Chapter 351: The Last Tranquility Before the Storm (2)

“It’s like this, Vivian. After you left, I thought about it again. I feel that as your personal maid, I have to stay by your side at all times for such an important matter!

Fearing that Vivian would refuse, Irina quickly added.

“By the way, just, just treat it as coming out to get some fresh air and rest for a while. It’s a little boring to always stay at home...”

Vivian hesitated for a moment after the maid said that because Little Seven had told her that Chris wanted her to come alone. However, Elena had been working very hard recently. After weighing the pros and cons, Vivian nodded.

“Yay! Hehe...”

Holding the little girl’s hand happily, Elina and Vivian walked together.

However, the little maid was thinking about something else.

The first line of the oracle was completed.

But the second line...

In the opposite direction of the Starfire Forest, in a remote place in the wilderness.

With Seven leading the way, Chris was so excited when he heard that Vivian wanted to meet him alone that he set off with him without even thinking.

However, after walking for a while, when Chris's excitement subsided, his keen perception sent him a warning signal.

"Little Seven, stop for a moment." Chris suddenly called out to Little Seven.

'What? Old... Boss, just a few more steps and we'll be there. It's just ahead, we'll be there soon...

Seven turned around in shock and said.

"I haven't even asked." Chris sighed.

Seeing Boss like this, Little Seven's expression changed again, and her gaze started to drift uncontrollably.

"Little Seven, how long have we known each other?"

When I was five or six years old, my parents abandoned me and threw me on the streets of the outer Urban area. If I hadn't met my boss, I... I would have frozen to death and starved to death long ago."

Little Seven's voice became softer and softer.

Chris's eyes flashed with recollection. Indeed, he had been an orphan since he was young. The first companion he met was Little Seven. From then on, the two children on the streets supported each other and eventually grew up to have today's achievements.

It could be said that Little Seven was his most trusted and closest brother.

However...

Why? Little Seven, give me a reason. "Chris hid the trembling in his voice.

Although his tone sounded calm, it was like the dark waves under the calm sea, trying to suppress the anger in his heart.

Plop!

Seven knelt on the ground.

Little Seven and Chris had a tacit understanding since they were young. He knew that he couldn't lie to Boss and had already made preparations for the future.

Pain and struggle flashed across Little Seven's face.

"Boss, Nana...Nana, she...Wu... I... I have no choice!

They put... They kidnapped Nana from the city...If I don't do what they say...

Do..."

Tears flowed down Little Seven's face, his hands tightly clutching the soil on the ground.

"Nana is pregnant! Why did they! Why? I was going to marry Nana after we were done here. Nana's parents finally accepted me. Everything was going to be fine, but why..."

Why!"

Chris had known about Little Seven and Nana from the very beginning. Not to mention him, even his subordinates had calluses on their ears.

Every time they went on a mission, Little Seven would always talk about Nana. She would always say that she would marry a wife after she earned enough money.

He had even survived the Fire Code City's disaster, but who would have thought...

"I'm sorry, I'm sorry, Boss. I had to do this. Otherwise, I'll let Nana down. I'm sorry...My child in Nana's stomach!"

Little Seven knelt on the ground and cried, while Chris...The young man finally couldn't suppress his anger and punched Little Seven's face.

Bang!

After a dull sound.

Little Seven's face was red and swollen, and there was a blood bleed. He lay on the ground, he knew the difference in strength between him and Chris, or perhaps he already felt guilty, so he gave up resisting.

"Old... Boss, hurry, hurry back. They want me to face the big... Big Sister was also...In that case...Lure Big Sister to..."

Starfire Forest, they wanted to take the opportunity to...The people around Big Sister are in trouble. Boss, if you rush back now, you still... There's still time..."

Little Seven said weakly. Her eyes turned ashen because she knew that her mission had failed. If she didn't lure Chris to the ambush, the treasure thieves would attack Nana in the city.

Without Nana and the baby in her stomach, Little Seven felt that he could die.

But...

“Get up, don’t f * cking play dead! “Chris ‘irritable voice rang in Little Seven’s ears.

“Continue to lead the way!”

“Wha... What?” Little Seven wondered if there was something wrong with her ears.

“If I’m not wrong, if I didn’t appear at the location that those people had prepared for me, they would have killed the hostage, right? “Chris snorted disdainfully.

Although he had never done such a thing, it did not mean that he was not familiar with sinister methods.

“Boss, you, your big sister...” Little Seven was speechless.

He didn’t even know what to say for a moment.

He knew how much Chris admired Vivian. Now, Chris did not choose to turn around and save Vivian’s maid friend. This would definitely leave a great impression on Big Sister, but instead... Help the betrayed me?

“Do you f * cking think of me as someone who would throw his brother’s matters to the back of his mind just to pursue a woman? F * ck! If it weren’t for the special circumstances, I really wanted to beat you up first! ”

After Chris finished cursing, he reached out his hand to Little Seven, who was crying on the ground.

“Stop crying like a girl. Hurry up and lead the way. I want to see which bastards dare to go against me, Chris!

“But...But Boss, there are many people lying in ambush...”

“Hmph, don’t underestimate your boss.”

After Chris finished speaking, he secretly touched the card that was given to him by Lord ” White “. It was the card that he always carried with him no matter when he was sleeping or bathing.

It was said that it could save his life in times of danger. This was also why Chris was so confident and knew that there was an ambush.

Chris had originally planned to treat this legendary item as a family heirloom, but he did not expect...

Was he going to use it so soon?

However...

Vivian... I’m sorry.

Chris knew the little girl’s kindness to him and his brothers. She had saved their lives several times. Now was a good opportunity to repay Vivian’s kindness and save Vivian’s maid. However, compared to Little Seven, Chris still chose the latter.

He could only rely on...

Could Vivian’s maid best friend be smarter or lucky enough not to be at home and escape the disaster?

Creak...

The door opened.

I'm back!

Elina, who had left home to chase after Vivian, stepped back into the house.

Of course.

Following closely behind the little maid was the sound of footsteps.

"Elena, you're really... Are you feeling unwell?" Vivian's voice sounded suspicious.

Ah, this is bad!

Irina thought to herself that this was bad. As an otaku, she was so happy that she forgot to act.

After all, her period had suddenly come, so she had no choice but to ask Vivian to cancel Chris's invitation and come home to take care of herself.

At the thought of this.

"It hurts..Ah! It hurts..." The little maid clutched her lower abdomen and groaned.

Seeing this, Vivian quickly helped Elina to lie on the bed. After covering her with a blanket, she went to the kitchen to boil some hot water and soup.

Lying under the warm blanket, the little maid only showed her head. Listening to Vivian's busy voice in the kitchen, Alina was filled with a sense of security and happiness.

Occasionally, he would be taken care of by the people...

That's great!

But of course, this was not the reason why Irina was acting like this. It was because of the Oracle. The more she thought about it, the more she felt that the second line of the Oracle was too tragic. It clearly stated that if she wanted to reverse the situation, she had to stay.

In this way, the second line of the Oracle was completed, right?

However...

What would happen?

Just as Elena was still pondering...

Suddenly.

The little maid's eyes widened. Although she was under the blanket, she still felt a chill run from her toes to her head, and goosebumps rose all over her body.

That was because...

Her bed faced the entrance hall.

And from her perspective, Alina clearly saw that the doorknob of the door, there was a knife being taken from the outside.... It stabbed in ruthlessly!

Chapter 352: Why Did They All Fall? 1

Ka...

The door lock, which was not very sturdy, was easily opened by the blade.

'IXIVO Thieves appeared behind the door.

At the same time, whispers could be heard.

"I can't believe that such a powerful person actually lives in such a shabby place. Heh, he's really honest.

"Cut the crap and quickly find the target."

Before the slightly more experienced Thief could finish his sentence, their eyes met with Elena's horrified gaze.

He did not give the little maid the chance to shout for help.

The two Bandits seemed to have done it countless times. One of them rushed over and grabbed the maid's limbs to stop her from struggling, while the other took a handkerchief that had been dipped in some kind of potion and had a strong pungent smell and covered Elena's mouth.

It was difficult for people to take effective action when they were extremely afraid.

Imagine a woman who lived alone at home and saw her door being broken into.

Elina could only watch helplessly as the Bandit's figure closed in on her in the blink of an eye. Fortunately, she did not meet the first condition. Before the bandits could touch the maid, a light blue ripple barrier blocked them.

Because it was too sudden, there was no time to brake. After the Thief's body crashed into it, a tyrannical rebound force instantly sent them flying.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

After the sound of falling, he quickly got up from the ground. What appeared in the thief's eyes was a little girl with a frown.

"How could this be? Didn't you say that you were led away?"

"Retreat quickly!"

The two thieves had obviously done their homework. They recognized Vivian at a glance and did not even have the desire to fight. They wanted to escape. However, how could the little girl let them go? With a casual wave of her hand, the magic barrier in all directions blocked all the paths of the two bandits.

When the scene changed again, they were already in the temporary office of Red Flame Town. Two bandits who were tied up were thrown aside.

The guards and militiamen were mobilized, and the players who followed them to join in the fun.

Relying on Vivian's discovery, they immediately found a few thieves who wanted to take advantage of the opportunity to cause trouble in other places.

Beside Vivian, the maid, Elina, looked at the fierce bandits who were tied up with fear.

She did not dare to think about the consequences if she was alone at home, or if she did not force Vivian to stay.

A large part of the reason for this was that Chris, who had been in charge of guarding against the invasion of other underground forces, had disappeared.

Then, even a fool could tell that Seven had planned to ask Vivian to leave Red Flame Town.

However, he still had to pry open the mouths of these two high-level Bandits who were considered the main force of the operation.

“Mayor! They still won’t speak. We’ve used all the methods we can...” The guard ran over and reported with a worried look on his face.

“Ask him again! If it doesn’t work out, I’ll...” Thorin slammed the table angrily.

He held it in for a long time but did not say the words “beat” or “torture”. This was the disadvantage of the Lawful Faction. It was not that Sorin did not want to, but that not many of his subordinates knew how to do it. This was because according to the official laws of the Fire Domain, torture was clearly prohibited.

The two high-level Bandits were also aware of this, which was why they were fearless and didn’t say a word.

This made Thorin angry, and the little maid at the side was also stomping her feet, feeling a little aggrieved. Moreover, Elena had a strong feeling that the information on these two thieves would be very important.

He saw that everyone was helpless.

Vivian was not bad at this, but she knew nothing about it.

But fortunately, the girl thought of another person. Perhaps she had some way to deal with this?

Hence, he decided to do it.

“Another me, another me?” Vivian began to whisper in her heart.

A few seconds later.

[What?]

It was the same as the little girl's voice, but it was an arrogant version.

Of course, if one were to compare this with Vivian's attitude of waking up from her deep sleep as soon as she spoke, then the test results would be out. She was arrogant and not slow at all.

"My other self, we're in trouble now. I wonder if I can ask you for help..."

Vivian quickly described the situation to her other self.

[That's it?]

A voice of disdain came from the spiritual space. She was actually on high alert because Vivian had called out to her on her own accord, which was rare.

However, she did not reply to Vivian immediately. Instead, she asked after sensing for a while,"

[Where's your Little Black? Why isn't he here?] "Xiao Hei went to do his own things.

[Humph! Is that so?]

In the spiritual space, the voice sounded like it was denouncing Liao Zixuan. At the critical moment, he was not by his side. However, in fact, it was not difficult to detect the secret joy in his voice.

She had no choice. Ever since Vivian had the wolf cub by her side, she basically did not even have the chance to appear. She could only watch small movies in her spiritual space every day.

Now that her competitor was gone, how could she miss such a good opportunity?

[Leave such a small matter to me!]

[I... Hehehe, I love interrogating people...]

The eerie voice echoed in Vivian's head, and she couldn't help but say a few more more words.. She carefully said,"

Chapter 353: Why Did They All Fall?_2

"The other me, then... Then I'll leave the body to you. However, try your best to be legal.

[Wait a minute, there are still so many outsiders here. Aren't you afraid that I'll expose myself?]

"It's okay. We're one. I actually hope that you can appear in front of everyone more often..."

After Vivian finished, she paused for a moment and added one last sentence sneakily.

"With a good image..."

[Alright, alright! I'll take care of my image.]

"Yes... Please."

Vivian closed her eyes after she finished speaking, and when she opened them again...

A flash of red flashed across the little girl's originally clear eyes. At the same time, an upward arc appeared at the corner of her mouth.

She moved quickly and arrived in front of Mayor Thorin.

“Uncle, Uncle Thorin, can you let me...Do you want to try?” He imitated Vivian’s soft voice, but his eyes were shining with anticipation.

The two Bandits who were tied up did not pay attention to the little girl’s details. They only revealed mocking expressions when they heard her.

In terms of strength, no matter how many of them there were, they were indeed no match for Vivian. But in terms of interrogation, what? Was this notoriously kind -hearted guy going to use kindness and preaching to influence them?

On the other side.

“What? Vivian, are you sure?”

ThorThorin wanted to speak but hesitated, so did Elina, who was standing beside him with a puzzled expression. However, the little maid’s mind spun quickly, and she instantly thought of a possibility.

“Vivian, do you know interrogation magic?? ”

As soon as he said that, Sorin immediately had an expression of understanding, and the surrounding guards also understood.

As for Vivian, the smile on the little girl’s face widened. She did not deny it and nodded.

“Yes, I like... He was good at this. However, could he ask the others to leave

Although everyone was curious and wanted to see it, since Vivian had made a request, Mayor Thorin waved his hand and everyone in the interrogation room filed out.

The two high-level thieves were supposed to be happy when they saw the little girl was the only one left in the empty interrogation room. However, when they saw Vivian smiling at them, they felt a chill down their spines.

He felt that this little girl...Something was wrong? It seems to be the same as the original impression of the middle of the ground, not too much?

An absurd thought rose from the bottom of their hearts. Could it be... Would it have been better if he had confessed earlier?

And then...

They had confirmed a fact. A Bandit's early warning perception was indeed very sharp.

Because he had promised Vivian that he would manage his image well.

Therefore, the entire process was very hidden and did not cause too much of a commotion. Except

"Wait, you...What are you doing!"

"No, don't! Don't come again, wait! I said, I...Ah! Uh..

The people outside the interrogation room could only hear the two high-level thieves who had been silent and had the time to mock the guards. At this moment, they were wailing like ghosts and howling like they were suffering from extreme torture.

Even in the end.

"No..." No! Don't come over...Ah!" "Spare me, I said... I'll tell you everything! "

"Please, uhh... Beg... Stop... Stop!"

Only after a few minutes, it had turned into a kneeling and begging for mercy, from toughness to fear to now begging for mercy.

It was no longer Vivian who wanted to interrogate them for information, but they begged to tell the little girl everything they knew.

Finally.

Creak...

The door of the interrogation room opened again.

Just like when she first went in, Vivian came out with the same soft and weak appearance. She nodded shyly at the people outside the door, indicating that she had lived up to expectations and was interrogated.

When Sorin, the little maid, and a few other players who had joined the town guard camp looked into the interrogation room again.

From the appearance of the two high-level bandits, there was no obvious injury, but from their mental state... "Don't come over, don't come over! I said it all! I already said..."

"Demon...Demons...Demons..."

They held their heads and squatted in the corner of the interrogation room, their bodies curled up tightly. They no longer looked like the evil people who had committed all kinds of crimes and were fearless. Instead, they looked more like...The two mentally ill patients.

"Wow, Vivian, you, you're amazing! I didn't expect your interrogation magic to be so effective. Moreover, it seems...Isn't the effect too good?"

The little maid, Elina, looked at the two high-level thieves and swallowed her saliva with lingering fear.

She subconsciously muttered to herself,

“I keep feeling that they seem to have been played badly by you...”

“Why? Since you’re so interested, do you want to learn and experience” stared at the little maid. He asked with a smile.

He immediately shivered.

Elina shook her head like a rattle.

After briefly explaining the results of the interrogation to Thorin, the group split into two groups. One group led the militia and players to rescue Chris, while the other group headed to Fire Code City.

She easily managed to find out where the kidnapped Nana was being held.

Under the guise of saving people.

But in fact, there was still a little selfishness in the second personality. Although she was sleeping most of the time, she also knew that there was a force called the “ Treasure Thief Group ” that always went against Vivian..

Chapter 354: Why Did They All Fall?_3

She was different from a certain wolf cub.

He didn’t like to play those messy tricks.

What she liked the most was...

Ping push.

This was the perfect opportunity...Once and for all, right? It would save these flies from buzzing all day long.

After such a pleasant decision.

An excited smile appeared on his face.

The teleportation circle under Vivian's feet flickered and disappeared from everyone's sight.

Fire Code City, outer Urban area.

The Treasure Thief Gang's secret underground base.

Fox Clan.

If there were two things that ranked first in a woman's life, one was money, and the other was...Appearance.

Sometimes.

For a small number of women, their looks were more important than their lives.

Coincidentally.

Seductive Fox was one of them.

But now...

*  The gloomy voice that sounded like a malicious ghost echoed in her room.

The lights in the room were not switched on, and only a few candles were lit, so it was extremely dark.

In such an environment, if he saw the woman in the center, it would be even more terrifying.

The Seductive Fox now was not like before. She was naked and used her body and appearance as a weapon.

Ever since she had been devoured by Xinyan's flames, she was no different from a dead person even though she was still alive. Her entire body was wrapped in bandages, and not a single part of her skin could be seen.

She could tell the reason from her face. There were large burn marks on her face. Seductive Fox had asked several doctors and even found a priest, but they all shook their heads and told her that they did not know what the cause was.

No treatment was effective on her.

Rather than calling it a scar, it was more like a... Curse.

Now, she did not have the ability to break the curse. She could only pass the curse and hatred to others.

"Do you see this iron brand? Haha, it has already been roasted until it's red. If I put it on your face, tsk tsk..."

Seductive Fox laughed a little hysterically. The person she was talking to was a beautiful young girl who was tied up and thrown on the ground.

With the help of the weak candlelight, it could be seen that there was an obvious bulge on the young girl's lower abdomen. She had been pregnant for a while.

At this moment, there was only endless fear on the young girl's face. She kept shaking her head, and large beads of cold sweat soaked her forehead.

"I remember that your name is Nana, right? What a beautiful face! And the baby in your arms. Now, I'm going to put some makeup on your mother, okay? This way, your mother can be as beautiful as me!"

"Don't be afraid. I've already done makeup for many people.

Seductive Fox, who was in a frenzy, was about to walk towards Nana with the hot iron pincers in her hand. But at this moment...

Dong dong dong!

Suddenly, someone knocked on the door.

"Get lost!"

"Didn't I warn you not to bother me at a time like this? "The Seductive Fox's eyes were filled with brutality.

The people outside the door saw that Seductive Fox had no intention of opening the door, so they could only rely on themselves.

He used a black sickle to cut the extremely sturdy door of the leader's room in half.

“Ah, as expected, there’s still one who can stand here. “Vivian’s eyes flashed red, and the black sickle reflected a bloody shadow under the candlelight.

Seductive Fox subconsciously looked down at the girl who appeared at the door.

She saw her two elite guards being trampled under the girl’s boots like dead pigs.

If one looked further back, they would see that members of the Fox Clan like the guards were all over the corridor behind the girl.

Perhaps he had also sensed Seductive Fox’s gaze.

“Eh? Why did they all fall? Ah... You must be tired from playing, right?” Vivian also turned her head and looked at the pile of human flesh in the corridor.

However, when she turned around and looked at the only Seductive Fox who could still stand up. “So... Can you please continue to play with me?” The girl licked her lips..

Chapter 355: The Price of Growth (1)

Seductive Fox’s expression changed again and again.

From her expression, she did not look as shocked as she had imagined. Instead, she looked more like she was surprised. The reason for her surprise was not that Vivian would appear here, but the speed at which the little girl would arrive here, and... Such a strange state.

All these things will affect her, and all these things will affect her, and all these things will affect her, and all these things will affect her, and all these things will come to revenge.

But he couldn’t care less.

According to the plan, Seductive Fox had already prepared for Vivian to come to the door. It was not difficult to guess, and she had been waiting for this moment.

“Black Tiger! Why aren’t you coming out?” The seductive fox’s sharp voice echoed in the room.

As for the little girl holding the black sickle, blocking the door, just as she said, it seemed like she was playing a game.

Vivian was not in a hurry to fight. She looked at a burly man who walked out of the secret door after Seductive Fox’s voice.

“Oh? There’s still a little mouse, hehehe...” Seeing the burly man appear, the smile on the little girl’s lips deepened.

On the other hand, the burly man’s bulging muscles and various tattoos that seemed to be animal tattoos all over his upper body were just like the name Seductive Fox had shouted. He was the last member of the Treasure Thief Gang and also the most powerful member. He was the leader of the Tiger Clan, Black Tiger.

“Hurry up! That little girl’s condition is different from usual. I don’t have the energy to make you talk nonsense anymore. Give me that!”

Black Tiger urged Seductive Fox as soon as he appeared. He had obviously noticed Vivian’s abnormality.

As for Seductive Fox.

She gritted her teeth. Although the “nonsense” that the black tiger had mentioned was the key to her revenge on Vivian, she could feel the aura of her own kind from the little girl. She did not dare to hesitate anymore.

“Here you go! It’s best if you can achieve what you say!

Seductive Fox took out a small bottle and threw it to Black Tiger.

After Black Tiger took the bottle from Seductive Fox, his tall body trembled with excitement.

The big hand quickly opened the bottle cap and a faint smell of blood wafted into the air. There was sticky blood inside, but the black tiger did not reject it. Instead, it drank it down.

Gulp...

The blood essence of the Seductive Fox in the bottle flowed down its throat and into its stomach. The black tiger smashed the empty bottle onto the ground.

After sensing the changes in his body, the burly man’s wild laughter began to echo in the room.

“Finally...I’ve finally gathered the power of the four symbols! Haha... Hahaha!”

After the wild joy, when the black tiger looked at the little girl opposite him again, there was no fear in its eyes. Instead, it was full of fighting spirit, as if it wanted to test its strength with Vivian.

This made the little girl laugh coldly.

“Heh... Looks like I was ambushed after all.

From the conversation between Black Tiger and Seductive Fox, Vivian could tell that they had been waiting for her to come. However, the little girl under the second personality was not unhappy about it. Instead, she was more excited, as if she had found hidden content after playing the game to the final level.

“You will pay the price for your arrogance. Our Treasure Stealing Guild has a hundred-year-old legacy manual!”

. The power of the four symbols!”

Vivian’s attitude seemed to have angered the black tiger.

After he roared, all the tattoos on his previously bare upper body began to glow at this moment.

“Tiger Strength!” As the black tiger shouted, the tattoo on its chest that symbolized a tiger became especially clear. At the same time, a ferocious tiger-like power filled its entire body.

“Snake’s Tenacity!” Following that, the originally faint and blurry “snake” tattoo on his arms was activated, making his arms look like pythons. They were filled with toughness and also had the power to strangle.

“Crow’s Feather!” “Fox Spirit!”

The tattoo of the crow on his back and the blood essence of the Seductive Fox that the black tiger had drunk were like the last piece of the puzzle. The tattoo of the fox covered the black tiger’s face like a mask.

Previously, Earl Berlin had asked Black Tiger why he didn’t take the death of Viper, one of the leaders of the four tribes, to heart. Black Tiger’s answer was that Viper deserved it, but in reality, Black Tiger had his own selfish motives.

He had to gather all the blood essences of the leaders of the four divisions of the Treasure Thief Group in order to cultivate the Power of the Four Symbols. However, it was not an easy task to gather the blood essences of the leaders of the four divisions of the Treasure Thief Group. It was equivalent to having their vitality greatly damaged and their strength regressing. All of them were black-hearted leaders. With the exception of Death Crow, when Black Tiger asked Death Crow for blood essences, Death Crow did not hesitate to give it to him.

Therefore, Black Tiger, who was secretly eyeing the blood essence of the viper and the Seductive Fox, did not find a suitable solution in the past. However, after Vivian appeared, he tried his best to cooperate and deliberately went against her. His goal could be said to be today!

Viper was killed, and in order to take revenge, Mei Fox had to help him, but now...

Feeling the surging power in his body, the power of the four symbols gave him the strength of a tiger, the toughness of a snake, the wings of a crow, and the perception of a fox. It could be said that his current strength had more than four times compared to before.

This was also why Black Tiger was so arrogant that he was not afraid of Vivian, who was already a rank 3 mage.

“Little girl, let me persuade you to release that Summoned Beast of yours! This way, you might still have a chance..”

Chapter 356: The Price of Growth (2)

“As for me, hahaha, I can also collect the blood essence of your Summoned

Beast, allowing my power of the four symbols to reach the legendary...Five

Elephant level!”

Black Tiger’s current mentality should be like a local tyrant who suddenly became rich.

Moreover, he had endured for many years, and it could be said that he had accumulated a lot of strength and had risen to the same level as Vivian. In Black Tiger’s mind, they were now at the same level. There was no difference in hardware. How could he lose to a woman?

Crazy, all can be turned on

However, he had to bear the price.

Originally, the second personality wanted to see what new tricks the black tiger could play. However, when the black tiger became more and more arrogant, it even touched her taboo.

The girl moved. Her calves bent slightly, and the strength of her leather boots on the floor suddenly increased.

After waiting for a moment, the seemingly weak and slender legs of the woman exploded with an unbelievable and terrifying force.

Even with the help of the Spirit of the Fox's keen senses, the black tiger could only see that the floor was cracking like a spider web, but the little girl who was originally standing there had disappeared.

What?

Where did he go?

The shock in Black Tiger's heart had yet to end when a mocking voice filled with killing intent sounded from behind Black Tiger.

"You still want me to summon Little Black?"

"Are you even worthy?" The young lady's voice turned cold, and even her tone was amplified. For the first time, there was a hint of anger in her voice.

"You..."

Black Tiger wanted to turn around, but he realized that he could not complete such a simple action because he had lost control of the second half.

At the same time, along with his desire to move, a delayed pain finally stimulated his entire body, causing the black tiger's eyes to widen and his breathing to quicken.

Faint blood oozed out from the burly man's waist, forming a thin line. At first, there was not much, but as the black tiger tried to turn around, the blood began to flow like a fountain.

It was not a very serious injury.

It was nothing more than being cut in half at the waist.

The girl's leather boots kicked him from behind.

Plop!

After the Black Tiger was strengthened by the Power of the Four Symbols, its valiant Stage Three Warrior body fell limply to the ground.

"For...Why? My power of the four symbols...You... On what basis..."

Black Tiger was extremely unwilling to accept this. Before he died, his eyes were still wide open. He could not believe that everyone was clearly at Tier 3, and he was a Warrior who was proud of his physical body. He was actually defeated by a Summoner in close combat...Insta-killed?

After Vivian heard that, she turned to the black tiger and looked down at it from above. The black tiger could no longer move and was counting down to its death.

"Why?" The little girl repeated as if she had heard something funny.

"Because this body is a masterpiece that Xiao Hei and I trained together! As for your so-called power of the four symbols, hehe...Just by hearing the name, one could tell that it was a small fry skill. How could he have the nerve to call it

“You...! Puff!” The girl’s vicious words made him so angry that his blood rushed to his heart.

Originally, the black tiger could still live for a while, but now, after spitting out a mouthful of blood, it lost its vitality.

[That...]

After the black tiger died, a weak voice came from the spiritual space. Because the second personality was in control of the body, the voice in his mind now belonged to the original little girl.

“What? Don’t say that you’re going to blame me for killing him! Shouldn’t he kill this bastard?? ”

[No, no, I mean...’My other self, you should speak less next time, that kind of...’ Is that kind of words okay?

Vivian hesitated.

” Tsk tsk, are you shy, Vivian?”the second personality teased with interest.

However, the smile on her face froze in the next second.

[No, I mean, isn’t my body also your body? According to what you said... It should be Little Black who taught the two of us. Weren’t you also taught?) Vivian finally said it.

“You!” Immediately, a rare blush crawled onto the second personality’s face. She stomped her feet in embarrassment and anger.

[My other self, are you... You actually like Little Black?]

Vivian suddenly asked curiously.

“Bah! Don’t put your feelings on me!

[But...Just now, when Black Tiger was talking bad about Little Black, I could clearly feel that your emotions seemed to be fluctuating very violently in the spiritual space. Moreover, you even...]

Before Vivian could finish, the second personality stopped her.

“Stop! Look, it’s all your fault for disturbing me. There was a woman who ran into the room just now!

[Ah! Yes... I’m sorry!]

The little girl in the mental space immediately stopped talking, afraid that she would disturb the second personality. As for the girl, she heaved a sigh of relief.

At the same time, she cursed in her heart. How could she have forgotten this?

Whoever was in the spiritual space could sense the other party’s emotions. Now, she had completely exposed herself.

Damn it, damn it!

He vented his anger on Seductive Fox.

Holding the black sickle, Vivian quickly headed into the room. Seductive Fox had just entered the secret door while the black tiger was fighting.

The space inside the secret door was not big.

However, the scene inside made the second personality stop in his tracks.

After witnessing the black tiger being killed by Vivian, Seductive Fox completely gave up on physical revenge. The scene in the secret room was actually her real revenge for the little girl..

Chapter 357: The Price of Growth (3)

“Did you see that? These people who were hung up by hooks!”

The Seductive Fox looked mad. At this point, she knew that she was going to die. She was fearless and there was no fear.

“This person was born into a poor family, but she relied on her own hard work to get into the Fire Code City’s Noble Academy. Her parents went bankrupt, and even sold their house to support their daughter, whom they were so proud of, to study.

“This person is a famous singer who is loved and admired by the citizens. Moreover, she is indifferent to fame and fortune and has rejected countless invitations from nobles. In the end, she made an engagement with a poor young man who had always supported her when she was young and had a crush on her.”

“This person is a teacher of the academy. This is a kind doctor. This person is...”

Seductive Fox listed them one by one for Vivian. She was hanging on the wall with an iron hook, and her entire body was charred. It was obvious that she had been burned by the scorching flames. Not only was her appearance completely destroyed, but she was also on the verge of death.

“Originally, the last seat here was supposed to be reserved for that pregnant woman, but unfortunately...I didn’t expect you to arrive so quickly...”

But I think it's enough. Do you see that, Vivian? These people, these innocent people who originally had a bright future and looked forward to a bright future, have become like me now, neither human nor ghost!!

Seductive Fox's words turned into a heart-wrenching scream.

The Fox Clan was best at attacking the heart. The best way to take revenge on a white lotus was to dye her black. This was also Seductive Fox's goal.

Taking a deep breath, the fox tore off the bandage on her body.

"And this, this is all because of you! It was you who indirectly caused them to become like this. You caused her to lose her future and her beauty. They will hate me, but they will also hate you! Why did you provoke me? Why did you turn me into this? Why did you implicate them?"

"This debt, this hatred, will follow you for the rest of your life. It will make you dream of their painful cries every night, ha...Hahaha!"

Seductive Fox had lost her mind. She had gone crazy when her face was ruined. Now that she had completed her final revenge, she had achieved her goal of disgusting Vivian.

This could be seen from the other party's reaction.

"Vivian, you..." Why did you stop me? The second personality controlling the body was anxious about the person in the mental space.

It was not that she allowed Seductive Fox to continue talking. As soon as Seductive Fox opened her mouth, the second personality sensed that something was wrong and wanted to kill her, but... The will of the main personality restricted her movements.

Then, Vivian's voice from the spiritual space gave him the answer.

“The other me...

“I’m sorry, but can you let me change back in advance? “Compared to the anxious second personality, Vivian’s tone was surprisingly calm.

“Vivian...” The second personality’s tone was complicated, as if he had expected something.

Then, as expected, the little girl’s explanation came.

“Because I want to...’

“Kill her personally.”

When Vivian opened her eyes again, there was no red light or sharpness in her eyes.

Instead, it was extremely clear.

However, for some reason, perhaps it was just as the saying said, Bloodthirsty’s massacre was not terrifying. What was terrifying was...A peaceful massacre..

Chapter 358: Thank You, Another Me

Seductive Fox did not sit still. Even though she knew that it was a death struggle, she still took out a dagger from her waist and stabbed at Vivian.

On the other hand, the little girl, Vivian, who was already in the main personality and knew nothing about close combat, did not put away the black sickle in her hand. Moreover, there was no magical wave from her body. She clumsily waved her scythe to meet the incoming Seductive Fox.

The result was not surprising.

Even though Seductive Fox was the weakest of the four leaders of the Treasure Thief Gang, her skills were still much better than a village girl.

She easily avoided Vivian's scythe and then used the dagger to cut a bloody wound on Vivian's arm.

Immediately, a burning pain came from the wound. It was obvious that Seductive Fox had applied a special poison on the dagger.

However, before the poison could take effect, Vivian felt a cool sensation on her neck. It was the token that the Fire God had given her to go to the Thousand Islands, the Water God's Chain. It easily made the wound no longer painful and eliminated the poison that had entered her body.

However, external injuries like bleeding from dagger scratches were clearly not within its scope of business.

On the other side, Seductive Fox, who had moved away, was shocked.

Even she herself did not expect that not only did she not die, she even injured the other party!?

However, Seductive Fox did not look happy after that. Instead, she became even crazier and angrier because anyone would take it for granted that Vivian was humiliating her.

In that case...

Good! Then, she would fulfill his wish!

Then, Seductive Fox and Vivian continued to fight, and the battle was one-sided. The little girl did not even know how to use the sickle, so how could she be a match for Seductive Fox, who was mainly agile?

Vivian could not even touch Seductive Fox's body, but Seductive Fox's dagger left marks on the little girl's limbs.

The Water God's Chains could resist negative states, but every time the sharp iron cut through the skin, the piercing pain could not be avoided. Vivian had to endure it time and time again.

Moreover, Seductive Fox was getting more and more addicted to fighting, and the frequency of her attacks was getting higher and higher. At first, she might have instinctively left some room for defense, but now, she had completely given up on defense. In other words, with Vivian's current attack that was like a child's play, she did not even need to defend.

Seductive Fox now knew that the little girl did not seem to be humiliating her. Instead, it was more like..Are you being silly?

"Do you think you can make up for your mistake with this? Can you offset their hatred for you?"

"You will bear this karmic debt for the rest of your life! I'll be your shadow for the rest of your life!"

Seductive Fox thought that her revenge had succeeded. Just as she expected, Vivian, who was like a white lotus, had been brought into the ditch by her. She was using this almost self-harming method to offset her guilt.

However...

Clang!

With the loud sound of metal colliding, Seductive Fox did not expect that the little girl who did not know how to use a sickle a few minutes ago could already block her dagger.

This sound seemed to announce the end of the battle and...The knell of her death.

“No, you’re wrong.”

Vivian, who had been silent since the beginning, finally spoke.

“I’m just replaying my past self so that the current me can understand the mistakes I made in the past more deeply.

He had a spell that could instantly kill Seductive Fox, but he still had to use a sickle that he didn’t know. Not only could he not kill the enemy, but he was also covered in injuries.

Just like...

“In the past, I clearly had the power to resolve everything, but I avoided it, shelved it, and timidly used it. This is why darkness like yours can grow and spread without any fear, turning into the current situation...”

Pa da...

The little girl threw away the sickle in her hand. This was a weapon that she did not know how to use yet.

Then, a long delayed terrifying magical wave burst out from Vivian’s body.

When Seductive Fox reacted and tried to attack again, she was completely defenseless. She could not even get close to Vivian. She was surrounded by the magic barrier and could not move.

“Therefore, the current me...” Vivian looked calmly at the struggling Seductive Fox.

“I have to correct this mistake.”

As soon as the little girl finished speaking, the magic barrier that had trapped Seductive Fox from all sides began to compress inward like four walls, squeezing Seductive Fox's body.

"You... Uhh...You..."

Seductive Fox wanted to make a sound, but the intense pressure first twisted her limbs, followed by her chest, and finally...

Bang!

Clean and neat.

The four magic barriers stuck together and crushed the Seductive Fox in the center. After the barrier was removed, all that was left was a pool of blood and a deformed corpse of the Seductive Fox.

After doing all this.

It was as if he could no longer hold on.

Plop!

'Ugh...'

Vivian knelt on the ground. The little girl retched violently, and tears welled up in her eyes. She looked at her blood-stained hands and was full of strangeness and confusion about her current appearance. All kinds of complicated emotions surged into her mind, giving Vivian a splitting headache.

In a place where the little girl could not see, a few wisps of black fog seemed to be born from the void and quietly infiltrated Vivian's soul..

Chapter 359: Thank You, The Other Me

However, at this moment.

It's all in the past, Vivian." Another voice sounded in the soul space.

Her voice was gentle and healing. It was hard to imagine that this was something that the second personality could say.

Then, a black shadow that looked exactly like the little girl appeared behind Vivian. Her hands formed a ring and hugged the tormented Vivian from behind.

At the same time, an even more miraculous scene happened.

The black fog that had been integrated into Vivian's soul was attracted by the second personality and the little girl's embrace like metal meeting a magnet. It flowed from Vivian's body into the second personality's body and disappeared.

After absorbing the black fog of the same color, the blurry shadow of the second personality actually became more solid.

But in short, when the black fog disappeared, Vivian's mood seemed to have improved greatly.

Her body was no longer trembling, and her chaotic mind gradually returned to normal. The black fog was like a combination of negative emotions. Now that it was stripped out, Vivian felt much better, no longer negative and painful.

"Thank you..." The other me."

"It's good to have you here." Unbeknownst to her, Vivian took it as the power of a hug.

The second personality was also completely unaware of the black fog. Everything seemed to have been done quietly behind the scenes.

Plus, she was so focused on Vivian that she did not feel the changes in her body at all.

Therefore, the second personality was still a little surprised. He did not expect her hug to be so effective, instantly making Vivian regain her composure.

It was impossible to say that he was not secretly happy.

What did this prove?

It proved her importance in Vivian's heart!

If it was someone else's hug, how could it have such an effect?

"Alright, alright, stop crying. Your face is all messed up! It's completely over now. Let's go home. There are still many people waiting for you..."

The second personality had read a psychology book before. It said that when comforting someone, one should not let the other party feel lonely. One should list more relatives and friends so that the other party could recall good memories and escape from sadness.

Hence...

"That Earl's daughter, the little maid by your side, that stinky hooligan who's been plotting against you, oh, and that little mage whose strength seems to be so-so, and..."

As he spoke, the second personality could not continue.

At first, she was still consoling him, but later on, the expression on her face became more and more angry.

“Hey, hey, hey! He really didn’t know until he counted. Once he counted... I’m so angry! I’m so angry! Good for you, Vivian!

Why are you making so many friends outside! Did you get my permission? Did you get my approval? Damn it...Damn it, damn it!”

When the second personality gritted his teeth and spoke in a sour voice, the little girl burst out laughing.

She turned her head and saw the furious black shadow with its hands on its hips. When it felt her gaze on it, it proudly turned its face to the side.

“Eh? Speaking of which, is this the first time we’re talking face to face? The other me, I always felt...Your shadow seems to have become much more real!

Vivian opened her mouth happily, but she could not help but reach out to touch her other shadow.

However, this gave the second personality a fright.

She instantly rushed back into Vivian’s body and returned to the spiritual space, not giving the little girl a chance to touch her at all.

“That’s great...”I really hope that one day, you won’t have to share your body with me anymore. You can have your own body. At that time, you can do all kinds of things that you like in reality. You won’t have to be a bystander anymore...”

Vivian said with a hint of regret and anticipation.

However, the second personality’s disdainful voice came from his mind.

“Humph! I don’t want to. I feel good staying here. Reality is too troublesome, and...If I’m not by your side at all times, can you do it?”

“Hehe... But the other one you just said is wrong, those people you said are not only my friends, but also your friends, and... You forgot about Xiao Hei!” The second personality pursed his lips after Vivian’s main point.

“Xiao Hei? Hmph, you think that little wolf is your friend? I think they’re already family, right? They were not on the same level, so why did they have to put them together?”

“Oh, that’s true...I didn’t expect that the other me, Xiao Hei, had such a high position in your heart...”
Vivian nodded in agreement.

“Bah! No! Would I like him? Don’t joke! An anxious denial sounded in his mind.

“You’re lying.”

“You’re lying.”

“No, I haven’t.”

“You don’t like Little Black.”

“No!” The sound of the table being slammed!

After a few seconds of silence, the angry second personality only asked, “Are you a child? “Then, he fled in a panic and no longer made a sound.

After a little fun with the second personality, Vivian’s mood had stabilized a lot.

She looked at Seductive Fox's secret chamber and took a deep breath. The strong smell of blood wafted over, but this time, the little girl was no longer disgusted or retching. She endured the discomfort and pain in her heart and carefully moved the charred bodies that had been tortured by Seductive Fox down..

Chapter 360: Thank You, Another Me

She clasped her fingers together and prayed. Then, she burned the corpse into ashes and kept the ashes.

After doing all this, she went out and saw Nana, who had already fainted from fear. Vivian quickly went over to help her up. After feeling her body for a while, she let out a long sigh. At least...She had saved someone.

No, two.

Vivian stroked the little life that was growing on Nana's protruding belly.

The little girl picked up Nana and was about to leave to find the hospital.

But at this moment, a series of footsteps suddenly sounded from outside the door. Just as Vivian subconsciously tightened her body, thinking that it was some remaining members of the treasure thieves...

What soon appeared in front of her was a figure that surprised Vivian.

"Elena?"

Seeing the familiar maid outfit, the little girl let down her guard and then asked with some doubt,

"You, how did you follow me here?"

It's Damir. Town Mayor Thorin was afraid that you would be at a disadvantage, so he told Damir about it. I also teleported here, wondering if I could... Uh, I can help you."

Elena quickly explained, as if she had already thought of a reason.

With her trust in the little maid, Vivian did not notice anything unusual. Instead, she was a little happy because she really needed someone to take care of Nana.

The two of them worked together and found the nearest hospital. After settling Nana down, when they came out again...

The maid, Elina, suddenly realized that there was a very small syringe in her hand.

Did he accidentally bring it from the hospital?

Elena felt strange.

In fact, she did not know when it started. Perhaps it was when Vivian went to Fire Code City. She felt that it was strange. From time to time, she had a feeling... He lost his memory, lost his memories, and when he came back to his senses, he was doing strange things. If one had to describe it, this feeling was like...

Sleepwalking?

Not good, that feeling came again...

Elena suddenly covered her head.

A mechanical voice that even she herself could not detect began to mutter from her mouth.

“Test subject...K421... Activating...Progress...54%...

“Hint...Hint... Witch factor detected...The test subject’s level had been upgraded to the level of a person in the United States. Data upload...

Wait for the instructions from the mainframe...

“Data exchange completed...Switch mode...Remote control...Activate...”

“Harmonization Strengthening Needle...Acquiring success...Ready for injection...3... 2...

1...”

Just as she was about to read ‘1’, the needle was about to pierce her arm.

Suddenly, just like how the Oracle had mentioned the word ‘stay,’ it stimulated Elina. Now, the ‘needle’ also stimulated the maid, causing her to wake up in an instant.

Of course, this sobriety was not complete. It was as if he had just woken up from a dream, and he could only instinctively stare in a daze.

Needles...

How did she get the needles mentioned in the oracle?

Elina tried hard to recall the remaining memory fragments in her mind.

Oh, right, she remembered.

Irina raised her head and looked at Vivian, who was not far away.

The oracle said, to put the needle... Only by stabbing at the person who served her could she retain her humanity. With Elina's current blurry consciousness, she had no idea what the latter half of the sentence meant.

However, she knew that the oracle would not harm her. If she followed the oracle's instructions, it would definitely be beneficial to her..
