Chapter 341: Death of the Earl (3)

“Lord Hei!” Xue Li’s voice almost broke.

How could she care about the Earl?

Xue Li took a big step forward and in the blink of an eye, she had already arrived behind Liao Zixuan. Her lotus-like arms crossed her neck and crossed in front of her chest, hugging the young man.

Liz’s face was pressed against Liao Xuan’s neck. A few strokes of red, which could be described as “shocking” to Xue Li, were left on the corner of the girl’s mouth.

“You...!”

Xue Li, who was sitting on top of him, wanted to push the young girl away from Lord Black.

But who knew.

The young girl who had been held by Xue Li’s hand without any resistance, seemed to have eyes on the back of her head. When Xue Li’s hand reached out, she had sensed it and this time, she directly faced it without fear.

Bang!

A thick, muffled sound.

Surprise flashed across Xue Li's face. She had never thought that this human girl would actually be able to withstand the force of her anger and even have some strength left.

With Cher's help, Liz stopped sucking blood and moved her lips away from Liao Zixuan's neck.

The girl carefully licked the edge of her lips.

He didn't want to waste any of it.

After that.

Again.

Liz and Cher were facing each other. Just as the young girl was about to say something, she pulled her hand away from Cher's, and Cher dodged Count Sisre's attack.

Yes, it was obvious that the Earl was not willing to abide by the unspoken rules of Time Freeze.

"We'll settle our accounts later!" Liz said coldly to Shirley.

Then, without giving her a chance to speak, the young girl's legs bent slightly. Her seemingly slender legs actually contained immense strength.

With a stomp on the ground, Liz leaped high into the air and collided with the Earl who was also diving down from the sky.

Then, one of the figures flew out like a rocket.

Boom!

Count Sisre was smashed to the ground, and the huge force caused a hole in the ground.

Before he could get up.

Clang, clang, clang...

The sound of chains rang out, and blood-red chains seemed to have appeared out of thin air as they shot out from Liz's body. They sealed the Earl's limbs, making him unable to move like a death row prisoner tied to a wooden stake.

Among them, the longest blood-red chain was used as a weapon by Liz, who held it in her right hand.

Half of the long chain was dragged on the ground, and the other half was held up by a faint blood mist. Like a blood python, it wrapped around the girl's body and was full of oppression.

Liz addressed her father, who had been bound by the Blood Seal and was unable to move. She would call him father for the time being. No matter what, no matter what the purpose was, he had raised her.

Unlike Xue Li, who had only used normal attacks, the young girl had used her full strength in order to end the battle quickly. While she was relying on Liao Zixuan's blood to activate her bloodline, she had also learned many of the Blood Clan's inherited skills without a teacher.

The Blood Seal that Liz was using now was considered a sure-kill skill. Not only did it have extremely high single-target damage, but it also had rare additional effects such as "Forbidden Magic," "Silence," and even "Affinity."

As if bidding farewell to the past, he took one last look.

The girl murmured softly,"

"Goodbye." Father."

As soon as Liz finished speaking, all the blood-red chains suddenly tightened, like the strangulation of a python. New chains even shot out explosively, making a series of sizzling sounds in the air as they pierced through all parts of Count Caesar's body.

Puchi! Puchi! Puchi!

After the continuous sounds of flesh and blood cracking ended.

Plop!

The Earl, who was covered in bloody holes and had no strength to resist, fell to the ground and lay motionless in a pool of blood..

Chapter 342: Liz VS Shirley

It was over...What?

After personally killing her father's death, it was like losing her target. A strong sense of confusion crept over Liz's entire body.

Even if it was fake, was it better than...What about having nothing? Just like how father and mother met back then.

If his father was given another chance to choose, would he still pursue his mother, who did not belong to the same world as him?

"Li... Liz..." A weak voice came from the blond man in the pool of blood.

It wasn't a zombie, but rather a last gasp before death.

One of the effects of the Blood Seal was the ability to "turn into a family member" that only belonged to the "Blood Clan." This was something that every Blood Clan skill would more or less have. It could be understood as a natural poison that could turn an enemy into one's own family member after defeating them.

Of course, the most direct method was to bite the neck. The premise was that the difference in strength between the two sides could not be too big, and the opponent did not have any abnormal resistance immunity.

But in short, with Liz's "Affinity" ability, the golden-haired man actually broke free from the control of the mysterious organization. For the first time, he truly lived in the world with his "own" will.

Even though this "life" was very short, perhaps a few minutes or a few seconds later, he would completely lose his vitality.

"Right... Right... Rise..." The golden-haired man, or rather Count Sisl, spoke to the girl.

Liz still couldn't hold it in after all.

She approached the Earl who was lying in a pool of blood.

"Your father, he...It's really... Love you...Even if it was just an inheritance...The memories of me..."

It could all... A strong feeling...To..."

The blond man stuttered.

He wanted to turn his head and look at his daughter again, but he didn't even have the strength to turn his neck.

Liz didn't believe it at first. She felt that this might be an instinctive act of pleasing her after being married.

Until...

“Your father’s love...It was so intense...Enough to... Resistance was... Ma ‘am... Brainwashing...I... Let me, everyday... They all fell into...Struggling...

Pain...Torment...”

“This kind of intense...Guilt... He knew what he was doing..Against the will... Unforgivable...

It was so intense...It actually attracted...Falling Abyss Effect...”

“Ever since then...I just... Completely... I lost control...”

The Fallen Abyss Effect. This was a term that players players only knew about after the Flame Field fell. It meant that when a person’s negative emotions accumulated to a certain amount, there was a certain probability of being chosen by the Fallen Abyss and becoming one of the seeds of the “ Fallen Abyss Descent ” event, a hidden follower.

The greater the number, the greater the chance of being chosen. Therefore, it was conceivable that a test subject who had inherited the Earl’s memories by simply devouring and possessing the Earl could be affected by the Earl’s love for Liz, almost breaking free from the control of the organization and living as a true father. Unfortunately, just as he was about to succeed, perhaps fated, at the end of love and struggle, the Fallen Abyss descended.

The golden-haired man’s voice became softer and softer.

His pupils dilated and he did not breathe much. With the last bit of strength he had, he finished the last sentence of his life and the word he really wanted to say.

“Losing the first mecha...Unless it was born again...New... The second type of experimental body was called the Congregation. Otherwise, this place would be...

Safe... The lady didn't dare...Undetectable...Liz... Don't worry...

Live on..." "I... I love you..."

"Daughter..."

He confessed everything before he died.

Perhaps it was because he had completely let go of the obsession in his heart, the blond man could no longer hold his breath. He was completely silent.

"Father...Dear..."

Bean-sized tears fell from the girl's eyes and fell to the ground.

With a thud, she knelt on the ground.

An incomparable sense of sorrow surged into Liz's heart.

In fact, the thing you were most afraid of was not the enemy who hated you.

But to love your enemy.

"Why...Why did you tell me...These... Why..." No matter how strong a girl was, she could not hold herself back at this moment. Liz cried until she was in tears, her voice sobbing and choking.

After venting for a while.

The girl's sobbing gradually disappeared.

In its place.

It was Liz who stood up again. On the young girl's slightly tender face, there was determination and determination.

"I will find them one by one.

"Regardless of whether it's mother."

"Still... Fallen Abyss!

It was as if he was swearing.

Liz said to her father's corpse.

But ironically, the power that gave her this confidence came from the person she hated. The culprit of everything came from her mother's monster bloodline.

At this time, the girl finally understood what Liao Zixuan had just said. Once she set foot on this path, she would no longer have the option of "turning back".

Liz couldn't find her mother, who was far away and unknown, but there was another target, Fallen Abyss.

The young girl turned around and looked straight at him with the same hostile attitude. Shirley.

With Liz's intelligence, she instantly thought of many things when she found out that Bai was actually in contact with the Fallen Abyss God Envoy, and that they were so close.

For example, was Bai involved in the catastrophe that had befallen Fire Code City?

Another example was that she had once firmly believed that Bai was a member of the good camp. However, Xue Li's appearance had caused the young girl's heart to question and waver..

Chapter 343: Liz VS Shirley (2)

Of course, this didn't include Bai's feelings.

Therefore, from the looks of it, whether it was out of his feelings for Bai, hoping that Bai was as innocent as his name, or out of his father's hatred.

As long as the root of the problem was solved, nothing would happen to Cher.

When people were emotionally agitated, they would always be uncontrollable and jump out with extreme thoughts that were difficult to understand.

Right now, Liz was showing signs of developing into a morbid state.

The reason why she hadn't made a move yet was because her rationality was suppressing her. However, if her rationality could suppress her for a moment, could it suppress her forever?

If this continued, the young girl might end up following in her father's footsteps, falling into pain and struggle.

Perhaps he had noticed this. Or perhaps...

He had long wanted to fight Liz.

Xue Li moved first.

“Lord Hei...Since we were destined to work together in the future. “Can you allow Shirley to go and greet her future colleagues?”

Although he asked Liao Zixuan this way.

But in reality, Cher was just short of writing the words “ I want to teach that arrogant and ignorant little girl a lesson ” on her frosty face.

Even though Lord Black was the one who initiated it, Xue Li still couldn't accept it. There was someone else who sucked Lord Black's blood, not even her! If it was Vivian, then Shirley would have accepted it. After all, there was always a first come, first served basis. But it was actually... Sometimes.

No matter how much he said, it would be better to fight.

What was that old saying? When women fight, men...Err... No fight, no friendship.

He lowered his voice.

“Well, be gentle, Shirley. We're all family.”

Liao Zixuan said.

Xue Li nodded.

“Lord Hei, please rest assured. Xue Li...The most appropriate.

As soon as he finished speaking.

Liao Zixuan had never seen Xue Li so fast.

Even he felt his vision blur. In the next second, Shirley appeared in front of Liz. She raised her long legs and suddenly kicked 180 degrees.

Bang!

Poor young miss. Liz didn't have time to react. After all, she was still struggling in her heart about how she should treat Cher. In the end, the person she was thinking of suddenly appeared and took the initiative to attack, and then...

A flying kick sent her flying far away.

"You...!"

Liz, who had been sent flying like a cannonball, crawled out of the dust and stared at Cher with wide eyes. Her eyes were filled with disbelief and...He was furious.

Looking at Liz's expression, it was as if she was trying to suppress her hostility towards Shirley. What? Why did you attack me first?

Can I still tolerate this?

No matter how rational he was, he couldn't take it anymore.

Rage was like an unbridled horse, jumping around wantonly. After getting up from the ground, Liz unleashed her full power. The blood-red chains that had disappeared around her body suddenly appeared again.

The girl did not hesitate. In the battle with the Earl, her insta-kill combat power gave Liz a lot of confidence in her own strength.

She repeated the same trick and zoomed in on the opening.

“Fresh blood...Seal!”

As Liz shouted, the ground beneath Shirley’s feet turned into a blood -red swamp. From the depths of the swamp, blood chains shot out, binding Shirley’s limbs like how they bound the Earl.

Logically speaking, after imprisoning the enemy, Liz’s final step would be to release more blood chains to completely penetrate the enemy who had no ability to resist. Just like the Earl’s death, there were countless bloody holes on his body.

However, the young girl still went easy on her. She knew that she couldn’t really hurt Xue Li, or else Bai would definitely..

“Wha... What?”

Before Liz could finish hesitating, she heard a series of bangs as if she could no longer hold on under a great force. The chains were being torn apart.

When the young girl regained her senses and looked again, she saw...

“Let me remind you, if you don’t take this seriously...You will lose miserably.” Shirley’s cold voice rang in Lissy’s ears.

The broken blood chains fell powerlessly under Xue Li’s feet, and the blood mud that had trapped her feet had lost its effect.

That was because...

A single pitch-black wing spread out from one side of Xue Li's back, allowing her to easily float above the ground.

On the opposite side of the single wing, on the other side, behind Shirley, there was a black spear, and there was a sharp spear like a claw. It was also this spear that easily cut through Liz's blood seal.

Fallen Abyss form.

Perhaps Cher had always been on the same level, which was why Liz had the misconception that she was nothing special.

And now.

Xue Li was obviously trying to tell this newcomer who was the real big sister by Liao Zixuan's side.

Shua!

Xue Li dodged, and the space around her twisted. With her as the center, she formed an absolute domain that was a few meters wide. The enemies within the domain were slowed down by spacetime.

As for Liz, who was naturally covered by Cher's domain, she felt as heavy as lead, and all her movements seemed to have been slowed down countless times.

She could only watch helplessly as Xue Li waved her hand and the pitch-black spear of the Fallen Abyss stabbed towards her.

However, when it was halfway through and was about to pierce through the girl's body, Xue Li still slowed it down and controlled it to the point where it would at most send her flying. It was not enough to pierce through her body.

However, this time, it was Shirley's turn to be surprised.

“How could this be...?” She immediately frowned, and a rare look of panic appeared on her face.

That was because there was a “Puff” sound.

Even though the power of the spear had been greatly weakened, it was still effortless...No, it could be said that it easily pierced through Liz’s body, causing a large amount of blood mist to erupt from the girl’s body.

It was over!

Hurry up and save him, or else Lord Hei...

This was Xue Li’s first thought.

However, a second later.

NO!

That was...!

Xue Li’s eyes widened. She saw that the girl who had been pierced by the Fallen Abyss Spear had suddenly turned into a shadow and disappeared.

Substitute Blood Shadow.

Not good!

Xue Li instantly realized that it was fake.

But it was a little too late. “I’ll return the favor for what you said just now!”

“Don’t...You underestimate me!”

A young girl’s voice came from behind Xue Li, as well as a sound similar to the sound of her Fallen Abyss Spear.

Xue Li suddenly turned around.

The sharp blood-red spear arrived in the blink of an eye. It turned out that the blood-red chains around Liz could transform into all kinds of weapons at will.

Unlike the chains, the blood spear this time had a strong attractive force, as if it was pulling her towards the tip of the blood spear.

His expression finally became serious.

This was Cher’s recognition of Liz’s strength.

And this also meant that the battle was over. After all, the serious Shirley...

weng!

A black hole appeared from the void and swallowed Liz’s blood spear.

The girl immediately felt that her connection with Bloodspear had disappeared.

The young miss didn’t believe this and summoned a few more blood spears, launching a storm of attacks. However, without exception, all of them were swallowed by Xue Li’s black hole.

However, Liz also noticed that Cher's black hole was clearly not infinite. Under her full-force attack, it was showing signs of being unable to withstand it.

This made the young girl go all out and increase her attack without holding back.

On the surface, it looked like Liz was suppressing Cher, and Cher could only passively defend against the rain of blood spears.

However, what the young girl did not know was that this was not the dawn of her victory. Instead...

Liz had thought of countless ways in which Cher would retaliate against her, but she had never expected Cher to...

"Do you think you're the only one with a tragic background?" "Do you think you're the only one who lost a loved one?" "You thought..." "Are you the only one using the power you hate?" Xue Li's red eyes turned black in an instant.

It was a sign that he had truly used the authority of Fallen Abyss.

She stretched out her finger and placed her index finger and middle finger together.

Following that.

The friction between his fingertips tore through the air.

Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!

Countless Fallen Abyss black holes that had devoured Liszt's attack appeared out of thin air behind her.

They absorbed Liz's attack and converted it into their own power.

The blood spear was contaminated with the black color of the Fallen Abyss, and the spearhead turned from Shirley to its original owner, Liz.

Pa!

After a crisp snap of his fingers.

Countless Abyssal Spears came from all directions, sealing Lissy's body.. They didn't leave any blind spots for the girl as they rained down!

Chapter 344: Butterfly's Flapping Wings (1)

He couldn't move...

Lissy struggled a few times, but the Spear of Fallen Abyss firmly pinned her to the ground.

Of course, it wasn't like a human kebab. Cher wouldn't go that far. Instead, she stabbed the spears into the ground around the girl's limbs, leaving no room for Liz to move. It was like a prison.

This way, he would not hurt the girl, but he would also completely show the difference in strength between the two of them. Just like Xue Li said, she knew her limits.

"Do you know where you lost?"

Xue Li dispelled her Fallen Abyss form and came to the side of the girl who was lying on the ground with a face full of unwillingness.

” You shouldn’t have used a move that consumes a lot of energy before you have figured out the enemy’s strength. You shouldn’t have lost your ability to judge and tried to win the battle by making a single gamble when you thought that your enemy was at a disadvantage.”

Although Liz turned her head away from Cher’s cold voice, she pursed her lips and knew that Cher was right.

The reason why she was pinned to the ground in the end was because she had used up too much energy in the beginning, causing her physical strength and magic power to be unable to keep up. She was completely defeated by Cher’s counterattack.

This had nothing to do with the difference in strength. This was experience. She was a young lady who was born into a noble family. In this aspect, she was almost zero. It was not surprising that she would lose so badly compared to the monsters nurtured by the Fallen Abyss.

However, when Cher opened her mouth, Liz turned her head in shock and looked up at the woman standing beside her.

“Do you know that if you were placed in our wolf pack, you would be the first to die? Any experienced wolf would know that we can’t compare to lions and tigers in terms of strength, can’t compare to antelopes and leopards in terms of speed, and can’t compare to rhinoceroses and elephants in terms of size. ”

However, the reason why we are still the top predators is because we will continue to learn in battle and know how to use tactics. We will never fight head-on with our prey. Instead, we will slowly wear it down, figure it out, and only attack when we find the most favorable opportunity. ”

He didn’t even need to talk about imparting combat techniques.

What surprised Liz the most was the words ” us wolves ” coming out of Cher’s mouth.

“Wolves? You... Don’t you feel like you’re the master? This was the first time the young girl spoke to Xue Li.

“The forest we are currently in was originally my hometown, and also...I still remember the day when Fallen Abyss descended.

“When my clan brother returned from hunting, he first bit my mother to death. My father went to subdue him, but who would have thought that my mother’s corpse would become the same as my brother’s? My defenseless father was also bitten.

“And I...”

Cher lowered her gaze.

In Lissy’s eyes, a familiar expression appeared on the face of the female oracle of Fallen Abyss.

That was because it was just like how she looked when her father, who had turned into a monster, was tied to the bed.

“At that time, I clearly had the chance to stop this disaster and inform the other clansmen in advance, but because I was afraid, afraid...I didn’t do anything. I hid in a corner and watched as my loved ones were bitten to death. Then, I watched as my loved ones who were bitten to death turned into the same monsters and ran towards my own kind in the other tribes.

“I ran away. The forest was already filled with monsters infected by the Fallen Abyss. There was no safe place. If I hadn’t met Lord Black, I wouldn’t have had the chance to stand here and talk to you. ‘Y

“After that, under Lord Black’s leadership, we returned to the territory and purified our own kind who had been contaminated by the Fallen Abyss, but... Perhaps this is karma. During the battle, I was also infected by the Fallen Abyss and was about to become a monster...”

It was Lord Black who saved me and pulled me back from the edge of depravity. However, the price is that I will forever coexist with this evil force that caused all this misery.

The “Lord Black” that Xue Li mentioned was Bai.

As long as Lissy wasn't stupid, she would be able to tell that it was the same.

As a female, or rather, one who had similar experiences, the young girl could feel Xue Li's feelings. Every time Xue Li mentioned Bai, even though it was obvious that she was deliberately controlling her facial expression, she inadvertently revealed the dependence, trust, and even..Adoration.

Liz had a deep understanding of all this, as if she was seeing a miniature version of herself.

The girl felt even more guilty and guilty for mistaking Xue Li for an Evil Fallen Abyss monster.

"Yes... I'm sorry."

"I didn't know that you..."

It was very rare to hear an apology from this arrogant young lady.

Cher shook her head, as if to say that the past was the past.

It could even be said that it was a symbol of friendship. Cher even extended her hand to Liz, who was lying on the ground, as a witness.

What a touching scene!

Liao Zixuan, who was watching from a distance, expressed that he was very stingy!

It was a pity that the male lead had less scenes. Where was the male lead? No, why would she want a dog man? Wasn't it nice to have a lily stick on her?

What was that?

The scumbag is me, so it's fine.

Unfortunately, it was a pity.

Xue Li was Xue Li.

That black-bellied little husky...Bah, a little black and white she-wolf in every sense..

Chapter 345: Butterfly's Flapping Wings (Part 1)

Cher looked at the human girl who seemed to have fallen into a state of empathy with her. She held her hand affectionately and was about to stand up.

She said bluntly,

"If you really feel sorry for me, why don't you leave Lord Hei's side? Xue Li would definitely be extremely grateful to you.

"If you wish, I can burn incense for you every day as a form of repayment. "Xue Li's other hand was holding her jade-like fingers as she said seriously.

"Huh?"

Liz held Cher's hand and froze. Then, she flung it away.

He jumped up from the ground on his own, along with the anger in his heart.

Our young miss still has a bad temper!

What was called a second face-changing plastic sisterly relationship?

“Hehe, you really know how to joke. Don’t you know that once you’re bitten by us vampires, you’ll be mine for life?”

Liz wanted to trick Shirley.

However, who would have thought that the other party would use a type of ‘just you?’ His gaze directly made her blush.

Indeed, the stronger she became, the more curious Liz became about Bai’s strength. That stinky hooligan...Just how strong was he?

Speaking of which, the young girl suddenly recalled that Bai seemed to have told her once that Damir and Harvey were fighting to become his disciples.

At that time, Lissy thought that Liao Zixuan was just bragging.

But now it seemed like...

Was he joking at that time?

“Yes, I... My current ability is still insufficient, and the effect may not be obvious, but at least I’ve bitten White before. What about you? You wouldn’t have been by Bai’s side for so long, and still... You didn’t do anything, right?”

Under Liz’s sharp teeth, Shirley’s expression changed. She was about to lose her composure again. It was obvious that her defense had been broken. This was indeed a pain point that she could not forget.

On the other hand, the girl opposite him raised her head high like a winner. She had a smug look on her face as if she was catching up from behind and overtaking someone at a bend.

“Also, Cher, although I sympathize with you and want to support you, sometimes, humans and demons really can’t be together. It’s too taboo.”

Liz shook her head regretfully. She was still chasing after the victory. This was the basic operation of a noble, and it was also the beginning of a new round of ‘

Liz vs Shirley ” battle.

But what the young girl did not expect was...

Under her words that could be said to be a ‘sure-kill’ threat, Xue Li’s expression became much better. In fact...

Liz saw the corners of her mouth curl up from the woman’s expression.

“Indeed.” Cher held back her laughter and tried to maintain a cold expression. She nodded in agreement.

As for the young girl, although Lissy was suspicious and felt that something was not quite right, for the sake of her reputation, she still forced herself to endure it and snorted at Shirley.

Although they were far away, he didn’t know what the two girls were talking about. Yes, when Shirley and Liz started fighting, Liao Zixuan ran far away to make room for them on the stage.

However, looking at how they were getting along so harmoniously at the moment, as if they had endless things to talk about, Liao Zixuan felt very gratified. He felt that all his efforts were worth it.

At the very least, he had turned the tragic ending of the game into a beautiful one, right?

He changed the fate of the NPCs in the game.

Although it was a little irresponsible, this NPC was not that NPC. The one at home had not been raised properly, and he had already gone to raise the one outside first. It was considered to be a practice.

Liao Zixuan could imagine how great Liz's future achievements would be. When the game officially opened and a large number of players flooded in, whether it was the girl's status, appearance, or even strength, she would be impeccable. She would definitely have a large number of fans and become one of the most sought after characters by players.

At that time, he would be able to proudly say that this cabbage was raised by him!

This wasn't just talk, it was real.

Liao Zixuan's health bar was visible to the naked eye. It had been sucked away by Liz. The best proof was that there was almost 20% less empty!

But speaking of which...

He didn't expect that this young miss was really a juicer!

Liao Zixuan thought that it would be good enough if Lissy could suck 10% from him, but who would have thought that it would double up. He even looked at the girl's posture and felt that she was still not satisfied. She was far from her limit.

If it was an ordinary fish's interface, it would be fine.

However, he had the Taboo Monster's Stats Window. As everyone knew, in most online games, bosses were all bulls. As the boss of bosses, the bull of bulls, his 20% health bar was equivalent to the full health bar of a normal BOSS of the same level.

So, did Liz suck a level 30 BOSS dry?

Good fellow!

With this thought, Liao Zixuan's gaze at Liz changed.

so,

This was...Was it really something a Prince bloodline could do?

However, above Prince was Monarch!

Liao Zixuan vaguely remembered that the world boss that the players fought in the "Green Maple" country seemed to be a Ruler-level Blood Breed. Its name seemed to be...Rui Dracula?

Wait a minute.

Could it be that the fate of this cannon fodder NPC that he casually changed would later implicate him in a series of huge hidden plots?

Chapter 346: Butterfly's Flapping Wings (Part 1)

No way, no way?

If Liao Zixuan remembered correctly, the Earl had said that Liz's mother was in the nine kingdoms of the continent. She was elegant and had countless children. That aunt...Cough, old grandma, I've long forgotten that I have a daughter like Liz.

Yes.

Within the Wind God Realm.

One of the Nine Nations, the Qing Feng.

Bloody Ridge.

This was a small island located in the territory of the “Green Maple” country. At the top of the island, on the top of the cliff of the mountain range, stood a long ancient castle that seemed to have existed for an unknown period of time.

If one were to compare it to the manor and castle of Earl Sisl’s family in Fire Code City, the two would be nothing. Be it in terms of height or size, they were not on the same level.

At this moment, the weather outside the castle was a little bad. It was gloomy, lightning flashed, and thunder rumbled. The storm stirred up waves, hitting the rocks at the edge of the cliff and splashing large waves.

Inside the castle, in the top-floor conference hall, there was a long noble table that was more than ten meters long. It was made of some precious wood. Under the dark clouds in the sky, the dim light shone through the skylight, faintly illuminating the four or five people sitting at the long table.

There were men and women among them. They all looked very young, as if they were only in their twenties or thirties.

The meeting room was silent. No one spoke. The atmosphere inside was obviously a little depressing, just like the weather outside.

Finally, the sound of high heels clacking could be heard from the corridor outside.

The silence was finally broken.

When they saw the mature woman appear at the entrance of the conference hall, the five men and women sitting quietly inside immediately stood up and bowed to the woman.

“Lord third ancestor!”

On the other hand, the mature woman yawned when she saw this. She waved her hand and continued to walk towards the main seat. She said leisurely,

“What are you doing? Didn’t I already say that you can just call me Mother at home? Can’t you feel a little more familiar? It’s not easy for me to wake up, but in the end, I don’t feel at home at all. Seriously...”

The woman mumbled as she sat down and leaned lazily against the back of the chair. The yawning from her mouth had not stopped since she entered the door, as if she had really just woken up from a very long sleep.

She rubbed her sleepy eyes and stretched her back comfortably. Her curvaceous figure was like a peach, and it was instantly revealed. She was filled with a mature charm and had the youthful vitality of a young girl.

After doing all this, she put on a slightly more serious expression and began to look around the conference hall. Her five children.

When the three men and two women faced his gaze, their expressions were different. Some were afraid, some were loyal, some were cautious, some were cautious, and some...He didn’t look at her.

The corners of his mouth curled up into a smile.

The woman on the main seat said lazily,”

” This time, I’m going to wake up and call for an emergency family meeting to inform you to rush over. There’s only one reason. ”

When the five children in the second seat heard this, their expressions became more focused. Several of them even held their breaths nervously.

Because every meeting of his mother would bring turmoil to the country. If it was too big, it would be a bloodbath.

However, the woman's next words made all the children present freeze on the spot as if they were petrified.

"Oh... Sigh, it's not a big deal. It doesn't seem like it's worth a meeting.

However, I think it's better to tell you about this. After all..."

Pausing for a while, the mature woman showed an embarrassed expression to her children.

However, if one looked closely, they would realize that it was not embarrassment at all. Instead, it was more like... They were looking forward to the upcoming show.

After the end of the Old Era of Chaos, during the Era of the Nine Deities, one of the three remaining ancestors of the large Blood Breed, the only female ancestor, and also the youngest ancestor, Louise Dracula said leisurely,"

"You might..."

"I'm going to have another sister.."

Chapter 347: Butterfly's Wings (Part 2)

The conference hall fell into a dead silence.

The heavy rain outside the castle and the crackling sound of the window were particularly clear at this moment.

It was as if they were in the hearts of the five children of Louise. Louise's third son was the first to break the silence. He had a pale face, human-shaped eyes, and a refined appearance. He sat next to Louise.

"Mother, please don't joke around. Everyone knows that when you're in a deep sleep, no one can enter the family's Legacy Blood Pool. "

"If you don't enter the Legacy Blood Pool, you won't be able to awaken your ancestor's bloodline, mother. This is what the entire Dracula family has known for centuries.

After her third son spoke, Louise winked at him.

The woman held her cheeks. She looked like a mother, but she didn't even look like an ancestor. Instead, she looked more like a...A mischievous girl?

"That's why I'm also very curious about how my daughter awakened.

Otherwise, I wouldn't have forcefully woken up from my sleep."

Louise sighed again as she spoke, and then yawned again as proof.

As for the children in the secondary seats, their expressions turned serious when they saw this. Louise might sound casual, but in reality, the more powerful a being was, the more important it was for them to be in a deep sleep. Once it was stopped midway, it would be difficult to "fall asleep" again.

Louise had already used "sleeping" as proof. No matter how much their children did not believe it, they could only accept it. Their competition was...Another sibling appeared out of nowhere.

Therefore, the eldest son, Louis, who was the most impatient and also the one who sat closest to Louise, was the first to speak loudly,"

"Then mother, where is our new sister now? Who is Father Fang? To be able to become the first person in the family to awaken his bloodline in thousands of years, his father must be very powerful, right?"

“Are they immortals from Gui Li? Winter’s executive officer? Well... The Spirit-branded Retainers from the Thousand Islands seemed to be quite capable.

From the beginning to the end, according to the ranking in his heart, Louis listed out the existences that he could think of as “ strong ” in the Nine Nations.

But Louise shook her head repeatedly, her expression hiding an indescribable teasing look.

He had made several wrong guesses. Unlike his refined younger brother, Louis, who was a big man, scratched the back of his head impatiently. Finally, he slapped his thigh. As if he had thought of something, his eyes lit up and he said loudly,

“I know! Mother, you must have secretly wooed our Green Maple’s Wind God, right? Only the child of his mother and Lord Wind God could create such a miracle!

After the thick-headed Lou Yi, his third son and his second daughter, who were the first to speak, had their expressions changed. They were different from their big brother’s excitement. Instead, they were a little unpredictable.

As for the remaining fourth son and youngest fifth daughter, one of them was resting with his eyes closed, as if he did not care at all. The other had been nervously clenching her hands since the beginning, looking weak and afraid to express her opinion.

Humph!

Suddenly, a cold snort caused the atmosphere in the conference hall to freeze.

“Wind God? Don’t talk to me about that bard who doesn’t do anything serious all day. Other than drinking and singing, I don’t even know if it’s a boy or a girl. “Louise said angrily.

From the shame and anger on the woman’s face, it could be seen that the Wind God had probably done something extremely beastly to her. For example, lying on the bed half-covered and waiting for a long time without seeing any trace of his lover. The next day, he found that the wine cellar in his castle that had been treasured for many years had been emptied.

The thought of this made her angry. Louise lost her interest in teasing her children and directly announced the answer.

“If I didn’t sense wrongly, your new sister is in the Flame Domain.

“Yan... Flame Domain?” All the children were stunned.

“M-Mother, don’t tell me you’re... Are you on good terms with Fire God? But I remember that Fire God is also a woman...Female?” Louis showed an exaggerated expression of surprise and hesitated.

He couldn’t be bothered with his eldest son, who didn’t have a good brain.

Louise spoke again,”

“Ten years ago, when I was traveling, I had a child with a human Earl of Fire

Code City.

After trying hard to recall, Louise added two more words.

“Probably.”

After all, would you remember how many pieces of bread you had eaten?

“What? Flame Domain? Or...Humans?” Louis exclaimed.

Even his fourth son, who had his eyes closed and seemed indifferent to everything, opened his eyes and frowned.

“Mother, if I remember correctly, the Flame Domain belongs to the Nine Nations. Putting aside the ‘Gods’, it is said that not many of the lowest in the overall national strength can reach the Transcendent level.

“Even if our younger sister is talented and can naturally awaken mother’s ancestral bloodline, but... There shouldn’t be any fresh blood in the Flame Domain that could activate her bloodline, right?”

His third son, who was the most rational and intelligent, was right. Other than awakening the bloodline, it also needed to be activated. Unlike the former, which could be explained by “talent,” the latter was a real hardware..

Chapter 348: Butterfly’s Flapping Wings (Part 2)

His words attracted the approval of his brother, Louis.

“That’s right. If it weren’t for the Fire God, it would have been annexed long ago in that desolate corner of the Flame Domain. I think it might have been a mutation in her bloodline and she used some low-grade blood to activate it, right

Louis ‘words were rough but not rough. Even Louise nodded, as if she also felt that this possibility was the highest at the moment.

“Tsk tsk, this new little sister of mine is really pitiful. It was originally a very lucky thing. However, from the looks of it...” The second daughter shook her head regretfully, her tone full of pity.

If he hadn’t noticed her relieved expression a second ago, he would have thought that she was feeling regretful.

However, this sentence was not wrong.

The Blood Clan had a very strong concept of the "first drop of blood." To put it bluntly, it was what blood was needed to activate the bloodline. The greater the potential of the original host of the first drop of blood, the same would be reflected on the Blood Clan.

His children, including his mother Louise, did not think highly of his "new sister's" first drop of blood.

Relying on trash blood to activate the bloodline was equivalent to destroying his future and ruining the ancestor's bloodline that had unlimited potential.

"That... I... I've heard that the Flame Domain seems to be... There seemed to be...A forbidden demon that belonged to them?"

The youngest fifth daughter, who had always been timid and seemed to be very introverted, suddenly spoke weakly at this time.

Her second daughter, who was sitting next to her, immediately shook her shoulders and laughed mockingly. Then, she revealed a ridiculous expression.

"A forbidden demon? Even if the Flame Domain really had it, how could my little sister have the chance to absorb it?"

"Let alone her, among the five of us, which one of us has ever sucked the blood of a forbidden monster? That kind of existence was the same as his mother. They had existed since the Old Chaotic Era. Even the Nine Gods had to suppress them in secret, not daring to let them grow up peacefully. "

"A younger sister who has just awakened her bloodline? What right did she have to suck his blood? Could it be that she was in love with a forbidden monster?"

The second daughter's words were clearly laced with a strong, aggressive, and sour tone. Everyone present knew that there was a reason for this.

Once, by chance, her second daughter got to know a forbidden monster that had transformed. She had to grasp such a heaven-sent opportunity. Therefore, under her crazy pursuit, the forbidden monster followed her second daughter 'half-heartedly' and did what it had to do...

In the end, when it came to repaying the favor and letting her daughter taste the blood of the forbidden monster, she pulled up her pants and ran away. This made her daughter very angry, so she was very traumatized in this aspect.

As for Louise...

As a mother, she covered her mouth and laughed. She had no intention of interfering with the various conflicts and confrontations between her children. She might as well be more like a... A fun person?

"Alright, no matter what, since I've awakened my bloodline, no matter how low my future potential is, I have to take it over.

"This matter is decided by..."

"Owl, you do it. Go to the Flame Domain and bring your new sister back." Louise looked around and finally looked at her fourth son.

"Yes, Mother."

Owl nodded. His personality was very cold. He did not ask why his mother chose him, nor did he show any signs of trouble. He only answered calmly, unwilling to say another word.

"Remember not to make too much of a fuss. Although the Flame Domain is weak, it's still one of the Nine Nations. Moreover, their gods aren't like ours. It's said that the God of Fire is on duty every day. If you make the God of Fire unhappy, even I can't save you."

After a simple reminder, Louise lost her seriousness again. She said with interest,

Also, this is a rare opportunity. I'll allow you to make a trip to the Thousand Islands first. "

"Yes... Let me think, which part of the island did you get kicked out of...Oh right! Yae Shrine, help me send my regards to your father and your shrine sister. Although we're half-brothers, I really like that little girl!

"She wanted to seal me and save her fallen brother, hehehe..." Louise clutched her stomach and let out a crisp laugh.

Even though it wasn't hard to hear the evil humor in it, Owl's eyes still lit up, and a hint of emotion appeared on his stoic face.

"Thank, thank you, Mother!" A rare grateful tone escaped from Owl's mouth.

The second daughter, who was sitting opposite Owl, pursed her lips when she saw this. It was as if she was still brooding over this matter in the past. She was expressing disdain and disdain.

"Alright, that's it. I should go back to my coffin. Sigh... I just don't know if I can fall asleep again. Should I eat some Night Charm Grass..."

After the matter was finished, the order was given to the other.

Louise yawned and waved her hand as if she was going to take a nap. Her body magically transformed into blood-colored bats and finally disappeared from everyone's sight.

After the mother's aura disappeared, the five children's expressions relaxed significantly.

They didn't have the feeling of reunion that they had with their brothers and sisters. They chatted and chatted. Everyone seemed to be unwilling to talk to each other. After they finished talking about business, they stood up and left one by one..

Chapter 349: Butterfly's Flapping Wings (Part 2)

However...

Two of the five people secretly gathered in a secret room in the castle after they left.

“What do you think? Is this male voice sounded.

“From Mother’s tone and attitude... Like the false and the false It was another female voice.

“Then what should we do? We just accepted and got a sister who fell from the sky and divided the family inheritance with us? I won’t do that!”

“Oh? You pretended to be gentle in front of your mother, but in the end, I couldn’t tell that your actual personality was even more impatient than that silly big guy, Louis.

The woman’s voice was filled with sarcasm.

She quickly changed her tone.

“Don’t worry. It’s still a problem whether our new sister can even appear in front of Mother.”

“You... You mean...” The male voice seemed to have thought of something.

“That’s right. From the Flame Domain to our Green Maple, it’s normal for some accidents to happen on such a long journey, right? And our Blood Race bloodline is so precious. It’s also normal for others to spy on us in the Flame Domain, right?”

“But... Wouldn’t this anger his mother? She seemed to value him very much. She even sent Owl to personally pick him up. “The man hesitated.

However, the female voice seemed to have heard a joke and sneered.

“Respect? Heh, if she really valued him, she wouldn’t have asked Owl to go to Thousand Island to visit her family, and she wouldn’t have specially held a family meeting to tell us about this.”

“Don’t tell me you haven’t noticed that Mother has no affection for us, her flesh and blood. For her, the law of the jungle is the only law of survival. Perhaps she just wants to see us brothers and sisters killing each other to add some fun to her long and boring life.”

“Since that’s the case, we’ll do as she wishes. We can’t touch the remaining three for now, but she’s a younger sister who has just awakened.”

It was such a cruel thing, but it sounded as if he was stepping on an ant by the roadside. The male voice couldn’t help but shiver a little. He suddenly said,

“Oh right, why did you suddenly mention the forbidden demon in the Flame Domain during the meeting?”

“It’s just a test. Before making any plans, we have to think of the worst possibility. But looking at my mother, it seems that I’m overthinking.”

“Oh, I see.”

The male voice wanted to say something, but it seemed like he couldn’t hold it in.

“Can you stop pretending to be like that outside? I keep feeling, feeling...”

“That... What, what did she feel? Could it be that, if I say this, brother, you...I don’t like it... What?”

The voice of the female voice changed and immediately became soft and weak, timid and afraid.

“I will arrange for people as soon as possible to go to the Flame Domain to find that sister before Owl. You can decide whether to kill her or not after that.

“Thank you... Thank you, brother, brother...The best!” A soft and happy voice sounded.

It was as if he could not take it anymore.

The man in the secret room did not say anything else and quickly left.

Only the youngest fifth daughter was left behind. She looked at the map of the continent on the secret chamber and pondered over the location of the Flame Domain.

“It’s not easy to have a younger sister. She’s finally not the youngest...’

“Oh... It feels like a pity.”

The blood climbed up the map and swallowed it.

A faint voice echoed in the secret chamber.

“Your sister is a bad person.

“I really want to taste my mother’s taste...”

Licking his red lips, his sharp fangs shone in the darkness.

Winter Country.

Under the white snowfield.

“Professor, there’s a K-grade prototype machine that we’ve lost contact with.

Should we start the recovery plan?” “Hmm? Where are they?”

“Flame Domain, Farm Farm 58.”

“Tsk, they actually built a farm in a broken place like the Flame Domain. What a waste of resources. Let’s see if there are any second type of test subjects in the farm. If there aren’t, we can just treat it as scrap.

There was no expectation in the doctor’s voice. Everyone knew how rare the second type of test subjects were. Even in their own country, there were not many of them.

However...

“Professor, it seems...One, no, two.”

“What did you say?”

Therefore, just as Liao Zixuan was about to call off the war and completely end the Flame Domain, he wanted to go home to find the little girl, pack his luggage, and set sail happily to the next Water God Kingdom, the Thousand Islands...

Boom!

The sky seemed to have been torn apart. In the blink of an eye, it turned as red as fire, as if purgatory was roasting the sky. No one would forget this scene because it had only been a short while. This symbolized...

The Fire God descended.

And the place of descent...

A thousand miles away in the Starfire Forest, Cher, Liz, and Liao Zixuan all had a premonition.

Fire Code City.

The reason why Liao Zixuan's heart tightened was that...

A bad premonition arose, and he quickly sensed the little girl's location.

In the end, this sense was more important. After sensing it, he realized...

For some reason, Vivian had left Red Flame Town when he was settling the matter between the Earl and Liz. At this moment, she was also...Fire Code City?

Could it be...

Liao Zixuan quickly looked around. He realized that the maid who had been in a "standby" mode after the Earl's death had indeed disappeared.

This proved that...

A new machine was born!

"The second type of test subject...This is bad! Could it be that she had already awakened her ability??"

Only then can I obey... Preserve humanity...]

F * ck!

What the hell is this!

Time goes back a little bit.

Red Flame Town reconstruction site.

In Vivian's temporary cabin.

Alina was cleaning and cleaning, and her cheeks were puffed up. She stared at the bucket with her eyes wide open. A new Oracle message suddenly appeared. She looked at it for a long time, but she couldn't see why.

What did he mean by that? Was he bullying her because she was uneducated??

As she used her ability, Elena gradually discovered a fact. The more important the matter, the more confusing the hints given by the Oracle.

Therefore, the more she did not understand the oracle, the greater the impact it had on her!

This is bad!

In the past, Elina could at least understand the simplest and most complete first line, but this time, she could only understand the last half of the first line.

Thinking of this...

Hiss...

Irina gasped. The little maid was so nervous that she couldn't help but clench her hand that was holding the broom.

Coincidentally, at this moment, the sound of the door opening came from behind.

Creak...

Scared!

The little maid was shocked and almost jumped up.

“Elena, what’s wrong? It felt... You don’t look too good. Are you too tired? Do you want to asked with concern as she walked into the room.

“Hu! No...I’m fine.’

Seeing that it was a little girl, Irina heaved a sigh of relief. She sighed at herself for being overly nervous and waved her hand to signal for the girl to come over. Then, she quietly hid the Oracle text in the bucket beside her feet.

“Vivian, why are you back? Seeing that the little girl seemed to be in a hurry, Irina couldn’t help but ask curiously.

Usually, at this time, Vivian was still fighting with the refugees and foreigners to rebuild their homes. It was rare for her to return home so early.

“This...

Vivian hesitated and said,”

” Not long ago, a brother of Chris called ‘Little Seven’ came to look for me. He said that Chris had something to say to me in private and asked me to go to the Starfire Forest, so I wanted to go home first and put everything down.

“Oh, I see.” Elina nodded in understanding.

The servant girl had some impression of ” Little Seven “. He seemed to be Chris’s second-in-command. Although the two of them were the boss and the younger brother, they were more like brothers and had a very good relationship.

However, what made Elina curious was why Chris had to ask someone else to pass the message. Why did he have to ask Vivian to go so far away?

The Starfire Forest was about an hour away from Red Flame Town, and teleportation was not possible because there were no anchor points in the wilderness.

Could it be...

Shua!

As if she had thought of something, Irina's eyes immediately lit up. She gave the little girl a meaningful smile and quickly urged Vivian.

"Oh, hurry up and go. Don't make her wait anxiously. However, remember to be gentle when you reject her! Hehe..."

"Refuse? What rejection?" Vivian looked puzzled.

"Alright, don't ask anymore. You'll know when you go!

Elena mysteriously pushed Vivian out of the house after she put her things away.

He closed the door again.

The maid hummed a tune and prepared to continue cleaning the room.

However, halfway through the humming..

Elena suddenly stopped.

No, wait...

No, no, no!

Did Vivian...”Stay ?

The word ” stay ” was a great provocation to the maid, because just a few minutes ago, the Oracle had just instructed her not to stay, not to stay!

The words that were previously confusing suddenly became clear at this moment. Therefore, the last line of the first line did not refer to the young miss, but...Vivian?

Irina cursed her stupidity in her heart. Yes, although it was temporary, her current position was Vivian’s exclusive maid. It had nothing to do with the Lady!

Putting down the cleaning tools in her hand, Irina did not even change her dirty clothes. She rushed out of the door to catch up with Vivian who had just left.

Although she didn’t know the reason for doing so, since the oracle had the words ” never leave “, she would definitely do the right thing.

Every time she scolded the Oracle in her heart, she would say that it was unreliable, but in reality, the little maid’s body was still very honest.

“Wei...Vivian!”

“Wait a minute! Wait... Phew... Wait a minute!”

An anxious shout came from behind. The little girl turned around and saw the panting maid.

“Elena? How did you...”

“Ah! ‘Great, I finally made it in time. Phew...’ Phew... I’m so tired. Vivian, why are you walking so weak weak Elan rested with her hands on her knees for a long time before she regained her strength..
