Chapter 311: One Day, I Will Make All the Birds in the Flame Domain Look Up to Me (Part 2)

“Come, Xinyan, be careful.”

The carriage was not too short, and it was a little strenuous for Xinyan who had short legs. Andy did not get on the carriage first. Instead, he helped the little loli up first before he followed behind.

It was worth mentioning that when he was helping Xinyan, the little boy’s gaze habitually swept across the carriage.

When he looked around and did not find any family emblem on the car, a hint of doubt flashed across Andy’s young face.

However, the little boy did not think too much about it. After all, this was what his sister had told them in her letter. After they left the academy, there would be a carriage arranged to pick them up.

Following behind Xinyan, Andy quickly boarded the carriage and closed the door.

“Little guys, you must be hungry and tired after a day of learning, right? I’ve prepared some pastries in the small drawer of the carriage. Help yourselves, you’re welcome –

As soon as he got into the car, a mature female voice that Andy found pleasant to the ears and a little numb sounded from the driver’s seat in front.

After the female voice said that, before Andy could do anything, the little loli’s eyes immediately lit up when she heard the word “pastry”.

She quickly followed the other party's instructions and opened the small drawer in the front of the carriage. As expected, a small plate of exquisite fruit plates appeared in front of her. It was filled with all kinds of snacks that looked very tempting.

"Thank... Thank you, but we're not that hungry yet..."

Andy didn't forget her sister's advice to not eat outside.

However, before the boy could finish his euphemistic rejection, a pair of tender hands took the lead and grabbed the pastries in the fruit plate. After that, she began to stuff them into her small mouth.

The frontier fortress was still talking happily.

"Oh... Delicious! It's much more delicious than the food made by the aunties in the academy's canteen. Brother Andy, you should try it too!" At the same time as he ate the food, a tiny red glow flashed past Xinyan's body.

The corner of Andy's mouth twitched a few times when he saw the little loli beside him wolfing down the food without a care in the world.

At the same time, a melodious laughter came from the driver's seat in front of the carriage.

"Hehehe...That's right, don't stand on ceremony. After all, your Sister Vivian has paid for all the food in advance.

The voice of the woman driving the carriage rang out.

Andy felt that there was something strange in the other party's words, but he did not know where it was. The little boy could only ask,

"You... Do you know my sister?"

“Of course, your sister and I are old acquaintances. Otherwise, why would she ask me to pick you up?”
“The woman replied without hesitation.

“Then, you’re called...” Andy asked tentatively.

“My name? Let me think about it. You really have me stumped because I haven’t used my real name for a long time. If I have to call you by it...Just call me Seductive Fox like everyone else.”

The woman giggled after she finished speaking, but Andy was not in a good mood.

He felt that the name of his sister’s friend was really strange, but he definitely couldn’t say such things in person, so the little boy didn’t say anything else and looked out of the car window.

Just like that, after a short period of time...

The last ray of light from the setting sun disappeared into the horizon, and the darkness of the night enveloped Fire Code City.

On a carriage that had already driven out of the inner Urban area.

“Xinyan...”

Andy used a mosquito-like voice to call out to the little loli who was sleeping soundly again not long after she finished the entire plate of pastries. “Xinyan...Wake up, something seems to be wrong...”

However, no matter how the anxious little boy called out, this time, the little loli seemed to be sleeping soundly. No matter how he called out, she would not wake up.

Just as Andy was about to secretly poke Xinyan’s head...

“Why? Did something happen?”

Seductive Fox's voice sounded from the driver's seat. This time, although the woman's voice did not change, it had changed from the pleasant voice to a chilly one.

The little boy suppressed the nervousness and panic in his heart.

Andy pretended to be calm and asked,

"Um, Sister Seductive Fox, where are we going? Aren't we going to the Castle of the Earl or the Fire God Sect? Why do I feel like we're going to...Outside the Urban area?"

"Ah, I didn't expect you to know the way so well after just a few days in Fire Code City. "The woman sounded a little surprised.

I've learned a little bit about all kinds of knowledge in the academy..."

"Hehe, that's great. If elder sister was as hardworking as you when she was young, she would not have fallen to such a state today..."

After a short silence, there is a wave.

"So, Sister Seductive Fox, we're going to... Where?" Andy clenched his fists and changed the topic.

"Your sister rented a house in the outer Urban area. "But the house that Sister rented, you clearly already..."

"It's gone."

When the little boy said those last few words, he had already secretly mobilized all the

After Andy said that, the carriage fell into silence again..magic in his body. With one hand on the door handle, he used his other hand to hug the sleeping Xinyan to the side.

Chapter 312: One Day, I Will Make All the Birds in the Flame Domain Look Up to Me (2)

The woman in the driver's seat was also stumped by Andy's question. She never thought that this little girl who was no taller than her waist would know so much.

"Seductive Fox...Sister?" Andy could not help but break the silence and asked the last time.

"Hey, little guy, sometimes it's not good to be too smart. You just need to eat your food and sleep in the car like the little girl beside you. "

After Seductive Fox said that, she heard the sound of someone trying to open the door.

Seeing this, the woman giggled again and said,

"It's useless. The door has long been locked...'

Before Seductive Fox could finish her sentence, she saw a little boy in the back of the carriage. When Andy saw that the door could not be opened, he took a deep breath and chanted a series of magic incantations.

"What?!" Even she, the leader of the fox tribe, could not help but cry out in surprise at this scene.

Even though they knew that Vivian's younger brother seemed to have performed well in the Noble Academy, Seductive Fox never expected that this little brat could actually use the real... Magic?

But it was too late.

Low-level spells did not require much chanting. After a fiery red light flashed...

Bang!

was me most DasiC low-level lire spell, r lame Blast'.

The impact of the flames blasted the tightly locked door of the carriage away. The aftershock caused the carriage to lose control for a moment and began to sway left and right, greatly reducing its speed.

Taking this opportunity...

Jump!

Andy grabbed the "unconscious" little loli who was "poisoned by food". The two of them rolled down from the swaying carriage. During this time, the little boy deliberately let his back land first as a buffer.

Sizzle!

The sound of his clothes being torn apart as they rubbed against the ground could be heard. Even though the speed of the carriage had decreased significantly, the force of inertia still caused quite a few scratches on Andy.

Large amounts of blood could be seen seeping out of the boy's back and arms.

Enduring the burning pain, Andy knew that he could not stop now. This was their best chance to escape. Because he had detected it in time, the carriage had just reached the outer Urban area. As long as they ran a few steps, they would be able to return to the inner city.

According to the route in his memory, although it was nighttime, there should still be quite a number of people on a commercial street.

Andy carried the unconscious Xinyan on his back. The little boy gritted his teeth and cast a Basic Constitution Enhancement spell on himself before running away.

Phew...

Phew...

His breathing became heavier and heavier.

Andy felt as if his feet were filled with lead, and the little loli on his back seemed to be getting heavier and heavier.

The Constitution Strengthening Spell was indeed effective. Otherwise, how could a 12 or 13-year-old boy carry a little loli who was about the same weight as him and run to the commercial street in one breath?

However, this was also the limit of the ability to suppress a person. If one's physical fitness was already very poor, then even if one strengthened it, it would not be much stronger, let alone a low-level strengthening.

After finding a hidden corner at the corner of the street, Andy panted heavily as he placed Xin Yan down. He could not run anymore.

Moreover, why...

"Isn't it strange that there's no one on the commercial street on the map, and several shops are closed for renovation?"

A familiar soft female voice came from the corner of the street, but this time, it only brought a chill to Andy.

“Sister, let me tell you. Coincidentally, just the night before yesterday, an explosion happened here. Although it wasn’t on a large scale, it was very destructive and destroyed several shops. In addition, because the suspect of the accident hasn’t been found yet, almost no one comes here.

Seductive Fox’s figure appeared from the corner of the street. This time, she wasn’t the only one. Many of the other treasure thieves surrounded the two children who were hiding in the corner.

“How about it? Since I’ve explained it to you out of kindness, do me a favor.

Stop struggling and come to me obediently

After Seductive Fox said that, Andy spat on the ground.

Little Boy did not say a word. Even though he was exhausted, he still gritted his teeth and stood up. He shielded Xinyan behind him and faced Seductive Fox and the others alone.

Tsk tsk...

Seductive Fox pursed her lips. She looked at the little boy who was about to use the same trick again and sighed.

“Previously, they insisted that I personally go out and kidnap two little brats. I thought that they were too cautious, but now it seems...No wonder Count Du

“By the way, let me remind you, little guy, don’t waste your energy. I didn’t react in time the first time, but the same move won’t work on me the second time

Seductive Fox looked at the little boy with a half-smile.

However, Andy would not listen to her nonsense. Moreover, magic was the only power he could rely on now.

However...

“For...Why? My magic...” Andy noticed something was wrong when he chanted the spell because he couldn’t sense the magic power in his body.

Hehe, you’re still too much. Don’t think that you’ll be fine if you don’t eat the food in my car. From the moment you stepped into the car and took your first breath, you’ve already been hit.

As Seductive Fox spoke, her subordinates did not stay idle. In a few breaths, they had already approached Andy..

Chapter 313: One Day, I Will Make All the Birds in the Flame Domain Look Up to Me (3)

“Xinyan! Xinyan, wake up!”

Left with no choice, Andy retreated to the little loli’s side and shook Xin Yan’s body vigorously, trying to wake him up.

Why did the little boy do this? This was a reminder from his sister, a reminder that made Andy puzzled.

That is...

Usually, as a boy, you must take good care of Sister Xinyan. But what if, I mean what if...

His sister had told him that if he were to encounter any extremely dangerous situation, Andy thought that his sister would say that boys had to protect girls and could not back down.

However, who would have thought that...

“You must be the first to hide behind your Little Sister Xinyan!

Andy still remembered her sister’s serious face at that time. She did not have the slightest intention of joking.

But now...

“Xinyan!”

Don’t call me that, you useless little fellow. Once you eat my special food, you won’t be able to call me unless you sleep for a day and a night...”

Seductive Fox looked at Andy’s anxious and helpless expression, as if victory was in her grasp. She laughed and mocked.

But who would have thought...

“Oh... Yawning...!”

He stretched his body.

It came from a little loli who seemed to have taken a good nap. Her yawning voice echoed in the quiet street corner, causing Seductive Fox to stop halfway.

“Impossible!” Seductive Fox’s voice broke.

On the other hand, on Andy’s side.

“Xinyan! You, you really woke up!”

“Brother Andy, where is this place? We... Wasn't he in the carriage? Eh? You, the blood on your body is...”

The little loli was still a little dazed at first.

However, when he noticed the large patches of blood on Andy's shoulders and back...

“Xinyan, run! They're all bad people. Go find Lord Liz or Dami...”

Andy's anxious voice hadn't finished speaking.

However, he only saw that she was an unreliable little loli who always slept in class, was greedy and loved to play, and seemed to have a little chuunibyou disease.

At this moment, Xinyan had a rare expression on the little loli's toot face. It was an expression that was called 'angry'.

She first frowned, then plucked a scarlet feather from somewhere on her body.

“Xinyan, you...”

“Brother Andy, don't talk. It'll be done soon.

The little boy had a confused expression on his face, and so did the treasure thieves and Seductive Fox. They stood there foolishly and didn't take the opportunity to get closer.

It was not because they were hacking, but... An instinct that came from living creatures made them subconsciously unwilling to move forward.

Shua!

When the red feather in the little loli's hand landed on Andy's body...

A majestic life force burst out, and the little boy felt as if his entire body was wrapped in a huge warmth. On his back and the wound on his arm, an itchy numbness appeared. When he came back to his senses...

"This... Where are my injuries?"

Her skin was as white as before, without any scars or wounds. In fact, it had become much smoother and more delicate, as if she was a newborn. "Impossible, this, what is this, this isn't right! You, who exactly are you!" Seductive Fox's terrified voice rang out.

Xinyan and the little loli took one step at a time. After healing Andy's injuries, they walked to the front of all the treasure thieves.

Compared to the adults around her, she looked so short and thin.

However, Xinyan's aura was...

"All of you small fries, listen up!

The little loli placed her hands on her hips and spoke in a childish voice.

"Although I am still a little sparrow that was enlightened by Aunt Alice, there will come a day when I, Xin Yan, will make all the birds in the entire Yan Region think highly of me. I will turn a sparrow into a phoenix!

"And now, the little phoenix in front of you, who will soar in the sky in the future, is..."

Xin Yan pointed her finger at the leader of the group, the seductive fox who was dressed in a seductive and revealing outfit.

"I've already.... He was furious!

Chapter 314: Otherwise... You 're Finished! 1

Treasure Thief Group, Tiger Clan.

"Come, I imported this bottle of champagne from a foreign country. It tastes really good.

After Black Tiger opened the champagne, he poured some for Du Lin, who was sitting at the table opposite him with a slightly anxious expression.

The pale yellow wine swirled in the glass. After the earl took a small sip symbolically, he could not help but say,"

"Black Tiger, are you sure that there won't be any mistakes in this operation?

This is our last trump card. If we fail...You know the consequences!"

"Ha, don't worry, Lord Earl. As you can see, to ensure that nothing goes wrong,

I've even invited 'Seductive Fox'. Or does Lord Earl think that the leader of the Fox Clan can't even catch two ten-year-old children?"

The black tiger patted Du Lin's nervous back with its big hand.

Thinking about it, it made sense.

Perhaps because he had been defeated by Vivian every time, Du Lin had been traumatized. But this time, it was not like he was using a sledgehammer to kill a chicken. It was like he was using a knife. Du Lin really couldn't think of how this car could turn over.

Thinking of this, Du Lin felt much more at ease. Most of his anxiety had disappeared. Perhaps to change the topic, Du Lin asked casually,

"Speaking of which, I think your Treasure Thief Group is quite amazing. If I remember correctly, the fire in the outer Urban area that was reported in the newspapers a few days ago was your Snake Clan, right? Moreover, according to the information that my people sent, your Snake Clan was almost completely wiped out in the fire. It is said that even the leader, "Viper", was not spared.

"So?" Black Tiger took another sip of the champagne in his glass and looked indifferent.

"Your Treasure Thief Guild only has four divisions in total. A quarter of your assets are gone. Could it be that the other three divisions of yours... There wasn't even any reaction or expression?"

This doubt had been in Du Lin's mind for a long time. If it was his family, they would be in a mess. They would go crazy to find the culprit.

However, Black Tiger sneered.

"Reaction? I've already told Viper to stop fiddling with useless things all day.

What's it called? Alchemy and whatnot. Can't he just produce more medicine? In the end, he did not like to mutate this and that. Now, it was really like the old saying, playing with fire was self-immolating."

"Are you saying that the explosion and fire of the Snake Clan was actually their own internal problem?"

"Du Lin caught the main point. Even he didn't know this secret.

“Hmph, of course. This is what Black Crow told me himself. I, Black Tiger, don’t believe anyone else, but Black Crow and his subordinate Crow Clan. Although those guys are always mysterious, the information they give us has never been wrong.

“Otherwise, if the Snake Tribe was really destroyed by some external force, do you think our Treasure Thief Gang is really that weak?”

Listening to Black Tiger’s tone, it didn’t seem like he was lying. Du Lin nodded. The last bit of worry in his heart disappeared. He was really afraid that some big force would set their eyes on the Treasure Thief Group. After all, they were in the same boat now.

“Alright, Master Dulin, haven’t you heard of the proverb, ‘no business at the dining table.’ Come, let’s have another cup. ”

The black tiger refilled the two of them with wine.

“Your wine called ‘champagne’ is indeed quite good. Where did you get it from? I’ll buy some if I have the chance.

“I heard that it’s the Green Maple Kingdom. I remember that it’s one of the Nine Gods...The Wind God’s territory? Sigh, don’t ask me about this. You should ask Black Crow. This bottle of champagne was also given to me by Black Crow. He even told me that this kind of wine is usually used to celebrate.

“Then isn’t it too early for us to drink it now?”

“Early? Black Crow also told me that in Green Maple, the locals have a tradition. As long as they have the confidence of success, they will immediately open the champagne to celebrate. This means that success will not run away.

“So that’s how it is...Foreigners are so strange.” Count Du Lin nodded as if he had learned something.

„F * Ck.. ‘

Count Du Lin hadn't finished his sentence yet.

Boom!

The room they were in, the underground base of the Tiger Clan, shook violently. The Earl lost his balance, and the glass fell out of his hand. The precious champagne spilled all over the floor.

He was shocked.

Fortunately, the tremor happened in an instant, and there was no follow-up.

When they regained their senses, they realized that something must have happened in the Fire Code City on the ground. They were merely the aftermath of the battle.

Shua! Shua!

All the members of the Treasure Robbers in the Tiger Clan base were in an uproar. They were discussing animatedly. Black Tiger and Count Du Lin took the lead and hurried to the ground through the secret tunnel. After that, the scene in the distance before their eyes was...

Fire.

Fire.

All he could see was fire.

Andy was like a wooden man, stunned by the wall at the corner of the street.

In the little boy's ears, other than the sizzling sound of the burning flames, there were also many wails from the bad guys who wanted to kidnap them.

Especially the Seductive Fox who claimed to be her sister's friend when she was driving the carriage.

The woman's voice had gone from soft to hoarse from repeated shock.. Finally, it was now...

Chapter 315: Otherwise... You I re Finished! 2

Howling.

"Ah! My... My face...No, no, no. No!"

Xin Yan's flames did not kill them. Instead, they burned their skin in a way that Andy thought was even more terrifying. Each of them had burn marks of varying degrees on their bodies.

Among them, Seductive Fox was the most miserable. Her originally beautiful and delicate face was now completely disfigured. Her skin and flesh were burned by the flames. It was not too much to describe it as "scary".

But of course, what scared Andy the most wasn't Seductive Fox's miserable appearance, but the one that caused all of this, along with the burning of half of the entire commercial street...A certain little loli.

No, she could not be called a little loli anymore.

This was also one of the reasons why the little boy stood in the corner and did not dare to move.

Because Xin Yan...It became bigger!

That's right, ever since the little loli had spoken her lofty aspirations, she had instantly erupted with a fire-type magic spell that was like a bomb with a terrifying magic power that even Andy could not describe.

Wait for the moment to walk out of the center of the explosion of flames, where there is still the figure of the little loli.

Instead, it was a face that was very similar to the little loli's. However, it was less tender and more youthful and energetic.

Moreover, her short, stubby legs were gone, and her originally cream-colored twin ponytails were gone.

In its place was a tall and slender Andy, whose long legs were probably as long as one and a half of Andy's. Her long hair reached her waist, and her beautiful fiery red hair was naturally wavy. From afar, it looked like a red waterfall.

Actually, all of this was still fine.

What scared Andy the most was this red-haired sister. Ever since she appeared, she had been in a very irritable state.

She stamped her feet, covered her face with her palm, and even uttered a voice that was filled with resentment. Although Andy could not hear her clearly from afar, she could still tell from her expression and mouth shape that she was full of resentment.

"That detestable little wolf cub! You, you better not get caught by me!

"And... And Vivian too! To think that I trusted you so much and treated you as my human friend. You, you actually followed your Summoned Beast and colluded with me to deceive the ignorant me when I was young!

"Sparrow? You even want to transform into a phoenix and make all the birds in the Yan Region think highly of me...Aaaaaaah! 'I can't take it anymore. Why did I say such a thing? No, this isn't true.

Xin Yan half-squatted down and looked at the little boy with a kind and big sister expression. Then, he grabbed Andy's hand and prepared to run.

At this moment, it should be said that she was touched, but she did not know whether to laugh or cry. Andy mustered up her courage and asked her with a trembling voice,

"Sis...Sister, have you seen a little girl who looks very similar to you? She, she is called Xinyan, 1...1 have to find her! Otherwise, I won't be able to explain it to my sister!

I promised to take good care of her!

Xinyan rubbed Andy's head in relief as he looked at the little boy who was still standing there, refusing to leave.

What was this?

There were still such cute humans!

"Little brother, the little girl you mentioned, big sister has already used teleportation magic to send her away. She is now in a very safe place!

"Really...Really?"

"Of course! My salary... Cough cough, I'm not like some people. I never lie. If you still don't believe me, I'll bring you to her now. How about it?"

Of course, Xinyan could not possibly say that the little loli sister that you mentioned was him. That would be too embarrassing. He might as well just kill her directly. He might as well make up a small lie.

Moreover, she could not maintain her growth phase for long. Once the time was up, she would turn back into a loli.

Ah! Damn it!

He could not think about this, as the thought of it made Xinyan angry!

If they were to ask where they could go now, Fire Law City was the safest place in the entire city, and they were also the least afraid of being searched by the city guards. At the same time, there was only one place that Xinyan was most familiar with.

It was a tall spire not far from the Fire God Cult.

Fire God Tower.

Since there were still a few minutes before the Change Union returned to its original state, Xinyan brought Andy along and skillfully entered the Fire God Tower. They went straight up and finally arrived at the top of the tower, in front of a grand and ancient door..

Chapter 316: Otherwise... You're Finished!_3

As his memories were brought back, Xinyan's lively and energetic eyes were now a little dull.

"Aunt Alice..."

After muttering to himself, Xin Yan pushed open the door to the top floor. It was the room of Archbishop Maggie of the Fire Faith.

The defensive magic did not react to Xinyan's actions. After all, she was here and had lived with Margie, the incarnation of Fire God Alice in the human world, for many years.

The moment he opened the door, Xinyan frowned.

The young lady seemed to have sensed something. At the same time that Xin Yan's expression changed drastically, he quickly pulled Andy behind him to protect her.

At the same time...

"Who...Who?" A hoarse voice rang out.

Behind Xinyan was Andy. Through the gap, the little boy could see a half-naked man in the archbishop's room opposite them.

The reason why Xin Yan was so nervous was because there was a ball of black mist that was faintly discernible around the man's naked upper body.

The black mist would occasionally change into tentacle-like shapes, and sometimes into other strange forms. However, without exception, they all tried their best to burrow into the man's body.

The origin of this black mist was something that Xin Yan could tell even with his eyes closed, just from the foul, evil, and rotten aura that it emitted.

Fallen Abyss!

"Humph! Who are you? Fallen Abyss 'minions? No! You, why do you have Aunt Alice's aura on you??"

Just as the tension between Xinyan and the man grew to the point where they were about to explode...

Fortunately, Andy's voice rang out at this critical moment.

"Da...Brother Damir?"

The man only noticed the little boy's voice when he spoke. He immediately replied,

“I’ve seen you before. You’re...” Vivian’s brother, Andy?”

With Andy at the center, the tense atmosphere immediately eased up. Damir was not stupid. From the way Xinyan had subconsciously protected Andy, he could tell that they were teammates.

Moreover, to be honest, Damir heaved a sigh of relief. The other reason why he did not make a move just now was...

He felt that he might not be able to defeat this red-haired girl in this “ abnormal state “.

On the other side.

Xin Yan was also familiar with the name Damir. After listening to Andy’s explanation, the young girl finally realized that it was this kid, the only human disciple that Aunt Alice had taken in.

This way, everything made sense.

Why did she have Alice’s aura on her, and...Why did the aura of the Fallen Abyss appear?

“That...

Damir was about to speak when Xinyan waved his hand to stop him.

The distance between her and the little loli...F * ck, there wasn’t much time left for her to turn back into a little loli.

In short, he didn’t have time to explain.

Inheriting the Heart of God, or more accurately, a contaminated Heart of God, would naturally be eroded by the power of the Fallen Abyss.

The reason why Alice had captured Xin Yan back then was because she wanted to use Little Phoenix's powerful healing powers to suppress Fallen Abyss. Hence, Xin Yan understood Damir's current state at a glance.

However, what surprised her was that even though Maggie was only a clone of the Fire God, she had to enter a meditative sleep to resist the corrosion of the Fallen Abyss, let alone speak shirtless like Damir.

However, other than his voice sounding a little hoarse and his condition looking a little dispirited, the young man seemed to be fine.

Moreover, looking at the black fog of the Fallen Abyss, it was as if it had touched an iron wall. It could not even enter at all.

Anyway, there must be a reason why Aunt Alice chose to give the Heart of God to him.

What Xin Yan needed to do now was...

The red-haired girl took a deep breath. Then, a scorching ray of life erupted and bathed Damir's body.

Under Xinyan's beam, the black fog of Fallen Abyss was like the first snow that had encountered the scorching sun. In the blink of an eye, it had completely disappeared.

"This..."

Damir was extremely shocked. He knew how powerful the black fog was. Every night, he had to use his extremely powerful willpower to fight against it.

But, but it was easily eliminated by this red-haired girl?

Before Damir could ask, Xinyan, who was running out of time, beat him to it.

She first quickly found a pen wash, tore it into a small note, and quickly wrote a paragraph on it, leaving it for her younger self to hold the note tightly in her hand.

After that, Xinyan turned his head and spoke to the dumbfounded Damir.

The girl said three sentences in total.

The first sentence.

“I’m friends with your mentor. In terms of seniority, I can be your great-aunt.”

The second sentence.

“I’ll leave this little boy to you.”

The third sentence.

“Send me to Vivian and her damned wolf cub when I become small later. And help me pass a message to them. Tell them, don’t give me a chance to become big again! Otherwise, you guys.... We’re done for!”

Chapter 317: Forbidden Demons Don’t Lie to Forbidden Demons

They didn’t know that there was no such thing as a negative impression. It was that when they were young, they had been naughty and committed. Parents led their children to apologize to their teachers.

The current scene was similar to this.

In a corner of the construction site in Red Flame Town, Vivian held the hand of the little loli who was still warm from the pot. She thanked Damir, who had come all the way here using teleportation magic.

What trouble? What Xinyan didn't do anything overboard? 'I'll definitely teach her a good lesson later...'

The little girl rambled on.

However, the little loli beside him, Xinyan, did not have such self-awareness. She looked left and right again, as if she was filled with curiosity towards this Red Flame Town that was far away from the human cities and located in the outskirts of the wilderness.

If Vivian had not been holding the little loli's hand, she would have run off to somewhere to have fun.

"Damir, since Xinyan has returned from the academy, then my younger brother..." Vivian asked worriedly.

"This... I'm a little embarrassed to say this. I have to apologize to you first, Vivian. I originally wanted to take Andy and Xin...Senior Xinyan sent it back together with the others. However, I accidentally discovered that Andy was actually obsessed and curious about many of the magic patterns on the Fire God Tower! Do you know, this is too rare! Not only did one need to be extremely talented in magic, but one also needed to have a passion for magic!"

The more Damir spoke, the more agitated he became. From the looks of it, it was not much different from the first time he met Vivian. Then, perhaps realizing that he had lost his composure, he coughed twice and said in embarrassment,"

"So... So, I was a little moved by my love for talent. Such a good magic seedling, I have to personally teach him. I also asked Andy for his opinion, and he agreed to be my disciple. Ah, of course! If Vivian doesn't agree, I'll make another trip and bring Andy back to you immediately."

When the little girl across from him heard this, she quickly shook her head.

"No need, no need! Andy can learn magic from you. My last bit of worry is gone.

Thank you so much, Damir.”

Looking at the sincere smile on the little girl’s face, Damir felt as if he was bathed in a spring breeze. He was instantly motivated. In his heart, he almost regarded Andy as his heir, the next archbishop of the Fire God Cult.

Before he left.

“I almost forgot!” Damir slapped his forehead. He had been too engrossed in his conversation with Vivian and had yet to complete an important task that ‘Grandma Xinyan’ had given him.

“It’s like this. Before Senior Xinyan reverts back to her current child form, she asked me to give you and your Little Black a message.

“Eh? Send a message? And Xiao Hei?”

Vivian had a strange expression on her face. Even the wolf cub, who was sleeping in her arms, could not help but open its eyes curiously.

This little girl is still looking for me?

Under the curious gazes of Vivian and the wolf cubs, Damir cleared his throat and repeated what Xinyan had said in a slightly awkward tone.

“Senior Xinyan said that you must not have the chance to let her grow bigger.

Otherwise, you, you will...Cough cough, it’s as if it’s over...”

After completing the task assigned to him, Damir saw that the situation was not looking good and quickly left. He did not want to get involved in Grandma Xinyan’s matter.

“Otherwise, we’ll be finished... Are we done for?” Vivian repeated, but she still did not quite understand.

The little girl squatted down and placed Little Black down. She then asked Xinyan, who was holding onto her hand, although she was in the form of a little loli.

“Xinyan, do you have any leads?” “I don’t know...”

The little loli said in a childish voice.

But soon, she seemed to have remembered something and opened her other hand to Vivian and the wolf cubs.

“But, Sister Vivian, I was holding this note in my hand when I woke up.

A note?

Vivian tilted her head in confusion, but when the little girl read the note...

A line of words was written on it.

The handwriting was sloppy and crooked. It was obvious that he had written it in a hurry under a very tight time, but every stroke was full of strength, as if he was gnashing his teeth.

[Xinyan, remember this. You were born a phoenix, not a sparrow! Also, don’t say any more embarrassing lines. Be more mature! Finally, stay away from Vivian’s wolf cub! Don’t believe a single word he says! We phoenienixes are irreconcilable enemies with the cunning and treacherous wolf clan!

Finally, remember to destroy the note after reading it! Don't let that group of liars find out, or they'll brainwash you again!

After reading the words on the note, the scene fell into a short silence.

In the end, the little girl said, "Ah, this..." Break.

Vivian's face turned red, which was a rare sight. She looked a little guilty and didn't dare to look at the little loli.

After reading the note, Vivian finally understood the sentence that Damir had left for them. "What did it mean?"

From the tone of the message, one could tell how angry and embarrassed Xinyan must have been when he wrote down these words.

Especially the words "liar duo", it hit the little girl hard.

She, Vivian, had always been upright, innocent, polite, kind, and would fold her blanket properly every day.. When would she ever be labeled as a liar?

Chapter 318: Forbidden Demons Don't Lie to Forbidden Demons (2)

The little girl immediately looked at the real big liar with an aggrieved expression.

However, the wolf cub still looked unconcerned. It was even a little excited, as if a prank that had been planned for a long time had finally borne fruit.

No!

I can't let Little Black run away with me!

Vivienne made up her mind not to make a mistake again and again, she must honestly admit her mistake, confess leniency, and tell the truth to Xinyan.

Especially since the note clearly said that they must not see it, but the little loli still handed the note to her without hesitation.

What did this mean? It meant that in the little loli's heart, she still trusted him subconsciously. Then she, Vivian, could not let down this trust. She had to use practical actions to wash away her label as a "liar"!

She had rehearsed her lines in her heart and her feelings for him were already brewing.

However, just as the little girl opened her mouth.

"Sister Vivian..."

The little loli blinked, her big eyes full of intelligence.

Xin Yan asked Vivian curiously, "What was written on the note?" Vivian was speechless.

"Eh? Xinyan, you...didn't you see it?"

The little loli squirmed in embarrassment at Vivian's surprised question.

"I-I can't read..."

Vivian was speechless.

The little wolf cub was speechless.

Something's not right!

Vivian immediately noticed that something was wrong. The little girl quickly asked, "What about your school? Didn't teacher teach you?"

"No... I didn't..."

Xin Yan blushed.

The little loli's eyes fluttered a little guiltily and she did not dare to look at the little girl opposite her. It could not be said that she looked exactly the same as Vivian, but it could only be said that they were exactly the same.

"Xinyan!" Vivian's voice immediately raised a few points, like an old mother checking a test paper that had been secretly marked.

Under the little girl's overbearing power, Xinyan immediately seemed to have lost all his courage. The little loli pointed her fingers in front of her and stammered,

"I'll sleep...She fell asleep..."

"That doesn't mean you can't read at all, right? Do you think you can sleep through every class?"

"Hey... Hehe..."

Xinyan scratched his head and let out a laugh that sounded a little embarrassed at first, but upon closer inspection, it even sounded a little proud.

On the other hand, the little girl opposite him.

Vivian's eyes went black!

"You... You... You're really infuriating me, Xinyan!"

"Don't think that your magic power is very powerful now. This is all a gift from Lord Fire God. It's only temporary!"

"What? Before... Temporary?" Xin Yan was shocked by Vivian's angry words.

One of the reasons why the little loli was so confident was that she felt that even if she was a sparrow, she was still a very powerful sparrow. At the very least, she was stronger than those human teachers in the academy. Then why did she still listen to the lecture?

However, Vivian's words immediately alerted Xinyan.

The little girl who had been angered to death by Xinyan had taught herself.

"Of course! And very soon, this power will disappear with the passage of time. At that time, Xinyan, your true form will be revealed, your intelligence will regress, and you will return to your original appearance, a...An ordinary sparrow that could be seen everywhere!"

There were many things that could only be done zero or countless times. The wolf cubs, who were watching the show from the side, felt that this sentence was too true.

Sure enough, the little loli was completely flustered and frightened by Vivian's words.

"No, I can't! I don't want to regress my intelligence. I don't want to become a sparrow again. Sob, sob, sob, sob. Sister Vivian, I was wrong. I won't sleep in class anymore. Sob, sob, sob..."

The crying little loli fell into Vivian's arms. Her nose was covered in tears. Vivian stroked Xin Yan's head and comforted him," “It’s alright, Xinyan. It’s not too late to work hard now. As long as you study hard every day and practice hard, you will be able to turn Lord Fire God’s power into your own. From there, you will be reborn and rid yourself of your identity as a sparrow.

“Yes, yes, I understand. Sister Vivian, I... I’ll definitely train hard every day. I’ll wake up early and go to bed early. I won’t be fond of playing and sleeping anymore, sob sob sob...”

Since she was going to risk everything, Vivian took the opportunity to say,”

“Not only do you have to train your magic power, you also have to study hard, Xinyan! If you want to maintain your intelligence, you have to work harder than other demonic flowers! Do you know that a monster as big as you already knows the sky and the earth, but you can’t even read the words on a small piece of paper!

The little girl said as she gave the little wolf cub a look.

Liao Zixuan immediately understood. It was obvious that he was an old liar.

The little wolf cub fully displayed his vast experience and knowledge, and attacked the little loli. He spoke with fervor and assurance, and spoke eloquently. He spoke eloquently and eloquently, one four-character idiom after another, without any chain.

Xin Yan, who had been reborn and had his memories sealed, had never seen this before.

The little loli was stunned. Coupled with the deceptive appearance of the wolf cubs, it completely confirmed Vivian’s previous words.

Seeing that it was about time, the little girl quickly continued her earnest persuasion.

“If you continue like this, when you grow up, no matter how powerful you are, if your level of education is too low, it will be difficult to find a partner in the future. No demon will like you! Everyone would think that you were a country bumpkin, a country sparrow! Are you willing to be alone for the rest of your life, Xinyan?”

The words 'country girl, country sparrow' had seriously stimulated the little loli's self-esteem.

Xin Yan cried out loudly,

"No, I can't! I, I want to find a partner. I want to be a mother. I want to have children. I want to have many children. I don't want to die alone. 1...1 will definitely study hard! I'll learn to read properly, sob sob sob..."

"Alright. alright. don't cry. don't cry.

Seeing that the little loli had realized her mistake and changed, she decided to turn over a new leaf and be a new person...Vivian was very pleased to see him like a bird.

Although, um, although he had told a "small" lie.

He had no choice!

It was too infuriating!

Vivian consoled herself in her heart. She believed that even if Xinyan were to return to his original form one day, he would definitely be grateful for what she had done today. He was doing this for the good of Xinyan!

That was what he said.

However, when the little girl faced the tear-stained Xinyan, she could not help but feel guilty. Hence...

"That... Xiao Hei, I'll give Xinyan to you. You monsters will definitely be able to communicate and understand each other better. 1...1 have to go and see if there's anything I can help with at the construction site! Yes, that's right!"

After saying that, Vivian ran away.

In the end, only the little loli and the little wolf cub were left.

The man and beast looked at each other.

After that.

Xin Yan plopped down onto the ground. The little loli used her pitiful, tear-stained eyes to stare at the little wolf cub.

Liao Zixuan was wondering what she wanted to do.

“Xiao, Xiao Hei, let’s make a promise, okay?”Xinyan whispered furtively.

“Promise? What agreement?” “Wait... When we grow up, you can marry me, okay?”

Liao Zixuan was speechless.

“Woo... Wuuuu... I don’t want no one to want me. I, I don’t want to die alone.

Sob, sob, sob... Wow...”

The little loli could not stop her tears from falling again when she thought of the tragic situation that Vivian had just described.

She held back her laughter.

The wolf cub pretended to be very serious and asked,”

“Xinyan, are you sure? This kind of thing couldn’t be said casually. Among humans, this kind of agreement was called a child betrothal. Once it was set, both parties couldn’t break the agreement, or they would suffer the wrath of heaven!”

“I’m sure!” The little loli replied.

She was afraid that the wolf cubs would not be willing to do so, so Xin Yan quickly added on to give himself an advantage.

“You, don’t worry! I definitely won’t be a commoner in the future. I, I, I, I will definitely work hard and work hard. When the time comes, you will marry a phoenix and bring it home. How proud will you be?”

“Then... Should we pinky swear?”

Upon hearing the little wolf cub’s agreement, Xinyan’s tears immediately turned into a smile. The little loli’s eyes almost curved into crescents, as though she had just picked up a great bargain.

After all, in her heart, the little wolf cub was already a high-level intellectual monster who knew both the sky and the earth. When he grew up, he would be in big trouble!

She couldn’t wait to reach out her small hand and even used her dress to wipe the tears on her hand in a very ceremonial manner to keep her small hand white and clean.

The wolf cub’s claws hooked onto Xin Yan’s pinky.

The little loli shouted excitedly,”

“Pinky swear!”

He also took the initiative to add another sentence.

“Whoever goes back on their word is a little mutt!”

Chapter 319: Biwei Holmes Rongrong

The next day.

No!”

A heart-wrenching scream came from the young baron kneeling on the ground.

The background was a commercial street that Xinyan had burned down again. The background music was also a scene of snow and flowers fluttering...The northern wind whistled, and the heavens and the earth were...Vast Expanse!

TWO city guards and a young man with gold-rimmed glasses stood behind the heartbroken baron.

“Mr. Teddy, we are deeply saddened by your encounter. We will do our best to help you restore the whole story as soon as possible.

“You said the same thing to me last time, but what happened in the end?? How many days have passed, and I didn’t hear from you, but I waited for the second explosion!

Teddy vented his anger.

‘ You know how much money I spent to renovate the entire street. I just got a little better and was about to reopen. In the end, I was hit again!

“Who is it? Who was it? Which damn bastard? I can see that he has his eyes on me and has a grudge against me!

After being scolded by Teddy, the two city guards hurriedly interjected,

“Mr. Teddy, according to our preliminary investigation, the two explosions shouldn’t be related. They weren’t done by the same person. Don’t worry, Mr.

Teddy.

“No connection? What do you mean? Are you telling me that there are two more forces fighting this time, and they even happened to choose my business street as the location?”

Teddy blew his beard and glared. The two city guards opposite him nodded awkwardly.

“From the looks of it...This case is different from the first one. There are clear clues. We have locked onto one of them, which is the notorious underground organization, the Treasure Thief Group. As for the other party, we are still investigating. I believe we will be able to give Mr. Teddy a reply soon.

“Then what are you guys still doing here? Go! ”

After shooing away the two city guard officers angrily, Teddy turned his gaze to the last remaining young man with eyes.

His tone softened slightly.

“Hmph, this group of city guards are all a bunch of good-for-nothings. They’re completely unreliable! ”

“Foreigner, I believe you won’t let me down. Have you made any progress in the investigation I entrusted you with?”

After Teddy said that, the young man with the ID " Bi Wei Rong " on his head elegantly adjusted the glasses on the bridge of his nose, then took out a small notebook from his coat pocket.

After flipping it open skillfully, Bi Wei Rong began to report,

"Of course, Mr. Teddy. After my secret investigation these days, I have some preliminary clues about the first explosion case."

"Time?"

"Yes, that's right. According to the time of the explosion provided by the city guard, I found that the explosion happened in the middle of the night. There aren't many people who would be active at this time. Therefore, I visited all the shops within a few kilometers and asked if they were open at night and if they had encountered any suspicious people or things.

"From your tone, you must have found something, right?"

Nodding her head, Bi Wei Rong continued to calmly explain her search process.

" Yes, according to my investigation, there were a total of 12 shops that were still open late at night that night, and only five of them had customers. In the end, I found out from the bosses of these five shops that there were customers and suspicious incidents. In the end, I only locked onto...One family!"

Bi Weirong raised a finger in front of Teddy. The young baron was obviously attracted. He quickly asked,

"Tell me quickly! Which family was it? If he continued to investigate, he would definitely be able to find the culprit! I, Teddy, swear that I will definitely make him suffer!"

Teddy said fiercely and nodded in his heart. Look at what professionalism is. It's completely different from those city guards who only know how to say " Mr. Teddy, don't worry ".

It was a pity that he was not strong enough. Otherwise, Teddy would have asked him to be his private sheriff.

Until...

“The name of that shop is called Nina Tailoring. “Bi Weirong read out the four words he had written in his notebook.

Alright, there was nothing in the notebook. All the information was recorded in the game’s built-in notebook.

However, why did Bi Weirong insist on taking a notebook? It was not to show off. This would involve the “ professional tools “. We’ll talk about it later.

On the other side.

Nina cutting clothes, why did it sound so familiar?

Before Teddy could react, Bi Weirong continued to speak. Her eyes behind the gold-rimmed glasses flashed with a unique excitement that was only found when she was digging out secrets.

“Mr. Teddy, according to Nina’s tailor boss, there were two groups of people on the night of the accident. The first group was a very young and handsome young man, and the second group was two equally young and beautiful ladies.”

“The boss said that both groups of people had their eyes on the same piece of clothing, but the two ladies who came later took advantage of the time when the man who came first went to the bathroom to buy the clothes first. In the end, when the man came back, he flew into a rage and interrogated him about the whereabouts of the two ladies..

Chapter 320: Biwei Holmes Rongrong (2)

“Coincidentally, these people left in the same direction as your business street, Mr. Teddy!”

Bi Wei Rong was getting more and more excited as she spoke, but when she looked at her quest NPC, she realized that Teddy’s expression was a little off.

“Mr. Teddy? Mr. Teddy?”

Bi Wei Rong called out a few times before the young baron came back.

He didn’t pay much attention to the baron’s abnormality and continued to talk about his many discoveries.

“Mr. Teddy, according to my deduction, the one who caused the heavy losses to your business street is very likely the mysterious man who chased after von! In this regard, my evidence has two points.”

“First, I found a completely deformed metal hanger in the boss’s backstage warehouse. Although the boss didn’t tell me, with my special methods, I found that it was probably deformed by someone’s hand. Combined with what the boss said before, the mysterious man threatened him, so I have reason to believe that the deformed metal hanger was made by that mysterious man!”

From this, I can tell that this mysterious man’s strength is definitely not low. Or rather, it can be described as terrifying. To be able to crumple a metal clothes rack into a ball, he’s either a mage who used magic, or... Purely relying on brute force.”

Because the latter is too unbelievable, I even went to the city guards to ask them. Even the strongest leader of the knights, Harvey, didn’t say that he could transform metal with the strength of his palm. This is already beyond the scope of humans.”

” Therefore, I personally prefer the former. This also corresponds to the fire magic explosion in the commercial street.

When Bi Wei Rong said this, Teddy had already confirmed in his heart who this mysterious man ” was.

Nina’s tailored clothes were young, handsome, and extremely strong. She also knew fire magic, and most importantly, the timing was perfect. Liao Zixuan’s human appearance quickly appeared in the baron’s mind.

This is the name of the guild Big brother?

Speaking of which, he was the one who recommended this shop to his brother!

Teddy couldn’t help but admire Bi Weirong again because her reasoning was almost completely correct. The only exception was the metal clothes rack because his big brother might have rubbed it with brute force.

Sigh...

Teddy sighed in his heart.

It turned out that the flood had washed away the Dragon King Temple.

If the explosion was caused by his big brother, Teddy wouldn’t dare to investigate this matter even if he had a hundred guts. After all, who knew what kind of immortal monster could have a conflict with a person of his big brother’s level?

Forget it, forget it.

Although he felt a little pained, compared to the business of the Purple Crystal Grass that his big brother had given him, the business street was just a drop in the ocean.

Since Big Brother seemed to be particularly fond of fighting in this commercial street, he would satisfy Big Brother. It was just a commercial street. It would be an honor to be able to serve as a backdrop for Big Brother's fight. In the future, it might even be used as a signboard and tourist attraction. Hmm...

Teddy naturally blamed Liao Zixuan for the two explosions. He no longer planned to pursue the matter and let nature take its course. He even began to think if he could take this opportunity to create some new ways to make money. He could only say that he was indeed an evil capitalist.

However, Bi Wei Rong was still unaware that her quest NPC had given up. She was still excitedly explaining to Teddy the second reason why she suspected Liao Zixuan.

Secondly, the reason why Nina's tailor boss was willing to reveal so much to me was because last night, the boss suddenly discovered that a very expensive mannequin imported from abroad that he had kept in his storeroom had disappeared!

"First of all, the doll definitely won't move on its own, so it must have been stolen. In addition, recently, the only person the boss has shown his treasured doll to outsiders is the mysterious man from that night! From this, it can be seen that this god..."

"Alright!" When Bi Weirong reached the crucial point, Teddy interrupted her impatiently.

"I almost understand now. Outlander, you have done well, but this matter ends here. This is the reward you deserve."

As Teddy's voice fell, the system notification sounded in Bi Wei Rong's mind.

[Ding! Due to your outstanding performance, report of excessive investigation information. Your mission "Baron Teddy's Wrath" has been terminated in advance.]

Wha... What?

Bi Weirong was a little dumbfounded by the notification on the game panel. She was very puzzled.

This was the first time he had heard of a mission being terminated because it was completed too well.

‘ Mr. Teddy, I don’t quite understand. I can clearly get to the bottom of the truth right now, so why do you...’

“Foreigner, speaking of which, your glasses are really good. Coupled with the small book in your hand, you really have the feeling of a detective. “Teddy suddenly changed the topic.

“Sir, my current profession is a detective.”

Jade Weirong was not lying. When the other players were lured away by Vivian and left Fire Code City, he was the only one who chose to stay. He believed that this was a secret line between Vivian and Count Sisre. He firmly believed that his goddess would not be hostile to the count for no reason, and even say things like “ she wants to kill the count.”

As expected, hard work paid off. From the explosion case in the business street, the Baron NPC named Teddy, Bi Wei Rong, received his first special mission in Fire Code City!

The reason why he had to add the word “ special ” was because as long as he accepted this mission, the player would automatically obtain a rare hidden sub-profession-Detective.

At the very least, Bi Wei Rong had checked the official website and forums, but there was no mention of a “ Detective ” profession. It should be known that the sub-professions that players generally came into contact with in the closed beta were similar to Tailor, Carpenter, Hunter, and so on. Just the word ‘ Detective ” alone reflected its rarity.

The gold-rimmed glasses on his nose and the small notebook in his hand belonged to the category of “ professional tools.” As long as he equipped them, Bi Wei Rong would receive various attribute buffs and exclusive skills, similar to Detective Perception. Many of his previous investigations had relied on this skill to complete.

This was comparable to the other precious item he had obtained from a fortuitous encounter when he opened the server, the Fruit of Disguise.

Back to the main topic.

After Bi Wei Rong revealed his identity as a detective, Teddy wasn't surprised. He just nodded and looked like he had expected it.

Then, the young baron patted Bi Wei Rong's shoulder.

"Foreigner, do you know how to differentiate a novice detective from an experienced detective?"

Bi Wei Rong Rong shook her head.

"Newbie detectives only know how to blindly dig for clues and the truth, but experienced detectives know when to stop, because those who don't know won't have the chance to become experienced detectives.

After leaving this meaningful sentence, Teddy turned around and left. It was obvious that he didn't want to have anything to do with Bi Wei Rong.

But what Teddy didn't know was that it was because of his last sentence.

[Ding, congratulations on triggering the SS-rank hidden mission " Novice and veteran

[Novice and veteran]

[Mission Introduction: You clearly completed the mission that your employer gave you, but the employer suddenly changed his mind and asked you to stop the investigation. He even secretly gave you a warning, hoping that you would stop!

[There is no doubt that with your excellent detective intuition, you have sensed something fishy. Teddy is definitely connected to that mysterious man. Who is this mysterious man? What was the cause of the two explosions? What was the mystery behind the precious doll of the owner of Nina's tailor shop? Why did the mysterious man steal it?)

[Faced with all the mysteries in front of you, do you choose to be a newbie or an experienced player?]

[Mission Reward: unknown]

[Mission Punishment: unknown]

[Mission prompt: After accepting the mission, the first phase of the mission will be automatically unlocked.]

[Do you accept this hidden mission?]

He looked at the game panel and saw the classic [Yes/No] option pop up. Was there a need to ask?

After taking a deep look at the back of the departing Sir Teddy, he said,”

Biwei Holmes Rongrong knew that perhaps a hidden plot that was unknown to the majority of the closed beta players was about to be unveiled by him.

Moreover, he had a strong premonition that the secret between Vivian and Count Sisre, which he wanted to investigate, was definitely included!
