Chapter 251: Guise (1)

“Here, this is for you. After you wear it, you won’t have to worry about your shoes getting worn out when we play!

“Thank you, Brother Guise! Wow... Is this new?”

A group of children gathered in front of a refugee tent.

They all surrounded one of the boys. Each child’s eyes were more or less filled with envy and anticipation.

The reason for this could be seen from the child who received a brand new pair of socks.

His shoes had a few holes. Through the holes, one could see his bare toes from time to time. They were curled up because of the air leakage. There were some blisters on them. It was obvious that the soles of his shoes were about to rot.

The best way was to change into new shoes, but for the refugees in the gathering place, they could not even eat enough. How could they be so extravagant? Therefore, even if they got a pair of thick socks, the children would be extremely happy.

Moreover, the workmanship of the socks was not bad. One look and one could tell that they were brand new socks that had just been bought.

“Hmph, of course. I bought this with the pocket money my mother sent me from the city. Of course it’s new!”

“Really? Ji... Brother Guise’s mother is so powerful!”

Enjoying the admiring gazes, the little boy named "Guise" had a proud expression on his face.

After delivering the socks, Guise did not stop. Instead, he was like Santa Claus...

Here, these are the gloves I bought for you. Here, these are the ball toys you've always wanted. Here, these are..."

He saw Guise constantly taking out all kinds of things from his tent. Although they were not expensive, at least in the eyes of the children, they were considered rare gadgets.

Every child who received a gift from Guise was very happy. Naturally, they also thanked Guise in various ways. They circled around Guise and shouted excitedly.

This made Guise leap to become the center of attention of this group of children.

" Uncle Thorin, this is..."

Vivian was attracted by the children's voices. The sharp-eyed little girl could tell at a glance that the gifts that Guise gave to the other children were all brand new.

Although it was not expensive, it should be difficult for a child, a child from a refugee gathering place, to take it out, right?

"This child is really..." Thorin shook his head.

Even he had some impression of Guise, and the reason was from this morning.

"Early in the morning, when the sky was still slightly bright, someone from Fire Code City came to look for me. It seemed to be a very rich baron and a servant of a large merchant association.”

” This servant told me that the young master of his family, the baron, is looking for a child. I don’t know what he looks like, and I don’t know what his parents know either. I only know that the child’s name is... Guise.”

Because of the baron’s relationship with us, we had no choice but to take it seriously. We put aside what we were doing and hurriedly checked the refugee registration list before helping the other party find this child.

“So he is...” Vivian nodded in understanding.

“Yes, after the servant of the noble chamber of commerce found Guise, he gave this child a large sum of money. To be honest, even I was shocked by the amount!

“There are more than ten of them. Those aren’t copper coins and silver coins, but... Gold coins!”

Sorin sighed as he said this.

This was because if a copper coin was compared to a single coin and a silver coin was compared to ten coins, then a dozen gold coins would be equivalent to a thousand gold coins!

This was definitely a huge sum of money for the refugees who were penniless after the disaster, let alone in the hands of a child.

“That’s why I said that the nobles in the city have never considered, or perhaps, they have never imagined the situation of us refugees. Even if they were to send money, just gold coins, such a large sum of money would be in our children’s hands. Putting the danger aside, in our gathering place, I’m afraid that we can’t spend gold coins even if we want to.

“I really couldn’t stand it anymore, so I helped Guise change a portion of the gold coins into silver and copper coins. I also told him not to spend it recklessly and not to be too ostentatious, but who knew... Sigh, this child is really disobedient.”

Just as Vivian and Suo Lin were talking, the situation with the children suddenly changed.

There were groups among children, and it would be more accurate to say that children paid more attention to these things, such as popularity.

As the king of the children, he was very popular. However, the limelight was suddenly stolen by other children. It was not because of his own ability but because of external money. Naturally, he would be unhappy.

Henry looked at Guise, who was surrounded by the other children by giving gifts, with envy and jealousy.

Guise also noticed that the group of children around Henry was in the form of a man.

No, to be precise, it was the cute little girl beside Henry, Henry’s sister.

“Anna, this is a lollipop I specially bought for you. Try it. It’s very sweet. I heard that even the children in the city eat this!”

Guise handed a colorful round candy wrapped in candy paper to Henry’s sister, the cute little girl named Anna.

“Thank, thank you, Brother Guise!” Anna looked at the beautifully packaged lollipop and gulped a few times. Her big eyes were sparkling at a young age..

Chapter 252: Guise (2)

However, before the girl could take it.

Pa!

Henry angrily slapped the lollipop in Guise's hand to the ground.

'You!'

Guise was about to lose his temper, but Henry, who had been holding it in for a long time, couldn't hold it in anymore after seeing Guise attack his sister. The little boy was a step ahead of him and said angrily,

"You what? Humph! We don't want the things of a bad child who was abandoned by his biological mother!

"Henry! W-what did you say? Say it again! Who has been abandoned!

It was as if he had touched the reverse scale of something like Guise, and his eyes turned red with anxiety.

However, Henry did not back down. He even raised his voice a little so that all the children around him could hear it.

"Am I wrong? Guise, I heard what that noble servant said in the morning. Your mother got together with a noble after entering the city and didn't want you anymore. She only felt that you were pitiful and couldn't survive alone, so she asked someone to send you so much money!

"You, you are talking nonsense! Bullshit, my mother didn't abandon me. She, she was just working for a noble and couldn't leave!

Guise's eyes were red and he was about to cry.

Henry hesitated for a moment, probably because he felt that he had done too much.

However, this was often the case. The arrow had to be fired when it was on the bow, especially for children. Then, one wrong step would lead to more mistakes.

“Don’t joke around, Guise. You know very well in your heart that even in the city, there’s no one who can earn so much for just one day. They can even send servants out of the city to send you money!”

“Besides, your mother didn’t even write you a letter or send you a message.

Don’t you understand what this means?”

“You, mother, want, you, no more!” The more Henry spoke, the more excited he became. In the end, he shouted word by word in Guise’s ear.

The group of children with Henry as the center immediately echoed and laughed at Guise. They were restrained by Henry and were not allowed to accept Guise’s gifts. Naturally, they were happy to see their side gain power.

As for the group of children who had received Guise’s gifts, they did not follow suit, but they felt a little embarrassed under the crowd effect. They quickly spread out around Guise and ran far away with their gifts.

“You guys, you guys!”

Unable to hold it in any longer, the thin and weak little boy cried, his tears swirling in Guise’s eyes.

It wasn’t that Guise hadn’t thought about what Henry had said, but he just didn’t want to believe it. However, this time, it was said in public and opened up a scar. This was too heavy for a little boy who was only a few years old.

Looking at Guise crying, Henry felt regret.

In fact, he had been friends with Guise since they were young. He also knew that Guise's father had died in the Dark Wave a few days ago, leaving only the mother and son to rely on each other.

And now, if even Guise's mother abandoned Guise, then...

Henry didn't dare to think further.

"Enough!"

The little boy roared in frustration.

The group of children who were originally mocking Guise with Henry as the center were all shocked and shut their mouths one by one. It could be seen that Henry's child king still had some prestige.

They looked at Henry in confusion, not understanding what he meant.

"Let's go."

After saying this, Henry wanted to pull his sister Anna away.

But who knew that Anna would also fiercely open her brother's hand just like Henry had opened Guise's hand at that time.

Anna looked at the crying Guise and wanted to go over several times, but the child was still too shy. In the end, she did not dare to do so in front of everyone. She could only turn around and run away alone to express her anger towards her brother.

Henry did not dare to let his sister run around the refugee gathering place and quickly chased after her. When the other children saw this, they looked at each other and left Guise's side, chasing after Henry's back.

In the end, the noisy tent suddenly became much quieter and empty, leaving only Guise alone.

This might be the reason why Guise ignored Sorin's advice and took out money to buy gifts.

He was afraid of being alone and wanted to use gifts to let his friends surround him and let Guise know that he was not alone in this world.

But in the end...

"Woo... Wuuuu... Mother... Mother..." The little boy was still alone.

"Sigh..."

Thorin did not know how many times he had sighed.

"Guise is already considered lucky. At the very least, he has obtained a sum of wealth that is enough to live a good life."

"Vivian, do you know that there are many people like Guise's mother? Everyone is thinking of various ways to leave this refugee gathering place and run to Fire Code City.

"There was a group of people who might have succeeded, but the vast majority of them disappeared without a trace. There were also many human traffickers from the underground gangs who claimed that they could enter the city to find a job, but in reality..."

Thorin clenched his fists.

“Uncle Thorin, w-what are you doing?”

Vivian quickly held him up and stopped him. “Uncle Thorin, do you believe me?”

“I do.”

“Since you believe me, then Uncle Sorin, you can rest assured and leave this place and everyone here to me. Looking into Thorin’s haggard eyes.

Vivian said seriously.

“I will definitely give everyone... A home full of the stars!

Behind them, the maid Elina had a complicated expression. It was the first time she had seen Vivian with such a serious expression.

And the wolf cub in Elena’s arms.

It wasn’t the first time he saw the little girl’s expression.

But he remembered that the last time Vivian acted like this was when...

Witch’s declaration?

At that time, the deacon of the Fire God Sect wanted to threaten the little girl with Vivian’s village.

At that time, Vivian was not as powerful and prestigious as she was now.

It seemed that no matter how much Vivian changed, the only thing that would not change was the little girl’s purity and kindness, and... Just as the second personality had said, a brave heart.

Speaking of which...

The barons and nobles who gave money...

Also, the name 'Gith' was not too familiar... No, it should be said that he looked familiar?

"Uncle Thorin, let's not talk for now. I, I have to leave first!

Before Thorin could react, Vivian called out to the maid behind her.

"Xiao Hei!"

Alina felt the weight in her arms lighten, and then the wolf cub disappeared.

Vivian led the confused maid in the direction where Henry and his children had left.

The little wolf cubs are all in control.

Guise had also disappeared. The little boy wiped his tears and ran in the direction of Fire Code City with a determined expression.

Sorin and Vivian were not the only ones who were secretly attracted by the noise.

There were three or four hooligans who didn't look like good people. After seeing Guise run away, they quietly followed behind the little boy..

Chapter 253: Let Me See Which Blind Bastard Is It?_I

“Impossible, wuwu...Mommy, how could Mommy...Abandoning me, no matter what...

All ,” all all all all

“Henry is lying, Mom...Mom won’t abandon me. I-I want to go to the city to look for her...’

She wiped her red and swollen eyes with one hand and held the lollipop that she had prepared for Anna with the other.

Although the candy was slapped onto the ground and the originally beautifully packaged candy paper had many stains, the candy inside was still clean.

However, it was so expensive. Even if it was not clean, Guise could not bear to throw it away.

He peeled off the candy wrapper and licked the candy. The sweetness from the tip of his tongue seemed to be the only source of comfort for Guise and ease the pain in his heart.

“Hey, kids, don’t run around!”

“Hey, don’t sound so scary. You make it sound like we’re bad people.

“Eh, aren’t we?”

After Guise left the central area of the gathering place, which was still relatively safe.

When the little boy passed by a place with few people, the few hooligans who had been following behind Gues saw that the time was right. They exchanged glances and immediately surrounded him from all directions.

In the blink of an eye, before Guise could react, the little boy's front, back, left, and right were all blocked by three or four young men with unfriendly expressions.

The leader of the group walked up to Guise and looked down at the trembling little boy.

"Little kid, where are you going?"

He had to describe the young man's expression when he said this.

You can say, you can say, you can say, you can say, you can say, you can say. "I-I want to go to the city. I... I'm going to the city to look for my mother!" The usual Guise would have been scared silly, but he was different now.

The little boy mustered his courage and shouted.

However, what he received in return was a burst of ridicule from the surrounding people.

"Haha, did you hear that? This little guy wants to go to the Fire Code City?"

"Child, wake up. Do you think refugees like us can enter the city?"

"Little friend, this city...I don't want to enter!"

The baddie young man in the lead waved his finger at Guise, but soon his tone changed and he let out a strange laugh.

"How about this, I heard that your mother has sent you a large sum of money from the city. Give this money to me, and I will bring you to Fire Code City.

"No, no, no. No!"

Although Guise was still a child, he was not a fool. He kept shaking his head in fear. Then, he subconsciously used his hand to protect a certain part of his chest.

“Tsk, little friend, it seems that you’re quite smart and not easy to fool. But next time, you have to remember not to do anything unnecessary.”

After the bad guy said that, Guise reacted and quickly wanted to put down his hand that was protecting his chest, but it was already too late.

“Since you’ve been carrying the money with you all this time, it’s even easier!

Keke!” He let out a classic baddie laugh.

This guy, who Liao Zixuan had named “ Scoundrel Youth,” began to approach the little boy step by step.

“No! Don’t come over! L-let me go. Come back, I... I want to call the adults a ‘go’!

There was nowhere to retreat.

The bad guy’s men were everywhere.

It was as if victory was in his grasp.

It was like looking at a lamb in a sheep pen waiting to be slaughtered.

The badass youth laughed out loud.

“Scream, scream, hahaha, no one will come to save you even if you scream until your throat breaks!

He had long wanted to say this baddie line, and he finally had the chance today!

The badass youth thought to himself.

According to Boss Ke's script, the next step should be...

"What if someone really comes?"

A voice suddenly sounded from behind the baddie youth.

The young man didn't react at first and thought that they were teammates.

Be serious, we're doing business. Don't add lines! Be careful not to jinx your elders..."

Halfway through her sentence, she realized why this voice sounded so unfamiliar.

The baddie youth suddenly turned around and almost gave him a heart attack.

He didn't know when, but there was no sound of footsteps. An unfamiliar young man stood behind him.

The bad guy's other teammates also seemed to come back to their senses.

All of them widened their eyes and stared at Liao Zixuan, who seemed to have appeared out of thin air. They were filled with confusion and confusion.

The first person to make a sound was...

"Big brother! They, they are all bad people. They want to steal my money. Save me, big brother!"

Guise, who was blocked by the bad guy, shouted at Liao Zixuan.

It didn't matter if Liao Zixuan was a good person or not. It was also possible that he judged good from bad by his looks. Children were best at this.

At the very least, the moment Guise saw Liao Zixuan transform, the little boy started running.

While the hooligans were still in shock, she slipped through the gap and ran behind Liao Zixuan. Her small hand gripped the corner of Liao Zixuan's shirt tightly.

Oh no!

When the scoundrel saw this, his expression immediately changed and he became a little anxious.

Because this silly child, even if he were to cry for help, he should not say that he was rich!

That amount could almost turn any good person into a bad person!

No wonder when Boss Ke found out about this, not only did he ask us to take good care of this child, he even arranged a script to scare this little brat so that he would be more careful and teach him a lesson!

Everything was going well, but who would have thought that someone would suddenly appear? This was very awkward!

Chapter 254: Let Me See Which Blind Bastard Is It? 2

Fortunately, they had the absolute advantage in numbers.

That's right, I have the advantage!

Five packs for one.

Could it be that he would be killed?

She was looking down on him, Little Seven! Isn't it just adding another scene? It's a small matter!

"Humph! I advise you to mind your own business! "The bad guy youth, no, it should be Little Seven, frowned at Liao Zixuan in a threatening tone.

"Then what if I want to interfere?"

"Then I can only teach you a lesson! I'll let you know who's the boss in the refugee gathering place!

"Go!" Little Seven originally wanted to go alone, but his instincts told him that the unfamiliar young man in front of him exuded a demonic aura, so to be on the safe side, the five of them went together.

However, this seemed like bullying.

After all, they were all trusted subordinates of Boss Chris. Each of them had learned some of Boss's skills. Just one person could defeat three or four ordinary hooligans.

Therefore, Little Seven gave the other four a look, meaning that they shouldn't be too harsh. It was enough. They were just doing a good deed, and they were just acting. They weren't really bad people.

The four gangsters also replied with a 'don't worry, I'll be gentler' look...

A paragraph.

He couldn't even write a few words to describe it. The battle that wasn't interesting ended in a few seconds.

As a result.

Naturally, there was no doubt about it.

Five packs of one and then a team wipe.

With the 'bad guy' Little Seven leading the way, the five of them clutched their joints and fell to the ground, wailing in pain.

"You, if you have the guts, don't go! Wait here, I'll go call our boss!" He got up unsteadily.

Little Seven and the gang of thugs with bruised noses and swollen faces supported each other as they shouted and shouted at the same time. They limped and ran away quickly.

After running to the corner, Little Seven seemed to be still worried. It was as if the roles were reversed. He was afraid that Liao Zixuan was a bad person and wanted to abduct Guise. He shouted and repeated himself.

"Say it again. If you're a man, then don't leave! Aren't you very powerful? We'll be back to settle the score with you soon! Don't go!"

His sorry figure disappeared around the corner.

After chasing away a group of hooligans with a strange style, only Liao Zixuan and Guise were left.

"Big... Big brother, thank you,"

"You're so good! How can one person fight so many!"

“If only I could be like you, brother... It’s good that she’s so powerful. Mom, Mom won’t reject...Wuuuu... You don’t want me anymore...”

As the little boy spoke, he started crying again.

“Your name is Guise, right?”

Liao Zixuan squatted down and looked at the heartbroken little boy.

“Big brother, sob sob...You, woo... How did you know?”

“Because I know your mother. She didn’t abandon you like you said.

What the hell!

Guise’s crying stopped in an instant. His red and swollen eyes were wide open.

Before he could say anything excitedly.

Life was like a roller coaster.

The hope that you think of might just be the prelude to falling into the abyss.

“Because your mother, she...”

“Dead.”

Die... Dead?

Bang!

Although the little boy did not have much strength, Guise still used all his strength to push Liao Zixuan away.

Of course, the final result was that Guise fell down because of the reaction force.

“You liar! Wuuuu... You, you are a bad person, just like them. You lie, lie!

“Before your mother left, you secretly put a card that you drew yourself into her purse. Am I right, Guise?”

“I remember the picture on the card. It was a little girl wearing a cloak and holding a sickle. At the bottom, you wrote to your mother that everything would be fine.

Liao Zixuan said calmly. In his mind, he recalled the refugee test subjects that were kidnapped and tricked into the hidden alchemy laboratory of the poisonous snake.

The reason why he knew Guise and knew so much, and why there were so-called barons and nobles who came to give Guise money, was all because of this.

After all, Liao Zixuan had personally instructed Teddy to do this.

It seemed that Teddy had given the little boy a lot more because Liao Zixuan remembered that there were indeed more than a dozen coins in Guise’s mother’s purse, but they were not gold coins but copper coins.

On the other hand, it seemed that Liao Zixuan had to find an opportunity to have a “ heart-to-heart talk ” with Teddy. He had to educate him that “ money ” was not enough for everything.

This was a topic for later, so he put it aside for now.

After hearing Liao Zixuan's words, Guise shook his head crazily.

He did not want to believe it.

However, he had to believe it.

Because every detail that Liao Zixuan said was exactly the same. Clearly, these secrets should only be known to him and his mother.

"I wanted to lie to you at first, but after thinking about it, I still felt that it would be better to tell you the truth. Because no matter how good the paper is, it will never be able to hide the truth."

"If you insist on not believing me, fine. "

"Just run away and continue to search for your non-existent mother. I won't stop you. "

"But you can also choose to let me finish, because the benefit of doing so is that at the very least, you can know how your mother died.. "

Chapter 255: Let Me See Which Blind Bastard Is It?_3

After Liao Zixuan finished speaking, he waited for a while.

"If you don't say anything or leave, I'll tacitly agree that you choose the latter.

"I don't know if you noticed the fire in the outer Urban area last night. That kind of fire should be able to be seen even from outside the city...Yes, your mother died in this fire."

“For you, she went to work in an illegal underground factory. In the end, because of the illegal construction, the factory exploded and was engulfed in flames. Your mother could have escaped, but in order to save others, she sacrificed herself in the end.

After Liao Zixuan finished speaking, he was about to stand up, but at this time, Guise grabbed the corner of his shirt.

The little boy raised his head, tears streaking across his tender face. In a trembling voice, he asked,

“Mom, Mom, she... Was she a hero? She...Did you save her?”

He nodded.

Liao Zixuan touched Guise’s head.

“I saved them. I saved a lot of them.”

“The money pouch hidden in your clothes is the best proof. It’s not that your mother became a noble’s lover, but that all the people who were saved were grateful for your mother’s sacrifice.

After hearing Liao Zixuan’s words, the little boy’s tears flowed even more. He tightly clutched his chest and the money bag.

But this time, it was not because of the money inside, but because it was proof of his mother’s existence, something he would never forget in his life...

“What do you plan to do next, Guise?”

“1...”

“I want to go to the city!”

The little boy resolutely raised his crying face and added his last sentence.

‘ I want to join the city guards, I want to be a name.’ Enforcer!’

“I want to arrest all the bad guys who break the law! I, I...”

The cause of her mother’s death was a prohibited factory.

If there were no such lawbreakers in this world, the tragedy would not have happened again.

“Is that so? But I’m afraid you can’t do it now. You’re still too young to even deal with a few hooligans.”

“Big brother, I-I can follow...You?”

Since he had defeated the bad guy who was scheming for the last inheritance his mother left him, and since he was his mother’s friend, Liao Zixuan was almost the only person he could rely on and trust in Guise’s heart.

However, when he saw the little boy’s begging gaze.

Liao Zixuan shook his head.

Guise’s eyes immediately dimmed.

Her father was gone, her mother was gone, and even this big brother was unwilling to take her in. Then he...He

A wave of despairing coldness enveloped the little boy.

But it was still the same sentence.

Life was like a roller coaster.

When you are at the bottom of the valley, have you ever thought that it is just an hourglass? The deeper you fall, the higher you stand when you turn over.

“The nerson vou want to follow isn’t me.’

“Instead...”

“Him.”

As he spoke, Liao Zixuan pointed in the direction where the hooligans had fled.

And when Guise followed Liao Zixuan’s finger and looked over.

The little boy was shocked.

Because that was a large group of people from Wuyang.

The few bad guys who had been chased away by Big Brother had really come back with arrogant expressions.

As for their confidence...

“Come, let me see which blind bastard dares to behave atrociously in my territory? Don’t you know that I’ve been taking care of this refugee gathering place since yesterday?”

Chapter 256: Misunderstanding, Definitely a Misunderstanding!_I

A few minutes ago.

When Chris saw his best brothers, Little Seven and the others, beaten into pig heads, he didn't care what the reason was and immediately flew into a rage.

Putting aside everything at hand, he brought his brothers along and started to take care of things. Chris immediately went to help Little Seven regain his dignity.

While they were rushing, they found time to listen to Little Seven's crying face and understand the source of the matter.

Guise.

It's that little brat.

Chris quickly recalled. He had a fresh memory of this child.

Protecting the refugee gathering place was not just a slogan or empty talk. Chris had to deal with all kinds of troublesome matters, including the child whose mother had been abducted by the nobles and was only carrying a sky-high maintenance fee.

Yes, at least in Chris's eyes, judging from the thinking of a local gangster, it was because Guise's mother was favored by the nobles and was especially favored by them that she was willing to give Guise so much money.

As for the worst...

Chris had seen many examples of nobles pretending to feel guilty after playing with someone and giving a large sum of money to the other party's relatives as compensation.

By the way, the so-called "considerable amount" of money was only for the lower-class people, but for the nobles, it might just be the cost of buying a few clothes.

It could be said that Chris's mind was dark and he always thought of the worst. However, this was precisely one of the factors that allowed him to make a name for himself.

But of course, many other local gangsters might also have this element, but why Chris could become the future Underground Emperor and one of the main characters of the game version 1.0 was because he had another rare element.

When a small fry learned that a stupid little brat had a windfall, he would rob him without saying anything and then be beaten by the protagonist of justice.

The elite gangsters would use trickery to get the money and then be defeated by the protagonist of justice.

As for Chris, he would send people to protect the other party. Moreover, he was worried for a while and arranged a script to educate the other party in the way of gangsters. Not only did he have to teach the fish, but he also had to teach the fish.

Then, by the protagonist of justice...

"Long time no see, Chris."

"Who hasn't been with you for a long time..."

Chris had not even finished showing his expression of wanting to get close to him when he felt that the other party's voice was a little familiar.

He rubbed his eyes again and took a closer look.

Hiss!

Little Seven, who was staring at Liao Zixuan arrogantly, suddenly felt the "tiger" beside him gasp.

What was going on?

Puzzled, Little Seven turned her head to look at their boss. Then, Little Seven saw the sudden change in Chris's face, a flattering smile.

Little Seven remembered that Boss had shown this expression before.

However, the target at that time was...Big Sister, Vivian.

Did Boss fall in love with someone else?

This was the first thought that came through Little Seven's mind.

But soon after.

That's not right. It's a man.

After that.

No, it's not impossible for a man, right?

In the end...

Wait, if the other party knew Boss, then... Was he going to be unlucky?

"Aiya, Teacher Bai! Why are you here?"

Chris slapped his thigh.

He passionately wanted to get close to Liao Zixuan.

The tables had turned.

This time, it was Liao Zixuan's turn to reveal an expression that said, "Don't even think about getting close to me." Then, with an expression of fear towards Chris, Geese took half a small step back.

He cleared his throat.

Liao Zixuan said.

"When I happened to pass by this place, I found a group of people trying to rob a child.

"After saving this child, the robbers said that they would bring their boss here to look for trouble.

"That's why I'm here, waiting for their boss."

After explaining why he was here.

Liao Zixuan smiled at the young man who was already sweating profusely, and asked a question of his soul. "As for you, Chris."

"Why are you here?"

"This, this..."

Chris rubbed his small hands together.

He turned around and glanced at the large group of brothers who had yet to react to the situation behind him.

“Put them down, put them down. What are you all doing? You all look like you want to fight and kill! Can’t you see that my teacher is here?”

Chris reprimanded him loudly.

It was worth mentioning that Liao Zixuan noticed that there were several players among Chris ‘brothers. He could even see a familiar ID.

As expected.

The results were already beginning to show.

How could Chris be able to get through the treasure thieves and obtain the precious inheritance in the future? It was because he was one step ahead of others and had come into contact with the strongest cheat known as the ‘

Fourth Calamity ‘

Back to the main topic.

Turning around, Chris rubbed the back of his head awkwardly and said with a smile, ”

“Misunderstanding! Teacher, you must listen to my explanation. This is all a misunderstanding!

“Misunderstanding?”

In fact, halfway through saving Guise, Liao Zixuan had felt that something was wrong. It was mainly because the style of these hooligans was too strange..

Chapter 257: Misunderstanding, Definitely a Misunderstanding!_2

Now that he saw that the boss the other party had found was actually Chris, Liao Zixuan knew that his feeling was right.

It seemed that the plot of the main character that he thought was old-fashioned was actually a little new?

On the other side.

“Misunderstanding, it’s definitely a misunderstanding. Teacher, let me tell you, this misunderstanding is huge!

Chris quickly told Liao Zixuan about the whole thing, as well as his idea of teaching Yu Yu.

Chris kicked Little Seven who was beside him.

Little Seven immediately braced herself and went forward.

He used his bruised and swollen face from Liao Zixuan to complain,

Bai, Boss Bai, we really didn’t lie to you. At that time, we just wanted to pretend to be bad guys to scare this child so that he would learn a lesson and be more careful! He was originally acting well and was at the critical moment, but who would have thought that you, you would suddenly appear... Ah! Boss, you still hit me! Wuuuu...

Little Seven's butt was kicked again.

Ignoring Little Seven's resentful gaze, Chris snatched the microphone over. "Anyway, Teacher, this is the situation. It's absolutely true!"

"Although Little Seven is clumsy, Teacher, if it weren't for Little Seven and the others protecting and following him, to be honest, with that silly child, how could he have kept that money until now?"

Chris didn't forget to explain to Liao Zixuan for his brother. He didn't exaggerate at all.

He still remembered that Guise had bought a lot of gifts. He had spent so much money that it was all thanks to Little Seven secretly chasing away the real robbers who were plotting against him. Only then did Guise have the chance to take the gifts home and give them to his friends.

"Alright, actually, I've already noticed something. "Liao Zixuan waved his hand. "As expected of a teacher! I knew it. How could I hide anything from you! "

Chris found an opportunity to suck up to him.

"Don't call me teacher. I don't remember ever promising you, or...You completed my mission and defeated Damir?"

After Liao Zixuan's words, Chris felt extremely bitter.

Why?

This mission was too difficult!

Ever since he found out who Damir was, Chris had been in despair. One was the number one genius Mage in Fire Code City, and the other was just a local gangster. How could he fight against him? He probably wouldn't even have the chance to touch the corner of her clothes.

“How about this, I’ll give you a new mission. “Liao Zixuan shook his head when he saw Chris’s bitter face.

“New mission? Teacher Bai, just say it!”

Chris’s eyes lit up, and the fire of hope ignited. He could not think of any mission that was more difficult than defeating that freak in a one-on-one fight.

“You, adopt this child and let him follow you. How about that?”

Liao Zixuan helped Guise, who was hiding behind him and looking at Chris and the rest of the hooligans with fear, to the front.

“This...” Chris hesitated.

He doesn’t understand too much.

But soon, Liao Zixuan’s next sentence answered Chris’s doubts.

“This child has no parents.” There was silence for a while.

As expected?

Chris sighed in his heart.

“No problem. Leave it to me, teacher. ”

If this was the new mission, it would be too easy, right?

Chris was right.

“This is just the first one. I can imagine that as long as the reconstruction after the disaster is not completed, there will be more children like him. Chris, I want you to do your best to take them in. Can you do that?”

“Of course, I won’t let you work hard for nothing.

“In return, I’ll pay you in advance this time.”

Liao Zixuan glanced at the two girls who appeared from afar. He had to get away quickly and go yo-yo.

Everyone only felt that after the flower in front of their eyes, Liao Zixuan’s figure disappeared.

Only Chris was still listening to Liao Zixuan’s message.

And...

It was a crystal clear card made of some unknown precious material.

“If one day you encounter something that will determine your life or death or a major event in the future, just tear the card and luck will come to you.”

Luck will... Descending on me?

Chris repeated Liao Zixuan’s words.

He looked down at the pattern on the card.

A village girl was throwing dice.

He didn't care.

Although he still didn't quite understand what it meant, Chris still had an excited expression on his face. Since it was something given by Lord Bai, it was definitely a huge treasure!

He stuffed the card into the innermost part of his shirt and hid it.

Chris crouched down and looked at Guise, who was alone and trembling after Liao Zixuan left.

"Guise, from now on, you will be following me. Let me introduce myself. My name is Chris. Although my reputation may not be great now, my goal is to become the underground boss of the entire Fire Code City.

"What about you, Guise? What's your goal?"

Since he was the child that Teacher Bai had specially instructed, he must treat him well and nurture him seriously!

The first step was to ask Guise about his future plans.

Chris had already made up his mind. No matter what the other party wanted to become, he would do his best to support him.

Until...

"I, I want to become a city guard, a...A law-enforcement officer who punishes evil!" The little boy waved his fists, his face filled with determination.

Chris: '

"Eh? Chris?"

A young girl's voice broke the silence.

This was...

Chris's eyelids twitched. The fawning smile that had just disappeared appeared on his face almost subconsciously.

"Vivian!"

"You, why are you here?"

A familiar expression, a familiar conversation.

What day is it today?

Chris shouted in his heart.

But just as he was about to talk to the little girl, Vivian's attention shifted from Chris to Guise, who was beside him.

Come, go, go, go, go.

"Do you remember what I told you? Don't let yourself regret it for the rest of your life just because you're embarrassed.

Vivian also squatted down.

Then, two children appeared behind the little girl.

“Heng...Henry, Anna?”

Guise cried out in surprise.

Under Vivian’s guidance, Henry’s little head drooped as if he had done something wrong. He walked up to Guise, gritted his teeth, clenched his fists, and raised his head.

“S-sorry! Guise! I-I shouldn’t have said that about your mother. I-I was wrong. Please forgive me.

In the end, Guise, who had just calmed down a little, was brought up by Henry again. The little boy’s tears could not help but fall again.

“Woo... Wuuuu...!”

But Henry didn’t know that. When he saw the crying Guise, he panicked again. He thought that Guise wasn’t willing to forgive him. He stood there in a daze, not knowing how to apologize again.

Fortunately, the smart Vivian had also brought Henry’s sister, Anna, over.

After she glared at her dumb brother who couldn’t speak, the little girl hugged the crying Guise and placed his head on her chest. She stroked Guise’s head and comforted him,

“Brother Guise, it’s okay.”

“We’re still here. I’ll always be with you!”

“This...

Chris, who was confused, looked at the scene between the three children. He was about to say something when the little girl stopped him with a look and gestured with her finger to shush him.

He left some space for these children.

The adults quietly moved to the side.

Why did Vivian only let Little Black deal with it after she noticed that someone was following Guise, while she went to the other side separately? The purpose was for Henry.

If not for Vivian's efforts, perhaps the two friends would have broken up forever in the future, just because of a moment of bluster.

To be honest, this was a detail that Liao Zixuan didn't even consider.

"Chris, I didn't expect to meet you here. What a coincidence."

After greeting the people he knew.

Chris's depressed expression turned to Vivian's attention, and he shifted his attention away from him. This time, he looked around as if he was looking for something.

"Strange..."

"I'm sorry, Chris, you.... Have you seen my Little Black?"

Chapter 258: Lady Vivian, Attack!_

Blackie?

Before Chris could react, he heard movement from the ground beside his feet, giving him a fright.

He saw a pitch-black-haired little wolf leisurely strolling past him and then towards the two girls opposite him.

“Yes... If that’s the case, alright...I understand.”

Chris saw Vivian bend down and pick up the little black wolf, and the little girl kept nodding.

It seemed that he could communicate with this little black wolf in a way that ordinary people could not detect.

Soon, Vivian showed an expression of understanding and then turned her gaze back to Chris.

“Thank you, Chris. Little Black told me everything. So... Those behind Gith are all your people, and you’re still willing to take care of him for the time being, huff... I feel much more at ease now.”

What?

When did that little black wolf appear? How did it know so much? Why didn’t he notice it at all?

Chris was a little confused, but his doubts were soon covered by Vivian’s smile. “Don’t, don’t say that to Vivian. If you really want to thank me, I should be the one thanking you. ”

In the past, Chris’s good impression of the little girl mostly came from longing and some kind of emotion.

But now, in this good impression, there was a little more heartfelt gratitude.

“Actually... I was also an orphan since I was young. In order to survive, I constantly struggled to survive. Although I gradually relied on luck and hard work to get to where I am today, at the same time, I realized that I seemed to have forgotten some very important original intentions.

” The reason why I gathered everyone was because everyone was also poor. Only by uniting could I change the current situation. However, slowly, as my power grew, I only thought of myself. I even treated these brothers who followed me and trusted me as a bargaining chip and a stepping stone for the stolen treasure group.

“If it weren’t for Vivian, you told me to leave the city and tell me that even if I had to do it again... It’s not too late to be a good person. I might still lose my way and sink deeper and deeper. Although the conditions outside the city are much more difficult, I feel that I’ve found the feeling I had at the beginning. The feeling that everyone is united and fights against fate together!

Chris was right.

Without Vivian’s influence, in the original plot of the game, Chris had indeed chosen the latter between being a brother and joining the treasure thieves. He had fallen for a long time, until one day, the treasure thieves’ evil claws reached out. Without Chris, his former brother, who he had struggled to support, had irreparable consequences. Chris had completely woken up and awakened.

Perhaps this was the so-called ” drastic change in growth ” that was destined to happen before one became a protagonist.

After Chris said those heartfelt words, he felt ashamed. He said, ” In any case, he will definitely help everyone in the refugee gathering place with Vivian.” Then, he quickly left with his people.

Looking at the back of the hooligan, Liao Zixuan didn’t know if what he did was good or bad for Chris. Sometimes, helping the other party change his path and avoid the original suffering was really a good thing?

Or could it be...

Was it the God of Fire’s phrase, ” Destiny is fixed “?

Just treat it as an experiment.

Liao Zixuan was waiting.

“Let’s go too, Elena. It’s time for...”

“I’m getting ready for tonight.”

The light of teleportation magic rose under Vivian’s feet. Ever since the little girl first entered Fire Code City and learned it from Damir, she was now able to use it flexibly.

This was growth.

Of course, compared to the beginning, Vivian’s growth was far more than that.

There was no spare room in the refugee gathering place for the little girl, so they rented a temporary residence in a place very far away from the outer Urban area.

Some basic daily necessities had been sent over. It was worth noting that there were also some rare items, at least for Vivian.

“Elena, I, I don’t know how to use these. Can you help me?”

In front of the dressing table.

After putting on the dress that Liz had given her, Vivian looked at the “cosmetics” that she had specially borrowed from Liz.

This was the rare item mentioned earlier.

Vivian did not really like these things. As for them, it could be said that she was a little resistant.

Smearing a bunch of messy things on her face would make her look more beautiful and glamorous.

It could also be said that it was more in line with the aesthetics of the upper-class nobles.

“Eh? Vivian, you...” As expected, even Irina was a little surprised to see Vivian using cosmetics.

The little maid clearly remembered that when they first met, she had asked Vivian to try these, but the little girl’s refusal was obvious.

Indeed, there would be a small number of people who hated having things smeared on their faces because it would make them feel disgusted and uncomfortable.

Moreover, the words Vivian and cosmetics did not match at all, right?

” Yes, because I’m going to attend the banquet soon. I want my image...” He wouldn’t embarrass everyone. Vivian said softly after a pause.

She gripped the hem of her new dress tightly. Her palm felt a silky texture that she had never felt before. Although it felt much better than her original linen clothes, if Vivian had to choose, she would definitely choose the latter..

Chapter 259: Lady Vivian, Attack!_2

Because not every ugly duckling wanted to become an eye-catching white swan.

But if becoming a white swan could save a lot of people, then Vivian was willing to try.

“I understand...”

After nodding her head, Elina began to move.

In an instant, seven or eight different kinds of makeup tools with different functions were skillfully taken out by the little maid and walked towards the little girl on the dressing table.

Halfway through, Elina looked at Vivian, who was standing straight as if she was facing a great enemy. The little maid burst out laughing.

“Alright, alright. Don’t look so tense as if you’re going to rape Xing. Relax, Vivian. These are not as scary as you think!”

Perhaps it was to ease the little girl’s nervousness.

It was also possible that the incident at the refugee gathering place had reminded the little maid of him.

While she was dressing up, she started chatting with Vivian.

“Do you know, Vivian? Actually, I can understand those refugees who are willing to do anything to enter Fire Code City.”

It’s even said that it’s like Guise’s mother, thinking that one day, she could curry favor with a certain noble and obtain a sum of money that would allow her to live a carefree life.

“Oh... However, I think I’ve already been exposed the first time we met. “I laughed at myself and laughed at myself.

Elena’s hand that was combing Vivian’s hair paused for a moment.

“You... Do you think that I’m very embarrassing?”

“Why?” To the little maid’s surprise, Vivian asked her a question.

“What...? Why?”

This unexpected reply made Alina stutter.

“Why would I feel embarrassed? “Everyone wants to live a better life. This is what everyone is pursuing and working hard for. It’s just that everyone’s methods are different. As long as you don’t rely on hurting others to achieve your goals, I don’t think it’s embarrassing.

“It’s just that...’

Vivian turned her head and faced the maid who was deliberately combing her hair to avoid looking at her.

“Elena, I think...Just me, I feel like I’m going to the stage. Afraid that she would hurt others, the little girl deliberately emphasized it.

‘ I can rely on others, but I can’t give up on improving myself. At least my dream is that even if I’m not qualified now, one day, I can become...Someone that others can rely on!’

After a period of silence.

“Vivian.”

“Hmm?”

“If only we were of the opposite sex! When that time comes, I’ll definitely seduce you with all sorts of tricks! Let you marry me! Then, we can live a happy life together!”

“Damn it! The cruel reality!” Elina roared into the sky.

“Ah, ah, this...”

Vivian was left blushing.

When Vivian looked in the mirror again, even the little girl herself was shocked.

Looking at the mirror, her facial features were more exquisite. Her lips were rosy and her eyeliner was slightly eyeliner. She looked less natural, but in exchange, she looked more mature and emotional.

Obviously, there was no change in her appearance, but she relied on the details to change. She changed from the original village girl to a beautiful and moving woman, just like a young lady from a certain noble.

Although it was still not at the level of Liz, after all, temperament could not be completely resolved by makeup. It could only be accumulated over the years. But at the very least, she could be said to be a young version of a young lady.

Young in every sense.

“It’s so beautiful, Miss Vivian! Go! Those stinky nobles at the banquet will definitely be shocked by you! Then, they would all submit to you and willingly donate the money for reconstruction!”

Elena nodded in satisfaction.

It was as if he was looking at his own flawless work.

Although the little maid’s words were exaggerated, Liao Zixuan had to admit that the wolf cub lying on the cabinet beside him was really a man made of clothes and a horse made of saddle. He announced that this was Vivian’s new skin, the limited edition of the noble lady.

“Then I’ll go out. Elena, I’ll leave you to look after the house. Little Black, you...” Vivian had wanted to ask the black dog to stay at home and not run around.

However, after thinking about it, he felt that it was unrealistic, so he could only take a step back.

“Xiao Hei, try not to cause too much trouble.

By the way.

Vivian actually wanted to bring the wolf cubs, but Liao Zixuan had already expressed his stance to the little girl in advance. He did not want to attend such a human banquet. It would be very boring, so Vivian naturally would not force him.

She called for a carriage, feeling nervous as if she was a child who had left her parents for the first time and went to school alone. Vivian waved goodbye and disappeared from sight as the carriage set off.

“Come on, Vivian!”

After silently giving her blessings, Elina turned around and was about to ask if it was time for her and Blackie to be alone. However, after searching for a long time, the little maid was disappointed to find that the wolf cubs were nowhere to be found.

Sure enough, after Vivian left, Blackie was no longer bound. No one knew where it had gone to play.

But this was good too.

Elina, who had turned back into a human, walked to her room and took out a carefully guarded diary from the bottom drawer of her desk.

He flipped open the page and found that it was a record of the little maid’s daily life.

The first few pages had very few words, and they were just trivial matters.

However, in the past few days, the number of pages had increased sharply, and the number of words had also filled up a lot.

After thinking for a moment.

Elina picked up a pen and started writing today's diary.

[Oh, a lot of things happened today. It's been very exciting since I woke up this morning! Not only did I see Miss Liz's tsundere side, but she was also super cute. I also saw Miss and Vivian's intimate interaction. No, I should have heard it. Damn it, why did Miss chase me out? I obviously wanted to see it!)

[However, I didn't expect the Miss's summoned beast to be a bat. I think there must be something wrong. Sigh, actually, I also want Vivian to help me see if I can become a summoner, but I'm too embarrassed to say it. Besides, isn't it strange that a maid has magic power? Sigh, I really want to know. If I also have a Summoned Beast, what would it be?)

[After seeing the situation of the refugees outside the city, I realized how difficult Vivian's decision was. It's too difficult to help these people, right? If it were me, I wouldn't have the courage to do so. So, should I say that she was indeed Vivian?)

[Guise is really pitiful. I wonder how her mother is doing. Actually, I didn't dare to tell Vivian. When I saw this scene, I thought that the fox would grieve for the rabbit's death. I was wondering if I would have such a day, but fortunately, Vivian's words were really heart-warming! I feel like I've been inspired. Come on, Elina, you have to improve yourself too!)

[I really hope that this kind of life can continue. It's so good to be friends with Vivian. Ah, I've written so much before I knew it. Right, I almost forgot the most important thing.]

Irina stopped writing, pursed her lips, and slowly wrote two words.

[Sister Qing...]

[I will definitely do my best to find out the truth... Definitely!]

Dong dong dong...

Someone knocked on the door.

"Please come in." A voice sounded in the dark room.

"Earl, you, you need me for something?" The maid's voice was tinged with excitement and shyness.

"Eh? Why is it you? According to the name list, it should be Irina's turn, right?" A puzzled voice came from the desk in the shadows.

"Name... Name list?" For some reason, Lina suddenly had a bad feeling after replacing Elina as the new Deputy Head Maid.

"Forget it. It's just a matter of time anyway. In a while, I still have to borrow another body to deal with that silly girl.

"Old... Master, what are you talking about?" Lina's body had unknowingly retreated to the door.

But it was too late.

"I'm saying... Join the glorious evolution!"

The two scarlet lights were particularly dazzling in the dark room. It was also because of this that Lina could see Count Caesar, who was previously shrouded in shadows.

Hence, a second later.

“Strange...Monster...! Ah....

Chapter 260: Count Cecil Is Taking Action

“Master, I’ll take my leave first. “The assistant maid came out of the earl’s room and bowed respectfully.

“Yes, go ahead. If you have any problems, you can report to me or Robert at any time.

The handsome Count Sisre was also standing by the door, replying to the maid with a kind smile.

Everything seemed so harmonious and normal.

Kacha.

He returned to his room and closed the door.

The new test subject was sent away.

The earl sat on the chair and drew a cross on the list of maids on the desk where the word “ Lina ” was written.

Above Lina’s name was Elina, and above that was Sister Qing. Next to Sister Qing’s name was the same symbol as Lina’s.

“None of them succeeded...What?”

The Earl shook his head and put the list away in the drawer. Then, he took out another thick stack of information bags.

He relaxed on the back of the chair and flipped through the pages like a customer in a restaurant choosing the menu for the day.

“Hisith Shea...Matia Dugan...Brazil Ness... Sima Galvan, yes, I’ll choose you!

After taking out the page with the word “ Sima ” on it, the earl read out part of the information on it.

Sima Galvan, female, 21 years old. Her father is a low-level baron, and her mother is a member of the Fox Clan, a treasure thief group. She is the only daughter in the family. She often mingles with underground gangs. Her private life is chaotic, and she is ruthless. It is rumored that she has an improper relationship with many members of the Tiger Clan...’

Hmph, how dirty. The thought of using such a body...”

The Earl frowned, but it was as if he had to take the medicine no matter how bitter it was. In order to achieve his goal...

Pulling open the curtains, he looked out the window at the setting sun and the Fire Code City that was about to welcome the night.

Count Sisre opened the window on the highest floor of his castle.

He opened his arms, took a deep breath, and leaned out of the window. He fell from the castle and disappeared into the darkness.

A few seconds later...

At the same spot on the window of the Earl's room, a small black wolf cub curled its lips in a human-like manner.

Good heavens.

She didn't look like she knew how to pose.

Count Sisre did not have a soul, but that did not stop Liao Zixuan from placing a soul mark on him. After sensing that the count's position was moving rapidly, the wolf cubs rushed to the scene immediately.

As expected, tonight was the first step of the Count's revenge on Vivian. However, it was unclear how he would play tricks.

Curious, the little wolf cubs quickly followed the earl.

Not long after, another noble's mansion appeared in front of Liao Zixuan.

The earl did not choose to enter through the main entrance. Instead, he looked around and chose a stealth position. With his extraordinary physical fitness, he easily avoided all the guards and quietly entered the mansion.

He arrived at a room on the second floor.

Standing outside the door, he could still vaguely hear the voices coming from inside even through the thick wall. A disgusted and disgusted expression appeared on Count Sisre's face.

He turned the doorknob, but the door wasn't locked. The earl pushed the door open and entered.

Every noble lady's room was basically the same. It was spacious and the interior was gorgeous, but the items could be the same. However, people could be very different.

The Earl had not been quiet when he entered the room. He did not intend to conceal his aura, but as the owner of the room, Miss Sima, who was the daughter of a baron, was considered one of the nobles.

This young lady seemed to be indulging in her own bed. Through the light purple silk bed curtain, many figures could be seen.

At the same time, she was also the only female among them.

“I’m sorry to disturb your exercise, but can you lend Miss Sima to me for a while?”

The sudden voice finally made the few people on the bed realize that an outsider had entered the room.

Their movements suddenly stopped.

Sima, who was in high spirits, immediately flew into a rage when he was interrupted.

“Who told you to come in! Get out!” Sima thought that it was a servant.

The Earl sighed.

The room was dimly lit, and the earl walked closer to the bed. It was only then that Sima finally saw the uninvited guest clearly.

“Si... Count Sisre?” Sima, who was lying on the bed, exclaimed. She covered her mouth with a shocked expression.

“You, why are you...”

Sima hurriedly tried to find some clothes to wear. The few male companions on her bed also trembled when they found out that she was an Earl. They looked confused and at a loss.

“There’s no need to go through so much trouble. I’m just greeting you.” “The earl shook his head at Sima.

“What do you mean? Earl, I, I don’t quite understand...”

“Didn’t I say from the beginning that I wanted to borrow you? To be precise, I wanted to borrow your body.

“I... My body?”

Sima was still confused at first, but after that, she seemed to finally understand it with her own thoughts. A charming blush immediately appeared on Sima’s face.

“Although I don’t quite understand, if it’s the Earl, Sima is willing to serve you.

“All of you, get out and don’t disturb us..”
