save her immediately.

At that time, no matter how capable the other party was, would they be able to compete with an entire ancient aristocrat?

Not to mention, Vivian was still living in the castle!

That was a genuine Type 3 expert. Looking around, there were only a few of them in the entire Fire Law City.

How could Liao Zixuan not understand what Lissy was thinking?

"Tsk tsk, miss, looking at your clothes and the maid behind you, you must be a noble from a rich family, right? How could a person like me dare to go to your noble residence?"

"Eh? Speaking of which, did you just come out of Nina's tailor?" Liao Zixuan's gaze fell on the bag of clothes carried by the maid.

Before Liz could react, the topic suddenly changed.

Liao Zixuan sighed again.

Miss, you look at me. I said we're fated, but you didn't believe me!"

"To be honest, I just came out of Nina's tailor shop not long ago, but miss, guess...Why can't I carry a bag of clothes like you guys?"

After a brief silence.

"It must be. There are no clothes that can satisfy Sir. "

Liz said calmly.

With her little brain, when Liao Zixuan mentioned the words "Nina's Tailoring", she already had a premonition of the cause of the whole matter.

The young lady heaved a sigh of relief.

After all, it was much better than the worst she had expected, such as her father's enemies, the kidnapping of the treasure thieves, and so on.

Thinking about it this way...

Liz suddenly felt that the unfamiliar man who stopped them seemed to be...Pretty good?

She was so good-looking, so she definitely wouldn't be petty with them, right?

"No, no, no, miss. There was a piece of clothing that I really liked in that shop, but who knew that my stomach was uncomfortable? When I went to the bathroom, the boss actually told me that the piece of clothing that I had reserved was snatched away by someone else!"

"Is that so? That's really unfortunate." Liz said in a sympathetic voice.

"I haven't finished speaking, Miss. My clothes were stolen by someone else, so of course I can't let it go. So I asked the boss for the specific information of the other party. Then, the boss told me that the people who stole my clothes were two people together. They were both women, and one of them was even dressed as a maid.

"Miss, have you met him before?"

Nina was cutting clothes, so he could change the boss tomorrow.

After Liz finished her first task for the next day, she nodded at Liao Zixuan. "Sir, now that you mention it, I do have some impression of it. "

"Those two people at that time, I remember...He went that way. Hurry up and chase after him."

As she spoke, the young lady pointed towards the Urban area of the fire code city outside the city, the severely damaged area.

Thank you!

Liao Zixuan felt that as long as he wanted to, Liz could probably play with him until dawn.

He could only say...

As expected of the daughter of a noble family, she was so good at acting. No matter how ridiculous she said, she could remain calm and collected.

"Haha."

"I'm very curious, how did you know Nina tailors clothes?"

The expression on Liao Zixuan's face gradually converged. He no longer used his previous joking tone and asked very seriously.

"I happened to pass by, so I went to take a look.

After Lissy answered, Liao Zixuan did not say anything else but moved.

He approached the master and servant step by step.

Distance was the best way to give pressure. The atmosphere that had eased up a moment ago immediately became tense again.

Finally...

“Don’t, don’t come any closer! It’s all because of me! It was my fault! I was the one who recommended Nina to Miss, and I was the one who told Miss to snatch your clothes from Sir. You...If you want to vent your anger, then take me and let miss go!”

The maid, Elena, rushed out from behind Liz with a bag of clothes in her arms and stood between the young miss and Liao Zixuan.

Even though her legs in black stockings were trembling uncontrollably, she still stood up.

“Elena!”

Liz couldn’t help but blurt out, calling the maid by her real name for the first time.

In Liao Zixuan’s favorite anime, a certain teacher once said that the best way to rebuild interpersonal relationships was to be afraid.

He looked at Elena and Liz, who had unknowingly held hands.

Liao Zixuan was very satisfied with the situation.

Very good!

Just the two of you go and mess with Ji. Don’t harm my Vivian!

After dealing with two potential threats, Liao Zixuan was very satisfied with this trip. He could draw a perfect sentence... A sentence...

What?

The warning of danger caused an image to appear in Liao Zixuan's mind.

That person was wearing the same maid outfit as Ai Lina, and that person was full of killing intent as he approached their current position at high speed.

Heh, the guards of Count Sisre's family?

It came so quickly.

However, this is a good game. Battle maid?

Originally, Liao Zixuan still had the time to complain.

But soon after.

He frowned.

As the other party got closer and closer, Liao Zixuan's perception became more and more precise. He realized that the target of this maid's murderous intent was not him. Instead...

Her?

Chapter 237: The Corner of the Iceberg Behind the Scenes

There was no time to think too much.

Since the other party's attack was aimed at Liz and Elena, it was obvious that the other party had already attacked. Liao Zixuan placed one arm on each side.

Carry him?

No.

Straightforward dogs always chose the most efficient method.

He threw it out.

Therefore, before Liz and Elena could react, they felt their bodies begin to take off uncontrollably and float in the air.

Then, it turned into a parabola and flew out at an extremely fast speed.

Whoosh... Thump! Thump!

After the sound of the air being torn apart, there was the sound of two landing on the ground and the thpr

What happened next was...

The maid screamed in pain.

Their butts came into intimate contact with the ground.

In fact, Elena was exaggerating a little here. She was imagining things. It was like when she was giving an injection, the needle hadn't even been inserted, and the person had already started to scream.

Beside her, compared to the maidservant who had no image at all, as the eldest miss, Liz was also in pain.

This could be seen from her inelegant sitting posture and her tight bite on her lips.

However, Liz was even more aware that with the distance of tens of meters they had flown, if they had really landed on the ground, how could Elena have cried out? Her entire body would have fallen apart and she would have fainted.

It was obvious that there was an invisible force supporting the two of them when they landed.

However, compared to this.

What made Liz suck in a breath of cold air was...

Boom!

Almost in the blink of an eye.

A loud explosion like muffled thunder instantly drowned out the maid's screams of pain.

It scared Elena so much that her entire body quivered.

The pain in his butt seemed to have disappeared.

When the dust settled, the master and servant looked over again.

They saw that a huge hole had been smashed into the ground of the street where the two of them had been just now.

It was not hard to imagine if they had stayed where they were just now.

Elina's face had already turned pale.

Liz didn't dare to imagine that scene. If she had to compare it, it would be like being smashed by a huge hammer.

This was not the end.

When she focused her gaze again, she could not see clearly under the night sky above the inexplicable hole that had been smashed out. She could only vaguely guess that there seemed to be a...

A female silhouette?

This time, it was Elena who noticed more than Liz.

Although it was just a blurry figure, the maid still felt a sense of familiarity in her heart, as if they had met many times.

However, before the maid could search for the source of this familiar feeling, the next second, the thought of this "acquaintance" in Irina's heart was immediately extinguished.

Weng!

It seemed to be the sound of some kind of device being switched on.

Elena swore that this was the most terrifying scene she had ever seen in her life.

That was because...

The female figure with her back to them did not move.

However, the head on his neck began to rotate 180 degrees.

It was aimed at the two of them from an extremely strange angle.

In the darkness, Liz and Elena couldn't see each other's faces. They could only see the two eyes that were flashing with a scarlet light.

"Mistake...Mistakes... Self-cognition disorder...Destruction...Destruction..." It stuttered as if it had malfunctioned. It was a mechanical voice.

The master and servant, who had been thrown far away by him, could not hear him.

However, Liao Zixuan, who was very close to her, could clearly hear the maid... He decided to call her Maid for now. After all, she was dressed exactly the same as Elena.

However, it was obvious that a normal maid would not fall from the sky and smash a big pit. Then, she would turn around from her brain first, then her body.

Seeing that the murderous maid was still walking towards Liz and Elena, Liao Zixuan naturally would not sit idly by.

It was like an eagle carrying a chick.

He reached out and grabbed the maid's collar.

He felt a strong resistance.

The maid finally stopped ignoring Liao Zixuan, who was also present.

She turned her head 180 degrees again. This time, her red eyes were aimed at Liao Zixuan who was holding her. "Detected...unknown... Enemies...Target priority... Transfer..."

"Destruction...Destruction...'

When the last two words escaped her mouth, the maid's body suddenly moved backward.

Rip!

After the tearing sound.

Liao Zixuan looked at the collar of the maid's uniform in his hand.

She had also escaped from his control, but the price she paid was a large tear on the back of her clothes, revealing the maid's white back.

He casually threw away the tattered clothes.

It seemed that at least the maid uniform she was wearing was very ordinary.

He probably wouldn't make her pay, right?

Liao Zixuan did not have time to complain a second time as the maid opposite him rushed towards him.

It looked like an ordinary maid's fist, but in fact, it was quite powerful.

Although Liao Zixuan easily dodged it, the wall of a shop behind him was directly dented by the maid's punch.

Of course, it wasn't just strength, but also speed.

With the help of the dust flying from the wall, the maid hid her figure. A moment after the last attack, she flashed in front of Liao Zixuan.

Moreover, this time, it was no longer a fist, but a more powerful sweeping kick.

Bang!

A heavy and muffled sound..

Chapter 238: The Corner of the Iceberg Behind the Scenes

As the two of them had made too much noise, dust flew everywhere. In addition, it was already dark at night, so Liz and Elena, who were far away, could not see the scene clearly.

They only saw that after the muffled sound ended, one of the figures was sent flying like a cannonball.

The poor shop behind the street had collapsed.

"Big... Big... Young miss..."

Irina's voice trembled, and the maid curled up behind Liz in fear.

She had never seen such a situation before.

The maid's voice pulled Liz back to reality. She realized that the most important thing to do now was not to understand what had happened, but...

Hurry up and run!

Before the battle in the distance ended!

"Let's go!"

Finally, he took a deep look at the distant place where the terrifying sounds of battle were constantly coming from.

The Earl's daughter pulled up her trembling back, and her maid's hand ran towards the manor. The two of them disappeared into the night.

"Target...Leave... Range..."

"Try to chase...Tracking... Judgment failed..." "The reason...The body was damaged...Serious..."

In the ruins of the buildings on the street.

The maid, who was covered in wounds from the fight and collapsed weakly in the pile of broken stones, let out the same mechanical voice as before.

In fact, if Liz and Elena had run a little later, they might have been able to wait until the battle was over.

After all, although the commotion seemed to be very intense, it was actually just thunder and rain.

Liao Zixuan was testing the strength of this unusual "maid". He finally came to the conclusion that this maid's combat strength was about 0.5 Harvey.

That's right, Harvey, who was known as the strongest Knight Commander in Fire Code City, had already become Liao Zixuan's outstanding combat strength measurement unit.

Since the test was over, Liao Zixuan was not just passively beaten.

Soon after.

This scene happened.

The corpse was lying in the ruins. It was difficult to tell what the maid's uniform was anymore.

The maid's bones and limbs were twisted to varying degrees.

Some of them had already deformed to the point where they could not bear the weight. It was obvious how much damage they had suffered. They must have been grabbed by the ankles and thrown around like sandbags.

In front of such a pitiful scene where the maids were miserably defeated and injured.

The man who was the culprit.

At this moment, he didn't have any pity for the fairer sex.

Liao Zixuan even squatted in front of the weak and powerless maid, observing her every move with a curious expression.

To be honest.

From the beginning, Liao Zixuan felt a sense of familiarity.

Unlike the familiarity that Elena had, he was familiar with the mechanical voice of a maid.

Many familiar names related to it immediately appeared in his mind.

Adventurer's Association.

Winter Country.

The receptionist and the owner of the tailor shop had both mentioned it to him...Magic puppet.

Liao Zixuan used the game's detection to scan the maid.

The information he received was...

[Test subject H981]

Do you start with H...?"

Liao Zixuan rubbed his chin. In front of the maid who was still making a mechanical sound, he seemed to be talking to the other party, but also seemed to be talking to himself.

By the way, he already knew that there were three different codes starting with J, H, and K.

"Hmm, this clue can be connected. It seems that behind Count Sisl, it's not as simple as the Fallen Abyss.

“In the end, it was a little strange from the very beginning. How could an Earl be targeted by Fallen Abyss and even infected?” “Then from the looks of it...”

Liao Zixuan pointed at the broken stones beside him.

“Is the Winter Kingdom still behind this?”

From the looks of it, magic puppet technology originated from the Winter Country, and only the Winter Country possessed it.

Liao Zixuan had been looking for the hidden force behind Count Sisre. He did not expect to make a breakthrough through this maid tonight.

“But speaking of which...”

“What exactly are you doing out here? Why would he chase after Liz? No! They should be protecting Liz. After all, Liz was a precious test subject. They would not let anything happen to Liz before the experiment began.

‘ Look at you. It seems like there’s a BUG in your program. You’re in a mess...” “Yes... Did something happen in the middle that caused the abnormality?”

Liao Zi followed the vine and found the melon...No, this was just a fluke. It wasn’t difficult to deduce from the known ending line of Liz.

The only strange thing was...

What exactly did this maid encounter that caused her to become so confused?

Liao Zixuan frowned slightly.

Perhaps this was a weakness of the magic puppet?

In his mind, he played the events related to Liz tonight like a slide show.

This time, Liao Zixuan brought in the perspective of the maid beside him who had been ruined by him.

First of all, from what the maidservants said just now, he could tell that they had a way to detect Liz's location. Therefore, when the young miss sneaked out, he began to follow her in secret to protect her. Next, they should be arriving at Nina's tailor shop.

After that was the scene before him.

After some calculations, Liao Zixuan realized that the maid's mistake could only have happened at Nina's cutting.

However, what kind of magic would there be in that lousy tailor shop...

Liao Zixuan's thoughts came to an abrupt halt. He grasped the connection, but before he could think deeper into it...

The maid beside him kept reporting the error, as if it was finally over.

But then, the mechanical voice from her mouth became...

"Encounter...Unfathomable enemy... Unable to judge...Match... Activate...

Self-destruct...

"Request...You are allowed to pass..."

The two words “self-destruction” that came to his ears directly made Liao Zixuan return to reality from his reasoning.

“What the hell? No! Wait a minute!”

What was scurf?

‘You’re saying no? Wait a minute!’ In reality, he continued to squat at the side with a look of anticipation. He did not stop the other party and just watched as the other party charged up for a big move.

The red glow in the maid’s eyes, which had been extinguished, flickered again. This time, it flickered very quickly.

Immediately arter.

Liao Zixuan’s respect for his opponent and not taking advantage of his opponent’s situation to interrupt the channeling bar had also been rewarded handsomely.

“According to the authority...Search...Low-level...Witch factor...Storage...”

“Damage self-test...Near death...The enemy’s strength...Transcendence and above...The possibility of external help...”

No...In summary, the analysis of the battle situation...Desperation...” “Best Witch Gene...Match...Search completed.

After the maidservant completed the information exchange with a distant place.

“Test subject H981...Witch Gene Sequence Number...K287... Codename...Flame Witch...

Ability...Fiery Fiery Lotus

“Charging factor...Complete...”

“Fiery Blazing Flame Lotus...”

“Activate!”

Liao Zixuan’s expression became more and more serious after hearing the maid’s words,

It was also the first time he felt a sense of danger that came from his body.

Even if it was not very strong.

But...

After all, ever since he entered the “ growth period “, as a forbidden demon, he had never felt this way even when facing the leader of the Snake Clan, Viper.

However, it was on this maid who was beaten to death by him that Liao Zixuan directly revealed his demon body for the first time.

What happened next proved that Liao Zixuan’s judgment was right.

It was as if the fire of a red lotus was spurting out from every part of the maid’s body, including her mouth, eyes, ears, and skin. In just a breath, it condensed into a huge, terrifying, and unstable energy.

They finally converged and turned into a lotus-shaped, blazing white light.

And after a certain critical point.

The maid's body was split into countless pieces, and the lotus flowers exploded. The accumulated fiery red lotus fire exploded.

Boom!

This was definitely not something ordinary Extraordinary powers could do.

This was...

Witch's Power!

Chapter 239: Artificial Witch (1)

A small mushroom cloud rose.

With the maid as the center, the streets of the inner Urban area within a hundred meters were already in a terrible state.

The floor tiles were sent flying, leaving behind a large charred black pit.

The glass of the shop was smashed by the strong airflow, and the debris was all over the ground. The goods displayed in the window were all over the place and shattered.

Not to mention the flames that could be seen everywhere, as well as the high temperature that distorted the air.

However...

This was probably less than half of the aftermath of the Fiery Lotus.

If Liao Zixuan hadn't absorbed more than half of it, the mushroom cloud would have exploded.

That wouldn't be the floor that would be blown up, but the house.

The figure of a gray wolf slowly appeared from the center of the explosion.

Why was it a gray wolf?

Liao Zixuan shook his body and shook off the thick layer of ashes caused by various explosions from his black hair.

Then, Wolf Head looked at the position where the maid was originally.

However, the other party's shadow was nowhere to be seen.

They were the first to be turned into nothingness by the terrifying power of self-destruction.

To be honest.

Even though he had switched back to the body of a demon with extremely high resistance, especially fire resistance, Liao Zixuan could still see that his health bar had decreased by a small amount on the game panel.

About five percent.

This was also why Liao Zixuan could be sure that this was no ordinary

Extraordinary Power the moment he sensed the other party's power.

Don't look down on the fact that it's only 5%

It didn't seem like much, but it was the difference between 0 and 1.

To be able to break through his defense and injure him, especially with his fire attribute domain, which he was most proficient in, it was definitely not much.

Coupled with the maid's mechanical muttering before she self-destructed. The answer was obvious.

The Transcendent of Transcendents, the top of the continent, and also one of the most mysterious professional powers...Witch.

Only a witch could penetrate the armor of a forbidden monster.

Liao Zixuan had been skeptical when the maid had started talking about the witch, but now he believed her.

Hence, a new problem arose.

Who exactly was the other party? How did he do it?

First of all, the maid herself could not be a witch. If she was, then it was not Liao Zixuan who beat her up, but she chased him and trampled him.

That meant that the effect would be similar to his "Arrival Card" and would be in the category of "borrowing."

This was not the end.

What Liao Zixuan was most concerned about was where the maid borrowed it from.

During the day at the Adventurer's Association, through Vivian's platinum membership, Liao Zixuan learned that magic puppets did not have souls. Their will came from a system called the Magic Web.

So, this "web" could provide the data of the "witch" to the puppet and allow the puppet to "load" the witch's ability for a short period of time?

That was what it looked like.

Liao Zixuan suddenly noticed a detail.

He had never noticed it before. It could be said that he had noticed it but had not thought about it deeply.

But now that he thought about it...

It seemed that he had never seen a 'male' magic puppet before.

A white light flashed.

From his demonic form, he transformed back into a more convenient human form.

A box emitting a demonic purple light appeared in Liao Zixuan's palm.

Witch's Seed.

The Thousand -faced Witch Bella left it to him...To be precise, it was reserved for Vivian.

Liao Zixuan read out the description of the Witch's Seed again.

Especially that sentence...

"Countless people have captured, imprisoned, and studied how to control and even mass -produce Demonesses.

At that time, Liao Zixuan had wondered if the system was hinting to the players that there was an organization that specialized in researching the Witch.

Now, it seemed that not only was this true, but...

He was closer to Vivian than he had imagined!

Their organizations were also more mature.

After all, from the maid's words, Liao Zixuan knew that this force had already mastered the terrifying Witch Gene Library.

It could all be described as a " library ". Who knew how many witch ability genes were stored in it.

But...

Could there really be so many witches in the world of Fallen God? And they were all caught by them?

Liao Zixuan shook his head.

It shouldn't be possible.

Demonesses were not to be trifled with. For Demonesses who had grown up, just capturing one was enough to give Bella a headache, let alone a few more. Not to mention, it was not as if there were no organizations among the Demonesses. It was rumored that there was a Demoness Church that was full of Demonesses.

He had been thinking in the wrong direction from the beginning.

Demonesses didn't have to be caught in the wild.

The cost was too high.

It was just like how humans would not organize a large number of people to go into the mountains to catch wild boars in order to eat a large amount of pork. Instead, they would use a smarter and more convenient method as a replacement.

Artificial rearing.

Liao Zixuan finally felt like the clouds had been lifted, and this also solved his most fundamental confusion.

The so-called test system has been upgraded.

Liz, Elena, what exactly are they...

What exactly was being 'experimented' on in the manor of the Earl of Cisel?

Now, the answer to this question was two words.

Witch.

To be precise, she was a man-made witch.

She was a Demoness, but she was not a Demoness. Only by doing so would she not arouse the vigilance of the adult Demonesses and not be discovered and eliminated by the Demoness Church. She could also obtain a large number of Demoness Genes and complete the database..

Chapter 240: Man-Made Devil (2)

“Hurry up! Move faster!”

“Everyone, be on full alert! It was very likely that it was the same group of criminals as the fire in the outer Urban area!” “Surround! Blockade! Don’t even let a fly out!”

Faint tremors came from the ground.

The sound of armor clashing against metal, hurried shouts, and a large number of footsteps could be heard.

Correspondingly, countless moving torches were rapidly moving in his direction.

As expected of the inner Urban area.

It was different from the treatment in the outer Urban area.

Not long after, a large number of city guards had already gathered and were running towards the scene of the incident.

There was no point in staying here any longer.

Before the city guards arrived, Liao Zixuan's figure disappeared into the darkness.

He began his return journey.

Their destination was Count Sisre's Castle.

However, there was a slight deviation from the original plan.

Liao Zixuan originally planned to go back and crawl into the bed that should have been warmed up by the little girl.

But now it seemed that the bed he was going to sleep in could not be Vivian's.

It had to be...

Count Sisre's talent.

Don't misunderstand.

This time, it wasn't him who was hiding under someone else's bed, but Liao Zixuan who was trying to pull someone out of their bed.

Out of respect for Vulcan and Vivian, Liao Zixuan would not resort to violence directly.

This was also the reason why Count Sisre could still jump around.

But Liao Zixuan had a bottom line.

That was to not threaten Vivian's safety.

If it was just the Earl who had been corrupted by Fallen Abyss, Liao Zixuan could still turn a blind eye and play with him.

However, now that he knew that there was an even greater and more imminent threat behind Count Sisre, Liao Zixuan could not sit still anymore. He wanted to use violence to force more information out of the earl.

What if the other party was unwilling to tell him?

Liao Zixuan never worried about this.

Whether or not there was anyone who could withstand the soul interrogation, Liao Zixuan would have to wait and see.

Once he entered the state of 'doing business', he would naturally go all out.

He no longer held back his speed.

Even though Liz and Elena had run home early, Liao Zixuan was hovering above the Earl's castle almost at the same time as them.

Below, the frightened maid and the young miss were immediately surrounded by layers of guards who had been discovered. They were protected and escorted into the castle.

What was worth mentioning was that even so, Elina was still hugging the bag of clothes tightly in her arms. She didn't know if she had forgotten about it or if it was really that important.

Unfortunately, all of this would end tonight. The Earl's soul had been extracted by him, so there was no hope of returning it.

With the fall of the Earl, the ancient noble, Caesar, would probably face a drastic change.

At that time, Liao Zixuan did not know what would happen to Liz and Elena.

He sighed.

He flew to the highest floor of the castle, which was the bedroom of the owner of the manor, Count Sisre.

Perhaps there was no need for violence.

As long as he opened his soul vision, then...

What?

Liao Zixuan suddenly paused.

Soon, he rubbed his eyes.

Then, he closed his soul vision and quickly reopened it.

However...

His Soul Vision gave Liao Zixuan the same result.

It was gray.

There was nothing.

How could this be!

Liao Zixuan frowned.

Because his keen senses from the monster told him that the earl was definitely sleeping soundly in the room at the moment.

But why...But there was nothing in his soul vision?

He wondered if there was something wrong with his ability.

Liao Zixuan tested it on Liz, Elena, and the guards below the door.

Above everyone's head, a transparent little person in the shape of a spirit floated out.

This was the normal Soul Vision.

It seemed like the problem was not on his side.

He retracted his gaze.

Liao Zixuan looked at the Earl's room again.

It was still gray and empty.

A famous detective once said that once you eliminate all the wrong options, the last one is the answer, no matter how impossible it is.

Then, there was only one possibility that would cause the current situation.

Liao Zixuan narrowed his eyes.

Count Sisre was originally...No, it should be said that at least this Earl was...

No soul!

As for the representative of the characteristic of 'soulless'.

The two words that had appeared many times today jumped out of Liao Zixuan's mind again.

"Magic puppet?"

A man wearing a black crow mask asked.

The object of his question was a body that was soaking in a container filled with dark green viscous liquid in front of him.

Upon closer inspection, one would realize that this body was somewhat familiar.

That was because it was the leader of the Snake Clan, Viper, who had been punched in the chest by Liao Zixuan and should have been completely dead.

Of course, it was definitely not his original body.

That one had already turned into ashes in the sea of fire.

Perhaps it was because of this that the raven-masked man subconsciously blurted out the words "magic puppet" when he saw another brand new and identical body.

After all, only a magic puppet could do this.

It was worth mentioning that the man in the crow mask was holding a small container in his arms.

This container was similar to the one that soaked the flesh on the other side. It was filled with the signature dark green liquid of alchemy technology.

However, the difference was that the one in the raven-masked man's hand was not soaked in flesh, but...

The brain.

It was not hard to notice that beside the larger container that contained the body, there was an empty small port.

The size was just right...

The brain container in the crow masked man's arms.

After connecting the brain container with the body container, the two of them were separated.

In an instant, the dark green liquid in the two containers began to flow crazily, and the sound of bubbles continuously sounded in the containers.

This continued for a while.

Shua!

It might be a little scary.

However, in the container, the body that originally had no soul and was just a poisonous snake model opened its eyes in the dark green liquid.

“Phew... Damn crow, I knew that nothing would go wrong if I let you keep the spare brain!

“This time, I, Viper, owe you a life.”

Every time the venomous snake in the container spoke, the bubbles in the liquid in the container would increase.

He quickly shut his mouth and waited for the bubbles to die down a little before speaking again.

His tone was still extremely excited.

“Stupid Crow, listen to me! You must find the identity of the person who attacked the Snake Clan! He will be of great help to my alchemy technology!

“I don’t even care if he kills me. As long as he can cooperate with me, I believe that alchemy technology will definitely leap to a new peak! !

Viper was serious, but after Death Crow added, the corner of his mouth twitched a few times.

“Let me correct you. You might not know if you’re dead, but not only did he kill you, he also took your Snake Tribe... The whole place exploded.”

“No...It didn’t matter! I don’t care about the future of alchemy technology! ” Viper’s face revealed a look of obsession and madness.

He still clearly remembered the last scene before his death. He had clearly used an irreversible potion, but under the other party’s pressure, the mutation factor had left his body and achieved reversibility.

Therefore, Viper deduced that the most effective way to get the mutated gene out of the human body was... Bloodline! He could use the bloodline of the demon to suppress it!

The biggest drawback of alchemy technology was that it could only be used once. The monster genes could not be separated from humans, and they would die after using it. That was why it could not be popularized.

However, what could really make the people at the bottom rise up must be something that could be recycled.

That person could help him!

“Viper, I can tell you about that person. To be precise, I’ve been paying attention to him for a long time.”

“But before that, shouldn’t you explain to me first...’

“Where did you get your current magic puppet?”

As he spoke, the dead crow unknowingly placed his hand on the container that contained the venomous snake’s brain..
